The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the name of the lease is not contained in the offering sheet immediately preceding Division I;

(2) In that under Division II, Item 7 (c), the names of the persons to whom the rental is payable are omitted;

(3) In that by reason of the information disclosed under Division II, Item 6 (d), and Exhibit B, the statement made under Division II, Item 8 (a), is not believed to be correct;

(4) In that the plat attached to the offering sheet as Exhibit A is incomplete in the following particulars:

(a) Name of the operator omitted;
(b) Legend of symbols omitted;
(c) Location of proposed well omitted;
(d) Location of "English well", referred to in Item 20 (a), omitted;
(e) Scale of property omitted;

(5) In that the information required to be given under Division II, Items 21, 22, and 23, is not included as a part of the Geologist's Report, as required by the instructional note set forth under "Geological Report" of Commission's Schedule D, nor is the consent of the geologist, L. Douglas Wise, for the use of his report as a part of the offering sheet, in the proper form;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such

Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE OPERATION OF THE DRAWBRIDGE OF THE NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD BRIDGE ACROSS PEEKSKILL (ANNSVILLE) CREEK, NEW YORK

THE LAW

The River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894, contains the following section:

SEC. 5. That it shall be the duty of all persons owning, operating, and tending the drawbridges now built, or which may hereafter be built across the navigable rivers and other waters of the United States, to open, or cause to be opened, the draws of such bridges under such rules and regulations as in the opinion of the Secretary of War the public interests require to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law. Every such person who shall willfully fail or refuse to open, or cause to be opened, the draw of any such bridge for the passage of a boat or boats, or who shall unreasonably delay the opening of said draw after reasonable signal shall have been given, as provided in such regulations, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars nor less than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) for not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the proper action to enforce the provisions of this section may be commenced before any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States, and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States: Provided further, That whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, the public interests require it, he may make rules and regulations to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law, and any violation thereof shall be punished as hereinbefore provided.

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the foregoing law, the following special regulations are prescribed to govern the operation of the drawbridge crossing at the mouth of Peekskill (Annsville) Creek, one-half mile northwest of Peekskill, New York.

1. The owner of or agency controlling the bridge will not be required to keep a draw tender in constant attendance at the bridge.

2. Whenever a vessel unable to pass under the closed bridge desires to pass through the draw, at least 96 hours' advance notice of the time the opening is required shall be given, by telephone or otherwise, to the authorized representative of the owner of, or agency controlling, the bridge.

3. Upon receipt of such notice, the authorized representative of the owner of or agency controlling the bridge will arrange for the prompt opening of the draw span in accordance therewith. The opening will be between the hours of 11:00 A. M. and 2:00 P. M., except for vessels owned, controlled or employed by the United States Government, or by the State of New York for whom the bridge shall be opened at any time during the day or night upon 96 hours' advance notice.

4. The owner of, or agency controlling the bridge, shall keep conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides of the bridge in a manner that it can easily be read at any time a copy of these regulations together with a notice stating exactly how the representative specified in paragraph 2 may be reached.

5. The operating machinery of the draw shall be maintained in a serviceable condition, and the draw opened and closed at intervals frequent enough to make certain that the machinery is in proper order for satisfactory operation.

6. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof and the regulations approved March 29, 1921, to govern the above named bridge are hereby revoked.

Approved July 20, 1937.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

DETERMINATION OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE GREATER BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacted and further amended Public, No. 10, 73d Congress, hereinafter called the act, having reason to believe that the issuance of an amendment to a tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order theretofore issued with respect to the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, gave, on the 24th day of June, 1937, notice of hearings to be held on the 30th day of June, 1937, at St. Johnsbury, Vermont, on the 1st day of July, 1937, at Boston, Massachusetts, and on the 2nd day of July, 1937, at Augusta, Maine, on a proposed amendment to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order theretofore issued regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, at which times and places all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on the proposed amendment; and

Whereas, after such hearings and after the tentative approval by the Secretary on the 10th day of July, 1937, of an amendment to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, handlers of more than 50 percentum of the volume of milk covered by such order, as amended, which is produced or marketed within the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, refused or failed to sign such marketing agreement, as amended, relating to milk:

Now, therefore, the Secretary of Agriculture, by virtue of the authority vested in him by the act, does hereby determine:

1. That the refusal or failure of said handlers to sign the said marketing agreement, as amended, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act; and

2. That the issuance of the amendment to the order is the only practical means, pursuant to such policy, of advancing the interests of producers of milk in said area; and

3. That the issuance of the amendment to the order is approved or favored by over 70 per centum of the producers who, during the month of May, 1937, said month being here and now determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, have been engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said area, and who participated in a referendum conducted by the Secretary on July 17, 1937.

In witness whereof, I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, have executed this determination and have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 27th day of July, 1937.

Approved:

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT, The President of the United States.

Dated: July 27, 1937.

ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE ISSUED PURSUANT TO THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING AGREEMENT ACT OF 1937, APPROVED JUNE 3, 1937 (PUBLIC 137, 75TH CONGRESS) AMENDING ORDER NO. 4 REGULATING THE HANDLING IN INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE, AND SUCH HANDLING AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS, OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE, OF MILK IN THE GREATER BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA

Whereas pursuant to Public, No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, the Secretary of Agriculture, hereinafter called the Secretary, on January 18, 1936, tentatively approved a marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area; and

Whereas, on February 7, 1936, the Secretary issued Order No. 4 regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, said order being effective 12:01 a. m. eastern standard time, February 9, 1936; and

Whereas, the Secretary, having reason to believe that an amendment should be made to said tentatively approved marketing agreement and to said order, gave, on the 24th day of June 1937, notice of a hearing to be held on the 30th day of June 1937 at St. Johnsbury, Vermont, on the 1st day of July 1937 at Boston, Massachusetts, and on the 2nd day of July 1937 at Augusta, Maine, on a proposed amendment to said tentatively approved marketing agreement and said order, and at said times and places conducted a public hearing at which all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on the proposed amendment to said tentatively approved marketing agreement and to said order; and

Whereas, after such hearing and after the approval by the Secretary, in accordance with the powers and functions vested in him by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacted and further amended Public, No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, said Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act being hereinafter referred to as the act, on the 10th day of July 1937, of an amendment to said tentatively approved marketing agreement, handlers of more than 50 per centum of the volume of milk covered by such order, as amended, which is marketed within the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, relating to milk; and

Whereas, the Secretary determined on the 27th day of July 1937, said determination being approved by the President of the United States on the 27th day of July 1937, that said refusal or failure tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of said act, and that the issuance of this amendment to said order is the only practical means, pursuant to such policy, of advancing the interests of producers of milk in said area, and is approved or favored by over 70 per centum of the producers who, during the month of May 1937, said month being determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, have been engaged in the production of milk for sale in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, and who voted in a referendum conducted by the Secretary of Agriculture on July 17, 1937; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds upon the evidence introduced at the hearing upon such proposed amendment, said findings being in addition to the findings made upon the evidence introduced at the hearing on said order, said original findings being herewith ratified and affirmed by the Secretary save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth:

1. That the minimum prices fixed by this amendment are reasonable and justified by the economic data submitted at the aforementioned hearings; that the prices fixed by this amendment will, over a period of time, tend to give milk sold in the marketing area a purchasing power with respect to articles that producers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk in the base period; that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which were declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish; that the method provided for fixing the Class II price is a method which bears a direct and reasonable relationship to the price of cream in the above market;

2. That in view of changes in economic conditions since the date of the original findings, the payment to all producers and associations of producers delivering milk to all handlers of uniform prices for milk so delivered, without the use of a base-rating plan, but with the inclusion of special location differentials, is a fair and reasonable method of distributing to producers the proceeds of sales of milk to handlers;

3. That in view of State laws covering the giving of security by handlers, the giving of security to the Market Administrator for payments to be made by each handler is no longer necessary in order to insure the payment to producers of the minimum prices fixed in the order;

4. That all the remaining provisions of this amendment are necessary to effectuate the other provisions of the order, as amended;

5. That the order, as amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to handlers specified in the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, upon which hearings have been held; and

6. That the issuance of the amendment to the order and all of the terms and conditions of the order, as amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Now, therefore, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority vested in him by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacted and further amended Public, No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, hereby orders that Order No. 4 regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, issued by the Secretary on February 7, 1936, be and it is hereby amended as follows:

A. Delete paragraphs 1, 5, and 9 from section 1 of article I and insert the following as new paragraphs 1 and 5 of section 1 of article I:

1. "Act" means the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 which reenacts and further amends Public, No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended.

5. "Producer" means any person who, in conformity with the health regulations which are applicable to milk which is sold for consumption as milk in the marketing area, produces milk and distributes or delivers to a handler milk of his own production.

B. Delete paragraph 5 from section 4 of article II and insert in lieu thereof the following:

5. Publicly disclose to handlers and producers, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, the name of any person, who within 15 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts has not (a) made reports pursuant to article V or (b) made payments pursuant to article VIII;

C. Delete article III and insert in lieu thereof the following:

ARTICLE III. CLASSIFICATION OF MILK

SECTION 1. Sales and Use Classification.—Milk purchased or handled by handlers shall be classified as follows:

1. All milk sold or distributed as milk, chocolate milk, or flavored milk and all milk not specifically accounted for as Class II milk shall be Class I milk; and

2. Milk specifically accounted for (a) as being sold, distributed, or disposed of other than as milk, chocolate milk, or flavored milk and (b) as actual plant shrinkage within reasonable limits shall be Class II milk.

SEC. 2. Interhandler or Nonhandler Sales.—Milk, including skim milk, sold by a handler to another handler or to a person who is not a handler and who distributes milk or manufactures milk products shall be presumed to be Class I milk. In the event that such selling handler, on or before the date fixed for filing reports pursuant to article V, notifies the Market Administrator that such milk, or a part thereof, has been sold or used by such purchaser other than as Class I milk, such milk, or part thereof, shall be classified as Class II milk; provided, that if such selling handler does not, on or before the 15th day after the end of the delivery period during which such sale was made, furnish proof satisfactory to the Market Administrator in support of the above notification, such milk or part thereof shall then be classified as Class I milk and so included in the statement rendered to the selling handler pursuant to paragraph 3 of section 1 of article VIII.

D. Delete sections 1, 2, and 3 of article IV and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SECTION 1. Class I Prices to Associations of Producers.—Each handler shall pay any association of producers for Class I milk containing 3.7 percent butterfat not less than the following prices:

1. $3.31 per hundredweight for such milk delivered from the plant of such association to such handler's plant located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston;

2. $3.26 per hundredweight for such milk delivered from the plant of such association to such handler at a railroad delivery point not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston; and

3. If such milk is delivered containing butterfat more or less than 3.7 percent such handler shall add or subtract, as the case may be, a differential for each one-tenth of one percent above or below 3.7 percent, which differential is the result of dividing by 330 the cream price used in paragraph 1 of section 3 of this article.

SEC. 2. Class I Prices to Producers.—Each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in article VIII, for Class I milk delivered by them, not less than the following prices:

1. $3.19 per hundredweight for such milk delivered from producers' farms to such handler's plant located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston;

2. $3.01 per hundredweight for such milk delivered from producers' farms to such handler's plant located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, less an amount per hundredweight equal to the freight from the railroad shipping point for such handler's plant to such handler's railroad delivery point in the Marketing Area. Such freight shall be calculated according to applicable rail tariffs for the transportation in carload lots of milk in 40-quart cans and each such can shall be considered to contain 85 pounds of milk;

3. For the purpose of this section the milk which was sold or distributed during each delivery period, by each handler, as Class I milk shall be presumed to have been that milk which was received at such handler's plant located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston (a) directly from producers' farms and (b) from the nearest plants located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston.

SEC. 3. Class II Prices.—Each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in article VIII, for Class II milk not less than the following prices per hundredweight:

1. In the case of such milk delivered to a handler's plant located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, a price which the Market Administrator shall calculate as follows: Divide by 33 the weighted average price per 40-quart can of bottling quality cream in the Boston market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk is delivered, multiply the result by 3.7, add 2.125 times the average of the weekly quotations per pound of domestic, 20–30 mesh, casein in bags delivered in carload lots at New York, as published by the Oil, Paint and Drug Reporter during such delivery period, and subtract 42 cents; and

2. In the case of such milk delivered to a handler's plant located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, the price calculated by the Market Administrator, pursuant to paragraph 1 of this section, minus 6 cents.

E. Delete the words following the word "handlers" in paragraph 1 of section 1 of article V; and delete section 3 of article V, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 3. Reports of Payments to Producers.—Each handler shall submit to the Market Administrator within 30 days after the end of each delivery period his producer pay roll for such delivery period which shall show for each producer: (a) The total delivery of milk with the average butterfat test thereof and (b) the net amount of such producer's payment, with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

F. Delete section 2 of article VI and substitute therefor the following:

SEC. 2. Milk Purchased from Producers.—In the case of a handler who is also a producer and who purchased milk from producers, the Market Administrator shall, before making the computations set forth in article VII, (a) exclude from such handler's Class I milk up to but not exceeding 90 percent of the quantity of milk produced and sold by him, (b) exclude the milk purchased by him in each class from other handlers, and (c) exclude from his remaining Class II milk the balance of the milk produced and sold by him.

G. Delete article VII and insert in lieu thereof the following:

ARTICLE VII. DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICES TO PRODUCERS

SECTION 1. Computation of Value of Milk for Each Handler.—For each delivery period the Market Administrator shall compute, subject to the provisions of article VI, the value of milk sold or used by each handler, which was not purchased from other handlers, by (a) multiplying the quantity of such milk in each class by the price applicable pursuant to sections 2, 3, and 4 of article IV and (b) adding together the resulting value of each class.

SEC. 2. Computation and Announcement of Uniform Prices.—The Market Administrator shall compute and announce the uniform prices per hundredweight of milk delivered during each delivery period in the following manner:

1. Combine into one total the respective values of milk, computed pursuant to section 1 of this article, for each handler who made the report as required by section 1 of article V for such delivery period and who made the payments required by article VIII for milk received during the delivery period next preceding but one;

2. Add the total net amount of the differentials applicable pursuant to section 4 of article VIII;

3. Subtract the total amount to be paid to producers pursuant to paragraph 2 of section 1 of article VIII;

4. Divide by the total quantity of milk which is included in these computations, except that milk required to be paid for pursuant to paragraph 2 of section 1 of article VIII;

5. Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents for the purpose of retaining a cash balance in connection with the payments set forth in paragraph 3 of section 1 of article VIII;

6. Add an amount which will prorate, pursuant to section 3 of this article, any cash balance available; and

7. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period mail to all handlers and publicly announce (a) such of these computations as do not disclose information confidential pursuant to the act, (b) the blended price per hundredweight which is the result of these computations, and (c) the Class II price.

SEC. 3. Proration of Cash Balance.—For each delivery period the Market Administrator shall prorate, by an appropriate addition pursuant to section 2 of this article, the cash balance, if any, in his hands from payments made by handlers for milk received during the delivery period next preceding but one, to meet obligations arising out of paragraph 3 of section 1 of article VIII.

H. Delete articles VIII and IX and insert in lieu thereof the following:

ARTICLE VIII. PAYMENTS FOR MILK

SECTION 1. Time and Method of Payment.—On or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall make payment, subject to the butterfat differential set forth in section 3 of this article, for the total value of milk received during such delivery period as required to be computed pursuant to section 1 of article VII, as follows:

1. To each producer, except as set forth in paragraph 2 of this section, at the blended price per hundredweight computed pursuant to section 2 of article VII, subject to the differentials set forth in section 4 of this article, for the quantity of milk delivered by such producer;

2. To any producer, who did not regularly sell milk for a period of 30 days prior to the effective date hereof to a handler or to persons within the Marketing Area, at the Class II price, in effect for the plant at which such producer delivered milk, for all the milk delivered by such producer during the period beginning with the first regular delivery of such producer and continuing until the end of two full calendar months following the first day of the next succeeding calendar month;

3. To producers, through the Market Administrator, by paying to or receiving from the Market Administrator, as the case may be, the amount by which the payments made pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2 of this section are less than or exceed the value of milk as required to be computed for such handler pursuant to section 1 of article VII, as shown in a statement rendered by the Market Administrator on or before the 20th day after the end of such delivery period.

SEC. 2. Errors in Payment.—Errors in making any of the payments prescribed in this article shall be corrected not later than the date for making payments next following the determination of such errors.

SEC. 3. Butterfat Differential.—If any producer has delivered to any handler during any delivery period milk having an average butterfat content other than 3.7 percent, such handler shall, in making the payments prescribed by paragraphs 1 and 2 of section 1 of this article to such producer, add for each one-tenth of one percent of average butterfat content above 3.7 percent, or deduct for each one-tenth of one percent of average butterfat content below 3.7 percent, an amount per hundredweight which shall be calculated by the Market Administrator as follows: Divide by 33 the weighted average price per 40-quart can of bottling quality cream in the Boston market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk is delivered, subtract 8 cents, and divide the result by 10.

SEC. 4. Location Differentials.—The payments to be made to producers by handlers pursuant to paragraph 1 of section 1 of this article shall be subject to differentials as follows:

1. With respect to milk delivered by a producer to a handler's plant located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, there shall be deducted an amount per hundredweight equal to the freight (considering 85 pounds of milk per can), according to the tariff currently approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission for the transportation, in carload lots of milk in 40-quart cans, to Boston from the zone of location of the handler's plant.

2. With respect to milk delivered by a producer to a handler's plant located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, there shall be added 18 cents per hundredweight.

3. With respect to milk delivered by a producer whose farm is located more than 40 miles, but not more than 80 miles, from the State House in Boston, there shall be added 23 cents per hundredweight.

4. With respect to milk delivered by a producer whose farm is located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, there shall be added 46 cents per hundredweight unless such addition gives a result greater than $3.19, in which event there shall be added an amount which will give a result of $3.19.

SEC. 5. Other Differentials.—In making the payments to producers set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 of section 1 of this article, handlers may make deductions as follows:

1. With respect to all milk delivered by producers to the plant of a handler which is located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston and which is located more than two miles from a railroad shipping point, an amount not greater than 10 cents per hundredweight; provided, that such deduction has been approved and made public by the Market Administrator prior to the time of payment.

2. With respect to milk delivered by producers to a handler's plant which is located more than 14 miles, but not more than 40 miles, from the State House in Boston, an amount equal to 10 cents per hundredweight of Class I milk actually sold or distributed in the Marketing Area from such plant, such total amount to be deducted pro rata on all milk delivered by such producers.

3. With respect to milk delivered by producers to any handler's plant from which the average daily shipment of Class I milk during any delivery period is less than 21,500 pounds, an aggregate amount, prorated among producers delivering milk to such plant equal to the difference between the freight to the marketing area at the carload rate and at the less than carload rate for the Class I milk shipped during such delivery period.

ARTICLE IX. MARKETING SERVICES

SECTION 1. Deductions for Marketing Services.—Except as set forth in section 2, each handler shall deduct an amount not exceeding 2 cents per hundredweight (the exact amount to be determined by the Market Administrator, subject to review by the Secretary) from the payments made direct to producers pursuant to article VIII with respect to all milk delivered to such handler during each delivery period by producers and shall pay such deductions to the Market Administrator on or before the 25th day after the end of such delivery period. Such monies shall be expended by the Market Administrator for market information to and for verification of weights, sampling, and testing of milk purchased from said producers.

SEC. 2. Producers' Cooperative Association.—In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association, which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the Act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act", is actually performing, as determined by the Secretary, the services set forth in section 1 of this article, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deductions specified in section 1 of this article, such deductions from the payments to be made direct to such producers, pursuant to article VIII, as are authorized by such producers and, on or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period, pay over such deductions to the association rendering such service.

I. Delete article XI and renumber the remaining articles consecutively beginning with the number XI.

Now, therefore, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, acting under the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacted and further amended Public, No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, does hereby execute in duplicate and issue this amendment to Order No. 4 regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area under his hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture, in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, on this 28th day of July 1937, and, pursuant to the provisions hereof, declares this amendment to be effective on and after 12:01 a. m. eastern standard time August 1, 1937.

[Amendment No. 4 to Service and Regulatory Announcements No. 143]

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE FOR CARRYING OUT THE PROVISIONS OF THE EXPORT APPLE AND PEAR ACT

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by an "Act to promote the foreign trade of the United States in apples and/or pears, to protect the reputation of American-grown apples and pears in foreign markets, to prevent deception or misrepresentation as to the quality of such products moving in foreign commerce, to provide for the commercial inspection of such products entering such commerce, and for other purposes," approved June 10, 1933 (48 Stat. 123), entitled the "Export Apple and Pear Act," I, do make, prescribe, and give public notice of the amendment as herein set forth to the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture which were issued and effective under said Act on the 1st day of September, 1933:

Effective on and after the 1st day of August, 1937, amend the first sentence of Regulation 13 to read:

Any shipment of apples and/or pears of less than 400 bushels in packages is hereby defined as a less-than-a-carload quantity for the purposes of the Act.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington this 28th day of July 1937.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINATION OF PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES IN THE COTTON GARMENT AND ALLIED INDUSTRIES

This case is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (Public No. 846, 74th Congress) entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes." At my direction the Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, held open hearings on November 20, 1936 and December 8, 1936, with respect to the prevailing minimum wages in the men's work garment industry and held further hearings on April 22, 1937, with respect to the prevailing minimum wages in the men's sport jacket industry and the men's shirt industry, completing the consideration of the cotton garment and allied industries.

For the purposes of these investigations the cotton garment and allied industries were deemed to include the manufacture of overalls, unionalls, service uniforms, work pants and work coats, sheeplined jackets, leather jackets, mackinaws, work shirts and blouses, made of khaki, denim, drills, twills, cottonades, ducks, corduroys, or other fabrics, in whole or in part of cotton or wool.

Invitations to attend the above hearings were sent to all known trade associations and labor unions and to approximately six hundred manufacturers listed in the directories of these industries and were extended, through the national press, to all employers and employees interested. Testimony was received by the Board at these hearings and at supplemental conferences with representatives of employers and employees acting as consultants, tending to show what were the prevailing minimum wages for persons employed in these particular industries. Evidence was submitted by the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor, by the United Garment Workers of America, by the Amalgamated Clothing

Workers of America, by the United Textile Workers of America, by the International Association of Garment Manufacturers, and by other representatives of employers and employees and the public. On the basis of all this evidence, the Board has submitted findings of fact and recommendations on the prevailing minimum wages in these industries.

Of primary significance is the recommendation that the wage determination for the work clothing industry should be extended to the shirt and sport jacket industries which are in reality allied branches of the garment industry. Men's shirts and sport jackets are frequently manufactured in essentially the same factories and by the same workers as men's work clothing. This is so even though the former involves wool, leather and other materials not used in men's work clothing. In addition to this overlapping of workshop and worker, there is a uniformity in the work processes employed. All of these industries involve designing, cutting, stitching, and trimming of basically the same nature. These similarities of place, person, and process make it necessary to establish one minimum wage rate for all of these related branches of the garment industry.

The technical similarity and personal interrelationship of these industries, apparent to the layman, were regarded as cause for a uniformity of regulation by all the experts. Not only the Public Contracts Board but also the panel of employer and employee consultants for these industries were in agreement on this point. The consensus of opinion of both the labor and industry consultants on the practical necessity of a uniform wage for these branches of the garment industry was of impelling weight to the Board and to me.

This conclusion was corroborated further by the evidence of the wages being paid in these industries. The wage rates reported for each of these industries vary extremely among the levels of skills and within each occupational classification. There is no concentration of a substantial portion of all the workers at any particular wage. The similarity of the collective bargaining agreements is the only uniformity that stands out as prevailing in these industries. Hence, the only clearly prevailing minimum wage is the wage paid to the unskilled workers in the unionized plants of these garment industries.

The undisputed testimony shows that the minimum union rate for the 28–29,000 members of the United Garment Workers of America is $15.00 a week for a 40-hour week. The minimum rate for the 9,250 members of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America is $14.40 a week for a 36-hour week, which amounts to $16.00 a week for a 40-hour week. These rates are the minima for approximately 38,000 out of the 55,000 workers in the men's work clothing industry.

Upon this evidence, on January 30, 1937, I determined that the minimum wage for employees of contractors with the Government engaged in the manufacture of men's work clothing should be $15.00 per week for a week of 40 hours or 37.5 per hour.

This minimum wage of $15.00 for a 40 hour week is present in the evidence on sport jackets and shirts as well as in the evidence on the other types of work clothing. This is particularly true in those states (Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut and New Jersey) that employ about two-thirds of all the shirt workers and in those states (Illinois, Minnesota, New Jersey and New York) that employ about three-fourths of all the sport jacket workers. It is likewise true of the union establishments in all states having such establishments and so represents a prevailing wage for these industries throughout the country as a whole.

At the hearing evidence was presented tending to show that higher wages were paid to workers engaged in the production of leather and sheeplined coats and mackinaws than in the manufacture of the other garments under consideration. The leather and sheeplined coats and mackinaws require a heavier type of stitching which is done almost exclusively by men, whereas the other lighter garments are made primarily by women. Aside from this generality, however, no showing was made of the specific wage which prevails among this group of employees. And in the absence of such testimony I am unable to find any wage other than that of 37.5 cents per hour or $15.00 per week for a 40 hour week based on the similarity of the work involved in the production of these articles and the production of other garments.

It should be understood, however, that the grouping of these workers with the others under the same minimum wage determination is a temporary matter and should not be regarded as permanent.

The Public Contracts Division should immediately take steps to secure and present to the Public Contracts Board further information on this issue so as to put the Board in a position to make findings of fact and recommendations on the prevailing minimum wage of those employees engaged in the production of leather and sheeplined coats and mackinaws.

The advisability of establishing geographic differentials in these garment industries was given thorough consideration. It was demonstrated that in these industries the applicability of geographic differentials to government contracts differs materially from their applicability to private or commercial contracts. The government orders for men's work garments are restricted to a few items with specifications to which only a limited number of manufacturers are willing to adapt themselves.

The difficulties of geographic differentials were further emphasized by the evidence of the wages actually being paid in these industries. Existing differences defied any regional apportionment.

In the men's sport jacket industry information was presented concerning firms in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania in the East; Minnesota, Illinois, Ohio and Wisconsin in the Middle West and Tennessee in the South. The range of rates among the firms in one state is greater than the difference in rates between any two states or regions. In New Jersey, the median hourly earnings range from 27.5 cents to 54.2 cents an hour. In Illinois they range from 38.1 cents to 62.4 cents an hour. The ranges within all the several states overlap each other and the difference between South and East or East and Middle West is much less than the difference between firms within the same state.

Similarly in the men's shirt industry, the states within a geographic region vary more among themselves than do the geographic regions. Delaware and Maryland, in the reputedly higher paid East, have average hourly earnings of 24.1 and 26.7 cents respectively, while average hourly earnings in Kentucky and Georgia, in the reputedly lower paid South, are 30 and 36.3 cents respectively. The variation among individual plants within each state show the same inconsistencies and much overlapping. The evidence clearly demonstrates the impossibility of segregating any geographic differential wage areas on the basis of actually prevailing wages in the shirt or the sport jacket industry. The reasonable conclusion must be against the establishment of geographic differentials in these industries.

The evidence presented at the hearings indicates that although there is a continuous need for replenishing these industries with new employees and for maintaining those whom age and inability have made less efficient, this can be accomplished by permitting a tolerance from the wage requirement for a limited number of learners, handicapped and superannuated workers not to exceed 20% of all the employees in any establishment. The learners in the garment industry were estimated to equal approximately 5 to 6% of all workers in the industry. The labor and industry members of the advisory panel, however, unanimously recommended a 20% tolerance for learners, superannuated and handicapped workers and I am accepting this recommendation. The number of handicapped and superannuated workers was unknown. The extent of this tolerance conforms to the present need of these industries on government contracts; however, it should not be regarded as settled permanently. In order to safeguard the workers against abuse of this exception to the established minimum wage, the Division of Public Contracts should make further studies of this situation so that the Secretary's decision may be supplemented from time to time by appropriate regulations.

Therefore, I hereby determine—

(1) That the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, approved June 30, 1936, for the manufacture or supply of the following commodities, whether made of wool or cotton:

Men's and youths' trousers and knickers (except those made wholly of wool)
Shirts and nightwear (including flannel)
Men's and youths' work shirts
Men's, youths', and boys' sleeping garments
Overalls, overall jackets, and one-piece overall suits
Work pants and breeches (except those made wholly of wool)
Work and other short coats
Windbreakers and lumberjackets (excluding mackinaws and leather and sheeplined coats)
Oiled waterproof cotton outergarments
Men's and youths' wash suits
Washable service apparel (hospital, professional, etc.)
Blanket-lined and similar coats
Other cotton outerwear, men's, youths' shall be 37.5¢ per hour or $15.00 per week for a week of 40 hours, to be arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, and

(2) That in accordance with the recommendation of the advisory panel, a tolerance not to exceed 10% of the workers in any one establishment be granted for those workers who are in fact learners, provided that such learners be paid not less than $8.00 per week for the first four weeks, $10.00 for the next four weeks, and $12.00 for the third four week period after which they shall receive $15.00, provided that they be paid during the twelve weeks learning period not less than the piece rates paid to the workers in the same establishment and provided further that such learners be on the pay roll at the time performance of the contract is started; and that an additional tolerance of 10% be granted for those workers who are in fact handicapped or superannuated, provided that they be paid not less than the piece rates paid to the workers in the same establishment; and provided further that all such learners, handicapped or superannuated workers be qualified for such exemption in accordance with such requirements as may be hereafter established.

This determination shall become effective and shall apply to all contracts awarded subject to Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, on or after August 2, 1937.

Dated this 28 day of July, 1937.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY OF LABOR IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGE IN THE MEN'S HAT AND CAP INDUSTRY

This case is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress), entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes." At my direction the Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, has been engaged in the consideration of the wages paid in the various garment industries, and on April 21, 1937, it held a public hearing on the prevailing minimum wages in the men's hat and cap industry.

Invitations to attend this hearing were sent to 11 trade associations and labor unions and to the 70 manufacturers listed in directories of the industry and were extended, through the national press, to all other employers and employees interested. Testimony was presented by representatives of the National Headwear Manufacturers Association and the United Hat, Cap and Millinery Workers International Union, as well as by individual employers and members of the public. A special study by the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor was also presented. On the basis of all this evidence, the Board has submitted findings of fact and recommendations on the prevailing minimum wage in this industry.

The undisputed evidence of the types of hats and caps purchased by the Government indicates that those hats are manufactured by what is commonly known as the uniform branch of the industry as distinguished from the civilian branch of the industry. Approximately 85% of the workers in the uniform branch of the industry are unionized and are paid in accordance with similar collective bargaining agreements. These agreements constitute clearly the prevailing wages of the industry and the prevailing minimum wage in these agreements is 67.5 cents per hour or $27.00 per week for a forty hour week.

At the hearing evidence was submitted that showed the existence of several definite occupational classifications and the request was made by representatives of labor that a minimum wage should be established by the Secretary of Labor for each such classification. The Acting Solicitor of Labor has advised me that the act authorizes the fixing of only one minimum wage in an industry and does not permit the establishment of occupational minima. In view of such ruling, the request mentioned above must be and is hereby refused.

The only evidence presented on the question of geographic differentials by both employers and employees was against the establishment of such differentials. There are practically no hat and cap plants in the South and the differences that exist between plants in the East and the Middle West do not warrant the establishment of an East-West differential. The government market for hats and caps is distinctly national. Competitive bids are received for the same orders from all places of manufacture and a geographic differential would merely give an undue advantage to certain manufacturers to the prejudice of their competitors. Consequently there should be no geographic differential in the hat and cap industry.

The testimony of several of the witnesses showed that the manufacturers engaged in the production of hats and caps for the Government use only workers of a high degree of skill. It is apparently customary for workers to be trained on commercial or private work and only after years of experience to be used in the production of the so-called uniform hats and caps. Even in the making of low-priced camp hats and work caps for the Government, a higher standard of workmanship is employed than exists for high grade commercial hats. On the government hats a special lock stitch machine, which sews cloths together so that they cannot be ripped apart, is commonly used. The government inspection is exceedingly exacting and because of mass production, any imperfection may result in a heavy loss. As a result learners or other sub-average employees are not used on government work. Such being the case, there is no need for a tolerance on behalf of learners, handicapped or superannuated workers in this industry.

Therefore, I hereby determine—

(1) That the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, approved June 30, 1936, for the manufacture or supply of men's hats and caps shall be 67.5 cents per hour or $27.00 per week for a forty hour week to be arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis.

This determination shall become effective and shall apply to all contracts awarded subject to Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress on or after August 2, 1937.

Dated this 28th day of July, 1937.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGE IN THE MEN'S NECKWEAR INDUSTRY

This case is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress), entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes". At my direction, the Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, has been engaged in the consideration of the wages paid in the various garment industries, and on April 22, 1937, it held a public hearing on the prevailing minimum wages in the men's neckwear industry.

Invitations to attend this hearing were sent to the 15 trade associations and labor unions and to the 100 manufacturers listed in directories of the industry and were extended, through the national press, to all other employers and employees interested. Testimony was presented by representatives of the New York Neckwear Manufacturers Association, the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, and the American Federation of Labor, as well as by individual employers and members of the public. A special study by the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor was also presented. On the basis of all this evidence, the Board has submmitted findings of fact and recommendations on the prevailing minimum wage in this industry.

All of the evidence presented indicated that the men's neckwear industry is highly organized and that its wages are much higher than those paid in the other garment industries under consideration. The witnesses for the Union and the Manufacturers Association testified that approximately 60 percent of the industry is governed by collective bargaining agreements and that the wages provided in such agreements for the various occupational groupings are paid to a far greater concentration of workers within each occupational classification than any other wages. In these agreements provision is made for a weekly minimum of $50.00 for cutters and a weekly minimum of $15.00 for boxers and trimmers who are in reality regarded as beginners. The other regular production workers are covered by piece rate schedules incorporated in the agreements. The evidence establishes the fact that the actual hourly earnings based on such piece rates are not less than 50¢ per hour. It is apparent therefore that the prevailing minimum wage for the regular productive workers in the neckwear industry is 50¢ per hour or $20.00 per week for a 40 hour week.

The problem of learners in the men's neckwear industry presents an aspect slightly different from that existing in the other garment industries under review. Although the Women's Bureau study reported that the total number of learners represent less than 2 percent of the persons employed in the industry, there is undisputed evidence that many beginners are classed as boxers and trimmers. These persons, though employed for some period of time, are still regarded as beginners. They are in effect learners who have been assigned to certain unskilled productive tasks. A tolerance made to permit the development of new personnel in the industry should recognize those beginners who are engaged as boxers or trimmers as well as those beginners who are engaged as learners on all other types of work. From an examination of the evidence paid such workers in the industry, it appears advisable that a tolerance of 10 percent of the workers employed in any one establishment be granted for learners, superannuated and handicapped workers exclusive of boxers and trimmers and that an additional tolerance be granted for all persons actually employed as boxers and trimmers. All of these exempted employees should be paid at least the prevailing piece rate paid to other employees but not less than 37.5 cents per hour or $15.00 per week for a forty-hour week. The extent of this tolerance conforms to the present need of the industry on government contracts; however, it should not be regarded as settled permanently. In order to avoid hardship to employers with newly established plants and at the same time to safeguard the workers against the abuses of these exceptions to the established minimum wage, the Division of Public Contracts should make further studies of the situation so that this decision may be supplemented from time to time by appropriate regulations.

There was no request for a geographic differential in the men's neckwear industry. Forty-one percent of the industry is located in New York City and its immediate environs, 35 percent in the eastern states, 18 percent in the midwestern states and 6 percent in the far western states. There is practically no manufacture of neckwear in the South. Each of the states of Tennessee, Texas, North Carolina and Georgia produces less than one-tenth of one percent of the output of the industry. The wage variations throughout the country do not conform to any regional classification and there is no commercial reason for a geographic differential in the manufacture of knitted neckwear.

Since the Government makes no purchases of knitted neckwear, no consideration has been given to the wages paid in the men's neckwear industry.

Therefore, I hereby determine—

(1) That the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States subject to the provisions of Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, approved June 30, 1936, for the manufacture and supply of men's neckwear (exclusive of knitted neckwear) shall be 50 cents per hour, or $20.00 per week for a forty hour week arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, and

(2) That a tolerance of not to exceed 10 percent of the workers in any one establishment shall be granted for those workers who are in fact learners, handicapped or superannuated workers, exclusive of boxers and trimmers, with an additional tolerance to persons actually employed as boxers and trimmers, provided that all such workers including learners, handicapped and superannuated workers and boxers and trimmers, be paid not less than 37.5 cents per hour or $15.00 per week for a forty hour week and not less than the piece rates paid to all other workers in the same occupational classification, and provided further that all such employees be qualified for such exemption in accordance with such requirements as may be established hereafter.

This determination shall become effective and shall apply to all contracts awarded subject to Public Act. No. 846, 74th Congress, on or after August 2, 1937.

Dated this 28th day of July, 1937.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGE IN THE MEN'S RAINCOAT INDUSTRY

This case is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress) entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes." At my direction the Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936 has been engaged in the consideration of the wages paid in the various garment industries, and on April 21, 1937, it held a public hearing on the prevailing minimum wages in the men's raincoat industry including the manufacture of vulcanized, rubberized and cravenette raincoats.

Invitations to attend this hearing were sent to 13 trade associations and labor unions and to the 35 manufacturers listed in the directories of this industry and were extended, through the national press, to all employers and employees interested. Testimony was presented by representatives of the International Garment Manufacturers Association and the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor. On the basis of this evidence, the Board has submitted findings of fact and recommendations on the prevailing minimum wage in this industry.

Evidence pointing to the prevailing minimum wage in the men's raincoat industry can be found both in the concentration of workers and in the average received by the lower paid workers in the industry. Although there is no concentration of more than 6% of the workers at any one specific wage, if the distribution of wages is arranged in 10-cent intervals the statistics reveal that 35.8% of all the workers studied are paid from 35 to 45¢ per hour. The mid-point of this range, or 40¢ per hour, is practically the same as the average wage for the lowest paid occupational group in the industry. The machine operators, who constitute approximately two-thirds of the workers in the industry and who, except for a very small number of incidental workers, are the lowest paid occupational group in the industry, receive an average of 40.1¢ per hour. The wage of 40¢ per hour or $16.00 per week for a 40-hour week is therefore deemed to be the prevailing minimum wage for this industry.

The men's raincoat industry exists primarily in Massachusetts and New York with scattered production in Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Indiana, New Jersey and Tennessee. There is wide variation in the rates paid by specific firms within the same state and overlapping rates among the various states. No claim has been made for a geographic differential and there is no evidence to indicate that one is desirable.

In the representative sample of the industry studied by the Women's Bureau less than 3% of the workers employed were learners. In order to provide for the necessary development of new personnel and the continued employment of superannuated and handicapped workers, a tolerance should be granted for the employment of workers beneath the established minimum wage to the extent of 10% of all the workers in any one establishment. These exempted employees should receive the prevailing piece rate and a minimum wage of at least 25% per hour or $10.00 per week for a 40-hour week. The extent of this tolerance conforms to the present need of the industry on government contracts; however, it is not to be regarded as settled permanently. In order to avoid hardship to employers with newly established plants and at the same time to safeguard the workers against abuse of this exception to the established minimum wage, the Division of Public Contracts will make further studies of this situation so that this decision may be supplemented from time to time by appropriate regulations.

Therefore, I hereby determine—

(1) That the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, approved June 30, 1936, for the manufacture or supply of men's raincoats, including the manufacture of vulcanized, rubberized and cravenette raincoats, shall be $16.00 per week for a 40 hour week or 40¢ per hour, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, and

(2) A tolerance of not to exceed 10% of the workers in any one establishment be granted for those workers who are in fact learners, handicapped or superannuated workers, subject to the conditions that they be paid not less than 25¢ per hour or $10.00 per week for a 40 hour week and not less than the piece rates paid to other workers in the same establishment and that they be qualified for such exemption in accordance with such requirements as may be established hereafter.

This determination shall become effective and shall apply to all contracts awarded subject to Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, on or after August 2, 1937.

Dated this 28th day of July, 1937.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGE IN THE MEN'S UNDERWEAR INDUSTRY

This case is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress), entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes." At my direction the Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, has been engaged in the consideration of the wages paid in the various garment industries, and on February 11, 1937, it held a public hearing on the prevailing minimum wages in the men's underwear industry.

Invitations to attend this hearing were sent to all the known trade associations and labor unions and to 574 manufacturers listed in the directories of the garment industries and were extended, through the national press, to all other employers and employees interested. Testimony was presented by representatives of the Underwear Institute, the United Textile Workers of America, the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America and the International Ladies Garment Workers of America, as well as by individual employers and members of the public. A special study by the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor was also presented.

The evidence on the nature of the underwear industry showed that it is divided into two branches, the knit and the woven. It was the opinion of both employer and employee representatives who appeared at the hearing that both branches should be combined for the purpose of determining the prevailing minimum wage. Under the NRA one code covered both branches of this industry and the general wage schedules in both divisions appear to be practically the same. For these reasons I conclude that for the purpose of this act the underwear industry shall be deemed to include both the knit and woven divisions.

Two separate findings of fact and recommendations were filed by the Board, one by the Chairman and the other by the associate member. In the Chairman's opinion a prevailing minimum wage of 37.5 cents per hour or $15.00 a week, based on a 40 hour week, was found on the ground of similarity between the work involved in this industry and that involved in the men's work clothing industry. In the other opinion a wage of 35 cents per hour or $14.00 per week for a 40 hour week was found, and the basis for such finding was that a concentration of almost half of the workers existed at a 10 cent interval of from 30 cents to 40 cents per hour. Additional support was found in the average hourly wage as reported by the Underwear Institute and the Women's Bureau.

Both findings and recommendations opposed the establishment of geographic differentials for the reason that a satisfactory showing had not been made for the necessity of such action.

After an examination of the record, including briefs filed subsequent to the hearing, I find that I am unable to agree with either recommendation.

The Solicitor's Office, in reviewing the testimony, has advised me as a matter of law that the weight of the evidence was in favor of a geographic differential. Unlike other cases which have previously come before the Board, certain witnesses maintained that there was a wage pattern in one industrial region which set it apart from the rest of the country and that this was a distinct industrial center for underwear manufacturing.

While reports from one or two states in this region showed higher hourly average earnings than an occasional state outside the region, the evidence did show a rough approximation to the regional differentials formerly recognized in the applicable code of fair competition under the National Industrial Recovery Act. The record as a whole indicates that the range of wages in the southern states covered a lower area than that in the northern states. For example, in New York the average wage for plants varied from 27.9

cents per hour to 50.3 cents as distinguished from a range in Tennessee, mentioned as a typical southern state, from 19.8 to 35 cents. And the combined average for the states of Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia amounts to 32.7 cents per hour as compared with an average of 34.8 cents per hour for Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Missouri, Massachusetts, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. In view of these factors, a northern and southern differential similar to that established under the N. R. A. insofar as areas are concerned, would appear to be justified.

Approaching now the question of prevailing minimum wages in each of these areas, the record shows that the cutters, knitters and machine operators are all skilled workmen. In addition, there is a variation of wages paid to members in each of these occupations to such an extent that no one group can be considered the minimum classification in this industry. Hence, it is necessary to examine the wages paid to all employees rather than to those employees in any one occupational group.

In the northern states no marked concentration of earnings was found at any one rate. A central tendency of distribution of wages was found, however, in the interval from 30 cents to 40 cents per hour in which 39.6% of the workers were listed. Likewise, in the south no concentration was found at any one rate. But the record does show that the wages of 39.4% of the workers fell in the interval from 30 cents to 35 cents per hour. The mid point of this concentration in the north is 35 cents per hour and the mid point of this concentration in the south is 32.5 cents per hour. Moreover, the average wages in each of these sections supports these conclusions. In the north the average was 34.8 cents or approximately 35 cents per hour and in the south 32.7 cents or approximately 32.5 cents per hour.

Learners in this industry, according to testimony presented at the hearing by the representatives of the Underwear Institute, are not used on government work. Hence, no reason exists for providing a tolerance for such workers. In order to provide for the continued employment of superannuated and handicapped workers, however, it appears advisable to allow a tolerance of 10% of the number employed in any one establishment for such workers. They should further be protected by the requirement of the same piece rates as paid to other workers and a minimum wage of 25 cents an hour or $10.00 a week for a forty hour week. The extent of this tolerance conforms to the present need of the industry on government contracts; however, it should not be regarded as settled permanently. In order to avoid hardship to employers with newly established plants and at the same time to safeguard the workers against abuse of this exception to the established minimum wage, the Division of Public Contracts should make further studies of this situation so that this decision may be supplemented from time to time by appropriate regulations.

Therefore, I hereby determine—

(1) That the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, approved June 30, 1936, for the manufacture and supply of men's underwear shall be (a) 32.5 cents per hour, or $13.00 per week for a week of 40 hours for employees operating in plants located in the southern area to consist of the following states: Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, and Oklahoma; (b) 35 cents per hour, or $14.00 per week for a week of 40 hours, for employees operating in plants located in the northern area to consist of all states, including the District of Columbia, other than those specifically enumerated above.

Such wages may be arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis.

(2) That a tolerance of not to exceed 10% of the workers in any one establishment be granted for those workers who are in fact handicapped or superannuated workers subject to the conditions that they be paid not less than 25 cents per hour or $10.00 per week and not less than the piece rates paid to other workers in the same establishment and that they be qualified for such exemption in accordance with such requirements as may be established hereafter.

This determination shall become effective and shall apply to all contracts awarded subject to Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, on or after August 2, 1937.

Dated this 28th day of July, 1937.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGE IN THE SEAMLESS HOSIERY INDUSTRY

This case is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress), entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes." At my direction the Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, has been engaged in the consideration of the wages paid in the various garment industries, and on April 28, 1937, it held a public hearing on the prevailing minimum wages in the seamless hosiery industry.

Invitations to attend this hearing were sent to the 17 trade associations and labor unions and to the 173 manufacturers listed in directories of the industry and were extended, through the national press, to all other employers and employees interested. Testimony was presented by representatives of the National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers, The Southern Hosiery Manufacturers Association, The American Federation of Hosiery Workers, as well as by individual employers and members of the public. A special study by the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor was also presented. On the basis of all this evidence, the Board has submitted findings of fact and recommendations on the prevailing minimum wage in this industry.

The evidence presented by the various witnesses on the wages paid in the seamless hosiery industry differed largely because of a difference in the methods employed by the witnesses in summarizing and presenting the wages studied. All of the witnesses submitted wage rates being paid in the particular industry involved. Some presented the distribution of wages for the entire industry, for the occupational groupings within the industry and for both the entire industry and the separate occupations within the various geographic areas. It was on such evidence that the Public Contracts Board made its findings and recommendations and upon which this decision is based.

The prevailing minimum wage in this industry is supported both by a concentration in the distribution of all wages and the average for the lowest paid occupational groups. The Women's Bureau study indicates that there is no concentration of more than a few per cent of the workers in any wage interval of one cent; however, when grouped in five cent intervals, outstanding concentrations are found between 30 and 35 cents an hour which include 28.3% of the workers and from 35 to 40 cents an hour which include 18.7% of the workers. 47% or approximately half of all the workers in the industry earn between 30 and 40 cents an hour. This evidence indicates clearly that 35 cents per hour or $14.00 a week for a 40 hour week is the prevailing minimum wage in the seamless hosiery industry.

Furthermore, this determination finds support in the average wage of the lowest paid occupational groups. Those groups which were listed as miscellaneous occupations under the NRA and which include such finishing operations as trimming, inspecting, mending, paring, folding, stamping, ticketing and boxing, many of which are interchangeable in smaller factories, are paid, according to the figures of the Women's Bureau study, an average wage of 35 cents per hour. The brief of the American Federation of Hosiery Workers segregates the stamping and rider ticketing workers as the lowest occupational group and reports that they earn an average of 34.9 cents or approximately 35 cents per hour.

The evidence presented by the National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers unfortunately confined itself to a selection of the minimum rates found in each plant throughout the industry and did not take into account the probability that the prevailing minimum wage for the entire personnel of an establishment or the prevailing minimum wage for the lowest occupational groups may be above the lowest wage paid to any individual in the plant. The provisions of the Public Contracts Act do not require the Secretary of Labor to determine the lowest wage paid in an industry or the average of the lowest wages paid in the various plants of an industry. The intent and purpose of the law are rather to have determined the minimum which exists for an outstanding concentration of the workers so that employers paying what is generally deemed to be fair will not suffer from the competition of employers paying unreasonably low wages. When the evidence for the distribution and concentration of wages throughout the industry and the evidence of the average wages paid within the lowest occupational groupings of the industry indicate the same prevailing minimum wage, as they do in this industry, that wage should be adopted for the purposes of the Public Contracts Act.

The evidence further establishes the impracticability of geographic differentials in the seamless hosiery industry. The average hourly earnings in the southern state of North Carolina, which is the largest producing state of seamless hosiery, is 38.3 cents per hour, while the average hourly earnings in the northern state of Pennsylvania, which is the second largest state of seamless hosiery, is 37.6 cents per hour. A differential providing a lower wage for the South and a higher wage for the North would not truly represent the conditions prevailing in these two major states. The variations among the other states likewise are not uniform throughout the geographic regions.

Moreover, there is a great variation in hourly earnings between firms in each of the states. For example in North Carolina the midpoint in hourly earnings ranged from 25.9 cents to 44.2 cents in specific firms. In Georgia the median hourly earnings in one firm were 48.1 cents while in another they were 21.3 cents. A range was found in Wisconsin from 30.5 cents to 42.3 cents and in New York from 24.4 cents to 49.7 cents. Thus it is seen that the minimum wage for this industry should make no differentiation on the basis of geographic location.

The testimony of practically all the witnesses indicates that there are very few learners in the seamless hosiery industry. Among the workers, in the study made by the Women's Bureau, only 2.3% are learners. The high standards of workmanship required by the Government specifications, enforced by rigorous inspection, apparently make it inadvisable to employ even the usual number of learners on Government work. Still, in order to provide for the necessary development of new personnel and the continued employment of superannuated and handicapped workers, it is necessary to provide a tolerance for the employment of workers beneath the established minimum wage. It appears that this may be accomplished adequately for the seamless hosiery industry by permitting a tolerance of 5% of all workers in any one establishment for learners, handicapped and superannuated workers. It was generally agreed that these exempted workers should receive the prevailing piece rate and a minimum of at least 80% of the regular minimum wage. This would call for a minimum wage of 28 cents per hour or $11.20 per week for a 40 hour week. The extent of this tolerance conforms to the present need of the industry on Government contracts; however, it should not be regarded as settled permanently. In order to avoid hardship to employers with newly established plants and at the same time to safeguard the workers against abuse of this exception to the established minimum wage, the Division of Public Contracts should make further studies of this situation so that the Secretary's decision may be supplemented from time to time by appropriate regulations.

Therefore, I hereby determine—

(1) That the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States subject to the provisions of Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, approved June 30, 1936, for the manufacture and supply of seamless hosiery, shall be $14.00 per week for a week of forty hours or 35 cents per hour, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, and

(2) A tolerance of not to exceed 5% of the workers in any one establishment is hereby granted for those workers who are in fact learners, handicapped or superannuated workers, subject to the conditions that they be paid not less than 28 cents per hour or $11.20 per week for a forty hour week and not less than the piece rates paid to other workers in the same establishment and that they be qualified for such exemption in accordance with such requirements as may be established hereafter.

This determination shall become effective and shall apply to all contracts awarded subject to Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, on or after August 2, 1937.

Dated this 28th day of July, 1937.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY IN THE MATTER OF DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGE IN THE WORK GLOVE INDUSTRY

This case is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936, (Public No. 846, 74th Congress) entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes." At my direction the Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, has been engaged in the consideration of the wages paid in the various garment industries, and on April 21, 1937, it held a public hearing on the prevailing minimum wages in the work glove industry including the manufacture of leather work gloves, leather-palm gloves, all canvas or canton flannel work gloves, knit gloves, woolen knit lined gloves and officers' white cotton gloves.

Invitations to attend this hearing were sent to the twelve trade associations and labor unions and to the forty-five manufacturers listed in the directories of the industry and were extended, through the national press, to all employers and employees interested. Testimony was presented by representatives of the Work Gloves Institute, the National Association of Leather Glove Manufacturers, the Knit Wool Manufacturers, and the International Glove Workers Union, as well as by individual employers and members of the public. A special study was presented by the Women's Bureau and a special brief from the Southern States Industrial Council was received and incorporated into the record. On the basis of all this evidence, the Board has submitted findings of fact and recommendations on the prevailing minimum wage in this industry.

The evidence presented on wages in the work glove industry indicates a prevailing minimum wage both from the concentration of wages in the industry and from the average wage of the low paid workers in the industry. Although there is no concentration of more than a few percent of the workers at any single wage, if the wage distribution is presented in intervals of 10¢ per hour, there appears a concentration of 39% of the workers who earn from 30 to 40¢ an hour. The mid-point in this range, namely 35¢ per hour, is approximately the same as the average wage for the lowest paid workers in the industry. According to the representative of the Work Glove Institute, the unskilled workers, including the receiving, shipping, packing, turning, forming, assembling, inspecting and punching workers, constitute 33% of all the employees of members of the Institute, receive an average wage of 35.5¢ per hour (when computed on a company basis) or 33.4¢ an hour (when computed on an individual, weighted basis). Under the NRA this group was united with the sewers, constituting 62% of all the workers, for the lowest code rate. If a similar combination is made for the present purposes, the evidence of the Work Glove Institute shows an average wage for this basic group of 36.1¢ per hour (when computed on a company basis) or 35.2¢ per hour (when computed on an individual, weighted basis). The testimony submitted by the representative of the knit wool glove manufacturers indicates that in that branch of the industry the average wage earned in the twelve weeks period ending March 1937, by the lower paid workers (excluding those occupational groups earning 40¢ an hour or more) was 35.9¢ per hour. The evidence is therefore ample to support a finding that the prevailing minimum wage in the work glove industry is 35¢ per hour or $14.00 per week for a 40 hour week.

The evidence clearly demonstrates the inadvisability of geographic differentials in the work glove industry. The center of the industry is in the Middle West, specifically in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Iowa. A secondary center is found in the eastern states of New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey. A few plants of relatively slight production exist in the southern states of Missouri, North Carolina and Tennessee. When the geographic location of these plants are correlated with their wage rates, the result shows a lower rate in the mid-western state of Illinois than in certain southern states and a lower rate in all eastern states than in the mid-western state of Ohio. These actual differences in prevailing wages cannot be expressed in differentials setting off the several sections of the country. Moreover, the government market is essentially the same for all glove producers and a geographic differential is neither necessary nor advisable.

The Women's Bureau reported that approximately 10% of the workers in the glove industry are classed as learners. Many of these receive more than the prevailing minimum wage and the strict standards specified for government work make it necessary to use fewer learners on such work than on the usual commercial orders. A proper tolerance to permit a constant flow of new help to replace those who leave from time to time and to permit the continued employment of handicapped and superannuated workers on government contracts in this industry would appear to be 10% of the number employed in any one establishment. In order to safeguard against abuse of this tolerance, it is necessary to require payment to these workers of the same piece rates paid other workers and of the minimum wage equal to 25¢ per hour or $10.00 per week for a forty hour week. The extent of this tolerance conforms to the present need of the industry on government contracts; however, it should not be regarded as settled permanently. In order to avoid hardship to employers with newly established plants and at the same time to safeguard the workers against abuse of this exception to the established minimum wage, the Division of Public Contracts should make further studies of this situation so that the Secretary's decision may be supplemented from time to time by appropriate regulations.

Therefore, I hereby determine—

(1) That the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, approved June 30, 1936, for the manufacture or supply of men's work gloves, including the manufacture of leather work gloves, leather-palm cotton gloves, all canvas or canton flannel work gloves, knit gloves, woolen knit lined gloves and officers' white cotton gloves, shall be $14.00 per week for a week of forty hours or 35¢ per hour, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, and

(2) A tolerance of not to exceed 10% of the workers in any one establishment be granted for those workers who are in fact learners, handicapped or superannuated workers subject to the conditions that they be paid not less than 25¢ per hour or $10.00 per week and not less than piece rates paid to other workers in the same establishment and that they be qualified to such exemption in accordance with such requirements as may be established hereafter.

This determination shall become effective and shall apply to all contracts awarded subject to Public Act No. 846, 74th Congress, on or after August 2, 1937.

Dated this 28 day of July, 1937.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

RULES UNDER PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

RULES AS TO SOLICITATIONS OF PROXIES OR OTHER AUTHORIZATIONS

Rules adopted pursuant to Sections 11 (g) and 12 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Provisions of rules extend to all securities of registered holding companies and subsidiaries, whether or not listed on a national securities exchange existing and future rules pursuant to Section 14 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and also cover solicitation of any proxy, consent, dissent, deposit of a security, or other authorization, in connection with a reorganization of, or reorganization plan for, a registered holding company or subsidiary. Requirements specified as to information to be set forth in applications for reports on reorganization plans and in declarations regarding solicitations.

Acting pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and particularly Sections 11 (g) and 12 (e) thereof, and finding that such action is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers and to prevent the circumvention of the provisions of said Act and the rules, regulations or orders thereunder, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby adopts the following rules:

RULE 12E-1. Definitions.—For the purpose of all rules adopted pursuant to the provisions of Section 11 (g) and 12 (e), the following words and phrases shall have the meanings herein indicated unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) The word "proxy" means any authorization, in whatever manner evidenced or granted, to any person or persons (other than the beneficial owner of the security or claim to which such proxy relates), to represent or act for the owner of a security or claim in connection therewith, whether such authorization is given in connection with a deposit of securities or otherwise and irrespective of whether it constitutes or includes any consent to or dissent from any reorganization plan.

(b) The words "consent" and "dissent" mean, respectively, any act or failure to act, whether by vote or otherwise, by the owner of a security or claim, in evidencing approval or acceptance of, or assent to, or agreement or consent that such owner, or such security or claim, be bound by, a reorganization plan, whether or not such plan has been definitely formulated or proposed and any such action or non-action evidencing disapproval of, or refusal or unwillingness to be bound by such a plan; and such words shall also include the granting of any proxy by any such owner whereby any other person is authorized to give any such consent or dissent on behalf of such owner, irrespective of whether such authorization is unconditional or is conditioned upon the failure of such owner to take affirmative action in connection with such plan after receiving notice thereof or is conditioned upon the happening of any other event or the failure of any other event to occur.

(c) The word "plan" or the term "reorganization plan" means any plan of reorganization of a registered holding company or of any subsidiary of such a company which plan is subject to the provisions of Section 11 (g) of the Act (excluding therefrom any plan of reorganization for a subsidiary company exempt from the provisions of Sections 11 (g) or 12 (e)).

(d) If the Commission shall make a report on any plan or on any declaration with respect to a solicitation and shall thereafter amend the same, the word "report" means such report by the Commission as most recently amended. If the Commission shall make or expressly approve an abstract of any report that it may make on any plan or declaration, such abstract shall thereafter be deemed to be the report of the Commission thereon.

(e) Any of the following persons shall be deemed to have a "bona fide interest" in a reorganization of any company:

(1) such company, any creditor or stockholder thereof, any receiver or trustee of such company and any duly authorized representative of any of said persons;

(2) any trustee under a mortgage, deed of trust or indenture pursuant to which there are outstanding securities which have been issued, guaranteed or assumed by such company;

(3) any State commission having regulatory jurisdiction over the company undergoing reorganization, or any person authorized to prepare a plan by any court, officer or agency before which a reorganization proceeding is pending; and

(4) any other person who is declared by the Commission, in connection with an order for a hearing on an application filed by such person, or otherwise, to have a bona fide interest in such reorganization, including (but without limitation) consumers, officers, directors, or employees of such company, labor unions, associations and other representatives of such employees.

For the purpose of paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 11, the words "persons having a bona fide interest" are hereby defined to include the persons described in paragraph (e) of this rule.

RULE 12E-2. Solicitation of Proxies.—Except as to a solicitation which is made in compliance with the provisions of paragraphs (b), (d), and (e) of Rule 12E-3, no person shall solicit or permit the use of his or its name to solicit any proxy regarding any security of a registered holding company or a subsidiary of such a company except upon compliance with the provisions of all rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the provisions of Section 14 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that would be applicable to such solicitation if such securities were registered on a national securities exchange; Provided, however, that, unless such security is actually registered on a national securities exchange, no documents need be filed with any such exchange in connection with such solicitation.

RULE 12E-3. Solicitation of Authorization in Connection with Reorganizations.—(a) No person shall solicit or permit the use of his or its name to solicit any proxy, consent, dissent, deposit of a security or other authorization which relates to or is to be used in connection with a reorganization or a reorganization plan—

(1) except under the circumstances set forth in and in compliance with the provisions of paragraph (b), (c), (d) or (e) of this rule;

(2) except in compliance with all terms and conditions of any order entered by the Commission in connection with such solicitation with respect to the time and manner of solicitation, the classes of securities as to which proxies, consents, dissents or deposits may be solicited, and the terms and conditions of solicitation; and

(3) (unless otherwise required by such an order) except in compliance with all the terms and conditions set forth in any application or declaration filed with the Commission by such person with respect to such solicitation.

No person shall solicit any such authorization in any case if the Commission shall find that the instruments used to evidence such authorization fail to contain fair and equitable provisions for review and determination by a court, commission or other independent person of all fees and expenses that are to be paid or incurred by the estate or by the persons solicited in connection with the reorganization; for the submission of periodic reports and statements of account by the person making such solicitation to those from whom authorization is procured; for prohibition of the buying or selling of securities affected by the reorganization by or on behalf of the person effecting such solicitation or his associates; and for the unconditional right to revoke or cancel such authorizations and, except for cause shown, to withdraw securities from deposit, without expense, at any time before the authorization has been conclusively exercised.

Any employee or agent of any person qualified under the applicable provisions of this rule to solicit an authorization, may solicit or participate or cooperate in soliciting any such authorization in the name of such employer or principal if such employee or agent complies with all other conditions that would be applicable if such employer or principal were to do such act in person. For the purposes of this rule, a person or company which merely acts as depositary or custodian of securities, the deposit of which is solicited by others, shall not be deemed to be an employee or agent of such other persons and shall be under no duty to comply with any provisions of this rule or to ascertain that such other persons have done so.

(b) Solicitations of a Limited Number.—Any person may solicit or permit the use of his or its name to solicit any proxy or other form of authorization that is to be used in connection with a reorganization, if the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) such person does not, either alone or in cooperation or conjunction with others, make such solicitation from more than twenty-five owners of securities or claims (or from such larger number as the Commission for cause shown may, by order, authorize in any case); and

(2) if such authorization constitutes a consent to or dissent from a reorganization plan, such solicitation shall not be made unless the Commission shall have made a report on such plan and unless such solicitation is accompanied or preceded by the sending or delivery to the person solicited of a copy of such report.

For the purpose of computing such number of owners, all persons having any legal or beneficial interest in any specific security or claim shall be counted as a single owner.

(c) Solicitations of Restricted Authorizations.—Any person may, in anticipation of or in connection with a reorganization, solicit or permit the use of his or its name to solicit any authorization, other than one accompanied by a deposit of securities, Provided that each such authorization merely permits or empowers specified persons to represent the owners of securities or claims in connection with the negotiation, formulation or development of a reorganization plan, or to appear before a court, commission or other body in connection with such reorganization or the development of a plan and does not constitute a consent to or dissent from a reorganization plan, and Provided Further that the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) each such solicitation shall be accompanied or preceded by the sending or delivery to the person solicited of a statement of (A) the names, addresses and principal business connections of each person making such solicitation and of each person at whose instance or on whose behalf each such person is acting; (B) the interest of each such person in such reorganization plan, including a statement of the amount of securities and claims beneficially owned by each such person which were issued by the company to be affected by such reorganization, by each subsidiary thereof and by each company of which it is a subsidiary; and (C) all plans or arrangements, however tentative, that have been made for the employment of any such persons by any such company or by any successor thereof; and

(2) each such authorization shall expressly provide that it does not constitute and does not authorize any person to give a consent to or dissent from any plan of reorganization and that it is unconditionally revocable at the will of and without expense to the person granting such authorization.

(d) Solicitations of Consents and Dissents.—Any person may solicit or permit the use of his or its name to solicit a consent to or dissent from any reorganization plan which has been prepared in writing or a deposit of securities which constitutes a consent to or dissent from such a plan if such solicitation is accompanied or preceded by the sending or delivery to each person solicited of a copy of such plan and a copy of a report of the Commission thereon made pursuant to an application under Rule 12E–4, and if all of the following additional conditions are satisfied:

(1) such person shall have filed a declaration pursuant to Rule 12 E–5 with respect to such solicitation, and the Commission either shall have prepared a report on the letters and other documents that are to be used in connection with such solicitation or shall have advised the declarant in writing that it does not contemplate making such a report;

(2) the first such solicitation of any person and each "follow-up" or supplemental solicitation (except as otherwise provided by paragraph (d) of Rule 12E–5) is accompanied or preceded by the sending or delivery of any report the Commission shall have made in connection with such declaration as then effective and by a letter of solicitation which shall adequately set forth the information required by paragraphs (8) and (9) of Rule 12E–4 with respect to each declarant, their attorneys, accounting, engineering and financial advisers and of all persons at whose request or on whose behalf each such declarant is acting and, if any such person is a company, with respect to its directors, partners and principal officers; and

(3) each such solicitation is also accompanied or preceded by such forms of proxies, consents and other documents as said declaration or appropriate post-amendments thereof shall describe as the documents to be used for that purpose, and by no other documents.

(e) Solicitation of Deposits under Special Circumstances.—Any person desiring to solicit or permit the use of his or its name to solicit a deposit of securities in anticipation of or in connection with a reorganization or proceeding for reorganization may file with the Commission a declaration setting forth such information as is specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of Rule 12E–5. If the Commission, upon consideration of such declaration, shall find that such deposit is necessary for one or more of the following purposes:

(1) to create an express trust or otherwise to aid the persons desiring to make such solicitation in maintaining actions at law or in equity for the protection of the rights of the owners of such securities; or

(2) to facilitate the collection or distribution of payments expected to be made on account of such securities; or

(3) to facilitate tender of such securities in connection with a contemplated purchase of assets at a judicial or foreclosure sale; or

(4) for any other purpose which the Commission shall find to be in the interest of the holders of the securities to be deposited and not in contravention of the policy of Section 11 (g);

and, if the Commission, by order, shall fix a date upon which such declaration shall become effective, the person or persons filing such declaration may thereafter solicit or permit the use of his or their names to solicit such deposit of securities, subject, however, to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this rule.

RULE 12E–4.—Applications for Reports on Plans.—(a) Any person having a bona fide interest (as defined by Rule 12E–1) in a reorganization of a registered holding company or a subsidiary of such a company may apply to the Commission for a report on a reorganization plan for such company which such person has submitted to the Commission in writing. Any number of persons may join in such an application. Every such application shall comply with the provisions of Rule 2 as to number of copies, form and execution. In addition to giving the name and address of each applicant for such report, every such application shall set forth the name and address of the person to whom the Commission should address correspondence with respect to such application; the name and address of the company to be reorganized; and the nature of the bona fide interest of each applicant in the proposed reorganization. A copy of the plan and of the reorganization agreement (if any) should be attached as exhibits. Insofar as applicable to the situation, each such application should also contain: [1]

(1) a description of any proceedings before a court or other governmental body in connection with such reorganization, giving the date when such proceedings were instituted and describing briefly the history and present status thereof;

(A) financial statements of the company and its subsidiaries as of the most recent date available

(B) earnings and surplus statements of the company and its subsidiaries as shown by their books for the five fiscal years next preceding the date of the application

(C) pro forma balance sheets and earnings statements giving effect to the proposed transactions and to any adjustments proposed to be made in the accounts of the reorganized company;

(3) a brief description of the classes, amounts and rights of the owners of securities and of any substantial

[1] Note: The information specified herein need be given only insofar as known or reasonably available to the applicants and in such detail as is necessary to explain the statements made and the purpose thereof. In respect of any specific information so given, the applicants may state that it is incomplete or may disclaim responsibility for the accuracy thereof.

undisputed claims against such company, and of all changes in such rights to be effected by such plan;

(4) a statement as to the nature of any substantial presently existing claims or actions (A) against the company and (B) on behalf of the company or the holders of its securities against any other person, (other than those referred to in paragraph (3) above) and as to the results of any investigations made by or for the applicants and of any significant investigations by courts, trustees, State commissions, or other bodies or persons that are available to applicants concerning the existence and validity of such claims, and the recommendations of the applicants with respect to the appropriate action to be taken in connection therewith;

(5) a statement of the nature and results of any important investigations made by or for the applicants as to the recent or present condition, adequacy or efficiency of the properties, operations, rates, management, accounting practices, depreciation, financial and other policies of such company and its subsidiaries; a statement of any important changes in such respects that are expected to result from or to follow the proposed reorganization; and a citation of any important public or private reports on any such matters that are known by the applicants to have been made within five years prior to the filing of the application;

(6) a statement of the reasons why the present is deemed to be an appropriate time to effect the proposed reorganization;

(7) a statement as to the history of the formulation and negotiation of the plan and the reasons why the applicants deem it to be fair and equitable, including a statement as to the estimates of future earnings and requirements of further capital for improvements, extensions and other corporate purposes that were used in formulating the plan; the reasons for selecting the types of new securities to be issued and the consideration that has been given to the requirements of paragraphs (c) and (d) of Section 7; the principles on which such securities were allocated among the owners of outstanding securities and claims; and the extent to which such plan will effect or aid in the ultimate simplification of the corporate structure of the holding company system of which such company is a member and in carrying out the other purposes of Section 11 (b);

(8) a comprehensive statement giving the names and addresses of all persons (including, in the case of a company plan, the officers and directors of such company) who were primarily responsible for the preparation and negotiation of the plan and the class of securities or claims represented by each, the names and addresses of the persons at whose request or on whose behalf each such negotiator was acting and the names of their important legal, accounting, engineering and financial advisers, all important relations now existing or which have existed within five years prior to the date of such application between all such persons and the company to which the plan relates, every subsidiary thereof and every company of which it is a subsidiary, whether as officers, directors, underwriters or otherwise (if any such person does not purport to be an independent representative of a single class of securities or claims, a general statement of his position and relationships may be substituted for the data above specified in this subparagraph); the amounts of each class of securities of and claims against each such company that were beneficially owned by each such person as of a date not more than twenty days prior to the filing of the application, and a list, by individuals, giving the applicant's best information as to all purchases and all sales of such securities, within a period of three years prior to the filing of the application, in which any such person had a beneficial interest, the prices at which each such purchase and sale was made and a statement as to the nature of the investigations made in connection with the preparation of such list and the basis for the information therein contained;

(9) a statement as to the amounts that each person described in item (8) above (including attorneys and other principal advisers) have already received as compensation and expenses for their services in connection with such reorganization and solicitation; the principles or bases on which further compensation of such persons will be determined, including, in so far as practicable, the rates per hour or per day that will be charged or requested for the services of such persons and the respective classes of their employees, together with estimates of the maximum amount of time such respective classes of service will consume; the sources from which such compensation has been, and such further compensation is to be received; a statement of any agreements or understandings between firms of attorneys, accountants or other experts with respect to division of their respective fees; a statement as to whether the amounts of any further compensation are to be subject to determination or review by any court, governmental agency or independent person; and a statement of all agreements, understandings or arrangements that have been entered into by or with any such person, his attorneys or other principal advisers with respect to future employment, underwritings and similar matters; Provided, that in the case of a plan of reorganization to be submitted by a company to its security holders, which is not proposed in connection with or in anticipation of any court proceeding, estimates in reasonable detail, showing the aggregate fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with such plan may be substituted in lieu of the above information;

(10) the names and addresses of any committees and any holders of substantial amounts of securities or claims who have indicated opposition to the proposed plan;

(11) a statement as to the willingness of the applicants to mail notice of the Commission's public hearing on the application to the holders of securities and claims affected by the plan, and as to the access of the applicants to lists of holders of any such securities payable to bearer; and

(12) such other and further information as the Commission may require to be supplied by amendment.

Attach as an exhibit an opinion of counsel stating whether any courts, State commissions or other governmental bodies are required to pass upon the transactions to be carried out pursuant to the proposed plan, giving the status of any proceedings then pending before any such bodies and expressing an opinion as to whether, upon the taking of specified further steps, the plan will become binding upon owners of securities of and claims against the company, who do not consent thereto. Such opinion shall cite the relevant constitutional, statutory and charter provisions and the controlling court decisions, if any, with respect to the jurisdiction of such bodies and with respect to the conditions upon which the plan will become binding upon the owners of securities of and claims against the company who do not consent thereto.

(b) Any such application for a report on a reorganization plan may include as a part thereof such additional statements as are required by Rule 12E–5 for a declaration by the applicants in respect of a solicitation of proxies, consents, dissents or requests for the deposit of securities, in connection with such plan and every application containing such statements shall be deemed to constitute both an application under this rule and a declaration under said Rule 12E–5.

RULE 12E–5.—Declarations as to Solicitations.—(a) Every declaration with respect to a solicitation that is filed pursuant to a requirement of Rule 12E–3 shall comply with the provisions of Rule 2 as to number of copies, form and execution. Any number of persons may join in such a declaration. Every such declaration shall set forth the following information (except that a declaration which is incorporated in an application pursuant to Rule 12E–4 need not repeat any information given elsewhere in such application):

(1) the names and addresses of the declarants, their attorneys, accounting, engineering and financial advisers, and of all persons at whose request or on whose behalf each such declarant is acting;

(2) the name and address of the person to whom communications from the Commission with respect to such declaration shall be addressed;

(3) the class of securities and claims to be solicited, with a brief identification of the company and of the proceeding or plan with respect to which such solicitation relates;

(4) the information described in paragraphs (8) and (9) of Rule 12E–4 with respect to each of the persons described in clause (1) of this paragraph and, if any such person is a company, with respect to each of its directors, partners and principal officers;

(5) a copy of the first letter of solicitation to be used, which shall comply with the requirements of subparagraphed (d) (2) of Rule 12E–3, together with copies of any supplementary or "follow-up" letters declarants may desire to incorporate in their original declaration;

(6) copies of all other documents (except reports of the Commission) that are to be used in connection with the first letter of solicitation, including the text of any radio broadcasts, together with copies of all deposit agreements or other instruments evidencing the terms and conditions upon which any deposits of securities are to be made;

(7) a description of the order, arrangement and style in which the documents described in clauses (5) and (6) above are to be sent to owners of securities or claims, and particularly the size, style of printing and position to be given to all reports of the Commission to be used in connection with such solicitation;

(8) a full statement as to the manner in which declarants will make such solicitations and, if any persons are to be used to make personal, oral or radio solicitations, a statement as to whether such persons are regular employees of the declarants or are to be specially hired for such solicitation and, in sufficient detail, all bonuses or special compensation to be paid to regular employees and the maximum compensation and costs that will be paid to persons who are not regular employees;

(9) a statement as to whether the documents of solicitation described in clauses (5) and (6) of this paragraph are to be sent or delivered to each owner of securities or claims prior to the time of any personal or oral solicitation and, if so, the minimum amount of time which will thus be afforded such owner to study such documents prior to any such solicitation.

(b) Every declaration with respect to a solicitation of deposits of securities made pursuant to paragraph (e) of Rule 12E–3 shall also set forth (A) the special circumstances which make it necessary or desirable that the deposit of such securities shall be solicited without such solicitation being accompanied by a report of the Commission on the reorganization plan; (B) the rights and privileges to be given to the declarants, their depositary or any other agents or representatives thereof to sell, pledge or hypothecate the deposited securities or to have or create a lien thereon and to receive compensation or expenses for their services; as well as all limitations on liabilities to which any such persons would otherwise be subject; and (C) all conditions or restrictions on the right to deposit or the right of depositors to withdraw their securities from deposit.

(c) Post-amendments incorporating new material, including the text of any supplementary or follow-up letters of solicitation, any changes that are to be made in the methods of solicitation, information as to new persons who are to join in the solicitation, or any other appropriate data, may be filed at any time after a declaration has become effective under any provision of Rule 12E–3. Every declaration as thus post-amended shall become effective at the end of the fifteenth day after the date of the filing of the latest post-amendment (not including the date on which such filing is made), unless, prior to the expiration of such period, the Commission, by sending a letter, confirmed telegram or otherwise, shall notify the person to whom communications with respect to such declaration are to be sent that it desires to make a report on such amended declaration or to amend a report which it has previously made in connection therewith or, in the case of a declaration required by paragraph (e) of Rule 12E–3, that it desires to amend its order making such declaration effective. The Commission, for sufficient cause shown, may, in any case, by order, shorten such period of fifteen days.

In any case in which the Commission shall give such notice as aforesaid, a post-amendment of a declaration shall not become effective until after the Commission shall have prepared and issued a report or an amended report on such declaration as thus amended or, in lieu thereof, shall have advised the declarants in writing that it does not contemplate taking such action or, in the case of a post-amendment to a declaration required by paragraph (e) of Rule 12E–3, shall not become effective until the Commission shall have amended its order with respect to such original declaration so as to make such declaration effective as thus post-amended.

(d) Any person who shall have solicited or permitted the use of his or its name to solicit a consent, dissent or deposit of securities in compliance with the requirements of the applicable rules of the Commission and who shall, in response to such solicitation, receive a specific inquiry asking for further explanation as to any detail of such solicitation, may reply thereto and no such reply need be incorporated in any declaration or any post-amendment to such declaration required by said rules.

No such post-amendment need be filed by any such person with respect to any supplementary or follow-up letters which merely calls attention to a prior solicitation made in accordance with the requirements of Rule 12E–3 and urges action in accordance with such prior request but does not set forth any financial or other data, information or representations.

AMENDMENT TO RULE EXEMPTING CERTAIN NON-UTILITY SUBSIDIARIES

Amendments to rule exempting certain non-public utility subsidiaries of registered holding companies increase scope of exemption from Sections 12 and 13, and as to acquisitions from wholly-owned subsidiaries and from companies undergoing reorganizations; exemption as to Sections 11 (f), 11 (g), and 12 (e) and rules thereunder, more closely defined.

Acting pursuant to the authority granted by the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and particularly Section 3 (d) thereof, and finding such action necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers, and not contrary to the purposes of said Act, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby amends Rule 3D–5 to read as follows:

RULE 3D–5. Exemption of Certain Non-Utility Subsidiaries.—(a) Except as otherwise provided in the subsequent paragraphs of this rule, every subsidiary company of a registered holding company which subsidiary company is not

(1) a holding company,
(2) a public utility company,
(3) an investment company or investment trust, including one which is a medium for investments in securities for the benefit of a public-utility or holding company or its directors, officers or employees,
(4) a company engaged in the business of performing services or construction for or selling goods to associate companies of any of the classes specified in clauses (1) to (3) above, or
(5) a company controlling, directly or indirectly, any company specified in clauses (1) to (4) above, shall be exempt from the obligations, duties and liabilities imposed upon such company as a subsidiary company by any provision or provisions of the Act and, within the extent of the exemptions provided by this rule, such a company shall not be deemed to be a subsidiary or affiliate of any other company.

(b) The exemption provided from Section 9 (a) (1) by paragraph (a) of this rule shall not be applicable

(1) to an acquisition of utility assets or to an acquisition of other interest in the business of such a company, or to any acsive, of paragraph (a) of this rule, or to an acquisition of any securities of any company described in clauses (1) to (5), inclu-quisition which will result in such a subsidiary company becoming a company of a type described in any one of such clauses; or

(2) to the acquisition of any property or right (whether acquired in a single transaction or in a series of transactions) if the total consideration paid or to be paid therefor has a value in excess of $200,000, except that the exemption shall be applicable, without regard to the amount of the consideration,

(A) to any acquisition by such a subsidiary company from another company substantially all of whose outstanding securities it owns; and

(B) to any acquisition which such a subsidiary company may make as a result of the reorganization of another company solely because of its surrender of securities of and claims against the company being reorganized which were previously held by such acquiring company.

(c) The exemptions provided from Sections 11 (f), 11 (g) and 12 (e) by paragraph (a) of this rule shall extend to any rules adopted under such sections but no exemption from such sections or rules shall be applicable to any reorganization of or reorganization plan for any such subsidiary company if such reorganization or plan provides that any associate company of such a subsidiary shall increase its investment in, or shall advance money to, or shall assume or guarantee any debt owing or to be incurred by such subsidiary company or the company which, in accordance with the terms of such reorganization or plan, will become its successor.

(d) If any rule, regulation or order adopted under Sections 12, 13 or 15 or under any other section of the Act shall expressly provide that it shall be applicable to such a subsidiary company, the exemption that would otherwise be provided by this rule shall, to that extent, cease to exist.

By the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

CIVILIAN CONSERVATION CORPS

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me under the act entitled "An Act to establish a Civilian Conservation Corps, and for other purposes" approved June 28, 1937 (Public No. 163, 75th Congress), it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. Such reserve officers of the Army as shall be selected by the Secretary of War, such reserve officers of the Navy and Marine Corps as shall be selected by the Secretary of the Navy, and such warrant officers of the Coast Guard as shall be selected by the Secretary of the Treasury, the respective numbers thereof to be determined by the Director of the Civilian Conservation Corps, are hereby called to active duty, subject to the provisions of section 37a of the National Defense Act (39 Stat. 189) and the Act of February 28, 1925 (43 Stat. 1080), so far as applicable, and attached to the War Department for service with the Civilian Conservation Corps, and are ordered to report to the Secretary of War for such duty upon the receipt of written orders from the Secretary of War: Provided, that officers of the classes named above who were so employed on June 30, 1937, may be continued on active duty.

2. The Director of the Civilian Conservation Corps is authorized, subject to the limitations and restrictions contained in Section 3 of the said Act of June 28, 1937, to undertake projects on lands belonging to or under the jurisdiction or control of counties and municipalities, and on lands in private ownership.

3. The Secretary of War, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Labor are requested to cooperate with the Director of the Civilian Conservation Corps in carrying out the purposes of the said Act of June 28, 1937. Each of the said Secretaries shall appoint a representative who shall, upon request of the Director, confer with him and under his direction aid him in prosecuting effectively the purposes contemplated by the said Act.

4. This order shall be effective as of July 1, 1937.

JULY 22, 1937.

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY:

By authority of subdivision (f) of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, you were, on November 9, 1936,[1] requested to forbid entry into the United States, except under bond, provided for in said section 337 (f), of cigar lighters patented in United States Letters Patent Nos. 1986384, 2002845, and Des. 96639, pending completion of an investigation by the United States Tariff Commission. This order was predicated on the recommendation of the Tariff Commission following a preliminary inquiry by that Commission. On February 20, 1937,[2] following a hearing[3] and recommendation by the Commission, the order was modified so as not to apply to the design patent.

The Tariff Commission, after an adequate investigation, has reported to me that the existence of unfair methods of competition or unfair acts in the importation or sale of the articles concerned within the meaning of section 337 has not been established. The Commission has also recommended that the temporary exclusion order above referred to be rescinded.

The existence of any such unfair method or act has not been established to my satisfaction. I accordingly request that the temporary order of exclusion, except under bond, promulgated by you on November 16, 1936 (T. D. 48628), as modified by the order promulgated on March 3, 1937 (T. D. 48845) be terminated.

Very sincerely yours,

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 29]

AN ORDER REQUIRING REPORTS FROM PRODUCERS OF COST AND REALIZATION DATA FOR THE PERIOD BEGINNING JANUARY 1, 1937, PURSUANT TO SECTION 10 (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, in order to perform effectively its duties under said Act, is required to be fully informed as to the production and distribution of bituminous coal throughout the United States. Therefore, pursuant to authority conferred by Section 10 of said Act, the Commission orders and directs as follows:

1. That each producer of bituminous coal, whether or not a code member and whether or not engaged in commerce in coal which is subject to the provisions of Section 4 of said Act, shall file, in duplicate, complete reports showing the total costs of the tonnage produced and realization prices derived from the sale of coal, all as more fully set forth and specified in the Commission's Cost Forms No. 2 and No. 2-A, such reports to be made separately for each mine and for each calendar month so as to include all coal produced and all coal sold on and after the 1st day of January, 1937.

2. Each producer shall, within fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and of said forms, file separate reports for each of the first six calendar months of 1937 (that is, January to June, both inclusive), which reports, duly verified, shall be filed with the statistical bureau of the Commission in the district within which the mine or mines reported upon are located, and thereafter shall file with such statistical bureau like monthly reports as prescribed in paragraph 3 of this order.

3. For each month beginning with the month of July, 1937, each such producer of bituminous coal shall file in the same manner as prescribed in paragraph 1 of this order, complete reports showing the total costs of the tonnage produced and realization prices derived from the sale of coal during the month reported on, which reports shall be filed on or before the 25th day of the next succeeding month.

4. The Commission's Cost Form No. 2 shall be used by producers for mines having a present actual daily capacity of more than fifty (50) net tons.

The Commission's Cost Form No. 2–A shall be used by producers in making reports for mines having a present actual daily capacity of fifty (50) net tons or less.

In the case of any mine not actually in operation during any calendar month subsequent to January 1, 1937, the producer shall report as to such calendar month such data as will show all costs of ownership and maintenance.

5. The Secretary of the Commission shall cause to be mailed to each known producer within the United States, a copy of this order together with necessary forms, and shall make available to all producers additional copies of said forms at the office of the statistical bureau of the Commission in each district established under said Act.

The Commission directs specific attention to the provisions of Section 10 of said Act relating to the confidential nature of the reports required under this order and further gives notice that the penalties provided for noncompliance with this order by the producer will be strictly enforced.

By order of the Commission.
Dated this 30th day of July, 1937.

ORDER OF RESTORATION

SOUTHERN UTE INDIAN RESERVATION, COLORADO

JULY 17, 1937.

Whereas, Pursuant to the provisions of an agreement accepted and ratified by the Act of June 15, 1880 (21 Stat. L., 199), the Confederated Bands of the Ute Tribe of Indians ceded to the United States a large area of their reservation in the State of Colorado, which area was then held and deemed to be public land of the United States and subject to disposal under the laws providing for the disposal of public lands, except as provided in the said Act of June 15, 1880, supra, and

Whereas, There is now remaining undisposed of within the ceded area a considerable acreage of such ceded lands, certain of which are urgently required as grazing land for the use of the Ute Mountain Band of Ute Indians, and which have been found to be primarily of value for Indian purposes as an addition to the existing Southern Ute Indian Reservation, and

Whereas, By relinquishment and cancellation of homestead entries within this area a limited additional acreage of similar land may be included within the class of undisposed of ceded land, and

Whereas, The Commissioner of Indian Affairs, after having caused thorough examination of the area to be made by well qualified field employees, has recommended restoration to tribal ownership of all said vacant undisposed of ceded lands within the following described boundaries:

Beginning at a point on the western boundary line of the State of Colorado, being the northwest corner of the existing Southern Ute Indian Reservation; thence north to the township line separating townships 34 and 35 north, range 20 west; thence east along said township line to the southwest corner of section 35, township 35 north, range 19 west; thence north to the northwest corner of section 2, township 35 north, range 19 west; thence east to the northeast corner of section 1, township 35 north, range 18 west; thence north to the northwest corner of section 31, township 36 north, range 17 west; thence east to the northeast corner of section 35, township 36 north, range 17 west; thence south to the north boundary of the existing Southern Ute Indian Reservation; thence west along the north boundary of the said reservation to the west line of section 9, township 34 north, range 17 west; thence north to the northwest corner of section 21, township 35 north, range 17 west; thence west to the southwest corner of section 17, township 35 north, range 17 west; thence south to the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 19, township 35 north, range 17 west; thence west to the southwest corner of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of said section 19; thence north to the north line of said section 19; thence west to the southwest corner of section 17, township 35 north, range 18 west; thence south to the north boundary of the Southern Ute Indian Reservation in section 7, township 34 north, range 18, all west of the New Mexico principal meridian; thence west along the said north boundary to the point of beginning.

Now, therefore, By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by sections 3 and 7 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. L., 984), I hereby find that restoration to tribal ownership of all lands which are now, or may hereafter be, classified as undisposed of ceded Ute Indian lands lying within the above described boundaries in Colorado, will be in the public interest, and said lands are hereby restored to tribal ownership for the use and benefit of the Ute Mountain Band of Ute Indians of the Southern Ute Indian Reservation in Colorado, and are added to and made a part of the existing Southern Ute Indian Reservation, subject to any valid existing rights.

CHARLES WEST,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

[Docket No. A–52 O–52]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO MARKETING AGREEMENT NO. 69 AND WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE FORT WAYNE, INDIANA, MARKETING AREA

Whereas, under section 8b of Title I of Public No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, the Secretary of Agriculture, hereinafter called the Secretary, executed a marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Fort Wayne, Indiana, Marketing Area, effective 12:01 a. m., central standard time, February 1, 1937; and

Whereas, the Secretary has reason to believe that it may be necessary to issue an order to effectuate the declared policy of Title I of said act, said order to be in addition to the marketing agreement executed by him; and

Whereas, the Secretary has reason to believe that an amendment should be made to said marketing agreement; and

Whereas, under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacts and further amends Public No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed order and a proposed amendment to a marketing agreement, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, provide for notice and opportunity for hearing upon marketing agreements and orders and amendments thereto;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said acts and the General Regulations, notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed amendment to marketing agreement No. 69 and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Fort Wayne, Indiana, Marketing Area, in the Assembly Room, Allen County Court House, Fort Wayne, Indiana, at 10:00 a. m., daylight saving time, August 4, 1937.

The marketing agreement with the proposed amendment and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling of milk in the Fort Wayne, Indiana, Marketing Area as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in such milk. Among other things, the marketing agreement with the proposed amendment and the proposed order provide for: (a) selection of a market administrator; (b) classification of milk; (c) minimum prices; (d) payments to producers through the use of a marketwide equalization pool; (e) deductions from payments to producers for marketing services by market administrator; (f) reports of handlers; (g) expense of administration.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of milk in the aforesaid area which requires a shorter period of notice than fifteen (15) days; and it is hereby determined that the period of notice given is reasonable under the circumstances.

Copies of the marketing agreement and the proposed amendment and the proposed order may be inspected in or procured from the office of the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

PUBLIC NOTICE ESTABLISHING THE RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE INSPECTION, SAMPLING, AND CERTIFICATION OF COTTONSEED SOLD OR OFFERED FOR SALE FOR CRUSHING PURPOSES

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Act of Congress entitled "An Act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, * * * and for other purposes," (Public, No. 173, 75th Congress), I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby fix, establish, and promulgate the following rules and regulations to govern the inspection, sampling, and certification of cottonseed sold or offered for sale for crushing purposes, the same to be in force and effect as long as Congress shall provide the necessary authority therefor, unless amended or superseded by rules and regulations hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority.

REGULATION 1. DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. Words used in these regulations in the singular form shall be deemed to import the plural, and vice-versa, as the case may demand.

SEC. 2. As used throughout these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

PARAGRAPH 1. The act.—The Act of Congress entitled "an Act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture", * * * for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, Pub. 173—75th Congress, which makes provision "for enabling the Secretary of Agriculture to investigate and certify to shippers and other interested parties the class, quality, and condition of cotton, * * * and other perishable farm products * * * under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, including payment of such fees as will be reasonable and as nearly as may be to cover the cost for the service rendered."

PAR. 2. Custodian.—Person who has possession or control of cottonseed or of samples of cottonseed, as agent, controller, broker, or factor, as the case may be.

PAR. 3. Owner.—Person who through financial interest owns or controls, or has the disposition of either cottonseed or of samples of cottonseed.

PAR. 4. Bureau.—Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture.

PAR. 5. Official cottonseed standards.—The official standards of the United States for the grading, sampling, and analyzing of cottonseed sold or offered for sale for crushing purposes, established May 23, 1932 and amendments thereto.

PAR. 6. Supervisor of cottonseed inspection.—An officer of the Department of Agriculture designated as such by the Chief of the Bureau.

PAR. 7. Secretary.—The Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

PAR. 8. The Chief of the Bureau.—The Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture.

PAR. 9. Regulations.—Regulations made under the act by the Secretary.

PAR. 10. License.—A license issued under the act by the Secretary.

PAR. 11. Licensed cottonseed chemist.—A person licensed under the act by the Secretary to make quantitative and qualitative chemical analyses of samples of cottonseed according to the official methods and to certificate the grade according to the official cottonseed standards.

PAR. 12. Licensed cottonseed sampler.—A person licensed by the Secretary to sample and to handle cottonseed samples, to prepare official samples according to methods approved by the Chief of the Bureau and forward the same to a licensed chemist and to certificate the authenticity of such samples.

PAR. 13. Dispute.—A disagreement between the parties as to the true grade of a sample of cottonseed analyzed and graded by a licensed chemist.

PAR. 14. Party.—A party to a dispute.

PAR. 15. Cottonseed.—The word "cottonseed' as used herein means the seed, after having been put through the usual and customary process known as cotton ginning, of any cotton produced within the continental United States.

PAR. 16. Commercial laboratory.—An individual, firm, or corporation in which one or more persons are engaged in the chemical analysis of materials for the public.

REGULATION 2. ADMINISTRATIVE AND GENERAL

SECTION 1. The Chief of the Bureau is charged with the supervision on behalf of the United States Department of Agriculture of the performance of all duties arising in the administration of the act.

SEC. 2. The Chief of the Bureau, whenever he deems necessary, may designate an officer of the Department of Agriculture as supervisor of cottonseed inspection who shall supervise the inspection and sampling of cottonseed and perform such other duties as may be required of him in administering the act and these regulations.

SEC. 3. The inspection, sampling, analyzing, and grading of cottonseed in the United States pursuant to the act shall be performed as prescribed in regulations approved from time to time by the Chief of the Bureau.

REGULATION 3. LICENSED COTTONSEED CHEMISTS

SECTION 1. PARAGRAPH 1.—Application for licenses to analyze and grade cottonseed shall be made to the Chief of the Bureau on forms authorized for the purpose by him.

PAR. 2. Each such application shall be in English and shall be signed by the applicant, shall be verified by him under oath or affirmation administered by a duly authorized officer, and shall contain or be accompanied by satisfactory evidence (a) that he has passed his twenty-fifth birthday and that he is an actual resident of the continental United States, (b) that he holds a degree in chemistry or chemical engineering from a recognized college or university and has had not less than three years' practical experience in laboratory work in which he shall have analyzed quantitatively and qualitatively samples of cottonseed, (c) in the absence of a degree from a recognized college or university, that he has had at least five years' practical laboratory experience, three years of which shall have been devoted chiefly to the analysis of samples of cottonseed, (d) that he will have no financial interest in or be in the employ of any one having a financial interest in any cottonseed oil mill or cotton ginning establishment, (e) that he agrees to comply with and abide by the terms of the act and these regulations so far as they may relate to him, (f) that he is an independent analytical chemist or an employee of a commercial analytical laboratory, (g) that he owns or has the use of all of the apparatus specified in the regulations established hereunder for the analysis and grading of cottonseed; and (h) such other information as the Chief of the Bureau may deem necessary.

PAR. 3. Every chemist licensed hereunder to analyze cottonseed and to certificate the grade thereof shall follow precisely the methods of analysis approved from time to time by the Chief of the Bureau.

PAR. 4. The applicant shall furnish such additional information as the Secretary of the Chief of the Bureau shall at any time find to be necessary to the consideration of his application.

SEC. 2. Each applicant for a license as a chemist and each licensed chemist shall, when requested, submit to an examination or test to show his ability to analyze and grade cottonseed.

SEC. 3. The period for which a license may be issued shall be from the first day of August until and including the thirty-first day of July following. Renewals shall be for not more than 1 year beginning with the first day of August of each year: Provided, That licenses issued on and after June 1 of each year shall be for the period ending on July 31 of the following year.

SEC. 4. It shall be a condition of the licensing of any chemist under this regulation, and of the retention by him of a license, that during the active cotton season each year he shall be engaged in or in connection with the grading of cottonseed; that all cottonseed graded by him shall be analyzed and graded in accordance with the official cottonseed standards of the United States; that each sample of cottonseed received by him for analysis and grading shall be handled by him in the order of its receipt at his place of business; and that he shall not use his license or allow the same to be used for any improper purpose.

SEC. 5. Whenever any chemist licensed under the act and in accordance with these regulations shall grade and/or certificate any cottonseed or samples in consideration of a stated fee, the fee charged shall be reasonable and shall be in accordance with a schedule previously submitted to, and approved by, the Chief of the Bureau.

SEC. 6. Each licensed chemist shall keep, or shall cause to be kept for him, for a period of at least 1 year, a record of the analysis of each individual sample of cottonseed graded by him. Each licensed chemist shall permit any officer or agent of the Bureau, authorized by the Chief of the Bureau for the purpose, to inspect or examine, on any business day during the usual hours of business, his books, papers, records, and accounts relating to the performance of his duties under the act and these regulations.

SEC. 7 (a) Each official sample of cottonseed as received by a licensed chemist shall be assigned a laboratory number and shall be analyzed and the grade certificated in the order of its receipt.

(b) Certification of the grade of lots of cottonseed may be issued only upon samples certified by licensed samplers as official samples and received in good condition by licensed chemists.

(c) Certificates of the grade of unofficial samples of cottonseed may be issued upon samples received by licensed chemists if the samples are sufficient for proper analysis, have not been drawn by a licensed sampler and are not believed to be samples of the same seed represented by an official sample. Such certificates shall be plainly marked "Sample not official; grade applies to the sample only".

(d) No certificate of the grade of a sample of cottonseed shall be issued by a licensed chemist based on a sample the condition of which on receipt at the laboratory does not comply with these regulations covering the preparation and forwarding of samples of cottonseed.

SEC. 8. Each grade certificate issued under the act by a licensed chemist shall be in a form approved for the purpose by the Chief of the Bureau and shall embody within its written or printed terms—

(a) The caption "Licensed cottonseed chemist's certificate."

(b) The serial number assigned to it.

(c) Whether it is an original, a duplicate, or other copy.

(d) The date and place of issuance.

(e) A statement that the certificate is issued by a chemist licensed by the Secretary of Agriculture to analyze and certificate the grade of cottonseed.

(f) A statement in accordance with the facts in each case, either (1) that the chemist knows the samples upon which his classification is based to be true and correct samples of the cottonseed involved; or (2) that the samples were received from a sampler licensed by the Secretary in proper conditions; or (3) that the samples were not received from a licensed sampler.

(g) The identification of each lot of cottonseed by the marks and notations by which the seed was identified at the time the sample was taken.

(h) All analytical data required by the Chief of the Bureau.

(i) The signature of the licensed chemist.

In addition, the grade certificate may include any other matter not inconsistent with the act or these regulations.

A copy of each certificate shall be mailed to the Chief of the Bureau, or to such officer as he may designate, within 36 hours after its issuance.

SEC. 9. Each licensed chemist shall, from time to time when requested by the Bureau, make reports on forms furnished for the purpose by the Bureau bearing upon his activities as such licensed chemist.

SEC. 10. Every person licensed under the act shall immediately furnish the Chief of the Bureau any information which comes to the knowledge of such person tending to show that any provision of the act or the regulations has been violated.

SEC. 11. Pending investigation the Secretary or the Chief of the Bureau may, whenever he deems necessary, suspend the license of a licensed chemist temporarily without hearing. Upon written request and a satisfactory statement of reasons therefor submitted by the licensed chemist, the Chief of the Bureau may, without a hearing, suspend or revoke the license issued to such licensed chemist. The Secretary may, after opportunity for hearing when possible has been afforded in the manner prescribed in this section, suspend or revoke a license issued to a licensed chemist when such licensed chemist (a) has ceased to perform services as such chemist, (b) has knowingly or carelessly analyzed cottonseed improperly, (c) has violated or evaded any provision of the act or the regulations thereunder so far as the same may relate to him, (d) has used his license or allowed it to be used for any fraudulent or improper purposes, or (e) has in any manner become incompetent or incapacitated to perform the duties of such licensed chemist. Before the license of any licensed chemist is finally suspended or revoked, such licensed chemist shall be furnished by the Secretary, or by an official of the Department of Agriculture designated for the purpose, a written statement specifying the charges and shall be allowed a reasonable time within which he may answer the same in writing and apply for a hearing.

SEC. 12. If a license issued to a licensed chemist is suspended, revoked, or canceled, such license shall be returned to the Bureau. At the expiration of any period of suspension of such license, unless in the meantime it be revoked or canceled, the dates of the beginning and termination of the suspension shall be indorsed thereon, and it shall be returned to the licensed chemist to whom it was originally issued.

SEC. 13. Upon satisfactory proof of the loss or destruction of a license issued to a licensed chemist, a duplicate thereof may be issued under the same or a new number, in the discretion of the Secretary.

SEC. 14. No person shall in any way represent himself to be a chemist licensed under the act unless he holds an unsuspended, unrevoked, and uncanceled license issued under the act.

SEC. 15. In case of dispute in which a review is desired of the grading of any sample of cottonseed covered in a valid certificate issued by a licensed chemist, application therefor shall be made within 48 hours after the original certificate was issued. Whereupon, the licensed chemist issuing the certificate shall immediately forward to such other licensed chemist or other person as may be designated by the Chief of the Bureau, the retained portion of the official sample, for the purpose of re-analysis. Should the grade found on re-anaysis differ from the original by not more than plus or minus one full grade, the original grade shall be considered as the true grade. Should the re-analysis indicate a grade differing more than plus or minus one full grade from the original, all work sheets involved shall be submitted to the Chief of the Bureau or his designated agent who shall determine the correct grade.

SEC. 16. In cases of review of the grade of any official sample of cottonseed the appellant party shall pay the costs of re-analysis, payment for which shall accompany the application.

SEC. 17. Every person licensed under the act as a licensed chemist shall keep confidential all information secured by him relative to cottonseed analyzed and graded by him. He shall not disclose such information to any person except to the owner or custodian of the seed in question, or to an authorized agent of the Chief of the Bureau.

REGULATION 4.—LICENSED COTTONSEED SAMPLERS

SECTION 1. PARAGRAPH 1.—Applications for licenses to sample cottonseed shall be made to the Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics on forms furnished for the purpose by him.

PAR. 2. Each such application shall be in English and shall be signed by the applicant, shall be verified by him under oath or affirmation, administered by a duly authorized officer, and shall contain or be accompanied by (a) satisfactory evidence that he has passed his twenty-fifth birthday and that he is an actual resident of the continental United States, (b) satisfactory evidence of his experience in the handling and sampling of cottonseed, (c) a statement by the applicant that he agrees to comply with and abide by the terms of the law and these regulations so far as they may relate to him, and with instructions issued from time to time by the Chief of the Bureau governing the sampling of cotton seed, and (d) such other information as the Chief of the Bureau may deem necessary.

PAR. 3. Every sampler shall include in his application to the Chief of the Bureau for a license a statement showing the fees, wages, or salary to be received by him as compensation for his work as a sampler of cottonseed.

SEC. 2. PARAGRAPH 1.—Each applicant for a license to sample cottonseed shall, as a condition to the granting thereof, execute and file with the Chief of the Bureau a good and sufficient bond to the United States to secure the faithful performance of his duties as a licensed sampler under the terms of the act, as amended, and these regulations. Said bond shall be in such form and amount, not less than $1,000, and shall have such surety or sureties as shall be approved by the Chief of the Bureau, subject to service of process in suits on the bond within the State, district, or territory, in which such licensee shall perform services as a licensed cottonseed sampler. Any person injured by the breach of any obligation to secure which a bond is given under this paragraph shall be entitled to sue on the bond in his own name in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover the damages he may have sustained by such breach.

PAR. 2. If the Chief of the Bureau finds that the existence of conditions warrants such action, there shall be added to the amount previously required under paragraph 1 of this section such additional amount as he shall deem necessary.

SEC. 3. The period for which a license may be issued under this regulation shall be from the first day of August until and including the thirty-first day of July following. Renewals shall be for 1 year, beginning with the first day of August of each year: Provided, That licenses or renewals issued on and after June 1 of any year shall be for the period ending on July 31 of the following year.

SEC. 4. It shall be a condition of the renewal of any license hereunder that the licensed sampler shall file a new bond in the required amount with, and that such bond shall be approved by, the Chief of the Bureau or his authorized representative, provided that in the discretion of the Chief of the Bureau or his authorized representative a properly executed instrument in form approved by him amending, extending, or continuing in force and effect the obligations of a valid bond previously filed by the licensed sampler and otherwise complying with this regulation may be filed in lieu of a new bond.

SEC. 5. No bond, amendment, or continuation thereof shall be deemed accepted for the purpose of this regulation until it has been approved by the Chief of the Bureau or his authorized representative.

SEC. 6. Each applicant for a license as a sampler and each licensed sampler whenever requested by an authorized agent of the Bureau, shall submit to an examination or test to show his ability properly to perform the duties for which he is applying for a license or for which he has been licensed, and each such applicant or licensee shall furnish the Bureau any information requested at any time in regard to his sampling of cottonseed.

SEC. 7. Each licensed sampler shall keep his license conspicuously posted at the place where he functions as a sampler or in such other place as may be approved by the Bureau.

SEC. 8. Each licensed sampler, when requested, shall without discrimination, as soon as practicable and upon reasonable terms, sample any cottonseed if the same be made available to him under conditions that will permit proper sampling. Each such licensee shall give preference to those who request his services as such over persons who request his services in any other capacity.

SEC. 9. Each licensed sampler shall have available suitable triers or sampling tools, sample containers, scales, seed cleaners, seed mixers, and air-tight containers for enclosing and forwarding the official samples to licensed chemists, and with tags and samplers' certificates approved or furnished by the Chief of the Bureau or his representative for identifying the samples of cottonseed and for certificating the condition of the cottonseed represented by such samples. There shall be clearly written or printed on the face of each certificate (a) the number thereof; (b) a suitable caption; (c) the location of the cottonseed involved and its point of origin; (d) the identification of the lot from which the sample was drawn; (e) the date on which the sample was drawn, (f) the gross weight of the original sample, the net weight of the cleaned sample, and whether on receipt the shipment was "hot" or fermented, (g) a statement indicating that the sample was drawn by a sampler licensed in accordance with these regulations, as amended, and (h) the signature of the licensed sampler as such. The use of such tags and certificates shall be in conformity with instructions issued from time to time by the Chief of the Bureau.

SEC. 10. The official sample taken from a lot of cottonseed by a licensed sampler shall be drawn, prepared, and identified in such manner as may be required by the Chief of the Bureau. Any conditions not fully indicated by the sample shall be specified by the licensed sampler in the certificate accompanying such sample.

SEC. 11. Each licensed sampler shall permit any authorized officer or agent of the Bureau to inspect at any time his books, papers, records, and accounts relating to the performance of his duties under this regulation.

SEC. 12. License may be suspended.—Pending final action by the Secretary, a sampler's license may be suspended by the Chief of the Bureau or by any official by whom it may be countersigned whenever such official shall deem such action to be for the good of the service. Within ten days after any such suspension the licensee may file an appeal in writing to the Secretary, supported by any argument or evidence that he may wish to offer in his behalf.

SEC. 13. In case a license issued to a sampler is suspended or revoked such license shall be returned to the Department. At the expiration of any period of suspension of such license, unless in the meantime it be revoked, the dates of beginning and termination of such suspension shall be endorsed thereon, it shall be returned to the person to whom it was originally issued, and it shall be posted as prescribed in section 7 of this regulation.

SEC. 14. Upon satisfactory proof of the loss or destruction of a license issued to a sampler hereunder, a new license may be issued under the same or a new number.

SEC. 15. Each licensed sampler, when requested, shall make reports on forms furnished for the purpose by the Bureau bearing upon his activities as such licensee.

SEC. 16. No person shall in any way represent himself to be a sampler licensed under the act, as amended, unless he holds an unsuspended and unrevoked license issued thereunder.

SEC. 17. Every person licensed under the act as a licensed sampler of cottonseed shall keep confidential all information secured by him relative to shipments of cottonseed sampled by him. He shall not disclose such information to any person except an authorized agent of the Chief of the Bureau.

REGULATION 5. FEES AND COSTS

SECTION 1. For the examination of an applicant for a license to sample and certificate official samples of cottonseed, the fee shall be $5.00, but no additional charge shall be made for the issuance of a license. For each renewal of a sampler's license the fee shall be $3.00.

SEC. 2. For the examination of an applicant for a license as a chemist to analyze and certificate the grade of cottonseed the fee shall be $50.00, but no additional charge shall be made for the issuance. For each renewal of a chemist's license the fee shall be $50.00.

SEC. 3. For each certificate of the grade of cottonseed issued by a licensed cottonseed chemist a fee of 10 cents shall be collected and paid to the Bureau. An accounting of this fee shall be rendered monthly by each licensed cottonseed chemist, accompanied by a check for the amount, made payable to the United States Department of Agriculture.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, this 30th day of July, 1937.

PUBLIC NOTICE ESTABLISHING STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF COTTONSEED SOLD OR OFFERED FOR SALE FOR CRUSHING PURPOSES WITHIN THE UNITED STATES

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, * * * and for other purposes," (Public No. 173, 75th Congress), I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby fix, establish, and promulgate the following official standards of the United States for grades of cottonseed sold or offered for sale for crushing purposes, the same to supersede the standards for cottonseed promulgated May 23, 1932, and to be in force and effect as long as Congress shall provide the necessary authority therefor, unless amended or superseded by standards hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority.

SECTION 1. The grade of cottonseed shall be determined from the analysis of samples, and it shall be the result, stated in the nearest whole or half numbers, obtained by multiplying a quantity index by a quality index and dividing the result by 100 as hereinafter provided.

(a) The basis grade of cottonseed shall be grade 100.

(b) High grades of cottonseed shall be those grades above 100.

(c) Low grades of cottonseed shall be those grades below 100.

SEC. 2. The following formulae shall be used in determining the quantity index of cottonseed:

(a) For cottonseed, that by analysis contain 17 per cent of oil or more, the quantity index shall equal 4 times the percentage of oil, plus 6 times the percentage of ammonia, plus 5.

(b) For cottonseed, that by analysis contain less than 17 per cent oil, the quantity index shall equal 5 times the percentage of oil, plus 6 times the percentage of ammonia, minus 12.

SEC. 3. The quality index of cottonseed shall be a percentage of purity and soundness, and shall be determined as follows:

(a) Superior quality cottonseed.—Cottonseed that, by analysis, contain not less than 18.7 per cent oil, nor more than one-half of one per cent foreign matter, 8 per cent but not more than 10.0 per cent moisture, and not more than one-half of one per cent free fatty acids in the oil in the seed shall be known as superior quality cottonseed and shall have a quality index of 102.

(b) Prime quality cottonseed.—Cottonseed that, by analysis, contain not more than 3 per cent foreign matter, not more than 12 per cent moisture, and not more than 1.8 per cent free fatty acids in the oil in the seed, shall be known as prime quality cottonseed and shall have a quality index of 100 per cent.

(c) Subquality cottonseed.—Cottonseed that, by analysis, contain foreign matter, moisture, and or free fatty acids in the oil in the seed in excess of the percentages shown in section 3-b, shall be known as sub-quality cottonseed; and the quality index of such cottonseed shall be found by reducing the quality index of prime quality cottonseed as follows:

(1) Not to exceed five-tenths of a unit for each 0.1 per cent of free fatty acids in the oil in the seed in excess of 1.8 per cent.

(2) Not to exeecd 1 unit for each 1 per cent of foreign matter in excess of 3 per cent.

(3) Not to exceed 1 unit for each 1 per cent of moisture in excess of 12 per cent.

(d) Off quality cottonseed.—Cottonseed that have been treated by either mechanical or chemical process other than the usual cleaning, drying, and ginning (except such sterilization as may be required by the United States Department of Agriculture for quarantine purposes) or that are "hot" or fermented, or that upon analysis are found to contain 13 per cent or more free fatty acids in the oil, or more than 25 per cent foreign matter, or more than 25 per cent moisture, or more than 40 per cent combined moisture and foreign matter, shall be designated as "Off Quality Cottonseed, approximate grade——."

SEC. 4. Sampling, analysis, and certification of samples and grades.—The drawing and preparation and certification of samples of cottonseed and the analysis and certification of grades of cottonseed shall be performed in accordance with methods approved from time to time by the Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, this 30th day of July, 1937.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO MIGRATORY BIRDS AND CERTAIN GAME MAMMALS

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas the Acting Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to sections 3 and 4 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act (40 Stat. 755), as amended June 20, 1936 (49 Stat. 1555), has adopted and submitted to me regulations which he has determined to be suitable regulations permitting and governing (1) hunting, taking, capture, killing, possession, sale, purchase, shipment, transportation, carriage, exportation and importation of migratory birds and parts, nests, and eggs thereof, included in the terms of the Convention between the United States and Great Britain for the protection of migratory birds concluded August sixteenth, nineteen hundred and sixteen and the Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States for the protection of migratory birds and game mammals concluded February seventh, nineteen hundred and thirty-six, and (2) exportation and importation to and from Mexico of game mammals, parts and products thereof, included in the aforesaid Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States, which said regulations are as follows:

REGULATIONS ADOPTED BY THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE PURSUANT TO THE MIGRATORY BIRD TREATY ACT

Pursuant to the authority and direction contained in sections 3 and 4 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755), as amended by the Act of June 20, 1936 (49 Stat. 1555), I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, having due regard to the zones of temperature and to the distribution, abundance, economic value, breeding habits and times and lines of migratory flight of migratory birds included in the terms of the Conventon between the United States and Great Britain for the protection of migratory birds, concluded August sixteenth, nineteen hundred and sixteen, and the Convention between the United States and the United Merican States for the protection of migratory birds and game mammals concluded February seventh, nineteen hundred and thirty-six, and having due regard to the laws of the United Mexican States relating to the exportation and importation of game mammals, and parts and products thereof, included in the terms of the said Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States and to the laws of the States and Territories and of the District of Columbia from and into which such mammals, parts and products thereof, may be proposed to be exported or imported, and to the laws of the United States forbidding importation of certain live mammals injurious to the interests of agriculture and horticulture, have determined when, to what extent, and by what means it is compatible with the terms of said Conventions and Act to allow hunting, taking, capture, killing, possession, sale, purchase, shipment, transportation, carriage, exportation and importation of such birds and parts thereof and their nests and eggs, and exportation and importation of such mammals to and from Mexico, and, in accordance with such determinations, do hereby adopt the following regulations as suitable regulations permitting and governing hunting, taking, capture, killing, possession, sale, purchase, shipment, transportation, carriage, exportation and importation of said migratory birds and parts, nests, and eggs thereof, and the exportation and importation of game mammals, parts and products thereof to and from Mexico:

REGULATION 1. DEFINITIONS OF MIGRATORY BIRDS AND GAME MAMMALS

Migratory birds included in the terms of the conventions between the United States and Great Britain for the protection of migratory birds, and between the United States and United Mexican States for the protection of migratory birds and game mammals, concluded, respectively, August 16, 1916 and February 7, 1936, are as follows:

1. Migratory game birds:

(a) Anatidae, or waterfowl, including brant, wild ducks, geese, and swans.

(b) Gruidae, or cranes, including little brown, sandhill, and whooping cranes.

(c) Rallidae, or rails, including coots, gallinules, and sora and other rails.

(d) Limicolae (Charadrii), or shore birds, including avocets, curlews, dowitchers, godwits, knots, oyster-catchers, phalaropes, plovers, sandpipers, snipe, stilts, surf birds, turn-stones, willet, woodcock, and yellowlegs.

(e) Columbidae, or pigeons, including doves and wild pigeons.

2. Migratory insectivorous and other migratory nongame birds.—Cuckoos, flickers and other woodpeckers; nighthawks, or bullbats, chuck-wills-widows, poor-wills, and whip-poor-wills; swifts; hummingbirds; kingbirds, phoebes, and other flycatchers; horned larks; bobolinks, cowbirds, blackbirds, grackles, meadowlarks, and orioles; grosbeaks, finches, sparrows, and buntings; tanagers; martins and other swallows; waxwings; phainopeplas; shrikes; vireos; warblers; pipits; catbirds, mockingbirds, and thrashers; wrens; brown creepers; nuthatches; chickadees and titmice; kinglets and gnatcatchers; robins and other thrushes; all other perching birds which feed entirely or chiefly on insects; and auks, auklets, bitterns, fulmars, gannets, grebes, guillemots, gulls, herons, jaegers, loons, murres, petrels, puffins, sharewaters, and terns.

Game mammals under the terms of the aforesaid convention between the United States and the United Mexican States include:

Antelope, mountain sheep, deer, bears, peccaries, squirrels, rabbits, and hares.

REGULATION 2. DEFINITION OF TERMS

For the purposes of these regulations the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean and to include—

Secretary.—The Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

Chief of the Bureau.—The Chief of the Bureau of Biological Survey, United States Department of Agriculture.

Person.—The plural or the singular, as the case demands, individuals, clubs, associations, partnerships, and corporations, unless the context otherwise requires.

Take.—Hunt, kill, or capture, or attempt to hunt, kill, or capture.

Open season.—The time during which migratory birds may be taken.

Transport.—Ship, transport, carry, export, import, and receive or deliver for shipment, transportation, carriage, exportation, or importation.

REGULATION 3. MEANS BY WHICH MIGRATORY GAME BIRDS MAY BE TAKEN

The migratory game birds for which open seasons are specified in regulation 4 of these regulations may be taken during such respective open seasons with a shotgun only, not larger than no. 10 gage, fired from the shoulder, except as specifically permitted by regulations 7, 8, 9, and 10 of these regulations, but they shall not be taken with or by means of any automatic-loading or hand-operated repeating shotgun capable of holding more than three shells, the magazine of which has not been cut off or plugged with a one-piece metal or wooden filler incapable of removal through the loading end thereof, so as to reduce the capacity of said gun to not more than three shells at one time in the magazine and chamber combined; they may be taken during the open season from land or water, with the aid of a dog, and from a blind, boat, or floating craft except sinkbox (battery), powerboat, sailboat, any boat under sail, and any craft or device of any kind towed by powerboat or sailboat; but nothing herein shall permit the taking of migratory game birds from or by means, aid, or use of an automobile or aircraft of any kind.

Waterfowl (except for propagation, scientific, or banding purposes under permit pursuant to regulations 8 and 9 of these regulations) and mourning doves and white-winged doves are not permitted to be taken by means, aid, or use, directly or indirectly, of corn, wheat, oats, or other grain or products thereof, salt, or any kind of feed whatsoever, placed, deposited, distributed, scattered, or otherwise put out whereby such waterfowl or doves are lured, attracted, or enticed, regardless of the distance intervening between any such grain, salt, or feed and the position of the taker; and in the taking of waterfowl, the use, directly or indirectly, of live duck or goose decoys is not permitted, regardless of the distance intervening between any such live decoys and the position of the taker; nor shall anything in these regulations be deemed to permit the use of aircraft of any kind, or of a powerboat, sailboat, or other floating craft or device of any kind, for the purpose of concentrating, driving, rallying, or stirring up waterfowl.

A person over 16 years of age is not permitted to take migratory waterfowl unless at the time of such taking he has on his person an unexpired Federal migratory bird hunting stamp, validated by his signature written across the face thereof in ink. Persons not over 16 years of age are permitted to take migratory waterfowl without such stamp.

REGULATION 4. OPEN SEASONS ON AND POSSESSION OF CERTAIN MIGRATORY GAME BIRDS

Waterfowl (except snow geese and brant in Florida and all States north thereof bordering on the Atlantic Ocean, Ross's goose, wood duck, canvasback duck, redhead duck, ruddy duck, bufflehead duck, and swans), and coot may be taken each day from 7 a. m. to 4 p. m., and rails and gallinules (other than coot), Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe, woodcock, mourning doves, white-winged doves, and band-tailed pigeons from 7 a. m., to sunset each day during the open seasons prescribed therefor in this regulation, and they may be taken by the means and in the numbers permitted by regulations 3 and 5 of these regulations, respectively, and when so taken may be possessed in the numbers permitted by regulation 5 any day in any State or Territory, or in the District of Columbia, during the period constituting the open season where taken and for an additional period of 10 days next succeeding said open season, but no such bird shall be possessed in a State or Territory, or in the District of Columbia at a time when such State, Territory, or District prohibits the possession thereof. Nothing herein shall be deemed to permit the taking of migratory birds on any reservation or sanctuary established under the Migratory Bird Conservation Act of February 18, 1929 (45 Stat. 1222), nor on any area of the United States set aside under any other law, proclamation, or Executive order for use as a bird, game, or other wildlife reservation, breeding grounds, or refuge except insofar as may be permitted by the Secretary of Agriculture under existing law, nor on any area adjacent to any such refuge when such area is designated as a closed area under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

Waterfowl, Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe, and coot.—The open seasons for waterfowl (except snow geese and brant in Florida and all States north thereof bordering on the Atlantic Ocean, Ross's goose, wood duck, ruddy duck, canvasback duck, redhead duck, bufflehead duck, and swans), Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe, and coot, in the several States and Alaska, shall be as follows, both dates inclusive:

REGULATION 5. DAILY BAG AND POSSESSION LIMITS ON CERTAIN MIGRATORY GAME BIRDS

A person may take in any one day during the open seasons prescribed therefor in regulation 4 of these regulations not to exceed the following numbers of migratory game birds, which numbers shall include all birds taken by any other person who for hire accompanies or assists him in taking such birds; and when so taken these may be possessed in the numbers specified as follows:

Ducks (except wood duck, canvasback duck, redhead duck, ruddy duck, and bufflehead duck).—Ten in the aggregate of all kinds, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 10 ducks in the aggregate of all kinds.

Geese and brant (except snow geese and brant in Florida and all States north thereof bordering on the Atlantic Ocean, and Ross's geese).—Five in the aggregate of all kinds, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 5 geese and brant in the aggregate of all kinds.

Rails and gallinules (except sora and coot).—Fifteen in the aggregate of all kinds, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 15 in the aggregate of all kinds.

Sora.—Fifteen, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 15.

Coot.—Twenty-five, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 25.

Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe.—Fifteen, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 15.

Woodcock.—Four, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 4.

Mourning doves and white-winged doves.—Fifteen in the aggregate of both kinds, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 15 in the aggregate of both kinds.

Band-tailed pigeons.—Ten, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 10.

The possession limits hereinbefore prescribed shall apply as well to ducks, geese, brant, rails, including coot and gallinules, Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe, woodcock, mourning doves, white-winged doves, and band-tailed pigeons taken in Canada, Mexico, or other foreign country and brought into the United States, as to those taken in the United States.

REGULATION 6. SHIPMENT, TRANSPORTATION, AND POSSESSION OF CERTAIN MIGRATORY GAME BIRDS

Migratory game birds of a species for which open seasons are prescribed by regulation 4 of these regulations, legally taken, and parts thereof, may be transported in any manner in or out of the State where taken during the respective open seasons in that State, and when legally taken in and exported from Canada or Mexico, and if from Mexico are accompanied by a Mexican export permit, may be transported into the United States during the open season in the Province, State, or District where killed, but not more than the number thereof that may be taken in 1 day by one person under these regulations shall the transported by one person in 1 calendar week out of the State where taken or from Canada or Mexico into the United States; any such birds or parts thereof in transit during the open season may continue in transit such additional time immediately succeeding such open season, not to exceed 5 days, necessary to deliver the same to their destination, and may be possessed in any State, Territory or District during the period constituting the open season where taken, and for an additional period of 10 days next succeeding said open season; and any package in which such birds or parts thereof are transported shall have the name and address of the shipper and of the consignee and an accurate statement of the numbers and kinds of birds or parts thereof contained therein clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof; but no such birds or parts thereof shall be transported from any State or Territory, or the District of Columbia, to or through another State or Territory, or the District of Columbia, or to or through Canada or Mexico contrary to the laws of the State or Territory, or the District of Columbia in which they were taken or from which they are transported; nor shall any such birds or parts thereof be transported into any State or Territory, or the District of Columbia from another State or Territory, or the District of Columbia, or from Canada or Mexico, or from any State or Territory, or the District of Columbia into any Province of the Dominion of Canada or into Mexico at a time when any such State, Territory, District, or Province, or Mexico, into which they are transported, prohibits the possession or transportation thereof.

Migratory game birds imported from countries other than Canada and Mexico.—Migratory game birds of a species for which open seasons are prescribed by regulation 4 of these regulations, legally taken in and exported from a foreign country (other than Canada and Mexico, for which provision is hereinbefore made) may be transported to and possessed in any State or Territory, during the open season prescribed by said regulation 4 in such State or Territory for that species and for a period of 10 days immediately succeeding such open season, and in the District of Columbia during the open season so prescribed for Maryland and 10 days thereafter, in numbers in any 1 calendar week not exceeding those permitted to be taken in 1 day by regulation 5 of these regulations, if transportation and possession of such birds is not prohibited by the laws of such State, Territory, or District and if transported in packages marked as hereinbefore provided.

REGULATION 7. TAKING OF CERTAIN MIGRATORY NONGAME BIRDS BY ESKIMOS AND INDIANS IN ALASKA

In Alaska Eskimos and Indians may take, in any manner and at any time, and may possess and transport, auks, auklets, guillemots, murres, and puffins and their eggs and skins for the use of themselves and their immediate families for food and clothing.

REGULATION 8.—PERMITS TO PROPAGATE MIGRATORY WATERFOWL

1. A person in possession of a valid, subsisting permit issued to him by a State, on its part, authorizing him to take therein migratory waterfowl or their eggs for propagating purposes, may take such birds or their eggs in such State for such purposes when authorized by a permit issued to him by the Secretary, which permit may limit the species and numbers of birds or eggs that may be taken and the period during which and the locality where they may be taken. Both permits shall be carried on the person of the permittee when he is taking migratory waterfowl or their eggs and shall be exhibited to any person requesting to see them. Waterfowl and their eggs so taken may be possessed by the permittee and may be sold and transported by him for propagating purposes to any person holding a permit issued by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

2. A person in possession of a valid, subsisting permit issued to him by a State, on its part, authorizing him to possess, purchase, sell, and transport migratory waterfowl and their increase and eggs for propagating purposes, may possess, purchase, sell, and transport such waterfowl and their increase and eggs for such purposes when authorized by a permit issued to him by the Secretary; but may not purchase or sell to any person not authorized by these regulations or by a permit issued thereunder to sell or purchase such waterfowl and their eggs; and migratory waterfowl, except the birds taken under paragraph 1 of this regulation, so possessed may be killed by him at any time and in any manner (except that they may be killed by shooting only during the open season for waterfowl in the State where killed), and the carcasses, with heads and feet attached thereto, may be sold and transported by him to any person for actual consumption, or to the keeper of a hotel, restaurant, or boarding house, a retail dealer in meat or game, or a club, for sale or service to their patrons, who may possess such carcasses for actual consumption without a permit, but no such birds that have been killed shall be bartered, sold, or purchased unless each bird before attaining the age of 4 weeks shall have had removed from the web of one foot a portion thereof in the form of a V large enough to make a permanent, well-defined mark, which shall be sufficient to identify it as a bird raised in domestication under a permit.

3. Applications for permits shall be addressed to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and must state the name and address of the applicant; the place where the propagating project is to be carried on; the area to be used in the project; the facilities the applicant has for properly caring for the waterfowl; the number of each species of waterfowl in his possession, and how, when, and where they were acquired; and, if the application is for a permit to take migratory waterfowl or their eggs, the species and number of each species or eggs of each species proposed to be taken, and the specific locality where it is proposed to take them.

4. Every permittee shall keep books and records that shall correctly set forth the number of each species of waterfowl and their eggs taken by him, if he holds a permit to take waterfowl, the number of each species of waterfowl and their eggs possessed on the date of application for a permit, the number of each species reared and killed, the number of each species and their eggs sold and transported, the manner in which they are transported, the name and address of each person from or to whom waterfowl and eggs were purchased or sold, the number and species so purchased or otherwise acquired or sold and whether sold alive or dead, and the date of each transaction. Whenever requested by the Chief of the Bureau, the permittee shall submit to him such report of his operations under the permit as may be called for, and in any event shall file with the Secretary, on a form provided therefor, on or before January 10, a full report of his operations during the preceding calendar year. Failure to make the reports therein provided for will be cause for revocation of the permit.

5. A permittee shall at all reasonable hours allow any authorized employee of the United States Department of Agriculture to enter and inspect the premises where operations are being carried on under this regulation and to inspect the books and records relating thereto.

6. No permit issued by the Secretary authorizes the taking, possession, sale, purchase, exchange, or transportation of migratory waterfowl or their eggs unless the permittee has in his possession while exercising any such privilege a valid, subsisting permit of equivalent tenor issued to him by the State in which he proposes to operate. No permit issued by the Secretary authorizes the transportation of migratory waterfowl or their eggs from Mexico into the United States unless such waterfowl or eggs are accompanied by a Mexican export permit. Permits are not transferable and are revocable at any time in the discretion of the Secretary. A permit revoked by the Secretary shall be surrendered to him by the person to whom it was issued on demand of any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture authorized to enforce the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

7. A person may possess and transport, subject to the provisions of paragraph 8 of this regulation, for his own use, without a permit, live migratory waterfowl now legally possessed or hereafter legally acquired by him, but he may not purchase or sell such waterfowl without a permit. A State or municipal game farm or city park may possess, purchase, sell, and transport live migratory waterfowl without a permit, but no such waterfowl shall be purchased from or sold to a person (other than such State or municipal game farm or city park) unless he has a permit. Feathers of wild ducks and wild geese legally killed, and feathers of such birds seized and condemned by Federal or State game authorities, may be possessed, purchased, sold, and transported for use in making fishing flies, bed pillows, and mattresses, and for such similar commercial purposes, but not for millinery or ornamental purposes.

8. Every package in which migratory waterfowl or parts or eggs thereof are shipped wholly within a State or Territory, or the District of Columbia, or in which such waterfowl, parts, or eggs are transported by any means whatever from one State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, to, into, or through another State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or to a foreign country, shall be plainly and clearly marked, labeled, or tagged on the outside thereof to show the name and address of the consignor and consignee, the contents of the package, the number of the permit under authority of which it is shipped or transported and the purpose for which the waterfowl or eggs are being shipped or transported.

REGULATION 9. PERMITS TO COLLECT MIGRATORY BIRDS FOR SCIENTIFIC PURPOSES

1. A person in possession of a valid, subsisting permit issued to him by a State, on its part, authorizing him to take therein migratory birds or their nests or eggs for scientific purposes may take such birds or their nests or eggs in such State for such purposes when authorized by a permit issued to him by the Secretary. Both permits shall be carried on his person when he is collecting migratory birds thereunder, and shall be exhibited to any person requesting to see them; but nothing herein shall be deemed to permit the taking of any migratory game bird during the open season therefor in any manner or by any means or at any time of the day not permitted by regulations 3 and 4 of these regulations.

2. Applications for permits shall be addressed to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and must state the name and address of the applicant, his age, the State or Territory in which migratory birds or their nests or eggs are proposed to be taken, the purpose for which they are intended, information sufficient to show that such birds, nests, or eggs permitted to be taken will be devoted to scientific purposes, and the names and addresses of at least two well-known ornithologists, principals or superintendents of educational or zoological institutions, officials or members of zoological or natural history organizations, or instructors in zoology in high schools, colleges, or universities, from whom may be obtained information respecting the applicant's status as a scientific investigator. The applicant must furnish such other information touching his fitness to be entrusted with a permit as may be called for by the Secretary.

3. A permit may limit the number and species of migratory birds or their nests or eggs that may be taken thereunder, and the places where, time when, and means by which they may be taken, and may authorize the holder thereof, when possessed of an equivalent State permit, to possess, purchase, sell, exchange, and transport migratory birds and their nests and eggs for scientific purposes but not to purchase or sell to any person not authorized by these regulations or by a permit issued thereunder to sell or purchase such birds, nests or eggs, or it may limit the holder to one or more of these privileges. Public museums, zoological parks and societies, and public scientific and educational institutions may possess, purchase, sell, exchange, and transport migratory birds and their nests and eggs for scientific purposes, without a permit, but no such birds, nests, or eggs shall be taken without a permit or purchased from, sold to, or exchanged with a person not authorized by these regulations or by a permit issued thereunder to sell, purchase or exchange them. The plumage and skins of migratory game birds legally taken may be possessed and transported by a person without a permit.

4. A taxidermist, when authorized by a permit issued by the Secretary, may possess any migratory bird, or nest or egg thereof delivered to him for mounting or other preparation by any person who has legally taken or legally possesses it and may transport such bird, nest or egg in consummation of such purpose when likewise authorized by the State in which such permittee is operating. Every such permittee shall keep books and records correctly setting forth the name and address of each person delivering each migratory bird or nest or egg thereof to him, together with the name of each species, the date of delivery, the disposition of each such bird, nest or egg and the date thereof, and such books and records shall be available for inspection at all reasonable hours on request of any authorized representative of the Department of Agriculture.

5. No permit issued by the Secretary authorizes the taking, possession, sale, purchase, exchange, or transportation of any migratory bird, or nest or egg thereof, unless the permittee has in his possession while exercising any such privilege, a valid, subsisting permit of equivalent tenor issued to him by the State in which he proposes to operate. No permit issued by the Secretary authorizes the transportation of any migratory bird, or part, nest or egg thereof from Mexico into the United States unless such bird, or part, nest, or egg is accompanied by a Mexican export permit. Permits are not transferable and are revocable at any time in the discretion of the Secretary. A permit revoked by the Secretary shall be surrendered to him by the person to whom it was issued on demand of any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture authorized to enforce the Migratory Bird Treaty Act. Whenever requested by the Chief of the Bureau, the permittee shall submit to him such report of his operations under the permit as may be called for, and in any event shall file with the Secretary, on a form provided therefor, on or before January 10, a full report of his operations during the preceding calendar year. Failure to make the reports herein provided for will be cause for revocation of the permit.

6. Every package in which migratory birds or parts, nests or eggs thereof are shipped wholly within a State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or in which such birds, parts, nests, or eggs are transported by any means whatever from one State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, to, into, or through another State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or to a foreign country, for scientific purposes shall be plainly and clearly marked, labeled, or tagged on the outside thereof to show the name and address of the consignor and consignee, the contents of the package, the number of the permit under authority of which it is transported, and that the specimens contained therein are for scientific purposes.

REGULATION 10. PERMITS TO KILL MIGRATORY BIRDS INJURIOUS TO PROPERTY

Community injury.—When information is furnished the Secretary that any species of migratory bird has become, under extraordinary conditions, seriously injurious to agriculture or other interests in any particular community, an investigation will be made to determine the nature and extent of the injury, whether the birds alleged to be doing the damage should be killed, and, if so, during what times and by what means. Upon his determination an appropriate order will be made.

Specific injury.—Upon receipt by the Chief of the Bureau, or the Regional Director of the Bureau of Biological Survey in the region where the injury occurs, of information from the owner, tenant, or share cropper that migratory birds are injuring his crops or other property on the land on which he resides, together with a statement of the location of the land, the nature of the crops or property being injured, the extent of such injury, and the particular species of birds committing the injury, an investigation will be made and if it is determined from such investigation that the injury complained of is substantial and can be abated only by killing the birds, or so many thereof as may be necessary, a permit to kill the birds will be issued by said Chief of the Bureau or Director, in which permit will be specified the time during which, the means and methods by which, and the person or persons by whom the birds may be killed, and the disposition to be made of the birds so killed, and such other restrictions as may be deemed necessary and appropriate in the circumstances of the particular case: Provided, however, That in every permit issued as aforesaid it shall be specified that no such birds shall be shot at or killed at any time or in any manner not authorized by the laws of the State in which such permit is effective; and as to migratory waterfowl, that they shall not be shot at or killed (1) from any blind, sink, pit, or any other device or means of concealment, whether natural or artificial, movable or stationary, or on land or water; (2) by means of any gun larger than no. 10 gage, or of any gun to which a silencer has been attached or otherwise affixed; and (3) by the use of decoys of any description, or of traps or nets of any kind.

Every person exercising any privilege hereinbefore in this regulation provided for shall keep an accurate record of all migratory birds killed by him and whenever requested by the Chief of the Bureau or by the Regional Director shall submit promptly, on a form provided by the Bureau for the purpose, a report correctly stating the species and number of each species of migratory birds killed by him and in any event shall submit such report to the Regional Director on or before January 10 of each year. Failure to submit a report as required by this regulation will be sufficient cause for revocation of any permit or withdrawal of any privilege accorded any person failing to make the report.

REGULATION 11. STATE LAWS FOR THE PROTECTION OF MIGRATORY BIRDS

Nothing in these regulations or in any permit issued thereunder shall be construed to permit the taking, possession, sale, purchase, or transportation of migratory birds, or parts, nests, or eggs thereof contrary to the laws and regulations of any State or Territory, or the District of Columbia, made for the purpose of giving further protection to migratory birds, their nests, and eggs when such laws and regulations are not inconsistent with the conventions between the United States and any other country for the protection of migratory birds or with the Migratory Bird Treaty Act and do not extend the open seasons for such birds beyond the dates prescribed by these regulations.

REGULATION 12. TRANSPORTATION OF GAME MAMMALS TO AND FROM MEXICO

Game mammals, parts or products thereof, taken in and transported from a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia may be transported to Mexico, if the importation thereof is not prohibited by law or regulation of that country, upon presentation to the Collector of customs at the port of exit of the certificate of an official, warden, or other officer of the game department of such State, Territory, or District, that such game mammals, or parts or products thereof, which must be listed in the certificate, were taken or acquired and are being transported in compliance with the laws and regulations of such State, Territory, or District.

Live game mammals authorized by a special permit issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to Section 241 of the Penal Code, to be imported, and the dead bodies, parts or products of game mammals, proceeding from Mexico, if accompanied by a Mexican export permit, may be transported into the United States, but their possession in any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia will be subject to the laws of such State, Territory, or District.

The Migratory Bird Treaty Act Regulations approved July 31, 1918 (40 Stat. 1912) and all amendments thereof are hereby revoked, but all regulations heretofore adopted and approved pursuant to said Act closing areas of land and water or of land or water adjacent to migratory bird sanctuaries, refuges, reservations, and breeding and feeding grounds to the taking of migratory birds, and all orders and permits of the Secretary of Agriculture heretofore made or issued pursuant to said Act and now in force authorizing the killing or other disposition of certain species of migratory birds when injurious to crops and other property and interests and the taking, possession, sale, purchase, exchange, or transportation of migratory birds and their nests and eggs for scientific purposes, and migratory waterfowl for propagating purposes, are hereby continued and extended in full force and effect as regulations, orders, and permits adopted and approved or made or issued hereunder.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 26th day of July, 1937.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON,

AND WHEREAS upon consideration it appears that approval of the foregoing regulations will tend to effectuate the purposes of the aforesaid Migratory Bird Treaty Act and result in reducing the annual kill of migratory game birds:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do hereby approve and proclaim the foregoing regulations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this thirtieth day of July, in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and thirty-seven, and of the Independence of the United

SUSPENDING ANNUAL ASSESSMENT WORK ON MINING CLAIMS

JULY 22, 1937.

Registers, U. S. Land Office.

Sirs: For your information, and in order that you may inform inquirers relative thereto, your attention is called to the act of June 24, 1937, Public No. 161,[1] providing for the suspension of annual assessment work on mining claims held by location in the United States, and reading as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provision of section 2324 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, which requires on each mining claim located, and until a patent has been issued therefor, not less than $100 worth of labor to be performed or improvements aggregating such amount to be made each year, be, and the same is hereby, suspended as to all mining claims in the United States during the year beginning at 12 o'clock meridian July 1, 1936, and ending at 12 o'clock meridian July 1, 1937: Provided, That the provisions of this Act shall not apply in the case of any claimant not entitled to exemption from the payment of a Federal income tax for the taxable year 1936: Provided further, That every claimant of any such mining claim, in order to obtain the benefits of this Act, shall file, or cause to be filed, in the office where the location notice or certificate is recorded, on or before 12 o'clock meridian July 1, 1937, a notice of his desire to hold said mining claim under this Act, which notice shall state that the claimant, or claimants, were entitled to exemption from the payment of a Federal income tax for the taxable year 1936: Provided further, That such suspension of assessment work shall not apply to more than six lode-mining claims held by the same person, nor to more than twelve lode-mining claims held by the same partnership, association, or corporation: And provided further, That such suspension of assessment work shall not apply to more than six placer-mining claims not to exceed one hundred and twenty acres (in all) held by the same person, nor to more than twelve placer-mining claims not to exceed two hundred and forty acres (in all) held by the same partnership, association, or corporation.

Attention is called to the fact that this Act does not apply to Alaska but applies only to claimants in the United States who are exempt from the payment of a Federal income tax for the taxable year 1936, and who file on or before 12 o'clock noon July 1, 1937, in the office where the location notice of certificate is recorded, a notice of their desire to hold the claims under the Act. The notice so filed should state that they were entitled to exemption from the payment of a Federal income tax for the year 1936.

It is to be observed that an individual who filed such notice is not entitled to exemption from performing assessment work on more than six lode claims nor on more than six placer claims not to exceed 120 acres (in all) and that a partnership, association, or corporation is not entitled to such exemption on more than twelve lode claims nor on more than twelve placer claims not to exceed two hundred and forty acres (in all).

Very respectfully,

FRED W. JOHNSON, Commissioner.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 30]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A HEARING TO DETERMINE THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF INDIANA AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH COMMERCE UPON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL, TO BE HELD AT TERRE HAUTE, INDIANA, ON AUGUST 25, 1937, BEFORE AN EXAMINER, AND NOTICE THEREOF

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, upon being advised by certain producers, producers' organizations, and other interested parties in a public hearing held at the Commission's Hearing Room at Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of July, 1937, that substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the State of Indiana directly affect interstate commerce in such coal and will cause undue and unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice as between such commerce in Indiana on the one hand and interstate commerce in such coal on the other hand as such interstate commerce is provided to be regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and that a hearing to determine the effect of intrastate transactions in bituminous coal upon interstate transactions in bituminous coal in the State of Indiana would be desirable, and upon investigation hereby orders:

1. That on August 25, 1937, commencing at the hour of ten (10) o'clock A. M., at the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Terre Haute House, Terre Haute, Indiana, a public hearing will be held to determine the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the state of Indiana, and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice, will exist between localities in Indiana in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on the other hand and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discriminations against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act to the end that the Commission may, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and to the provisions of Section 4-A of said Act.

2. That said hearing will be conducted by an Examiner designated by the Commission.

3. That interested parties may appear and present evidence at such hearing.

4. That any producer believing that particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal are not subject to the provisions of the first paragraph of Section 4-A will subsequent to the final order of the Commission in the proceeding herein noticed, be afforded full opportunity to file an application for exemption as provided in said section, upon which application a hearing will thereafter be held by the Commission upon proper notice given.

5. That failure of any producer to appear and present evidence at the hearing herein noticed to be held in Terre Haute, Indiana, on August 25, 1937, will not prejudice the case of any producer to be heard upon such application.

6. That this order and notice shall not be construed as making any person receiving a copy thereof a party to this proceeding within the provision of Section 6 (b) of the Act.

7. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this notice to each known producer of bituminous coal in the State of Indiana and to the secretaries of all of the district boards, and shall cause to be published at the expense of the Commission copy of this order and notice for three (3) days in newspapers of general circulation in the counties of Indiana in which bituminous coal is produced.

By order of the Commission.

Saint Elizabeths Hospital.

[12-10]

REGULATIONS FOR THE DISBURSEMENT OF PENSION MONEY PAID TO THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE SAINT ELIZABETHS HOSPITAL

MAY 27, 1937.

The following general rules are prescribed in conformity with the requirements of the acts of Congress, approved February 20, 1905, and February 2, 1909, for observance in the disbursement of pension money paid to the Superintendent of Saint Elizabeths Hospital.

1. All moneys received by the Superintendent under these acts shall be scheduled to the Chief Disbursing Officer, Division of Disbursements, Treasury Department, for deposit in the United States Treasury.

2. Separate accounts shall be kept by the Superintendent with each pensioner showing the amount of money received and expended, and the balance on hand.

3. The pension money shall be disbursed and used for three general purposes, in order as follows:

First. For the benefit of the pensioner.

Second. For the benefit of relatives entitled under the law.

Third. To reimburse the hospital for the pensioner's board and maintenance, where no other provision is made therefor.

4. Irrespective of the amount received as pension and placed to the pensioner's account, at least one-sixth thereof shall be reserved for the use of the pensioner, before any provision is made for payments to relatives or for board.

5. Where no provision is otherwise made for the payment of the pensioner's board and maintenance in the Hospital from public or special funds under Federal control, the remainder, after setting aside the amounts for relatives specified in paragraphs 7 to 10 below, shall be used to pay the pensioner's board and maintenance in the Hospital up to an amount equal to the current monthly rate for board of patients.

6. Any excess amounts not required for payments to relatives or for board shall be available for the purchase of such articles as may be required for the pensioner's welfare and which are not provided from the regular Hospital funds, or otherwise for the pensioner's benefit.

7. The basic rate of pension being $15 or less per month, one-sixth thereof shall be reserved for the pensioner, to be expended in the purchase of such articles as may be required for the pensioner's welfare and which are not provided from the regular Hospital funds, or otherwise for the pensioner's benefit. The entire remainder will be paid, in the case of a male pensioner, to his dependent wife, minor children, or parents, in the order named; in the case of a female pensioner, to her dependent minor children.

8. The basic rate of pension being greater than $15 but not exceeding $25 per month, the dependent wife, minor children, or parents, in the order named in the case of a male pensioner, or the dependent minor children, in the case of a female pensioner, shall receive not less than $12.50 per month, the balance to be reserved for the pensioner, to be expended in the purchase of such articles as may be required for the pensioner's welfare and which are not provided from the regular Hospital funds, or otherwise for the pensioner's benefit, subject to provision for payment of board.

9. The basic rate of pension being in excess of $25 per month, the dependent wife, minor children, or parents, in the order named in the case of a male pensioner, or the dependent minor children in the case of a female pensioner, shall receive an amount equal to one-half of the entire pension, the balance to be reserved for the pensioner, to be expended in the purchase of such articles as may be required for the pensioner's welfare and which are not provided from the regular Hospital funds, or otherwise for the pensioner's benefit, subject to provision for payment of board.

10. If the wife, minor children, or parents of a male pensioner, or the minor children of a female pensioner, be not in fact dependent upon the pensioner in any degree for support, she or they shall receive no greater than one-half of the amount payable in case of her or their dependence, the balance to be reserved for the pensioner, to be expended in the purchase of such articles as may be required for the pensioner's welfare and which are not provided from regular Hospital funds, or otherwise for the pensioner's benefit, subject to provision for payment of board.

11. If there be no wife, minor children, or parents, in the case of a male pensioner, or minor children in the case of a female pensioner, the entire amount of the pension shall be reserved for the pensioner, to be expended in the purchase of such articles as may be required for the pensioner's welfare and which are not provided from the regular Hospital funds, or otherwise for the pensioner's benefit, subject to provision for payment of board.

12. Any unexpended balance of pension money reserved for the pensioner's benefit shall be paid, in the event of the pensioner's discharge from the Hospital, to the pensioner, or to his or her lawful guardian, or in the event that the pensioner is returned to a branch of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers (now a part of the Veterans' Administration), to the treasurer or fiscal officer of such branch for such pensioner, or in the event of the pensioner's discharge from the Hospital and his immediate transfer to the United States Soldiers' Home, to the treasurer of said home. In the event of the pensioner's death while an inmate of the Hospital, the same shall be paid, in the case of a male pensioner, to his widow, or if there be no widow, to his minor children, and in the case of a female pensioner, to her minor children. If there be no widow or minor children entitled to payment of such balance of pension money, it shall be applied to the general uses of the Hospital.

13. All questions affecting the right of claimants for a share of the pension of inmates of the Hospital shall be determined upon evidence to be submitted to the United States Veterans' Administration. The findings of the United States Veterans' Administration upon such evidence shall be submitted for the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and upon their transmission to the Superintendent of the Hospital with such approval, shall be accepted by him to control the disbursement of the pension under the law and these regulations.

14. The annexed "Table of monthly division of rates of pension under the acts of February 20, 1905, and February 2, 1909", is hereby made a part of these regulations to serve as a guide in determining in each case the respective amounts to be reserved for the pensioner's benefit and to be paid to relatives entitled. Any unusual rates of pension not included will be divided as nearly as may be in the same proportions as therein observed.

A declaration having been duly filed with this Commission, by Northern States Power Company, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, regarding (1) the reclassification, by an Amendment of Article V of the Articles of Incorporation into a like number of shares of Preferred Stock, $5 Cumulative Preferred Stock, $5 Series, consisting of 275,000 shares, into a like number of shares of Preferred Stock, $5 Cumulative Series, having the same relative rights, voting powers, preferences and restrictions as are now applicable to shares of Cumulative Preferred Stock, $5 Series, and in addition each share of Preferred Stock, $5 Cumulative Series, will be convertible on or before September 2, 1947, at the option of the holder thereof, into 4 shares of Common Stock of the declarant (subject to adjustment in accordance with Section 7 of Article V of the Articles of Incorporation of the declarant, as proposed to be amended,) and declarant will under certain circumstances reimburse to the owner of any shares of Preferred Stock, $5 Cumulative Series, certain taxes imposed or paid under the laws of Pennsylvania, not exceeding, however, in any year 5 mills upon each dollar of the taxable value of such shares, all as more fully set forth in Section 8 of Article V of the Articles of Incorporation of declarant, as proposed to be amended; and (2) the issue and sale by declarant of 1,100,000 shares of Common Stock, without par value, to be issued solely upon conversion in exchange of shares of Preferred Stock, $5 Cumulative Series, proposed to be created by the aforementioned reclassification:

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on August 19, 1937, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 1103, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 14, 1937.

It is further ordered that Richard Townsend, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF INTERNATIONAL PAPER AND POWER COMPANY

[Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935]

ORDER EXEMPTING ISSUE AND SALE OF CERTAIN SECURITIES FROM PROVISIONS OF THE ACT

International Paper and Power Company, having filed with this Commission an application and three amendments thereto for an order exempting from the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 certain securities proposed to be issued and sold pursuant to a plan for change in capitalization set forth in such application; hearings thereon having been held after appropriate notice; the record in this matter having been examined and the Commission having made and filed its findings herein;

It is ordered that said applicant be and hereby is exempted from the provisions of Sections 4 (a) and 6 (a) and all other applicable sections of said Act in so far as the same apply to the issue, distribution, sale or exchange by said applicant pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of said plan, of the following securities:

1. all shares of common stock which may be issued pursuant to said plan upon the conversion of shares of 5% cumulative convertible preferred stock which, under the plan, will result from the change in said company's now outstanding cumulative 7% preferred stock and cumulative 6% preferred stock;

2. all shares of common stock which may be issued pursuant to said plan upon the exercise of common stock purchase warrants which, under the plan, will result from the change in said company's now outstanding Class A, Class B, and Class C common stocks.

It is further ordered that no further order or approval of the Commission be required with respect to the above securities, whether or not the Commission takes favorable action on a certain application, dated as of November 30, 1935, whereby said company applied for exemption under Section 3 (a) of said Act and which said application is now pending before this Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF NATIONAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORPORATION

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE PURSUANT TO SECTION 7 OF THE PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

National Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, having filed with this Commission a declaration pursuant to Section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 regarding (a) the issue and sale of $400,000 principal amount of its First Lien Collateral Trust Bonds, Ten-Year, 5%, Series "B", and 35,000 shares of its no par common stock; and (b) the amendment of its Certificate of Incorporation to change the declarant's common stock having a par value of $10 per share to common stock without par value and to eliminate the pre-emptive rights of stockholders to purchase additional stock which may be issued by the declarant; hearings on said declaration, as amended, having been held after appropriate notice; the record in this matter having been examined; and the Commission having made and filed its findings herein;

It is ordered that said declaration be and become effective forthwith, subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions and for the purposes represented by said declaration, and upon the following conditions:

That all appropriate action by said National Gas & Electric Corporation and the stockholders of said Corporation authorizing the transactions referred to in the declaration shall be completed; and

That the original indenture under which the declarant's First Lien Collateral Trust Bonds are issuable shall be appropriately amended, in order to provide that all Bonds at any time outstanding thereunder shall be secured by obligations of subsidiaries of the declarant secured by first liens on physical properties of such subsidiaries, respectively, the aggregate principal amount of which obligations shall be, at such time, not less than the aggregate principal amount of such Bonds then outstanding.

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

PENSIONABLE AND COMPENSABLE SERVICE FOR DEATH PENSION AND COMPENSATION PURPOSES

[Acts of September 1, 1922 (42 Stat. 834), and May 1, 1926 (44 Stat. 382)]

Rights to Dependents under 42 Stat. 834 and 44 Stat. 382

R-2547. For the purposes of these Acts, the widow, remarried widow, child or children of a veteran who served ninety days or more during the War with Spain, the Philippine Insurrection, or the China Relief Expedition, between April 21, 1898 ,and July 4, 1902, inclusive, service to be computed from date of enlistment to date of discharge, including all leaves of absence and furloughs under General Orders numbered 130, August 29, 1898, War Department; or, regardless of the length of service, if the veteran was discharged for or died in service of a disability incurred in the service in line of duty shall be entitled to receive pension at the monthly rates specified in R. & P. R-2634, when R. & P. R-2007 as to persons included, R. & P. R-2018 as to service, and R. & P. R-2039 as to character of discharge, are met.

Rights of Widow in Relation to Children

(A) When a pension has been granted to an insane, idiotic, or otherwise helpless child, or to a child or children under the age of 16 years, a widow or remarried widow shall not be entitled to a pension until the pension of such child or children terminates, unless such child or children be a member or members of her family and cared for by her; and upon the granting of pension to such widow or remarried widow payment of pension to such child or children shall cease. (July 31, 1937.)

Death of World War Veteran While Receiving or Entitled to Receive Compensation, Pension or Retirement Pay for Disability of Thirty Per Cent or More

R-2548. For the purposes of Public No. 484, 73d Congress (Act of June 28, 1934) and Public No. 844, 74th Congress (Act of June 29, 1936), the widow, child or children of a person who served with the United States military or naval forces in the World War before November 12, 1918, or before April 2, 1920, if service was in Russia and who dies or has died of a disability not due to service while receiving or entitled to receive at the time of death, compensation, pension, or retirement pay for a disability of 30 per centum or more directly or presumptively incurred in or aggravated by service after April 5, 1917 and before July 2, 1921, shall be entitled to receive compensation at the monthly rates specified in R. & P. R-2640.

Establishment of Service Connected Disability of 30 Per Cent or More

(A) The existence of the directly or presumptively service connected disease or injury must have been established to the satisfaction of the Veterans Administration prior to the date of the veteran's death, but the determination of a 30 per centum disability, resulting from such disease or injury, may be based upon evidence filed subsequent to death, and the proof of 30 per centum or more disability must be filed within three years from the date of death or from June 28, 1934, whichever is the later date: Provided, That a disease or injury or an aggravation thereof will be considered as having been established to the satisfaction of the Veterans Administration where the evidence of record in the Veterans Administration, or in the War or Navy Departments, prior to the death of the person who served, shows the existence of such disease or injury and as having been directly or presumptively incurred in or aggravated by service. Any disability that may be properly directly service connected under the provisions of Public No. 2, 73d Congress or Section 28, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, or under the law in effect at the time of death will be considered directly service connected for the purpose of Public No. 484, 73d Congress and any disability that may be properly presumptively service connected under the provisions of sections 26, 27 and 28 of Public No. 141, 73d Congress, or under the law in effect at the time of death will be considered presumptively service connected for the purpose of Public No. 844, 74th Congress. An existing rating of 30 per centum or more shall not include ratings of temporary total granted solely by reason of hospitalization or treatment. (July 31, 1937.)

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO EMPLOYEES TO TAKE AFFIDAVITS, ADMINISTER OATHS, ETC.; FORM 4505 REV.

[Title III, Public No. 84, 74th Congress]

9686. (A) An employee to whom authority is delegated by the Administrator in accordance with title III, Public No. 844, 74th Congress, June 29, 1936, is by virtue of such delegated authority empowered to take affidavits, to administer oaths and affirmations, to aid claimants in the preparation and presentation of claims, and to make investigations and examine witnesses upon matters within the jurisdiction of the Veterans' Administration. He is authorized also to certify to the correctness of all papers and documents pertaining to the administration of laws relating to the Veterans' Administration. Such employee, however, is not authorized to administer oaths in connection with the execution of affidavits relative to fiscal vouchers and is not authorized to take acknowledgments to policy loan agreements and applications for cash surrender value of U. S. Government life insurance.

(B) Any oath, affirmation, affidavit, or examination, when certified under the hand of any such employee by whom it was administered or taken, as provided in subparagraph (A) hereof, and when authenticated by the seal of the Veterans' Administration, as provided by R. & P. 6, may be offered or used in any court of the United States, and without further proof of the identity or authority of such employee shall have like force and effect as if administered or taken before a clerk of such court. (August 2, 1937.)

9687. The delegated authority from the Administrator to an employee will be evidenced by Form 4505 Rev., issued over the signature of the Administrator and countersigned by the chief of personnel. When it is desired to have an employee so designated, the administrative head in central office, or the manager under whom the employee is assigned, will make recommendation to the chief of personnel, central office. (August 2, 1937.)

9688. A record of Forms 4505 Rev., which are issued, will be kept by the personnel division, showing the name of the employee, the date of issue, and the official station, if in the field, or the service or division, if in central office. This record also will show cancelations of Forms 4505 Rev. (August 2, 1937.)

FREE ENTRY AUTHORIZED FOR PARTICIPANTS, OFFICIALS, AND EXECUTIVES OF THE WORLD ASSOCIATION OF GIRL GUIDES AND GIRL SCOUTS SILVER JUBILEE CAMP ARRIVING IN THE UNITED STATES

JULY 28, 1937.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Public Resolution No. 193 of the 75th Congress, approved by the President July 8, 1937, provides in part that alien Girl Guides and Girl Scouts participants, officials, and executives who are accredited members of delegations to the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts Silver Jubilee Camp to be held in the United States in 1937, shall be permitted the free entry of their personal effects and their equipment to be used in connection with the Silver Jubilee Camp, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Pursuant to the above provision of law, collectors of customs are directed to advise all persons to whom the privileges of Public Resolution No. 193 are extended that none of the articles accorded free entry under the said Resolution may be sold in the United States, and that all such articles not consumed or totally destroyed must be exported from this country.

All articles imported by delegates in their baggage, except articles properly classifiable as personal effects of a nonresident entering the United States, should be listed in detail on a regular baggage declaration form and there should be indorsed on the face of the declaration a stipulation of the declarant that all articles accorded free entry under Public Resolution No. 193, which are not consumed or totally destroyed, will be exported. Exportation under customs supervision will not be required. In the case of articles classifiable as personal effects of a nonresident entering the United States which do not accompany the owner, a written declaration will be required as provided for in article 417 of the Customs Regulations of 1931.

As evidence of the right of free entry hereunder, the persons enumerated above shall be required to present to customs officers individual identity cards issued by their own Governments or issued by the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts indicating their Girl Guide or Girl Scout status and nationality, and duly visaed without charge by American consular officers abroad.

In those cases in which personal effects or equipment to be used in connection with the Girl Guides and Girl Scouts Silver Jubilee Camp arrive in the United States prior to the arrival of the participants or other persons enumerated above, free entry will be accorded upon request therefor by the diplomatic representative of the country of the owner to the Treasury Department, through the Department of State.

In any case in which the collector is in doubt as to whether an article imported under Public Resolution No. 193 is contemplated by that provision of law, the matter should be referred to the Bureau of Customs for decision, if the said article is not free of duty under another provision of law.

The Department is informed that the Silver Jubilee Camp will be held at Camp Andree, Briarcliff Manor, New York, from August 9 to 23, 1937.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

ORDER

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 5, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of July, A. D. 1937.

[Ex Parte No. MC-1]

PAYMENT OF RATES AND CHARGES OF MOTOR CARRIERS

Investigation of the matters and things involved in this proceeding having been made, and said division, on the date hereof, having made and filed a report[1] herein containing its findings of fact and conclusions thereon, which report is made a part hereof:

It is ordered, That the following rules governing the settlement of tariff rates and charges of common carriers of property by motor vehicle be, and they are hereby, prescribed to become effective October 1, 1937:

1. Upon taking precautions deemed by them to be sufficient to assure payment of the tariff charges within the credit period herein specified, common carriers by motor vehicle may relinquish possession of freight in advance of the payment of the tariff charges thereon and may extend credit in the amount of such charges to those who undertake to pay them, such persons herein being called shippers, for a period of 7 days, excluding Sundays and legal holidays other than Saturday half-holiday. When the freight bill covering a shipment is presented to the shipper on or before the date of delivery, the credit period shall run from the first 12 o'clock midnight following delivery of the freight. When the freight bill is not presented to the shipper on or before the date of delivery, the credit period shall run from the first 12 o'clock midnight following the presentation of the freight bill.

2. Where a common carrier by motor vehicle has relinquished possession of freight and collected the amount of tariff charges presented by it as the total amount of such charges, and another freight bill for additional freight charges is thereafter presented to the shipper, the carrier may extend credit in the amount of such additional charges for a period of 30 calendar days to be computed from the first 12 o'clock midnight following the presentation of the subsequently presented freight bill.

3. Freight bills for all transportation charges shall be presented to the shippers within 7 calendar days from the first 12 o'clock midnight following delivery of the freight.

4. Shippers may elect to have their freight bills presented by means of the United States mails, and when the mail service is so used the time of mailing by the carrier shall be deemed to be the time of presentation of the bills. In case service is so used the time of mailing by the carrier shall be accepted as showing such time.

5. The mailing by the shipper of valid checks, drafts or money orders, which are satisfactory to the carrier, in payment of freight charges within the credit period allowed such shipper may be deemed to be the collection of the tariff rates and charges within the credit period for the purpose of these rules. In case of dispute as to the time of mailing the postmark shall be accepted as showing such time.

It is further ordered, That this investigation as it relates to the practices of contract carriers of property by motor vehicle be, and it is hereby, discontinued.

It is further ordered, That, effective October 1, 1937, our orders entered March 17, 1936, and July 8, 1936, under the authority of section 223 of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, in the matter of collection of rates and charges at destination by common carriers by motor vehicle be, and they are hereby, vacated and set aside.

And it is further ordered, That this order shall continue in effect until further order of the Commission.

By the Commission, division 5.

[File No. 43-71]

IN THE MATTER OF OLD DOMINION POWER COMPANY

[Declaration Pursuant to Section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935]

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A declaration having been duly filed with this Commission, by Old Dominion Power Company, a subsidiary company of The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, regarding the issue and exchange, and alteration of holder's rights, of 6,735 shares of its $7 cumulative preferred stock, without par value, by waiver and cancellation of all unpaid accumulated dividends to July 1, 1937, to be evidenced by amendment to declarant's articles of association and by stamping the outstanding certificates representing said shares with appropriate legend to the effect that cumulative dividends on said shares will commence to accrue on and after July 1, 1937;

It is ordered that a hearing on such matters be held on August 20, 1937, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 209, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 16, 1937.

It is further ordered that Richard Townsend, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

CAPITOL REEF NATIONAL MONUMENT—UTAH

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS certain public lands in the State of Utah contain narrow canyons displaying evidence of ancient sand dune deposits of unusual scientific value, and have situated thereon various other objects of geological and scientific interest; and

WHEREAS it appears that it would be in the public interest to reserve such lands as a national monument, to be known as the Capitol Reef National Monument:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 2 of the act of June 9, 1906, ch. 3060, 34 Stat. 225 (U. S. C., title 16, sec. 431), do proclaim that, subject to all valid existing rights, the following-described lands in Utah are hereby reserved from all forms of appropriation under the public-land laws and set apart as the Capitol Reef National Monument:

SHIP RADIOTELEGRAPH SAFETY RULES

ADOPTION OF TELEGRAPH DIVISION ORDER NO. 29-A

The Telegraph Division at a special meeting on July 28, 1937, adopted the following Order:

Order No. 29-A

The Telegraph Division, having under consideration the extension beyond August 6, 1937 of the exemptions granted by Order No. 29, entered by the Telegraph Division May 21, 1937, which said order (1) continued in force to and including August 6, 1937 the exemption from a continuous watch already granted under Article 29 of the Safety Convention for United States cargo vessels over 5,500 tons on international voyages, (2) extended said exemption to include all United States cargo vessels of 1,600 gross tons and over, navigating in the open sea outside a harbor or port, contingent upon the continued maintenance by all such vessels of all radio equipment, hours of watch, and other safety measures in effect or in operation on board either by reason of law or voluntary action, on the date of the approval of Public No. 97, and (3) exempted until August 6, 1937 all United States cargo vessels of 1,600 gross tons and over not subject to the Safety Convention from such requirements of Sections 351 to 355, inclusive, of Public No. 97 as relate to the obtaining of equipment or making the required installations; and

Whereas, the Telegraph Division on March 10, 1937, entered its Order No. 28 conditionally approving certain automatic alarm devices, being Radiomarine Corporation of America "Model AR-8600 auto-alarm" and "Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company auto-alarm Type 101-A manufactured by Federal Telegraph Company", subject to certain restrictions, said order being made effective as of July 10, 1937; and

Whereas, the conditions contained in said Order No. 28 were properly fulfilled so that the devices set forth therein are effectively approved on and after July 10, 1937; and

Whereas, the Safety Convention makes provision for a period of exemption from continuous watch for United States cargo vessels over 5,500 tons on international voyages until, but in no case beyond, November 6, 1937; and

Whereas, Public No. 97 provides that subject to certain conditions the Commission may defer any or all of the requirements of installation and operation of ship radio equipment, maintenance of watches by means of operators and installations on life boats until, but in no case beyond, November 20, 1937 in regard to any classes of ships of the United States not subject to the provisions of the Safety Convention if it is found impractical to obtain the necessary equipment or make the required installations; and

Whereas, the Commission is in receipt of numerous requests on behalf of United States cargo vessels for a further extension of said exemption period, accompanied by a full showing of the necessity for such extension, arising by reason of strikes and necessary delays in manufacture and installation; and

Whereas, the Commission finds that it is impractical for certain cargo vessels of 1,600 gross tons or over to obtain the necessary equipment or to make the required installations by August 6, 1937;

It is therefore ordered, That the exemptions granted by Telegraph Division Order No. 29 of May 21, 1937, be and the same are hereby extended, subject to the same terms and conditions contained in said order, for such period of time as is reasonably required to make installations of approved auto-alarms and other necessary equipment, but in no case beyond November 6, 1937;

Provided, however, That said exemption period shall not apply beyond September 6, 1937 in the case of any vessel which has not prior to September 6, 1937 actually placed with a manufacturer or dealer an order for the installation of an approved auto-alarm and any other necessary equipment; nor shall such exemption apply to any such vessel unless there shall have been filed with the Commission on or before September 6, 1937 a statement under oath containing the following information:

1. Name of owner or operator of the vessel.
2. Name of vessel or vessels.
3. Official registration number or numbers.
4. International call signals or letters.
5. Gross tonnage of each vessel.
6. Type(s) of auto-alarm(s) ordered.
7. Date on which order was placed.
8. Date of promised delivery of auto-alarm(s) to the ship owner or operator.
9. Approximate date on which the auto-alarm will be installed aboard the vessel or vessels.
10. Reason for requiring additional time, to complete installation of auto-alarm, beyond September 6, 1937.

By order of the Commission, Telegraph Division.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

SR—B-101—Amendment 13

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—SOUTHERN REGION

BULLETIN 101—AMENDMENT 13

CONTENTS

I. Method for computing the deduction to be applied against a producer's rice payment because of failure to have sufficient acreage of soil-conserving crops.
II. Method for dividing the class I payment with respect to farms where there are two or more producers.
III. Deletion of the provisions for the formulation by the Secretary of rules to govern the issuance of payments in case of death or incompetency of a producer occurring during the period of performance under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program.
IV. Method for computing the deduction to be applied against a producer's rice payment because of excess acreage of other soil-depleting crops.
V. Conditions under which two or more tracts of land in a county operated by the same person must be covered by separate work sheets and conditions under which such land may be covered by one work sheet.

NOTE.—Correction of certain typographical errors appearing in Southern Region Bulletin 101.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, Southern Region Bulletin 101, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

I

Section 17, Minimum Acreage of Soil-Conserving Crops, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

1. In cases where any deduction computed pursuant to this section 17 cannot be made in full on the computation schedule prepared for the application for payment covering the farm, the portion of the remaining part of such deduction which shall be applied against any payment with respect to rice in the State which otherwise would be made to any interested person shown on the application for payment shall be determined as follows:

(a) Divide such remaining part of the deduction by the gross deduction for excess acreage of soil-depleting crops and deficit acreage of oil-conserving crops in order to obtain the percentage of the deduction which cannot be made on the computation schedule;

(b) Determine the minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops required with respect to each soil-depleting base except sugarcane and rice by prorating the part of the soil-conserving base in excess of 30 percent of the sugarcane base for the farm to each soil-depleting base, other than sugarcane and rice, established for the farm, on the basis of the acreage in such base and by adding thereto the acreage diverted from that base for payment;

(c) Deduct the acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm from the acreage of soil-conserving crops required pursuant to this section 17 and divide the amount thus obtained by the acreage of soil-conserving crops required pursuant to this section 17, and state the result as a percentage;

(e) Multiply the amount obtained under paragraph (d) above for each soil-depleting base by the percentage of the class I payment to which such person would be entitled with respect to that base if there were a class I payment and total the amounts thus obtained;

(f) Multiply the amount obtained under paragraph (e) above by the percentage obtained under paragraph (a) above; and

(g) Multiply $3.00 by the amount obtained under paragraph (f) above, and the amount obtained under this paragraph (g) shall be applied against any payment which otherwise would be made to such person with respect to rice in the State.

II

Subsection (h), section 18, Division of Class I Payment where diversion was not made ratably, is amended to read as follows:

(h) Division of Class I Payment.—On farms where there are two or more producers, that portion of the class I payment which is to be divided among producers on the crop-share basis shall be divided among the producers entitled to share in the soil-depleting crop(s) in such base in the proportion that the acreage share of each such producer bears to the total acreage on the farm devoted in 1937 to such crop(s) except that if no acreage was devoted to the crop(s) in one or more soil-depleting bases in 1937, or if the County Committee finds that diversion was not made ratably by all producers on the farm, the portion of such payment to be made to any producer with respect to each soil-depleting base shall be

(1) in the proportion that his contribution to the difference between the respective soil-depleting base and the 1937 acreage of the crop(s) in such base bears to the total difference between such base and the 1937 acreage of the crop(s) in such base; or

(2) in the proportion that his acreage share of the respective soil-depleting base bears to such base for the farm.

In cases where the farm to be covered by an application for payment is composed of only one producer unit and no acreage on the farm is devoted in 1937 to the crop(s) in one or more soil-depleting bases established for such farm, the contribution of each producer in accordance with the provisions of either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this subsection (h) may be determined by agreement of all producers on the farm signified in the presence of at least two members of the County Committee, provided the contribution of each interested person with respect to each soil-depleting base in connection with which a payment is made is in the same proportion that such person would have shared in that soil-depleting crop (or the proceeds thereof) under the lease or operating agreement.

In cases where the farm is composed of only one producer unit and no acreage on the farm was devoted in 1937 to the crop(s) in any one or more soil-depleting bases established for such farm the contribution of each interested person with respect to any soil-depleting base in connection with which a payment is made is not in the same proportion that such person would have shared in that soil-depleting crop (or the proceeds thereof) under the lease or operating agreement, and in cases where the farm to be covered by an application for payment is composed of more than one producer unit and either no acreage on the farm was devoted in 1937 to the crop(s) in any one or more soil-depleting bases established for such farm or the County Committee finds that diversion was not made ratably, the contribution of each such producer may, subject to the approval of the Administrative Officer in Charge or the Acting Administrative Officer in Charge in the State office, acting with the advice and consent of the State Committee, be determined in accordance with the provisions of either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this subsection (h) by agreement of all producers on the farm signified in the presence of at least two members of the County Committee, provided such agreement is found by the County Committee to be equitable to all concerned. In any such case there shall be submitted to the State Office, at the time of submission of the application for payment with respect to the farm, a certification signed by each producer in the presence of and approved by at least two members of the County Committee stating that the agreement has been reached voluntarily in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

In cases where the contribution of each producer is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this subsection (h) and agreement of all producers is not obtained as outlined above, the County Committee may recommend, subject to the approval of the Administrative Officer in Charge in the State Office, acting with the advice and consent of the State Committee, and of the Director of the Southern Division, its determination of the contribution of each producer, such recommendation to set forth fully the facts upon which such recommendation is based.

III

The last sentence of subsection (i) of section 18, which reads as follows: "In case of the death or incompetency of a producer occurring during the period of performance under the 1937 program, class I and class II payments shall be made or withheld in accordance with rules to be prescribed by the Secretary", is deleted.

[1] See Proclamation No. 2246, 2 F. R. 1371.

IV

Part III, Rates and Conditions of Payment, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

SECTION 20. Deduction from Rice Payment Because of Excess Acreage of Other Soil-Depleting Crops.—In cases where any deduction computed pursuant to subsection (b) of sections 11, 12, 13, or 15 cannot be made in full on the computation schedule prepared for the application for payment covering the farm, the portion of the remaining part of such deduction which shall be applied against any payment with respect to rice in the State which otherwise would be made to any interested person shown on the application for payment shall be determined as follows:

(a) Divide such remaining part of the deduction by the gross deduction for excess acreage of soil-depleting crops and deficit acreage of soil-conserving crops in order to obtain the percentage of the gross deduction which cannot be made on the computation schedule;

(b) Multiply the deduction for excess acreage of the crop(s) in each soil-depleting base by the percentage obtained under paragraph (a) above; and

(c) Multiply each amount obtained under paragraph (b) above by the percentage of the class I payment to which such person would be entitled with respect to that soil-depleting base if there were a class I payment, and the sum of the amounts obtained under this paragraph (c) shall be applied against any payment which otherwise would be made to such person with respect to rice in the State.

Subsection (c) of section 62 is amended to read as follows:

(c) If two or more tracts of land in the same county are under different ownerships, even though they are operated by the same person, each such separately owned tract shall be covered by a separate work sheet. In case an operator rents from the same person a part of a tract of land on shares and the remainder of such tract for cash, or in case a person rents a part of a tract of land to one or more tenants on shares and a part of the same tract of land to the same tenant(s) for cash, all such land may be covered by one work sheet.

NOTE

The following typographical errors appear in the printed pamphlet edition of Southern Region Bulletin 101 but did not appear in the original or in the print in the Federal Register of January 5, 1937:

(1) On page 7, practice number 13, the figure "30" should read "50", the paragraph correctly reading as follows:

Practice Number—Practices and Conditions—Rate

13. Manganese sulphate applied in 1937 on soil-conserving crops, but payment will not be made on an amount in excess of 50 pounds per acre (per 100 pounds): 2.00.

(2) On page 20, in paragraph (1) of subsection (f) of section 62, the words "each person" should read "such person", the paragraph correctly reading as follows:

(1) An application for payment covering two or more farms in a county which are operated by the same person may be made only with the consent (indicated by signatures on the application for payment) of all persons who, as owner, share-tenant, or share-cropper, have an interest in the crops (or the proceeds thereof) grown in 1937 on any farm covered by the application; except that the signature of any person shall not be required in order to permit a grouping of such farms if such person would not receive a payment if each such farm were covered by a separate application for payment.

B. E. P. Q.—Q. 38 Revision effective September 1, 1937

BLACK STEM RUST QUARANTINE

[Quarantine No. 38]

Introductory Note

An important change in the following revision of the Black Stem Rust Quarantine is the addition of the States of Missouri, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and West Virginia to the list of States previously designated as protected.

Under paragraph A of regulation 3, persons intending to move barberry or mahonia plants other than Berberis thunbergii or its rust resistant varieties into the protected States, shall make application to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Washington, D. C., not later than June 1 (September 1 for this calendar year). Applications covering shipments proposed to be made during the next fiscal year may be denied if inspection by the department before the close of the active growing season cannot be arranged.

Summary

Unless a permit has been issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, these regulations as now revised prohibit the movement of Berberis or Mahonia plants, except Berberis thunbergii and its rust-resistant varieties, into or between the States of Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming. For further details see regulation 2.

Persons intending to move Berberis or Mahonia plants (except Berberis thunbergii or any of its rust-resistant varieties) shall make application for a permit to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Washington, D. C. See regulation 3 for further details.

Information relative to cancellation of permits, marking requiring, inspection of restricted articles in transit, and shipments by the United States Department of Agriculture are given in regulations 4 to 7 inclusive.

NOTICE OF QUARANTINE NO. 38 (REVISED)

I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, have determined that, in order to prevent the spread of a dangerous plant disease known as the black stem rust (Puccinia graminis), not heretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States and largely brought under control through the eradication of the various susceptible varieties and species of Berberis and Mahonia in the States of Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming, it is necessary to quarantine all States of the continental United States and the District of Columbia, in order to prevent the interstate spread of said disease into and among the States named.

Now, therefore, under authority conferred by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912 (37 Stat. 315), as amended by the act of March 4, 1917 (39 Stat. 1134, 1165), and having duly given the public hearing required thereby, I do quarantine each and every State of the continental United States and the District of Columbia, effective on and after September 1, 1937. Hereafter, under the authority of said act of August 20, 1912, amended as aforesaid, no plants of common barberry or other species of Berberis or Mahonia, or parts thereof capable of propagation, shall be shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved from any of said quarantined States or District into any of the protected States, namely, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Virginia, West Virvinia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming, nor from any one of said protected States into any other protected State, in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed in the rules and regulations hereinafter made and in amendments thereto.

Done at the city of Washington this 4th day of August 1937.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

REVISED RULES AND REGULATIONS SUPPLEMENTAL TO NOTICE OF QUARANTINE NO. 38

[Approved August 4, 1937; effective September 1, 1937]

Regulation 1. Definitions

For the purpose of these regulations the following words, names, and terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

(a) Black stem rust.—The disease known as the black stem rust of grains (Puccinia graminis) in any stage of development.

(b) Berberis.—Any plants, cuttings, stocks, scions, buds, fruits, seeds, or parts of plants of any species, variety, or hybrid of the genus Berberis, capable of propagation; commonly known as barberries.

(c) Mahonia.—Any plants, cuttings, stocks, scions, buds, fruits, seeds, or parts of plants of any species, variety, or hybrid of the genera Mahonia (Odostemon) or Mahoberberis, capable of propagation; commonly known as Mahonias, hollygrapes, holly barberries, or Oregon grapes.

(d) Inspector.—An inspector of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(e) Moved or allowed to be moved interstate.—Shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved or allowed to be moved from one State or District of the continental United States into any other State or District.

Regulation 2. Restrictions on the Movement of Berberis and Mahonia

(a) No Berberis or Mahonia shall be moved or allowed to be moved interstate from any State of the continental United States or from the District of Columbia into any of the protected States, namely, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming, nor from any one of said protected States into any other protected State, unless a permit shall have been issued therefor by the United States Department of Agriculture, except that no restrictions are placed by these regulations on the interstate movement either of Japanese barberry (Berberis thunbergii) or any of its rust-resistant varieties, or of cuttings (without roots) of Mahonia shipped for decorative purposes and not for propagation.

(b) No Berberis or Mahonia of species, varieties, or hybrids sufficiently susceptible to infection by black stem rust, in the judgment of the Department, to involve danger of spread of the rust shall be moved or allowed to be moved interstate into any of the said protected States, and no permit will be issued authorizing such movement.

(c) No restrictions are placed by these regulations on the interstate movement of Berberis or Mahonia consigned to destinations located outside the 17 protected States named herein.

Regulation 3. Conditions Governing the Issuance of Permits

(a) Applications.—Persons intending to move or allow to be moved interstate into any of the protected States any of the articles the movement of which is restricted under regulation 2, shall make application to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Washington, D. C., for permit as far as possible in advance of the probable date of shipment. Applications received after June 1 [1] covering shipments proposed to be made during the following fiscal year may be denied if inspection by the department before the close of the active growing season can not be arranged. Applicants will be required to agree that no Berberis or Mahonia susceptible to infection by black stem rust will be grown in any nursery or nurseries owned or controlled by the applicant or will be distributed by him. The application shall show a complete list of all Berberis and Mahonia grown by the applicant or proposed to be distributed by him, and the number of plants of each species or variety so grown or to be distributed.

(b) The department may require such specimens or other evidence as to the identity of the species, varieties, and hybrids grown and may make such inspections as may be necessary to determine such identity. Permits will be issued as to only such species as have proven to the satisfaction of the department not sufficiently susceptible to infection by black stem rust to involve danger of spread of the rust.

(c) Permits will not be issued for the interstate movement to destinations within the States named in regulation 2 of Berberis vulgaris or any of its horticultural varieties or of any other species, hybrids, or varieties of Berberis or Mahonia sufficiently suceptible to infection by black stem rust, in the judgment of the department, to involve danger of spread of the rust.

Regulation 4. Cancelation of Permits

Permits issued under these regulations may be withdrawn or canceled by the inspector and further permits refused, either for any failure of compliance with the conditions of these regulations or violation of them, or whenever in the judgment of the inspector the further use of such permits might result in the dissemination of Berberis and Mahonia susceptible to infection by black stem rust.

Regulation 5. Marking Requirements

Every box, bale, or other container of restricted articles of which inspection is required by these regulations shall be plainly marked with the name and address of the consignor and the name and address of the consignee and shall bear, securely attached to the outside thereof, a valid permit issued by an inspector in compliance with these regulations.

In the case of carload and other bulk shipments, a valid permit shall accompany the waybills, conductors' manifests, memoranda, or bills of lading pertaining to such shipments; or in the case of truck or other road vehicle the permit shall accompany the vehicle.

Regulation 6. Inspection of Restricted Articles in Transit

Any car, vehicle, basket, box, or other container moved or offered to a common carrier for shipment interstate which contains or which the inspector has probable cause to believe contains articles the movement of which is prohibited or restricted by these regulations shall be subject to inspection by an inspector at any time or place.

Regulation 7. Shipments by the United States Department of Agriculture

Articles subject to restriction in these regulations may be moved interstate by the United States Department of Agriculture for experimental or scientific purposes, on such conditions and under such safeguards as may be prescribed by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. The container of articles so moved shall bear, securely attached to the outside thereof, an identifying tag from the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine showing compliance with such conditions. These revised rules and regulations shall be effective on and after September 1, 1937, and shall on that date supersede the rules and regulations promulgated June 24, 1931, as amended, effective February 20, 1935.

Done at the city of Washington this 4th day of August 1937.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON,

Penalties

The Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912 (37 Stat. 315), provides that no person shall ship or offer for shipment to any common carrier, nor shall any common carrier receive for transportation or transport, nor shall any person carry or transport from any quarantined State or Territory or District of the United States, or from any quarantined portion thereof, into or through any other State or Territory or

District, any class of nursery stock or any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, * * * or any other article * * * specified in the notice of quarantine * * * in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. It also provides that any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, or who shall forge, counterfeit, alter, deface, or destroy any certificate provided for in this act or in the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD.

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

FEDERAL ASSOCIATIONS MAY, IN MAKING LOANS UPON SMALL APARTMENT HOUSES, LEND NOT IN EXCESS OF 60% OF VALUE WHEN AUTHORIZED BY THE BOARD.

Be it resolved, That pursuant to authority vested in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board by subsection (a) of Section 5 of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (12 U. S. C. 1464 (a)), subsection (b) of Section 39 of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Savings and Loan Associations is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof, the following:

When the members of a Federal association at a legal meeting have authorized loans to be made, from time to time, in an amount exceeding 50 percent of the value of the security of that type of other improved property which in home or combination home and business property for more than four families, but for not more than twelve families (hereinafter termed "small apartment houses") the association may make any such loan, after approval by the Board of such lending practice for such association. Prior to making such loans, application in a form satisfactory to the Board shall be made for approval of such lending practice. Such application shall set forth the area or areas in which the applicant desires to make such higher percentage loans on small apartment houses and evidence of ability to make and service such loans. If and when the Board has given such approval, such higher percentage loans on small apartment houses in the specified areas may be made in amounts not in excess of 60 percent of the value of such small apartment houses. Loans made pursuant to such approval of such lending practice are included in the 15 percent limitation in Section 5 (c) of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933.

Be it further resolved, That, it being deemed this is a major amendment affecting matters of general principle or policy, and not of an emergency character, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (a) of Section 54 of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Savings and Loan Associations, such amendment shall be effective 30 days from August 3, 1937.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on August 3, 1937.

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

PRESCRIBED FORMS OF CERTIFICATES EVIDENCING MEMBERSHIP IN FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

Be it resolved, That pursuant to authority vested in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board by subsection (a) of Section 5 of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (12 U. S. C. 1464 (a)), Section 35 of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Savings and Loan Associations is hereby amended to read as follows:

All Federal associations having charters in the form of Exhibit K annexed hereto shall issue certificates of membership evidencing the ownership of savings share accounts, investment share accounts and borrower's memberships in the respective forms set forth in Exhibit M, annexed hereto, and made a part hereof, which certificates are prescribed for use by each such Federal association and shall not be revised or modified unless and until the Board prescribes different forms for use by all Federal associations having Exhibit K charters. All certificates issued shall be numbered consecutively by type or otherwise. Each owner of an investment share account shall be issued either an investment share account book containing a certificate in the front thereof and evidencing the participation value of such investment share account or a separate certificate not contained in an investment share account book. Each owner of a savings share account shall be issued a savings share account book containing a certificate in the front thereof and evidencing the participation value of such savings share account. Each borrower shall receive a loan account book in the front of which shall be a certificate. Other legal accounting and descriptive material may be used in connection with the prescribed forms of certificates, but the form or use of such material is not prescribed.

Be it further resolved, That Exhibit M. of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Savings and Loan Associations is amended to read as follows:

EXHIBIT M

PRESCRIBED FORMS OF CERTIFICATES EVIDENCING MEMBERSHIP

1. Form of certificate evidencing ownership of a Savings Share Account which is required to be printed in the front of a Savings Share Account Book (Form K2):

This certifies that _____ is a member of _____ Federal Savings and Loan Association _____ and holds a Savings Share Account of said association, subject to its charter and bylaws and to the laws of the United States of America.

2. Form of certificate evidencing ownership of an Investment Share Account prescribed for use when printed in the front of an Investment Share Account Book (Form K2B):

This certifies that _____ is a member of _____ Federal Savings and Loan Association _____ and holds an Investment Share Account of said association, subject to its charter and bylaws and to the laws of the United States of America.

3. Form of certificate evidencing ownership of an Investment Share Account prescribed for use when printed as a separate certificate not contained in a share account book (Form K3):

This certifies that _____ is a member of _____ Federal Savings and Loan Association _____ and holds a _____ Dollar Investment Share Account of said association, subject to its charter and bylaws and to the laws of the United States of America.

4. Form of Borrower's Membership Certificate required to be printed in the front of a loan account book (Form K12):

This certifies that _____ is a member of _____ Federal Savings and Loan Association _____ and holds a loan from said association, subject to its charter and bylaws and to the laws of the United States of America.

The following legal, accounting and descriptive material may be used in connection with the foregoing forms of certificates:

(a) "Certificate No. ____", provided, however, any other method of identifying the number of certificate issued may be used.

(b) Any words which clearly indicate the type of certificate issued may be used as a title, e. g., "Savings Share Account", "Certificate for Savings Share Account", "Borrower's Membership Certificate" or "Certificate for Borrower's Membership". The title used, however, shall not conflict with the provisions of the certificate itself. There is no requirement that a title be used.

(c) A witness clause substantially in the following form shall be used on each certificate unless the execution of the certificate is attested by the secretary or an assistant secretary with the seal of the association:

"Witness the authorized signature(s) of officer or employee this _____ day of _____, 19__."

In any event, each certificate shall bear the date of issuance.

(d) Each certificate shall be manually signed in the name of the association by an officer or an employee designated by the board of directors as required by Section 8 of the bylaws, but may be signed in the name of the association by two or more officers or employees as determined by the board of directors pursuant to Section 7 of the bylaws, e. g.,

_____ Federal Savings and Loan Association_____

Authorized Signature

The title of the officer or officers designated to sign certificates may or may not appear under his or her signature or their signatures. The name of the association must appear above the manual signature or signatures.

Be it further resolved, That, it being deemed that this is a major amendment affecting matters of general principle or policy, and not of an emergency character, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (a) of Section 54 of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Savings and Loan Associations, such amendment shall be effective 30 days from July 26, 1937. Federal associations to whom a charter in the form of Exhibit K have heretofore been issued prior to the date of this resolution are authorized, however, to continue to issue certificates of membership as prescribed by the Board in Exhibit M of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Savings and Loan Associations in the present form prior to the taking effect of the foregoing amendment of Section 35 of such rules and regulations until the supply of such certificates on hand on the date of this resolution have been exhausted.

Be it further resolved, That this resolution repeals and rescinds the first resolution adopted by the Board on May 14, 1937, with respect to the four legal forms listed therein, to-wit: Form K2, Form K2B, Form K3, and Form K12, and the respective forms of certificates set forth in Exhibit M as amended by the foregoing resolution shall be referred to wherever necessary by the same form numbers.

Be it further resolved, That a copy of this resolution be made available by the Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System to any printing or forms supply concern requesting the same for reproduction and sale to Federal savings and loan associations, subject to the following condition: When any such form is printed for use as a sample, it shall contain the following notation thereon: "Form prescribed by the Federal Home Loan Board, July 26, 1937", and that the Governor be authorized to obtain the printing of a supply of this resolution and the forms prescribed by this resolution at the lowest bid price sufficient for distribution of a copy thereof to all Federal savings and loan associations.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on July 26, 1937.

Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS ON EXTENSION OF TIME FOR PAYMENTS

Be it resolved, That pursuant to the authority vested in the Board by Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 128, 129), as amended by Sections 1 and 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 643-647) and particularly by Sections 4-a and 4-k of said Act as amended, Section 213 of Chapter II of the Manual be amended by adding thereto a new subsection to be designated (1) which shall read as follows:

(1) Where analysis of the home owner's circumstances indicates that the following conditions exist:

(a) that the arrearage in the home owner's account resulted from adverse economic conditions or emergencies.

(b) that the home owner's present circumstances and the record of his payments during the past six months indicate his aparent ability to pay the outstanding balance within a period not exceeding the remaining term of the loan,

(c) that the home owner is able to keep his account in good standing by paying the installments provided in the extension to be granted as they mature, and

(d) that the home owner is able to make prompt payment of insurance premiums, taxes, assessments, ground rents, or other levies or charges as they mature.

Provided that in no event shall the period of repayment extend beyond fifteen years from the date of the original loan.

Be it further resolved, That pursuant to such authority Section 213 of Chapter II of the Manual be further amended by adding thereto the following paragraph:

(6) In any case in which an extension is not authorized under the provisions of this section but in the opinion of the Regional Manager the circumstances of the home owner and the conditions of the security justify special treatment, the file shall be forwarded to the General Manager who shall submit the same to the Board for consideration.

Be it further resolved, That the remaining subsections of Section 213 be renumbered appropriately.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on August 3, 1937.

[Manual Amendment]

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR PAYMENTS

Be it resolved, That pursuant to the authority vested in the Board by Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 128, 129) as amended by Sections 1 and 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 643-647) and particularly by Sections 4-a and 4-k of said Act as amended, numbered subparagraph (1) of Section 213 of Chapter II of the Manual be amended by striking the last word, "agreement", therefrom and substituting therefor the words "original loan", so that said subparagraph, as amended be renumbered "(2)" and read as follows:

(2) Where a delinquent home owner desires to sell to a purchaser who is able and willing to assume his obligations to the Corporation but who is unable to presently pay the entire amount of indebtedness already matured, provided that in no case shall the period of repayment exceed 15 years from the date of the original loan.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on August 3, 1937.

General Land Office.

NOTICE OF OFFER OF LANDS FOR GRAZING LEASE

JULY 31, 1937.

Section 15 of the Taylor Grazing Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), as amended by the act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976), provides that in the issuance of leases preference shall be given to owners, homesteaders, lessees, or other lawful occupants of contiguous lands to the extent necessary to permit proper use of such contiguous lands, except, that when such isolated or disconnected tracts embrace seven hundred and sixty acres or less, the owners, homesteaders, lessees, or other lawful occupants of land contiguous thereto or cornering thereon shall have a preference right to lease the whole of such tract, during a period of ninety days after such tract is offered for lease, upon the terms and conditions prescribed by the Secretary.

Notice is hereby given that the vacant, unreserved and unappropriated public lands of the United States, exclusive of Alaska, and not included in any grazing district established under the provisions of Sec. 1 of said Taylor Grazing Act, and all lands included in outstanding one-year grazing leases issued pursuant to departmental instructions of October 22, 1936 (Circular No. 1412), are hereby offered for lease for grazing purposes.

Said outstanding one-year leases will expire on various dates and upon their expiration, the lands embraced therein will become subject to new leases without prejudice, however, to the rights of the present lessees to file timely renewal applications.

Any and all persons desiring to lease any part thereof for grazing purposes under the authority of said Sec. 15 of the Taylor Grazing Act, as amended, or those having adverse or conflicting claims to such lands should file proper grazing lease applications or notice of their claims in the appropriate United States District Land Office or in the General Land Office for lands in States in which there are no District Land Offices. Anyone desiring to assert a preference right to lease isolated or disconnected tracts of seven hundred and sixty acres or less will be allowed 90 days from the date of this notice within which to file proper application for lease.

The holders of one-year leases issued under said departmental instructions of October 22, 1936, should not file new applications to lease lands embraced in their applications upon which such leases were based but instead should file petitions for renewals on forms provided. Said one year leases will in no way be disturbed as a result of this action, nor will the preference rights of the holders of such leases be jeopardized thereby.

Notice is also hereby given that all lands not on the date hereof subject to lease under this section of the act, by reason of their appropriation or reservation, but which become subject to lease at a later date, are hereby offered for lease as of the date they become subject to such appropriation and anyone desiring to assert a preference right to lease isolated or disconnected tracts of seven hundred and sixty acres or less of such lands will be allowed 90 days from the date they become subject to lease within which to file proper lease application.

Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

OFFICIAL UNITED STATES STANDARDS OF QUALITY AND CONDITION FOR SPLIT-PEAS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, and for other purposes," approved June 29, 1937, (Public No. 173, 75th Congress), I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby fix, establish, and promulgate the following standards of quality and condition for split-peas, which shall become the official standards of the United States for the inspection and certification of split-peas on the 10th day of August, 1937, and be in force and effect as long as Congress shall provide the necessary authority therefor, unless amended or superseded by standards hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed, in the city of Washington this 6th day of Aug. 1937.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON,
Acting Secretary.

OFFICIAL UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR SPLIT-PEAS

Definitions

For the purpose of the United States standards for split-peas:

Split-Peas shall be any variety or kind of dry, threshed, field and garden peas which have been split by mechanical means or otherwise into halves or smaller pieces and which contain not to exceed 5 percent of foreign material as defined in these standards.

Basis of determinations.—All determinations of factors entering into the grading of a lot of split-peas shall be made upon the basis of a representative sample drawn in accordance with methods approved by the Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Percentages.—All percentages, except in the case of moisture, shall be ascertained by weight.

Percentage of moisture shall be that ascertained by the air oven and the method of use thereof described in Service and Regulatory Announcements No. 147 of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, or ascertained by any device and method which give equivalent results in the determination of moisture.

Foreign material shall include all bran, meal, flour, and other matter which pass through a metal sieve with round perforations 2½/64" in diameter and all matter other than split-peas and whole peas, if any, which remains on such sieve.

Weevil damage shall be split-peas and whole peas, if any, which are distinctly injured by pea weevil or other insects.

Damage shall be split-peas and whole peas, if any, which are so badly injured or discolored by weather, frost, heat, disease, or other causes as to affect seriously the appearance and quality of the sample, but shall not include weevil damage and bleach.

White caps shall be split-peas from which the seed coat is not removed in the process of splitting, but which are not otherwise defective.

Whole Peas shall be dry, threshed, field and garden peas which are not split or broken in the process of splitting and which are not damaged by weevil or otherwise.

Bleach shall be split-peas which are badly bleached, that is, with one-eighth or more of the convex and/or the flat surface of a distinctly yellow or green color, as the case may be, in contrast with the good natural color which is characteristic of the class being graded, but shall not include other classes.

Other classes shall be split-peas, the entire surface of which is of a color distinctly different from the color applicable to the class predominating in the sample from the lot being graded.

Good natural color, as applied to the general appearance of split-peas, shall mean that the split-peas are practically free from bleached and discolored split-peas and possess the natural color and appearance which is characteristic of the class of split-peas being graded.

Grade designations.—The grade designation of any lot of split-peas shall include successively the letters "U. S.," the number of the grade, or the words "Sample grade," as the case may be, and the name of the class.

Federal food and drugs act.—Nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing the shipment of split-peas in violation of the Federal food and drugs act.

Classes of Split-Peas

Split-Peas shall be divided into four classes as follows:

Green split-peas.—This class shall include all split-peas manufactured from Alaska, Bluebell, and other varieties of peas the sound, split halves of which are of a distinctly green color.

Yellow split-peas.—This class shall include all split-peas manufactured from White Canada, First and Best, and other varieties of peas the sound, split halves of which are of a distinctly yellow color.

Grade requirements[1] for green split-peas and yellow split-peas

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Bleached and other classes | | White caps | Whole peas | Damage, weevil damage and foreign material | | |
| | Total | Other classes | | | Total | Weevil damage | Foreign material |
| | Percent | Percent | Percent | Percent | Percent | Percent | Percent |
| U. S. No. 1 | 1.5 | 0.5 | 1.0 | 0.5 | 1.0 | 0.5 | [2] Tr. |
| U. S. No. 3 | 5.0 | 2.0 | 3.0 | 1.0 | 3.0 | 1.0 | 0.5 |
| U. S. sample grade. | Sample grade shall be split-peas which do not meet the requirements of any of the above grades or which have any commercially objectionable odor or contain over 16 percent moisture, or are heating or are infested with live weevil or other insects, or which are otherwise of distinctly low quality. | | | | | | |

(b) Size requirements.—The minimum size requirements for the respective numerical grades for split peas shall be as follows:

U. S. No. 1.—Not more than 22% shall pass readily through a sieve with round perforations 10/64" in diameter;

U. S. No. 2.—Not more than 15% shall pass readily through a sieve with round perforations 10/64" in diameter including not more than 2% through a sieve with round perforations 8/64" in diameter;

U. S. No. 3.—Not more than 25% shall pass readily through a sieve with perforations 10/64" in diameter including not more than 2% through a sieve with round perforations 8/64" in diameter; provided, that in each numerical grade none shall pass through a sieve with round perforations 6/64" in diameter.

In determining size or calculating tolerances for size, fractional percentages of less than 1 percent shall be ignored.

[2] Trace (Tr.), as applied to foreign material in grade I shall not exceed 1/100 of 1 percent.

Special Grades for Split-Peas

Split-Pea Chips

Definitions.—Split-pea chips shall be split-peas all of which will pass readily through a metal sieve with round perforations 12/64" in diameter.

Grades.—Split-pea chips shall be classified and graded according to the class and grade requirements for green split-peas and yellow split-peas, except for size, and there shall be added to and made a part of the grade designation the word "chips;" for example, U. S. No. 1 Green Split-Pea Chips.

Size requirements.—The minimum size requirements for the respective numerical grades for split-pea chips shall be as follows:

U. S. No. 1.—Not more than 2.0% shall pass readily through a metal sieve with round perforations 6/64" in diameter;

U. S. No. 2.—Not more than 5.0% shall pass readily through a metal sieve with round perforations 6/64" in diameter;

U. S. No. 3.—Not more than 10.0% shall pass readily through a metal sieve with round perforations 6/64" in diameter.

In determining size or calculating tolerances for size, fractional percentages of less than one percent shall be ignored.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Bureau of Customs.

[T. D. 49114]

COUNTERVAILING DUTIES ON DRIED GREEN PEAS INCLUDING SPLIT PEAS FROM THE NETHERLANDS

TREASURY DECISION 47658, APPROVED APRIL 26, 1935, REQUIRING A DEPOSIT OF ESTIMATED COUNTERVAILING DUTIES ON IMPORTS OF DRIED GREEN PEAS, INCLUDING SPLIT PEAS, FROM THE NETHERLANDS, UNDER AUTHORITY OF SECTION 303, TARIFF ACT OF 1930, MODIFIED

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

The Bureau is in receipt of official information to the effect that the payment of bounties or the bestowal of grants, within the meaning of section 303 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1303), on shipments of dried green peas, including split peas, from the Netherlands has been discontinued as to direct shipments to the United States and that no bounties have been paid on such shipments since the effective date of Treasury Decision 47658, approved April 26, 1935.

In the circumstances Treasury Decision 47658 is hereby modified so as to restrict its application to indirect shipments of such merchandise from the Netherlands.

Entries covering dried green peas, including split peas, imported direct from the Netherlands should be liquidated without the assessment of countervailing duties.

VESSELS—ENTRY AND CLEARANCE

REPORT OF ARRIVAL AND ENTRY AND CLEARANCE OF CERTAIN VESSELS ON BOARD THEREOF

AUGUST 7, 1937.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Public No. 155, of the Seventy-fifth Congress, approved June 16, 1937, relating to the report of arrival and entry and clearance of certain vessels, is as follows:

[H. R. 6438]

AN ACT

To expedite the dispatch of vessels from certain ports of call.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in order to expedite the dispatch of vessels carrying passengers operating on regular schedules and arriving at night or on a Sunday or a holiday at a port in the United States at which such vessels is required by law to report arrival and make entry and from which it is required to obtain a clearance, the collector of customs, or any deputy collector of customs designated by him, if the vessel departs during the same night, Sunday, or holiday on which it arrives may, under such regulations as may be prescribed jointly by the Secretary of Commerce and the Secretary of the Treasury, receive the report of arrival and entry of such vessel from and give clearance for such vessel to the master or other proper officer thereof on board such vessel: Provided, That bond, as prescribed in section 451 of the Tariff Act of 1930, is given to secure reimbursement to the Government for the compensation of, and expenses incurred by, such customs officers in performing such services, who shall be entitled to rates of compensation fixed on the same basis and payable in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as in the case of customs officers and employees assigned to lading or unlading at night or on Sunday or a holiday.

Pursuant to the authority contained in this act, the following regulations are hereby prescribed:

1. Definitions.—When used in these regulations—

(b) The term "at night" shall include the hours from 5:00 p. m. of one day to 8:00 a. m. of the following day.

(c) The term "holiday" shall include only national holidays, viz., January 1, February 22, May 30, July 4, the first Monday in September, Thanksgiving Day (when designated by the President), December 25, and such other days as may be made national holidays.

2. Application—Bond.—Application for the privilege of reporting arrival and making entry and obtaining clearance on board such vessels as are described in the act shall be on customs Form 3853-A. Such application must be supported by a bond on customs Form 7567, in such penal sum as the collector deems sufficient but not less than $500, or the usual term bond on customs Form 7569. If the application is approved, the collector of customs, or such deputy collector of customs as may be designated by him, will receive the report of arrival and the entry of the vessel and give clearance for such vessel on board thereof. If the collector of customs is satisfied that the conditions will permit, an application to cover arrivals during a period of one month may be approved, provided a bond on customs Form 7569 is given. Such application may cover more than one vessel belonging to the same line and owner. The application in such case shall be on customs Form 3851.

COAL, COKE, AND BRIQUETS FROM THE SOVIET UNION—REVENUE ACT OF 1932

COMMERCIAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS, EFFECTIVE AUGUST 6, 1937

AUGUST 9, 1937.

To Collectors of Customs:

The Department is advised by the Secretary of State that the President has proclaimed, effective August 6, 1937, for a period of 12 months, a commercial agreement entered into between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, in which agreement the Government of the United States undertakes to accord to the commerce of the Soviet Union unconditional most-favored-nation treatment, with certain special provisions in respect of coal, coke manufactured therefrom, and coal or coke briquets.

In view of the provisions of this agreement and since coal, coke manufactured therefrom, and coal or coke briquets are admitted free of import tax when imported from certain other countries, any such product which has been produced in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and is imported into the United States directly or indirectly therefrom may be entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption on or after August 6, 1937, and prior to January 1, 1938, without the payment of the import tax imposed by section 601 (c) (5) of the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended (U. S. C., title 26, foot-note at end of chap. 20.)

BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM.

REGULATION U, LOANS BY BANKS FOR THE PURPOSE OF PURCHASING OR CARRYING STOCKS REGISTERED ON A NATIONAL SECURITIES EXCHANGE

AMENDMENT NO. 3—LOANS MADE PRIOR TO MAY 1, 1936

On July 29, 1937 the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That effective September 1, 1937, the Board approve and adopt the following amendment to Regulation U:

Regulation U, as amended, is hereby further amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 of said regulation is amended by inserting the words "or at any previous time," in the second paragraph of said section after the words "incurred on or after May 1, 1936,"; and by substituting the words "While a bank maintains any such loan, whenever made, the" for the words "After any such loan has been made, a" in the third paragraph of said section; so that said section 1 as thus amended will read as follows:

SECTION 1. GENERAL RULE

On and after May 1, 1936, no bank shall make any loan secured directly or indirectly by any stock for the purpose of purchasing or carrying any stock registered on a national securities exchange in an amount exceeding the maximum loan value of the collateral, as prescribed from time to time for stocks in the supplement to this regulation and as determined by the bank in good faith for any collateral other than stocks.

For the purpose of this regulation, the entire indebtedness of any borrower to any bank incurred on or after May 1, 1936, or at any previous time, for the purpose of purchasing or carrying stocks registered on a national securities exchange shall be considered a single loan; and all the collateral securing such indebtedness shall be considered in determining whether or not the loan complies with this regulation.

While a bank maintains any such loan, whenever made, the bank shall not at any time permit withdrawals or substitutions of collateral that would cause the maximum loan value of the collateral at such time to be less than the amount of the loan. In case such maximum loan value has become less than the amount of the loan, a bank shall not permit withdrawals or substitutions that would increase the deficiency; but the amount of the loan may be increased if there is provided additional collateral having maximum loan value at least equal to the amount of the increase.

2. Section 2 of said regulation is amended by substituting the word "may" for the word "thereafter" in the unlettered portion of said section so that the unlettered portion of said section as thus amended will read as follows:

SECTION 2. EXCEPTIONS TO GENERAL RULE

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a bank may make and may maintain any loan for the purpose specified above, without regard to the limitations prescribed above, if the loan comes within any of the following descriptions:

Adopted by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System on July 29, 1937.

REGULATION K. BANKING CORPORATIONS AUTHORIZED TO DO FOREIGN BANKING BUSINESS UNDER THE TERMS OF SECTION 25 (A) OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE ACT

AMENDMENT REQUIRING RESERVES IN SAME PERCENTAGES AS ARE REQUIRED OF MEMBER BANKS IN CENTRAL RESERVE CITIES

On July 30, 1937, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System adopted the following resolution:

Be it resolved that the first sentence of the third paragraph of section XIV of Regulation K entitled "Banking Corporations Authorized To Do Foreign Banking Business Under The Terms Of Section 25 (a) Of The Federal Reserve Act" is amended, effective September 1, 1937, to read as follows:

Against all demand deposits and time deposits received by the Corporation in the United States a reserve shall be maintained in the percentages required to be maintained by member banks of the Federal Reserve System located in central reserve cities, provided that in no event shall such reserve be less than 10 percent of the aggregate amount of all demand deposits and time deposits received in the United States.

Adopted by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System on July 30, 1937.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

IN THE MATTER OF REGULATIONS FOR TRANSPORTATION OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

Present: Frank McManamy, Commissioner, to whom the above entitled matter has been assigned for action thereon.

Regulations for the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles being under further consideration:

And it appearing, That upon applications made by interested parties, concurred in by the Bureau of Explosives, certain proposed new and amended regulations should be established pursuant to section 233 of the Criminal Code (Transportation of Explosives Act), and upon investigation are found to be in accord with the best-known practicable means for securing safety in transit, covering the packing, marking, loading, handling while in transit, and the precautions necessary to determine whether the material when offered is in proper condition to transport:

It is ordered, That the aforesaid regulations as heretofore published in order of May 12, 1930, be and they are hereby amended as follows, effective November 1, 1937:

Amending specification 8, order May 12, 1930, as follows:

(Add 18. Additional type.—For cylinders contracted for by the United States Navy, the prescribed limitations of carbon content, yield point, and elongation of steel are hereby waived for seamless cylinders, otherwise complying with this specification, under the following conditions:

(a) Steel used shall be that known as SAE 4130 X of the following chemical properties:

|---|---|
| Carbon (percent) | from 0.25 to 0.35 |
| Manganese (percent) | from 0.40 to 0.70 |
| Phosphorus (percent) | 0.04 maximum |
| Sulphur (percent) | 0.5 maximum |
| Chromium (percent) | from 0.80 to 1.10 |
| Molybdenum (percent) | from 0.15 to 0.25 |

(b) Minimum wall thickness must be such that the wall stress under interior pressure of 1,000 pounds per square inch will not exceed 18,000 pounds per square inch when calculated under paragraph 13 (c) of specification 3A.

(c) The elongation of the steel must be at least 15 percent in 8 inches.

(d) The test pressure under paragraph 11 (a) of this specification must be at least 1,000 pounds per square inch.

(e) The cylinders must pass a flattening test, as prescribed in paragraph 19 (a) of specification 3A. Flattening must be carried on until crack occurs or until walls are metal to metal.

(f) The cylinders must neither be marked ICC-8 nor be fully accepted by the inspector until after having passed without shattering a test consisting of subjecting one cylinder out of each lot of 200 or less, in fully charged condition, to the impact of a 1.1 inch projectile at velocity of at least 2,700 feet per second.

(g) Reports of manufacture and tests must include the following additional information:

Chemical analysis data on manganese, chromium, molybdenum, and other alloy materials present, if any; definite statement as to the heat treatment used; distance between outside surfaces of the flattened cylinders when the first crack occurs; and copy of letter signed by an official of the United States Navy stating that the cylinders have successfully passed the prescribed projectile impact test and have been accepted.

It is further ordered, That the aforesaid regulations as further amended herein shall be and remain in force on and after November 1, 1937, and shall be observed until further order of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That cylinders constructed in compliance with the aforesaid regulations are hereby authorized for use on and after the date of approval and publication of the regulations by the Commission:

And it is further ordered, That copies of this order be served upon all the respondents herein, and that notice to the public be given by posting in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of July, 1937.

By the Commission, Commissioner McManamy.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

RULES FOR THE REGULATION OF OVER-THE-COUNTER MARKETS

RULES UNDER SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED

These rules were adopted pursuant to authority conferred upon the Securities and Exchange Commission by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, particularly Sections 15 (c), 10 (b), 17 (a), and 23 (a) thereof. The rules apply to practices in the over-the-counter markets affecting all types of securities including those which are registered, unregistered or exempted from registration on a national securities exchange. The rules are applicable to all brokers and dealers who effect transactions in the over-the-counter markets except that Rule GB2 is applicable to any person, whether or not he is a broker or dealer. The rules are also applicable to those brokers and dealers who transact business exclusively in exempted securities, such as government, state and municipal bonds.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, deeming it necessary for the execution of the functions vested in it and necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors so to do, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, particularly Sections 15 (c) and 23 (a) thereof, hereby adopts the following rules:

RULE MC1. Definitions.—As used in any rule adopted pursuant to Section 15 (c) of the Act:

(a) The term "customer" shall not include a broker or dealer.

(b) The term "the completion of the transaction" means:

(1) In the case of a customer who purchases a security through or from a broker or dealer, except as provided in paragraph (2), the time when such customer pays the broker or dealer any part of the purchase price, or, if payment is effected by a bookkeeping entry, the time when such bookkeeping entry is made by the broker or dealer for any part of the purchase price;

(2) In the case of a customer who purchases a security through or from a broker or dealer and who makes payment therefor prior to the time when payment is requested or notification is given that payment is due, the time when such broker or dealer delivers the security to or into the account of such customer;

(3) In the case of a customer who sells a security through or to a broker or dealer, except as provided in paragraph (4), if the security is not in the custody of the broker or dealer at the time of sale, the time when the security is delivered to the broker or dealer, and if the security is in the custody of the broker or dealer at the time of sale, the time when the broker or dealer transfers the security from the account of such customer;

(4) In the case of a customer who sells a security through or to a broker or dealer and who delivers such security to such broker or dealer prior to the time when delivery is requested or notification is given that delivery is due, the time when such broker or dealer makes payment to or into the account of such customer.

RULE MC2. Fraud and Misrepresentation.—(a) The term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance", as used in Section 15 (c) of the Act, is hereby defined to include any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person.

(b) The term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance", as used in Section 15 (c) of the Act, is hereby defined to include any untrue statement of a material fact and any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, which statement or omission is made with knowledge or reasonable grounds to believe that it is untrue or misleading.

(c) The scope of this rule shall not be limited by any specific definitions of the term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance" contained in other rules adopted pursuant to Section 15 (c) of the Act.

RULE MC3. Misrepresentation by Brokers and Dealers as to Registration.—The term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance", as used in Section 15 (c) of the Act, is hereby defined to include any representation by a broker or dealer that the registration of a broker or dealer, pursuant to Section 15 (b), or the failure of the Commission to deny or revoke such registration, indicates in any way that the Commission has passed upon or approved the financial standing, business, or conduct of such registered broker or dealer or the merits of any security or any transaction or transactions therein.

RULE MC4. Confirmation of Transactions.—The term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance", as used in Section 15 (c) of the Act, is hereby defined to include any act of any broker or dealer designed to effect with or for the account of a customer any transaction in, or to induce the purchase or sale by such customer of, any security unless such broker or dealer, at or before the completion of each such transaction, gives or sends to such customer written notification disclosing (1) whether he is acting as a broker for such customer, as a dealer for his own account, as a broker for some other person, or as a broker for both such customer and some other person; and (2) in any case in which he is acting as a broker for such customer or for both such customer and some other person, either the name of the person from whom the security was purchased or to whom it was sold for such customer and the date and time when such transaction took place or the fact that such information will be furnished upon the request of such customer, and the source and amount of any commission or other remuneration received or to be received by him in connection with the transaction.

RULE MC5. Disclosure of Control.—The term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance", as used in Section 15 (c) of the Act, is hereby defined to include any act of any broker or dealer controlled by, controlling, or under common control with, the issuer of any security, designed to effect with or for the account of a customer any transaction in, or to induce the purchase or sale by such customer of, such security unless such broker or dealer, before entering into any contract with or for such customer for the purchase or sale of such security, discloses to such customer the existence of such control, and unless such disclosure, if not made in writing, is supplemented by the giving or sending of written disclosure at or before the completion of the transaction.

RULE MC6. Disclosure of Interest in Distributions.—The term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance", as used in Section 15 (c) of the Act, is hereby defined to include any act of any broker who is acting for a customer or for both such customer and some other person, or of any dealer who receives or has promise of receiving a fee from a customer for advising such customer with respect to securities, designed to effect with or for the account of such customer any transaction in, or to induce the purchase or sale by such customer of, any security in the primary or secondary distribution of which such broker or dealer is participating or is otherwise financially interested unless such broker or dealer, at or before the completion of each such transaction gives or sends to such customer written notification of the existence of such participation or interest.

RULE MC7. Discretionary Accounts.—(a) The term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance", as used in Section 15 (c) of the Act, is hereby defined to include any act of any broker or dealer designed to effect with or for any customer's account in respect to which such broker or dealer or his agent or employee is vested with any discretionary power any transactions of purchase or sale which are excessive in size or frequency in view of the financial resources and character of such account.

(b) The term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance", as used in Section 15 (c) of the Act, is hereby defined to include any act of any broker or dealer designed to effect with or for any customer's account in respect to which such broker or dealer or his agent or employee is vested with any discretionary power any transaction of purchase or sale unless immediately after effecting such transaction such broker or dealer makes a record of such transaction which record includes the name of such customer, the name, amount and price of the security, and the date and time when such transaction took place.

RULE MC8. Sales at the Market.—The term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance", as used in Section 15 (c) of the Act, is hereby defined to include any representation made to a customer by a broker or dealer who is participating or otherwise financially interested in the primary or secondary distribution of any security which is not admitted to trading on a national securities exchange that such security is being offered to such customer "at the market" or at a price related to the market price unless such broker or dealer knows or has reasonable grounds to believe that a market for such security exists other than that made, created, or controlled by him, or by any person for whom he is acting or with whom he is associated in such distribution, or by any person controlled by, controlling or under common control with him.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, deeming it necessary for the execution of the functions vested in it and necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors so to do, and deeming the acts or practices hereinafter prohibited to be devices and contrivances which are manipulative and deceptive, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, particularly Sections 10 (b) and 23 (a) thereof, hereby adopts the following rules:

RULE GB2. Solicitation of Purchases on an Exchange to Facilitate a Distribution of Securities.—(a) No person, participating or otherwise financially interested in the primary or secondary distribution of any security of any issuer, shall, by the use of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce or of the mails, or of any facility of any national securities exchange

(1) pay or offer or agree to pay, directly or indirectly, to any person any compensation for soliciting another to purchase any security of the same issuer on a national securities exchange, or for purchasing any security of the same issuer on any such exchange for any account other than the account of the person who pays or is to pay such compensation; or

(2) sell, offer to sell or induce an offer to buy such security, or deliver such security after sale, if, in connection with such distribution, such person has paid, or has offered or agreed to pay, directly or indirectly, to any person, any compensation for soliciting another to purchase any security of the same issuer on any national securities exchange, or for purchasing any security of the same issuer on any such exchange for any account other than the account of the person who has paid or is to pay such compensation.

(b) No person, participating or otherwise financially interested in the primary or secondary distribution of any security of any issuer, shall cause a purchase or sale of any security of the same issuer on a national securities exchange by paying or offering or agreeing to pay, directly or indirectly, to any person any compensation for soliciting another to purchase such security on any such exchange, or for purchasing such security on any such exchange for any account other than the account of the person who pays or is to pay such compensation.

(c) The provisions of this rule shall not apply in respect to any salary paid by a broker or dealer to any person regularly employed by him whose ordinary duties include the solicitation or execution of brokerage orders on a national securities exchange, if such salary represents only ordinary compensation for the discharge by such person of such duties in the regular course of his employment, and is not paid, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, for the inducement by such person of the purchase or sale on a national securities exchange of any security of the issuer of the security in the primary or secondary distribution of which such broker or dealer is participating or otherwise financially interested.

RULE GB3. Employment of Manipulative and Deceptive Devices.—It shall be unlawful for any broker or dealer, directly or indirectly, by the use of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, or of the mails, or of any facility of any national securities exchange, to use or employ, in connection with the purchase or sale of any security otherwise than on a national securities exchange, any act, practice, or course of business defined by the Commission to be included within the term "manipulative, deceptive, or other fraudulent device or contrivance", as such term is used in Section 15 (c) of the Act.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, deeming it necessary for the execution of the functions vested in it and necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors so to do, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, particularly Sections 17 (a) and 23 (a) thereof, hereby adopts the following rule:

RULE OA1. Preservation of Records Under Rule MC7.—Every broker or dealer subject to the provisions of Section 15 (c) shall keep and preserve for at least twelve months such records as such broker or dealer may be required to make pursuant to the provisions of Rule MC7.

The foregoing rules shall become effective October 1, 1937.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF TIDEWATER ELECTRIC SERVICE COMPANY (APPLICATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 6 (B) OF THE PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935)

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An amended application having been duly filed with this Commission, by Tidewater Electric Service Company, a subsidiary company of East Coast Public Service Company, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for exemption from the provisions of Section 6 (a) of said Act of the issue and sale by applicant of its First Mortgage Note in the principal amount of $125,000, to be dated as of July 1, 1937 and to evidence a loan from the United States of America, through the Rural Electrification Administration, it being stated by applicant that the proceeds of said note are to be used solely for the purpose of financing applicant's business and that said issue and sale have been expressly authorized by the State Corporation Commission of Virginia, the State commission of the State in which applicant is organized and does business.

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on August 27, 1937, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 1101, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 23, 1937.

It is further ordered that Richard Townsend, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

[Order No. 31]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A HEARING TO DETERMINE THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF ILLINOIS AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH COMMERCE UPON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL, TO BE HELD AT SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS, ON SEPTEMBER 9, 1937, BEFORE AN EXAMINER, AND NOTICE THEREOF

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, upon being advised by certain producers, producers' organizations, and other interested parties in a public hearing held at the Commission's Hearing Room at Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of July, 1937, that substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the State of Illinois directly affect interstate commerce in such coal and will cause undue and unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice as between such commerce in Illinois on the one hand and interstate commerce in such coal on the other hand as such interstate commerce is provided to be regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and that a hearing to determine the effect of intrastate transactions in bituminous coal upon interstate transactions in bituminous coal in the State of Illinois would be desirable, and upon investigation hereby orders:

1. That on September 9, 1937, commencing at the hour of ten (10) o'clock A. M., at the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Leland Hotel, Springfield, Illinois, a public hearing will be held to determine the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of Illinois, and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice, will exist between localities in Illinois in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on the other hand and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discriminations against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act to the end that the Commission may, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and to the provisions of Section 4-A of said Act.

2. That said hearing will be conducted by an Examiner designated by the Commission.

3. That interested parties may appear and present evidence at such hearing.

4. That any producer believing that particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal are not subject to the provisions of the first paragraph of Section 4-A will, subsequent to the final order of the Commission in the proceeding herein noticed, be afforded full opportunity to file an application for exemption as provided in said section, upon which application a hearing will thereafter be held by the Commission upon proper notice given.

5. That failure of any producer to appear and present evidence at the hearing herein noticed to be held in Springfield, Illinois, on September 9, 1937, will not prejudice the case of any producer to be heard upon such application.

6. That this order and notice shall not be construed as making any person receiving a copy thereof a party to this proceeding within the provision of Section 6 (b) of the Act.

7. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this notice to the Consumers' Counsel, to each known producer of bituminous coal in the State of Illinois and to the secretaries of all of the district boards, and shall cause to be published at the expense of the Commission copy of this order and notice for three (3) days in newspapers of general circulation in the counties of Illinois in which bituminous coal is produced.

By order of the Commission.

[Order No. 32]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A PUBLIC HEARING AT DENVER, COLORADO, ON AUGUST 23, 1937, ON COORDINATED MARKETING RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR APPLICATION TO CODE MEMBERS IN DISTRICTS NO. 14 TO NO. 23, BOTH INCLUSIVE, AND MODIFYING THE PROVISIONS OF ORDER NO. 25 ACCORDINGLY

The District Boards for Districts No. 14 to No. 23, both inclusive, having complied with the requirements of Order No. 25 of the Commission by proposing marketing rules and regulations incidental to the sale and distribution of coal by code members within such districts, and having coordinated such proposed marketing rules and regulations as required by the Act and the Order of the Commission, and it appearing that the convenience of such district boards, of code members within such districts, and of other interested persons will be best served by conducting the required hearing at a point readily accessible to said districts:

Now, therefore, Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs as follows:

1. That the public hearing designated by the Commission in its Order No. 25 to be held in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 23rd day of August, 1937, shall, insofar as Districts No. 14 to No. 23, both inclusive, are concerned, be held in the City of Denver, Colorado, which hearing shall be held at a Hearing Room of the Commission in the Central Savings Bank Building, Denver, Colorado, on the 23rd day of August, 1937, commencing at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A. M.

At such hearing evidence will be received to enable the Commission to establish marketing rules and regulations incidental to the sale and distribution of coal by code members within Districts No. 14 to No. 23, both inclusive.

The public hearing for marketing rules and regulations for application in Districts No. 1 to No. 13, both inclusive, shall be held in the City of Washington, D. C., at the time and place designated in Order No. 25.

2. The Secretary of the Commission shall file with the Secretary of each District Board for Districts No. 14 to No. 23, both inclusive, a copy of the marketing rules and regulations as coordinated, which shall be available for inspection by any interested person at any time prior to the holding of said hearing.

Notice of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing to be held under this Order shall be given by the Secretary of the Commission by publishing a copy of this Order once in a newspaper of general circulation in each of Districts No. 14 to No. 23, both inclusive, and by mailing a copy of this Order to the Secretary of each of said District Boards and to the Consumers' Counsel.

By order of the Commission.

[Order No. 33]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A SUPPLEMENTAL HEARING TO BE HELD AT DENVER, COLORADO, ON AUGUST 23, 1937, AND MODIFYING ORDERS NO. 9 AND NO. 12 FOR THAT PURPOSE

Public hearings having been held at Washington, D. C. pursuant to Orders No. 9 and No. 12 of the Commission,' to receive evidence for the purpose of enabling the Commission to determine the persons referred to in Section 4, Part II (h) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 as "Distributors"; to determine farmers' cooperative organizations entitled to receive discounts under the provisions of subsection (i) 13 of Part II of Section 4 of said Act; to determine due and reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances by code members to persons entitled thereto under the provisions of the Act; and to determine and prescribe reasonable rules and regulations governing "Distributors" entitled to discounts under said Act so as to require the maintenance and observance by such persons, in the resale of coal subject to the jurisdiction of the Act, of the prices and marketing rules and regulations established by the Commission; and it appearing that the convenience of code members, distributors, and other interested persons will be served by the holding of supplemental hearings at points within the coal producing areas of the United States;

Now, therefore, Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs as follows:

1. That a supplemental hearing shall be held at a Hearing Room of the Commission in the Central Savings Bank Building, Denver, Colorado, on the 23rd day of August, 1937, commencing at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of receiving additional evidence on the subjects provided for in said Order No. 9, and particularly of receiving evidence as to the rates and amounts of due and reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances to distributors by code members within Districts Nos. 16 to 23, both inclusive.

Notice of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing to be held under this Order shall be given by the Secretary of the Commission by publishing a copy of this Order once in a newspaper of general circulation in each of Districts Nos. 16 to 23, both inclusive, and by mailing a copy of this Order to the Secretary of each of said District Boards and to the Consumers' Counsel.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

REPORTS REQUIRED TO BE FILED BY NOVEMBER 10, 1937, BY EVERY COMMON CARRIER CONCERNING AMOUNT OF TRAFFIC FOR THE SEVERAL CLASSIFICATIONS OF MESSAGES

The Telegraph Division at a special meeting on August 6, 1937, adopted the following Order:

ORDER NO. 23-A

Pursuant to Section 218 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, for the purpose of obtaining information necessary to enable the Commission to perform its duties and carry out the objects for which it was created.

It is ordered That every common carrier subject to the Communications Act engaged in foreign telegraph communication shall file with the Commission not later than November 10, 1937, in duplicate, under oath (on a form, for each country, like that attached hereto, and in accordance with the instructions thereon) a statement showing the following information separately for full rate ordinary (subclassified by plain language and cipher messages), full rate urgent (subclassified by plain language and cipher messages), CDE ordinary, CDE urgent, ordinary press, urgent press, deferred press (LC), United States Government ordinary, United States Government CDE, Foreign Government ordinary, Foreign Government CDE, deferred (LC), letter (NLT and DLT) telegrams, and all other paid messages, by separate classifications and subclassifications, transmitted or received by such carrier during the twenty-four hour periods on the seven days following (showing only the totals for the seven days): September 2, 7, 11, 12, 15, 20, and 24, 1937.

1. Number of messages and words originated in each country outside the continental United States (including Hawaii and the Philippine Islands and excluding Canada and Mexico) for delivery in the continental United States, shown separately by countries of origin.

2. Number of messages and words originated in the continental United States, transmitted by such carrier and destined to each country outside the continental United States (including Hawaii and the Philippine Islands, and excluding Canada and Mexico) shown separately by countries of destination;

3. Number of messages and words between foreign countries (including Hawaii and the Philippine Islands) relayed in the continental United States; showing separately the inbound traffic of this nature to the continental United States for relay, by countries of origin; and showing separately the outbound traffic of this nature from the continental United States, by countries of destination; excluding traffic between Canada and Mexico; and

4. Number of messages and words between fixed stations in the continental United States and mobile stations showing separately the number of such messages and words originated in or destined to points in the continental United States and the number of such messages and words originated in or destined to foreign countries, relayed through fixed stations in the continental United States (including Hawaii and the Philippine Islands).

For the purposes of this order, the continental United States shall include the several states and the District of Columbia only.

In connection with messages in classifications where there is a chargeable minimum, the number of paid words actually sent shall be shown.

The classifications of messages set forth herein are for convenience only and nothing herein contained shall be construed as approval by the Commission of such classifications.

By order of the Commission, Telegraph Division.

INSTRUCTIONS

[1] Show under this heading all traffic originated in the foreign country for which this sheet is used, destined for delivery in the continental United States. When two or more carriers subject to the Communications Act participate in the handling of such a message, only the carrier first receiving the message shall report.

[2] Show under this heading all traffic originated in the continental United States, destined for delivery in the foreign country for which this sheet is used. When two or more carriers subject to the Communications Act participate in the handling of such a message, only the carrier actually transmitting the message from the continental United States shall report.

[3] Transiting traffic shall include messages between foreign countries (including Hawaii and the Philippine Islands) relayed in the continental United States, excluding traffic between Canada and Mexico and traffic involving a mobile station.

[4] The term "inbound" as related to transiting traffic refers to transiting messages originated in the foreign country for which this sheet is used and received in the continental United States for relay. The term "outbound" as related to transiting traffic, refers to transiting messages destined for delivery in the foreign country for which this sheet is used and transmitted outbound from the continental United States. Inbound transiting traffic shall not be classified by countries of destination and outbound transiting traffic shall not be classified by countries of origin. Both the inbound and outbound movement of a transiting message shall be reported separately whether or not performed by the same carrier, but only the carrier first receiving a transiting message for relay in the continental United States shall report the inbound movement and only the carrier transmitting such message from the continental United States shall report the outbound movement.

[5] Show under this heading traffic to and from mobile stations on ships or aircraft of the country for which this sheet is used. Only the carrier receiving from or transmitting to the mobile station shall report such traffic. If the mobile station be an aircraft, designate with a footnote. Traffic between American ships or aircraft and points in the continental United States shall be included.

AMENDMENT TO PARAGRAPH 3 (B) OF ORDER NO. 28 REGARDING "MODEL AR-8600 AUTO ALARM"

The Telegraph Division at a special meeting held on August 6, 1937, adopted the following Order amending paragraph 3 (b) of Order No. 28:

ORDER NO. 28-A

The Telegraph Division having under consideration the request of Radiomarine Corporation of America, made pursuant to paragraph 1 of Order No. 28, entered by the Telegraph Division, March 10, 1937, to amend paragraph 3 (b) of said Order No. 28 so that the minimum value specified therein would be reduced from 100 volts to 90 volts; and

Whereas, said paragraph 3 (b) of said Order No. 28 stipulates that an arrangement shall be provided in regard to Radiomarine Corporation of America "Model AR-8600 Auto Alarm" to energize the audible alarms if and when the ship's line voltage decreases to 100 volts or less; and

Whereas, the Commission is satisfied that such an amendment will eliminate frequent sounding of the alarm bells due to fluctuations in voltage from the normal value of 110 volts to a minimum value of 90 volts, and thus increase the efficiency of the apparatus without reducing the voltage below a safe minimum where risk of failure of the sounding of alarms would be present;

It is therefore ordered, That paragraph 3 (b) of Telegraph Division Order No. 28 be amended to read as follows:

An arrangement shall be provided to energize the audible alarms if and when the voltage of the 110 volt direct current power supply decreases to 90 volts or less, or in lieu of energizing the audible alarms, the auto-alarm may be automatically connected to a comparable substitute source of power supply producing a voltage of not less than 90 volts.

By order of the Commission, Telegraph Division.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY AUTHORIZATIONS OF THOMAS HARPER BLODGETT, FRED S. BURROUGHS, CHARLES A. DOUGHERTY, EBEN THOMAS EDMONDS, AND SANFORD J. MAGEE TO HOLD CERTAIN INTERLOCKING POSITIONS PURSUANT TO SECTION 305 (B) SHOULD NOT BE TERMINATED

It appearing to the Commission:

(1) That the Commission has heretofore authorized Thomas Harper Blodgett, Fred S. Burroughs, Charles A. Dougherty, Eben Thomas Edmonds, and Sanford J. Magee to hold certain interlocking positions pursuant to application filed by each of them under Section 305 (b) of the Federal Power Act, being Docket Nos. ID 257, 288, 331, 343, and 445, respectively; the Commission's order of authorization in each case specifically reserving to the Commission the right to require any or all of said persons to make further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected thereby, and to make any other or further order or orders in respect to any or all of said applications;

(2) That it is in the public interest that the persons aforesaid be required to make further showing why the continuance of their several authorizations will not adversely affect either public or private interests, and why said authorizations and each of them should not be terminated;

It is therefore ordered:

That a hearing on said matters be held in the Commission's hearing room, at 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., at 10 a. m. on the 20th of September, 1937, and that at such hearing the said Thomas Harper Blodgett, Fred S. Burroughs, Charles A. Dougherty, Eben Thomas Edmonds, Sanford J. Magee, and each of them show cause why the authorization heretofore granted on his application should not be terminated.

Adopted by the Commission on August 10, 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF THE MYSTIC POWER COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application having been duly filed with this Commission by The Mystic Power Company, a subsidiary of New England Power Association, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for exemption from the provisions of Section 6 (a) of said Act of the issue and sale by the applicant of 3,500 shares of its capital stock of the par value of $100 per share, it being stated in said application that such issue and sale are solely for the purpose of financing the business of the applicant, namely, to discharge indebtedness incurred for expenditures made by the applicant for improvements and to provide funds to be used in payment for proposed improvements of the applicant's property, and that such issue and sale have been expressly authorized by the Public Utilities Commission of Connecticut, the state in which the applicant is organized and doing business.

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on August 30, 1937, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 1101, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 24, 1937.

It is further ordered that Richard Townsend, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

EXEMPTION ORDER PURSUANT TO SECTION 4 OF THE GOVERNMENT LOSSES IN SHIPMENT ACT

Whereas section 4 of the Government Losses in Shipment Act (Public No. 192, 75th Congress, approved July 8, 1937) provides in part as follows:

On and after the effective date of the regulations prescribed under section 1, no executive department, * * * officer, or employee shall expend any money, or incur any obligation, for insurance, or for the payment of premiums on insurance, against loss, destruction, or damage in the shipment of valuables except as specifically authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury. The Secretary of the Treasury may give such authorization if he shall find that the risk of loss, destruction, or damage in such shipment cannot be adequately guarded against by the facilities of the United States or that the circumstances are such that adequate replacement cannot be provided under this Act.;

Whereas I find that the risk of loss, destruction, or damage in shipments of gold and silver coin or bullion to, from, between, or within foreign countries under the provisions of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934, as amended, and the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 cannot be adequately guarded against by the facilities of the United States:

It is hereby ordered that such shipments are excepted from the prohibitions contained in the first sentence of section 4 of the Government Losses in Shipment Act.

FOREIGN-TRADE AGREEMENTS

PUBLIC NOTICE OF INTENTION TO NEGOTIATE A FOREIGN-TRADE AGREEMENT WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF ECUADOR

AUGUST 2, 1937.

To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to section 4 of the act of Congress approved June 12, 1934, and extended on March 1, 1937, entitled "An Act to Amend the Tariff Act of 1930" and Executive Order No. 6750 of June 27, 1934, the Secretary of State on April 5, 1937, gave formal notice of intention to negotiate a foreign-trade agreement with the Government of Ecuador. By an oversight, this notice was not published in Treasury Decisions at the time of its issuance, and it is accordingly reproduced below.

This notice states, inter alia, that all information and views in writing and all applications for supplemental oral presentation of views shall be submitted to the Committee for Reciprocity Information not later than twelve o'clock noon, May 3, 1937, and that supplemental oral statements will be heard at a public hearing beginning at ten o'clock a. m., on May 17, 1937. The Bureau of Customs has been officially advised that in view of the fact that both of these dates have passed, the Committee for Reciprocity Information is prepared to receive information and views in writing and application for supplemental oral presentation of views until twelve o'clock noon, September 2, 1937, from any interested person who was not informed of the notice given on April 5, 1937. In the event that any such applications are received by that date, a public hearing, at which additional oral statements will be heard, will begin at ten o'clock a. m., on September 9, 1937.

Attention is called to two Press Releases issued by the Department of State on April 5, 1937, in connection with the notice of intention to negotiate with Ecuador, entitled "Presentation of Views to the Committee for Reciprocity Information with Reference to Trade Agreement Negotiations with Ecuador" and "List of Products on Which the United States Will Consider Granting Concessions to Ecuador."

PUBLIC NOTICE

TRADE AGREEMENT NEGOTIATIONS WITH ECUADOR

Pursuant to Section 4 of an Act of Congress approved June 12, 1934, entitled "An Act to Amend the Tariff Act of 1930", as amended, and Executive Order No. 6750 of June 27, 1934, I hereby give notice of intention to negotiate a trade agreement with the Government of Ecuador.

Time and Place for Presentation of Written and Oral Statements

The Committee for Reciprocity Information has prescribed that all information and views in writing and all applications for supplemental oral presentation of views shall be submitted to the Committee for Reciprocity Information not later than twelve o'clock noon, May 3, 1937. They should be addressed to "Acting Chairman, Committee for Reciprocity Information, Old Land Office Building, 8th and E Streets, Northwest, Washington, D. C." Supplemental oral statements will be heard at a public hearing beginning at ten o'clock a. m., on May 17, 1937, before the Committee for Reciprocity Information, in the hearing room of the Tariff Commission in the Old Land Office Building.

Form and Manner of Presentation

The Committee for Reciprocity Information has prescribed the following regulations governing the submission of written and oral statements:

Written statements must be either typewritten or printed. They must be submitted in sextuplicate and at least one copy must be sworn to. Such statements will be treated as confidential, for the use only of the interdepartmental trade agreements organization.

Oral statements may be made to the Committee at the public hearing only by persons who have filed written statements or briefs and who have, within the time prescribed, made written application for a hearing in order that a schedule of appearances may be arranged. Oral statements shall be under oath.

CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State.

COUNTERVAILING DUTIES ON BUTTER FROM LITHUANIA

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

The Bureau is in receipt of official information which establishes to its satisfaction that a bounty or grant, within the meaning of the provisions of section 303 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1303), is being paid or bestowed on butter exported from Lithuania.

The amount of the bounty or grant paid or bestowed at the present time on such merchandise is estimated to be Lithuanian litas 0.30 per kilogram of butter.

Butter from Lithuania, imported directly or indirectly, and entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption after thirty days after the publication of this order in the weekly Treasury Decisions will be subject to the payment of countervailing duties equal to any bounty or grant found to have been paid or bestowed upon the exportation thereof, as determined or estimated and declared thereafter, whether such butter is imported in the same condition as when exported from Lithuania or has been changed in condition in a third country by remanufacture or otherwise.

A deposit of estimated countervailing duty, calculated at the rate of Lithuanian litas 0.30 per kilogram of butter, shall be required in respect of all butter from Lithuania imported and entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption on and after the effective date of this order. Liquidation of entries shall be suspended pending estimation or determination and declaration of the amount of bounty or grant paid or bestowed and the amount of the countervailing duty to be collected.

The facts of each case shall be reported promptly to the Bureau.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

RULES AND REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE NAVIGATION THROUGH THE REACH OF THE ATCHAFALAYA RIVER (BERWICK BAY) IN THE VICINITY OF THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD BRIDGE AT MORGAN CITY, LOUISIANA

THE LAW

Section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917, provides as follows:

That section four of the river and harbor Act of August eighteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, as amended by section eleven of the river and harbor Act of June thirteenth, nineteen hundred and two, be, and is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 4. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to prescribe such regulations for the use, administration, and navigation of the navigable waters of the United States as in his judgment the public necessity may require for the protection of life and property, or of operations of the United States in channel improvement, covering all matters not specifically delegated by law to some other executive department. Such regulations shall be posted, in conspicuous and appropriate places, for the information of the public; and every person and every corporation which shall violate such regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof in any district court of the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding six months, in the discretion of the court.

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the law quoted above the following regulations are prescribed to govern the use, administration, and navigation through the reach of the Atchafalaya River (Berwick Bay) in the vicinity of the Southern Pacific Railroad Bridge at Morgan City, Louisiana.

1. Whenever the velocity of flow through the reach in the Atchafalaya River (Berwick Bay) at Morgan City, Louisiana, reaches or exceeds a critical velocity as designated by the District Engineer, U. S. Engineer Department at Large, in charge of the locality, the movement of tows downstream through the Southern Pacific Railroad bridge at Morgan City, Louisiana, will be governed by day and night visual signals displayed at the center of the drawspan above the operator's house on top of the bridge structure. During periods of foggy or inclement weather, or when for other reasons, the visual signals cannot be readily seen, notice that the signals are displayed will be given by a blast of a fog horn (located on the bridge) of six seconds duration each minute.

2. By day the signals will consist of two red balls displayed vertically, one above the other from a pole. At night a light will be displayed immediately above the usual bridge light. When the bridge is in closed position the light will be red. When the bridge is open, following usual practice, this all red light will change to green.

3. When the above signals are displayed, indicating that the velocity of the current has reached or exceeds the critical velocity established, unless otherwise permitted by the District Engineer, tows moving downstream through the navigation opening of the bridge shall not exceed one barge and towing vessel and in passing through the bridge tows shall be drifted through at a speed not to exceed the velocity of flow through the reach, with towing vessel in the rear, or lashed securely to the side of the barge.

4. When velocities are below the critical velocity, only the usual bridge lights will be displayed. Towing vessels will not be required to alter towing position or to break tows in passing the bridge.

5. Downbound vessels and tows shall have right of way over upbound vessels and tows. When two vessels or tows are about to enter the navigation opening through the bridge from opposite directions at the same time, the ascending vessel and tows shall be stopped below such opening until the descending vessel shall have passed through.

6. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof, and shall supersede the emergency regulations approved March 2, 1937.

Approved, July 28, 1937.

REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE OPENING OF DRAWBRIDGES AT NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

The River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894, contains the following section:

SEC. 5. That it shall be the duty of all persons owning, operating, and tending the drawbridges now built, or which may hereafter be built across the navigable rivers and other waters of the United States, to open, or cause to be opened, the draws of such bridges under such rules and regulations as in the opinion of the Secretary of War the public interests require to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law. Every such person who shall willfully fail or refuse to open, or cause to be opened, the draw of any such bridge for the passage of a boat or boats, or who shall unreasonably delay the opening of said draw after reasonable signal shall have been given, as provided in such regulations, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars nor less than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) for not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the proper action to enforce the provisions of this section may be commenced before any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States, and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States: Provided further, That whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, the public interests require it, he may make rules and regulations to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law, and any violation thereof shall be punished as hereinbefore provided.

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the foregoing law, the following regulations are prescribed to govern the opening of certain drawbridges operated by the City of New Haven, Connecticut, as follows:

Tomlinson Bridge.
Chapel Street Bridge across Mill River.
Ferry Street Bridge across Quinnipiac River.
Grand Avenue Bridge across Quinnipiac River.
Kimberly Avenue Bridge across West River.

1. The owners of, or agencies controlling the above-named bridges shall provide the appliances and personnel necessary for the safe, prompt and efficient operation of the draw.

2. The draw shall be opened promptly when the signal, hereinafter prescribed for the opening of the draw, is received from an approaching vessel or other water craft which cannot pass under the closed draw except as hereinafter provided.

3. Signals:

Call Signals for Opening of Draw

Sound Signals:

Tomlinson Bridge—Two short blasts of horn or whistle.

Chapel Street Bridge—Three short blasts of horn or whistle.

Ferry Street Bridge—One short blast of horn or whistle.

Grand Avenue Bridge—One long blast of horn or whistle.

Kimberly Avenue Bridge—Three short blasts of horn or whistle.

Visual Signals:

To be used in conjunction with sound signals when conditions are such that sound signals cannot be heard.

A white flag by day, and a white light by night, swung in full circles at arm's length in full sight of the bridge and facing the draw.

Acknowledging Signals

By Bridge Operator

Sound Signals:

Draw to be opened immediately: Same as call signal.

Draw cannot be opened immediately, or, if open, must be closed immediately: 2 long blasts of a horn or whistle, to be repeated at regular intervals until acknowledged by the vessel.

Visual Signals:

Draw to be opened immediately: A white flag by day or a green light at night swung up and down vertically a number of times in full sight of the vessel.

Draw cannot be opened immediately, or, if open, must be closed immediately: A red flag by day, a red light by night, swung to and fro horizontally in full sight of the vessel, to be repeated until acknowledged by the vessel.

By the Vessel

Vessels or other water craft having signaled for the opening of the draw and having received a signal that the draw cannot be opened immediately, or if open must be closed immediately, shall acknowledge said signal by one long blast followed by a short blast, or by swinging to and fro horizontally a red flag by day and a red light by night.

Exceptions

Closed periods when the draws need not be opened are authorized as follows:

Between 7:30 a. m. and 8:00 a. m.,
Between 12:00 m. and 12:15 p. m.,
Between 12:45 p. m. and 1:00 p. m., and
Between 5:00 p. m. and 5:30 p. m.

4. A copy of these regulations shall be conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides of the bridge in such manner that it can be easily read at any time.

5. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof and the regulations approved March 20, 1923, to govern the operation of the above named bridges are hereby revoked.

Approved, August 3, 1937.

[Order No. 35]

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A PUBLIC HEARING FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE TO ENABLE THE COMMISSION TO DETERMINE WHETHER OR NOT THE COALS AND THE PRODUCERS THEREOF IN THE STATES OF NORTH DAKOTA AND SOUTH DAKOTA ARE SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937, AND TO DETERMINE WHETHER A CHANGE IN THE TERRITORIAL BOUNDARIES OR LIMITS OF DISTRICT NO. 21 AND MINIMUM PRICE AREA NO. 8, AS DEFINED IN SAID ACT, OR A CONSOLIDATION OF SUCH DISTRICT AND PRICE AREA WITH OTHER DISTRICTS AND PRICE AREAS IS NECESSARY.

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs:

1. A public hearing shall be held at the Governor's Reception Room in the city of Bismarck, North Dakota, on the 13th day of September, 1937, and at the Prince Hotel in the city of Pierre, South Dakota, on the 16th day of September, 1937, for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Commission to determine if such coals and the producers thereof in said states are subject to the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and further, to enable the Commission to issue certificates of exemption to such producers of coal, other than bituminous coal, in said states as are entitled thereto under and by virtue of the provisions of Section 17 (b) of said Act excluding lignite coal, which is defined as a lignitic coal having calorific value in British thermal units of less than seven thousand six hundred per pound and having a natural moisture content in place in the mine of 30 per centum or more; and for the further purpose of enabling the Commission to determine whether a change in the territorial boundaries or limits of District No. 21 and Minimum Price Area No. 8, as defined in said Act, or a consolidation of said District and Price Area with other Districts and Price Areas as defined in said Act, will render the establishment of minimum prices more practicable in accordance with the standards set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of section 4 of said Act.

2. Any producer of coal whether bituminous, semibituminous, subbituminous or lignite coal, the Consumers' Counsel, Code Members, representatives of District Boards and all other interested parties may appear at said hearing and be heard.

3. Notice of said hearing shall be given under direction of the Secretary of the Commission by mailing a copy of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to the District Boards for Districts 12, 15, 16, 19, 20, and 22, and by publication of notice upon three (3) consecutive days in a newspaper of general circulation in the state of North Dakota and in a newspaper of general circulation in the state of South Dakota. The notice published in said newspapers shall contain the date and place of the hearing and a concise statement of the purpose thereof.

By order of the Commission.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH, Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE INSPECTION, SAMPLING AND CERTIFICATION OF COTTONSEED SOLD OR OFFERED FOR SALE FOR CRUSHING PURPOSES

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Act of Congress entitled "An Act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, * * * and for other purposes" (Public No. 173, 75th Congress), I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby make, prescribe, publish and give public notice of the following amendment, which shall be in force and effect on and after this date, to the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture governing the inspection, sampling, and certification of cottonseed sold or offered for sale for crushing purposes:

In regulation 3, strike out the first sentence of section 15 and substitute therefor the following:

In case of dispute in which a review is desired of the grading of any sample of cottonseed covered by a valid certificate issued by a licensed cottonseed chemist, application for review shall be filed or mailed within one week after the date of the original certificate.

In regulation 5, strike out section 3 and substitute therefor the following:

SEC. 3. For each certificate of the grade of cottonseed issued by a licensed cottonseed chemist he shall pay 25 cents to the Bureau. A statement showing the number of certificates issued shall be rendered to the Bureau each month, the same to be accompanied by the appropriate remittance in the form of a certified check, draft, or post-office or express money order payable to the order of the United States Department of Agriculture.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of August, A. D. 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AMERICAN UTILITIES SERVICE CORPORATION (APPLICATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 10 (A) (1) OF THE PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935)

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application having been duly filed with this Commission, by American Utilities Service Corporation, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 10 (a) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of the acquisition by it of 62,912 shares of common stock, of the par value of $5.00 per share, of Peoria Service Company, a subsidiary company of applicant, in exchange for certain indebtedness, preferred and common stock now held by applicant, which exchange applicant states is pursuant to a plan of reorganization of said Peoria Service Company confirmed by the District Court of the United States under Section 77B of the Bankruptcy Act;

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on August 30, 1937, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day at Room 1101, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, muicipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 25, 1937.

It is further ordered that Richard Townsend, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

By the Commmission.

IN THE MATTER OF WEBSTER AND SOUTHBRIDGE GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application having been duly filed with this Commission, by Webster and Southbridge Gas and Electric Company, a subsidiary of New England Power Association, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for exemption from the provisions of Section 6 (a) of said Act of the issue and sale by the applicant of 96,000 shares of its capital stock of the par value of $25 per share, it being stated in said application that such issue and sale are solely for the purpose of financing the business of the applicant, said shares to be issued to said New England Power Association in exchange, share for share, for 96,000 shares of the capital stock of the Worcester Electric Light Company, a subsidiary of said New England Power Association, of the par value of $25 per share, all of said shares being stated in said application to be owned by said New England Power Association, and that such issue and sale have been expressly authorized by the Department of Public Utilities of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the state in which the applicant is organized and doing business.

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on August 27, 1937, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 1103, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 21, 1937.

It is further ordered that Robert P. Reeder, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

By the Commission.

Accounts and Deposits.

[1937—Department Circular No. 577]

REGULATIONS GOVERNING CLAIMS FOR REPLACEMENT OF VALUABLES, OR THE VALUE THEREOF, SHIPPED PURSUANT TO THE "GOVERNMENT LOSSES IN SHIPMENT ACT"

AUGUST 13, 1937.

To the Heads of the Executive Departments, Independent Establishments, Agencies, Wholly-Owned Corporations, Officers and Employees of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks When Acting on Behalf of the United States or Agencies Thereof, and Others Concerned:

The following regulations are prescribed pursuant to section 6 of the Government Losses in Shipment Act, Public No. 192, 75th Congress, First Session, approved July 8, 1937, hereinafter referred to as the "Act." All terms used in these regulations shall have the same meaning as when used in said Act, unless otherwise indicated.

1. General Instructions.—To facilitate the reporting of loss or destruction of, or damage to valuables and submission of proofs of claim for relief, under the provisions of section 3 of the Act, in the event of loss or destruction of, or damage to valuables shipped pursuant to the regulations prescribed under section 1 of said Act, executive departments, independent establishments, agencies, wholly-owned corporations, officers, employees, Federal Reserve banks when acting on behalf of the United States or agencies thereof, and others concerned, hereinafter sometimes referred to as "Consignors," should observe strictly the following instructions. Failure on the part of any consignor or agent or employee thereof to comply with these instructions may retard recoveries and may under the circumstances preclude reimbursement from the Fund or other relief under the Act, and render the consignor responsible for any loss occurring through such negligence.

2. Method of Shipment.—All shipments shall be made in accordance with the terms of Treasury Department Circular No. 576—Post Office Department Circular No. REG. 1, dated July 16, 1937, and such amendments and supplements thereto as may, from time to time, be promulgated.

3. Preparation of Shipment.—Each shipment must be inspected and verified by two responsible employees before final preparation for delivery to the carrier (to wit, before sealing, locking, etc.) and must be finally prepared for such delivery in their presence and before leaving their immediate control. In the case of any class of shipments with respect to which it is not possible or practicable to comply strictly with the foregoing requirement, it shall be the duty of administrative officers to make adequate provision, through the establishment of accounting controls, or otherwise, for the maintenance of basic records from which they will be in a position to prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury the exact extent of loss, destruction or damage, in the event that claim for replacement out of the Fund, or otherwise, shall be made. The foregoing requirements will apply irrespective of the carrier or method of transportation employed in making shipments.

4. Record of Shipment.—A permanent record of each shipment must be maintained by the consignor which record must include: (1) the name and address of the consignee; (2) a complete description of the contents (if the shipment comprises securities, the record must be maintained by issue, series, denomination and serial number, and a description of the coupons, if any, attached to such securities at the time of shipment); (3) face or par value of shipment in the case of securities, currency, etc., or replacement value in the case of other valuables; (4) the registry number or the lock and rotary numbers, if any, under which shipped; (5) the number of the registry receipt or other receipt of carrier; (6) the date and hour of delivery to the carrier; (7) a record of the signatures of the employees who verified the contents of the package and witnessed sealing; (8) a record of the signatures of the employee or employees who thereafter had custody thereof, until delivered at the post office for registration or deposited with the post office or other carrier for shipment; and (9) the name of the carrier. In addition the consignor must preserve for a reasonable time all registry receipts or other carriers' receipts, and such other documents as may be incidental to the shipments.

5. Advice of Shipment.—In the event the value of any one shipment to one consignee at one time, by one consignor, except in the case of an intra-city shipment, equals or exceeds $10,000.00, immediate notice thereof must be forwarded by the consignor to the consignee by separate mail. There should be included in such notice: (1) a complete record of the contents of the shipment; (2) the method of transportation employed and the name of the carrier; (3) the date of delivery to such carrier. The consignee should be requested to arrange: (1) that the shipment, when received, be opened and inspected by one or more responsible employees of the consignee; (2) that immediate advice of any difference between the amounts or quantity indicated in such notice and in the shipment when opened be forwarded to the consignor; (3) that the consignor and the post office, or office or other carrier through which delivery would be made, be notified immediately in the event of the failure of the shipment to arrive in due course; (4) that consignor be advised immediately concerning any damage to the shipment; and (5) that all findings of the consignee in such cases be made a matter of record which may be subject to the call or inspection of the Secretary of the Treasury or other duly authorized Government officer in connection with any investigation which may be necessary in connection therewith.

6. Report of Shipment.—As promptly as possible after the close of each month, detailed reports of shipments made during the preceding month must be forwarded by the consignors to the Secretary of the Treasury, for attention of the Division of Deposits, substantially in the form attached hereto, marked as Exhibits Nos. 1, 2, and 3.

7. Report of Loss, Destruction or Damage.—As soon as it shall come to the attention of the consignor that loss or destruction of, or damage to valuables shipped in accordance with the Act has occurred, an immediate report thereof shall be forwarded in writing by the consignor to the Secretary of the Treasury, for attention of the Division of Deposits. If the loss, destruction or damage represents a value equal to or in excess of $10,000.00, or if delay is likely to retard the Government in its effort to recover such valuables, such report should be transmitted by wire and promptly confirmed in writing.

Such report should indicate: (1) date of shipment; (2) the amount and character of the valuables lost, destroyed, or damaged; (3) the name and address of consignee; (4) the method of transportation, name of carrier and location of office of carrier from which shipment was made; (5) the registry receipt or other receipt number; and (6) a statement of the cause of the loss, destruction or damage, if known.

An immediate report of the loss, destruction or damage should also be made by the consignor to the agent in charge of the nearest United States Secret Service office and to the local post office or local office of other carrier. Government officers reporting losses to such agencies will be expected to cooperate therewith to the fullest extent in facilitating investigations and recovery.

As expeditiously as possible and without further instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, the consignor should proceed to place a tracer on the shipment and to take such other action as may be deemed necessary or advisable to facilitate recovery.

8. Claim for Replacement.—Claim for replacement shall be made in writing to the Secretary of the Treasury and shall be supported by "Proof of Claim" pursuant to paragraph 9 hereof. Such claim accompanied by a recommendation with respect to the manner of replacement thereof shall be submitted through the head of the executive department, independent establishment, agency, or wholly-owned corporation concerned, or, in the case of officers or employees under the Treasury Department, through their respective administrative heads. The manner of replacement shall be subject to the determination of the Secretary of the Treasury in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of the Act.

9. Proof of Claim.—The Secretary of the Treasury may require proof of claim in such form and in such manner as may from time to time be deemed necessary.

In general, the requirements of the Secretary of the Treasury will be as follows:

(1) Satisfactory proof of shipment as claimed, which should be supported by the original "Record of Shipment" required to be maintained pursuant to paragraph 4 hereof. The original record will be returned after adjustment of the claim.

(2) Satisfactory proof of loss, destruction or damage. The consignor will be required to submit a statement concerning the loss or destruction of, or damage to shipment or any part thereof; and, if received by the consignee with contents not intact, all the circumstances must be set forth with respect to the condition in which such shipment was received and the manner of the inspection and verification of its contents. Whenever possible to do so, affidavits covering the loss, destruction or damage should be obtained from the consignee and the carrier. Such proof of claim must be accompanied by the recommendation of the head of the executive department, independent establishment, agency or wholly-owned corporation concerned, or in the case of officers or employees under the Treasury Department of their respective administrative heads.

(3) Statement and recommendation of investigating officer or officers.

10. Recoveries.—In the event of loss or destruction of, or damage to valuables for which relief shall have been granted, under section 3 of the Act, the consignors are required to take such steps as are necessary and reasonable for the defense, safeguard or recovery of the valuables or the value thereof, as the case may be, and the Secretary of the Treasury will take such further steps to that end as he may deem necessary in the particular circumstances.

All recoveries and repayments on account of loss, destruction, or damage to valuables of which replacement shall have been made out of the Fund shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury and shall be credited to the Fund.

The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, with the approval of the President, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing claims for replacement of valuables shipped pursuant to the "Government Losses in Shipment Act."

DECLARATION OF DOMESTIC VINTAGE WINE STOCKS

AUGUST 14, 1937.

To All Producers and Blenders of Wine:

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 2 (h) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act you are hereby required to furnish the Administration, on or before September 15, 1937, a report upon the attached form (Form FX-171), of all domestic vintage wine stocks now in your possession which are being, or may be, bottled or packed by you under a vintage date.

In the event that you have in your possession no stocks of wine which may be bottled or sold under a vintage date, indicate this fact on the report and return the same to the Administration.

Your attention is called to the fact that, under Article I (h) of Regulations No. 4, a vintage date may be stated only on a "light wine", a "fortified wine", or a "sparkling wine" made by natural fermentation exclusively. Your attention is also called to the fact that, under Article I (h), "vintage wine" means only a "wine made wholly from grapes gathered in the same calendar year and grown and fermented in the same viticultural area", as well as to the fact that permission to label such wines with vintage dates is strictly limited to the conditions prescribed in Section 39 (b) of Regulations No. 4.

It is essential to file this form with the Administration promptly, as the information furnished will constitute a basis for enforcement of the provisions of the regulations dealing with appropriate use of vintage dates.

INSTRUCTIONS

Under columns marked A, C, D, and E, insert information that now appears on labels of wine already bottled or packed, or that will appear on labels of wine not yet bottled or packed.

Under column marked B, state the class of the wine as either "light wine", "fortified wine" or "sparkling wine." If the "light wine" will later be used for fortified vintage wine or for sparkling vintage wine, that fact should be stated, and the type designation later to be employed entered under column C.

Each numbered horizontal line should describe only one lot of wine. Wines differing as to brand name, class, type, vintage year, viticultural area, or address of place of storage, should be treated as separate lots.

Additional forms will be furnished upon request.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

[Docket No. A-56-056]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND A PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN COUNTIES IN THE STATES OF COLORADO, NEBRASKA AND WYOMING

Whereas, under Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended and as reenacted by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling of potatoes grown in the counties of Alamosa, Conejos, Costilla, Delta, Eagle, Garfield, Larimer, Mesa, Montrose, Morgan, Pitkin, Rio Grande, Saguache, and Weld in the State of Colorado; the counties of Sioux, Morrill, Banner, Dawes, Box Butte, Kimball, Sheridan, Garden, Cheyenne, Cherry, and Scotts Bluff in the State of Nebraska, and the counties of Goshen, Niobrara, Parke, and Laramie in the State of Wyoming;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of potatoes grown in the counties of Alamosa, Conejos, Costilla, Delta, Eagle, Garfield, Larimer, Mesa, Montrose, Morgan, Pitkin, Rio Grande, Saguache, and Weld in the State of Colorado; the counties of Sioux, Morrill, Banner, Dawes, Box Butte, Kimball, Sheridan, Garden, Cheyenne, Cherry and Scotts Bluff in the State of Nebraska, and the counties of Goshen, Niobrara, Parke and Laramie in the State of Wyoming in the Senate Chamber, State Capitol, Denver, Colorado, on August 24, 1937 at 9:30 a. m., mountain standard time, and in the Oddfellows Hall auditorium, Scotts Bluff, Nebraska, on August 25 at 9:30 a. m., mountain standard time.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling of potatoes grown in the above mentioned counties in the States of Colorado, Nebraska and Wyoming as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such potatoes. Among other things, the proposed marketing agreement and order provide for: (a) the establishment of a Control Board and District Committee, (b) prohibition of shipment of "cull" potatoes, (c) further grade and size regulations of shipments, (d) expenses of administration, and other matters relating to the handling of potatoes in the aforesaid area.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of potatoes in the aforesaid area which requires a shorter period of notice than fifteen (15) days; and it is hereby determined that the period of notice given is reasonable under the circumstances.

Copies of the proposed marketing agreement and proposed order may be inspected in or procured from the office of the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND A PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN COUNTIES IN THE STATE OF IDAHO

Whereas, under Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended and as reenacted by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling of potatoes grown in the counties of Ada, Adams, Bannock, Bingham, Bear Lake, Blaine, Boise, Bonneville, Butte, Camas, Canyon, Caribou, Cassia, Clark, Custer, Elmore, Franklin, Fremont, Gem, Gooding, Jefferson, Jerome, Lemhi, Lincoln, Madison, Minidoka, Oneida, Owyhee, Payette, Power, Teton, Twin Falls, Valley, and Washington in the State of Idaho;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of potatoes grown in the counties of Ada, Adams, Bannock, Bingham, Bear Lake, Blaine, Boise, Bonneville, Butte, Camas, Canyon, Caribou, Cassia, Clark, Custer, Elmore, Franklin, Fremont, Gem, Gooding, Jefferson, Jerome, Lemhi, Lincoln, Madison, Minidoka, Oneida, Owyhee, Payette, Power, Teton, Twin Falls, Valley, and Washington in the State of Idaho, at Idaho Falls, Idaho, in the Latter Day Saints Tabernacle on August 27, 1937, at 9:30 a. m., mountain standard time, and at Twin Falls, Idaho, in the auditorium, American Legion Building, on August 28, 1937, at 9:30 a. m., mountain standard time.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling of potatoes in the above-mentioned counties in the State of Idaho as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in such potatoes. NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND A PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN COUNTIES IN THE STATE OF MAINE

Whereas, under Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended and as reenacted by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling of potatoes grown in Somerset, Waldo, Aroostook, Penobscot, and Piscataquis counties in the State of Maine;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of potatoes grown in Somerset, Waldo, Aroonstock, Penobscot, and Piscataquis counties in the State of Maine in the high school auditorium at Caribou, Maine, on August 24, 1937, at 10:00 a. m., daylight saving time.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling of potatoes in the above mentioned counties in the State of Maine as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such potatoes. SUPPLEMENTARY REGULATIONS GOVERNING ENTRY UPON THE OKEFENOKEE WILDLIFE REFUGE, GEORGIA, FOR FISHING AND OTHER PURPOSES

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by section 84 of the act of March 4, 1909, 35 Stat. 1088, as amended by act of April 15, 1924, 43 Stat. 98, and by section 10 of the Migratory Bird Conservation Act of February 18, 1929 (45 Stat. 1222), the following regulations in extension of and additional to the general regulations for the administration of Federal wildlife refuges issued May 7, 1930 (S. R. A.-B. S. 73), are prescribed for the administration of the Okefenokee Wildlife Refuge, Georgia:

Fishing

1. Waters open to fishing.—The following waters of the refuge are designated as areas open to fishing, and fishing will not be permitted in any other waters unless and until further ordered: Suwanee (Okefenokee) Canal, Billys Lake, Minnie Lake, Big Water Lake, Chesser Prairie, Chase Prairie, Grand Prairie, and connecting boat runs.

2. State fishing laws.—Every person who fishes in any of the aforesaid waters must comply with the applicable fishing laws of the State of Georgia, and in the absence of any State law or regulation in respect to fishing seasons and number of fish that may be taken, the Chief of the Bureau of Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture, hereinafter referred to as the Chief of the Bureau, may fix such seasons and limits; and in the event he shall find that fishing in any of the aforesaid waters is unduly depleting any species of the fishes therein, he may suspend the privilege of fishing in such waters pending final determination by the Secretary of Agriculture.

3. Fishing permits.—No person is permitted to fish in the aforesaid waters until he has obtained a permit from the officer in charge, which permit shall be limited to the period specified therein, and such officer will not issue a permit until the applicant therefor exhibits to him a State fishing license, if such license is required by State law or regulation. The permit must be carried on the person of the permittee when exercising the privileges thereunder and must be exhibited upon request to any Federal or State officer authorized to enforce Federal and State fishing laws and regulations.

4. Special fishing restrictions.—Live bait shall not be used in fishing, and no seine shall be employed in taking minnows for bait in any of the waters of the refuge.

5. Fishing guides.—No person or group of persons to whom a permit has been issued for fishing in the aforesaid waters of the refuge shall engage in such fishing unless accompanied by a guide previously designated in writing by the officer in charge, except that such officer may waive this requirement as to any person or group of persons who he has reason to believe may safely be allowed on the refuge without a guide; and with respect to fishing in such of the aforesaid waters as he may specify from time to time, the Chief of the Bureau may waive the requirement that fishermen must be accompanied by a guide.

Qualifications and Responsibilities of Guides

6. Designating guides.—An applicant for the privilege of guiding on the refuge shall submit to the officer in charge application in writing on a form to be provided. If the applicant is found to have the necessary qualifications the officer in charge may issue to him a written designation as guide, as he also will to any person who similarly applies to be designated as assistant guide. Any designation as a guide or assistant guide may be revoked at any time by the officer in charge for failure of the guide or the assistant guide to cooperate with the officer in charge or his subordinates in the administration of the refuge, for willful violation of the regulations governing the administration of the refuge, for intoxication while on the refuge, or for discourteous or inefficient treatment of patrons. Every guide or assistant guide shall carry his designation on his person while rendering guide service on the refuge and shall exhibit it to any Federal or State officer authorized to enforce Federal and State fishing laws and regulations.

7. Qualifications of guides.—No person shall be designated as a guide unless he is a citizen of the United States; is of known good character and reputation; is familiar with the territory comprised within the refuge and with Federal and State laws and regulations governing fishing and entries for other purposes on the refuge; is in possession of such guide license as may be required by the laws or regulations of Georgia; and is equipped with necessary boats and other paraphernalia for service as a guide.

8. Guiding fees.—No guide shall charge for his services a fee or other compensation in excess of the amounts previously ascertained, determined, and declared by the Chief of the Bureau to be reasonable and fair for such services.

9. Duties and responsibilities of guides.—Every person designated as a guide shall comply with the following provisions, conditions, and requirements:

a. He shall be responsible for the orderly conduct of persons guided and shall immediately report to the officer in charge any disorderly conduct or violation of Federal or State laws or regulations applicable to the refuge.

b. Guides shall not undertake guide services for any person who does not exhibit a permit issued to him by the officer in charge authorizing entry on the refuge.

c. Every guide shall keep a record of the names and addresses of the persons guided by him and of the kinds and numbers of fishes taken by each one of them and of the waters from which taken, and as soon as practicable after each fishing trip shall submit a report of the aforesaid facts to the officer in charge on a form furnished therefor.

d. Every guide must exercise strict caution in the building of fires on the refuge and must totally extinguish every fire built by him and must extinguish, if possible, any fire discovered by him on the refuge or immediately report to the officer in charge any fire not promptly extinguishable. Every guide shall maintain vigilant care to protect property, wildlife, and vegetation on the refuge.

e. Every guide must render courteous, dependable, and efficient service to his patrons and so far as possible must protect them from hardship and danger.

f. Every guide must at all times maintain his boats in safe condition and in good working order and shall conspicuously display thereon the number assigned by the officer in charge.

g. In order to accommodate unusually large parties holding permits to enter the refuge on any one day, the guide engaged may employ assistant guides, previously designated as hereinbefore provided, and such guide shall be responsible and accountable for the conduct of such assistants as may be employed by him.

Entry on Refuge for Sightseeing and Study of the Fauna and Flora

10. Permits for sightseeing and study.—No person is permitted to enter the refuge for sightseeing or to observe the fauna and flora unless authorized by permit issued to him by the officer in charge, which permit shall be limited to the period specified therein; such permit shall be carried on the person of the permittee while on the refuge and must be exhibited to any Federal or State officer authorized to enforce game and fish laws and regulations.

11. Sightseeing guides.—Every person or group of persons entering the refuge for the purpose of sightseeing or observing the fauna and flora shall be accompanied by a guide, designated as hereinbefore provided, and every such guide, in performance of services to such persons, shall be subject to the provisions, conditions, and requirements hereinbefore prescribed, and shall keep a record of the names and addresses of such persons guided by him and of the purposes for which they entered the refuge, and shall make a report thereon to the officer in charge at the conclusion of each employment as guide.

Special Provisions Applicable to All Persons Entering the Refuge

12. Firearms.—The carrying of firearms on the refuge is not permitted except on the part of the officer in charge and other employees of the Department of Agriculture and officers or employees of the State Department of Natural Resources of Georgia while engaged in the enforcement of fish and game laws.

13. Fires and camping.—Except as authorized by permit issued by the officer in charge, no person other than a guide shall build a fire on the refuge for any purpose, and special care must be taken to prevent lighted matches, cigars, or cigarettes or pipe ashes from being dropped in grass or other inflammable material. Camping on any part of the refuge except under permit issued by the officer in charge is not permitted.

14. Disorderly conduct.—Disorderly conduct of any nature, including intoxication, will not be tolerated on the refuge; any offender will be requested to leave immediately, and failing to do so he will be removed by the officer in charge or by his assistants. Presence on the refuge in an intoxicated condition shall ipso facto annul and forfeit any permit such intoxicated person may hold for any privilege on the refuge, and the permit will be taken up forthwith by the officer in charge or by his assistants.

15. Introducing extralimital wildlife.—Live fishes, frogs, snakes, or turtles taken elsewhere shall not be placed in any waters of the refuge unless authorized by a permit issued by the Chief of the Bureau.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the United States Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, this 14th day of August, 1937.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM.

REGULATION M

[Effective August 14, 1937]

Resolved, That, effective August 14, 1937, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System approve and adopt the following regulation:

FOREIGN BRANCHES OF NATIONAL BANKS AND OF CORPORATIONS ORGANIZED UNDER THE PROVISIONS F SECTION 25 (A) OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE ACT

This regulation is issued pursuant to the provisions of section 25 and section 25 (a) of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended.

Whenever a national bank, pursuant to the provisions of section 25 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, or a corporation organized under section 25 (a) of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, has established a branch or agency in any place in any foreign country, and there exists in such place a disturbed condition which, in the opinion of the officer in charge of such branch or agency at the time, endangers the lives of its employees or the property of such branch or agency at such place, or for any other reason beyond the control of the branch or agency and which relates to such disturbed condition renders it impracticable for such branch or agency to continue to function, he may, after every effort has been made to render the greatest possible service to the depositors of the branch or agency, suspend the operations of such branch or agency in whole or in part until the reason for such suspension has ceased to exist and until, in the judgment of such officer in charge, the branch or agency may safely be reopened and its operations resumed; but in the meantime in so far as possible every effort shall be made to render service to the depositors of the branch or agency. In all cases of such suspension and resumption of operations the facts shall be reported as soon as possible by such officer in charge of such branch or agency to the head office of such national bank or corporation which shall immediately transmit a copy of such report to the Federal Reserve bank of the District in which such head office is located.

The above resolution was adopted by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System on August 14, 1937.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 36]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A HEARING TO DETERMINE THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF MARYLAND AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH COMMERCE UPON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL, TO BE HELD AT CUMBERLAND, MARYLAND, ON AUGUST 30, 1937, BEFORE AN EXAMINER, AND NOTICE THEREOF

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, upon being advised by certain producers, producers' organizations, and other interested parties in a public hearing held at the Commission's Hearing Room at Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of July, 1937, that substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the State of Maryland directly affect interstate commerce in such coal and will cause undue and unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice as between such commerce in Maryland on the one hand and interstate commerce in such coal on the other hand as such interstate commerce is provided to be regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and that a hearing to determine the effect of intrastate transactions in bituminous coal upon interstate transactions in bituminous coal in the State of Maryland would be desirable, and upon investigation hereby orders:

1. That on August 30, 1937, commencing at the hour of ten (10) o'clock A. M., at the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Council Chamber, City Hall, Cumberland, Maryland, a public hearing will be held to determine the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of Maryland, and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice, will exist between localities in Maryland in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on the other hand and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discriminations against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act to the end that the Commission may, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and to the provisions of Section 4-A of said Act.

2. That said hearing will be conducted by an Examiner designated by the Commission.

3. That interested parties may appear and present evidence at such hearing.

4. That any producer believing that particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal are not subject to the provisions of the first paragraph of Section 4-A will, subsequent to the final order of the Commission in the proceeding herein noticed, be afforded full opportunity to file an application for exemption as provided in said section, upon which application a hearing will thereafter be held by the Commission upon proper notice given.

5. That failure of any producer to appear and present evidence at the hearing herein noticed to be held in Cumberland, Maryland, on August 30, 1937, will not prejudice the case of any producer to be heard upon such application.

6. That this order and notice shall not be construed as making any person receiving a copy thereof a party to this proceeding within the provision of Section 6 (b) of the Act.

7. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this notice to the Consumers' Counsel, to each known producer of bituminous coal in the State of Maryland and to the secretaries of all of the district boards, and shall cause to be published at the expense of the Commission copy of this order and notice for three (3) days in newspapers of general circulation in the counties of Maryland in which bituminous coal is produced.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 16th day of August, 1937.

[Order No. 37]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A HEARING TO DETERMINE THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH COMMERCE UPON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL, TO BE HELD AT JOHNSTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA, ON SEPTEMBER 20, 1937, BEFORE AN EXAMINER, AND NOTICE THEREOF

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, upon being advised by certain producers, producers' organizations, and other interested parties in a public hearing held at the Commission's Hearing Room at Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of July, 1937, that substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the State of Pennsylvania directly affect interstate commerce in such coal and will cause undue and unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice as between such commerce in Pennsylvania on the one hand and interstate commerce in such coal on the other hand as such interstate commerce is provided to be regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and that a hearing to determine the effect of intrastate transactions in bituminous coal upon interstate transactions in bituminous coal in the State of Pennsylvania would be desirable, and upon investigation hereby orders:

1. That on September 20, 1937, commencing at the hour of ten (10) o'clock A. M., at the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Fort Stanwix Hotel, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, a public hearing will be held to determine the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of Pennsylvania, and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice, will exist between localities in Pennsylvania in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on the other hand and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discriminations against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act to the end that the Commission may, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and to the provisions of Section 4-A of said Act.

2. That said hearing will be conducted by an Examiner designated by the Commission.

3. That interested parties may appear and present evidence at such hearing.

4. That any producer believing that particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal are not subject to the provisions of the first paragraph of Section 4-A will, subsequent to the final order of the Commission in the proceeding herein noticed, be afforded full opportunity to file an application for exemption as provided in said section, upon which application a hearing will thereafter be held by the Commission upon proper notice given.

5. That failure of any producer to appear and present evidence at the hearing herein noticed to be held in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, on September 20, 1937, will not prejudice the case of any producer to be heard upon such application.

6. That this order and notice shall not be construed as making any person receiving a copy thereof a party to this proceeding within the provision of Section 6 (b) of the Act.

7. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this notice to the Consumers' Counsel, to each known producer of bituminous coal in the State of Pennsylvania and to the secretaries of all of the district boards, and shall cause to be published at the expense of the Commission copy of this order and notice for three (3) days in newspapers of general circulation in the counties of Pennsylvania in which bituminous coal is produced.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 16th day of August, 1937.

[Order No. 38]

AN ORDER APPROVING STANDARDS OF CLASSIFICATION OF COALS, METHODS OF APPLYING SUCH STANDARDS AND RULES OF PROCEDURE IN THE CLASSIFICATION OF COALS UNDER SECTION 4, PART II OF THE ACT, FOR APPLICATION TO ALL DISTRICTS

Pursuant to act of Congress, entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission directed all District Boards to propose standards of classification of coals and standard methods and rules of making and applying such classifications, and having held a public hearing at Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of July, 1937, at which hearing evidence was submitted for the purpose of determining and fixing standards of classification, methods and rules in connection therewith, and the Commission having considered all proposals of the District Boards as to such standards of classification and all of the evidence submitted at such public hearing, and being fully advised in the premises, hereby orders that:

All District Boards shall proceed as promptly as possible to propose to the Commission classifications of all coals of code members within their respective districts, which classifications shall be made and proposed to the Commission in conformity with the following standards of classification, methods of applying such standards and rules of procedure, which are hereby adopted and prescribed by the Commission as regulations governing all classifications and reclassifications of coals thereafter proposed to the Commission by any District Board:

STANDARDS OF CLASSIFICATION OF COALS, METHODS OF APPLYING SUCH STANDARDS AND RULES OF PROCEDURE IN THE CLASSIFICATION OF COALS

In the classification of coals the following standards, methods and procedure shall be observed and complied with:

A—STANDARDS OF CLASSIFICATION

The following factors shall be considered as pertinent and shall be given due consideration:

1. Proximate analyses; namely, moisture, ash, volatile matter, fixed carbon and sulphur, B. t. u.'s, and ash softening temperature, analysis of ash and ultimate analysis of coal.

2. Physical characteristics.

3. Characteristics of performance.

B—METHOD OF APPLYING STANDARDS OF CLASSIFICATION

All necessary and ascertainable information concerning the standards set forth above shall be given due consideration with respect to the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal mined and shipped by all code members within each district.

All coals shall be classified to the end that no code member will be unduly prejudiced or preferred as between and among code members, and that all classifications established shall be just and equitable, and not unduly prejudicial or preferential, as between and among districts.

Coals shall be classified as of the time and place when preparation for market has been completed by the producer at the mine or at facilities normally considered as an adjunct to the mine.

C—RULES OF PROCEDURE IN PROPOSING AND MAKING INITIAL CLASSIFICATIONS

1. Each code member shall submit to the District Board for the district within which his mine or mines are located, on forms supplied by the District Board, within ten (10) days of the date of receipt of such forms, appropriate information concerning the kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal produced by the code member, and all other information deemed pertinent to the standards of classification set forth above, for the purpose of effectuating the classification of coals of the code member.

Such information shall be made available to the Commission upon its request and shall be held confidential by the Commission and the District Board except as it may be required to be disclosed in carrying out the provisions of the Act and the orders of the Commission.

If any code member fails to furnish to the District Board information as required in this Rule, or furnishes information which the District Board deems incomplete, the Board shall use any information or knowledge reasonably available to it concerning the coals produced at the mine or mines of the code member, as pertinent evidence in determining and proposing initial classifications of such coals.

2. Each District Board shall promptly submit to the Commission, and at the same time to all code members within the district, the proposed initial classifications for all coals produced at all mines of code members within the district, such proposals to be made in accordance with the standards and methods hereinbefore set forth.

3. In the event that any code member is dissatisfied with the class or classes in which his coals, or the coals of other code members, have been placed for proposed initial classification, he shall have the right to protest to the District Board. Each protest shall be in writing, addressed to, and filed with, the Secretary of the District Board within ten (10) days after such proposed initial classifications are mailed by the District Board to all code members within the district and shall set forth the classification claimed by such code member together with the reasons why the proposed initial classification should be changed and detailed data in support thereof. The Secretary of the District Board shall fix the time and place for a hearing and shall notify the Commission and all interested code members of such protest and the time and place for hearing the same. The date of the hearing shall be not more than five (5) days after the date of receipt of such protest by the Secretary of the District Board.

4. The District Board, or a committee appointed by it, shall hear the protest at the time and place assigned for hearing and the Board shall render a decision in writing (which shall include the reasons upon which the decision is based) not later than the close of the fifth (5th) day following the conclusion of the hearing.

5. All interested persons appearing at the hearing shall have the right to offer testimony and to file exhibits and briefs in support of their respective positions. A stenographic record of all testimony offered shall be made and transcribed and shall be permanently retained in the files of the District Board and shall be made available to the Commission upon its request. Expenses in connection with the hearing, except usual expenses of the District Board, shall be assessed in accordance with rules to be proposed by the District Board and approved by the Commission.

6. Notice of the decision of the District Board in any case involving proposed initial classifications shall be given to the Commission and to all code members within the district, except that where a protest is denied and no change in proposed classification is made, the District Board shall be required to notify only the Commission, the protestant, and other parties represented at the hearing. Copies of the decisions of the Board shall be furnished to all principal parties in each case and to the Commission, and shall be made available upon request to all other code members within the district.

D—RULES OF PROCEDURE IN MAKING RECLASSIFICATION OF COALS

1. District Boards shall have the right to propose to the Commission the reclassification of any coal of any code member within the district after affording due notice and opportunity to be heard before the District Board of the code member or members affected, as well as to all other code members of the district. Any code member shall have the right to make application to the District Board for a proposal of reclassification but not within ninety (90) days from the date of a previous classification by the Commission unless such code member can produce, to the satisfaction of the District Board, new evidence which was not available at the time the previous classification was proposed by the District Board to the Commission.

2. The rules of procedure for such reclassification of coals shall conform to those outlined in Rules 3, 4, 5, and 6 of Section C and Rule 5 of Section E hereof.

3. Proposed reclassifications shall be promptly submitted by the District Boards to the Commission, together with all pertinent data upon which the proposal of the District Board is based.

E—GENERAL CLASSIFICATION RULES

1. All classifications shall become effective upon the issuance of appropriate orders by the Commission, and, pending final disposition of any protest and upon reasonable showing of necessity therefor, the Commission, at the request of the District Board or any interested code member, may make such preliminary or temporary finding or order as in its judgment may be appropriate and not inconsistent with the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

2. Any code member aggrieved by any action of a District Board concerning the proposed classification or reclassifications of coals by a Board may appeal to the Commission, as provided in Section 6, subsection (a) of the Act, by filing a formal protest with the Commission in accordance with its Rules of Practice and Procedure.

3. All code members shall permit the inspection of coal being loaded, and, for the purpose of securing analyses of coal, shall permit the taking of samples at any reasonable time by duly accredited representatives of the District Board or of the Commission. Samples taken shall be representative of a day's loading of the grade and size sampled. Sampling shall be done in accordance with the standards set forth in the Bureau of Mines Technical Paper No. 133, dated 1933, and titled "Directions for Sampling Coal for Shipment or Delivery." Where required by the District Board, three separate samples of coal as shipped shall be taken at the mine or at facilities normally considered as an adjunct to the mine, on three (3) consecutive working days or as nearly thereto as practicable. Each day's sample, in duplicate, shall be forwarded to the laboratory for analysis of each day's sample and three (3) days' composite sample and the code member shall be entitled to receive, upon request, a sufficient portion of said samples for analysis.

4. Sampling for screen tests, both for purposes of determining tolerance and for determining size consist, shall be done in accordance with "Proposed Tentative Method of Test for Screen Analysis of Coal", A. S. T. M. Designation (D–410–35T), issued 1935.

5. Analyses of coals may be made by any established laboratory recommended by a District Board and approved by the Commission, and in the event of disputes or differences in analytical results of different laboratories, the determinations of the U. S. Bureau of Mines or other impartial laboratories designated by the Commission shall be taken as final.

6. Complete schedules of classifications proposed by each District Board and established by the Commission, as well as revisions thereof, shall be kept on file at the principal office of the District Board and at the office of the Commission at Washington, D. C., subject to inspection by any code member, or other interested party, during usual business hours.

At a date subsequent to this order, the Commission will by further order set a definite date at which time all proposals of initial classifications of coals of code members by District Boards must be completed and filed with the Commission.

The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, to the Secretaries of all District Boards, and to all code members within the respective districts.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 16th day of August, 1937.

[Docket No. A–57 O–57]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO MARKETING AGREEMENT NO. 62 AND ORDER NO. 1 REGULATING THE HANDLING OF WALNUTS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA, OREGON, AND WASHINGTON

Whereas, under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacts and further amends Public No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, notice of hearing is required in connection with proposed amendments to a marketing agreement or an order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for notice and opportunity for hearing upon marketing agreements and orders and amendments thereto;

Whereas, the walnut Control Board, established by the order regulating the handling of walnuts grown in the States of California, Oregon, and Washington, has submitted certain amendments to the said marketing agreement and order and requested that a hearing be held on said amendments;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and the said general regulations, notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in Room 113, Agricultural Hall, University of California, Berkeley, California, on August 23, 1937, at 11:00 a. m., and thereafter until completed, at which time interested parties will be heard with reference to proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of walnuts grown in the States of California, Oregon, and Washington, to be executed and issued under the said act.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the necessity for, and the advisability of, amending the said marketing agreement and order so as (1) to fix a salable percentage of walnuts for the crop year, September 1, 1937 to August 31, 1938; (2) to provide the basis of allocating among packers Control Board purchases of merchantable walnuts to replace surplus walnuts sold by other packers who have met their surplus obligation by paying cash to the Control Board in lieu of delivery of walnuts; (3) to change the basis of assessments so that they will be based on the credit value of packers' surplus obligation instead of the basis of handlings of merchantable walnuts; (4) to provide for a varietal tolerance in Oregon-Washington standard or medium Franquette pack; (5) to require that the quality grade of any lot of walnuts shall be the highest quality grade to which such lot is eligible under the quality specifications in the present agreement and order; (6) to omit specific reference to insect-damaged kernels in the tolerance provisions of First and Second Quality Grade for California, Oregon, and Washington walnuts as specified in the present agreement and order. Evidence as to the necessity for and advisability of such other amendments as may be presented at the hearing will be received.

Copies of the proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and order may be inspected in or procured from the office of the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 39]

AN ORDER REQUIRING THE SEVERAL DISTRICT BOARDS WITHIN MINIMUM PRICE AREAS NUMBER 1 AND NUMBER 2 TO PROPOSE MINIMUM PRICES FOR ALL KINDS, QUALITIES AND SIZES OF COAL PRODUCED BY CODE MEMBERS IN SAID DISTRICTS; PROVIDING FOR THE COORDINATION OF MINIMUM PRICES SO PROPOSED AND GIVING NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING BY THE COMMISSION FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE TO ENABLE THE COMMISSION TO APPROVE, DISAPPROVE OR MODIFY SUCH PROPOSED MINIMUM PRICES, TO ESTABLISH MINIMUM PRICES AND DETERMINE THE EXTENT OF THE APPLICABILITY THEREOF

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs:

1. That each District Board within the areas defined in said Act as Minimum Price Areas Number 1 and Number 2 shall forthwith proceed to consider and shall, on or before the 2nd day of September, 1937, propose to the Commission minimum prices free on board transportation facilities at the mines for all kinds, qualities and sizes of coal produced in said district by code members, and to propose such price variations as to mines, consuming market areas, values as to uses and seasonal demand, as may be deemed proper and within the authority conferred by said Act.

Schedules of such proposed minimum prices, together with the data upon which they were computed, including, but without limitation, the factors considered in determining the price relationship, shall be submitted to the Commission by each District Board within Minimum Price Areas Number 1 and Number 2 on or before the 2nd day of September, 1937, and the Commission may thereupon approve, disapprove or modify such proposed minimum prices to conform to the requirements of subsection (a) of Part II, entitled "Marketing", of Section 4 of the Act

2. Each District Board within Minimum Price Areas Number 1 and Number 2 respectively, in order to facilitate the determination of such proposed minimum prices, shall, in computing proposed minimum prices, use as the weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of such Minimum Price Area, as provided in subsection (a) of Part II of Section 4 of the Act, the sum of $2.22 per net ton for Minimum Price Area Number 1 and the sum of $1.88 per net ton for Minimum Price Area Number 2, these amounts being tentatively established and determined by the Commission for such use, subject, however, to the express condition that prior to final approval, disapproval or modification of said proposed minimum prices by the Commission, there shall be substituted for such tentative weighted average costs the actual weighted average costs of the tonnage for each of the Minimum Price Areas Number 1 and Number 2 referred to respectively in this order, to be hereafter determined by the Commission in conformity with subsection (a), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, and in making such substitutions such proposed prices shall be so modified as to give full effect to the differences, if any, between the tentative and actual weighted average costs.

3. Each District Board within Minimum Price Areas Number 1 and Number 2 shall, by formal resolution, designate a representative or representatives of the Board with full authority to attend a meeting to be held as herein provided, and to act in its behalf for the purpose of coordinating such proposed minimum prices in conformity with the requirements of subsection (b) of Part II, Section 4, of the Act.

Said meeting is hereby set for 10:00 o'clock A. M., September 8, 1937, at the office of the Commission in Washington, D. C., and is to be conducted under the direction of Commission.

Coordination of such proposed minimum prices shall be completed and the proposed minimum prices, as coordinated, shall be submitted to the Commission not later than the 23rd day of September, 1937. The proposed minimum prices, as coordinated and submitted to the Commission, will be on file in the office of the Secretary of the Commission on the 24th day of September, 1937, and will be available for inspection thereafter during office hours to all interested parties until the time for the hearing hereinafter set forth.

4. A hearing shall be held by the Commission on the 27th day of September, 1937, commencing at 10:00 o'clock A. M., in the Hearing Room of the Commission at the Carlton Hotel, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Commission to establish and make effective minimum prices in accordance with the standards set forth in subsections (a) and (b), Part II, Section 4, of the Act, and to determine such limitations as may be required to be imposed upon the applicability of said prices.

The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, to the Secretaries of all Distrigt Boards in Minimum Price Areas Number 1 and Number 2, and to all code members within the districts in each of said price areas.

By order of the Commission.

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE GOVERNING THE INSPECTION AND CERTIFICATION OF LIVE POULTRY AND LIVE DOMESTIC RABBITS FOR CLASS, QUALITY, AND CONDITION

ORDER OF PROMULGATION

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by a provision of the act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture and for the Farm Credit Administration for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938," approved June 29, 1937 (50 Stat. 395), authorizing the investigation and certification of the class, quality and condition of perishable farm products, I. M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do prescribe and promulgate, in lieu of all existing rules and regulations, the following rules and regulations governing the inspection and certification of live poultry and live domestic rabbits for class, quality, and condition, to be in force and effect on and after August 20, 1937, and to continue in force and effect so long as Congress shall provide the necessary authority therefor, unless amended or superseded by rules and regulations hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, this 17th day of August, 1937.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON,

REGULATION 1—DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. Words in these regulations in the singular form shall be deemed to import the plural and vice versa, as the case may demand.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of these regulations, unless the context otherwise require, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

PARAGRAPH 1.—The following provisions of an act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938", approved June 29, 1937 (50 Stat. 395), or any future act of Congress conferring like authority: "For enabling the Secretary of Agriculture, independently and in cooperation with other branches of the Government, State agencies, purchasing and consuming organizations, boards of trade, chambers of commerce, or other associations of business men or trade organizations, and persons or corporations engaged in the production, transportation, marketing, and distribution of farm and food products, whether operating in one or more jurisdictions, to investigate and certify to shippers and other interested parties the class, quality, and condition of cotton, tobacco, fruits and vegetables, whether raw, dried or canned, poultry, butter, hay, and other perishable farm products, when offered for interstate shipment or when received at such important central markets as the Secretary of Agriculture may from time to time designate, or at points which may be conveniently reached therefrom, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, including payment of such fees as will be reasonable and as nearly as may be to cover the cost for the service rendered: Provided, that certificates issued by the authorized agents of the Department shall be received in all courts of the United States as prima facie evidence of the truth of the statements therein contained."

PAR. 2. Secretary.—Secretary or Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

PAR. 3. Bureau.—Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture.

PAR. 4. Person.—Individual, association, partnership, or corporation.

PAR. 5. Inspector.—Employee of the Department of Agriculture or other person authorized by the Secretary to investigate and certify to shippers and other interested parties the class, quality, and condition of products under the act.

PAR. 6. Products.—Live poultry and live domestic rabbits.

PAR. 7. Office of Inspection.—The office of an inspector authorized to inspect products under the act.

PAR. 8. Inspection Certificate.—Certificate of the class, quality, and condition of products issued by an inspector under the act.

PAR. 9. Interested Party.—Anyone having a financial interest in the products involved, including the shipper, the receiver, the buyer or the carrier, or any authorized person in behalf of such party.

PAR. 10. Regulations.—Rules and regulations of the Secretary governing the inspection of live poultry and live domestic rabbits under the act.

REGULATION 2—ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1. The Chief of Bureau is charged with the administration of the provisions of the act and these regulations and is authorized to issue such instructions as he may deem proper and necessary for the conduct of the service.

REGULATION 3—WHERE SERVICE IS OFFERED

SECTION 1. Inspection—Where Made.—Products may be inspected for the purpose of the act at points indicated in paragraphs 1, 2, and 3 of this section whenever an inspector is available.

PARAGRAPH 1. Shipping Points.—Inspections may be made wherever products are offered for interstate shipment, including farms, factories, warehouses, loading platforms, wagons, trucks, railway cars, boats, vessels, and other places where products are handled, kept, or stored.

PAR. 2. Designated Markets.—Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Newark, N. J., and Washington are hereby designated as important central markets at which products may be inspected under the act.

PAR. 3. Other Points.—Inspections may be made at any other points under conditions provided in regulation 4 whereever inspectors are available.

REGULATION 4—INSPECTION SERVICE

SECTION 1. Kind of Service.—Inspections may be made for class, quality, and condition.

SEC. 2. Who May Obtain Service.—Application for inspection may be made by a State, a municipal authority, or by any person having a financial interest in the products involved, including the shipper, the receiver, the buyer, or the carrier, or by any authorized person in behalf of such applicant.

SEC. 3. How Inspection May Be Obtained.—Application for inspection may be made in writing or orally, by telephone, telegraph, or otherwise. Such application may be filed in the office of inspection or with any authorized inspector. If made orally, the inspector may require that it be confirmed in writing.

SEC. 4. Form of Application.—Application for inspection shall include the following information or such part of it as the inspector may require: (a) The date of application; (b) the identification and location of the product to be inspected; (c) the name and post-office address of the applicant and of the person, if any, making the application in his behalf; (d) the interest of the applicant (except the State) therein; (e) the name, post-office address, and interest of all other known parties, except carriers, interested in the product involved; (f) the shipping point and destination of the product; (g) the purpose of the inspection; and (h) such other information as may be necessary for proper identification of the product or as may be required by the inspector or the Bureau.

SEC. 5. When Application Deemed Filed.—An application for inspection shall be deemed filed when delivered to an inspector or the office of inspection.

SEC. 6. When a Second Inspection May Be Had.—When an inspection has been made of a lot of live poultry which is found to be in an over-cropped condition, a second or new inspection of this lot shall not be made until the day following, except as may be provided by the instructions of the Chief of Bureau or as an appeal inspection may be made in accordance with the provisions of regulation 5.

SEC. 7. When Application May Be Rejected.—Any application may, for any noncompliance with the act or any regulation thereunder or when the inspection applied for would be in conflict with any instructions of the Chief of Bureau or the cooperative agreement under which the inspection would be made or any applicable ordinance or regulation of the city or municipality in which the inspection is requested, be rejected by the inspector in charge of the office of inspection in which it is filed, and such inspector shall immediately notify the applicant by telegraph or in writing of the reasons for such rejection.

SEC. 8. When Application May Be Withdrawn.—An application may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the service is performed, upon payment of any expenses incurred in connection therewith.

SEC. 9. Authority of Agent.—Proof of the authority of any person applying for inspection on behalf of another may be required in the discretion of the inspector.

SEC. 10. Accessibility of Products.—The applicant shall cause products for which inspection is requested to be made accessible for inspection and to be so placed as to disclose their class, quality and condition.

SEC. 11. Basis of Service.—Inspections for class, quality, and condition shall be based upon the official and tentative standards of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and be made under such conditions and in accordance with such methods as may be prescribed, or approved by the Chief of Bureau.

SEC. 12. Order of Inspection.—Inspection shall be made in so far as may be practicable in the order in which applications are received, except that precedence may be given to applications made by another branch of the Federal Government, or by a State, or municipality.

SEC. 13. Sanitary Condition of Equipment.—All equipment employed for the transportation, handling and feeding of live poultry, or live domestic rabbits, including cars, coops, baskets, trucks and other equipment, in which poultry or rabbits are offered for inspection, or is handled after inspection, shall be in a reasonably clean, sanitary condition, and any equipment that is not in such condition when poultry or rabbits are inspected in it shall be thoroughly and properly cleaned and, if deemed necessary, properly disinfected after the inspected poultry or rabbits have been removed therefrom, and proper evidence of such cleaning and disinfection shall be furnished the Bureau by the applicant for inspection.

SEC. 14. Financial Interest of Inspector.—No inspector shall inspect any products in which he is directly or indirectly financially interested.

SEC. 15. Investigation on Motion of Inspectors.—An inspector may of his own motion and without the use of any force, when authorized by the Bureau, investigate the class, quality and condition of any products at such points as are provided under Regulation 3, and may issue and transmit to the shipper of such products and other parties interested therein certificates or copies thereof showing the results of such investigations. Such an inspection shall not be considered a regular inspection for the certification and approval of the products for transfer into coops or for sale.

SEC. 16. Certificate—Form of.—Certificates shall be issued on forms approved by the Chief of Bureau.

SEC. 17. Certificates—Issuance.—The inspector shall sign and issue a separate certificate for each lot or lots of products inspected by him for one applicant, unless otherwise authorized.

SEC. 18. Disposition of Certificates.—The original certificates upon issuance shall be delivered or mailed to the applicant or the person designated by him. If the shipper is known and is not the applicant, one copy shall be delivered or mailed to him. Copies may be furnished to cooperating agencies. One copy shall be filed in the office of the inspector and one copy forwarded to the Bureau. Copies of certificates shall be kept on file until disposition is ordered by the Bureau. Additional copies will be furnished on request to financially interested parties as provided in Regulation 7, Sec. 1, Paragraph 7.

SEC. 19. Advance Information.—Upon request of an applicant, all or any part of the contents of the certificate may be telegraphed or telephoned to him at his expense.

REGULATION 5—APPEAL INSPECTION

SECTION 1. When Appeal May Be Taken.—An application for appeal inspection may be made whenever any financially interested party is dissatisfied with the findings stated in the original certificate; provided the application is made within one-fourth hour from the time the inspection was completed when the inspection was for condition, or on the same business day when the inspection was for class or quality and before the identity of the original lot of products inspected has been lost. Upon satisfactory showing of evidence of fraud, or that because of distance the time provided for filing an application for appeal inspection is insufficient, or other good cause, the applicant may be allowed to file such application after the time herein prescribed, except when the size of crops of poultry is in question.

SEC. 2. How to Obtain.—Appeal inspection may be obtained by the applicant or other person financially interested in the product by filing a request for such appeal inspection with the supervising inspector. The application for appeal shall state the reasons therefor, and may be accompanied by a copy of any previous inspection certificate, or any other information which the applicant shall have received regarding the product at the time of the original inspection. Such application may be made in writing, or orally, by telegraph, telephone, or otherwise. If made orally, the supervising inspector may require that it be confirmed in writing.

SEC. 3. Record of Filing Time.—A record showing the date and time of filing such application shall be immediately made by the receiver thereof.

SEC. 4. When Appeal May be Refused.—If it shall appear that the reasons stated in an application for appeal inspection are frivolous or unsubstantial, or the product cannot be made accessible for inspection, or these regulations or any instructions issued thereunder by the Chief of Bureau have not been complied with, the application may be rejected and the applicant shall be notified immediately in writing by the supervising inspector of the reason for such rejection, and a statement of such action shall be included in the record of such application by the official making the same.

SEC. 5. When Appeal May Be Withdrawn.—An application for appeal inspection may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the appeal inspection is made, upon payment of any expenses incurred in connection therewith.

SEC. 6. Order in Which Made.—Appeal inspections shall be performed as soon as possible and in the order in which applications are received. They shall take precedence over all other pending applications.

SEC. 7. Who Shall Pass Upon Appeals.—Applications for appeal inspection shall be passed upon by persons designated for the purpose by the Chief of Bureau, and such inspection shall be conducted jointly by two inspectors when practicable. No inspector shall pass upon an application for an appeal inspection involving the correctness of a certificate issued by him unless he be so authorized by the Chief of Bureau.

SEC. 8. Appeal Findings.—The inspector making an appeal inspection shall sign and issue an "appeal inspection certificate" referring specifically to all previous inspection certificates and stating the results of the last inspection. In all respects, the provisions of regulation 4 shall apply to such appeal inspection certificates, and copies of the appeal inspection certificates shall be sent to all parties to whom the last inspection certificate was furnished.

SEC. 9. Superseded Certificates.—When an inspection certificate shall have been superseded under these regulations by an appeal inspection certificate such inspection certificate shall become null and void and shall not thereafter represent the class, quality, or condition of the lot of products described therein. If the original and all copies of the superseded certificate are not delivered to the person with whom the application for appeal inspection is filed, notice of such issuance and of the cancellation of the original certificate shall be forwarded to such persons as he considers necessary to prevent fraudulent use of the canceled certificate.

REGULATION 6—LICENSED INSPECTORS

SECTION 1. Who May Be Licensed.—Persons showing proper qualifications may be licensed by the Secretary as inspectors of products which may be inspected under the act. All such licenses shall be countersigned by the specialist in charge of the division of dairy and poultry products in the bureau, or the specialist in poultry inspection in that division, or by the supervising inspector under whose direction the licensee is to make inspections.

SEC. 2. License—Suspension of.—Any license may be suspended, pending final action by the Secretary by any official by whom it may be countersigned or by the Chief of Bureau, whenever such official shall deem such action to be for the good of the service. Within seven days after such suspension the licensee may file an appeal in writing to the Secretary, supported by any argument or evidence that he may wish to offer in his behalf.

REGULATION 7—FEES AND EXPENSES

SECTION 1. Amount of, Rates, Etc.—

PARAGRAPH 1. Basis for Charges.—Fees and charges for inspection service at shipping points, designated markets, and other points, shall be based upon the actual time required to make the inspection and the time required for travel of the inspector in connection therewith between the office of inspection and the place of inspection and waiting time of the inspector if the product is not ready for inspection on arrival of the inspector, at the rate of $2 per hour for each inspector assigned or at the rates specified under Paragraph 2 of this section, unless otherwise provided by special agreement or by supplemental schedules approved by the Chief of Bureau: provided that an additional fee of $3 shall be charged when the inspection is made under conditions where the entire lot of the product is not readily accessible to the inspector; provided further that the Chief of Bureau may in lieu of the fixed charge of $2 per hour or the rates specified in Paragraph 2 of this section fix other reasonable charges for the inspection of products at rates which in his judgment will cover the cost of the service; and except that inspection for Federal Government agencies shall be at actual cost.

PAR. 2. Coop Fees.—For each lot of product inspected for condition, pursuant to these regulations, the fee shall be on the basis of the number of coops or baskets in such lot, as follows:

| For 5 standard (3' x 6') coops or less | $1.00 |
| For 6 to 10 standard (3' x 6') coops | 1.50 |
| For 11 to 20 standard (3' x 6') coops | 2.00 |
| For 21 to 40 standard (3' x 6') coops | 3.00 |
| For 41 to 60 standard (3' x 6') coops | 4.00 |
| Over 60 standard (3' x 6') coops, up to a carload | 5.00 |
| For not to exceed 5 standard (2' x 3') baskets or less | 0.25 |
| For 6 to 10 standard (2' x 3') baskets | 0.40 |
| For 11 standard (2' x 3') baskets or more, per basket | 0.04 |

Provided, that when baskets or coops are of larger size than the standard sizes specified above, an additional fee shall be charged for such larger size baskets or coops, based upon their size in relation to the standard sizes specified above.

PAR. 3. Carlot Fee.—For each carlot of product inspected for condition, pursuant to these regulations, the fee shall be $5.

PAR. 4. Under Cooperative Agreement.—Fees for inspections made under cooperative agreement shall be those provided for by such agreements.

PAR. 5. For Appeal Inspection.—Fees for appeal inspection shall be three times those for original inspections except that no fee will be charged when it is found that there was a material error in the certificate for which the appeal was taken.

PAR. 6. Other Than Regular Hours.—Fees for inspections made during hours other than the regular hours of inspection or an extension of the regular hours of inspection shall be one and one-half times those for inspections made during regular hours.

PAR. 7. Travel Expense, Etc.—Further charges may be made for actual traveling expenses and other items paid or incurred in connection with inspections or appeal inspections made at a place where inspector is not regularly stationed.

PAR. 8. For Additional Copies of Inspection Certificates.—Except as provided by Regulation 4, Section 17, a fee of $1 shall be charged for not to exceed three additional copies of a certificate furnished to any person financially interested in the product covered by the certificate.

SEC. 2. How Fee Shall Be Paid.—Fees and other charges shall be paid by the applicant in accordance with the direction on the fee bill furnished him, and in advance if required by the inspector.

SEC. 3. Disposition of Fees.—Fees covered by Section 1 of this regulation shall be disposed of as follows:

Fees and charges for inspections made by an inspector acting exclusively for the Bureau shall be remitted promptly to the Bureau. Fees and charges for inspections made by licensed inspectors acting exclusively for the Bureau, less the percentage thereof which he is allowed by the terms of his contract of employment as compensation for his services, shall be remitted to the Bureau.

Fees and charges for inspections made under cooperative agreements with a State or other organization or agency shall be disposed of in accordance with the terms of such agreement. Such portion of the fees collected under a cooperative agreement as may accrue to the United States shall, when due, be promptly remitted to the Bureau.

SECTION 1. Willful Violation, Fraud or Misrepresentation.—Any willful misrepresentation or any deceptive or fraudulent practice made or committed by any person in connection with (a) the making or filing of an application, or (b) the use of an inspection or appeal inspection certificate issued by an inspector under these regulations, or (c) the use of an official stamp, tag, seal, mark or label, or (d) any willful violation of these regulations or of the supplementary rules and instructions issued by the Chief of the Bureau, may be deemed sufficient cause for debarring the person guilty thereof from any benefits of the act.

SEC. 2. Publication.—Publications under the act and these regulations shall be made in the Service and Regulatory Announcements of the Bureau and such other mediums as the Chief of Bureau may from time to time designate for the purpose.

SEC. 3. Political Activity.—All inspectors authorized, either by appointment or license from the Secretary of Agriculture, to issue inspection certificates under the act and these regulations are forbidden, during the period of their appointment or license, to take an active part in political management or in political campaigns. Political activity in city, county, State, or national elections, whether primary or regular, or in behalf of any party or candidate, or any measure to be voted upon, is prohibited. This applies to all appointees, including temporary and cooperative employees, and employees on leave of absence with or without pay. Willful violation of this regulation will constitute grounds for dismissal in the case of appointees, and revocation of licenses in the case of licensees.

SEC. 4. Identification.—All inspectors shall have in their possession at all times Department identification cards and shall identify themselves by such cards on request.

[Service and Regulatory Announcements No. 131, Revision]

By virtue of authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the provision in an act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, and for other purposes," approved June 29, 1937 (50 Stat. 395), authorizing the establishment of an inspection service for perishable farm products, I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do prescribe and promulgate the following rules and regulations governing the inspection and certification of dressed poultry and dressed domestic rabbits for external condition and of dressed poultry and dressed domestic rabbits and edible products thereof for condition and wholesomeness to be in force and effect on and after August 20, 1937, and as long as Congress shall provide the necessary authority therefor, unless amended or superseded by rules and regulations hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority. These rules and regulations shall supersede the rules and regulations approved by the Secretary of Agriculture March 31, 1931, under Service and Regulatory Announcements No. 131.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed, in the city of Washington, this 17th day of August, 1937.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON,

SECTION 1. Words in these regulations in the singular form shall be deemed to import the plural, and vice versa, as the case may demand.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

PARAGRAPH 1. The Act.—The following provisions of an act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938", approved June 29, 1937 (50 Stat. 395), or any future act of Congress conferring like authority: "For enabling the Secretary of Agriculture, independently and in cooperation with other branches of the Government, State agencies, purchasing and consuming organizations, boards of trade, chambers of commerce, or other associations of business men or trade organizations, and persons or corporations engaged in the production, transportation, marketing, and distribution of farm and feed products, whether operating in one or more jurisdictions, to investigate and certify to shippers and other interested parties the class, quality, and condition of cotton, tobacco, fruits and vegetables, whether raw, dried or canned, poultry, butter, hay, and other perishable farm products, when offered for interstate shipment or when received at such important central markets as the Secretary of Agriculture may from time to time designate, or at points which may be conveniently reached therefrom, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, including payment of such fees as will be reasonable and as nearly as may be to cover the cost for the service rendered: Provided, That certificates issued by the authorized agents of the department shall be received in all courts of the United States as prima facie evidence of the truth of the statements therein contained."

PAR. 2. Secretary.—Secretary or Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

PAR. 3. Bureau.—Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture.

PAR. 4. Person.—Individual, association, partnership, or corporation.

PAR. 5. Inspector.—Employee of the Department of Agriculture or other person authorized by the Secretary to investigate and certify to shippers and other interested parties the external condition, and condition and wholesomeness of products under the act. Inspections for "condition and wholesomeness," involving evisceration, shall be made by an inspector who is a qualified veterinarian.

PAR. 6. Products.—Dressed poultry, dressed domestic rabbits, and carcasses, by products, and food products thereof.

PAR. 7. Dressed Poultry.—Domestic poultry slaughtered for human food with heads, feet, and viscera intact, and the feathers removed in accordance with commercial practice.

PAR. 8. Poultry Carcass.—All edible parts of dressed poultry exclusive of byproducts.

PAR. 9. Poultry Byproducts.—All edible viscera and parts of dressed poultry other than poultry meat.

PAR. 10. Poultry Food Products.—Any article of food or any articles which enter into the composition of food which are not prepared poultry carcasses or poultry byproducts but which are derived or prepared in whole or in part by a process of manufacture from any edible portion of dressed poultry, if such manufactured portion is all or a considerable and definite portion of the article.

PAR. 11. Dressed Domestic Rabbits.—Domestic rabbits slaughtered for human food with heads, feet, and viscera intact..

PAR. 12. Domestic Rabbit Carcass.—All edible parts of dressed domestic rabbits exclusive of byproducts.

PAR. 13. Domestic Rabbit Byproducts.—All edible viscera and parts of dressed domestic rabbits other than rabbit meat.

PAR. 14. Domestic Rabbit Food Products.—Any articles of food or any articles which enter into the composition of food which are not prepared domestic rabbit carcasses or domestic rabbit byproducts, but which are derived or prepared in whole or in part by a process of manufacture from any edible portion of dressed domestic rabbit, if such manufactured portion is all or a considerable and definite portion of the article.

PAR. 15. Office of Inspection.—The office of an inspector of products covered by these regulations.

PAR. 16. Inspection Certificate.—Certificate of the external condition or of the condition and wholesomeness of products issued by an inspector under the act.

PAR. 17. Regulations.—Rules and regulations of the Secretary under the act.

PAR. 18. Approved Premises.—Any plant at which inspection is carried on regularly under these regulations.

PAR. 19. "Inspected for External Condition."—That the dressed poultry and dressed domestic rabbits have been examined in an uneviscerated state to determine their condition and that only external evidences of condition have been given consideration.

PAR. 20. "Inspected for Condition and Wholesomeness."—That the dressed poultry and dressed domestic rabbits and edible products thereof have been examined to determine their soundness, wholesomeness, and freedom from disease and that the poultry and domestic rabbits have been eviscerated and both external and internal evidences of condition and wholesomeness have been given consideration, or that drawn poultry and drawn domestic rabbits and edible products thereof previously inspected and certified for condition and wholesomeness at the time of evisceration, and which have not lost their identity as inspected and certified poultry or domestic rabbits, have been examined to determine their soundness and wholesomeness.

PAR. 21. "Inspected and Certified by Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture."—That the products have been inspected for condition and wholesomeness and certified under these regulations and that at the time they were inspected and certified they were found to be sound, wholesome, and fit for human food.

PAR. 22. "Inspected and Rejected by Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture."—That the products so indicated are unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food.

PAR. 23. "Held for Further Examination by Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture."—That the products so indicated are held for further examination by an inspector to determine their disposal.

PAR. 24. Inspection Mark.—A mark or statement authorized by these regulations for use in connection with products, or on the container of such indicating that the articles have been "inspected and certified."

PAR. 25. Immediate Container.—A unit can, pot, tin, or other receptacle or covering in which any edible portion of dressed poultry or dressed domestic rabbit is customarily delivered to consumers.

PAR. 26. Shipping Container.—The box, bag, barrel, crate, or other receptacle or covering inclosing any edible portion of dressed poultry and dressed domestic rabbits, packed in two or more immediate containers.

SECTION 1. The Chief of Bureau is charged with the administration of the provisions of the act and these regulations.

REGULATION 3—WHERE SERVICE IS OFFERED

SECTION 1. Inspection—Where Made.—Products may be inspected wherever an inspector is available and facilities and conditions are satisfactory for the conduct of the work.

REGULATION 4—INSPECTION SERVICE

SECTION 1. Kind of Service.—Inspection of products may be made for external condition, and for condition and wholesomeness.

SEC. 2. Who May Obtain Service.—An application for inspection may be made by any financially interested person or his authorized agent, including federal, state, county and municipal governments and common carriers.

SEC. 3. How to Make Application.—Application for inspection may be filed in the office of inspection or with any authorized inspector at or nearest the place where the inspection is desired. If made orally, the inspector may require that the application be confirmed in writing. When the inspection involves evisceration or drawn poultry and drawn domestic rabbits and edible products thereof, application in writing must be filed with the chief of bureau.

SEC. 4. Form of Application.—Each application for inspection of products under these regulations when required to be in writing should include such information in regard to the article and to the premises where they are to be inspected as the inspector or the bureau may require.

SEC. 5. When Application May Be Rejected.—Any application may be rejected by the inspector in charge of the office of inspection in which it is filed for any noncompliance with the act or any regulation thereunder and the applicant shall be immediately notified of the reasons for such rejection.

SEC. 6. When Application May Be Withdrawn.—An application may be withdrawn at any time before the service is performed upon payment of any expense incurred in connection therewith.

SEC. 7. Authority of Agent.—Proof of the authority of any person applying for inspection on behalf of another may be required in the discretion of the inspector.

SEC. 8. Granting of Application.—Applications for inspection involving evisceration or for inspection of drawn poultry and drawn domestic rabbits and edible products thereof which have been previously inspected and certified shall be granted only when the facilities available and the methods employed are suitable and adequate, as determined by the inspector of the chief of bureau.

SEC. 9. Accessibility of Product.—The applicant shall cause the product for which inspection is requested to be made accessible for inspection and to be so placed as to disclose fully its condition.

SEC. 10. Basis of Inspection.—Inspection of products shall be made under such conditions and in accordance with such methods as may be prescribed or approved by the bureau.

SEC. 11. Financial Interest of Inspector.—No inspector shall inspect any product in which he is directly or indirectly financially interested.

SEC. 12.—Uninspected Drawn Poultry or Domestic Rabbits May not Be Handled.—When a plant has been granted service in the inspection of product for condition and wholesomeness, no uninspected poultry or domestic rabbits shall be drawn in the plant. Commercially dressed, undrawn poultry may, however, be handled in such a plant.

SEC. 13. Sanitary Requirements.—Inspection of product for condition and wholesomeness shall be made only on premises which maintain such sanitary conditions as the bureau may require.

SEC. 14. Report of Violations.—Inspectors shall report to the bureau all violations and noncompliances under these regulations of which they have knowledge.

SEC. 15. Plant Shall Report Time of Operation.—The inspector or other authorized agent of the Bureau shall be informed when work in the department of any approved premises, where products are inspected or handled, has been concluded for the day and a reasonable time in advance of the day and hour when such work will be resumed.

SEC. 16. Meat Inspection Regulations Applicable.—All provisions of the regulations of the United States Department of Agriculture governing the meat inspection of the department relating to post-mortem inspection which are applicable to poultry or to domestic rabbits shall be enforced in connection with the inspection of dressed poultry and dressed domestic rabbits and edible products thereof for condition and wholesomeness.

SEC. 17. Evisceration.—Where inspections involve evisceration, each carcass, after being thoroughly thawed, if frozen, shall be opened in such a way as to expose the organs and the body cavities in order to allow proper examination of each part by the inspector. When inspection involving evisceration and examination for soundness, wholesomeness, and freedom from disease is made, each carcass with head, feet and all viscera intact shall be examined by the inspector: Provided, however, That if the feet and shanks of poultry are not to be used in the preparation of any edible product they may be removed at or below the hock joint prior to inspection.

SEC. 18. Carcasses Held for Further Examination.—Each carcass, including all parts and organs thereof, in which any lesion or disease or other condition is found which might render the poultry or domestic rabbit meat or any organ unfit for food, and on which final decision can not be made on first examination, shall be held for further examination by the inspector. The identity of every such carcass, part, or organ thereof shall be maintained until its final examination has been completed and it is either "inspected and certified" or "inspected and rejected."

SEC. 19. Identification Labels.—Such labels, devices, and methods as may be approved by the bureau may be used for the identification of carcasses, parts, or organs held for further examination.

SEC. 20. Unsound Carcasses—Disposition.—Each carcass, including all parts and organs thereof, which is found to be unsound, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food shall be destroyed for human food and shall receive such treatment as will preclude dissemination of disease through consumption by other animals under the supervision of the inspector or other authorized agent of the bureau.

SEC. 21. Sound Carcasses—Disposition.—Carcasses and all parts and organs thereof found to be sound, healthful, wholesome, and fit for human food shall be certified as provided in these regulations.

SEC. 22. Certificate—Form of.—The inspection certificate shall be issued on forms approved by the chief of bureau. It shall show the class or classes of poultry or domestic rabbits, the quantity of each, and all pertinent information concerning the condition and wholesomeness of each separate lot examined. The certificate shall also plainly show whether (a) the inspection was for external condition without evisceration, or (b) whether it was for condition and wholesomeness and involved evisceration, or (c) whether it was for condition and wholesomeness subsequent to evisceration, and (d) such other information as may be required by the bureau.

SEC. 23. Certificates—Issuance.—The inspector shall issue a separate certificate for each lot of products inspected by him, except that certificates need not be issued covering drawn poultry or drawn domestic rabbits and edible products thereof which have been previously inspected and certified and the identity of which has not been lost, but such reports covering their inspection shall be rendered as may be required by the Bureau.

SEC. 24. Certificates—Disposition.—One original inspection certificate, and not to exceed two copies if requested, shall immediately upon issuance be delivered or mailed to the applicant or person designated by him. One copy shall be filed in the office of inspection, and one copy forwarded to the bureau. They shall be kept on file until other disposal is ordered by the Bureau.

SEC. 25. Reports of Work.—Reports of the work of inspection carried on within approved premises shall be forwarded to the bureau by the inspector on such blanks and in such manner as may be specified by the Bureau.

SEC. 26. Information To Be Furnished to Inspector.—When inspections are made within approved premises the inspectors and other authorized agents of the bureau engaged in the conduct of this work shall be furnished with accurate information as to all matters needed by them for making their reports.

SEC. 27. Marking of Containers for Export.—Each outside container of any inspected and certified products for export shall be plainly marked in such a way as to properly identify it.

SEC. 28. Export Certificates—Form of.—Export certificates may be in the form required by each particular country and approved by the chief of bureau, and shall be signed by the inspector who inspected the products or by the supervising inspector and by any authorized agent of the bureau who supervised the canning or other preparation of the inspected articles and the labeling of the containers. Export certificates shall be issued in serial numbers and in quadruplicate, with memorandum copy for filing. Each certificate shall show the names of the exporter and the consignee, the destination, the numbers of the stamps, if any, attached to the articles to be exported, the shipping marks, the kind of product, and the weight.

SEC. 29. Export Certificates—Issuance.—On application of the exporter the inspector is authorized to issue export certificates for shipments of inspected and certified products to any foreign country; provided, however, that where products have been previously inspected and certified by the bureau and properly marked as such and have later been moved to some other location than the point where they were so inspected, certified, and prepared, an export certificate covering such products may be issued on application of the person in whose possession they are at that time after suitable examination has been made by an inspector or authorized agent of the bureau who may sign such export certificate.

SEC. 30. Export Certificate—Disposition.—The original export certificate shall be delivered to the shipper and shall be used only for the purpose of effecting the transportation and delivery of the consignment. The duplicate of the export certificate shall be delivered to the shipper and by him delivered to the agent of the railroad or other carrier which transports the consignment from the United States. The triplicate of the export certificate shall be retained by the inspector issuing the same and be forwarded to the bureau for filing, and the quadruplicate filed in the office of inspection. The memorandum copy shall be delivered to the shipper for filing.

SEC. 31. Advance Information.—Upon request of an applicant, all or any part of the contents of an inspection certificate issued on a lot of products may be telephoned or telegraphed to him at his expense.

SECTION 1. When Appeal May Be Taken.—An application for appeal inspection may be made whenever any financially interested party is dissatisfied with the determination stated in the original certificate, provided the application is made within the same business day and before the identity of the original lot of products inspected has been lost.

SEC. 2. How to Obtain.—Application for appeal inspection may be made in writing, orally, by telephone, telegraph, or otherwise. If made orally the person receiving the application may require that it be confirmed in writing. Such application shall give the reasons therefor, and the inspection certificate previously issued on the lot, if a certificate has been issued, shall be returned to the person making the appeal inspection if it is in the possession of the applicant.

SEC. 3. Record of Filing Time.—A record showing the date and time of filing such application shall be made by the inspector.

SEC. 4. When Appeal May Be Refused.—If it shall appear that the reasons stated in the application for appeal inspection are frivolous or unsubstantial, or that the quality or condition of the products has undergone a material change since the original inspection or that the products can not be made accessible for thorough inspection, or that the identity has been lost, or these regulations have not been complied with, the application may be rejected.

SEC. 5. When Appeal May Be Withdrawn.—An application for appeal inspection may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the appeal inspection is made, upon payment of any expenses incurred in connection therewith.

SEC. 6. Order in Which Made.—Appeal inspections shall be performed, as far as practicable, at time requested by applicant and in the order in which applications are received. They shall take precedence over all other pending applications.

SEC. 7. Who Shall Pass Upon Appeals.—Applications for appeal inspection shall be passed upon by persons designated for the purpose by the Chief of Bureau. Appeal inspection shall be made by the inspectors especially designated therefor by the Supervising inspector and such inspection shall be conducted jointly by two inspectors when practicable. No appeal inspector shall pass upon an appeal involving the correctness of a certificate issued by him unless he is so authorized by the Chief of Bureau or by persons designated for the purpose by the Chief of Bureau.

SEC. 8. Appeal Findings.—After an appeal inspection has been made a certificate designated as "Appeal Inspection Certificate" shall be signed and issued referring specifically to the original certificate and stating the condition of the product, as shown by the appeal inspection. In all other respects the provisions of regulation 4 shall apply to such appeal inspection certificate except that if the applicant for appeal inspection be not the original applicant a copy of the appeal inspection certificate shall be mailed to the original applicant.

SEC. 9. Extension of Time.—Upon satisfactory showing of evidence of fraud, or that on account of distance the time of filing an application for appeal inspection is insufficient, or other good cause, the person to whom the application for appeal inspection is made may permit the filing of such application after the time prescribed therefor in these regulations, and a statement of such action shall be included in the record of such appeal inspection by the official making the same.

SEC. 10. Superseded Certificates.—When an inspection certificate shall have been superseded under these regulations by an appeal inspection certificate, such inspection certificate shall become null and void, and shall not thereafter represent the condition and wholesomeness of the products described therein. If the original and all copies of the superseded certificates are not delivered to the person with whom the application for appeal inspection is filed, the officer issuing the appeal inspection certificate shall forward notice of such issuance and of the cancellation of the original certificate to such persons as he considers necessary to prevent fraudulent use of the canceled certificate.

REGULATION 6—MARKING, BRANDING, AND IDENTIFYING PRODUCTS

SECTION 1. Inspection.—

PARAGRAPH 1. Inspection Mark.—The inspection mark permitted to be used on products inspected for condition and wholesomeness under these regulations shall be "inspected and certified by Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture." The bureau may approve and authorize the use of abbreviations of the inspection mark under these regulations. Such abbreviations shall have the same force and effect as the mark for which they are so authorized to be used.

PAR. 2. Affixing Inspection Mark.—No person shall affix or place or cause to be affixed or placed the inspection mark or any abbreviation, copy, or representation thereof to any products except under the supervision of an inspector or other authorized agent of the bureau.

PAR. 3. Filling of Container.—No person shall fill or cause to be filled, in whole or in part, with any products any container bearing or intended to bear the inspection mark or any abbreviation, copy, or representation thereof except under the supervision of an inspector or other authorized agent of the bureau.

PAR. 4. Affixing Inspection Mark to Container.—No person shall affix or place or cause to be affixed or placed the inspection mark or any abbreviation, copy, or representation thereof to or on a container of any products except under the supervision of an inspector or other authorized agent of the bureau.

SEC. 2. Trade Labels.—

PARAGRAPH 1. Attaching to Container.—When any inspected and certified products are placed or packed within approved premises in any can, pot, tin, or other receptacle constituting an immediate container within the meaning of these regulations which is to bear the inspection mark there shall be attached to such container a trade label, as hereinafter described, which shall be distinctive from trade labels used on the same or similar products prepared from noninspected poultry or domestic rabbits: Provided, however, That inspected and certified products may be placed or packed in immediate containers which do not and are not to bear trade labels on which the inspection mark appears, but they shall not be represented, advertised, or labeled, either directly or indirectly, as products which have been inspected and certified under these regulations.

PAR. 2. Filling of Labeled Container.—No container which bears or is to bear a trade label on which the inspection mark appears shall be filled in whole or in part with any products which have not been inspected and certified in compliance with these regulations and which are not sound, wholesome, and fit for human food and strictly in accordance with the statements on the label. No such container shall be filled in whole or in part and no trade label shall be affixed except under the supervision of an inspector or other authorized agent of the Bureau.

PAR. 3. Wording of Labels.—Trade labels approved by the bureau shall bear the true name of the article in the container and shall bear in prominent letters and figures of uniform size the phrase, "Inspected and Certified by Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture", and also the number, if any, of the approved premises within which the products were inspected when the approved trade label does not bear the name of the firm packing the product and identify the plant in which the product was packed: Provided, however, That the plant number of the approved premises may be embossed on the immediate container instead of being printed on the trade label, if the embossing is approved by the Bureau.

PAR. 4. Approval of Labels.—No trade label bearing the inspection mark shall be printed for use until printer's final proof has been approved by the Bureau.

PAR. 5. Formulae Required.—Printer's proof of all trade labels bearing the inspection mark which are submitted for approval shall, when the Bureau requires, be accompanied by a statement showing the kinds and percentages of the ingredients of the product in any container on which it is desired to use the label. Approximate percentages may be given in cases where the percentages of ingredients may vary from time to time, if the limits of variations are stated.

PAR. 6. Use of Approved Labels.—Approved trade labels shall be used only on products for which they are approved. They shall not be applied to any products the container of which bears any statement that is false or misleading.

PAR. 7. Labels in Foreign Language.—Approved trade labels to be affixed to packages of any products for foreign commerce may be printed in a foreign language. The inspection mark shall appear thereon in English, but, in addition, may appear, literally translated, in foreign languages.

SECTION 1. Who May Be Licensed.—Persons showing proper qualifications may be licensed by the Secretary as inspectors of products which may be inspected under this act, provided that only qualified veterinarians may make inspections involving evisceration of dressed poultry and dressed domestic rabbits and edible products thereof for condition and wholesomeness. All such licenses shall be countersigned by the specialist in charge of the division of dairy and poultry products in the bureau, or the specialist in poultry and domestic rabbit inspection in that division, or by the supervising inspector under whose direction the licensee is to make inspections.

SEC. 2. Suspension of License.—Any such license may be suspended, pending final action by the Secretary, by an official by whom it may be countersigned or by the chief of bureau whenever such official shall deem such action to be for the good of the service. Within seven days after such suspension the licensee may file an appeal in writing to the Secretary, supported by any argument or evidence that he may wish to offer in his behalf.

REGULATION 8—FEES AND EXPENSES

SECTION 1. Charges.—

PARAGRAPH 1. Basis for Charges.—Fees to be collected for inspection services shall be based upon the time required to render the services, including the time required for travel of inspector in connection therewith, at the rate of $2 per hour for each inspector for the time actually required, unless otherwise provided by special agreement with the applicant approved by the Bureau.

PAR. 2. Inspectors Employed or Licensed by Department of Agriculture.—Charges for services by employees of the department and by inspectors licensed by the Secretary shall be at rates established herein, or those provided in the terms of his contract of employment.

PAR. 3. Under Cooperative Agreement.—Charges for inspection under cooperative agreements shall be those provided for by such agreements.

PAR. 4. For Appeal Inspection.—Fees for appeal inspections shall be double those for original inspections, except that no fee will be charged when it is found that there was a material error in the determination based upon the original inspection, and except that appeal grading for Federal Government agencies shall be at actual cost.

PAR. 5. Traveling Expenses, Etc.—Such further charges may be made for traveling expenses and other items paid or incurred by the bureau in connection with an inspection made at a place where no inspector is located, or appeal inspection where the services of a second inspector are required, as will reimburse the bureau. These charges shall be included with the fee for inspection on the bill furnished the applicant.

PAR. 6. For Copies of Inspection Certificates.—For not to exceed three extra copies of a certificate to any person financially interested in a product involved, the fee shall be $1.

SEC. 2. How Fees Shall Be Paid.—Fees shall be paid by the applicant in accordance with the directions on the fee bill furnished him by the inspector, and in advance if required by the inspector.

SEC. 3. Disposition of Fees.—

PARAGRAPH 1. Fees for inspections made by salaried inspectors acting exclusively for the bureau shall be promptly remitted to the Bureau.

PAR. 2. Fees for inspections made by a licensed inspector acting exclusively for the Bureau, less the percentage thereof which he is allowed by the terms of his contract of employment as compensation for his services, shall be remitted to the Bureau.

PAR. 3. Fees for inspections made by an inspector acting under a cooperative agreement with a State or other organization shall be disposed of in accordance with the terms of such agreement. Such portion of the fees collected under a cooperative agreement as may be due the United States shall be remitted to the Bureau.

SECTION 1. Fraud or Misrepresentation.—Any willful misrepresentation or any deceptive or fraudulent practice made or committed by any person in connection with the making or filing of an application; the use of an inspection or appeal inspection certificate issued under these regulations; or the use of any official stamp, tag, seal, mark, or approved label, or any willful violation of these regulations or of the supplementary rules and instructions issued by the chief of bureau, may be deemed sufficient cause for debarring such persons from any benefits of the act.

SEC. 2. Publication.—Publication under the act and these regulations shall be made in Service and Regulatory Announcements of the Bureau and such other mediums as the chief of bureau may from time to time designate for the purpose.

SEC. 3. Political Activity.—All inspectors authorized, either by appointment or license from the Secretary, to issue inspection certificates under the act and these regulations are forbidden, during the period of their appointment or license, to take an active part in political management or in political campaigns. Political activity in city, county, State, or national elections, whether primary or regular, or in behalf of any party or candidate, or any measure to be voted upon, is prohibited. This applies to all appointees, including temporary and cooperative employees, and employees on leave of absence with or without pay. Willful violation of this regulation will constitute grounds for dismissal in the case of appointees, and revocation of licenses in the case of licensees.

SEC. 4. Identification.—All inspectors shall have in their possession at all times Department identification cards, and shall identify themselves by such cards on request.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

G.R.—A.A.A.—Series G, No. 1 Issued August 19, 1937.

[General Regulations, Series G]

REGULATIONS GOVERNING MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION UNDER SECTION 3 OF THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING AGREEMENT ACT OF 1937.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by Section 3 (b) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, (Public Law No. 137, 75th Congress) approved June 3, 1937, I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do make, prescribe, publish and give notice of the following regulations, to be in force and effect from the date of the approval hereof until amended or superseded by regulations hereafter made by the Secretary of Agriculture.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed, in duplicate, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 19th day of August, 1937.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

ARTICLE I. DEFINITIONS

SECTION 100.[1] As used in these regulations:

(a) The term "act" means Public Law No. 10, 73rd Congress, approved May 12, 1933, as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (Public Law No. 137, 75th Congress), approved June 3, 1937.

(b) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(c) The term "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture.

(d) The term "Dairy Section" means the Dairy Section, Division of Marketing and Marketing Agreements, Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture.

(e) The term "cooperative" means any association, incorporated or otherwise, which is in good faith owned or controlled by producers, or organizations thereof, of milk or its products, and which is bona fide engaged in the collective processing or preparing for market or handling or marketing, in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, of milk or its products.

(f) The term "arbitrator" means any officer or employee of the Department designated by the Secretary to arbitrate a bona fide dispute with reference to terms and conditions of the sale of milk or its products, between a producer cooperative and purchasers, handlers, processors, or distributors of milk or its products, pursuant to Section 3 (a) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937; and when more than one arbitrator is designated, the term "arbitrator" means the full number designated.

(g) The term "mediator" means any officer or employee of the Department designated by the Secretary to mediate a bona fide dispute with reference to terms and conditions of the sale of milk or its products, between a producer cooperative and purchasers, handlers, processors, or distributors of milk or its products, pursuant to Section 3 (a) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937.

ARTICLE II. APPLICATIONS FOR MEDIATION OR ARBITRATION

SECTION 200. Filing.—All applications for mediation or arbitration, all submissions, and all correspondence regarding mediation or arbitration shall be addressed to the Secretary, attention of the Dairy Section.

ARTICLE III. MEDIATION

SECTION 300. Application for Mediation.—An application for mediation by a cooperative shall be in writing and shall include the following information:

(a) Names in full of the parties to the dispute and their addresses;

(b) Description of the cooperative organization and business, including copies of the articles of incorporation or association, by-laws, membership contract, number of shares of outstanding stock, approximate portion owned by active producers; function performed in connection with the collective processing, preparing, handling, or marketing of milk or its products; and distribution of membership by States, distribution by States of plant facilities for collecting, processing, or disposing of milk or its products, business operations for year last past, including total quantity of milk and its products handled by the applicant and proportion of that quantity sold in States other than the States of production.

(c) Suggested time and place for meeting between parties and mediator.

SECTION 301. Inquiry by the Secretary.—Upon receipt of an application for mediation, the Secretary, through such officers or employees of the Department as he may designate, may make any inquiry which is deemed to be necessary or proper in order to determine whether a bona fide dispute exists.

SECTION 302. Notification.—The Secretary will notify the applicant as to whether he considers that mediation will effectuate the purpose of the act and as to whether he will mediate.

SECTION 303. Assignment of Mediator.—The Chief of the Dairy Section shall assign a mediator, from the group designated by the Secretary, to act in such capacity.

SECTION 304. Meetings.—All meetings held pursuant to Article III hereof shall be held with and under the direction of the mediator.

SECTION 305. Mediator's Report.—The mediator, upon the completion of mediation proceedings, shall submit to the Secretary a complete report on such proceedings.

SECTION 306. Mediation Agreement.—An agreement arrived at by mediation shall not become effective until approved by the Secretary, and the Secretary will not approve an agreement if there is evidence of fraud, if there is lack of evidence to support the agreement, or if the agreement provides for any unfair trade practices.

ARTICLE IV. ARBITRATION

SECTION 400. Application for Arbitration.—An application for arbitration by a cooperative shall be in writing and shall contain the following information:

(a) Names in full of the parties to the dispute and their addresses;

(b) The same information required under Article III, section 300 (b) hereof;

(c) Concise statement of dispute to be submitted;

(d) Originals or certified copies of all contracts, if any, involved in the dispute, and of correspondence which has passed between the parties, and of any other documents or information relied upon;

(e) Dates before which it is desired that the hearing shall be had and the award shall become effective;

(f) Suggested time and place for arbitration hearing.

The applicant shall send a copy of the application to each other party to the dispute.

SECTION 401. Inquiry by the Secretary.—Upon receipt of an application for arbitration, the Secretary, through such officers or employees of the Department as he may designate, may make any inquiry deemed to be necessary or proper to determine whether a bona fide dispute exists, assist the parties in reducing the dispute to well-defined issues, and select the arbitrator who would be satisfactory to all parties.

SECTION 402. Notification.—The Secretary, within a reasonable time after the receipt of an application, will notify the applicant as to whether he will grant the application.

SECTION 403. Submission.—A. Within a reasonable time after the receipt of the Secretary's consent to arbitrate, the parties to the dispute shall file with the Secretary a formal submission, which shall contain the following information:

(a) Names in full of the parties;

(b) Addresses of the parties to whom all notifications and communications concerning the arbitration shall be sent;

(c) Description of the organization and businesses of all parties to the dispute, including sufficient information to show that the cooperative is a bona fide one, and that the parties are engaged in interstate commerce;

(d) Concise statement of the specific questions submitted and a brief outline of the contentions of each party to the dispute concerning which facts will be presented at the hearing, and a statement as to the period during which the award shall be in effect, said period to be not less than thirty days from the effective date of the award;

(e) Name of arbitrator;

(f) Time and place of arbitration, including street address;

(g) Stipulation by the parties that they will produce any books, records and correspondence required by the arbitrator as being necessary to a fair determination of the dispute;

(h) Agreement by the parties that they will consider the award as final and will comply therewith;

(i) Stipulation by the parties that arbitration is to take place under rules and regulations issued by the Secretary, and that any such rules and regulations pertaining to mediation and arbitration shall be considered a part of the submission;

(j) Stipulation that stenographic report of the proceedings must be made.

B. The submission shall be signed by each party before a notary public, and when the signature is that of an agent of a corporation or cooperative association, the same shall be accompanied by evidence of the authority to sign.

C. A submission may be withdrawn at any time before the award, and any question held by the arbitrator to be a separable question may be withdrawn before award by agreement of all parties. When any question is so withdrawn, the parties shall file with the arbitrator the agreement on that question reached by the parties, showing all the details thereof, and the arbitrator shall include it in the record of the arbitration.

SECTION 404. Designation of Arbitrator.—The Secretary, after receiving the submission, will designate one or more persons to act as arbitrator.

SECTION 405. Hearing.—A. The arbitrator shall have full discretion to conduct the hearing in such manner as will, in his opinion, enable him to ascertain all the facts in the case.

B. Hearings shall be private.

C. Parties may appear in person or by duly accredited agents and may be represented by counsel.

D. All relevant and material evidence may be presented, and the arbitrator shall not be bound by the legal rules of evidence.

E. The arbitrator, in the presence of the parties, may require the production of books and records for examination by himself, but not for examination of confidential information by other parties to the dispute, unless the party producing the same consents to its examination by the other parties to the dispute.

F. No evidence offered by one party shall be received except in the presence of all parties unless the parties so agree in a submission specifying the nature of the evidence to be received, but final determination as to what will be considered confidential shall be made by the arbitrator.

G. The arbitrator may request the opinions of economists, marketing specialists, statisticians, lawyers, accountants, and other experts.

H. When two or more arbitrators are designated to hear a dispute, and they disagree, the award of the majority shall be the final award. If the arbitrators are evenly divided, there shall be no award.

I. A stenographic record of all the proceedings during arbitration hearing must be made.

SECTION 406. Award.—A. An award shall be made within ten days after the close of the hearing.

B. The arbitrator, in making the award, may use his own technical knowledge in addition to the evidence submitted by the parties.

C. The award shall be in writing and shall cover only points of dispute raised in the submission.

D. The award shall not contain a statement of the reason for the arbitrator's decision.

E. The award shall state the period during which it shall be in effect, said period to be not less than thirty days from the effective date thereof; and said period may be extended by agreement among the parties upon notification thereof to the Secretary, unless or until the Secretary withdraws his approval.

F. The arbitrator shall sign the award in the presence of a notary public, or, when more than one arbitrator is designated, the arbitrators shall sign in the presence of each other.

G. Copies of the award shall be delivered to the parties by the Dairy Section.

SECTION 407. Approval of Award.—The award shall not become effective until approved by the Secretary, and the Secretary will not approve an award if there is evidence of fraud, misconduct of the arbitrator, lack of evidence to support the award, or if the award provides for any unfair trade practice.

SECTION 408. Costs.—A. The parties jointly shall pay for the stenographic record, and a copy of the record shall be furnished by the parties to the arbitrator and shall be forwarded by him to the Secretary, ultimately to be filed in the Department.

B. The arbitrator shall not receive compensation from parties to the dispute.

ARTICLE V. CONSTRUCTION

SECTION 500. Nothing contained in these regulations shall be, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States to exercise any jurisdiction or power granted by the act, or otherwise.

1. The convention waters shall be divided into the following areas, all directions given being magnetic.

(a) Area 1 shall include all convention waters southeast of a line running northeast and southwest through Willapa Bay Light on Cape Shoalwater, as shown on Chart 6185, published in May, 1926, by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, which light is approximately in latitude 46°43'07" N., longitude 124°04'18" W.

(b) Area 2 shall include all convention waters off the coasts of the United States of America and of Alaska and of the Dominion of Canada between Area 1 and a line running through the most westerly point of Glacier Bay, Alaska, to Cape Spencer Light as shown on Chart 8304, published in September, 1923, by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, which light is approximately latitude 58°11'48" N., longitude 136°38'24" W., thence south one-quarter east and is exclusive of the areas closed to all halibut fishing in Section 8 of these regulations.

(d) Area 4 shall include all convention waters not included in Areas 1, 2, and 3, and those areas defined in section 8.

2. The catch of halibut to be taken during the halibut fishing season of 1937 from Area 2 shall be limited to approximately 21,700,000 pounds of salable halibut, and from Area 3 to approximately 24,300,000 pounds of salable halibut, or, if the International Fisheries Commission shall at any time so decide, the catch shall not be limited separately in Areas 2 and 3, but shall be limited to 46,000,000 pounds of salable halibut from the combined Areas 2 and 3, the weights in each or any such limit to be computed as with heads off and entrails removed. The International Fisheries Commission shall as early in the said year as is practicable determine and announce to the respective Governments the date on which it deems each such limit of catch will be attained, and the limit of each such catch shall then be that which shall be taken prior to said date, and the area or areas to which such limit applies shall at that date be closed to fishing for halibut until after the close season as defined and modified in Section 3 of these regulations provided that if it shall at any time become evident to the International Fisheries Commission that the limit will not be reached by such date it may substitute another date, and provided also that the closure of Area 2 or 3, whichever shall be later, shall apply to Area 4, and that the closure of Area 2 shall apply to Area 1, and provided further that nothing in this regulation shall prohibit the fishing for other species of fish and fishing by the International Fisheries Commission as provided for in Article I of the Treaty.

3. Under the authority of Article I of the aforesaid Convention the close season as therein defined shall be modified so as to end at 12 midnight of March 31 of each year and shall begin at 12 midnight of November 30 of each year unless an earlier date is determined upon for any area by the International Fisheries Commission under the provisions of Section 2 of these regulations as that on which it deems the limitation of catch for such area shall be attained, provided also that the International Fisheries Commission may fix any date subsequent to November 1 as the commencement of the close season regardless of the catch which it deems will be attained by such date.

4. After any date on which the International Fisheries Commission shall announce to the respective Governments that in its judgment the vessels which have departed for Area 3 prior to that date or which are known to be fishing in Area 3 shall suffice to catch the limit which is set for that area in Section 2, the departure for halibut fishing in the said area of any vessel from any port or place, or from any receiving vessel or station shall be prohibited during the remainder of the season when the said area is open to halibut fishing; provided that vessels which have departed for halibut fishing prior to said date and which shall hold a valid license as herein provided in Section 7 (a) for such fishing may again depart from any port or harbor en route to or in the vicinity of the fishing grounds when such port or harbor is uninhabited, and from any port or from any place within a port at which halibut shall not have been landed, transferred, or discharged by said vessel since the said date, when said port or place has been entered solely for shelter, repairs or supplies, and provided further that the place of departure may be designated for any port by the customs or enforcing officer in authority who may there or elsewhere at his discretion inspect the cargo of any departing vessel which he may have reason to believe has entered with halibut on board.

5. There may be retained in possession on any vessel which shall have a permit as provided in Section 6 (b) that halibut which is taken incidentally to fishing by that vessel with set lines for other species and there may be sold not to exceed one pound of halibut for each seven pounds of other species caught by set lines, not including salmon, and sold as the catch of said vessel, the weight of all such fish to be computed as provided in Section 2 for halibut. Halibut retained under such permit shall not be landed or otherwise removed from the catching vessel until it has been reported to a customs or other authorized officer of either Government nor shall any vessel receive it for transportation unless it shall be reported to the said officer prior to departure from port, and it and all fish of other species shall be removed from the catching vessel under such supervision as the said officer may deem advisable. Such halibut shall not be purchased or held in possession by any person other than the master, operator or crew of the catching vessel in excess of the proportion herein allowed until such excess whatever its origin shall have been forfeited and surrendered to the customs or other authorized officers of either Government. All purchasers shall make statistical return as to the halibut and as to the other species landed therewith within such time as the supervising officer shall require.

The International Fisheries Commission shall announce a date in each calendar year for each area after which no permit shall be granted or be valid for retention of halibut caught therein, provided that such date shall not be later than closure of the last area open to halibut fishing in convention waters.

6. (a) All vessels of any tonnage which shall fish for halibut in any manner or hold halibut in possession in any area, or which shall transport halibut otherwise than as a common carrier documented by the respective Governments for the carriage of freight, must be licensed by the International Fisheries Commission, provided that vessels of less than five net tons or vessels fishing otherwise than with set lines or bottom nets or trawls, need not be licensed during the open season prior to the date after which departure for any area shall be prohiibted under Section 4 of these regulations.

Each licensed vessel shall carry this license on board at all times while at sea whether it is validated for halibut fishing or endorsed with a permit as hereinafter provided, and this license shall at all times be subject to inspection by authorized officers of either Government or by representatives of the International Fisheries Commission.

The license shall be issued without fee by the customs officers of either Government or by representatives of the International Fisheries Commisison. Licenses issued under the Convention for the preservation of the Halibut Fishery signed May 9, 1930, shall be regarded as issued under the supplanting Convention signed January 29, 1937.

A new license may be issued by the officer accepting statistical return at any time to vessels which have furnished proof of loss of the license form previously issued, or when there shall be no further space for record thereon, providing the receipt of statistical return shall be shown on the new form for any halibut or other species taken during or after the voyage upon which loss occurred. The old license form shall be forwarded in each case to the International Fisheries Commission.

(b) Any vessel which shall be used in fishing for other species than halibut in any area closed to halibut fishing, or which shall depart for fishing in any area when departure for halibut fishing therein is prohibited, must have a permit if it shall retain, land or sell any halibut caught incidentally to such fishing or possess any halibut of any origin during such fishing, as provided in Section 5. The permit shall be shown by endorsement of the issuing officer on the face of the halibut license form held by said vessel and shall terminate at the time of first landing thereafter of fish of any species. A permit shall not be issued to any vessel which shall have halibut on board taken while licensed to fish in an open area unless such halibut shall be considered as taken under the issued permit and as thereby subject to forfeiture when landed if in excess of the amount permitted in Section 5. A permit shall not be issued to, or be valid if held by, any vessel which shall fish with other than set lines.

7. (a) The license or permit of any vessel shall not be valid unless the license is validated or the permit is granted before departure is allowed from the port of last clearance prior to each fishing operation for which statistical returns are required. This validation of a license or granting of a permit shall be by customs officers and shall not be made unless the area or areas in which the vessel will fish is entered on the license form and unless the provisions of Sections 7 (b) and 7 (c) have been complied with for all landings and all fishing operations since issue of the license or permit, provided that if the master or operator of any vessel shall fail to comply with the provisions of Sections 7 (b) and 7 (c) the license or permit of such vessel may be validated or issued by customs officers or authorized representatives of the International Fisheries Commission only upon evidence either that there has been a judicial determination of the offense or that the said master or operator is no longer responsible for, nor sharing in, the operations of said vessel.

The license shall not be valid for halibut fishing in any area closed to halibut fishing, nor shall it be valid for halibut fishing in any area while a permit endorsed thereon is in effect, nor shall it be validated while halibut taken under such permit is on board.

When departure for halibut fishing in Area 3 has been prohibited as provided in Section 4, the license of any vessel which shall fish for halibut or retain halibut in possession within that area shall not be valid, nor be validated, for halibut fishing after any landing, transfer, or sale of halibut by such vessel subsequent to the date of this prohibition. Such license shall not be valid, nor be validated, after any entry into a port at which there shall be customs officers or others authorized to accept statistical return or to validate licenses unless the arrival of the vessel shall have been reported to such officers prior to any lading or discharge of cargo, and unless such information shall have been provided or inspection made as they shall require and unless statistical return supported by a sworn statement shall have been made showing that said vessel discharged no halibut since departure for halibut fishing was permitted, whereupon if the provisions of these regulations have otherwise been complied with, the license may be again validated and departure permitted as provided in Section 4.

(b) Statistical return as to the amount of halibut taken during fishing operations must be made by the master or operator of any licensed vessel and as to the amount of halibut and other species by the master or operator of any vessel operating under permit as provided for in Sections 5 and 6 (b), within 48 hours of landing, sale or transfer of halibut or of first port entry thereafter, except that within any area in which the catch is not limited by these regulations the master or operator of a licensed vessel shall make statistical returns at such times as are required by the customs officers or the International Fisheries Commission, but shall at all times keep with the license form such records as are necessary to make such return. The statistical return must state the port of landing, the amount of each species taken within each area defined in these regulations, and the dates of operation in each area. The total return must include all halibut landed or transferred to other vessels and all halibut held in possession on board and must be full, true and correct in all respects herein required. A copy of such return must be forwarded to the International Fisheries Commission at such times as the latter shall require.

The master or operator and/or any person engaged on shares in the operation of any vessel licensed or holding a permit under these regulations may be required by the International Fisheries Commission or by any officer authorized to receive such return to certify to its correctness to the best of his information and belief and to support the certificate by a sworn statement. Validation of a license or issuance of a permit after such sworn return is made shall be provisional and shall not render the license or permit valid in case the return shall later be shown to be false or fraudulently made.

(c) The master or operator of any vessel holding a license or permit under these regulations shall keep an accurate log of all fishing operations including therein date, locality, amount of gear used, and the amount of halibut taken daily in each such locality. This log record shall be open to inspection of representatives of the International Fisheries Commission authorized for this purpose. The master, operator and/or any other person engaged on shares in the operation of any vessel licensed under these regulations may be required by the International Fisheries Commission or by any officer of either Government to certify to the correctness of such log record to the best of his information and belief and to support the certificate by a sworn statement.

(d) All persons, firms, or corporations that shall buy halibut or receive halibut for any purpose from fishing or transporting vessels shall keep and on request furnish to customs officers or to any enforcing officer of either Government or to the International Fisheries Commission, records of each purchase or receipt of halibut, showing date, locality, name of vessel, person, firm or corporation purchased or received from and the amount in pounds according to trade categories of the halibut and other species landed with the halibut, providing that such return must be made to customs or enforcing officers within such time as they shall require after the purchase or landing of any halibut caught or landed by a vessel operating under permit, as provided in Sections 5 and 6 (b). Such persons, firms, or corporations may be required to certify to the correctness of such records and to support the certificate by a sworn statement. The knowing possession by such persons, firms or corporations of halibut taken by an unlicensed vessel, or a vessel without permit when such license or permit is required shall be prohibited.

8. The following areas having been found to be populated by small immature halibut, are hereby closed to all halibut fishing and the possession of halibut of any origin is prohibited therein during fishing for other species:

First, that area in the waters off the coast of Alaska within the following boundary as stated in terms of the magnetic compass unless otherwise indicated; from the north extremity of Cape Ulitka, Noyes Island, approximately latitude 55°33′42″ N., longitude 133°43′39″ W., to the south extremity of Wood Island, approximately latitude 55°39′38″ N., longitude 133°42′32″ W.; thence to the east extremity of Timbered Islet, approximately latitude 55°41′42″ N., longitude 133°47′45″ W.; thence to the true west extremity of Timbered Islet, approximately latitude 55°41′41″ N., longitude 133°48′04″ W.; thence southwest three-quarters south sixteen and five-eighths miles to a point approximately latitude 55°35′00″ N., longitude 134°14′45″ W.; thence southeast by south twelve and five-eighths miles to a point approximately latitude 55°22′24″ N., longitude 134°13′05″ W.; thence northeast fourteen miles to the southern extremity of Cape Addington, Noyes Island, latitude 55°26′06″ N., longitude 133°49′14″ W.; and to the point of origin on Cape Ulitka. The boundary lines herein indicated shall be determined from Chart 8157, as published by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey at Washington, D. C., in April, 1925, except for the point of Cape Addington which shall be determined from Chart 8158, as published by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey in December, 1923, provided that the duly authorized officers of the United States of America may at any time place a plainly visible mark or marks at any point or points as nearly as practicable on the boundary line defined herein, and such mark or marks shall thereafter be considered as correctly defining said boundary.

Second, that area lying in the waters off the north coast of Graham Island, British Columbia, within the following boundary: From the northwest extremity of Wiah Point, latitude 54°06′50″ N., longitude 132°19′18″ W., true north five and one-half miles to a point approximately latitude 54°12′20″ N., longitude 132°19′18″ W.; thence true east approximately sixteen and three-tenths miles to a point which shall lie northwest (according to magnetic compass at any time), of the highest point of Tow Hill, Graham Island, latitude 54°04′24″ N., longitude 131°48′00″ W.; thence southeast to the said highest point of Tow Hill. The points on the shoreline of the above mentioned island shall be determined from Chart 3754, published at the Admiralty, London, April 11, 1911, provided that the duly authorized officers of the Dominion of Canada may at any time place a plainly visible mark or marks at any point or points as nearly as practicable on the boundary line defined herein, and such marks shall thereafter be considered as correctly defining said boundary.

9. The use of any hand gurdy or other appliance in hauling halibut gear by hand power in any dory or small boat operated from a vessel licensed under the provisions of these regulations is prohibited in Areas 1 and 2.

10. These regulations shall supersede all previous regulations adopted pursuant to the Convention between the United States of America and the Dominion of Canada for preservation of the halibut fishery of the northern Pacific Ocean and Bering Sea, signed May 9, 1930.

Regulations adopted August, 1937.

ORDER

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 4, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of August, A. D. 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS TO BE KEPT BY STEAM ROADS

The matter of accounting for taxes assessed under the provisions of the Social Security Act and the Carriers Taxing Act being under consideration:

It is ordered, That Accounting Bulletin No. 15, Interpretations of Accounting Classifications, Prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission, for Steam Roads, effective January 1, 1918, be and is hereby amended by the addition of the following:

Query:

(A) In case taxes assessed under the provisions of the Social Security Act and the Carriers Taxing Act of 1937, based on the payroll of the carriers' employees, are added to the cost of labor performed for others, what is the proper accounting,

(a) In connection with joint facility arrangements
(b) For work not involving joint facility arrangements?

(B) Shall these taxes relating to the pay of the carriers' own employees while assigned to addition and betterment work be included in the investment in road and equipment accounts?

Answer:

(b) Such amounts added by the creditor company shall be credited by it to account 143, "Miscellaneous," and shall be included by the debtor company (if a common carrier) in the accounts appropriate for the cost of the work performed.

(B) No part of these taxes assessed against the carrier shall be included in the investment in road and equipment accounts.

By the Commission, division 4.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Public Debt Service.

1937 SECOND SUPPLEMENT TO DEPARTMENT CIRCULAR NO. 300

AUGUST 18, 1937.

1. Treasury Department Circular No. 300, dated July 31, 1923, prescribing regulations with respect to United States bonds and notes, is hereby amended by striking out paragraph 78 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

78. Relief on account of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation or defacement of United States securities may be given under the authority of and subject to the conditions set forth in section 8 of the "Government Losses in Shipment Act", approved July 8, 1937 (Public 192, 75th Congress, chapter 444, 1st session), which reads as follows:

"SEC. 8. (a) Whenever it is clearly proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury—

"(1) That any interest-bearing security of the United States, identified by number and description, payable to bearer or so assigned as to become, in effect, payable to bearer, has been wholly or partly destroyed, or so mutilated or defaced as to impair its value to the owner, or has been lost or stolen under such circumstances, and such a period of time having elapsed after it has matured or has become redeemable pursuant to a call for redemption, as in the judgment of the Secretary would indicate that it has been destroyed or irretrievably lost, is not held by any person as his own property and will never become the basis of a valid claim against the United States; or

"(2) That any interest-bearing security of the United States, identified by number and description, which is not payable to bearer and which has not been so assigned as to become, in effect, payable to bearer, has been lost or stolen, so that it is not held by any person as his own property, or has been wholly or partly destroyed, or so mutilated or defaced as to impair its value to the owner; the Secretary, upon receipt and approval by him of a bond of indemnity, if and as required by subsection (b) hereof, shall, in the case of a security which has not matured or become redeemable pursuant to a call for redemption, issue a substitute marked 'duplicate' and showing the serial number of the original security; or shall, in the case of a security which has matured or become redeemable pursuant to a call for redemption, make payment thereof to the owner, with such interest only as would have been paid had the security been presented when it became due and payable: Provided, That in the case of an interim certificate relief may be given by the issue of a definitive security, whether before or after maturity, rather than by the issue of a substitute or by payment: And provided further, That no payment shall be made on account of interest coupons claimed to have been attached to such original security unless the Secretary is satisfied that such coupons have not been paid, and are in fact destroyed or can never become the basis of a valid claim against the United States.

"(b) Except as hereinafter provided, the owner of such lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated, or defaced security shall file with the Secretary of the Treasury a bond, to indemnify the United States, in such form and amount and with such surety, sureties, or security as the Secretary of the Treasury shall require: Provided, That in case of securities payable to bearer or so assigned as to become, in effect, payable to bearer, the destruction of which has not been proved, a corporate surety, qualified under the provisions of the Act of August 13, 1894, as amended (U. S. C., 1934 edition, title 6, secs. 6-13), shall be required on such bond of indemnity: And provided further, That a bond of indemnity shall not be required in any of the following classes of cases, except as hereinafter provided:

"(1) If the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation, or defacement, as the case may be, occurred without fault of the owner and while the security was in the custody or the control of the United States (not including the Postal Service when acting solely in its capacity as the public carrier of the mails), or of a person thereunto duly authorized as lawful agent of the United States, or while it was in the course of shipment effected pursuant to and in accordance with the regulations issued under the provisions of this Act;

"(2) If substantially the entire security is presented and surrendered by the owner and the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied as to the identity of the security presented and that any missing portions are not sufficient to form the basis of a valid claim against the United States;

"(3) If the lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated, or defaced security is one which by the provisions of law or by the terms of its issue is transferable only by operation of law;

"(4) If the owner is a State or political subdivision thereof, a corporation the whole of whose capital is owned by the United States, a foreign government, or a Federal Reserve bank:

"Provided, however, That in any of the foregoing classes of cases the Secretary of the Treasury may require a bond of indemnity if he deems it essential to the public interest.

"(c) The term 'interest-bearing security of the United States' or 'security', wherever used in this section, means any direct obligation of the United States issued pursuant to law for valuable consideration and which by its terms bears interest, or is issued on a discount basis, and includes (but is not limited to) bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, and Treasury bills, and interim certificates issued for any such security.

"(d) The Secretary of the Treasury shall have the power to make such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary for the administration of this section.

"(e) Sections 3702, as amended, 3703, 3704, and 3705 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (U. S. C., title 31, sec. 735, 736, 737, and 738) are hereby repealed."

2. Subject to the provisions of section 8 of the Government Losses in Shipment Act, quoted above, paragraphs 79 to 88, inclusive, of Treasury Department Circular 300, in so far as applicable, shall continue to govern the granting of relief on account of lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated or defaced securities of the United States, except that where, under the terms of said section a bond of indemnity is required, it shall be in a penal sum equal to the face amount of the lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated or defaced security, plus an amount sufficient to protect the United States from any loss on account of interest which may be payable on such lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated or defaced security.

3. Relief on account of the loss, defacement or destruction of full-paid interim certificates of the First Liberty Loan will hereafter be granted as provided in section 8 of the Government Losses in Shipment Act, quoted above, and in accordance with the applicable provisions of paragraphs 79 to 88, inclusive, of Department Circular 300, as amended. Treasury Department Circular No. 118, dated July 12, 1918, prescribing regulations concerning full-paid interim certificates, First Liberty Loan, is hereby superseded, so far as it relates to relief on account of loss, defacement or destruction of such interim certificates.

4. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, withdraw or amend any or all of the provisions of this supplementary circular.

[SEAL] WAYNE C. TAYLOR,
Acting Secretary.

1937 DEPARTMENT CIRCULAR NO. 368, FIRST AMENDMENT

AUGUST 18, 1937.

1. Treasury Department Circular No. 368, dated August 16, 1926, prescribing general regulations governing full-paid interim certificates, is hereby amended by striking out paragraph (5) thereof and substituting the following:

(5) Relief on account of lost or stolen, wholly or partly destroyed, or mutilated or defaced interim certificates will hereafter be granted as provided in section 8 of the Government Losses in Shipment Act, approved July 8, 1937 (Public 192, 75th Congress, chapter 444, First Session), and in accordance with the provisions of Department Circular 300, as amended or revised.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, withdraw or amend any or all of the provisions of this amendatory circular.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of August, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF MICHAEL J. MEEHAN

ORDER OF EXPULSION

This matter, after appropriate notice and hearing and argument by counsel, having been duly considered by the Commission, and the Commission having found that the respondent, Michael J. Meehan, has violated Section 9 (a) (1) and Section 9 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and being of the opinion that it is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors to expel the respondent from the national securities ex changes of which he is a member, all as more fully set forth in the Findings and Opinion of the Commission;

It is ordered, pursuant to Section 19 (a) (3) of said Act:

That, effective October 19, 1937, respondent, Michael J. Meehan, a member, as that term is defined in said Act, of the New York Stock Exchange, the New York Curb Exchange, and the Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, national securities exchanges, be and hereby is expelled from said exchanges;

That a copy of this Order, accompanied by the Findings and Opinion of the Commission, be served upon the respondent herein, or his counsel, and be transmitted by registered mail to the Secretary of the New York Stock Exchange, to the Secretary of the New York Curb Exchange, to the Secretary of the Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, and to the firm of M. J. Meehan & Co., New York City.

By order of the Commission.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING CLAIMS FOR REPLACEMENT OF VALUABLES, OR THE VALUE THEREOF, SHIPPED PURSUANT TO THE "GOVERNMENT LOSSES IN SHIPMENT ACT"

1937
First Supplement to Department Circular
No. 577

AUGUST 20, 1937.

To the Heads of the Executive Departments, Independent Establishments, Agencies, Wholly-owned Corporations, Officers and Employees of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks When Acting on Behalf of the United States or Agencies Thereof, and Others Concerned:

Paragraph 1 of Department Circular No. 577 (Accounts and Deposits) dated August 13, 1937, is hereby amended to read as follows:

1. General instructions.—To facilitate the reporting of loss or destruction of, or damage to valuables and submission of proofs of claim for relief, under the provisions of section 3 of the Act, in the event of loss or destruction of, or damage to valuables shipped pursuant to the regulations prescribed under section 1 of said Act, executive departments, independent establishments, agencies, wholly-owned corporations, officers, employees, Federal Reserve banks when acting on behalf of the United States or agencies thereof, and others concerned, hereinafter sometimes referred to as "Consignors," should observe strictly the following requirements, except as the Secretary of the Treasury, being satisfied that observance thereof is not necessary to carry out the purposes of the Act and of these regulations, may waive or modify any such requirement. Failure on the part of any consignor or agent or employee thereof to comply with these requirements may retard recoveries and may under the circumstances preclude reimbursement from the Fund or other relief under the Act, and render the consignor responsible for any loss occurring through such negligence.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

INITIAL ORDER RESPECTING PAYMENTS UNDER THE 1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—NORTHEAST REGION

Whereas under the provisions of the second paragraph of the Bulletin No. 101 for each of the States in the Northeast Region the rates of payments and allowances specified in such bulletins and supplements thereto and in Bulletin No. 101–A for each of the States of New Hampshire, New York, and Vermont are based upon an estimate of available funds and an estimate of approximately 85 percent participation by farmers in the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in all regions, and it is also provided in said paragraph that such rates of payments and allowances may be increased or decreased, depending upon the extent of participation, provided that in no event will such rates or allowances be decreased or increased by more than 10 percent;

Whereas under the provisions of Part III, Section 1, of said bulletins for New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, and Vermont, Part IV, Section 1, of said bulletin for Connecticut and Massachusetts, Part IV, Section 4, of said bulletin for Maine, and Part V, Section 5, of said bulletin for Pennsylvania, it is provided that in computing payments under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program there shall, under such rules as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe, be deducted from the payment to any person with respect to a farm or farms in a county all or such part, as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe, of such person's pro rata share of the estimated administrative expenses, incurred and to be incurred by the County Agricultural Conservation Association of the county in which such farm or farms are located, in cooperating in carrying out in such county the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program;

Whereas many farmers participating in the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in the Northeast Region have completed the practices in connection with which payments may be made under said program; and

Whereas at this time it is impossible to determine the full extent of participation by farmers in the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in all regions and the adjustments, if any, to be made in the rates of the payments and allowances specified in said bulletins for each State in the Northeast Region and the appropriate deductions for administrative expenses to be made under said program in that region but said bulletins provide that such participation cannot result in said rates and allowances being decreased by more than 10 percent and it has been determined that deductions for administrative expenses will not be made at a rate in excess of 10 percent of the gross payments in any county:

Now, therefore, I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, do hereby order:

(1) That pending determination by the Secretary of Agriculture of the adjustments, if any, to be made in the rates of payment and allowances specified in said bulletins for each State in the Northeast Region and determination of such deductions for administrative expenses there shall be made, as soon as practicable, with respect to each application for payment, Form NER–106 or Form NER–107, duly executed in accordance with the applicable rules and instructions an initial payment equal to 80 percent of the total payment computed in accordance with the rates and allowances, and subject to the conditions, in effect under said program as of the date hereof, and

(2) Subsequent to the date of such determinations there shall be made with respect to each application for payment, Form NER–106 or Form NER–107, duly executed in accordance with the applicable rules and instructions:

(a) To each person entitled thereto who has not previously received an initial payment pursuant to the paragraph numbered (1) above, one full and final payment; and

(b) To each person who has received an initial payment pursuant to the paragraph numbered (1) above, the balance of the payment to which he may be entitled.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of August, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—SOUTHERN REGION

BULLETIN 101—AMENDMENT 13, REVISED

CONTENTS

I. Limits deductions for failure to have minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops to the payment (other than a rice payment) which otherwise would be made with respect to the farm.
II. Method for dividing the class I payment with respect to farms where there are two or more producers.
III. Deletion of the provisions for the formulation by the Secretary of rules to govern the issuance of payments in case of death or incompetency of a producer occurring during the period of performance under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program.
IV. Division between the outgoing and incoming producers of the class I payment with respect to any soil-depleting crop which under normal conditions would be ready for harvest prior to the termination of the lease or operating agreement during 1937.
V. Conditions under which two or more tracts of land in a county operated by the same person must be covered by separate work sheets and conditions under which such land may be covered by one work sheet.
VI. Deletion from section 63, Bulletin 101, of all reference to sugarcane for sugar and section 14.
VII. Amends practice number 31, section 109, Part IX, Revised, to provide partial payment for carrying out the practice in cases where the sorghum or Sudan grass does not attain a reasonably good growth.

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—SOUTHERN REGION

BULLETIN 101—AMENDMENT 13, REVISED

Amendment 13 to Southern Region Bulletin 101 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, Southern Region Bulletin 101, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

I

Section 17, Minimum Acreage of Soil-Conserving Crops, as amended by Amendment 3, is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 17. Minimum Acreage of Soil-Conserving Crops.—If the total acreage of soil-conserving crops on cropland on any farm in 1937 does not equal or exceed the sum of—

(a) the soil-conserving base established for the farm and
(b) the sum of the acreages diverted for payment from the cotton, tobacco, peanut, and general bases, a deduction will be made from any payment (other than a rice payment) which otherwise would be made with respect to the farm in an amount obtained by multiplying $3.00 by the number of acres by which the total acreage of soil-conserving crops on cropland on the farm in 1937 is less than such sum, provided, however, that if a sugarcane base is established for the farm in 1937 the acreage on which such deduction is computed shall not exceed that acreage by which the minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops, computed pursuant to this section 17, exceeds 30 percent of the sugarcane base for the farm.

II

Subsection (h), section 18, Division of Class I Payment where Diversion was not made Ratably, is amended to read as follows:

(h) Division of Class I Payment.—On farms where there are two or more producers, that portion of the class I payment which is to be divided among producers on the crop-share basis shall be divided among the producers entitled to share in the soil-depleting crop(s) in such base in the proportion that the acreage share of each such producer bears to the total acreage on the farm devoted in 1937 to such crop(s) except that if no acreage was devoted to the crop(s) in one or more soil-depleting bases in 1937, or if the County Committee finds that diversion was not made ratably by all producers on the farm, the portion of such payment to be made to any producer with respect to each soil-depleting base shall be

(1) in the proportion that his contribution to the difference between the respective soil-depleting base and the 1937 acreage of the crop(s) in such base bears to the total difference between such base and the 1937 acreage of the crop(s) in such base; or
(2) in the proportion that his acreage share of the respective soil-depleting base bears to such base for the farm.

In cases where the farm is composed of only one producer unit and no acreage on the farm is devoted in 1937 to the crop(s) in one or more soil-depleting bases established for such farm, the contribution of each producer in accordance with the provisions of either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this subsection (h) may be determined by agreement of all producers on the farm signified in the presence of at least two members of the County Committee, provided the contribution of each interested person with respect to each soil-depleting base in connection with which a payment is made is in the same proportion that such person would have shared in that soil-depleting crop (or the proceeds thereof) under the lease or operating agreement.

In cases where the farm is composed of only one producer unit and no acreage on the farm was devoted in 1937 to the crop(s) in one or more soil-depleting bases established for such farm the contribution of each interested person with respect to any soil-depleting base in connection with which a payment is made is not in the same proportion that such person would have shared in that soil-depleting crop (or the proceeds thereof) under the lease or operating agreement, and in cases where the farm to be covered by an application for payment is composed of more than one producer unit and either no acreage on the farm was devoted in 1937 to the crop(s) in one or more soil-depleting bases established for such farm or the County Committee finds that diversion was not made ratably, the contribution of each such producer may, subject to the approval of the Administrative Officer in Charge or the Acting Administrative Officer in Charge in the State Office acting with the advice and consent of the State Committee, be determined in accordance with the provisions of either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this subsection (h) by agreement of all producers on the farm signified in the presence of at least two members of the County Committee, provided such agreement is found by the County Committee to be equitable to all concerned. In any such case there shall be submitted to the State Office, at the time of submission of the application for payment with respect to the farm, a certification signed by each producer in the presence of and approved by at least two members of the County Committee stating that the agreement has been reached voluntarily in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

In cases where the contribution of each producer is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this subsection (h) and agreement of all producers is not obtained as outlined above, the County Committee may recommend, subject to the approval of the Administrative Officer in Charge in the State Office, acting with the advice and consent of the State Committee, and the approval of the Director of the Southern Division, its determination of the contribution of each producer, such recommendation to set forth fully the facts upon which such recommendation is based.

The last sentence of subsection (i) of section 18, which reads as follows: "In case of the death or incompetency of a producer occurring during the period of performance under the 1937 program, class I and class II payments shall be made or withheld in accordance with rules to be prescribed by the Secretary", is deleted.

IV

Subsection (j), section 18, Lease or Operating Agreement Expiring During Growing Season, is amended to read as follows:

(j) Lease or Operating Agreement Expiring During 1937.—If control of a farm is lost through the expiration of a lease or operating agreement during 1937 the incoming producer shall not be shown as having an interest in the class I payment with respect to any soil-depleting crop which is harvested, or which under normal conditions would be ready for harvest, prior to the termination of the lease or operating agreement; except that if the County Committee finds that both the outgoing producer and the incoming producer have contributed to performance in 1937 with respect to the crop(s) in that soil-depleting base and such producers have agreed upon a division between them of the acreage of such crop(s) the acreage shall be divided according to their agreement (indicated by their signatures on the application for payment), or, if they are unable to agree, the County Committee shall recommend, subject to the approval of the Administrative Officer in Charge in the State, acting with the advice and consent of the State Committee, and the approval of the Director of the Southern Division, the division of such acreage between such persons on the basis found by it to be most equitable having due regard to the measure of performance contributed by each producer, and shall support its recommendation by a letter setting forth fully the facts in the case.

Subsection (c) of section 62 is amended to read as follows:

(c) If two or more tracts of land in the same county are under different ownerships, even though they are operated by the same person, each such separately owned tract shall be covered by a separate work sheet. In case an operator rents from the same person a part of a tract of land on shares and the remainder of such tract for cash, or in case a person rents a part of a tract of land to one or more tenants on shares and a part of the same tract of land to the same tenant(s) for cash, all such land may be covered by one work sheet.

VI

Section 63, Multiple Farm Holdings, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 63. Multiple Farm Holdings.—If any person making application for payment in a county has an interest as owner or operator in one or more farms in the same county which are not covered by an application for payment (other than an "Application for Payment with Respect to Rice Farms", Form SR–128) under which payment may be made, such person is required to furnish the County Committee a showing as to the acreage of soil-depleting crops grown in 1937 on each such farm. If the County Committee has reason to believe that the information with respect to any soil-depleting crop on any such farm is incorrect, it shall cause such check to be made as it deems necessary, and if it finds that an understatement of soil-depleting crops has been made it shall cause the acreage of all soil-depleting crops on all such farms to be measured.

The procedure for determining whether a deduction should be made from the payment which otherwise would be made to the producer in question because of non-performance on such farms shall be as follows:

(a) For each such farm multiply the 1937 acreage of cotton, each kind of tobacco, commercial peanuts, and crops in the general base by the respective rate per acre (determined pursuant to sections 11, 12, 13, and 15, part III) and multiply each such result by the percentage (determined pursuant to the provisions of section 18, part III) due such person. Total the results thus obtained.

(b) For each such farm multiply the cotton, each kind of tobacco, peanut, and general bases by the respective rate per acre (determined pursuant to sections 11, 12, 13, and 15, part III) and multiply each such result by the percentage (determined pursuant to the provisions of section 18, part III) due such person. Total the results thus obtained.

(c) If the total obtained under subsection (a) of this section 63 exceeds the total obtained under subsection (b) of this section 63, such excess shall be deducted first from any payment which otherwise would be made to such person with respect to farms in such county covered by an application for payment, and the remainder from any payment which otherwise would be made to such person with respect to rice in the State.

(d) The procedure outlined in this section 63 shall at the option of the Secretary be applied to all farms owned or operated by the same person in the State.

Soil-building practice number 31 appearing in section 109 of part II, revised, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

Where land is listed or furrowed (other than contour listing or furrowing, or basin listing) in connection with practice number 31, and a reasonably good growth of the sorghum or Sudan grass is not obtained because of insects, hail, drouth, or other unfavorable weather conditions, two-fifths of such acreage shall nevertheless qualify under practice number 31, thus providing a payment of twenty cents per acre for such listing or furrowing.

NOTE

The following typographical errors appear in the printed pamphlet edition of Southern Region Bulletin 101 but did not appear in the original or in the print in the Federal Register of January 5, 1937:

(1) On page 7, practice number 13, the figure "30" should read "50", the paragraph correctly reading as follows:

Practice Number, Practices and Conditions, and Rate

13. Manganese sulphate applied in 1937 on soil-conserving crops, but payment will not be made on an amount in excess of 50 pounds per acre, (per 100 pounds): 2.00.

(2) On page 20, in paragraph (1) of subsection (f) of section 62, of the words "each person" should read "such person", the paragraph correctly reading as follows:

(1) An application for payment covering two or more farms in a county which are operated by the same person may be made only with the consent (indicated by signatures on the application for payment) of all persons who, as owner, share-tenant, or share-cropper, have an interest in the crops (or the proceeds thereof) grown in 1937 on any farm covered by the application; except that the signature of any person shall not be required in order to permit a grouping of such farms if such person would not receive a payment if each such farm were covered by a separate application for payment.

REVISION OF UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR MILLED RICE

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture and for the Farm Credit Administration for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, and for other purposes" approved June 29, 1937 (Public No. 173—75th Congress) I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby fix, establish, and promulgate, in lieu of all existing standards for milled rice, the following standards of quality and condition for milled rice, which shall be in force and effect on and after September 1, 1937, and so long as Congress shall provide the necessary authority therefor, unless amended or superseded by standards hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, this 21st day of August, 1937.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON, Acting Secretary.

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR MILLED RICE[1]

For the purposes of the United States standards for milled rice:

Milled rice.—Milled rice shall be whole or broken kernels of rice of the classes specified in these standards, from which the hulls and practically all of the germs and bran layers have been removed, which may be either coated or uncoated, and which does not contain more than 10 percent of cereal grains, including paddy grains, seeds, or other foreign material, either singly or in any combination.

Grades.—Milled rice shall be graded and designated according to the respective grade requirements of the numerical grades, or named grades, and Sample grade of its appropriate class or subclass, and according to the special grades when applicable.

HONDURAS MILLED RICE (CLASS I)

This class shall include the rices known commercially as Honduras and Mortgage Lifter, which contain more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

EDITH MILLED RICE (CLASS II)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Edith, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

FORTUNA MILLED RICE (CLASS III)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Fortuna, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

CAROLINA MILLED RICE (CLASS IV)

This class shall include the rices known commercially as Carolina and Storm Proof, which contain more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

LADY WRIGHT MILLED RICE (CLASS V)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Lady Wright, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

EARLY WRIGHT MILLED RICE (CLASS VI)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Early Wright, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

REXORO MILLED RICE (CLASS VII)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Rexoro, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

[1] The specifications of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Food and Drugs Act.

DELITUS MILLED RICE (CLASS VIII)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Delitus, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

NIRA MILLED RICE (CLASS IX)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Nira, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

CLASSES I TO IX, INCLUSIVE

Grade requirements for the classes Honduras, Edith, Fortuna, Carolina, Lady Wright, Early Wright, Rexoro, Delitus, and Nira, milled rice

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Cereal grains, seeds, and heat damage (number in 500 grams) | | Red rice and damage other than heat (singly or combined) | Chalky kernels | Broken kernels | | Other rices |
| | Total | Heat damage and seeds (singly or combined) | | | Total | Through no. 6 sieve | |
| | Number | Number | Percent | Percent | Percent | Percent | Percent |
| Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) | 3 | 1 | 0.5 | 1.0 | 10 | 0.3 | 1 |

| Medium (U. S. No. 5) | 40 | 25 | 6.0 | 6.0 | 35 | 2.0 | 10 |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the classes Honduras, or Edith, or Fortuna, or Carolina, or Lady Wright, or Early Wright, or Rexoro, or Delitus, or Nira, respectively, which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in the grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

Color and general appearance.—Rice of the grade Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) shall be white or creamy and shall be well milled. Rice of the grade Fancy (U. S. No. 2) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and shall be well milled. Rice of the grade Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and shall be reasonably well milled. Rice of the grade Choice (U. S. No. 4) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and may be slightly rosy, and shall be reasonably well milled. Rice of the grade Medium (U. S. No. 5) may be of slightly damaged or red appearance.

SHOEMED MILLED RICE (CLASS X)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Shoemed, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

BLUE ROSE MILLED RICE (CLASS XI)

This class shall include the rices known commercially as Blue Rose, Greater Blue Rose, and Improved Blue Rose, which contain more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

EARLY PROLIFIC MILLED RICE (CLASS XII)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Early Prolific, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

LOUISIANA PEARL MILLED RICE (CLASS XIII)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Louisiana Pearl, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

CLASSES X TO XIII, INCLUSIVE

Grade requirements for the classes Shoemed, Blue Rose, Early Prolific, and Louisiana Pearl, milled rice

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the classes Shoemed, or Blue Rose, or Early Prolific, or Louisiana Pearl, respectively, which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in the grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

Color and general appearance.—Rice of the grade Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) shall be white or creamy and shall be well milled. Rice of the grade Fancy (U. S. No. 2) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and shall be well milled. Rice of the grade Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and shall be reasonably well milled. Rice of the grade Choice (U. S. No. 4) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and may be slightly rosy, and shall be reasonably well milled. Rice of the grade Medium (U. S. No. 5) may be of slightly damaged or red appearance.

JAPAN MILLED RICE (CLASS XIV)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Japan, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes. This class shall be divided into two subclasses designated as (a) Japan milled rice and (b) California-Japan milled rice.

Subclass (A) Japan Milled Rice

This subclass shall include all rice known commercially as Japan possessing the characteristics of rice of this class as grown east of the Rocky Mountains.

Grade requirements for the subclass (a) Japan milled rice

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|

| Medium (U. S. No. 5) | 40 | 25 | 6.0 | 10.0 | 35 | 2.0 | 10 |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the subclass Japan milled rice, which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in the grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

Color and general appearance.—Rice of the grade Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) shall be white or creamy and shall be well milled. Rice of the grade Fancy (U. S. No. 2) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and shall be well milled. Rice of the grade Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and shall be reasonably well milled. Rice of the grade Choice (U. S. No. 4) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and may be slightly rosy, and shall be reasonably well milled. Rice of the grade Medium (U. S. No. 5) may be of slightly damaged or red appearance.

Subclass (B) California-Japan Milled Rice

This subclass shall include all rice known commercially as Japan possessing the characteristics of rice of this class as grown west of the Great Plains area of the United States.

Grade requirements for the subclass (b) California-Japan milled rice

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Cereal grains, seeds, and heat damage (number in 500 grams) | | Red rice and damage other than heat (singly or combined) | Chalky kernels | Broken kernels | | Other rices |
| | Total | Heat damage | | | Total | Through no. 6 sieve | |
| | Number | Number | Percent | Percent | Percent | Percent | Percent |
| Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1)[1] | 3 | 0 | 0.2 | 2.0 | 5 | 0.3 | 0.5 |

[1] Rice of the grade Extra Fancy shall contain not more than 1 cereal grain other than paddy grains nor more than 1 mud lump, in 500 grams of rice.

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the subclass California-Japan milled rice, which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in the grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

Color and general appearance.—Rice of the grade Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) shall be white or creamy and shall be well milled. Rice of the grade Fancy (U. S. No. 2) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and shall be well milled. Rice of the grade Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and shall be reasonably well milled. Rice of the grade Choice (U. S. No. 4) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and may be slightly rosy, and shall be reasonably well milled. Rice of the grade Medium (U. S. No. 5) may be of slightly damaged or red appearance.

CALADY MILLED RICE (CLASS XV)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Calady and other rices of similar type, possessing the characteristics of rice of this class as grown west of the Great Plains area of the United States, which contains more than 25 percent of whole kernels, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

Grade requirements for the class Calady milled rice

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Cereal grains, seeds, and heat damage (number in 500 grams) | | Red rice and damage other than heat (singly or combined) | Chalky kernels | Broken kernels | | Other rices |

[1] Rice of the grade Extra Fancy shall contain not more than 1 cereal gral othern than paddy grains nor more than 1 mud lump, in 500 grams of rice.

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the class Calady milled rice which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more that 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in the grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

Color and general appearance.—Rice of the grade Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) shall be white or creamy and shall be well milled. Rice of the grade Fancy (U. S. No. 2) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and shall be well milled. Rice of the grade Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and shall be reasonably well milled. Rice of the grade Choice (U. S. No. 4) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and may be slightly rosy, and shall be reasonably well milled. Rice of the grade Medium (U. S. No. 5) may be of slightly damaged or red appearance.

SECOND HEAD MILLED RICE (CLASS XVI)

This class shall consist of milled rice which contains not more than 25 percent of whole kernels, not more than 50 percent of broken kernels which will pass readily through a 6½ sieve, and not more than 10 percent of broken kernels which will pass readily through a No. 6 sieve.

Grade requirements for the class Second Head milled rice

| Grade | Maximum limits of— | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|

| Medium (U. S. No. 5) | 110 | 100 | 10 | 20 | 10 | 50 |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the class Second Head which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

Color and general appearance.—Rice of the grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) may be of slightly damaged or rosy appearance. Rice of the grade Medium (U. S. No. 5) may be of damaged or red appearance.

SCREENINGS MILLED RICE (CLASS XVII)

This class shall consist of milled rice which contains not more than 25 percent of whole kernels, which does not meet the requirements of size separations specified for the class Second Head milled rice, and which contains not more than 15 percent of broken kernels which will pass readily through a No. 5½ sieve. This class shall be divided into two subclasses: (a) Screenings milled rice and (b) California Screenings milled rice.

Subclass (a) Screenings Milled Rice

This subclass shall include all Screenings milled rice possessing the characteristics of rice of this class as grown east of the Rocky Mountains.

Grade requirements for the subclass (a) Screenings milled rice

| Grade | Maximum limits of— | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Cereal grains and seeds (number in 500 grams) | Chalky kernels | Broken kernels— | |
| | | | Through no. 5½ sieve | Through no. 6 sieve |
| | Number | Percent | Percent | Percent |
| Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) | 20 | 5 | 4 | 20 |
| Fancy (U. S. No. 2) | 50 | 8 | 6 | 30 |
| Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) | 90 | 12 | 8 | 40 |
| Medium (U. S. No. 5) | 250 | 30 | 15 | 60 |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the subclass Screenings milled rice which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

Color and general appearance.—Rice of the grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), and Choice (U. S. No. 4) shall be white, creamy, or grayish. Rice of the grade Medium (U. S. No. 5) may be slightly damaged or slightly rosy.

Subclass (b) California Screenings Milled Rice

This subclass shall include all Screenings milled rice possessing the characteristics of rice of this class as grown west of the Great Plains area of the United States.

Grade requirements for the subclass (b) California Screenings milled rice

| Grade | Maximum limits of— | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | | Through no. 5½ sieve | Through no. 6 sieve |
| | Number | Percent | Percent | Percent |
| Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) | 30 | 5 | 4 | 20 |
| Fancy (U. S. No. 2) | 75 | 8 | 6 | 30 |
| Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) | 125 | 12 | 8 | 40 |
| Medium (U. S. No. 5) | 250 | 20 | 10 | 50 |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the subclass California Screenings milled rice which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

Color and general appearance.—Rice of the grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) and Fancy (U. S. No. 2) shall be white, creamy, or grayish. Rice of the grade Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) shall be white, creamy, or grayish, and may be slightly rosy. Rice of the grade Choice (U. S. No. 4) may be of slightly damaged or rosy appearance. Rice of the grade Medium (U. S. No. 5) may be of damaged or red appearance.

NOTE.—The grade term "Medium" (U. S. No. 5) for the subclass Screenings milled rice corresponds to the grade term "F. A. Q. Screenings," heretofore commonly used commercially.

Subclass (b) California Screenings Milled Rice

This subclass shall include all Screenings milled rice possessing the characteristics of rice of this class as grown west of the Great Plains area of the United States.

Grade requirements for the subclass (b) California Screenings milled rice

| Grade | Maximum limits of— | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | | Through no. 5½ sieve | Through no. 6 sieve |
| | Number | Percent | Percent | Percent |
| Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) | 30 | 5 | 4 | 20 |
| Fancy (U. S. No. 2) | 75 | 8 | 6 | 30 |
| Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) | 125 | 12 | 8 | 40 |
| Medium (U. S. No. 5) | 250 | 20 | 10 | 50 |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the subclass California Screenings milled rice which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

Color and general appearance.—Rice of the grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), and Choice (U. S. No. 4) shall be white, creamy, or grayish. Rice of the grade Medium (U. S. No. 5) may be slightly damaged or slightly rosy.

BREWERS MILLED RICE (CLASS XVIII)

This class shall consist of milled rice which contains not more than 25 percent of whole kernels and contains more than 15 percent of broken kernels which will pass readily through a No. 5½ sieve. This class shall be divided into two subclasses: (a) Brewers milled rice and (b) California Brewers milled rice.

Subclass (a) Brewers Milled Rice

This subclass shall include all Brewers milled rice possessing the characteristics of rice of this class as grown east of the Rocky Mountains.

Grade requirements for the subclass (a) Brewers milled rice

| Grade | Cereal grains and seeds (maximum limits) | | Color and general appearance |
|---|---|---|---|
| | Number in 500 grams | Percentage | |
| Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) | 60 | ..... | White, creamy, or grayish. |
| Fancy (U. S. No. 2) | ..... | 0.1 | Do. |
| Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) | ..... | .2 | White, creamy, or grayish, and may be slightly rosy. |
| Choice (U. S. No. 4) | ..... | .4 | May be of slightly damaged or rosy appearance. |
| Medium (U. S. No. 5) | ..... | 1.5 | May be of damaged or red appearance. |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the subclass Brewers milled rice which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

NOTE.—The grade term Medium (U. S. No. 5), for the subclass Brewers milled rice corresponds to the grade term "Standard Milled-Run Brewers" heretofore commonly used commercially.

Subclass (b) California Brewers Milled Rice

This subclass shall include all Brewers milled rice possessing the characteristics of rice of this class as grown west of the Great Plains area of the United States.

Grade requirements for the subclass (b) California Brewers milled rice

| Grade | Cereal grains and seeds (maximum limits) | Color and general appearance |
|---|---|---|
| | Percent | |
| Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) | 0.5 | White, creamy, or grayish. |
| Fancy (U. S. No. 2) | 1.0 | Do. |
| Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3) | 1.5 | Do. |
| Choice (U. S. No. 4) | 3.0 | May be slightly damaged or slightly rosy. |
| Medium (U. S. No. 5) | 5.0 | May be damaged or rosy. |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include milled rice of the subclass California Brewers milled rice which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1) to Medium (U. S. No. 5), inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or extremely red appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material.

The percentage of moisture in grades Extra Fancy (U. S. No. 1), Fancy (U. S. No. 2), Extra Choice (U. S. No. 3), Choice (U. S. No. 4), and Medium (U. S. No. 5) shall not exceed 14.5.

MIXED MILLED RICE (CLASS XIX)

This class shall include all mixtures of milled rice of the classes I to XV, inclusive, which do not meet the requirements of any one of such classes.

Grade requirements and designations.—Mixed Milled Rice shall be graded according to the grade requirements of the class or subclass of milled rice which predominates in the mixture, except that the grade specifications for the factor "other rices" shall be disregarded.

The grade designation for Mixed Milled Rice shall include, successively, in the order named, (1) the name of the grade, or the number thereof, (2) the words "Mixed Milled Rice", and (3) the name and approximate percentage of each class or subclass of milled rice which constitutes 10 percent or more of the mixture in the order of its predominance; but if only one class or subclass exceeds 10 percent of the mixture, the name and approximate percentage of that class or subclass shall be added to the grade designation, followed by the name and approximate percentage of at least one other class or subclass.

SPECIAL GRADES FOR MILLED RICE

Coated Milled Rice

Definition.—Coated milled rice shall be milled rice of any class which has been coated with glucose and talc or any other substance.

Grades.—Coated milled rice shall be graded and designated according to the grade requirements of the grades applicable to such rice if it were not coated, and there shall be added to, and made a part of, the grade designation, the word "Coated."

Weevily Milled Rice

Definition.—Weevily milled rice shall be milled rice of any class which is infested with live weevils or other insects injurious to stored rice.

Grades.—Weevily milled rice shall be graded and designated according to the grade requirements of the standards applicable to such rice if it were not weevily, and there shall be added to, and made a part of, the grade designation, the word "Weevily."

DEFINITIONS

Basis of grade determinations.—All determinations shall be upon the basis of the rice as a whole.

Percentages.—Percentages, except in the case of moisture, shall be percentages ascertained by weight.

Percentage of moisture.—Percentage of moisture shall be that ascertained by the air oven and the method of use thereof described in Service and Regulatory Announcements No. 147 of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, or ascertained by any device and method which give equivalent results in the determination of moisture.

No. 5½ sieve.—A metal sieve perforated with round holes 5-1/2/64 inch in diameter.

No. 6 sieve.—A metal sieve perforated with round holes 6/64 inch in diameter.

No. 6½ sieve.—A metal sieve perforated with round holes 6-1/2/64 inch in diameter.

Damaged kernels.—Damaged kernels shall be kernels and pieces of kernels of milled rice which have been distinctly damaged by water, insects, or by any other means. Sound double and sound broken kernels shall not be considered damaged kernels.

Heat-damaged kernels.—Heat-damaged kernels shall be kernels and pieces of kernels of milled rice which have been distinctly discolored by external heat or as a result of heating caused by fermentation.

Foreign material.—Foreign material shall include all matter other than rice except seeds and cereal grains.

Cereal grains.—Cereal grains shall include paddy grains (rough rice), barley, wheat, rye, emmer, spelt, einkorn, corn, grain sorghums, and oats, and shall not include buckwheat, flaxseed, and wild oats.

Seeds.—Seeds shall be grains, kernels, or seeds, either whole or broken, of any plant other than rice or other cereal grains.

Red rice.—Red rice shall be kernels or pieces of kernels of milled rice which are distinctly red in color or have any appreciable amount of red bran thereon.

Broken kernels.—Broken kernels shall be split kernels and pieces of kernels of milled rice which are less than three-fourths of the length of the perfect kernel.

Chalky kernels.—A chalky kernel shall be a kernel or a piece of a kernel of milled rice one-half or more of which is chalky.

REVISION OF UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR BROWN RICE

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture and for the Farm Credit Administration for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, and for other purposes" approved June 29, 1937 (Public No. 173—75th Congress) I, M. L. Wilson, acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby fix, establish, and promulgate, in lieu of all existing standards for brown rice, the following standards of quality and condition for brown rice, which shall be in force and effect on and after September 1, 1937, and so long as Congress shall provide the necessary authority therefor, unless amended or superseded by standards hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, this 21st day of August, 1937.

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR BROWN RICE[1]

For the purposes of the United States standards for brown rice:

Brown rice.—Brown rice shall be whole or broken kernels of rice of the classes specified in these standards, from which the hulls only have been removed from not less than 90 percent of the kernels, and which does not contains more than 10 percent of cereal grains of a kind or kinds other than rice, seeds, or other foreign material, either singly or in any combination.

Grades.—Brown rice shall be graded and designated according to the respective grade requirements of the numerical grades, or named grades, and Sample grades of its appropriate class or subclass, and according to the special grades when applicable.

HONDURAS BROWN RICE (CLASS I)

This class shall include the rices known conimercially as Honduras and Mortgage Lifter, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

EDITH BROWN RICE (CLASS II)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Edith, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

FORTUNA BROWN RICE (CLASS III)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Fortuna, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

CAROLINA BROWN RICE (CLASS IV)

This class shall include the rices known commercially as Carolina and Storm Proof, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

LADY WRIGHT BROWN RICE (CLASS V)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Lady Wright, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

EARLY WRIGHT BROWN RICE (CLASS VI)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Early Wright, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

REXORO BROWN RICE (CLASS VII)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Rexoro, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

DELITUS BROWN RICE (CLASS IX)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Delitus, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

NIRA BROWN RICE (CLASS IX)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Nira, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

CLASSES I TO IX, INCLUSIVE

Grade requirements for the classes Honduras, Edith, Fortuna, Carolina, Lady Wright, Early Wright, Rexoro, Delitus, and Nira, brown rice

| United States grade | Maximum limits of— | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Cereal grains | Seeds | Heat-damaged kernels | Mud lumps | | | | | Total | Through no. 6½ sieve | Other rices |
| | No. | No. | No. | No. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. |
| Extra Fancy | 0 | 2 | 0 | 1 | 0.2 | 0.5 | 1 | 1.5 | 10 | 1 | 1 |
| Fancy | 1 | 5 | 1 | 2 | .4 | 1.0 | 3 | 2.5 | 15 | 2 | 2 |
| Choice | 5 | 10 | 5 | 5 | 1.0 | 3.0 | 5 | 5.0 | 20 | 3 | 4 |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include brown rice of the classes Honduras, or Edith, or Fortuna, or Carolina, or Lady Wright, or Early Wright, or Rexoro, or Delitus, or Nira, respectively, which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Extra Fancy to Choice, inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or badly stained appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material; or contains more than 14.5 percent of moisture.

[1] The specifications of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Food and Drugs Act.

SHOEMED BROWN RICE (CLASS X)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Shoemed, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

BLUE ROSE BROWN RICE (CLASS XI)

This class shall include the rices known commercially as Blue Rose, Greater Blue Rose, and Improved Blue Rose, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

EARLY PROLIFIC BROWN RICE (CLASS XII)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Early Prolific, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

LOUISIANA PEARL BROWN RICE (CLASS XIII)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Louisiana Pearl, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

JAPAN BROWN RICE (CLASS XIV)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Japan, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes. This class shall be divided into two subclasses, as follows: (a) Japan brown rice and (b) California-Japan brown rice.

Subclass (a) Japan Brown Rice

This subclass shall include all rices known commercially as Japan possessing the characteristics of rice of this class as grown east of the Rocky Mountains.

CLASSES X TO XIII, INCLUSIVE, AND SUBCLASS (A) OF CLASS XIV

Grade requirements for the classes Shoemed, Blue Rose, Early Prolific, and Louisiana Pearl, and for the subclass (a) Japan, brown rice

| United States grade | Maximum limits of— | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Cereal grains | Seeds | Heat-damaged kernels | Mud lumps | | | | | Total | Through no. 6½ sieve | Other rices |
| | No. | No. | No. | No. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. |
| Extra Fancy | 0 | 2 | 0 | 1 | 0.2 | 0.5 | 1 | 1.5 | 5 | 1 | 1 |
| Fancy | 1 | 5 | 1 | 2 | .4 | 1.0 | 3 | 2.5 | 10 | 2 | 2 |
| Choice | 5 | 10 | 5 | 5 | 1.0 | 3.0 | 5 | 5.0 | 15 | 3 | 4 |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include brown rice of the classes Shoemed, or Blue Rose or Early Prolific, or Louisiana Pearl, or of the subclass Japan, respectively, which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades fro n Extra Fancy to Choice, inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or badly stained appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material; or contains more than 14.5 percent of moisture.

Subclass (b) California-Japan Brown Rice

This subclass shall include all rice known commercially as Japan possessing the characteristics of rice of this class as grown west of the Great Plains area of the United States.

CALADY BROWN RICE (CLASS XV)

This class shall include the rice known commercially as Calady and other rices of similar type, possession the characteristics of rice of this class as grown west of the Great Plains area of the United States, and may include not more than 10 percent of whole kernels of rice of any other class or classes.

Grade requirements for the subclass (b) California-Japan and for the class Calady, brown rice

| United States grade | Maximum limits of— | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Cereal grains | Seeds | Heat-damaged kernels | Mud lumps | | | | | Total | Through no. 6½ sieve | Other rices |
| | No. | No. | No. | No. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. | Pct. |
| Fancy | 1 | 25 | 1 | 1 | 0.2 | 0.2 | 0.3 | 3 | 10 | 1 | 0.5 |
| 1 | 3 | 50 | 3 | 3 | .2 | .4 | .7 | 6 | 10 | 2 | 1.0 |
| 2 | 5 | 75 | 5 | 5 | .4 | .7 | 1.5 | 10 | 15 | 3 | 2.0 |

Sample grade.—Sample grade shall include brown rice of the subclass California Japan or of the class Calady, respectively, which does not come within the requirements of any of the grades from Fancy to No. 2, inclusive; or which has any commercially objectionable foreign odor; or is musty, or sour, or is heating, or hot; or is of a badly damaged or badly stained appearance; or is otherwise of distinctly low quality; or contains more than 0.1 percent of foreign material; or contains more than 15 percent of moisture.

MIXED BROWN RICE (CLASS XVI)

This class shall include all mixtures of brown rice not provided for in the classes from I to XV, inclusive.

Grade requirements and designations.—Mixed Brown Rice shall be graded according to the grade requirements of the class or subclass of brown rice which predominates in the mixture, except that the grade specifications for the factor "other rices" shall be disregarded.

The grade designations for Mixed Brown Rice shall include, successively, in the order named, (1) the name of the grade, or the number thereof, (2) the words "Mixed Brown Rice," and (3) the name and approximate percentage of each class or subclass of brown rice which constitutes 10 percent or more of the mixture in the order of its predominance; but if only one class or subclass exceeds 10 percent of the mixture, the name and approximate percentage of that class or subclass shall be added to the grade designation, followed by the name and approximate percentage of at least one other class or subclass.

SPECIAL GRADES FOR BROWN RICE

Weevily Brown Rice

Definition.—Weevily brown rice shall be brown rice of any class which is infested with live weevils or other insects injurious to stored rice.

Grades.—Weevily brown rice shall be graded and designated according to the grade requirements of the standards applicable to such rice if it were not weevily, and there shall be added to, and made a part of, the grade designation, the word "Weevily."

DEFINITIONS

Basis of grade determinations.—All determinations shall be upon the basis of the rice as a whole.

Percentages.—Percentages, except in the case of moisture, shall be percentages ascertained by weight.

Percentage of moisture.—Percentage of moisture shall be that ascertained by the air oven and the method of use thereof described in Service and Regulatory Announcements No. 147 of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, or ascertained by any device and method which give equivalent results in the determination of moisture.

No. 6½ sieve.—A metal sieve perforated with round holes 6½/64 inch in diameter.

Damaged kernels.—Damaged kernels shall be kernels and pieces of kernels of brown rice which have been distinctly damaged by water, insects, or by any other means. Sound double and sound broken kernels shall not be considered damaged kernels.

Heat-damaged kernels.—Heat-damaged kernels shall be kernels and pieces of kernels of brown rice which have been distinctly discolored by external heat or as a result of heating caused by fermentation.

Cereal grains.—Cereal grains shall include barley, wheat, rye, emmer, spelt, einkorn, corn, grain sorghums, and oats, and shall not include buckwheat, flaxseed, and wild oats.

Seeds.—Seeds shall be grains, kernels, or seeds, either whole or broken, of any plant other than rice or other cereal grains.

Red rice.—Red rice shall be kernels or pieces of kernels of brown rice which are distinctly red in color or on which the bran is red.

Broken kernels.—Broken kernels shall be split kernels and pieces of kernels of brown rice which are less than three-fourths of the length of the perfect kernel.

Chalky kernels.—A chalky kernel shall be a kernel or a piece of a kernel of brown rice one-half or more of which is chalky.

Mud lumps.—Mud lumps shall be lumps of dried mud which will not pass through a No. 6½ sieve. Mud lumps which will pass through a No. 6½ sieve shall function in grading only as foreign material.

Paddy grains.—Paddy grains shall be kernels of rice from which the hulls have not been removed.

Foreign material.—Foreign material shall include all matter other than rice except mud lumps which will not pass through a No. 6½ sieve, and cereal grains, and seeds.

AMENDMENT TO THE REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE INSPECTION AND CERTIFICATION OF RICE WITH RESPECT TO EQUAL-TO-TYPE CERTIFICATES

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the act of Congress entitled, "An Act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture and for the Farm Credit Administration for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, and for other purposes," approved June 29, 1937 (Public No. 173—75th Congress), I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby make, prescribe, publish and give public notice of the following amendment to the regulations governing the inspection and certification of rice, as heretofore promulgated, to become effective August 21, 1937, and to continue in force and effect so long as Congress shall provide the necessary authority therefor, unless amended or superseded by regulations hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority.

Strike out Section 19 of Regulation 3, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 19. Equal-to-type certificate.—Upon application of an interested party and upon compliance with the provisions of this regulation, a rice inspection certificate may be issued by an inspector to state that the quality of a lot or a sample of rice is "equal to or better than" the quality of a type which has previously been placed on file and definitely identified in the office of the inspector, provided such inspection and certification meet the conditions set forth in either subsections A (1, 2, 3 and 4), B, or C of this section.

A-1. The lot or sample to be certificated shall be equal to, or better than, the quality of the type according to all class, quality, and condition factors of the official rice standards of the United States, with the exception of moisture.

A-2. At the time of filing the type with the inspector, the depositor shall specify and file in writing with the inspector a statement of the maximum moisture content of any rice which he proposes to have inspected or to deliver against such type.

A-3. When the statement of moisture content filed by the depositor with the type specifies a maximum moisture content of 14.5 percent or less and when the lot or sample to be delivered or inspected against the type contains no more moisture than the maximum percentage so specified, the factor of moisture may be disregarded in making the certification.

A-4. When the statement of moisture content filed by the depositor with the type specifies a maximum moisture content in excess of 14.5 percent and when the lot or sample to be delivered or inspected against the type contains no more moisture than the maximum percentage so specified, the certificate shall clearly state the maximum percentage of moisture specified by the depositor also the actual moisture content of the lot or sample covered by the certificate.

B. An equal-to-type certificate also may be issued to show that rice is "equal to or better than" a properly identified type according to one or more of the class, quality, and condition factors of the official rice standards of the United States or according to other authorized quality tests, provided the certificate clearly states the factors or tests used in making the inspection.

C. An equal-to-type certificate also may be issued to show that rice is "equal to or better than" a properly identified type according to all of the class, quality, and condition factors of the official rice standards of the United States except for one or more such factors, provided the certificate clearly states the factors excepted in making the inspection.

All certificates issued under the provisions of this section shall clearly state the identity of the type.

In case any inspector finds that a lot or sample of rice offered for inspection under this section fails to meet the above requirements, the certificate issued pursuant to such inspection shall state that the rice is "not equal to type."

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed, in the city of Washington, this 20th day of August, 1937.

[Docket No. ID-485]

APPLICATION OF RALPH D. JENNISON

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY PRIOR AUTHORIZATION SHOULD NOT BE TERMINATED AND SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATION DENIED

Upon application of Ralph D. Jennison, 150 Broadway, New York City, filed on October 25, 1935, and supplemental applications filed on February 21, 1936 and July 14, 1936, for authority to hold certain interlocking positions within the purview of Section 305 (b) of the Federal Power Act, the Commission finds

(1) That on February 18, 1936, the Commission authorized the applicant to hold certain positions within the purview of said section, to wit:

President and Director of NY PA NJ Utilities Company,
President and Director of New Jersey Power & Light Company,
President and Director of Northern Pennsylvania Power Company,
President and Director of Pennsylvania Electric Company,
President and Director of Erie Lighting Company, Director of Staten Island Edison Corporation, by general order specifically reserving to the Commission the right to require the applicant to make further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected thereby, and to make any other further order or orders on said application as the Commission may deem proper;

(2) That by supplemental applications, the applicant has requested authorization to hold the further positions of Director of Penn Central Light & Power Company and Director of Virginia Public Service Company; upon which supplemental applications the Commission has not yet acted by reason of the applicant's failure to furnish certain information required by the rules of the Commission;

(3) That applicant also holds numerous other official positions with electric holding, management, and operating companies, some of which positions appear to be within the purview of said Section 305 (b);

(4) That a public hearing with respect to the propriety of the applicant's continuance in the several positions within the purview of Section 305 (b) is in the public interest.

It is therefore ordered: That a hearing be held in the Commission's hearing room, at 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C., at 10 o'clock a. m., on the 20th of September, 1937, and that at such hearing the said Ralph D. Jennison show cause why the Commission's order of February 18, 1936 authorizing him to hold the aforesaid positions should not be terminated and his supplemental applications denied.

Adopted by the Commission on August 14, 1937.

APPLICATION OF THOMAS W. MOFFAT

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY APPLICATION TO HOLD CERTAIN INTERLOCKING POSITIONS SHOULD NOT BE DENIED

Upon application of Thomas W. Moffat, 150 Broadway, New York City, filed on August 12, 1936, pursuant to Section 305 (b) of the Federal Power Act for authorization to hold the following positions:

Director of Eastern Shore Public Service Company (Del.),
Director of Florida Power Corporation,
Director of Georgia Power & Light Company,
Director of Tide Water Power Company, Director of Virginia Public Service Company

the Commission finds:

(1) That the applicant has failed to furnish certain information required by the rules of the Commission;

(2) That the applicant holds numerous other corporate positions, some of which also appear to require the authorization of this Commission under said Section 305 (b);

(3) That a public hearing with respect to the propriety of the applicant's holding the multiple positions disclosed by the record appears to be in the public interest;

It is therefore ordered: That a hearing be held in the Commission's hearing room, at 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C., at 10 o'clock a. m., on the 20th day of September, 1937 and that at such hearing the said Thomas W. Moffat show cause why his said application should not be denied.

Adopted by the Commission on August 14, 1937.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

INTERCHANGE OF LAND BETWEEN THE ARMY AND THE NAVY AT BOLLING FIELD, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

WHEREAS by Executive Order No. 7215, dated October 26, 1935, that part of a tract of reclaimed land located at Anacostia, District of Columbia, more particularly described in the act of June 5, 1920, 41 Stat. 948, 954, as Bolling Field, Sections A and B, was transferred from the control and jurisdiction of the War Department to the control and jurisdiction of the Navy Department, with the provision that the metes and bounds thereof should be determined and be acceptable to the Army and the Navy; and

WHEREAS the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy have determined and agreed upon the boundary of the area so transferred to the control and jurisdiction of the Navy Department, and have also agreed that a small portion of new Bolling Field which lies outside of the boundary of Sections A and B, above referred to, should be transferred from the control and jurisdiction of the War Department to the control and jurisdiction of the Navy Department:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the act of July 11, 1919, 41 Stat. 131, 132, and otherwise, and in the interest of the national defense, it is hereby ordered (1) that the above-mentioned portion of new Bolling Field be, and it is hereby, transferred from the control and jurisdiction of the War Department to the control and jurisdiction of the Navy Department, and (2) that the description of such land and the above-mentioned land at Bolling Field, in the District of Columbia, transferred to the control and jurisdiction of the Navy Department by the said Executive Order No. 7215 shall be as follows:

ARTICLE 1. Customs collection districts and ports.—(a) There are 48 customs collection districts of the United States, which include 1 in Alaska, 1 in Hawaii, and 1 in Puerto Rico.

(b) The term "United States" includes all Territories and possessions of the United States, except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, and the island of Guam.

(c) The President is authorized from time to time, as the exigencies of the service require, to rearrange by consolidation or otherwise the several customs collection districts, and to discontinue ports of entry by abolishing the same or establishing others in their stead, provided that the whole number of customs collection districts or ports of entry, or either of them, shall at no time be made to exceed those established and authorized on August 1, 1914, except as may hereafter be provided by law.

ART. 2. Port of entry—Definition.—The term "port of entry", as used in these regulations, refers to any place designated by Executive order of the President or by act of Congress, at which a customs officer is assigned with authority to enter and clear vessels, to accept entries of merchandise, to collect duties, and to enforce the various provisions of the customs and navigation laws.

ART. 3. Alphabetical list of customs districts.—The following is an alphabetical list of customs collection districts with their numbers. ### DOCUMENTATION AND CLASSIFICATION

ART. 13. General definitions.—(a) The word "vessel", within the meaning of the Tariff Act of 1930, includes every description of water craft or other contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation in water, but does not include aircraft.

(b) The word "vessel", within the meaning of the navigation laws, includes every description of watercraft or other artificial contrivance used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water, but does not include seaplanes or other aircraft.

(c) The term "marine document" includes registry and enrollment and license.

(d) The term "documented" means registered or enrolled or licensed under the laws of the United States, whether permanently or temporarily.

(e) The term "port of documentation" means the home port of a vessel. It does not include a port in which a temporary document is issued.

(f) The term "vessel of the United States" means any vessel documented under the laws of the United States.

(g) The term "load line" means a line or mark to indicate the maximum depth to which a vessel may be loaded safely.

(h) The term "mortgagee", in the case of a mortgage involving a trust deed and a bond issue thereunder, means the trustee designated in such deed.

(i) The term "marine waters of the United States" embraces all waters navigable to or from the ocean.

ART. 14. Vessels entitled to documents.—(a) Vessels of 20 net tons and upward may be registered or enrolled and licensed. Vessels of 5 net tons and less than 20 net tons may be licensed (except on the Great Lakes) or registered.

(b) Any vessel of the United States navigating the waters of the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers, otherwise than by sea, shall be enrolled and licensed. (Commerce Form 1273.) (See art. 70.)

(c) The following classes of vessels are entitled to receive documents under existing laws:

Class 1.—Those built in the United States, wholly owned by citizens or by an incorporated company of the United States.

An American-owned and American-built vessel, which by sale has become the property of a foreigner, will be entitled to a new marine document upon afterward becoming American property.

Class 2.—Those purchased from the Maritime Commission by persons who are citizens of the United States. (See art. 72.)

Class 3.—Those built in the United States, in whole or in part under foreign ownership and recorded, on becoming wholly owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, and never before documented. (See art. 76.)

Class 4.—Those captured in a war to which the United States is a party, by a citizen or citizens thereof, lawfully condemned as prizes, and wholly owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States.

Class 5.—Those which have been adjusted to be forfeited for a breach of the laws of the United States, when wholly owned by citizens thereof. This does not include vessels, not otherwise entitled to documents, sold under a decree of admiralty for debt or seaman's wages.

Class 6.—Those sold by the United States Government to citizens, if built in the United States. Foreign-built vessels bought or chartered by the Government are entitled to documents on sale to a citizen or citizens on compliance with the requirements for class 9.

Class 7.—Those authorized by special act of Congress to be documented.

Class 8.—Those wrecked on the coasts of the United States or its possessions or in adjacent waters, when purchased by a citizen or citizens of the United States and repaired in a shipyard in the United States or its possessions.

It must be proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Commerce, through a board of three appraisers appointed by him, if necessary, that the repairs put upon such vessel are equal to three times the appraised salved value thereof. The expense of such appraisal shall be borne by the owner of the vessel.

If any of the material facts sworn to or represented by the owner, or at his instance, to obtain documents of any vessel are not true, such vessel is liable to forfeiture.

Class 9.—Seagoing vessels, whether steam or sail, wherever built, when wholly owned by citizens of the United States or corporations organized and chartered under the laws of the United States or any State thereof, the president and managing directors of which are citizens of the United States. (See art. 72.)

Foreign-built vessels registered in accordance with the foregoing provisions of class 9 shall engage only in trade with foreign countries or with the Philippine Islands, American Samoa, and the island of Guam. They shall not engage in the coastwise trade, except as provided by sections 18 and 22, Merchant Marine Act, 1920.

(d) Vessels described as follows, if falling within the provisions of the foregoing classes, shall be documented:

Barges, lighters, and other boats provided with sail or internal motive power, whether such power is generally used or not.

Barges and boats without sail or internal motive power of their own, engaged in trade with Canada, or employed upon the marine waters of the United States.

Barges and boats without sail or internal motive power of their own, carrying passengers.

ART. 15. Provisional registers.—(a) Consular officers of the United States, and such other persons as may be designated by the President for the purpose, are authorized to issue provisional certificates of registry to vessels abroad which have been purchased by citizens of the United States, including corporations, as defined in section 4132, Revised Statutes, as amended.

(b) Such provisional certificates shall entitle the vessel to the privileges of a vessel of the United States in trade with foreign countries or with the Philippine Islands, American Samoa, and the island of Guam, until the expiration of six months from the date thereof, or until 10 days after the vessel's arrival in a port of the United States, and no longer. On arrival at a port of the United States the vessel shall become subject to the laws relating to officers, inspection, and measurement, as amended by the act of August 18, 1914.

(c) Such provisional certificates shall be issued and surrendered in exchange for certificates of registry under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce.

ART. 16. Yachts entitled to documents.—Yachts measuring 16 gross tons or over, used exclusively as pleasure vessels, otherwise entitled to be documented, must be licensed to proceed from port to port within the United States without entering or clearing, and to foreign ports without clearing at the customhouse. Such yachts must enter at the customhouse on arrival from foreign ports.

ART. 17. Vessels exempt from documentation.—(a) The following classes of vessels are not required to be documented:

(1) Boats or lighters not masted, or if masted and not decked, employed in the harbor of any town or city, and not carrying passengers.

(2) Canal boats or barges, or boats employed wholly upon canals or on the internal waters of a State, without sail or internal motive power of their own and not engaged in trade with contiguous foreign territory and not carrying passengers.

(3) Barges or boats without sail or internal motive power of their own, plying on inland rivers or lakes of the United States, not engaged in trade with contiguous foreign territory and not carrying passengers.

(4) Vessels plying upon waters wholly within the limits of a State having no outlet into a river or lake on which commerce with foreign nations or among the States can be carried on.

(5) Vessels of less than 5 net tons.

(b) Pleasure vessels measuring under 16 gross tons may not be licensed, except under special instructions from the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation of the Department of Commerce.

(c) All other vessels engaged in trade between ports in the United States or carrying on the fishery must, if not registered, be enrolled and licensed, or licensed, or will be liable to a penalty of $30 on every arrival, unless the vessel has not been within a customs district since the expiration of the license.

ART. 18. Vessels required to have identification numbers.—All undocumented vessels propelled in whole or in part by machinery, except public vessels and vessels not more than 16 feet in length, temporarily equipped with detachable motors, owned in the United States and found on the navigable waters thereof, must have identification numbers. (See art. 96.)

ART. 19. Marine documents.—(a) Marine documents consist of certificates of registry, enrollments, and licenses.

(b) Marine documents are of two descriptions—permanent, granted to vessels at their home ports, and temporary, granted to vessels at ports other than their home ports.

(c) These two classes of documents should be distinguished by plainly writing the word "permanent" or "temporary" in the margin immediately above the number, and the same rule should be observed in respect to the copies and records.

(d) Registers and enrollments are valid for any length of time until a contingency arises requiring their surrender. (See art. 48.) Licenses are valid for one year only, but may be renewed or changed at any time during the year for which they are granted. Care should be taken that only one license, and for one employment, be granted to a vessel for the same time.

(e) No enrollment or license shall be considered in force longer than the vessel to which it is granted is owned by the person named therein, nor shall it be valid if the description of the vessel is changed, or if the vessel engages in any business or employment other than that for which the document was granted.

ART. 20. Form of marine documents.—Marine documents must be in the prescribed form, as follows:

(a) Registers: Commerce Form 1265.

(b) Enrollments and licenses: Commerce Form 1271 for vessels employed in the coasting trade and fisheries; commerce Form 1290 for yachts.

(c) Licenses for vessels of less than 20 tons net: Commerce Form 1285 for vessels employed in the coasting trade and fisheries; commerce Form 1288 for yachts. Commerce Forms 1271, 1285, and 1288 are not used on the Great Lakes. (See art. 70.)

ART. 21. Marine documents to be signed and sealed.—(a) All marine documents must be signed and sealed by the collector before being issued.

(b) The certificate of registry must bear the seal of the Department of Commerce, attested by the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation.

ART. 22. Marine documents to be numbered.—(a) The documents granted at each port must be consecutively numbered, beginning anew at the commencement of each fiscal year.

(b) Each kind of marine document (register, enrollment, license to vessel under 20 tons, yacht enrollment, and yacht license) must begin with number 1 on July 1 of each fiscal year.

ART. 23. New marine documents.—When a new marine document is issued in lieu of one surrendered, such new document must in all cases cite the previous document by number, date, and port of issue, carry any notation of the authority for documentation or of the existence of unsatisfied preferred mortgages as appearing on the surrendered document, and give the cause of surrender of the old document. A certificate of the builder or a surveyor's certificate of measurement will not be required unless some change of tonnage has taken place since the time of the previous documentation. (See arts. 48, 53, and 55.)

ART. 24. Dimensions and tonnage of vessels to be expressed in marine documents.—The marine document of every vessel shall express her length, breadth, and depth, and the height under the third or spar deck; the number of decks and masts; the tonnage under the tonnage deck; that on the between decks above the tonnage deck; that of the poop or other inclosed spaces above the deck, each separately; it shall state separately the deductions made from the gross tonnage, and shall also state the net or register tonnage.

ART. 25. Fractions of net tons not to be reported.—Customs officers should not enter in the marine document nor should owners mark upon the main beam of a vessel any fraction of a ton of the net capacity. Example: If the net capacity of a vessel, as shown by her certificate of admeasurement, is either 500.90 or 500.10 tons, it should be marked "500" on her main beam and so entered in her marine document. Customs officers should, however, enter in each marine document the fractions of tons in the capacities making up the gross and in the capacities deducted from the gross to ascertain the net.

ART. 26. Registers.—(a) Certificates of registry are requisite for vessels of the United States engaged in the foreign trade, and are permitted to such vessels engaged in the domestic trade, under the requirement of entering at the customhouse at every port of arrival. Blank forms (commerce Form 1265) attested under the seal of the Department of Commerce, will be furnished to collectors. (See art. 56.)

(b) Foreign-built vessels, though documented, may not engage in the fisheries. (See art. 14, class 9.)

ART. 27. Enrollment and license.—Coasting trade and fisheries.—(a) Vessels of 20 tons net or more enrolled and having a license in force, or, if of 5 tons net and less than 20 tons net, not enrolled but having a license in force, may be employed in the coasting trade and fisheries.

(b) Vessels engaged exclusively in the "cod fishery" should be so licensed. Vessels engaged in taking fish of any other description should be licensed for the "mackerel fishery." Vessels engaged in the whale fishery should be licensed for the "whale fishery." Vessels which engage in both the coasting trade and the fishery (other than the "whale fishery") may be licensed for the "coasting trade and mackerel fishery." Vessels engaged in taking out fishing parties are not fishing vessels and should be licensed for the coasting trade unless they intend to proceed to foreign ports, in which case a certificate of registry is required (art. 26). See article 70 for vessels on the Great Lakes.

(c) Vessels enrolled and licensed may engage in trade with the Canal Zone.

ART. 28. Builder's certificate.—(a) In order to document a vessel of class 1 not before documented it is necessary to produce a certificate (commerce Form 1261) from the builder under whose direction the vessel was built that she was so built, stating the place, time, person or persons for whom built, number of decks and masts, length, breadth, depth, and tonnage, and such other particulars as are usually descriptive of the identity of a vessel. This certificate will be sufficient to authorize the removal of a new vessel, if in ballast only, from the district where she may have been built to another district in the same or an adjoining State where the owner or owners actually reside. The collector may require the production of a certificate of acknowledgement by the builder before an officer having a seal.

(b) Any certificate in which the requirements of the law are fairly and fully complied with may be accepted; and where from any cause it is found impracticable to obtain the certificate of the builder, other competent evidence establishing the particulars and facts required to be certified by him may be accepted, with the approval of the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation.

(c) The place of build is where the hull was built. The time of build is the year of completion. Both must appear in all marine documents.

ART. 29. Measurement of vessels.—(a) Before a vessel is documented she must be measured by the surveyor of the port or, if there be no surveyor, by the collector.

(b) The officer making such measurement will grant a certificate (commerce Form 1414) specifying the build of such vessel, and whether she be a steam vessel or otherwise, whether her hull be of iron, steel, or wood; and if a steam vessel, whether she has side wheels or a screw; also the number of her decks and masts, her length, breadth, depth, the number of tons she measures; that her name is painted on each side of her bow, and that her name and hailing port are painted on her stern, and also that her tonnage is deeply carved or otherwise marked on her main beam, in conformity to law, and such other particulars as are descriptive of the identity of a vessel, according to the form prescribed. This certificate must be countersigned in token of assent by an owner, or by the master, or by an agent of the owner or owners, and preserved as a permanent record in the customhouse, together with the builder's certificate (commerce Form 1261).

(c) The regulations governing the measurement of vessels are contained in a separate publication, Measurement of Vessels, issued by the Department of Commerce.

ART. 30. Official number and signal letters.—(a) Every documented vessel is required by law to have an official number awarded by the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation. Application therefor shall be made on commerce Form 1320 by the master or owner, through the collector of customs. In addition to the information therein required, the application must state the name of the former owner, if any, and that the bill of sale has been examined by the collector of customs, or has not, as the case may be.

(b) All seagoing vessels of 100 tons or over, in addition to an official number, may have signal letters awarded. Signal letters may also be awarded to seagoing vessels of less than 100 tons where special application is made therefor through the collector.

ART. 31. Marking of official number and net tonnage.—(a) The official number of a vessel must be carved or marked permanently on her main beam, preceded by the abbreviation "No.", and her name, number, and signal letters must appear in all her documents. The net tonnage must also be carved or marked permanently on her main beam.

(b) Such marking must be upon the face of the beam under the forward side of the main hatch of seagoing and lake vessels, and on the face of the beam under the after-side of the starboard forward hatch of western river steamers. On river steamers of the coast which carry passengers both above and below main deck, where there is a hatch to the main deck, the marking should be upon one of the deck beams in a conspicuous place, and as near as possible to the middle of the vessel.

(c) The marking must be done at the expense of the owner, in Arabic numerals, thus: 825, at least 3 inches in height, when the size of the beam will permit, and not less than three-eighths of an inch deep. If at any time such vessel ceases to be so marked, it shall be liable to a fine of $30 on every arrival in a port of the United States.

(d) On vessels whose main beam is of wood the marking should be deeply carved or branded, and on vessels whose main beam is of steel or iron it should be plainly cut, or marked in oil paint, outlined by punch marks, white when the beam is black, and black when the beam is of any light color.

ART. 32. Evidence as to marking official number, etc.—(a) Marine documents will not be issued until proper evidence is produced that the official number and net tonnage have been marked upon the vessel's main beam, and that her name has been marked upon both sides of her bow and her name and hailing port have been marked upon her stern as required by law (commerce Form 1322).

(b) If the vessel is out of the district, the owner may make affidavit as to the above facts; but as soon as she arrives at a place within the home district, where the inspection certificate of a customs officer can be procured, such certificate must be required by the collector of customs of the district.

(c) If the vessel is at a place in the home district which is not readily accessible to a customs officer, an affidavit that the law has been complied with may be submitted by the owner or agent.

ART. 33. Marking of draft of registered vessels.—The draft of every registered vessel shall be marked upon the stem and sternpost, in English feet or decimeters, in either Arabic or Roman numerals. The bottom of each numeral shall indicate the draft to that line. If all the figures indicating the draft of registered vessels can not be placed on the sternpost they may be continued upward on the adjacent part.

ART. 34. Marking load lines on certain vessels.—(a) United States Code, title 46, section 85:

Load lines are hereby established for the following vessels:

(a) Merchant vessels of 250 gross tons or over, loading at or proceeding to sea from any port or place within the United States or its possessions for a foreign voyage by sea, the Great Lakes excepted.

(b) Merchant vessels of the United States of 250 gross tons or over, loading at or proceeding to sea from any foreign port or place for a voyage by sea, the Great Lakes excepted. (Mar. 2, 1929, c. 508, sec. 1, 45 Stat. 1492.)

(b) United States Code, title 46, section 88:

Load lines are hereby established for merchant vessels of 150 gross tons or over, loading at or proceed to sea from any port or place within the United States or its possessions for a coastwise voyage by sea. By "coastwise voyage by sea" is meant a voyage on which a vessel in the usual course of her employment proceeds from one port or place in the United States or her possessions to another port or place in the United States or her possessions and passes outside the line dividing inland waters from the high seas, as defined in section 151 of title 33. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 1, 49 Stat. 888.)

(c) United States Code, title 46, section 88a:

* * * Provided, That the load-line provisions of sections 88 to 88i of this title shall apply to the Great Lakes and that no load line shall be established or marked on any vessel which load line gives a lesser freeboard and less buoyance than the load line established by the International Treaty on Load Lines of 1930, and that the regulations established under this proviso shall have the force of law: Provided further, That in applying the load lines to vessels on the Great Lakes and to steam colliers, tugs, barges, and self-propelled barges engaged in special services on inter-island voyages and on coastwise voyages from port to port in the continental United States the Secretary of Commerce is vested with discretion to vary the load-line marks from those established by said treaty when in his opinion the changes made by him will not be above the actual line of safety. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 2, 49 Stat. 888, as amended June 20, 1936, c. 626, 49 Stat.)

ART. 35. Name and home port on documented vessel.—(a) The name of every documented vessel (yachts excepted) shall be marked in full upon each bow and upon the stern, and the home port shall also be marked in full upon the stern. These names shall be painted, or carved, or gilded, in Roman letters in a light color on a dark ground, or in a dark color on a light ground, and must be distinctly visible. The letters used shall not be less than 4 inches high. If any vessel of the United States is found without these names so marked, the owner or owners shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each name omitted. Every steam vessel of the United States must, in addition, have her name conspicuously placed in distinct, plain letters of not less than 6 inches high on each outer side of the pilot house, if it has such, and in case the vessel has side wheels, also on the outer side of each wheelhouse, under the same penalty as provided above.

(b) On vessels called "double-enders" the letters prescribed by the statute may be placed on the parts corresponding to the bow and stern, and on vessels with sterns not affording sufficient space for letters they may be placed on the adjacent parts, in both cases so as to conform to the law as closely as possible, and so that the hailing port shall be marked at one end of the vessel.

(c) Scows, barges, or other vessels, "scow-built" or with square bow may be marked on the bow instead of the side where such marking would be speedily obliterated by chafing against other vessels, spiles, or docks.

(d) The hailing port or port to be marked on the stern may be either the port where the vessel is permanently documented, or the place in the same district where the vessel was built or where one or more of the owners reside.

(e) Documented yachts are required to have their names and hailing ports placed on some conspicuous part of their hulls.

ART. 36. Home port—Definition—Change of.—(a) A vessel's home port is that port of documentation which has been fixed and determined by the owner with the approval of the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation. It is also the port at which a vessel's permanent documents issue but it must appear in all documents whether they are permanent or temporary.

(b) It is desirable that the home port be at or nearest the place where the vessel business of the owner is conducted but it need not be in the State where the owning company is incorporated.

(c) If the owner desires to have the home port elsewhere, an application accompanied by a detailed statement setting forth the reasons therefor shall be forwarded to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation for his approval.

ART. 37. Citizen ownership of corporation, partnership, or association.—(a) No corporation, partnership, or association shall be deemed a citizen of the United States, within the meaning of the Shipping Act, 1916 and the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, unless the controlling interest therein is owned by citizens of the United States, and, in the case of a corporation, unless its president and managing directors are citizens of the United States and the corporation itself is organized under the laws of the United States or of a State, Territory, District, or possession thereof. The controlling interest in a corporation shall not be deemed to be owned by citizens of the United States if the title to a majority of the stock thereof is not vested in such citizens free from any trust or fiduciary obligation in favor of any person not a citizen of the United States; or if the majority of the voting power in such corporation is not vested in citizens of the United States; or if through any contract or understanding it is so arranged that the majority of the voting power may be exercised, directly or indirectly, in behalf of any person who is not a citizen of the United States; or if by any other means control of the corporation is conferred upon or permitted to be exercised by any person who is not a citizen of the United States.

(b) In the case of a vessel operating in the coastwise trade, the amount of interest in the corporation, association, or partnership required to be owned by citizens of the United States shall be 75 percent.

(c) In the case of corporate ownership the applicant for documents will furnish a satisfactory certificate as to the organization of the corporation and the names of its president and managing directors. The citizenship of the president and managing directors must be established to the satisfaction of the collector.

(d) The proofs submitted to establish the above facts, as well as the proofs of the percentage of stock held by citizens free from foreign control should be filed in the office of the collector.

ART. 38. Evidence of citizenship of owners and officers.—In addition to the oaths of citizenship specified, a collector of customs may require the production of such further evidence as may be necessary to satisfy him that the person is a citizen of the United States and a proper notation of the evidence produced should be made on the papers retained in the collector's office, such as the number, date, and office of issue of an officer's license or a seaman's passport or a citizen's passport, or the same data as to a birth certificate or a naturalization certificate.

ART. 39. Forms of oath.—The oath of ownership required for the registry of any vessel or for the enrollment and license of a vessel shall be, as near as possible, in the following forms:

Oath of Owner

(a) If the vessel be of 20 tons or more, the owner's oath for license shall be as follows (commerce Forms 1262, 1270):

I, ——— ———, of ———, in the county of ———, and State of ———, do swear (or affirm), according to the best of my knowledge and belief, that the vessel called the ———, of ———, official number ———, of ——— gross, and ——— net, was *[built in 19—, at ———]; that I am a citizen of the United States, and that the said vessel is wholly the property of ——— citizen ——— of the United States of America, owning and residing as follows: ———; and that no subject or citizen of any foreign power is, directly or indirectly, by way of trust, confidence, or otherwise, interested therein, or in the profits or issues thereof, and that ———, the present master thereof, is a citizen of the United States.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this ——— day of ———.

(b) If the vessel be of less than 20 tons net, the owner's oath for license shall be as follows (commerce Form 1284):

I, ——— ———, of ———, in the county of ——— and State of ———, swear (or affirm), according to the best of my knowledge and belief, that the vessel called the ———, of ———, official number ———, of ——— gross, ——— net, is wholly the property of ——— citizen— of the United States of America, viz: ———.

——— ———.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this ——— day of ———.

——— ———, Collector.

(c) If the vessel is owned by an incorporated company, the ownership oath for the foreign trade shall be as shown on commerce Form 1263 and for the coasting trade as shown on commerce Form 1263a, both of the 1930 or a later edition.

(d) If the vessel be of the fourth class, the following clause must be substituted for the portion in brackets marked*:

On the ——— day of ———, 19—, captured in war by a citizen (or citizens) of the United States and lawfully condemned as a prize by a decree, sentence, or judgment of the ——— court of ———, an authenticated copy of which I now produce.

(e) If of the fifth class, the following:

Adjudged to be forfeited, for a breach of the laws of the United States, by a decree, sentence, or judgment of the ——— court of ———, an authenticated copy of which I now produce.

(f) If of the sixth class, the following:

Formerly the ———, purchased from the United States (or from an officer, naming him and his office).

(g) If of the seventh class, the following:

Authorized to be documented by act of Congress and by the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation by letter under date of ———, an authenticated copy of which I now produce.

(h) In all cases where there is more than one owner the name and place of residence of each owner and the proportion owned by him must be inserted in the appropriate space.

Oath of Master

(i) The oath of master required for the registry of a vessel shall be as follows:

I, ——— ———, master of the ——— called the ———, official number ———, do swear that I am a citizen of the United States, having been *[born within the limits thereof].

(j) For the enrollment and license of a vessel the master's oath shall be as follows:

I, ——— ———, master of the ——— called the ———, official number ———, do swear that I am a citizen of the United States, having been *[born within the limits thereof], and that the license bearing date ———, granted to said vessel by the collector of customs for the district of ———, shall not be used for any other vessel, or for any other employment than (the coasting trade, the fisheries, or for pleasure, as the case may be), or in any trade or business whereby the revenue of the United States may be defrauded. So help me God.

(k) If the master is not a native of the United States a statement as to how he became a citizen must be inserted in lieu of the clause in brackets marked * as follows:

Naturalized in the State of ———, on the ——— day of ———, ———, by virtue of decree or order of the ——— court of ———, and the oath of allegiance according to law.

(l) For the issue or renewal of a license to a vessel of less than 20 net tons the master's oath shall be as follows:

I, ——— ———, master of the vessel described in these proceedings for license, swear that I am a citizen of the United States of America, and that the license bearing number ———, and date ———, for carrying on the (coasting trade, or fisheries, or for pleasure, as the case may be), granted for the said vessel by the collector of customs for the district of ———, shall not be used for any other vessel, or for any other employment than the coasting trade, the fisheries, or for pleasure, as the case may be), or in any trade or business whereby the revenue of the United States may be defrauded. So help me God.

ART. 40. Owner's oath before collectors.—(a) Previous to the granting of a register, license, or enrollment and license to any vessel, an owner's oath must be taken before the collector on one of the forms set forth in article 39.

(b) If the vessel be owned by one individual, the oath must be taken by him or by his duly authorized agent.

(c) If the vessel be owned by several individuals or a firm or unincorporated company, the oath may be taken by one of the owners, who must specify the names, places of abode, and proportions of the vessel owned by each of the others and also certify to their citizenship.

(d) If the vessel be owned by a corporation, the oath may be taken by the president, secretary, or any other officer or agent thereof, duly authorized in writing, attested by the corporate seal, to act in its behalf.

(e) On the death, removal, or resignation of the president or the secretary of an incorporated company owning any vessel and whose name appears on the documents of such vessel, a new document must be obtained.

(f) If the master of the vessel be within the district where the registry is to be issued, he must take oath or make affirmation as to his citizenship. In all cases of enrollment and license or license the master's oath must be taken.

(g) In all cases where there is more than one owner, the proportions owned by each must be stated in the oath.

(h) If any of the matters of fact contained in the oath or affirmation be false, within the knowledge of the party so swearing, there shall be a forfeiture of the vessel, her tackle, furniture, and apparel, or the value thereof to be recovered, with costs of suit, from the person taking such oath or making such affirmation; but if that portion relating to the citizenship of the master prove false, the master or other person in charge so falsely swearing or affirming shall himself forfeit the sum of $1,000.

ART. 41. Owner's oath before State officer.—In the case of an application for enrollment and license or license, the requirement that the owner's oath be taken before the collector may be waived, and the oath may be taken before an officer authorized by the laws of the State to administer oaths generally and may be mailed to the collector.

ART. 42. Master's oath on licensing vessel.—(a) Previous to the granting or renewing of the license of any vessel the master shall swear that he is a citizen of the United States, and that such license shall not be used for any other vessel or for any other employment than that for which it was specially granted, or in any trade or business whereby the revenue of the United States may be defrauded.

(b) This oath may be taken before any officer authorized by the laws of the State to administer oaths, and may be mailed to the collector, together with the marine document, whereupon action may be taken as if the oath had been administered by the collector.

ART. 43. Change or master.—(a) When the master of any documented vessel, except a licensed ferryboat, is changed, the owner or the new master must report the change to the collector at the port where the same shall take place, or where the vessel shall first arrive thereafter, and produce to him the documents and take oath (Commerce Form 1311) that the new master is a citizen of the United States, stating whether he is a native or is naturalized, and, if naturalized, how he became a citizen. The collector will then indorse upon the document the name of the new master.

(b) The oath required to be taken by the new master previous to the indorsement of the change of master on an enrollment or license may be taken before any officer authorized by the laws of the State to administer oaths, and may be mailed to the collector, together with the marine document, whereupon action may be taken as if the oath had been administered by the collector.

(c) If the change of master be reported to the collector or deputy collector at a port other than that at which the document was granted, the officer making the indorsement must transmit a notice (commerce Form 1420) thereof to the officer by whom the document was granted, and the latter shall make the change in his record. If the change of master be not reported, or if the oath aforesaid be not taken, the document will be void, and the master subject to a fine of $100 for a registered vessel and $10 for a licensed vessel.

(d) Any person or body corporate having more than one-half ownership of any vessel shall have the same power to remove a master, who is also part owner of such vessel, as such majority owners have to remove a master not an owner. This does not apply where there is a valid written agreement subsisting by virtue of which such master would be entitled to possession.

ART. 44. Repairs.—Before any enrollment or license, or renewal of either, may be granted the owner or master must take oath (commerce Forms 1260 and 1280) that all equipment or repairs put upon the vessel in a foreign country within the year immediately preceding the application have been accounted for, and that the duties, if any, have been paid. False swearing or refusal to take such oath is punishable by forfeiture of the vessel. (See arts. 56, 79 (b), and 128.)

ART. 45. Issue and record of marine documents.—(a) The provisions of the law having been complied with, the collector shall issue a register, enrollment and license, or license to the vessel. Care should be taken to insure the insertion of the required notation on documents issued to foreign-built vessels. An exact copy of each document issued shall be placed in a permanent record kept for that purpose and a proper index made thereof. This record shall be kept open to public inspection during office hours.

(b) Copies of all marine documents issued shall be transmitted to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation each day except as provided in paragraph (c). Notation of the specific address of the owner or managing owner shall be made on the transmitted copies.

(c) When a vessel is documented at a port other than a headquarters port, a duplicate of the marine document issued, together with the surrendered original, if there is one, must be sent by the deputy collector to the collector at the headquarters port for review and transmittal to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation. Should the headquarters port desire additional duplicates of vessels' documents, deputy collectors may be so instructed.

(d) When a document is surrendered for any cause, or when proof of loss, destruction, or mislaying is received, or the document has ceased to be valid, an indorsement accurately stating the place, date, and cause of surrender shall be made on the surrendered document or on the copy if the original has been lost, citing the new document issued, if any. The place and date of surrender should be the place and date of issue of the new document.

(e) When a vessel is lost, abandoned as unfit for service, sold to an alien, or sold to the United States, an indorsement will be made in like manner, stating the date, place, and circumstance of such disaster, abandonment, or sale.

(f) Any alteration or change made in the original document after issue shall be noted on the retained copy.

(g) When a document is surrendered, notation of the fact, cause, date, etc., of such surrender shall be made in appropriate records at the port of issue.

(h) When a new document is issued, an indorsement shall be made on the record of the former document showing the kind and number of the new document, place and date of the new document, and cause for its issue.

(i) At the time application is made for the new document the former document of the vessel must be surrendered to the collector to whom the application for such new document is made. And if the former document is not surrendered, unless it has been lost, destroyed, or unintentionally mislaid, and an oath thereof has been taken, the owner of the vessel becomes liable to a penalty of $500.

(j) On proof that any vessel has been sold or transferred by process of law and that her marine document is retained by the former owners the collector of the district to which the vessel belongs may, with the approval of the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation, grant a new document, but the owners shall not be required to produce and surrender the canceled document. The issue of the new document does not remove the liability of the holders for failure to surrender the former one.

ART. 46. Permanent enrollment or license or renewal thereof to a vessel absent from home port.—(a) Permanent enrollment and license or license may be issued to any vessel absent from her home port upon application to the collector or deputy collector thereof, through the office of the collector or deputy collector at the port at which the vessel may be, where the master's oath should first be taken.

(b) Whenever it shall become necessary or desirable for any vessel of the United States, in a port other than her home port, to procure a permanent enrollment and license or license, the same proceedings may be had at the port at which the vessel then is as are required by law at the vessel's home port, except the issuance of the document.

(c) The officer before whom such proceedings are taken shall certify the same (Commerce Form 1301) to the collector or deputy collector at the vessel's home port, who shall duly document the vessel in the same form as if the application had originally been made in his office, and either deliver the document or forward it by mail to the officer who certified to him the preliminary proceedings, who shall in such case deliver the document to the owner or master of the vessel.

(d) This regulation is not to be construed to change existing forms, except in so far as to enable owners to procure permanent enrollments or licenses without returning their vessels to their home ports.

ART. 47. Renewal of license.—(a) A license granted to any vessel must be presented to the collector of the district in which the vessel may then be, within 3 days after its expiration, or, if the vessel be at sea at that time, within 3 days from her first arrival within a district. If the master fails to deliver the license, as herein required, he shall be liable to a penalty of $10, which shall not be mitigated.

(b) Licenses may be renewed or changed at any time during the year for which they are granted, care being taken that only one license, and for one employment, be granted to a vessel for the same time.

(c) A permanent or temporary license which has been renewed by indorsement need not be renewed again at any port until the expiration of the statutory period after the date of the latest renewal; but a temporary license must be surrendered within 10 days after the arrival of a vessel at her home port. The statutory period is 1 year and 3 days, but if a vessel is absent when the period expires, then within 3 days after her first arrival in any district she must renew her license.

(d) When a renewal is indorsed upon a license, a notice (commerce Form 1302) must be sent to the port of issue and the home port.

ART. 48. Surrender of permanent documents.—Marine documents must be surrendered when a vessel is sold in whole or in part; when a vessel has been lost or taken by an enemy, or otherwise prevented from returning to the port to which she belongs; when a vessel is burnt or broken up; when a vessel is altered in form or burden by being lengthened, shortened, or built upon, or changed from one denomination to another by the method of rigging or fitting; when a vessel changes from one employment to another; when a vessel changes her name; when the president or the secretary of an incorporated company owning a vessel and whose name appears on the documents of such vessel dies, is removed, or resigns therefrom; when a vessel arrives at her home port while under temporary documents; when the managing owner of a vessel changes residence from one port to another, either within or without the same customs district, provided there has been no change in ownership of the vessel; and when the vessel is exempt from documentation under the act of April 18, 1874. (See art. 17.)

ART. 49. Indorsements on surrendered documents.—In order that there may be uniformity in indorsing the surrenders on marine documents, the following expressions or their abbreviations should be used:

(a) When a new document issues upon surrender of an old document:

1. Property changed (when there is a change in ownership; P. C.

2. Property and district changed; P. & D. C.

3. Property and hail changed (if district is not changed); P. & H. C.

4. Trade changed (from foreign to coasting or vice versa); T. C.

5. Tonnage changed.

6. Rig changed.

7. Original document lost.

There should be a citation of the new document, as P. E. No. —— issued, after the cause for surrender. The date of issue of the new document should be the same as the date of the surrender of the old document and need not be given.

(b) When no new American document issues:

1. Vessel lost (followed by the true cause as foundered, stranded, collided with s. s. ———, burned, etc., with the date and place of loss, etc.) For a list of casualties to be included, see explanation in "Merchant vessels of the United States," under "Vessels lost."

2. Vessel abandoned. (Because of age or deterioration.)

3. Vessel sold to an alien (with the flag of the purchaser).

4. Vessel exempt (act of Apr. 18, 1874).

5. To yachting (adding "exempt," if the vessel is under 16 tons gross).

6. Sold to the United States (with name of department and bureau).

ART. 50. Surrender of temporary documents.—(a) A new document granted by the collector at a port other than the one where the vessel belongs shall be temporary.

(b) Temporary documents are to be surrendered to the collector at the port where the vessel belongs within 10 days after her arrival and in all cases in which the surrender of permanent documents is required.

(c) By the term "arrival" is to be understood the voluntary arrival of the vessel at her home port, to which she was destined in the regular course of her employment.

(d) If the master neglects to surrender such temporary document within 10 days he shall forfeit $100, and the document shall become null and void.

ART. 51. Notice of the issue and surrender of documents.—On the issue of a document in lieu of one surrendered at a port other than the one at which it was granted or on the surrender of a document at a port other than the one at which it was granted, notice of such issue or surrender shall be mailed to the chief officers of customs concerned, as follows:

1. On the issue of a temporary document to a vessel never before documented, notice of issue (commerce Form 1303) shall be sent to the vessel's home port with a copy of the document.

2. Issue of a permanent or temporary document in lieu of a permanent or temporary document surrendered because of a change in name, ownership, trade, rig, dimensions, or tonnage, or in lieu of a lost document:

(a) On the surrender of a permanent document, notice of issue (commerce Form 1303) shall be sent to the home port.

(b) On the surrender of a temporary document, notice of issue (commerce Form 1303) shall be sent to the home port and notice of surrender (commerce Form 1306) to the port of issue.

3. Issue of a temporary document because of a change in district or hail:

(a) On the surrender of a permanent document, notice of issue (commerce Form 1303) shall be sent to the new home port and notice of surrender (commerce Form 1306) to the port of issue.

(b) On the surrender of a temporary document, notice of issue (commerce Form 1303) shall be sent to the new home port and notice of surrender (commerce Form 1306) to the former home port and to the port of issue.

4. Issue of a permanent document because of a change in district or hail:

(a) On the surrender of a permanent document, notice of surrender (commerce Form 1306) shall be sent to the port of issue.

(b) On the surrender of a temporary document, notice of surrender (commerce Form 1306) shall be sent to the former home port and to the port of issue.

5. On the surrender of a temporary document because of the arrival of a vessel at her home port, notice of surrender (commerce Form 1306) shall be sent to the port of issue.

6. Surrender of a document because of the loss, destruction, breaking up, or sale of a vessel to an alien:

(a) On the surrender of a permanent document, notice of surrender (commerce Form 1306) shall be sent to the port of issue.

(b) On the surrender of a temporary document, notice of surrender (commerce Form 1306) shall be sent to the home port and to the port of issue.

ART. 52. Cancellation of marine documents.—Every marine document surrendered to a collector for cancellation shall be transmitted by mail to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation. If the document be delivered to the collector at a port other than the one at which it was issued, such collector shall notify the collector of the port of issue that it has been surrendered. (Commerce Form 1303 or 1306.)

ART. 53. Revision of tonnage.—(a) The tonnage of any documented vessel of the United States expressed in her marine documents in pursuance of a measurement purporting to be in conformity to these regulations may be changed or set aside only by the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation.

(b) If in the opinion of the owner the tonnage is incorrect or if changes in structure or use of spaces which affect the tonnage have been made since the former admeasurement, the owner may make application for amendment or revision on commerce Form 1410, through the collector of customs, to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation for approval before the issue of a new marine document.

(c) Upon application by the owner or master of an American vessel in foreign trade, collectors of customs, under regulations to be approved by the Secretary of Commerce, are authorized to attach to the register of such vessels an appendix stating separately, for use in foreign ports, the measurement of such space or spaces as are permitted to be deducted from gross tonnage by the rules of other nations and are not permitted by the laws of the United States.

(d) As the provisions of the act of March 2, 1895, are in substantial accord with the measurement laws of the principal maritime nations, applications for an appendix, stating separately the measurement of spaces which may be deducted by the laws of other nations, but not by the laws of the United States, if there be any, should be referred to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation.

ART. 54. Rebuilt vessels.—(a) A rebuilt vessel must retain her original name and official number, and her marine documents should give the date and place of original building. The date and place of rebuilding should be noted in the appropriate place in the document. A vessel is rebuilt, if any considerable part of the hull of an old vessel in its intact condition, without being broken up, is built upon. It is new if none of the old timber is left undisturbed or if all of the timber used, whether old or new, is taken up, refitted and reset. It is of little consequence how much of the old timber is reused.

(b) Upon affidavit by a reputable shipbuilder of the United States that an unrigged wooden vessel of the United States, except those admitted under section 5, Panama Canal Act, as amended, and the act of August 18, 1914, has been rebuilt, giving the date and place of such rebuilding, that it is sound and free from rotten or doted wood in structural parts, is properly fastened and calked, and is in strength and seaworthiness as good as new, the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation shall include in the publication, Merchant Vessels of the United States, a notation to that effect.

ART. 55. Change of build or rig.—(a) Whenever a documented vessel is altered in form or burden, by being lengthened, shortened, or built upon, or changed from one denomination to another, by the method of rigging or fitting, the vessel shall be documented anew; otherwise she shall cease to be deemed a vessel of the United States.

(b) When there is a change in the manner or method of propulsion of a vessel, as from steam engine to gas engine, from gas engine to oil engine, or vice versa, or in any other way which may change the description, a new marine document should be issued. The new marine document may have assigned as the cause for its issue, "Engine changed from gas to oil", or as the case may be. An indorsement of a similar tenor should be placed on the surrendered document. Collectors are referred to "Explanations and abbreviations" in "Merchant Vessels of the United States" for the various kinds of engines.

ART. 56. Exchange of documents.—(a) Any enrolled or licensed vessel may be registered, and any registered vessel may be enrolled and licensed or licensed upon the surrender of her documents to the collector of any district; but neither enrollment nor license shall be granted to a vessel having on board merchandise brought from a foreign port until it be wholly unladen and the duties paid or secured.

(b) No such documented vessel, shall receive a license, or enrollment and license, or renewal until the collector to whom application is made is satisfied, from the oath of the owner or master, that all equipments purchased and repairs made abroad within the year immediately preceding such application have been duly accounted for, and the duties accruing thereon duly paid.

(c) When the vessel is at any other port than the one to which she belongs, the collector at such port shall make the exchange on the application of the master and upon his taking oath that the property remains as expressed in the document to be surrendered. A new document thus granted shall be temporary, and shall, within 10 days after the arrival of the vessel at the port to which she belongs, be delivered to the collector thereof for cancellation and for the issue of a permanent document.

(d) If the master neglects to deliver such temporary document within 10 days, he shall be liable to a penalty of $100.

(e) Forfeiture of vessel and cargo is imposed by law in case a vessel, enrolled or licensed for the coasting trade by sea, proceeds on a foreign voyage without first surrendering her enrollment and license and taking out a register.

ART. 57. Licensed vessels—Transfer of title to noncitizen—Change of trade—Forged or altered license—Non-duty-paid merchandise or non-tax-paid liquor on board.—United States Code, title 46, section 325:

Whenever any licensed vessel is transferred, in whole or in part, to any person who is not at the time of such transfer a citizen of and resident within the United States, or is employed in any other trade than for which she is licensed, or is employed in any trade whereby the revenue of the United States is defrauded, or is found with a forged or altered license, or one granted for any other vessel, or with merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture (sea stores excepted), or any taxable domestic spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors, on which the duties or taxes have not been paid or secured to be paid, such vessel with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the cargo, found on board her, shall be forfeited. But vessels which may be licensed for the mackerel fishery shall not incur such forfeiture by engaging in catching cod or fish of any other description whatever. For the purposes of this section, marks, labels, brands, or stamps, indicative of foreign origin, upon or accompanying merchandise or containers of merchandise found upon any vessel, shall be prima facie evidence of the foreign origin of such merchandise. (As amended Aug. 5, 1935, c. 438, title III, sec. 313, 49 Stat. 528.)

ART. 58. Lost vessel.—Whenever a documented vessel is lost or taken by an enemy, burned, or broken up, or otherwise prevented from returning to the port to which she belongs, the document, if preserved, shall be delivered up, within eight days after the arrival of the master or person having the charge or command of such vessel within any district of the United States, to the collector of such district. Any master violating this provision becomes liable to a penalty not exceeding $500.

ART. 59. Report of casualty to vessel.—(a) Whenever a vessel of the United States has sustained or caused any accident involving serious injury or loss of life, or any substantial loss of property, or has received any material damage affecting her seaworthiness or her efficiency, the managing owner, agent, or master of such vessel shall, within 5 days after the happening, or as soon thereafter as possible, send to the collector of customs of the district wherein such vessel belongs, or of that within which such accident or damage occurred, a report thereof (Coast Guard Form 2692), signed by such owner, agent, or master stating the name and official number of the vessel, the port to which she belongs, the place where she was, the nature and probable occasion of the casualty, the number and names of those lost, and the estimated amount of loss or damage to the vessel or cargo; and shall furnish, upon the request of either of such collectors of customs, such other information concerning the vessel, her cargo, and the casualty as may be called for; and if he neglects or refuses to comply with the foregoing requirements, after a reasonable time, he shall incur a penalty of $100.

(b) Whenever the managing owner or agent of any vessel of the United States has reason, owing to the nonappearance of such vessel, or to any other circumstances, to apprehend that such vessel has been lost, he shall, as soon as convenient, send notice, in writing, to the collector of customs of the port to which the vessel belonged, of such loss, and the probable occasion thereof, stating the name and official number of the vessel, and the names of all persons on board, so far as the same can be ascertained, and shall, if possible, furnish such additional information as the collector at such port may request; and if he neglects to comply with the above requirements within a reasonable time, he shall incur a penalty of $100.

(c) It shall be the duty of the collectors of customs to transmit immediately to the Commandant of the Coast Guard and to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation such reports and information as they may receive under the provisions of the two preceding paragraphs, and they shall also report to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation any neglect or refusal on the part of the managing owner, agent, or master of any vessel of the United States to comply with the requirements thereof.

(d) Loss of property involved in any accident sustained or caused by a vessel of the United States, amounting to less than $300, will not be reported as "substantial" within the meaning of this article, and reports of such casualties, unless involving the loss of life or serious injury to any person, will not be required, except in cases of stranding, reports of which are desirable to aid in determining and locating points of danger to navigation. Reports will, however, be required in all cases of the total loss of vessels, although the amount involved may be less than $300.

(e) In cases of collisions, reports will be required from both of the colliding vessels where the damage or loss of property of the two together amounts to $300, notwithstanding one of the vessels may have suffered little or no loss.

ART. 60. Loss of marine document.—(a) Whenever the marine document of any vessel is lost, destroyed, mislaid, or withheld from the owner, and the master or other person having the charge or command thereof makes oath (commerce Form 1305) to such fact, the collector of the port where the vessel first arrives after such loss shall issue a new document in lieu thereof, reciting that it was issued in place of the one lost or destroyed. A document is held to be lost when it is wrongfully withheld from the possession of the owner. (See art. 45.)

(b) In every case where a document is credited as having been lost, destroyed, or mislaid, the collector shall forward a copy to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation, with a statement as to the circumstances and proof of such loss or destruction indorsed upon it, and upon the face should be written, "Copy transmitted in place of lost document." (See art. 45 (d), (e).)

ART. 61. Failure to obtain a new document when required.—The penalty for neglecting to obtain a new document when required by law is the forfeiture of all privileges and benefits of a vessel of the United States. (See art. 45 (i), (j).)

ART. 62. Sale of vessel.—(a) When a vessel once registered, enrolled, or licensed in pursuance of law shall, in whole or in part, be sold or transferred to a citizen of the United States, such vessel must be documented anew; otherwise she ceases to be deemed a vessel of the United States.

(b) A proper bill of sale having been produced to the collector, the former document surrendered, and the regulations governing the issue of marine documents complied with in other respects, a new document may issue.

(c) In order that an American corporation, partnership, or association may purchase a vessel of the United States without the consent of the United States Maritime Commission, a controlling interest (51 percent) in said corporation, partnership, or association if the vessel is to engage in the foreign trade and a 75 percent interest if the vessel is to engage in the coasting trade must be owned by citizens of the United States as defined in section 2 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended by section 38 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920.

ART. 63. Sale outside of home port.—(a) A temporary marine document may be granted to any vessel entitled to be documented which becomes the property of a citizen of the United States while at a port other than the one where the new owner usually resides. The temporary marine document must be surrendered within 10 days after the arrival of the vessel within the district to which she belongs or the owner and the master shall severally be liable to a penalty of $100.

(b) Should the purchase of a vessel as herein provided be made by the agent of a citizen who resides more than 50 miles from the port at which such purchase is made, the oath of ownership shall be modified (commerce Form 1264) so as to express the fact of such agency.

(c) When a vessel changes ownership while away from her designated home port, a temporary document may be issued expressing the new ownership. The bill of sale on which the temporary document is based may be recorded, if the collector so desires, but no fee should be collected.

ART. 64. Sale abroad.—A documented vessel which has been sold or transferred, in whole or in part, to a citizen of the United States while such vessel is without the limits of the United States will, on her first arrival thereafter, be entitled to all the privileges of a vessel of the United States if a new document is obtained within three days after the time entry of the vessel is required at the port of first arrival.

ART. 65. Sale or charter to an alien.—(a) It shall be unlawful to sell, transfer, or mortgage, or, except under regulations prescribed by the United States Maritime Commission, to charter, any vessel purchased from the board or documented under the laws of the United States to any person not a citizen of the United States, as defined by the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, or to put the same under a foreign registry or flag, without first obtaining the Commission's approval.

(b) On the sale or transfer, in whole or in part, of a documented vessel to a subject of a foreign country, even in trust or confidence, the document must be delivered if the vessel is within a district of the United States, to the collector within seven days after such purchase or transfer. But if such sale or transfer happens while the vessel is in a foreign port or place, or at sea, the master or person having the charge or command thereof shall, within eight days after his arrival within any district of the United States, deliver the document to the collector of such district. Any master or owner violating the provisions of this article shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $500, and the document shall be henceforth void; and if such sale or transfer is not so made known, the vessel, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, shall be subject to forfeiture. This forfeiture, however, does not attach to any share of such vessel owned by a citizen of the United States who was ignorant of the sale or transfer.

(c) The United States Maritime Commission has by resolution prescribed that a documented vessel may be chartered to an alien for a period not to exceed 12 months, or where the probable duration of the voyage or voyages will not exceed 12 months, without further action on its part, but its consent must be obtained for the charter of all vessels which have been purchased or chartered from it, or in aid of whose construction or improvement a loan was made by it. All vessels while under charter to aliens must have citizens of the United States as officers.

ART. 66. Record of title—Essentials of bills of sale—Mortgages, etc.—(a) No bill of sale, mortgage, hypothecation, or conveyance of a vessel of the United States, or any portion thereof, shall be valid against any person other than the grantor or mortgagor, his heirs and devisees, or a person having actual notice thereof, unless recorded in the office of the collector where the vessel is permanently documented (art. 36), and such collector shall record all such documents delivered to him in the order of their receipt in books to be kept for that purpose and indexed to show the name of the vessel; the names of the parties to the sale, conveyance, or mortgage; the time and date of receipt of the instrument; the interest in the vessel sold, conveyed, or mortgaged, and the amount and date of maturity of the mortgage.

(b) A bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage must recite the last marine document of the vessel, the interest of the grantor or mortgagor therein, and the person or persons to whom the interest has been so sold, conveyed, or mortgaged.

(c) In every sale or transfer there must be an instrument in writing, in the nature of a bill of sale, on commerce Forms 1340, 1342, 1344, or 1346, which recites at length her marine document existing at the time of execution of the bill of sale or her latest document; otherwise she will be incapable of being redocumented.

(d) The bill of sale shall also set forth the part of the vessel owned by each person selling and the part conveyed to each person purchasing.

(e) No bill of sale, conveyance, mortgage, notice of claim or lien, or certificate of discharge thereof, shall be recorded unless previously acknowledged before a notary public or other officer authorized by a law of the United States, or of a State, Territory, District, or possession thereof, to take acknowledgment of deeds. Any acknowledgment valid under the laws of the State where made may be accepted.

(f) In case of a change in the home port of a vessel of the United States, no bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage shall be recorded at the new home port unless there is furnished to the collector of such port, together with the copy of the bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage to be recorded, a certified copy of the record of the vessel at the former home port furnished by the collector of such port. The collector at the new home port is authorized and directed to record such certified copy.

(g) Record books and blank forms are provided on commerce Forms Nos. 1330, 1331, 1340–1355, 1360–1363. Also New York Forms Nos. 2058, 2060, 2062–2065, 2067, 2070, 2070a, 2071–2076, 2078–2080.

(h) In addition to the general index kept at each port, a general index shall be kept at the headquarters port of all bills of sale, mortgages, hypothecations, and conveyances reported at all ports in the district. When a bill of sale, mortgage, or hypothecation has been recorded it shall be forwarded to the headquarters port for recording in the general index of the district, after which it shall be returned to the port of origin for delivery to the vendee or mortgagee.

ART. 67. Preferred mortgages—Recording and indorsing.—(a) United States Code, title 46, section 921:

Sale, conveyance, or mortgage of vessel of United States; record. (a) No sale, conveyance, or mortgage which, at the time such sale, conveyance, or mortgage is made, includes a vessel of the United States, or any portion thereof, as the whole or any part of the property sold, conveyed, or mortgaged shall be valid, in respect to such vessel, against any person other than the grantor or mortgagor, his heir or devisee, and a person having actual notice thereof, until such bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage is recorded in the office of the collector of customs of the port of documentation of such vessel, as provided in subdivision (b) of this section.

(b) Such collector of customs shall record bills of sale, conveyances, and mortgages, delivered to him, in the order of their reception, in books to be kept for that purpose and indexed to show—

(1) The name of the vessel;

(2) The names of the parties to the sale, conveyance, or mortgage;

(3) The time and date of reception of the instrument;

(4) The interest in the vessel so sold, conveyed, or mortgaged; and

(5) The amount and date of maturity of the mortgage. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, sec. 30, subsec. C, 41 Stat. 1000.)

(b) United States Code, title 46, section 922—

(a) A valid mortgage which at the time it is made includes the whole of any vessel of the United States (other than a towboat, barge, scow, lighter, car float, canal boat, or tank vessel, of less than 200 gross tons), shall, in addition, have, in respect to such vessel and as of the date of the compliance with all the provisions of this chapter, the preferred status given by the provisions of section 953 of this title, if—

(1) The mortgage is endorsed upon the vessel's documents in accordance with the provisions of this section;

(2) The mortgage is recorded as provided in section 921 of this title, together with the time and date when the mortgage is so endorsed;

(3) An affidavit is filed with the record of such mortgage to the effect that the mortgage is made in good faith and without any design to hinder, delay, or defraud any existing or future creditor of the mortgagor or any lienor of the mortgaged vessel;

(4) The mortgage does not stipulate that the mortgagee waives the preferred status thereof; and

(5) The mortgagee is a citizen of the United States and for the purposes of this section the Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall, in addition to those designated in sections 888 and 802 of this title, be deemed a citizen of the United States. (As amended June 27, 1935, c. 319, 49 Stat. 424.)

(c) Preferred maritime lien; priorities; other liens.—United States Code, title 46, section 953.—

(a) When used hereinafter in this chapter, the term "preferred maritime lien" means (1) a lien arising prior in time to the recording and indorsement of a preferred mortgage in accordance with the provisions of this chapter or (2) a lien for damages arising out of tort, for wages of a stevedore when employed directly by the owner, operator, master, ship's husband, or agent of the vessel, for wages of the crew of the vessel, for general average, and for salvage, including contract salvage * * * (June 5, 1920, c. 250, sec. 30, subsec. M, 41 Stat. 1004).

(d) In case a mortgage is given to cover documented vessels and vessels in the process of construction and it is desired that the vessels in process of construction shall be covered by a preferred mortgage upon documentation, it is suggested that a supplemental mortgage be given at the time of documentation, the indorsement required by paragraph (b) of this article to be made at such time. Such mortgages should provide for the separate discharge of the uncompleted vessel at any time prior to its documentation and the recording of the supplemental mortgage hereinabove referred to.

(e) United States Code, title 46, section 923:

The collector of customs upon the recording of a preferred mortgage shall deliver two certified copies thereof to the mortgagor who shall place, and use due diligence to retain, one copy on board the mortgaged vessel * * *. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, sec. 30, subsec. E, 41 Stat. 1001.)

When a preferred mortgage is presented for record the collector shall request two identical copies of such mortgage, and he shall carefully compare these copies with the original before certification.

(f) When a mortgage has been recorded in the customhouse the original is to be returned to the mortgagee and his receipt taken therefor, and two certified copies delivered to the mortgagor.

(g) When a preferred mortgage is offered for record it is not incumbent on the collector at the recording office to ascertain whether there is any existing incumbrance at the vessel's present or previous home port. This information should be included in the affidavit provided for in paragraph (b) of this article.

(h) The law does not prohibit the placing of an additional mortgage, preferred or otherwise, on a vessel which already is covered by a preferred or nonpreferred mortgage.

(i) The affidavit required in case of preferred mortgages by paragraph (b) of this article is to be made by the mortgagor and is to be acknowledged before a notary public or other officer authorized by a law of the United States or of a State, Territory, District, or possession thereof to take acknowledgment of deeds.

(j) Conditions precedent to record.—United States Code, title 46, section 926:

(a) No bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage shall be recorded unless it states the interest of the grantor or mortgagor in the vessel, and the interest so sold, conveyed, or mortgaged.

(b) No bill of sale, conveyance, mortgage, notice of claim of lien, or certificate of discharge thereof, shall be recorded unless previously acknowledged before a notary public or other officer authorized by a law of the United States, or of a State, Territory, District, or possession thereof, to take acknowledgment of deeds. * * * (June 5, 1920, c. 250, sec. 30, subsec. H, 41 Stat. 1002.)

(k) The preferred mortgage indorsement provided by paragraph (b) of this article shall be made on the document by the collector at the permanent home port of the vessel unless she is in another port, in which case the collector of the home port of the vessel shall direct on the request of the mortgagee such indorsement to be made at the port where the vessel may be.

(l) The collector shall enter on his mortgage record the day, hour, and minute that (a) the indorsement was made on the vessel's document, (b) the mortgage was received for recording, and (c) the indorsement was recorded.

(m) (1) Record of notice of claim of lien on mortgaged vessel; discharge of lien.—United States Code, title 46, section 925:

(a) The collector of customs of the port of documentation shall upon the request of any person, record notice of his claim of a lien upon a vessel covered by a preferred mortgage, together with the nature, date of creation, and amount of the lien, and the name and address of the person. Any person who has caused notice of his claim of lien to be so recorded shall, upon a discharge in whole or in part of the indebtedness, forthwith file with the collector of customs a certificate of such discharge. The collector of customs shall thereupon record the certificate.

(2) The collector shall require such claim to be in the form of an affiavit which shall be firmly attached to the preferred mortgage record and properly indexed.

(n) When the mortgagor under paragraph (m) of this article presents for record a certificate of discharge of mortgage, such certificate shall be in the nature of a satisfaction of mortgage, similar to that now filed on commerce Form 1363.

(o) (1) United States Code, title 46, section 926 (c):

In case of a change in the port of documentation of a vessel of the United States, no bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage shall be recorded at the new port of documentation unless there is furnished to the collector of customs of such port, together with the copy of the bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage to be recorded, a certified copy of the record of the vessel at the former port of documentation furnished by the collector of such port. The collector of customs at the new port of documentation is authorized and directed to record such certified copy. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, sec. 30, subsec. H, 41 Stat. 1002.)

(2) In case of a change of home port the collector at the previous home port of the vessel shall furnish the record of title required therein, such record of title to include, in addition to the other data required, any claims of liens upon the vessel filed. For example, if a vessel is permanently documented at New York and while she is at Portland there is a change of ownership requiring her to be redocumented with home port at Seattle, and a new preferred mortgage is placed on her at Portland, the collector at Seattle shall instruct the collector at Portland to indorse the documents, who will forward such mortgage after such indorsement to the collector at Seattle, where such mortgage, together with the bill of sale, is to be recorded together with a certified copy of the record of title of the vessel furnished by the collector at New York to the collector at Seattle.

(p) When a collector forwards to another port a certified copy of the record of a vessel because of change of home port, he shall permit no further records or liens to be recorded in his office in connection with that vessel, but such records and liens are to be recorded in the new home port.

(q) The provisions of paragraph (o) (1) of this article apply in the case of all documented vessels where there is a change of home port and where bills of sale, conveyances, or mortgages are to be recorded.

(r) In case of change of ownership without change of port of documentation, the copy of the record is not required.

(s) Where there is a change of home port of a vessel without a change of title and no bills of sale, conveyances, or mortgages are at that time to be recorded, the certified copy of the record should be filed at the new home port.

(t) When a vessel is sold under order of a court to a private owner, the evidence of ownership by the private owner shall not be recorded at a new home port until the certified copy of the record from the previous home port has been furnished. The same procedure is to be followed where a vessel is sold by a department of the Federal Government to a private owner, provided that while Government-owned the vessel was not documented but was documented prior to being owned by the Government.

(u) When a vessel covered by a preferred mortgage is sold at a United States marshal's sale under the provision of section 961 (c), United States Code, title 46, without intervention on the part of the mortgagee, the vessel is sold free and clear of the preferred mortgage and may be redocumented without indorsement. The court shall however, upon the request of the mortgagee, the libellant, or any intervenor, require the purchaser at such sale to give and the mortgagee to accept a new mortgage of the vessel for the remainder of the term of the original mortgage. The conditions of such new mortgage shall be the same, so far as practicable, as those of the original mortgage and shall be subject to the approval of the court.

(v) When a preferred mortgage is assigned, a notation of the assignment of the mortgage shall be written across the indorsement of the preferred mortgage on the vessel's document.

(w) A preferred mortgage may not be placed upon a vessel which is not a documented vessel of the United States.

(x) Notice of claim of lien on a vessel, under paragraph (m) of this article, shall be received for record only in the event the vessel is covered by a preferred mortgage.

(y) A copy of the complete record at the former home port would, in certain cases, make a voluminous certificate which it would be impracticable to furnish. In such cases collectors may prepare certificates on Commerce Form 1321.

(z) A collector is not required to forward any record not found in his office.

ART. 68. Certificates and fees.—(a) In furnishing the certified copy of the record of the vessel at a former port of documentation, collectors will use Commerce Form 1331.

(b) The fees collected under subsection I are to be deposited as navigation fees and so reported. The word "folio", as used in that subsection, means 100 words, counting each figure as a word (U. S. Code, title 28, sec. 607). Bulky Mortgages in printed or typewritten form submitted for recording need not be copied in the mortgage record book, but may be firmly attached in such book after comparison with the original in accordance with existing practice. Collectors will, however, charge the same fees as if such mortgages had been actually copied in the book.

(c) In computing fees to be charged for recording bills of sale, mortgages, and satisfaction of mortgages, collectors shall be guided by the following rules in counting the words:

(1) All typewritten, pen-written, and printed words, if not erased (except as provided in (3) below), are to be counted.

(2) All printed words, whether erased or not, if found in the register, enrollment, or license cited (except as provided in (3)), are to be counted.

(3) References to acts of Congress and explanatory words, usually in parentheses or printed as notes, and the printed and written customhouse indorsement under the commerce form number, are not to be counted.

(d) The provisions of subsection I for the collection of fees apply only to the items covered by the ship mortgage act, which are as follows:

Subsection C (b). Recording bills of sale, conveyances, and mortgages.

Subsection D (a). Preferred mortgage indorsement on documents.

Subsection E. Certified copies of mortgage.

Subsection G (a). Recording notice of claim of lien and discharge of same on vessels covered by a preferred mortgage.

Subsection G (b). Recording discharge of mortgage and indorsement of such discharge on documents of vessels.

Subsection H (c) Certified copy of the record at former home port.

Subsection I (1). Certificate setting forth the names of the owners, interest held by each owner, the material facts as to each bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage or lien or incumbrance on the vessel.

Subsection I (2). Certified copies of bills of sale, conveyances, mortgages, notices of claim of lien, or certificates of discharge of mortgages or liens. (See Table of Fees, art. 210.)

(e) The words "certificate or certified copy" used in subsection I apply only to certificates and certified copies provided for in the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920.

(f) The requirement of the subsection O (a) that the documents of a vessel covered by a preferred mortgage may not be surrendered without the approval of the United States Maritime Commission and the mortgagee, does not refer to renewals of licenses or changes of documents incident to change of trade where the ownership and home port remain the same.

ART. 69. Collector's liability under the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920.—

(a) United States Code, Title 46, Section 941 (c):

If any person enters into any contract secured by, or upon the credit of, a vessel of the United States covered by a preferred mortgage, and suffers pecuniary loss by reason of the failure of the collector of customs, or any officer, employee, or agent thereof properly to perform any duty required of the collector under the provisions of this chapter, the collector of customs shall be liable to such person for damages in the amount of such loss. * * * (June 5, 1920, c. 250, sec. 30, subsec. J, 41 Stat. 1003.)

(b) Collectors will without delay, when any papers or documents referred to in this and the preceding article are presented for record, officially file and record them in the order in which they are presented. They will also when required so to do make the indorsements provided for in this article, and will make and deliver certified copies of preferred mortgages, and promptly record all claims of liens and discharges of mortgages.

(c) Collectors are especially instructed to see that any indorsement of preferred mortgage on a surrendered marine document is copied on the new marine document.

ART. 70. Vessels on Great Lakes.—(a) Vessels of the United States navigating the waters of the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers, otherwise than by sea, must receive special enrollment and be licensed before they are employed on those waters in the foreign or coastal trade. Vessels so documented operating on the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters may, without change in the form of enrollment and license engage in the taking within such waters of fish of every description. The enrollment and license shall be in the special form provided for vessels in the domestic and foreign trade otherwise than by sea, viz, commerce Form 1273. Commerce Form 1290 is used on the Great Lakes for all yachts, without regard to size. Registers of American vessels arriving from a foreign port must be deposited in the customhouse, under the provisions of article 113, and any marine documents of a vessel in port may be left in the customhouse for surrender and exchange.

(b) Such vessels are not required by law to have certificates of registry, but they are in every other respect liable to the rules, regulations, and penalties in force relating to registered and to enrolled and licensed vessels.

ART. 71. Transfer from lakes to seaboard.—(a) When a vessel so enrolled and licensed leaves the inland waters of the frontier and engages in trade on the seaboard, she must surrender her frontier papers and take out coasting papers; and if bound on a foreign voyage partly by sea she must take, in lieu of her frontier papers, a certificate of registry (commerce Form 1265). (For procedure for vessels engaged in trade between Great Districts Nos. 1 and 6, see article 199 (d) (2).)

(b) If she sails for a frontier port, and it is intended to clear her thence for a port in the United States on the seaboard or for a foreign port, in part by sea, she shall be furnished with a certificate of registry before starting on her voyage. Vessels neglecting these precautions are subject to the penalties and disabilities imposed on vessels engaged in trade without legal documents.

ART. 72. Registry of foreign-built vessels under Revised Statutes 4132, as amended.—(a) Applications for registry of American-owned, foreign-built vessels under section 5 of the Panama Canal Act (class 9), as amended by the act of August 18, 1914, shall be made to the collector of customs at the proposed home port.

(b) In lieu of the builder's certificate required for American-built vessels, the application shall be accompanied by the ship's foreign registry and a certified copy of the ship's foreign measurement certificate, if there be one, and a certificate of measurement as required by law.

(c) Certificates of inspection by the United States local inspectors of steam vessels must be supplied, except as to such sail and other vessels as do not require inspection before registry. Certificates from the local inspectors must, however, be supplied as to the safety of such vessels to carry dry and perishable cargo. (See art. 90 (a).)

(d) The ownership and citizenship of owners must be established as in the case of vessels built in the United States. The sale of vessels must be unconditional and complete. Any reservation to the vendor of a right to repurchase the vessel will be sufficient cause for refusal to issue a register. The bona fides of the purchase and the ability to purchase must be established by the vendee. A special form of affidavit is provided for this purpose.

(e) Foreign-built vessels owned prior to February 1, 1920, by persons citizens of the United States, and those owned by the United States on June 5, 1920, when sold to and owned by persons citizens of the United States, are unlimited as to documents and trade so long as they continue in such ownership. When a marine document is issued to such a vessel, the following notation must be made thereon:

As amended by section 5 of the Panama Canal Act and by the act of August 18, 1914, and sections 22 and 38 of the Merchant Marine Act of June 5, 1920. This vessel is 75 per cent American owned as required by law and may engage in the coastwise trade so long as so owned and no longer.

(f) Foreign-built vessels acquired by American citizens subsequent to February 1, 1920, or June 5, 1920, as the case may be, are limited to the foreign trade. When a register is issued to such a vessel, the following notation must be made thereon:

As amended by section 5 of the Panama Canal Act and by the act of August 18, 1914, entitling the vessel to engage only in trade with foreign countries or with the Philippine Islands, American Samoa, and the Island of Guam. This vessel shall not engage in the coastwise trade.

(g) Care should be taken to insure the issuance of the proper document with the appropriate notation in the case of redocumentation.

ART. 73. Foreign-built yachts.—Any foreign-built yacht purchased by a citizen of the United States may be documented under Revised Statutes 4132, as amended (U. S. Code, title 46, sec. 11). The collector of customs may issue to any such yacht owned by a citizen a consolidated certificate of enrollment and yacht license (commerce Form 1290) or a license of yacht under 20 tons (commerce Form 1288) upon the filing of a bill of sale by the owner and upon compliance with the other usual requirements. Any document issued to such yacht shall have written across its face the legend, "This vessel may not engage in coastwise trade."

ART. 74. Certificate of protection.—(a) Any foreign-built undocumented yacht purchased by a citizen of the United States is nevertheless entitled to legal protection as property of a citizen. The collector may issue to any such vessel a certificate that the bill of sale has been recorded and is valid in form and substance. This certificate shall be substantially in the following form:

(b) Foreign-Built American-Owned Yachts

I, ——— ———, collector of customs for the port of ———, State of ———, United States of America, do hereby certify that the bill of sale, bearing date of ———, 19—, of the ——— ——— (Class and name)
net tonnage, sold and transferred by ——— ———, of ———, in ——— to ———, of ———, State of ———, United States of America, is in form and substance valid and effective in law, and has been recorded in this office; and that the said ——— ——— is a citizen of the United States.
(Purchaser)

As witness my hand and seal this ——— day of ———, 19—.

[SEAL] (Signed) ——— ———, Collector.

(c) A separate record shall be kept of these foreign-built, American-owned undocumented yachts, and in the tonnage returns they shall be reported under the caption "Foreign-built undocumented yachts owned by citizens of the United States."

ART. 75. Recorded vessels.—In the documentation of recorded vessels (class 3) the builder's certificate is unnecessary, and the admeasurement also, if the certificate of record correctly indicates the tonnage.

ART. 76. Record of American-built vessels owned by aliens.—(a) A vessel built in the United States, never before documented, and belonging wholly or in part to an alien, may receive a certificate of record on commerce Form 1316. On being purchased or wholly owned by a citizen she is entitled to documents as a vessel of the United States.

(b) Before the issuance of a certificate of record the collector of the district shall require the builder to swear that the vessel was built by him or under his supervision.

(c) The vessel must be measured and the usual certificate of admeasurement filed before the certificate of record is granted to the master of the vessel.

(d) If the parties clearing new vessels, built in the United States for foreign account, under a certificate of record, fail or refuse to furnish a shippers' export declaration (customs Form 7525) to comply with the requirements of class 7999 of the Statistical Classification of Exports, collectors shall prepare such declaration, ascertaining the gross tonnage and value of the vessels from the best obtainable sources.

(e) If an application is made for marine documents for a vessel built in the United States for foreign account which was not originally covered by a certificate of record, evidence must be produced to show the date and place of building and builder's name.

ART. 77. Certificates of record.—Certificates of record shall be regularly numbered; and when recorded vessels are documented as vessels of the United States the certificate must be surrendered, if one has been issued, canceled, and returned to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation.

ART. 78. Prizes and forfeited vessels.—In case of application for documentation of a vessel entitled thereto by reason of having been captured in war by a citizen of the United States and condemned as a lawful prize (class 4) or condemned for a violation of law (class 5), when wholly owned by a citizen, all the requirements relating to documentation, except the builder's certificate, must be complied with, and the collector must be furnished with a properly authenticated copy of the decree of condemnation and the proof of the applicant's ownership. The owner's oath will be modified accordingly.

ART. 79. Misuse of document.—(a) A marine document shall be used solely for the vessel for which it is granted, and shall not be sold, lent, or otherwise disposed of to any person whomsoever. Any master or owner violating the provisions of this section becomes liable to a penalty not exceeding $500.

(b) Whenever any certificate of registry, enrollment, or license, or other record or document granted in lieu thereof, to any vessel, is knowingly and fraudulently obtained, or used for any vessel such vessel, with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, shall be liable to forfeiture.

ART. 80. Penalty for trading, etc., without license.—United States Code, title 46, section 319:

Every vessel of 20 tons or upward, entitled to be documented as a vessel of the United States, other than registered vessels found trading between district and district, or between different places in the same district, or carrying on the fishery, without being enrolled and licensed, and every vessel of less than 20 tons and not less than 5 tons burden found trading or carrying on the fishery as aforesaid without a license obtained as provided by this chapter, shall be liable to a fine of $30 at every port of arrival without such enrollment or license, and if she have on board any merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture (sea stores excepted), or any taxable domestic spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors, on which the duties or taxes have not been paid or secured to be paid, she shall, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the lading found on board, be forfeited. Marks, labels, brands, or stamps, indicative of foreign origin, upon or accompanying merchandise or containers of merchandise found on board such vessel, shall be prima facie evidence of the foreign origin of such merchandise. But if the license shall have expired while the vessel was at sea, and there shall have been no opportunity to renew such license, then said fine or forfeiture shall not be incurred. (As amended Aug. 5, 1935, c. 438, title III, secs. 314, 49 Stat. 529.)

(NOTE.—See art. 1102 for penalty applicable to vessels of less than 30 net tons trading without special license under sec. 6, Anti-Smuggling Act, U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1706.)

ART. 81. Malfeasance respecting marine documents.—(a) Officers of the customs should bear in mind the importance of strict vigilance in the issuance and inspection of documents pertaining to vessels. The penalties for malfeasance in this repect are severe and will be enforced.

(b) Every collector or officer who knowingly makes, or is concerned in making, any false register or record, or who knowingly grants, or is concerned in granting, any false certificate of registry or record of or for any vessel, or any other false document whatever touching the same, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this chapter, or who receives any voluntary reward or gratuity for any of the services performed, pursuant thereto; and every surveyor or other person appointed to measure any vessel, who willfully delivers to any collector or comptroller of customs a false description of such vessel, to be registered or recorded, is liable to a fine of $1,000 if the offense relate to a vessel engaged in the foreign trade, or $500 if the vessel is engaged in the domestic trade, and in each case such officer shall be disqualified from holding office under the Government.

(c) The penalty for willful neglect of any officer to do any act enjoined upon him by the statutes relating to vessels is $500, and for the second offense a like fine and, in addition, disqualification from holding office under the Government.

(d) Any person forging, altering, or falsifying any instrument purporting to be an official copy or certificate of the documents or records of any registered vessel is liable to a fine of not more than $1,000 and imprisonment of not more than 3 years; and any person who forges, counterfeits, alters, or falsifies any enrollment, license, certificate, permit, or other document relating to vessels engaged in the domestic trade is liable to a penalty of $500.

(e) Any person who knowingly makes, utters, or publishes a false sea letter, Mediterranean passport, or certificate of registry, or who knowingly avails himself of such documents, is liable to a penalty of not more than $5,000 and, if an officer of the United States, is disqualified from holding any office under the Government.

(f) Any person who assaults, resists, or hinders an officer in the execution of any act or law relating to the enrollment, registry, or licensing of vessels, or any law relating to vessels in domestic trade, or in the execution of the powers or authorities vested in him by any such laws, shall for every such offense for which no other penalty is provided be liable to a penalty of $500.

ART. 82. Inspection of marine documents.—(a) United States Code, title 46, section 277:

Any officer concerned in the collection of the revenue may at all times inspect the register or enrollment or license of any vessel or any document in lieu thereof; and if the master of any such vessel shall not exhibit the same, when required by such officer, he shall be liable to a penalty of $100, unless the failure to do so is willful in which case he shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 and to a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than 1 year, or both. (As amended Aug. 5, 1935, c. 438, title III, sec. 312, 49 Stat. 528.)

(b) The papers of a documented vessel, when such vessel is in commission, shall be on board and accessible to the person in charge except when such papers are in the custody of the collector.

ART. 83. Abstracts of marine documents and accounts of tonnage.—(a) Abstracts of documents issued and surrendered will be kept according to commerce Form No. 1202.[1]

(b) The record of temporary and permanent documents of the same class should be combined.

(c) Separate accounts should be kept for steam, gas, sail, canal boats, and barges. The number of vessels and the amount of registered tonnage thereof outstanding on the last day of the preceding quarter should be entered at the head of the debit side of the account; underneath a brief record should be made of every marine document issued during the quarter.

(d) Except where a document is granted for a new vessel, the former document shall be surrendered when a new document issues; but where the loss, destruction, or mislaying of the former document is proved a copy thereof shall be surrendered.

(e) In the column headed "Cause for issue or surrender" the reasoning for granting the document is to be inserted.

(f) In the columns headed "Surrendered documents" a reference must be made to the surrendered documents, citing kind, number, date, and place of issue or surrender.

(g) The first entry on commerce Form No. 1202 presupposes a register to have been granted to a new vessel. As this is the vessels's first document, the year and place of building should be given.

(h) The second entry presupposes an enrollment to have been surrendered and a register to have been issued. The enrollment should be credited on another abstract.

(i) The third entry, that a vessel has been sold within the district to which she belongs, which circumstance is expressed by the words "property changed."

(j) The fourth entry, that a vessel previously owned and documented in another district has been purchased by citizens of this district, which is expressed by the words "property and district changed."

(k) The fifth entry, that legal proof has been made of the loss, destruction, or mislaying of a permanent register issued within the district, and that another register has been granted.

(l) The sixth entry, that a vessel has been altered in rig from bark to steamer. The surrendered register has been credited on this abstract and the new one should be debited on the abstract of registered steamer.

(m) The seventh entry, that a vessel belonging in the district has arrived home under a temporary document issued to her in another district, and that this document has been surrendered and a permanent register issued.

(n) The eighth entry is that of a vessel whose tonnage has been changed.

(o) The ninth entry is that of a vessel whose name has been changed.

(p) It will be observed that all documents issued are to be entered on the debit side of this account, and that counter entries on the credit side are to be made whenever such documents are surrendered, so that the balance of the account may at all times exhibit the amount of tonnage outstanding in the district.

(q) Columns 1, 2, and 7 should be used only for documents issued; column 9 only for documents surrendered; all other columns for documents either issued or surrendered.

(r) A duplicate of each marine document issued must be forwarded to the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation on the date of issue. If there is a surrendered marine document, it should accompany the duplicate.

ART. 84. Accounts of marine documents.—(a) Separate accounts are to be kept of registered, enrolled, licensed vessels, and pleasure yachts. For convenience of reference, a list is appended of the accounts to be kept.

(b) A separate book is not needed for each account except where required by the volume of business, but each account should be kept separately in the appropriate book of abstracts.

ART. 85. Quarterly returns of tonnage.—(a) Quarterly returns, consisting of a transcript of the foregoing accounts, shall be made to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation.

(b) Every surrendered document shall be indorsed similarly to the record thereof in the record book. Quarterly returns of tonnage shall be accompanied by a letter of transmittal (commerce Form 1201).

ART. 86. Annual list of merchant vessels and yachts.—(a) The collector or deputy collector of customs at each port of documentation must prepare as soon as possible after June 30 of each year a list of all vessels to which marine documents were issued at that port and were not surrendered on that date (commerce Form 12 for merchant vessels and 10 for yachts). The totals on each part of this list (registered steam metal, enrolled sailing wood, etc.) should agree with the totals on the corresponding abstracts of tonnage for the quarter ended June 30 of the same year. A clear copy of this list must be sent to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation and a duplicate retained for office use.

(b) The collector or deputy collector must examine the retained list before the end of each fiscal year and, if it is found that any vessel appearing thereon has been lost, abandoned, or sold to aliens, or for any other reason should be eliminated, must notify the owner to surrender the original marine document, or file oath to loss of original. The reason for the surrender of the marine document must be entered in the records and credit for the surrender taken on the quarterly abstracts.

ART. 87. Change of name of documented vessel.—(a) The name of a documented vessel shall not be changed except with the consent and approval of the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation, under penalty of forfeiture.

(b) The application for change in name shall be executed under oath by the owner of the vessel, addressed to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation, and submitted in duplicate to the collector of customs at the home port of the vessel.

(c) The application must state the change desired, the reasons therefor, place and date of build, official number, rig, gross tonnage, and the name or names of the owner of the vessel. It must state in detail a list of all liens, mortgages, etc., on record against the vessel, and the consent of the mortgagee or other beneficiary under each lien or mortgage must be submitted in writing with the application.

(d) Certificates, commerce Form 1330, from the collectors at each port where the vessel has been permanently documented must also be submitted. If an abstract and certificate of record of title, commerce Form 1331, from each port of permanent documentation since the passage of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, are on file with the collector at the home port, such collector may issue commerce Form 1330, noting that commerce Forms 1331 are on file.

(e) Application under the new name for the approval of the home port must also be submitted in the case of change of ownership or change of home port only.

(f) In transmitting the application the collector shall note the date and place of last inspection. In case the vessel is not usually inspected, the local inspectors are authorized to make special examinations and to furnish necessary certificate of seaworthiness.

(g) The collector shall see that there has been compliance with these preliminaries and thereupon forward the application with his recommendation, giving any reasons within his knowledge for or against the change.

(h) If the application is approved by the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation, the collector shall collect the fee prescribed in article 88, deposit it as a navigation fee, inserting in commerce Form 1008 the old name of the vessel, her gross tonnage, and the amount of the fee collected. Permission for change of name is not effective until the fee is paid.

(i) The order for the change in name must be published in some daily or weekly paper at or nearest to the port of documentation, in at least four consecutive issues.

(j) The cost of procuring evidence and of advertising must be paid by the applicant.

(k) Copies of the newspaper in which the advertisement appeared, together with receipt for the payment of the cost thereof, shall be furnished by the applicant to the collector of customs and by him forwarded to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation with a copy of the new document issued.

(l) An accurate index of changes of names of documented vessels under old and new names, with dates of authorization, etc., should be kept by the collector.

(m) A vessel formerly documented, sold to the United States, and resold to citizens, shall be redocumented under the old name and official number; but a vessel never before documented and sold by the United States to citizens, may be documented under any name.

ART. 88. Fee for change of vessel's name.—When the name of a vessel is changed, the following fees are to be paid by the owners of vessels to collectors of customs, to be deposited in the Treasury by such collectors as navigation fees: For vessels 99 gross tons and under, $10; for vessels 100 gross tons and up to and including 499 gross tons, $25; for vessels 500 gross tons and up to and including 999 gross tons, $50; for vessels, 1,000 gross tons and up to and including 4,999 gross tons, $75; for vessels 5,000 gross tons and over, $100.

ART. 89. Yacht privileges and obligations.—(a) Licensed yachts are required by law to use the signal prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, as follows: "The American ensign substituting in the field a white foul anchor, surrounded by 13 white stars in a circle, in lieu of a star for each State." This ensign shall not be carried by yachts of foreign ownership. Any vessel owned by a citizen of the United States may carry the United States flag. The union jack of yachts should be made up on horizontal rows of stars. Yachts duly licensed shall not transport merchandise nor carry passengers for pay.

(b) For any violation of the provisions of the law under which they are licensed, yachts are liable to seizure and forfeiture.

(c) Masters or other persons in command of yachts must exhibit their marine documents on demand of any officer of customs, and submit to such examination as he shall see fit to make for the due protection of the public revenue.

(d) A commission may be issued by the Secretary of Commerce to a yacht belonging to any regularly organized and incorporated yacht club to identify such yacht and its owner during foreign voyages, upon application of the owner (commerce Form 1250), submitted through the collector of customs. This commission is a token of credit to any United States official and to the authorities of any foreign power, for privileges enjoyed under it.

(e) Such commissions shall be regarded as conclusive evidence of nationality. On the return of such vessels to the United States they are required to make entry at the customhouse and surrender their commissions.

(f) Whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the President of the United States that yachts belonging to any regularly organized yacht club of the United States are allowed to arrive at and depart from any foreign port and to cruise in the waters of such port without entering or clearing at the customhouse thereof and without the payment of any charges for entering or clearing, dues, duty per ton, tonnage taxes, or charges for cruising licenses, the Secretary of Commerce may authorize and direct the customs authorities at the various ports of entry of the United States to allow yachts from such foreign ports belonging to any regularly organized yacht club thereof to arrive at and depart from any port of the United States and to cruise in waters of the United States without the payment of any charges for entering or clearing, dues, duty per ton, or tonnage taxes, but the Secretary of Commerce may, in his discretion, direct that such foreign yachts shall be required to obtain licenses to cruise, in a form prescribed by him, before they shall be allowed under the foregoing provisions to cruise in waters of the United States. Such licenses shall be issued without cost to such yachts and shall prescribe such limitations as to length of time, direction, and place of cruising and action, and such other particulars as the Secretary of Commerce may deem proper.

(g) Undocumented yachts, not nationalized, or shown to be yachts, by proper registry, enrollment, or regular marine documents, foreign or otherwise, are subject to tonnage tax and light money under sections 4219 and 4225, Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 46, secs. 121 and 128), on entry from a foreign port, in the same manner as other vessels in ballast, which are not licensed as yachts or public vessels. Section 4225, Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 46, sec. 128), will not apply if undocumented yachts are actually carrying, on arriving in the United States, a sea letter or certificate under section 4226, Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 46, sec. 129), and if oath is made before the collector of customs as prescribed by that section. No tonnage tax should be imposed under section 36 of the act of August 5, 1909. Such undocumented yachts, the property of American citizens, are not required to enter or clear or to pay tonnage tax or light money on arriving at or departing from a port in the United States on a coastwise voyage terminating in the same great district. On foreign voyages they must enter or clear, as the case may be.

(h) All yachts, except those of 15 gross tons or under, shall, upon their return from a foreign country, make due entry at the customhouse of the port at which they first arrive, but the master of any yacht arriving from a foreign port with dutiable articles on board shall report to the customs officer at the port or place at which the vessel arrives and shall deliver to the said officer a manifest of all dutiable articles brought from a foreign country in such yacht.

(i) At the first port of arrival of a foreign-built yacht purchased by a resident of the United States the following requirements of law should be observed:

(1) The vessel must be entered under the navigation laws. Undocumented vessels may be subjected to penal tonnage taxes (see R. S. 4219 and 4225 and art. 133 of these regulations).

(2) The vessel must be documented or awarded a motor-boat number.

(3) The liability of the yacht to duty under paragraph 370, Tariff Act of 1930, must be determined.

(4) If dutiable, the vessel must be entered as an importation.

ART. 90. Vessels required to be inspected.—(a) Vessels described as follows must, before receiving marine documents, undergo inspection by the proper officers and receive certificates that the laws relating to their construction and equipment have been complied with:

1. All American steam vessels over 65 feet in length, and steam-propelled tugboats and towboats of any length, excepting public vessels of the United States and boats propelled in whole or in part by steam for navigating canals, but including vessels owned or operated by the United States Maritime Commission or any corporation organized or controlled by it.

2. All vessels above 15 gross tons carrying freight or passengers for hire, but not engaged in fishing as a regular business, propelled by gas, fluid, naphtha, or electric motors. Motor vessels of 15 gross tons plus a fraction of a ton are considered to be over 15 gross tons within the meaning of section 4426, Revised Statutes, as amended (U. S. Code, title 46, sec. 404). Motor vessels of 15 gross tons or less are exempt from these requirements.

3. Ferryboats, canal boats, yachts, or other small vessels of like character propelled by steam, except those included in paragraph 1 of article 91.

4. All American sail vessels over 700 tons carrying passengers for hire.

5. All American seagoing barges 100 gross tons or over.

6. All other vessels over 100 gross tons carrying passengers for hire.

7. All foreign private steam vessels carrying passengers from any port of the United States to any other place or country, except that vessels of countries having reciprocal inspection with the United States, are examined only.

(b) When the inspection of a vessel is completed and the United States local inspectors approve the vessel and its equipment throughout, they are required to issue a certificate on commerce Form 841, 852, or 856, verified by the oaths of the inspectors signing it. This certificate must be delivered to the owner or master of the vessel to which it relates, one copy thereof kept on file in the office of the local inspectors, and one copy delivered to the collector of the district in which the inspection has been made, who shall keep it on file in his office.

(c) Upon such inspection and approval the inspectors shall also make and sign a temporary certificate, commerce Form 854, setting forth substantially the fact of such inspection and approval, and shall deliver the same to the master or owner of the vessel and keep a copy on file in their office. The temporary certificate shall be carried and exposed by vessels in the same manner as is provided for the regular certificate. The period for which it shall be in force will be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors.

(d) The temporary certificate during such period, and prior to the delivery to the master or owner of the regular certificate, takes the place of the regular certificate, and is also subject to revocation in the manner and under the conditions provided in section 4453, Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 46, sec. 435).

(e) When the boards of local inspectors are located at ports of entry other than the headquarters port the copy of the certificate of inspection shall be filed in the office of the deputy collector at such port.

(f) No marine document shall be issued to any vessel required to be inspected, nor shall the license of any such vessel be renewed, until the copy of the certificate of inspection has been filed with the collector or other chief officer of the customs. Officers at ports other than the one at which the copy is filed may require the production of the original certificate before issuing a marine document or renewing a license.

(g) The date of the expiration of the steam inspection should be noted on all marine documents issued to vessels subject to such inspection.

(h) The original certificate delivered to the master or owner of any such vessels shall be placed by such master or owner in a conspicuous place in the vessel where it will be most likely to be observed by passengers and others, and there kept at all times, framed under glass. Where it is not practicable to expose the original certificate, it shall be kept on board to be shown on demand.

(i) No vessel required to be inspected shall be navigated without having on board an unexpired certificate of inspection: Provided, That any vessel operated upon a regularly established line from a port in the United States to a port in a foreign country not contiguous to the United States, whose certificate expires at sea or while the vessel is in a foreign port or a port of the Philippine Islands or Hawaii, may lawfully complete its voyage without incurring the penalties imposed for want of such unexpired certificate, provided such voyage be completed within 30 days after the expiration of the certificate: Provided further, That no such vessel whose certificate of inspection will expire within 15 days of the date of its sailing shall proceed on its voyage to a port of a foreign country not contiguous to the United States without having secured a new certificate of inspection.

(j) Foreign passenger steamers of countries having inspection laws approximating those of the United States, which steamers have unexpired certificates of inspection regularly issued in the respective countries to which they belong are subject to no other inspection than such as is necessary to satisfy the local inspectors that their condition and equipment are as stated in current certificates of inspection.

(k) Any vessel subject to inspection navigated without complying with the provisions of this article becomes liable to a penalty of $500 for each offense.

(m) Cargo vessels documented under the laws of the United States and cargo vessels of foreign countries may carry not to exceed 16 "persons in addition to the crew", and shall not be held to be "passenger vessels" subject to inspection, but are not exempt from the laws, rules, and regulations respecting life-saving equipment; and such "persons" must first be notified by the owner, agent, or master, of the vessel of the presence on board of any dangerous articles, as defined by law, or of any other condition or circumstance which would constitute a risk of safety for passenger or crew.

(n) Failure to give the above-mentioned notice of "risk of safety" subjects the vessel to a penalty of $500.

(o) An application in writing to carry such persons in addition to crew should be made in all cases to the collector, who will refer it to the local inspectors for examination and certification as to the life-saving equipment for the vessel.

(p) When application is made for admission to American registry under the provisions of the act of August 18, 1914, all foreign-built vessels that are ordinarily subject to inspection must be regularly inspected by the United States Steamboat Inspection Service; but foreign-built vessels that are not ordinarily subject to inspection must be certified by the United States Steamboat Inspection Service as safe to carry dry and perishable cargo.

ART. 91. Vessels not required to be inspected.—Vessels described as follows are not subject to annual inspection:

1. Motor boats as defined in article 95, but the engine, boiler, or other operating machinery of such vessels which are more than 40 feet and not more than 65 feet in length are subject to a limited inspection and to approval of the design thereof.

2. All vessels propelled by gas, fluid, naphtha, or electric motors, and of 15 gross tons or less, without regard to length.

3. All vessels propelled by gas, fluid, naphtha, or electric motors, of above 15 gross tons, engaged in fishing as a regular business or not carrying freight or passengers for hire.

4. All motor propelled vessels carrying products of their owners only.

5. All yachts propelled by gas, fluid, naphtha, or electric motors, without regard to size.

6. All sail vessels of 700 gross tons or less or when over 700 gross tons, if they do not carry passengers for hire.

7. All barges of 100 gross tons or less.

8. All barges of 100 gross tons and over, if not seagoing and not carrying passengers for hire.

9. All scows, pile drivers, etc., without propelling machinery, except seagoing barges of 100 gross tons and over.

10. All rowboats propelled by oars, boats operated by hand-propelled machinery, dredge boats propelled by cable, ferryboats propelled by chain or cable, etc., if machinery is on shore.

11. All foreign vessels except steam passenger vessels. Steam passenger vessels of countries whose laws approximate those of the United States are subject only to sufficient inspection to satisfy the local inspectors that the condition of the vessels, boilers, and life-saving equipments is as stated in the current certificates of inspection.

12. All vessels navigating waters wholly within a state.

13. All vessels navigating canals which are not navigable waters of the United States.

14. All public vessels of the United States.

15. All vessels under provisional certificates of registry.

ART. 92. License to carry gunpowder.—No steam vessel employed in the carriage of passengers shall carry gunpowder without having conspicuously posted on board a certificate issued by the local inspectors authorizing the carriage of such gunpowder. Whenever any passenger steam vessel receives or carries gunpowder on board without having such certificates posted as required, or carries gunpowder in a place or in a manner not authorized by the certificate such vessel becomes liable to a penalty of $100 for each offense.

ART. 93. Officers' licenses.—(a) Every vessel of the United States must be commanded by a citizen of the United States. Any vessel whose officers are not citizens of the United States shall pay a tax of 50 cents per ton.

(b) All the officers of vessels of the United States who have charge of a watch, including pilots, shall be citizens of the United States. The word "officers" includes the chief engineer and each assistant engineer in charge of a watch on vessels propelled wholly or in part by steam.

(c) The following officers must be licensed by the Steamboat Inspection Service, and licenses may not be lawfully issued to any but citizens of the United States.

1. Masters, chief mates, and second and third mates, if in charge of a watch, engineers and pilots of all steam vessels.

2. Masters and chief mates of sail vessels of over 700 gross tons.

3. Masters of all other vessels over 100 gross tons carrying passengers for hire.

(d) Where, on a foreign voyage, or on a voyage from an Atlantic to a Pacific port of the United States, a vessel is for any reason deprived of the services of a watch officer below the grade of master, his place, or a vacancy caused by the promotion of another officer to such place, may be supplied by a person not a citizen of the United States until the first return of such vessel to its home port, without incurring any penalty or penal tax.

(e) Masters and mates may be licensed as pilots also, but where the master of a steam vessel of over 150 gross tons is licensed as a pilot also, the license must be that of a first-class pilot.

ART. 94. Citizenship of crew of vessel in ocean mail service.—(a) Upon each departure from the United States of a vessel employed in ocean mail service under the act of May 22, 1928, one-half of the crew (crew including all employees of the ship other than officers) shall be citizens of the United States, and after May 22, 1932, two-thirds of the crew, as above defined, shall be citizens of the United States.

(b) Where there is a United States shipping commissioner he shall certify that according to the shipping articles ——— persons employed on the ——— vessel are citizens of the United States, and where there is no shipping commissioner the collector or deputy collector shall furnish a similar certificate.

ART. 95. Regulation of motor boats.—(a) The words "motor boat" include every vessel propelled by machinery and not more than 65 feet in length except tugboats and towboats propelled by steam. The length shall be measured from end to end over the deck, excluding sheer.

INSPECTION

(b) The engine, boiler, or other operating machinery of all motor boats over 40 feet in length and propelled by machinery driven by steam shall be subject to a limited inspection by the local inspectors and to their approval of the design thereof.

(c) The inspection and approval of the design of the engine, boiler, or other operating machinery of motor boats over 40 feet and not more than 65 feet in length, propelled by machinery driven by steam, is in lieu of the inspection of steam vessels now provided by sections 4417, 4418, and 4426, Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 46, secs. 391, 392, 404). All steam vessels more than 65 feet in length are subject to inspection as heretofore. Motor boats propelled otherwise than by steam, of above 15 gross tons, carrying freight or passengers for hire, but not engaged in fishing as a regular business, are subject to inspection whether over or under 65 feet in length.

LIGHTS

(d) Motor boats are divided into three classes as follows:

Class 1. Less than 26 feet in length.

Class 2. 26 feet or over and less than 40 feet in length.

Class 3. 40 feet or over and not more than 65 feet in length.

(e) Every motor boat in all weathers from sunset to sunrise shall carry the following kinds of lights, and during such time no other lights which may be mistaken for those prescribed shall be exhibited.

(2) A combined lantern in the fore part of the vessel and lower than the white light aft showing green to starboard and red to port, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on opposite sides of the vessel.

(g) Classes 2 and 3.—(1) A bright white light in the fore part of the vessel as near the stem as practicable, so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 20 points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light 10 points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on either side. The glass or lens shall be of not less than the following dimensions:

Class 2. 19 square inches.

Class 3. 31 square inches.

(2) A white light aft to show all around the horizon.

(3) On the starboard side a green light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the starboard side.

(4) On the port side a red light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the port side.

(h) The glasses or lenses in the said side lights shall be of not less than the following dimensions:

Class 2. 16 square inches.

Class 3. 25 square inches.

(i) The glasses or lenses prescribed for motor boats of classes 2 and 3 shall be fresnel or fluted. These lights shall be fitted with inboard screens of sufficient height, and so set as to prevent their being seen across the bow, and shall be of not less than the following dimensions:

Class 2. 18 inches long.

Class 3. 24 inches long.

(j) Motor boats, when propelled by sail and machinery, or under sail alone, shall carry the colored lights suitably screened, but not the white lights.

(k) The lights provided for in this article are running lights in lieu of the lights prescribed, respectively, by article 2 of the act approved June 7, 1897, entitled "An act to adopt regulations for preventing collisions upon certain harbors, rivers, and inland waters of the United States"; rule 3 of the act approved February 8, 1895, entitled "An act to regulate navigation on the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters"; and rules 3, 5, 6, and 7 of section 4233 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 33, secs. 312, 314, 315, and 316), governing western rivers.

(l) The lights provided for in this article are not in conflict with the anchor lights, lights for pilot and fishing vessels, and other lights provided in the acts above cited. Thus the anchor lights for motor boats on inland waters will remain as prescribed in article 11 of the act of June 7, 1897, as follows:

A vessel under 150 feet in length when at anchor shall carry forward, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding 20 feet above the hull, a white light, in a lantern so constructed as to throw a clear, uniform, and unbroken light, visible all around the horizon, at a distance of at least 1 mile.

(m) Where motor boats of class 1 carry a white light forward and aft and regulation side lights instead of two-color combination light forward and white light aft, as required by the act of June 9, 1910, collectors of customs and other officers until further notice need not report such lights as violations.

(n) No penalty is incurred by motor boats for a failure to carry lights between the hours of sunrise and sunset.

(o) If a motor boat, through temporary disablement of machinery or lack of gasoline, finds it necessary to proceed under sail the white lights should be extinguished, and she should proceed with her colored lights only.

(p) The aft light should be higher and so placed as to form a range with the forward light and should be clear of house awnings and other obstructions.

(q) The law does not specify the size of lights to be carried on motor boats of class 1. Such lights should be large enough, however, to accomplish the purpose intended. Lenses not less than 3 inches in diameter are considered a compliance with the law.

Whistle, Fog Horn, and Bell

(r) Every motor boat shall be provided with a whistle or other sound-producing mechanical appliance capable of producing a blast of 2 seconds or more in duration. A blast of at least 2 seconds shall be deemed a prolonged blast within the meaning of the law.

(s) Every motor boat of class 2 or 3 shall carry an efficient fog horn and an efficient bell. On vessels of class 3, the bell shall be not less than 8 inches across the mouth. The word "efficient" must be taken in its ordinary sense, considered with reference to the purpose for which intended, namely, the production of certain signals.

(t) No particular size or style of whistle, fog horn, or bell is prescribed (except the bell on vessels of class 3), provided such appliance is sufficient for the use for which intended.

(u) A mouth whistle capable of producing a blast of 2 seconds or more in duration which can be heard for at least one-half a mile has been held to be in compliance with the law.

(v) Foghorns may not take the place of whistles on motor boats of classes 2 and 3.

Licensed Officers and Life Preservers

(w) Every motor boat carrying passengers for hire shall carry one life preserver, of the sort prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, for every passenger carried, and no such boat, while so carrying passengers for hire, shall be operated or navigated except in charge of a person duly licensed for such service by the local board of inspectors. The only officer required to be carried on motor boats, within the contemplation of the act of June 9, 1910, is the licensed operator provided for in this article. A motor boat hired at a launch livery, if operated by the liveryman or his employees, is construed as carrying passengers for hire when carrying any one other than the operator; but not if operated by the hirer himself, unless he carries additional persons and receives compensation therefor.

(x) Every motor boat not carrying passengers for hire must have life preservers or life belts or buoyant cushions or ring buoys or other devices sufficient to sustain afloat every person on board and so placed as to be readily accessible, and these must be of types approved by the Board of Supervising Inspectors. This includes members of the crew, children, and babies.

(y) In addition the Department of Commerce authorizes life preservers and buoyant cushions for motor boats not carrying passengers for hire, under the following conditions: Each life preserver or buoyant cushion shall be capable of sustaining afloat for a continuous period of 24 hours an attached weight, so arranged that whether the said weight be submerged or not there shall be a direct downward gravitation pull upon such life preserver or cushion of at least 20 pounds. If a buoyant cushion is furnished for more than one person, its capacity must be proportionately greater.

(z) No such life preservers or buoyant cushions stuffed or filled with granulated cork or other loose granulated material and no pneumatic life preservers or cushions will be approved.

(aa) Planks, gratings, floorings, oars, corks on ropes or fish nets, empty kegs or casks, wooden boxes, small boats in tow, etc., are not approved as substitutes for life preservers, life belts, buoyant cushions, or ring buoys, but wooden life floats made of light buoyant wood and equipped with hand holds may be used, the dimensions of each of which shall be not less than 4 feet in length, 12 inches in width, and 1¾ inches in thickness, and shall not exceed 25 pounds in weight.

(bb) Samples of other substitutes for the articles mentioned must first be submitted to the Supervising Inspector General, Steamboat Inspection Service, for examination and approval.

Fire-Extinguishing Apparatus

(cc) Every motor boat, and also every vessel propelled by machinery other than by steam, and more than 65 feet in length, shall carry, ready for immediate use, some apparatus for promptly and effectually extinguishing burning gasoline.

Fire extinguishers of a type approved by the department must be carried on all motor boats when being navigated. All motor boats, irrespective of length, must be so equipped.

Violations and Penalties

(dd) The penalty for violating any of the provisions of the foregoing sections of this article is a fine not exceeding $100. The motor boat shall be liable for the said penalty and may be seized and proceeded against, by way of libel, in the district court of the United States for any district within which such vessel may be found.

(ee) All violations of the provisions of this article must be reported to the Department of Commerce, regardless of mitigating circumstances, as authority to mitigate and remit the penalties (except for a violation of sec. 6 of the act of June 9, 1910) is vested solely in the Secretary of Commerce.

(ff) Collectors of customs and others will observe that the penalties for violations of existing laws, not in conflict with the act of June 9, 1910, remain unchanged.

(gg) All moneys received as fines or penalties imposed by the courts for violation of the act of June 9, 1910, should be paid to the clerk of the court, and by him turned over to the collector or deputy collector of customs in the district or port in which the case arose.

Documents and Name

(hh) All motor boats of 5 net tons and over engaged in trade must be documented by the collectors of customs. Vessels under 5 net tons are not documented in any case. The marine document (register, enrollment and license, or license) of the vessel obtained from the collector of customs is additional to and must not be confused with the license required for the operator of a motor boat.

(ii) Documented vessels must have name and home port on stern and name on each side of the bow. Tonnage admeasurement is necessary only in case of vessels requiring to be documented.

(jj) Undocumented motor boats, except public vessels and vessels not more than 16 feet in length, temporarily equipped with detachable motors, must have an identification number on each bow.

(kk) Motor boats are required to have on board two copies of the pilot rules to be observed by them, which will be furnished by collectors of customs and local inspectors of steam vessels on request. Copies of Department of Commerce (Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation) Circular No. 236 should be inserted therein.

(ll) The following is a tabulated statement of equipment required for the respective classes:

| | Carrying passengers for hire | | | | Not carrying passengers for hire | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Sec. 3 | Sec. 4 | Sec. 5 | Sec. 6 | Sec. 3 | Sec. 4 | Sec. 5 | Sec. 6 |
| Class 1 | Combination light forward. White light aft. | Whistle | Life preservers. Licensed operator. | Apparatus for extinguishing burning gasoline. | Combination light forward. White light aft. | Whistle | Life preservers or life-saving devices prescribed by act. | Apparatus for extinguishing burning gasoline. |
| Class 2 | White lights forward and aft and colored side lights. | Whistle, bell, and foghorn. | Same as class 1 | Same as class 1 | White lights forward and aft and colored side lights. | Whistle, bell, and foghorn. | Same as class 1 | Same as class 1. |
| Class 3 | Same as class 2 | Same as class 2 | Same as class 1 | Same as class 1 | Same as class 2 | Same as class 2. | Same as class 1 | Same as class 1. |

ART. 96. Numbering and recording undocumented vessels.—(a) Every undocumented vessel, operated in whole or in part by machinery, owned by aliens or citizens and kept in the United States and found on the navigable waters thereof, except public vessels, and vessels not exceeding 16 feet in length measured from end to end over the deck, excluding sheer, temporarily equipped with detachable motors, shall be numbered. Such numbers shall be not less than 3 inches in size and shall be painted or attached to each side of the bow of the vessel in such manner and color as to be distinctly visible and legible. (See art. 18.)

(b) Said numbers, on application of owner or master, shall be awarded by the collector of customs of the district in which the vessel is owned and a record thereof kept in the customhouse of the district in which the owner or managing owner resides. No numbers not so awarded shall be carried on the bow of such vessel.

(c) When a number is awarded to a vessel, a certificate of such award shall be issued by the collector, the said certificate to be at all times kept on board of such vessel and to constitute a document in lieu of enrollment or license.

(d) Notice of destruction or abandonment of such vessels or change in their ownership shall be furnished within 10 days by the owners to the collectors of customs of the districts where such numbers were awarded. Such vessel sold into another district may be numbered anew, but this is not compulsory if the owner desires to retain the original number. The penalty for failure to report the change in ownership is against the new owner and vessel.

(e) The penalty for violation of any provisions of the act shall be $10. Applications for remission or mitigation of the penalty, sworn to and addressed to the Secretary of Commerce, will be received by collectors and transmitted to that official.

(f) After the application (commerce Form 1512) has been received properly filled out by the master or owner, the collector shall award a number to the boat; mail or deliver the certificate (commerce Form 1513) to the applicant; and file the cards by name of owner and by number of boat. Another index by name of boat may be kept by preparing blank cards for that purpose.

ART. 97. Enforcement of navigation laws.—(a) Each port of entry is charged with the duty of enforcing the navigation laws. The allotments made by the Department of Commerce to a district for the hire of vessels in connection with the enforcement of such laws shall be distributed throughout the district where they may be used to best advantage, unless specific instructions are sent to the collector from the Department of Commerce making such distribution.

(b) Whenever a violation of the navigation laws occurs at a port of entry other than the headquarters port, the deputy at such port shall submit to the collector a full report of the occurrence, the law violated, and the penalty incurred. The case will then be handled by the collector in the usual manner, the amount of the penalty to be paid to the collector directly or through the deputy collector at the port of entry. The monthly report of such transactions for the entire district shall be made by the collector.

(c) When violations of the navigation laws are reported to collectors of customs they shall in each case make proper entry thereof on commerce Form 1081, and at the end of the month report all such cases to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation on the above form in accordance with article 1274.

(d) As soon as the collectors receive reports of violations of the navigation laws, they will immediately notify the offender of the penalty incurred, giving full details in each case. The offender shall also be notified by the collector of his privilege of applying to the Secretary of Commerce for relief from the penalties incurred. The application must be sworn to and sent to the collector of customs, and should contain all of the mitigating circumstances of the case. If there is a conflict between the statement of the reporting officer and that of the offender, the offender's statement will be submitted to the reporting officer for a further report. All of the papers will then be submitted to the Secretary of Commerce for action.

(e) In every case submitted to the department the collector of customs should be careful to include the navigation fine number.

SEAMEN'S PROTECTION CERTIFICATES

ART. 98. Applications.—(a) An application for a seaman's protection certificate (commerce Form 1437) must be in writing, signed and sworn to and presented to the collector by the applicant in person, together with satisfactory evidence that he is a seaman and legal evidence that he is a citizen of the United States.

(b) The application must bear the left thumb print, photograph, and signature of the applicant and be stamped with the same serial number as the corresponding certificate (commerce Form 1436). The signature must be written partly across the seal space and partly across the photograph.

(c) The evidence submitted should be noted on the application and attached thereto, except when it is in the form of certificates from permanent records, in which case proper notations of the records may be made on the application and the certificates returned to the applicant. Affidavits are not of this class and should be retained by collectors and attached to the application.

(d) The applications with attached papers should be filed alphabetically by names of applicants.

ART. 99. Evidence that applicant is an American seaman.—Licenses of officers, recent discharges from the United States Navy or merchant marine vessels, and certificates from properly authorized persons showing that the applicants have been engaged for service as members of the crews of outgoing American vessels may be accepted as evidences of seamanship. The last-named certificates should be retained and attached to the applications.

ART. 100. Evidence of American citizenship.—(a) Evidence of citizenship should be of the character described in article 38. The applicant should furnish proof that he either was born in the United States, or was duly naturalized as a citizen thereof, or was born of an American father in a foreign country or at sea.

(b) A foreign-born seaman claiming American citizenship through naturalization based upon his own application to a court, or derived through his parent, must furnish a certificate of naturalization issued by the clerk of the court in which the naturalization occurred, or a certificate of citizenship issued by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Washington, D. C.

ART. 101. Seamen's protection certificates.—(a) The certificate (commerce Form 1436) shall contain a full description of the applicant, particular attention being paid to identification marks, and shall issue only to an American seaman who has produced proof in the manner directed by law that he a native or naturalized citizen of the United States.

(c) The collector of customs or his authorized deputy should sign each certificate and impress the seal of his office thereon.

(d) The certificate should bear the same serial number and date as the application (commerce Form 1437).

ART. 102. Duplicate certificates.—Duplicate certificates on commerce Form 1436, may be issued on presentation of an affidavit as to loss satisfactory to the collector. They shall be issued only by the port which issued the original, and if application is made at any other port the applicant's affidavit accompanied by two photographs of himself should be forwarded to the collector of the port of issue and the duplicate certificate delivered to the applicant when it is received from such port. It should be stamped "duplicate."

ART. 103. General instructions.—(a) Information concerning seamen, desired by relatives and others, may be given in the discretion of collectors.

(b) No certificate should be issued to an applicant under 17 years of age without the written permission of his parents or guardian, acknowledged before a notary public.

(c) Lost and found certificates received in the mails or otherwise should be forwarded to the port of issue and placed in the files with the applications on which they were issued.

ARRIVAL AND ENTRY OF VESSELS

ART. 104. Definitions.—For definition of vessel see article 13.

Tariff Act of 1930, section 401 (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g):

(c) Merchandise.—The word "merchandise" means goods, wares, and chattels of every description and includes merchandise the importation of which is prohibited.

(d) Person.—The word "person" includes partnerships, associations, and corporations.

(e) Master.—The word "master" means the person having the command of the vessel.

(f) Day.—The word "day" means the time from 8 o'clock antemeridian to 5 o'clock postmeridian.

(g) Night.—The word "night" means the time from 5 o'clock postmeridian to 8 o'clock antemeridian.

ART. 105. Boarding of vessels—Production and certification of manifest—Penalties.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 581, as amended by section 203 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of August 5, 1935:

Officers of the customs or of the Coast Guard, and agents or other persons authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury, or appointed for that purpose in writing by a collector may at any time go on board of any vessel or vehicle at any place in the United States or within four leagues of the coast of the United States, without as well as within their respective districts, to examine the manifest and to inspect, search, and examine the vessel or vehicle, and every part thereof, and any person, trunk, or package on board, and to this end to hail and stop such vessel or vehicle, if under way, and use all necessary force to compel compliance, and if it shall appear that any breach or violation of the laws of the United States has been committed, whereby or in consequence of which such vessel or vehicle, or the merchandise, or any part thereof, on board of or imported by such vessel or vehicle is liable to forfeiture, it shall be the duty of such officer to make seizure of the same, and to arrest, or, in case of escape or attempted escape, to pursue and arrest any person engaged in such breach or violation. • • •

Any officer of the customs may at any time go on board of any vessel or vehicle at any place in the United States or within the customs waters or, as he may be authorized, within a customs-enforcement area established under the Anti-Smuggling Act, or at any other authorized place, without as well as within his district, and examine the manifest and other documents and papers, and examine, inspect, and search the vessel or vehicle and every part thereof and any person, trunk, package, or cargo on board, and to this end may hail and stop such vessel or vehicle, and use all necessary force to compel compliance.

If upon the examination of any vessel or vehicle it shall appear that a breach of the laws of the United States is being or has been committed so as to render such vessel or vehicle, or the merchandise, or any part thereof, on board of, or brought into the United States by, such vessel or vehicle, liable to forfeiture or to secure any fine or penalty, the same shall be seized and any person who has engaged in such breach shall be arrested.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 583:

The master of every vessel and the person in charge of every vehicle bound to a port or place in the United States shall deliver to the officer of the customs or Coast Guard who shall first demand it of him, the original and one copy of the manifest of such vessel or vehicle, and such officer shall certify on the back of the original manifest to the inspection thereof and return the same to the master or other person in charge.

(c) The boarding officer, after examination and comparison of the original with the copy, shall certify on the original to its production and on the copy to the fact of its agreement with the original. Certification shall be in the form shown on customs Form 7527 A or B.

(d) One complete manifest must be ready for production on demand, but a reasonable time will be allowed by the boarding officer for the preparation of copies.

(e) The certification must be made on the manifest and not upon a separate paper.

(f) The boarding officer will return the original to the master for his use in entering his vessel, and will forward the copy to the collector.

(g) Tariff Act of 1930, section 439:

Immediately upon arrival and before entering his vessel, the master of a vessel from a foreign port or place required to make entry shall mail or deliver to the comptroller of customs for the district in which the port of entry is located, a copy of the manifest, and shall on entering his vessel make affidavit that a true and correct copy was so mailed or delivered, and he shall also mail or deliver to said comptroller of customs a true and correct copy of any correction of such manifest filed on entry of his vessel. Any master who fails so to mail or deliver such copy of the manifest or correction thereof shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $500.

(h) An uncertified copy of the manifest should also be available for the discharging inspector's use in making up the cargo book.

(i) Tariff Act of 1930, section 584:

Any master of any vessel and any person in charge of any vehicle bound to the United States who does not produce the manifest to the officer demanding the same shall be liable to a penalty of $500: • • •, Provided, That if the collector shall be satisfied that the manifest was lost or mislaid without intentional fraud, • • • said penalties shall not be incurred.

(j) United States Code, title 18, section 122:

If the master of any vessel shall obstruct or hinder, or shall intentionally cause any obstruction or hindrance to any officer in lawfully going on board such vessel, for the purpose of carrying into effect any of the revenue or navigation laws of the United States, he shall for every such offense be liable to a penalty of not more than $2,000 nor less than $500. (As amended Aug. 5, 1935, c. 438, Title III, sec. 307, 49 Stat. 880.)

(k) The right of precedence in boarding vessels at the quarantine station of a port should be yielded to the surgeon of the Public Health Service, and whenever customs, or other Federal officers acting under legal authority, board a vessel from a foreign port, or a vessel from a domestic port having suspicious illness on board, prior to quarantine inspection, such officers shall remain off board until after the vessel has been inspected by the quarantine officer and granted pratique.

ART. 106. Boarding or leaving vessels without permission—Dock passes.—(a) United States Code, title 46, section 158:

It shall not be lawful for the master of any such steamship or other vessel, not in distress, after the arrival of the vessel within any collection district of the United States, to allow any person or persons, except a pilot, officer of the customs, or health officer, agents of the vessel, and consuls, to come on board of the vessel, or to leave the vessel, until the vessel has been taken in charge by an officer of the customs, nor, after charge so taken, without leave of such officer, until all the passengers, with their baggage, have been duly landed from the vessel. • • • (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, sec. 9, 22 Stat. 189; Feb. 9, 1905, c. 564, sec. 1, 33 Stat. 711; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, sec. 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 454:

If any passenger is unladen from any vessel or vehicle without a special license or permit therefor issued by the collector, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle and every other person who knowingly is concerned, or who aids therein, shall each be liable to a penalty of $500 for each such passenger so unladen.

(c) United States Code, title 46, section 708:

Every person who, not being in the United States service, and not being duly authorized by law for the purpose, goes on board any vessel about to arrive at the place of her destination, before her actual arrival, and before she has been completely moored, without permission of the master, shall, for every such offense, be punishable by a fine of not more than $200, and by imprisonment for not more than 6 months; and the master of such vessel may take any such person so going on board into custody, and deliver him up forthwith to any constable or police officer, to be by him taken before any justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to the provisions of this chapter. (R. S., sec. 4606.)

(d) Collectors of customs may upon application issue passes to board incoming vessels after such vessels have been inspected by the quarantine authorities and taken in charge by an officer of the customs as follows: To persons on official business; in cases of imperative emergency; and to representatives of the press. Imperative emergency means the meeting of a passenger accompanying the body of a deceased relative or friend, seriously ill, or who is summoned home by news of affliction or disaster. Passes covering a period not to exceed 6 months may be issued to each duly accredited representatives of a newspaper or press association. No more than one pass shall be issued at one time to any newspaper, except that one substitute pass may be issued for use on occasions when the regular ship-news representative is unable to serve. Passes for single trips may be issued on special occasions, to duly accredited newspaper representatives, when reasons satisfactory to the collector are given. Such single-trip passes may also be issued to representatives of photographic companies, provided they give reasons satisfactory to the collector and produce letters of permission from the agents of the vessels to be boarded.

(e) All requests for passes not falling within the above classes will be referred to the Bureau of Customs for its decision as to the emergency or necessity. Passes are not transferable, and will be forfeited upon presentation by others than those to whom issued.

(f) It shall not be lawful for any person in charge of a tugboat, rowboat, or other vessel, to come alongside and put any person, except as authorized by law or regulations, on board an incoming vessel heretofore described.

(g) Officers boarding a vessel under authority of these regulations shall also ascertain whether any person has boarded the vessel in violation of law; and if so, shall report the facts to the principal officer of the customs at the port.

(h) The Coast Guard is specially charged with the enforcement of these regulations, but any officer of the Government may report to the principal officer of the customs any violation of the regulations which comes to his knowledge.

(i) The principal officer of the customs shall report the facts to the United States attorney and also to the Bureau.

(j) The principal officer of the customs, or the officer commanding a Coast Guard cutter, or the principal officer of the Public Health Service at any seaport, when he deems it desirable, and when it is practicable, may detail any person subject to his orders to remain on board a vessel to secure the enforcement of these regulations until the vessel has been placed in security as above provided. In the case of deep-sea sailing vessels such detail shall be made whenever practicable.

(k) Collectors may, in their discretion, issue passes to go on the docks to meet persons arriving from abroad.

ART. 107. Vessels not required to enter.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 441, as amended by section 302 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of August 5, 1935:

The following vessels shall not be required to make entry at the customhouse:

(1) Vessels of war and public vessels employed for the conveyance of letters and dispatches and not permitted by the laws of the nations to which they belong to be employed in the transportation of passengers or merchandise in trade;

(2) Passenger vessels making three trips or oftener a week between a port of the United States and a foreign port, or vessels used exclusively as ferryboats, carrying passengers, baggage, or merchandise: Provided, That the master of any such vessel shall be required to report such baggage and merchandise to the collector within 24 hours after arrival;

(3) Yachts of 15 gross tons or under not permitted by law to carry merchandise or passengers for hire and not visiting any hovering vessel, nor having at any time or, if forfeited to the United States or to a foreign government, at any time after forfeiture, become liable to seizure and forfeiture for any violation of the laws of the United States.

(4) Vessels arriving in distress or for the purpose of taking on bunker coal, bunker oil, or necessary sea stores and which shall depart within 24 hours after arrival without having landed or taken on board any passengers, or any merchandise other than bunker coal, bunker oil, or necessary sea stores: Provided, That the master, owner, or agent of such vessel shall report under oath, to the collector the hour and date of arrival and departure and the quantity of bunker coal, bunker oil, or necessary sea stores taken on board; and

(5) Tugs enrolled and licensed to engage in the foreign and coasting trade in the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers when towing vessels which are required by law to enter and clear.

(b) In the case of car ferries falling within the purview of paragraph (a) (2) of this article, report shall be made as provided for in article 212.

(c) Vessels arriving under the conditions set forth in paragraph (a) (4) of this article, must make formal entry if the stay of the vessel in port is extended more than 24 hours. If such vessel arrives at a port other than that to which she is bound, the boarding officer or collector will indorse the facts on the inward manifest and notify the collector at the port of ultimate destination. A vessel that takes on ship stores (such articles as become a part of the equipment, as furniture, tackle, paint, etc.) must enter.

(d) All vessels engaged in the foreign trade whether or not required to enter or clear are subject to such customs supervision while in port as the collector deems necessary.

(e) United States Code, title 46, section 106:

Every yacht, except those of 15 gross tons or under, exempted by law, visiting a foreign country under the provisions of sections 103, 105, and 109, shall, on her return to the United States, make due entry at the customhouse of the port at which, on such return, she shall arrive: Provided, That nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to exempt the master or person in charge of a yacht or vessel arriving from a foreign port or place with dutiable articles on board from reporting to the customs officer of the United States at the port or place at which said yacht or vessel shall arrive, and deliver in to said officer a manifest of all dutiable articles brought from a foreign country in such yachts or vessels. (R. S. 4218; Aug. 20, 1912, c. 307, sec. 2, 37 Stat. 315, as amended Aug. 5, 1935, c. 438, Title III, sec. 311, 49 Stat. 528.)

(f) United States Code, title 46, section 110:

Vessels used exclusively as ferryboats, carrying passengers, baggage, and merchandise, shall not be required to enter and clear, nor shall the masters of such vessels be required to present manifests, or to pay entrance or clearance fees, or fees for receiving or certifying manifests, but they shall, upon arrival in the United States, be required to report such baggage and merchandise to the proper officer of the customs according to law. (R. S. 2792; May 28, 1908, c. 212, sec. 1, 35 Stat. 424.)

(g) United States Code, title 46, section 112:

Any passenger vessel engaged triweekly or oftener in trade between ports of the United States and foreign ports shall be exempt from entrance and clearance fees while such service triweekly or oftener is maintained. (R. S. 2792; May 28, 1908, c. 212, sec. 1, 35 Stat. 424).

ART. 108. Report of arrival of vessel.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 433:

Within 24 hours after the arrival of any vessel from a foreign port or place, or of a foreign vessel from a domestic port, or of a vessel of the United States carrying bonded merchandise, or foreign merchandise for which entry has not been made, at any port or place within the United States at which such vessel shall come to, the master shall, unless otherwise provided by law, report the arrival of the vessel at the nearest customhouse, under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce may prescribe.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 401 (n), as amended by section 201 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of August 5, 1935:

Hovering vessel. The term "hovering vessel" means any vessel which is found or kept off the coast of the United States within or without the customs waters, if, from the history, conduct, character, or location of the vessel, it is reasonable to believe that such vessel is being used or may be used to introduce or promote or facilitate the introduction or attempted introduction of merchandise into the United States in violation of the laws respecting the revenue.

For the purposes of sections 432, 433, 434, 448, 585, and 586 of this Act, any vessel which has visited any hovering vessel shall be deemed to arrive or have arrived, as the case may be, from a foreign port or place.

(c) That whenever, under any provision or provisions of any statute of the United States, it is made the duty of the masters of vessels to make entry and clearance of same, it shall be lawful for such duties to be performed by any licensed deck officer or purser of such vessel; and when such duties are performed by a licensed deck officer or purser of such vessel, such acts shall have the same force and effect as if performed by masters of such vessels: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall relieve the master of any penalty or liability provided by any statute relating to the entry or clearance of vessels.

(d) The report must be filed within 24 hours after the arrival, or as soon thereafter as official business hours will permit.

(e) The report must be made in every case unless the vessel has been boarded by a duly authorized customs officer assigned for the purpose, or for the purpose of accepting preliminary entry.

(f) In the case of vessels described in paragraph 4 of section 441 of the Tariff Act, 1930, the report may be filed by either the master, owner, or agent, and shall be in the form and give the information required by that statute. (See art. 107.)

(g) Tariff Act of 1930, section 436, as amended by section 202 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of Aug. 5, 1935:

Every master who fails to make the report or entry provided for in section 433, 434, or 435 of this act shall, for each offense, be liable to a fine of not more than $1,000 and, if the vessel have, or be discovered to have had, on board any merchandise (sea stores excepted), the importation of which into the United States is prohibited, or any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors, such master shall be subject to an additional fine of not more than $2,000 or to imprisonment for not more than one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Every master who presents a forged, altered, or false document or paper on making entry of a vessel as required by section 434 or 435 of this act, knowing the same to be forged, altered, or false and without revealing the fact, shall, in addition to any forfeiture to which in consequence the vessel may be subject, be liable to a fine of not more than $5,000 nor less than $50 or to imprisonment for not more than 2 years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(h) Vessels may depart at the option of the master after report and before the expiration of 24 hours.

(i) Any person bringing in a derelict vessel may take the master's oath.

(j) All penalties incurred by masters for failure to make report of arrival should be reported to the Secretary of Commerce, Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation, and all applications for relief should be addressed to that officer and sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths.

ART. 109. Place of entry and unlading.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 447:

It shall be unlawful to make entry of any vessel or to unlade the cargo or any part thereof of any vessel elsewhere than at a port of entry: Provided, That upon good cause therefor being shown, the Secretary of Commerce may permit entry of any vessel to be made at a place other than a port of entry designated by him, under such conditions as he shall prescribe: And provided further, That any vessel laden with merchandise in bulk may proceed after entry of such vessel to any place designated by the Secretary of the Treasury for the purpose of unlading such cargo, under the supervision of customs officers if the collector shall consider the same necessary, and in such case the compensation and expenses of such officers shall be reimbursed to the Government by the party in interest.

ART. 110. Failure to make entry of vessel—False documents.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 436, as amended by section 202 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of August 5, 1935:

Every master who fails to make the report or entry provided for in section 433, 434, or 435 of this Act shall, for each offense, be liable to a fine of not more than $1,000 and, if the vessel have, or be discovered to have had, on board any merchandise (sea stores excepted), the importation of which into the United States is prohibited, or any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors, such master shall be subject to an additional fine of not more than $2,000 or to imprisonment for not more than 1 year, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Every master who presents a forged, altered, or false document or paper on making entry of a vessel as required by section 434 or 435 of this Act, knowing the same to be forged, altered, or false and without revealing the fact, shall, in addition to any forfeiture to which in consequence the vessel may be subject; be liable to a fine of not more than $5,000 nor less than $50 or to imprisonment for not more than 2 years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

ART. 111. Departure or unlading before report or entry.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 585, as amended by section 303 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of August 5, 1935:

(a) If any vessel • • • from a foreign port or place arrives within the limits of any collection district and departs or attempts to depart, except from stress of weather or other necessity, without making a report or entry under the provisions of this act, or if any merchandise is unladen therefrom before such report or entry, the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $5,000 and any such vessel or vehicle shall be forfeited, and any officer of the customs may cause such vessel or vehicle to be arrested and brought back to the most convenient port of the United States.

(b) These provisions apply to foreign as well as American vessels, but do not extend to a vessel arriving from a foreign port and passing through the coterminous waters of a river which forms the boundary between the United States and foreign territory for the purpose of proceeding thereto.

(c) The "limits of any collection district" as used herein are those defined by article 3 of these regulations, including the marginal waters to the 3-mile limit on the seaboard and the waters to the boundary line on the northern and southern boundaries.

(d) This section applies only to acts accomplished within the territory of the United States. For unlading outside of the 3-mile limit see article 138.

ART. 112. Preliminary entry of vessels and lading and unlading at night and on Sundays and holidays—Penalty.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 448 (a):

(1) Except as provided in section 441 of this act (relating to vessels not required to enter), no merchandise, passengers, or baggage shall be unladen from any vessel of vehicle arriving from a foreign port or place until entry of such vessel or report of the arrival of such vehicle has been made and a permit for the unlading of the same issued by the collector: Provided, That the master may make a preliminary entry of a vessel by making oath or affirmation to the truth of the statements contained in the vessel's manifest and delivering the manifest to the customs officer who boards such vessel, but the making of such preliminary entry shall not excuse the master from making formal entry of his vessel at the customhouse, as provided by this act. After the entry, preliminary or otherwise, of any vessel or report of the arrival of any vehicle, the collector may issue a permit to the master of the vessel, or to the person in charge of the vehicle, to unlade merchandise or baggage, but except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section merchandise or baggage so unladen shall be retained at the place of unlading until entry therefor is made and a permit for its delivery granted, and the owners of the vessel or vehicle from which any imported merchandise is unladen prior to entry of such merchandise shall be liable for the payment of the duties accruing on any part thereof that may be removed from the place of unlading without a permit therefor having been issued. • • •

(2) The oath or affirmation required by the above provision of law in connection with the preliminary entry of vessels shall be on customs Form 3255.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 450:

No merchandise, baggage, or passengers arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, and no bonded merchandise or baggage being transported from one port to another, shall be unladen from the carrying vessel or vehicle on Sunday, a holiday, or at night, except under special license granted by the collector under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(c) Tariff Act of 1930, section 451:

Before any such special license to unlade shall be granted, the master, owner or agent, of such vessel or vehicle shall be required to give bond in the penal sum to be fixed by the collector conditioned to indemnify the United States for any loss or liability which might occur or be occasioned by reason of the granting of such special license and to pay the compensation and expenses of the customs officers and employees assigned to duty in connection with such unlading at night or on Sunday or a holiday, in accordance with the provisions of section 5 of the act entitled "An act to provide for the lading or unlading of vessels at night, the preliminary entry of vessels, and for other purposes", approved February 13, 1911, as amended. In lieu of such bond the owner, or agent, of any vessel or vehicle or line of vessels or vehicles may execute a bond in a penal sum to be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury to cover and include the issuance of special licenses for the unlading of vessels or vehicles belonging to such line for a period of 1 year from the date thereof. • • •

No merchandise or baggage entered for transportation under bond or for exportation with the benefit of drawback, or other merchandise or baggage required to be laden under customs supervision, shall be laden on any vessel or vehicle at night or on Sunday or a holiday, except under special license therefor to be issued by the collector under the same conditions and limitations as pertain to the unlading of imported merchandise or merchandise being transported in bond.

(e) Upon the filing by the master, owner or agent of a vessel, arriving directly or indirectly from a foreign port or place, of an application on customs Form 3853–A and a bond on customs Form 7567 in such penal sum as the collector deems sufficient but not less than $500, a permit (special license) (customs Form 3853–A may be issued covering one or more of the following operations: (1) Immediate unlading or lading of the vessel by day prior to formal entry thereof; (2) unlading of the vessel at night or on Sundays or holidays before or after formal entry of the vessel; (3) lading on the vessel at night or on Sundays or holidays of merchandise the lading of which requires customs supervision. Except as provided in paragraph (j), a separate application shall be filed in the case of each arrival. A permit to unlade or lade prior to formal entry of the vessel shall become effective only when preliminary entry of the vessel shall have been made by the master, and the copy of the manifest prepared for the use of the discharging inspector in making up his cargo book shall be indorsed by the boarding officer to show whether or not preliminary entry of the vessel has been made.

(f) In lieu of a bond given on each application a term bond on customs Form 7569 may be accepted in the sum of $10,000 or such larger amount as may be determined by the collector to afford ample security, to cover vessels arriving within 1 year from the date thereof.

(g) A blanket vessel term bond (customs Form 7569) in the sum of $10,000 or such larger amount as may be fixed by the Commissioner of Customs, for a 1-year period, may be filed by a regularly established steamship company with the collector of customs at a port where the company maintains an office, to cover the operations of its vessels at other ports in the same district, or in other districts. In such cases the blanket bond must show the exact ports at which the company expects to enter and clear vessels, and the applicants must furnish in addition to the original bond, a copy for every port mentioned therein. Such blanket bond and copies will be forwarded by the collector to the Commissioner of Customs who will pass upon and file the original and send the copies to the respective ports named.

(h) There is no authority for the preliminary entry of vessels in the coastwise trade, and such vessels, when required to enter and clear in accordance with sections 4351, 4355, and 4361 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 46, secs. 296, 300, and 307) are required to deposit manifests with the collector before a permit to discharge may be granted. The inspector in charge at the place of unlading may, however, permit such vessels to begin discharging immediately after arrival and prior to the receipt of the formal permit if he is satisfied from an inspection of the manifest that there is no merchandise on board other than domestic merchandise or merchandise covered by bonded transportation entries. No application for a special license nor bond is required in such cases unless bonded merchandise is to be unladen or laden at night or on Sundays or holidays.

(i) Special permits (licenses) for the unlading or lading of vessels at night should be refused by collectors if the character of the merchandise or the conditions or facilities at the place of unlading or lading would render the issuance of such licenses dangerous to the revenue and, before granting a special license to unlade or lade on Sunday or a holiday, consideration should be given to the laws of the State in which the port of entry is located. In no case shall a special license for unlading or lading on Sundays or holidays be granted except on the ground of commercial necessity.

(j) Special permits (licenses) running for a period of one month may be issued for the unlading or lading at night or on Sundays or holidays of merchandise covered by bonded transportation entries, and similar monthly permits may be issued for the unlading of foreign merchandise from vessels or vehicles of an established line operating on a regular schedule, or the lading thereon of other merchandise the lading of which requires customs supervision, provided that in all such cases there is on file a common-carrier bond (customs Form 3587) or a vessel term bond (customs Form 7569), or both (T. D. 46101–2) when the circumstances require both. In such cases the application and permit shall be on customs Form 3851.

(k) When the carrier has on file a bond on customs Form 3587, no further bond is required solely by reason of the unlading or lading at night or on Sundays or holidays of merchandise covered by bonded transportation entries, as a condition covering such unlading or lading is contained in customs Form 3587, but when the vessel also carries merchandise from a foreign port, either directly or as residue cargo, a vessel bond on customs Form 7567 or 7569 is required in addition to the common-carrier bond on customs Form 3587.

(l) Vessels in the foreign trade arriving for the sole purpose of taking on domestic cargo may be granted a permit for that purpose on customs Form 3171 when preliminary or formal entry of the vessel has been made. When the vessel is in ballast, or has no foreign residue cargo on board, or if the vessel has foreign residue cargo on board but has previously given bond at another port, no bond is required unless it is desired to have the vessel boarded at night or on a Sunday or holiday for the purpose of making preliminary entry, or overtime services of officers are required to supervise such lading, in which event an application therefor and bond should be required in accordance with paragraphs (r) and (c), respectively. Such vessels should not be cleared in any event until the provisions of articles 173, 174, 1305, and 1306 of these regulations have been complied with.

(m) The term "at night" shall in include the hours from 5 p. m. of any day to 8 a. m. of the following day.

(n) The term "holidays" shall include only national holidays, viz, January 1, February 22, May 30, July 4, and the first Monday in September, Thanksgiving day (when designated by the President), and December 25, and such other days as may be made national holidays.

(o) Tariff Act of 1930, section 453:

If any merchandise or baggage is laden on, or unladen from, any vessel or vehicle without a special license or permit therefor issued by the collector, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle and every other person who knowingly is concerned, or which aids therein, or in removing or otherwise securing such merchandise or baggage, shall each be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise or baggage so laden or unladen, and such merchandise or baggage shall be subject to forfeiture, and if the value thereof is $500 or more, the vessel or vehicle on or from which the same shall be laden or unladen shall be subject to forfeiture.

(p) Tariff Act of 1930, section 454:

If any passenger is unladen from any vessel or vehicle without a special license or permit therefor issued by the collector the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle and every other person who knowingly is concerned, or who aids therein, shall each be liable to a penalty of $500 for each such passenger so unladen.

(q) Tariff Act of 1930, section 451:

• • • At the request of the master, owner, or agent of any vessel, the collector shall assign customs officers and employees to duty at night or on Sunday or a holiday in connection with the entering or clearing of such vessel, or the issuing and recording of it marine documents, bills of sale, mortgages, or other instruments of title, but only if the master, owner, or agent gives a bond in a penal sum to be fixed by the collector, conditioned to pay the compensation and expenses of such customs officers and employees, who shall be entitled to rates of compensation fixed on the same basis and payable in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as in the case of customs officers and employees assigned to duty in connection with lading or unlading at night or on Sunday or a holiday.

(r) Services in connection with the entering of vessels, within the meaning of the provisions of law quoted in paragraph (q), include the boarding of vessels for the purpose of preliminary entry thereof. Requests pursuant to paragraph (q) shall be made in writing on customs Form 3853–A and the required bond shall be on customs Form 7567 or 7569. In the case of vessels belonging to an established line operating on a regular schedule, requests for services may be made monthly, provided the required term bond is on file.

(s) Bonds are not required for vessels of the United States Maritime Commission under "operating agreement, 1935."

ART. 113. Entry of American vessels.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 434, as amended by section 301 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of August 5, 1935; and the act of May 4, 1934:

(Sec. 434.) Except as otherwise provided by law, and under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce may prescribe, the master of a vessel of the United States arriving in the United States from a foreign port or place shall, within 48 hours after its arrival within the limits of any customs collection district, make formal entry of the vessel at the customhouse by producing and depositing with the collector the vessel's crew list, its register or document in lieu thereof, the clearance and bills of health issued to the vessel at the foreign port or ports from which it arrived, together with the original and one copy of the manifest and shall make oath that the ownership of the vessel is as indicated in the register or document in lieu thereof, and that the manifest was made out in accordance with section 431 of this act.

(Act of May 4, 1934.) That whenever, under any provision or provisions of any statute of the United States, it is made the duty of the masters of vessels to make entry and clearance of same, it shall be lawful for such duties to be performed by any licensed deck officer or purser of such vessel; and when such duties are performed by a licensed deck officer or purser of such vessel, such acts shall have the same force and effect as if performed by masters of such vessels: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall relieve the master of any penalty or liability provided by any statute relating to the entry or clearance of vessels.

(b) The oath on entry shall be on customs Form 3251.

(c) The master shall account for the ship's crew by the following indorsement on the crew list:

I, ——— ———, master of the ———, do solemnly and truly swear that all of the above-named crew have returned with me in said vessel to this port except those who failed to join vessel before sailing as shown on supplementary crew list attached hereto and those noted below:

I further swear that those shipped after clearance as substitutes or otherwise, whose names appear on said supplementary list, have all returned in the vessel except as otherwise stated.

Master.

Sworn to before me this ——— day of ———.

——— ———,
Deputy Collector.

(d) On entry the master shall also report to the collector the equipment purchased or the repairs made in the foreign country, making oath on customs Form 3415 or 3417, as the case may be.

(e) The master shall also present on entry the pratique issued by the United States Public Health Service on its Form 1940A or 1940B; and shall pay the tonnage taxes, the prescribed fees, and any penalties incurred.

ART. 114. Production of crew list and crew.—(a) The master of every vessel of the United States returning from a foreign voyage or engaged in the whale fishery shall exhibit the certified copy of the list of the crew (shipping Form 710A) to the first boarding officer at the first port in the United States at which he arrives on his return, and also produce the persons named therein to the boarding officer, whose duty it shall be "to examine the men with such list" (commerce Form 1431) and to report the same to the collector.

(b) Boarding officers will also muster destitute American seamen, if any should be on board, in order to verify the consular certificates.

ART. 115. Copy of crew list transmitted to port of original sailing—Penalty for failure to produce member of crew.—The collector at the port of arrival, if it is not the port from which the vessel originally sailed, will transmit a copy of the crew list so reported to him, or a certificate as prescribed by the Department of Commerce (commerce Form 1432), to the collector of the port from which such vessel originally sailed. For each failure to produce any person on the certified copy of the list of the crew, the master and owner are severally liable to a penalty of $400, but such penalties are not incurred on account of the master not producing to the first boarding officer any of the persons contained in the list who may have been discharged in a foreign country with the consent of the consular officer there residing, certified in writing, under his hand and official seal, to be produced to the collector with the other persons composing the crew, nor on account of any such person dying or absconding or being forcibly impressed into other service, of which satisfactory proof shall also be exhibited to the collector.

ART. 116. Carriage of destitute seamen in United States vessels.—(a) Masters of vessels of the United States, homeward bound, are required, under a penalty of $100 for each refusal, to receive on board, at the request of consular officers, any destitute seamen, and to carry them to the port of the vessel's destination, on the terms specified by law; but no vessel shall be obliged thus to transport, on one voyage, more than one such seaman for each 100 tons burden, nor to receive any person having a contagious disease. If any seaman be so carried who is unable to perform duty, the Comptroller General may allow an additional compensation to the vessel.

(b) On arrival of the vessel, the consular voucher for transportation (consular Form 24) must be presented, together with the seamen named therein, to the boarding officer or inspector of customs, who will certify thereon to the seaman's arrival, his physical condition, and whether service was perfomed on the voyage.

(c) This indorsement serves as a basis for the collector's official record and his further certification as to other facts required.

(d) The certificate, after certification by the collector, is to be returned to the agent of the vessel for forwarding to the Bureau of Accounts, Department of State, Washington, D. C., for final adjustment and payment of claim for the transportation of the seaman.

(e) The name of the seaman must appear on the vessel's manifest and the passenger list filed on entry of the vessel.

ART. 117. Consular services to masters.—Masters shall deliver to the collector of the district in which the vessel shall first arrive on her return to the United States copies of all receipts given to them by consular officers for fees or charges paid to such officers. Also, masters for whom any official service shall be performed by any consular agent without the payment of a fee will require a written statement of such services from the consular agent, and, after certifying as to its correctness, will, under a penalty of $50 for failure, deliver said statement to the collector of the district in which the vessel shall first arrive on her return to the United States, which statement of services, together with the copies of receipts above referred to, for moneys paid to consular officers, shall be forwarded monthly by the collector to the Bureau of Accounts, Department of State.

ART. 118. Entry of foreign vessels.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 435, and the act of May 4, 1934:

(SEC. 435.) The master of any foreign vessel arriving within the limits of any customs collection district shall, within 48 hours thereafter, make entry at the customhouse in the same manner as is required for the entry of a vessel of the United States, except that a list of the crew need not be delivered, and that instead of depositing the register or document in lieu thereof such master may produce a certificate by the consul of the nation to which such vessel belongs that said documents have been deposited with him: Provided, That such exception shall not apply to the vessels of foreign nations in whose ports American consular officers are not permitted to have the custody and possession of the register and other papers of vessels entering the ports of such nations. (Note: See art. 113.)

(Act of May 4, 1934.) That whenever, under any provision or provisions of any statute of the United States, it is made the duty of the masters of vessels to make entry and clearance of same, it shall be lawful for such duties to be performed by any licensed deck officer or purser of such vessel; and when such duties are performed by a licensed deck officer or purser of such vessel, such act shall have the same force and effect as if performed by masters of such vessels: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall relieve the master of any penalty or liability provided by any statute relating to the entry or clearance of vessels.

(b) The master of any such vessel shall exhibit his register to the collector on or before the entry of the vessel. After the net tonnage has been noted, the master may deliver it to the consul of the nation to which such vessel belongs, in which event he shall file with the collector the certificate provided by law. If not delivered to the consul, the register must be deposited in the customhouse.

(c) Tariff Act of 1930, section 438:

It shall not be lawful for any foreign consul to deliver to the master of any foreign vessel the register, or document in lieu thereof, deposited with him in accordance with the provisions of section 435 of this act until such master shall produce to him a clearance in due form from the collector of the port where such vessel has been entered. Any consul offending against the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine of not more than $5,000.

(d) Any violation of paragraph (c) of this article shall be reported to the Secretary of Commerce.

ART. 119. Sealing of sea stores.—(a) On the arrival of vessels from foreign ports, or vessels engaged in the foreign trade from domestic ports, the customs officers directed to perform such duty (arts. 1325 and 1326) may place under seal such stores as in their judgment are not required for immediate use or consumption on board while the vessel is in port, and shall file with the surveyor, or collector where there is no surveyor, a certificate on customs Form 3203 of such stores placed under seal, noting thereon the number of the seal affixed. A copy of such certificate shall be left on board for use of the master in the event the vessel proceeds to another district.

(b) Customs inspectors in charge of the vessel may, from time to time, as in their judgment the necessity of the case requires, issue stores from under seal for consumption on board the vessel.

(c) Report of sea stores released from under seal shall be made to the collector or surveyor, as the case may be, on customs Form 3203, a copy thereof to be left with the master.

(d) The room or space from which such stores are removed shall be immediately resealed and a record made on customs Form 3203 of the number of the new seal affixed.

(e) The Tyden seal shall be used in all cases for the purpose of sealing sea stores or cargo, and if broken by customs officers for obtaining stores or otherwise under proper permit and resealed, a record will be make of the breaking of the seal and the number of the new seal noted on the permit.

ART. 120. Quarantine requirements—Bills of health.—(a) The master of any vessel clearing or departing from any foreign port or any port in the possessions or other dependencies of the United States for a port in the United States or its possessions or other dependencies must obtain from the consular or medical officer of the United States a bill of health, in duplicate, from the port of departure and ports of call, except as hereinafter specifically provided for.

(b) Bills of health must be obtained at the first port from which the vessel clears or departs for the United States, or the first port at which cargo or persons are taken on board for the United States, and also from each port of call in foreign countries and in the possessions or dependencies of the United States at which the vessel subsequently entered.

(c) Bills of health are not required:—

(1) For vessels trading exclusively between ports in the United States and ports in Canada, Newfoundland, and the French insular possessions of St. Pierre and Miquelon, and arriving direct from such ports. During the prevalence of any of the quarantinable diseases at such foreign ports, however, bills of health will be required.

(2) For vessels from foreign ports originally destined to other foreign ports, but diverted on the high seas by wireless change of orders to a United States port.

(3) For vessels which call at a foreign port for orders, or for taking on bunkers or necessary sea stores, or in distress or because of any other emergency, and depart therefrom within 24 hours without entering or clearing, and which have had no contact with the shore except for the purposes specified.

(4) For vessels from ports at which no American consular or medical officers are stationed.

(d) It is unlawful for any vessel to discharge its cargo or land its passengers prior to inspection and the issuance of a pratique by the proper public health officer. The pratique may be unconditional or restricted. A restricted pratique is conditioned upon a strict compliance with the stated requirements, and the vessel may not depart and shall not be cleared until the requirements have been complied with.

(e) On formal entry of the vessel at the first port in the United States the master must present the pratique and the original bills of health.

(f) Ships proceeding from an American port to a port or ports in the insular possessions and dependencies of the United States, other than the Philippines, and returning directly to an American port are permitted to pass quarantine without inspection, provided they have a "clean" bill of health. Consequently pratiques are not issued for, and will not be required on entrance of such vessels, but the bills of health must be presented.

(g) The failure to secure a bill of health when required, or the entry of a vessel in violation of the quarantine laws, subjects the offending craft to a penalty of $5,000, which constitutes a lien on the vessel.

(h) Proceedings for the enforcement of the penalty for failure to procure bills of health should be taken as in cases of violation of the revenue laws.

ART. 121. Delivery of mail—Seizure of letters conveyed contrary to law.—(a) United States Code, title 18, section 327:

No vessel arriving within a port or collection district of the United States shall be allowed to make entry or break bulk until all letters on board are delivered to the nearest post office, and the master or other person having charge or control thereof has signed and sworn to the following declaration before the collector or other proper customs officer:

"I, A. B., Master ——— of the ——— arriving from ——— and now lying in the port of ———, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have to the best of my knowledge and belief delivered to the post office at ——— every letter and every bag, packet, or parcel of letters which was on board the said vessel during her last voyage, or which were in my possession or under my power or control."

And any master or other person having charge or control of such vessel who shall break bulk before he has delivered such letters shall be fined not more than $100. (R. S. 3988; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 321, sec. 204, 35 Stat. 1127.)

(b) United States Code, title 39, section 497:

Any post-office inspector, when instructed by the Postmaster General to make examinations and seizures, and the collector or other customs officers of any port, without special instructions, shall carefully search all vessels for letters which may be on board or which have been conveyed contrary to law. (R. S. 3989, 4017; June 11, 1880, c. 206, sec. 1, 21 Stat. 177.)

(c) United States Code, title 39, section 498:

Any post-office inspector, collector, or other customs officer, or United States marshal or his deputy, may at all times seize all letters and bags, packets or parcels containing letters which are being carried contrary to law on board any vessel or on any post route, and convey the same to the nearest post office, or may, by the direction of the Postmaster General or Secretary of the Treasury, detain them until two months after the final determination of all suits and proceedings which may, at any time within six months after such seizure, be brought against any person for sending or carrying such letters. (R. S. 3990, 4017; June 11, 1880, c. 206, sec. 1, 21 Stat. 177.)

(d) United States Code, title 39, section 499:

Every package or parcel seized by any post-office inspector, collector, or other customs officer, or United States marshal or his deputies, in which any letter is unlawfully concealed, shall be forfeited to the United States, and the same proceedings may be had to enforce the forfeiture as are authorized in respect to goods, wares, and merchandise forfeited for violation of the revenue laws; and all laws for the benefit and protection of customs officers making seizures for violating the revenue laws shall apply to officers making seizures for violating the postal laws. (R. S. 3991, 4017; June 11, 1880, c. 206, sec. 1, 21 Stat. 177.)

ART. 122. Inward foreign manifest—Contents and form—Certificate for importation—Alcoholic liquors on vessels not exceeding 500 net tons.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 431:

The master of every vessel arriving in the United States and required to make entry shall have on board his vessel a manifest in a form to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury and signed by such master under oath as to the truth of the statements therein contained. Such manifest shall contain:

First. The names of the ports or places at which the merchandise was taken on board and the ports of entry of the United States for which the same is destined, particularly describing the merchandise destined to each such port: Provided, That the master of any vessel laden exclusively with coal, sugar, salt, nitrates, hides, dyewoods, wool, or other merchandise in bulk consigned to one owner and arriving at a port for orders, may destine such cargo "for orders", and within 15 days thereafter, but before the unlading of any part of the cargo such manifest may be amended by the master by designating the port or ports of discharge of such cargo, and in the event of failure to amend the manifest within the time permitted such cargo must be discharged at the port at which the vessel arrived and entered.

Second. The name, description, and build of the vessel, the true measure or tonnage thereof, the port to which such vessel belongs, and the name of the master of such vessel.

Third. A detailed account of all merchandise on board such vessel, with the marks and numbers of each package, and the number and description of the packages according to their usual name or denomination, such as barrel, keg, hogshead, case, or bag.

Fourth. The names of the persons to whom such packages are respectively consigned in accordance with the bills of lading issued therefor, except that when such merchandise is consigned to order the manifest shall so state.

Fifth. The names of the several passengers aboard the vessel, stating whether cabin or steerage passengers, with their baggage, specifying the number and description of the pieces of baggage belonging to each, and a list of all baggage not accompanied by passengers.

Sixth. An account of the sea stores and ship's stores on board of the vessel.

(b) The manifest shall be legible and be on customs Form 7527 A or B, or on a form in substantial compliance therewith. It shall be numbered in a series beginning with No. 1, on the 1st day of July of each year.

(c) The list of passengers and their baggage may be filed separately on commerce Form 1440.

(d) If the manifest is in a foreign language, a translation must be furnished by the agent.

(e) Less than whole packages of sea or ship's stores may be described as "sundry small and broken stores."

(f) All articles acquired abroad by officers and members of the crew, except such articles as are exclusively for use on the voyage, should be specified in the list of sea stores in the following form:

| Name of officer or member of crew | Description of articles | Cost or value |
|---|---|---|
| | | |
| | | |

(g) All opium and narcotics in possession of any member of the crew or outside of the medical stores shall be seized and treated in accordance with article 1109.

(h) After the manifest, including the list of sea stores, has been sworn to by the master, the boarding officer or other officer assigned to such duty shall check with the manifest the articles acquired abroad by officers and members of the crew, and, when charged with such duty, shall place under seal those which are not to be landed.

(i) No officer or seaman leaving a vessel shall be considered a returning resident of the United States for the purposes of paragraph 1798 of the act and articles 419 to 430 of these regulations, unless he is a resident and leaves the vessel without intention of reshipping. All articles taken ashore by officers and seamen must be described and declared on customs Form 6063, and any duties found due will be collected as in the case of arriving passengers; except that articles belonging to an officer or seaman may be transferred from one vessel to another under the supervision of customs officers, by a bonded cartman if necessary, without entry, declaration, or assessment of duty.

(j) Articles belonging to an officer or seaman who is not leaving the vessel may be landed for consumption upon the filing of the proper entry and payment of duty if any is found due. If the value of the articles does not exceed $100, entry may be made on customs Form 5119, in which case appraisement and the assessment and collection of duty may be made by a customs officer on the wharf. Should the value of the articles exceed $100, a formal entry should be required.

(k) The inspector will note disposition of articles landed under the two preceding paragraphs on the manifest, i. e., by serial entry number, transfer, or retention under seal on the vessel.

(l) If any such articles not manifested are found on the vessel they will be forfeited and the master subjected to a penalty equal to the value thereof.

(m) In addition to any other requirement of law, every vessel, not exceeding five hundred net tons, from a foreign port or place, or which has visited a hovering vessel, shall carry a certificate for the importation into the United States of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors on board thereof (sea stores excepted), destined to the United States, said certificate to be issued by a consular officer of the United States or other authorized person pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of State and the Secretary of the Treasury may jointly prescribe. (See art. 1102.)

(n) Each certificate of shipment shall include only one shipment from one consignor to one consignee or firm of consignees, by the same vessel. The certificates of shipment shall be issued in triplicate, the triplicate to be promptly transmitted by the certifying officer to the collector of customs at the port of entry named in the certificate. At the time of the production and deposit of the manifest with the collector of customs, the original shall be produced and deposited by the master with the collector to be filed at the customhouse together with the triplicate.

ART. 123. Falsity or lack of manifest—Penalties.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 584, as amended by section 204 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of August 5, 1935:

Any master of any vessel and any person in charge of any vehicle bound to the United States who does not produce the manifest to the officer demanding the same shall be liable to a penalty of $500, and if any merchandise, including sea stores, is found on board of or after having been unladen from such vessel or vehicle which is not included or described in said manifest or does not agree therewith, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle or the owner of such vessel or vehicle shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise so found or unladen, and any such merchandise belonging or consigned to the master or other officer or to any of the crew of such vessel, or to the owner or person in charge of such vehicle, shall be subject to forfeiture, and if any merchandise described in such manifest is not found on board the vessel or vehicle the master or other person in charge or the owner of such vessel or vehicle shall be subject to a penalty of $500: Provided, That if the collector shall be satisfied that the manifest was lost or mislaid without intentional fraud, or was defaced by accident, or is incorrect by reason of clerical error or other mistake and that no part of the merchandise not found on board was unshipped or discharged except as specified in the report of the master, said penalties shall not be incurred.

If any such merchandise so found consists of heroin, morphine, or cocaine, the master of such vessel or person in charge of such vehicle or the owner of such vessel or vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $50 for each ounce thereof so found. If any of such merchandise so found consists of smoking opium or opium prepared for smoking, the master of such vessel or person in charge of such vehicle or the owner of such vessel or vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $25 for each ounce thereof so found. If any of such merchandise so found consists of crude opium, the master of such vessel or person in charge of such vehicle or the owner of such vessel or vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each ounce thereof so found. Such penalties shall, notwithstanding the proviso in section 594 of this act (relating to the immunity of vessels or vehicles used as common carriers), constitute a lien upon such vessel which may be enforced by a libel in rem; except that the master or owner of a vessel used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as such common carrier shall not be liable to such penalties and the vessel shall not be held subject to the lien, if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that neither the master nor any of the officers (including licensed and unlicensed officers and petty officers) nor the owner of the vessel knew, and could not, by the exercise of the highest degree of care and diligence, have known, that such narcotic drugs were on board. Clearance of any such vessel may be withheld until such penalties are paid or until a bond, satisfactory to the collector, is given for the payment thereof. The provisions of this paragraph shall not prevent the forfeiture of any such vessel or vehicle under any other provision of law.

If any of such merchandise (sea stores excepted), the importation of which into the United States is prohibited, or which consists of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors for the importation of which into the United States a certificate is required under section 7 of the Anti-Smuggling Act and the required certificate be not shown, be so found upon any vessel not exceeding 500 net tons, the vessel shall, in addition to any other penalties herein or by law provided, be seized and forfeited, and, if any manifested merchandise (sea stores excepted) consisting of any such spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors be found upon any such vessel and the required certificate be not shown, the master of the vessel shall be liable to the penalty herein provided in the case of merchandise not duly manifested: Provided, That if the collector shall be satisfied that the certificate required for the importation of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors was issued and was lost or mislaid without intentional fraud, or was defaced by accident, or is incorrect by reason of clerical error or other mistake, said penalties shall not be incurred.

(b) Shortages must be accounted for by an affidavit executed by the master or, in his absence, by the agent of the vessel, and if explained to the satisfaction of the collector, the penalty of $500 will not be imposed. For nonmanifested merchandise, see article 124.

(c) The value of the merchandise on which the penalty is based is that defined by article 1130 of these regulations. (See also art. 1120.)

(d) That the master or owner had no knowledge that the goods not manifested were on board is not sufficient to relieve them from the penalty.

(e) If the unmanifested merchandise is smoking opium or narcotics, the procedure set forth in article 1109 shall be followed.

ART. 124. Post entry.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 440:

If there is any merchandise or baggage on board such vessel which is not included in or which does not agree with the manifest, the master of the vessel shall make a post entry thereof, and mail or deliver a copy to the comptroller of customs for the district in which the port of entry is located, and for failure so to do shall be liable to a penalty of $500.

(b) Post entry on customs Form 3257, in duplicate, shall be made for all merchandise, including bulk merchandise, and baggage, which is not included in or which does not agree with the manifest, and the fee (art. 210) paid. One copy shall be mailed or delivered promptly to the comptroller.

ART. 125. Record of entrance and clearance of vessels.—Permanent records will be kept at every customhouse of the entrance and clearance of vessels, foreign (commerce Form 1404) and coastwise (commerce Form 1405), and shall be open to public inspection.

ART. 126. Sea stores, ship's stores, supplies, equipment—Transfer of.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 446:

Vessels arriving in the United States from foreign ports may retain on board, without the payment of duty, all coal and other fuel supplies, ships' stores, sea stores, and the legitimate equipment of such vessels. Any such supplies, ships' stores, sea stores, or equipment landed and delivered from such vessel shall be considered and treated as imported merchandise: Provided, That bunker coal, bunker oil, ships' stores, sea stores, or the legitimate equipment of vessels belonging to regular lines plying between foreign ports and the United States, which are delayed in port for any cause, may be transferred under a permit by the collector and under customs supervision from the vessel so delayed to another vessel of the same line and owner, and engaged in the foreign trade, without the payment of duty thereon.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 432:

The manifest of any vessel arriving from a foreign port or place shall separately specify the articles to be retained on board of such vessel as sea stores, ship's stores, or bunker coal, or bunker oil, and if any other or greater quantity of sea stores, ship's stores, bunker coal, or bunker oil is found on board of any such vessel than is specified in the manifest, or if any such articles, whether shown on the manifest or not, are landed without a permit therefor issued by the collector, all such articles omitted from the manifest or landed without a permit shall be subject to forfeiture, and the master shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the articles.

(c) The term "sea stores" embraces only articles for use or consumption of passengers and crew of the ship upon its voyage.

(d) The term "ship's stores and equipment" includes all articles, materials, and supplies necessary for the navigation, propulsion, and upkeep of vessels.

(e) Collectors may permit narcotic drugs, except smoking opium, in reasonable quantities, and properly listed as medical stores, to remain on board vessels if satisfied that such drugs are adequately safeguarded and used only as medical supplies.

(f) Ship's or sea stores, supplies, or equipment may be landed on a permit from the collector of customs Form 3171, and in such cases are subject to entry and payment of duty in the same manner and under the same conditions as similar merchandise imported from a foreign country, even though valuable merely as junk. A notation as to the landing of such articles, together with the number of the entry made therefor, shall be made on the vessel's store list, but such notation shall not subject the articles to the post entry requirements, nor shall the vessel be subject to the survey fee for dutiable cargo by reason of the fact that the articles landed are subject to duty.

(g) Such articles are subject to entry and payment of duty when landed even though the vessel has changed from the foreign to the coasting trade and the permit to land, customs Form 3171, is required in all such cases.

ART. 127. Same—Animals.—Cattle, sheep, or other ruminants or swine, which originated in a region in which foot-and-mouth disease, or rinderpest, exists, are forbidden importation, and an arriving vessel having on board as sea stores such animals, is required to be reported to the representative of the Bureau of Animal Industry by the medical officers in charge of quarantine stations. Customs officers should supplement the work of the quarantine officials by advising vessels' officers of the ban.

ART. 128. Equipment and repairs to American vessels engaged in the foreign or coasting trade.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 466:

Sections 3114 and 3115 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by the Tariff Act of 1922, are amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 3114. The equipments, or any part thereof, including boats, purchased for, or the repair parts or materials to be used, or the expenses of repairs made in a foreign country upon a vessel documented under the laws of the United States to engage in the foreign or coasting trade, or a vessel intended to be employed in such trade, shall, on the first arrival of such vessel in any port of the United States, be liable to entry and the payment of an ad valorem duty of 50 per centum on the cost thereof in such foreign country; and if the owner or master of such vessel shall willfully and knowingly neglect or fail to report, make entry, and pay duties as herein required, such vessel, with her tackle, apparel and furniture, shall be seized and forfeited. For the purposes of this section, compensation paid to members of the regular crew of such vessel in connection with the installation of any such equipments or any part thereof, or the making of repairs, in a foreign country, shall not be included in the cost of such equipment or part thereof, or of such repairs.

"SEC. 3115. If the owner or master of such vessel furnishes good and sufficient evidence—

"(1) That such vessel, while in the regular course of her voyage, was compelled, by stress of weather or other casualty, to put into such foreign port and purchase such equipments, or make such repairs, to secure the safety and seaworthiness of the vessel to enable her to reach her port of destination; or

"(2) That such equipments or parts thereof or repair parts or materials, were manufactured or produced in the United States and the labor necessary to install such equipments or to make such repairs was performed by residents of the United States, or by members of the regular crew of such vessel.

then the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to remit or refund such duties, and such vessel shall not be liable to forfeiture, and no license or enrollment and license, or renewal of either, shall hereafter be issued to any such vessel until the collector to whom application is made for the same shall be satisfied, from the oath of the owner or master, that all such equipments and repairs made within the year immediately preceding such application have been duly accounted for under the provisions of this and the preceding sections, and the duties accruing thereon duly paid, and if such owner or master shall refuse to take such oath, or take it falsely, the vessel shall be seized and forfeited."

(b) The master of any such vessel for which equipment has been purchased or to which repairs have been made in a foreign country shall, at the time of entering his vessel, make affidavit on customs Form 3415. If no equipment has been purchased for, or repairs made to such vessel while in a foreign country, an affidavit to that effect shall be made by the master on customs Form 3417. The affidavit on customs Form 3415 or 3417 shall be attached to the certified duplicate manifest of the vessel and submitted therewith to the comptroller (art. 1349, paragraph (c)). The entry number shall be placed on customs Form 3415 before submission to the comptroller for audit.

(c) Entry on customs Form 7535 covering such equipment and/or repairs must be made and estimated duties deposited or bond on customs Form 7567 or 7569 given therefor, before the vessel shall be allowed clearance, except that vessels owned by the United States and managed by the United States Maritime Commission or a similar agency or instrumentality of the United States, although subject to the provisions of section 466 of the Tariff Act of 1930, should be allowed to proceed without the deposit of duties or the filing of a bond, if operated by the agency or instrumentality or by private parties under an agreement providing that the agency or instrumentality shall pay duties accruing under section 466, supra. Vessels owned by the United States and operated by private parties who are liable by agreement for duties accruing under section 466 shall be treated in all respects the same as privately owned vessels. The entries shall be numbered in a separate series prefixed by "V" and scheduled separately on customs Form 5151–B at noncomptroller ports and on customs Form 5151–A at comptroller ports.

(d) It will not be necessary for masters to procure consular invoices, but they should file with the entry in lieu thereof receipts showing the cost of the items enumerated in section 3114, Revised Statutes. If, however, in the case of any vessel, whether owned or operated privately or by the United States Maritime Commission or a similar agency or instrumentality of the United States, it is impracticable to produce such receipts at the time of entry, liquidation of the entry should be suspended pending the furnishing of a complete account of items liable to duty under said section 3114. In such cases the collector shall cause an examination of such equipment and/or repairs to be made, by a representative of the appraiser's office, if possible, in order to verify the cost declared on entry. If the cost of the equipment and/or repairs, as shown by the complete account when filed, differs from that declared on entry, the collector may permit the entry to be amended accordingly. Entries relating to vessels operated by an agency or instrumentality of the United States which has received permission to apply for relief from the payment of duty direct to the Commissioner, as provided in paragraph (f), shall be forwarded by the collector, when complete, to the headquarters of the agency or instrumentality, in triplicate.

(e) When the entry has been completed by the filing of proper evidence of cost and the Commissioner's decision on the application for relief, if any, has been received, the entry shall be duly liquidated.

(f) When relief is sought under section 3115, Revised Statutes, an application therefor shall be made, through the collector of customs, to the Commissioner of Customs, except that the United States Maritime Commission or a similar agency or instrumentality of the United States may make application direct to the Commissioner upon securing his approval of that procedure. Upon submission of an application for relief to the collector for transmittal to the Commissioner, liquidation of the entry, when not already made, shall be suspended pending the decision of the Commissioner as to whether or not the duties may be remitted or refunded. The liquidation of entries filed by agencies or instrumentalities of the United States which have received permission to make application for relief direct to the Commissioner shall be suspended until advice is received either from the agency or instrumentality that no application for relief is to be filed or from the Commissioner as to his decision. Inasmuch as the liquidation of an unprotested entry is final at the expiration of 60 days after the date of liquidation, applications for relief received after that time can not be considered in the absence of a timely protest.

(g) In any case, whether the vessel concerned is operated by an agency or instrumentality of the United States or by a private party, when the liquidation of an entry has been suspended, as provided in this article, for one year, the entry, with the related correspondence, shall be referred to the Commissioner for instructions.

(h) When relief is claimed under subparagraph (1) of section 3115, there shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Customs an affidavit of the master accompanied by the entry, itemized bills covering the cost of the repairs made or equipment purchased, abstracts of the ship's log, and a certificate of the proper officer when the repairs were made in order to obtain a certificate of seaworthiness, all in duplicate.

This affidavit shall set out fully the following information:

(1) The nature of the casualty or stress of weather encountered;

(2) When and where the casualty or stress of weather occurred;

(3) The damage done by the casualty or stress of weather;

(4) The port where the repairs were made or the equipments secured; and

(5) A statement of the master of the vessel as to whether or not the repairs or equipments were required to secure the safety and seaworthiness of the vessel to enable her to reach her port of destination.

(i) When relief is claimed under subparagraph (2) of section 3115, an affidavit of the master shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Customs, accompanied by the evidence in support of the claim, in duplicate.

(j) The master shall certify as true copies or originals, as the case may be, one copy of each repair bill, abstract of the ship's log, report of survey and other documents submitted in support of the application for relief, and if a document is written in a foreign language, it shall be accompanied by a translation thereof, in duplicate, one copy of which shall be certified as to the accuracy of the translation. One copy of the application and of each supporting document will be retained in the Bureau of Customs and the other copies of the application and supporting documents will be returned to the collector with the Commissioner's decision.

(k) The Canal Zone, Virgin Islands, and the Philippine Islands are not "foreign countries" within the meaning of section 466 of the Tariff Act of 1930, and repairs made therein on a vessel of the United States are not dutiable.

(l) For the purpose of these regulations, the term "resident of the United States", as used in section 3115, Revised Statutes, means a person having a permanent place of abode in the United States.

ART. 129. Discrimination against American vessels.—(a) United States Code, title 19, section 130:

No goods, wares, or merchandise, unless in cases provided for by treaty, shall be imported into the United States from any foreign port or place, except in vessels of the United States, or in such foreign vessels as truly and wholly belong to the citizens or subjects of that country of which the goods are the growth, production, or manufacture, or from which such goods, wares, or merchandise can only be, or most usually are, first shipped for transportation. All goods, wares, or merchandise imported contrary to this section, and the vessel wherein the same shall be imported, together with her cargo, tackle, apparel, and furniture, shall be forfeited to the United States; and such goods, wares, or merchandise, ship or vessel, and cargo, shall be liable to be seized, prosecuted, and condemned in like manner and under the same regulations, restrictions, and provisions as have been heretofore established for the recovery, collection, distribution, and remission of forfeitures to the United States by the several revenue laws. (Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, Sec. IV, J, subsec. 2, 38 Stat. 196.)

(b) United States Code, title 19, section 131:

Section 130 of this title shall not apply to vessels or goods, wares, or merchandise imported in vessels of a foreign nation which does not maintain a similar regulation against vessels of the United States nor to any vessel owned by citizens of the United States but not a vessel of the United States if such vessel after entering an American port shall, before leaving the same, be registered as a vessel of the United States. (Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, Sec. IV, J, subsec. 3, 38 Stat. 196; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 171, sec. 1, 38 Stat. 1193.)

(For additional duties on account of discrimination by foreign countries under section 338, Tariff Act, see art. 839.)

DUTIES UPON TONNAGE

ART. 130. Tonnage duty or tax.—(a) Tonnage duty accrues on the entry of all vessels from foreign ports, except vessels in distress or not engaged in trade. It should be imposed on the net tonnage given in a vessel's certificate of registry or other national paper, except where the tonnage is manifestly wrong or where the net tonnage has been changed by an appendix attached to the document, showing a tonnage ascertained under the so-called British rules or those of a foreign country which have been accepted as substantially in accord with American rules, in which case the date of such change should be noted in the records.

(b) A tonnage duty of 2 cents per net ton, not to exceed in the aggregate 10 cents per net ton in any one year, is imposed at each entry on all vessels which shall be entered in any port of the United States from any foreign port or place in North America, Central America, the West India Islands, the Bahama Islands, the Bermuda Islands, Newfoundland, or the coast of South America bordering on the Caribbean Sea (considered to include the mouth of the Orinoco River), and a duty of 6 cents per net ton not to exceed 30 cents per net ton per annum, is imposed at each entry on all vessels which shall be entered in any port of the United States from any other foreign port.

(c) The tonnage year is to be computed from the date of the first payment without regard to its rate, and expires on the day preceding the corresponding date of the following year. There may be five payments at the maximum (6 cent) and five at the minimum (2 cent) rate during a tonnage year, but there should not be more than five at the same rate. The maximum assessment of tonnage duty may, therefore, amount to 40 cents per net ton for the tonnage year of vessels engaged in alternating trade. Tonnage duty will be suspended, in whole or in part, whenever the President, by proclamation, shall so direct.

(d) Tonnage tax should be imposed at 6 cents per net ton on a regularly documented foreign vessel entering from the Philippine Islands, and reported under "Philippine Islands Fund."

(e) Tonnage tax and fees should be imposed on a vessel which enters a port of the United States from a foreign country in ballast either through the Canal Zone or direct.

(f) Tonnage tax should be imposed on a vessel which enters a port of the United States for orders or for ship stores (articles which become a part of the equipment of a vessel).

(g) The rate and amount of tonnage tax to be collected at each entry of vessels should be determined from the facts which each particular case may develop, but the following instructions will serve as a general guide in determining the tax to be assessed:

(1) If a vessel clears from Rio de Janeiro, for instance, in ballast or with cargo, for a port in the United States, this port to be determined on arrival of the vessel at St. Lucia, tonnage tax at the 6-cent rate is to be collected. The vessel before arriving at a port of the United States has not entered exclusively into the West India trade.

(2) If a vessel leaves Rio in ballast and at St. Lucia is ordered to a 2-cent port to lade cargo for the United States, tonnage tax at the rate of 2 cents is to be collected. This vessel is engaged solely in the West India trade.

(3) If a vessel leaves Rio with cargo or in ballast for the United States, and en route takes on part cargo at a 2-cent port for the United States, tonnage tax at the 6-cent rate is to be collected, provided the principal object of the voyage when the vessel left Rio was to come to the United States and the lading of cargo at a 2-cent port was but an incident of that voyage.

(4) If a vessel leaves Rio in ballast, destination unknown, and on arrival at St. Lucia, or en route, that destination is found to be a port of the United States, tonnage tax should be collected at the 6-cent rate. The vessel has not entered into trade with the 2-cent ports, and the voyage from Rio to the United States, is practically continuous.

(5) If a vessel leaves Rio with cargo, destination unknown, and on arrival at St. Lucia is ordered to a 2-cent port where cargo is discharged and a new cargo laden for a port of the United States, the 2-cent rate should be collected, provided none of the cargo taken on at Rio remains on board for discharge in a port of the United States.

(h) The fact that a vessel touches at an intermediate port at which it neither performs such acts as under our laws would require entry and clearance, nor takes on board or discharges passengers or cargo, and which touching is merely an incident in the voyage, will not deprive such vessel of the rights derived from sailing from a 2-cent port, such being its port of departure. In the absence of better evidence the affidavit of the master may be accepted to show the facts.

(i) Tariff Act of 1930, section 588:

If any merchandise is laden at any port or place in the United States upon any vessel belonging wholly or in part to a subject of a foreign country, and is taken thence to a foreign port or place to be reladen and reshipped to any other port in the United States, either by the same or by another vessel, foreign or American, with intent to evade the provisions relating to the transportation of merchandise from one port or place of the United States to another port or place of the United States in a vessel belonging wholly or in part to a subject of any foreign power, the merchandise shall, on its arrival at such last-named port or place, be seized and forfeited to the United States, and the vessel shall pay a tonnage duty of 50 cents per net ton.

ART. 131. Exemptions from tonnage duty.—(a) Tonnage tax shall not be imposed on—

(1) Vessels arriving in distress, even when required to enter.

(2) Vessels not engaged in trade—

(a) Vessels of war; public vessels employed for the conveyance of letters and dispatches, and vessels carrying fuel for war vessels, if they do not carry passengers or merchandise in trade.

(b) Yachts and other pleasure vessels, if they do not carry passengers or merchandise in trade.

(c) Vessels coming in for bunkers (fuel or water for the vessel), or sea stores (food or water for the passengers or crew). If such vessels remain more than 24 hours, their masters must make entry, but tonnage tax should not be imposed unless cargo or passengers are taken on or landed, or other acts done which usually require payment of tax.

(d) Vessels engaged exclusively in scientific activities.

(e) Vessels engaged exclusively in laying or repairing cables.

(f) Vessels engaged in whaling or other fisheries, even though they may have entered a foreign port for fuel or supplies, if they did not carry passengers or merchandise in trade.

(3) Passenger vessels making three trips or more a week between a port of the United States and a foreign port, or vessels used exclusively as ferryboats, carrying passengers, baggage, or merchandise.

(4) Tugs enrolled and licensed to engage in the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers (Great Lakes) when towing vessels which are required by law to enter and clear.

(5) Vessels which enter otherwise than by sea (Great Lakes) from a foreign port at which tonnage or lighthouse dues or other equivalent tax or taxes are not imposed on vessels of the United States, shall be exempt from the tonnage duty of 2 cents per ton.

(6) Vessels owned by citizens of the Philippine Islands and documented by the Philippine Government, and American vessels coming direct from these islands.

(7) Vessels entering direct from the Virgin Islands of the United States, the Canal Zone, the United States Naval station at Guantanamo (Cuba), American Samoa, or the islands of Guam and Wake.

(b) In case of vessels making regular daily trips between any port of the United States and any port in the Dominion of Canada wholly upon interior waters not navigable to the ocean, no tonnage or clearance fees shall be charged against such vessels by the officers of the United States except upon the first clearing of such vessels in each year.

ART. 132. Light money.—A duty of 50 cents per ton, to be denominated "light money", shall be levied and collected on all vessels not of the United States, which may enter the ports of the United States. Such light money shall be levied and collected in the same manner and under the same regulations as the tonnage duties: Provided, That no such duty shall be required where a vessel owned by citizens of the United States, but not a vessel of the United States, after entering an American port, shall, before leaving the same, be registered as a vessel of the United States, nor for a vessel owned by a citizen or citizens of the Philippine Islands when documented by the government of said islands.

ART. 133. Rates of tonnage duty.—(a) The following table shows the rates of tonnage duty and "light money" to which the several classes of vessels are liable:

| Classes of vessels | Under what law | Rate per net ton |
|---|---|---|
| Vessels of the United States: | | |
| 1. Whose officers are citizens [1] | Act of Aug. 5, 1909, sec. 36 | $0.02 or $0.06 |
| And, in addition, if any officer is not a citizen. | R. S., 4219 | .50 |
| Vessels not of the United States: | | |
| 1. Not built in the United States, but belonging to citizens thereof, and provided with sea letters or other customhouse documents proving the vessels to be American property. (See sec. 4226, R. S.) [2] | Act of Aug. 5, 1909, sec. 36 | .02 or .06 |
| | R. S., 4219 | .50 |
| And, in addition, if the owner or master refuses to take the oath required by section 4226, R. S. | R. S., 4225, "light money" | .50 |
| 2. Vessels not of the United States | (When under treaty and proclamation, the same as vessels of the United States.) | .02 or .06 |
| 3. Belonging wholly or in part to subjects of foreign powers, and not having privileges under treaties and proclamations— | | |
| (a) Built in the United States, etc. | Act of Aug. 5, 1909, sec. 36 | .02 or .06 |
| | R. S. 4219 | .30 |
| | R. S., 4225, "light money" | .50 |
| (b) Not built in the United States. | Act of Aug. 5, 1909, sec. 36 | .02 or .06 |
| | R. S., 4219 | .50 |
| | R. S., 4225, "light money" | .50 |
| (c) Wherever built, which enter from a foreign port or place where vessels of the United States are not ordinarily permitted to enter and trade (to be collected on each entry from such port or place). | Act of Aug. 5, 1909, sec. 36 | .02 or . |
| | R. S., 4219 | 2.00 |
| | R. S., 4225, "light money" | .50 |
| 4. Without documents— | Act of Aug. 5, 1909, sec. 36 | .02 or .06 |
| (a) Built in the United States, etc. (the same as vessels of class 3*a*). | R. S., 4219 | .30 |
| | R. S., 4225, "light money" | .50 |
| (b) Not built in the United States (the same as vessels of class 3*b*). | Act of Aug. 5, 1909, sec. 36 | .02 or .06 |
| | R. S., 4219 | .50 |

[1] The duty prescribed by R. S. 4219 is not to be collected provided the vessel is registered under the act of Aug. 18, 1914.

[2] The duty prescribed by R. S. 4219 and 4225 on a vessel owned by a citizen of the United States is not to be collected provided the vessel after entering an American port shall, before leaving, be registered as a vessel of the United States.

(b) Foreign-built yachts owned or chartered by American citizens the title to which was acquired subsequent to February 5, 1897, are subject to tonnage tax on entry from foreign ports under section 4219, Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 46, sec. 121), and light money under section 4225, Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 46, sec. 128), unless exempted from the latter by section 4226, Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 46, sec. 129). An unrecorded bill of sale is not such a document as will exempt a vessel from the payment of light money under section 4225, Revised Statutes, and the recording of such bill of sale after the arrival of the vessel is not sufficient to relieve it from the payment of the tax.

(c) The decision of the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation is final on all questions of interpretation relating to the collection of tonnage tax and to the refund of such tax when collected erroneously or illegally, and collectors should, when in doubt, refer questions for his consideration and instructions.

ART. 134. Certificate of payment.—A certificate on Commerce Form 1002 will be issued by collectors to every master showing the date and number of each and every payment made by him during the tonnage year, which will constitute the official evidence of such payments. In the absence of such certificate, evidence of payment of tonnage duty must be obtained from the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation.

ART. 135. Application for refund of tonnage duty.—(a) On account of the expense and difficulty of obtaining a refund of money excessively or erroneously collected, customs officers are instructed to place in special deposit, if such course is practicable, money collected under protest or where there is reason to believe that application for refund will be made immediately.

(b) If, however, it is found necessary to deposit collections to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States on account of fiscal regulations, or for any other reason, and refund is asked, collectors may notify the payor to prepare an application requesting refund of the amount which he alleges was excessively or erroneously collected. In the preparation of this application the following instructions will be observed:

(1) The application must be in duplicate, each signed, addressed to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation, and submitted through the collector of customs.

(2) It must be a direct request for the refund of a definite sum, showing concisely the reasons therefor, the nationality, rig, and name of the vessel, and the date, place, and amount of each payment for which refund is asked. A protest against a payment will not be accepted as an application for its refund.

(3) It must be made within 1 year from date of the payment. A protest against a payment will not alone be sufficient to bring a claim within the statute.

(4) The application and its duplicate should be forwarded to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation by the collector of customs after all statements which are of record in his district have been verified, and with such comments as he may choose to make.

(5) A certified statement, also in duplicate (commerce Form 1086), should be carefully prepared and forwarded to the Director of Marine Inspection and Navigation after the collector has been so authorized. In preparing this statement the collector should bear in mind that it must be signed by the owner or charterer of the vessel, whose name and address must be given in every instance as the payee, even when the money to be refunded had been paid by an agent or representative, as the Comptroller General has held that such payor must look to his principal for repayment.

ART. 136. Vessels in the domestic trade.—(a) Tonnage duty accrues generally on the arrival at any port of the United States of any registered vessel which, while bound on a voyage from one domestic port to another, has entered at any foreign port, unless such entrance was made in distress or only for bunker coal or fuel oil.

(b) Vessels enrolled and licensed for trade in the waters of the northern frontiers, entering direct from a foreign port, must pay tonnage tax, except as otherwise directed; but if such vessels clear from a port in one collection district for a port in another collection district and complete the voyage to the port of destination, they are not required to pay tonnage tax, although during the voyage they may touch at intermediate foreign ports and receive on board dutiable goods.

(c) Foreign steam tugs employed in towing coastwise vessels are liable to pay 50 cents per ton on the measurement of the vessel towed unless the towing is done in whole or in part within or upon foreign waters or when the tugboat is owned by a foreign railway company whose cars enter into the United States by means of such transportation.

ART. 137. Alien officers on vessels of the United States.—There will be collected from every vessel of the United States of which an alien shall be an officer a duty of 50 cents per ton, unless such alien shall have supplied a vacancy occurring during a foreign voyage or a voyage between Atlantic and Pacific ports, in any place below the rank of master; but such alien shall not act as officer after the return of the vessel to her home port. In all such cases the collector will report the facts to the Secretary of Commerce for instructions before imposing the duty.

LANDING AND DELIVERY OF CARGO

ART. 138. Permit to unlade—Penalties.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 447:

It shall be unlawful to • • • unlade the cargo or any part thereof of any vessel elsewhere than at a port of entry • • •.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 448 (a):

Except as provided in section 441 of this Act (relating to vessels not required to enter), no merchandise, passengers, or baggage shall be unladen from any vessel or vehicle arriving from a foreign port or place until entry of such vessel or report of the arrival of such vehicle has been made and a permit for the unlading of the same issued by the collector: Provided, That the master may make a preliminary entry of a vessel by making oath or affirmation to the truth of the statements contained in the vessel's manifest and delivering the manifest to the customs officer who boards such vessel, but the making of such preliminary entry shall not excuse the master from making formal entry of his vessel at the customhouse, as provided by this Act. After the entry, preliminary or otherwise, of any vessel or report of the arrival of any vehicle, the collector may issue a permit to the master of the vessel, or to the person in charge of the vehicle, to unlade merchandise or baggage, but except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section merchandise or baggage so unladen shall be retained at the place of unlading until entry therefor is made and a permit for its delivery granted, and the owners of the vessel or vehicle from which any imported merchandise is unladen prior to entry of such merchandise shall be liable for the payment of the duties accruing on any part thereof that may be removed from the place of unlading without a permit therefor having been issued. • • •

(c) At the time of making entry of his vessel at the customhouse the master shall make application in duplicate on customs Form 3171 for a permit to unlade (same form), unless previously issued in connection with the preliminary entry.

(For preliminary entry procedure, see art. 112.)

(d) After preliminary entry of the vessel, a special permit may be issued for the landing of laundry and other articles belonging to the vessel, provided the master certifies that the articles are being landed solely to be laundered or repaired and returned to the vessel, and the customs officer in charge is satisfied, after such examination as he may deem necessary, that the articles are of the character described.

(For preliminary entry procedure, see art. 112.)

(e) The issuance of a general permit to discharge cargo of vessels arriving from a foreign port, after formal or preliminary entry, is predicated on a compliance with one or more of the following conditions:

(1) The merchandise must have been duly entered and permits issued; or

(2) A vessel bond shall have been given and an application made and permit granted to allow unpermitted cargo to remain on the wharf (customs Form 3189 or 3853–a); or

(3) Upon discharge in collector's custody as provided in section 490 (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930. (See Vessels in distress, art. 143.)

(f) Bonds are not required of vessels of the United States Maritime Commission under "Operating agreement 1935."

(g) Tariff Act of 1930, section 450:

No merchandise, baggage, or passengers arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, and no bonded merchandise or baggage being transported from one port to another, shall be unladen from the carrying vessel or vehicle on Sunday, a holiday, or at night, except under special license granted by the collector under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(h) Tariff Act of 1930, section 453:

If any merchandise or baggage is laden on, or unladen from, any vessel or vehicle without a special license or permit therefor issued by the collector, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle and every other person who knowingly is concerned, or who aids therein, or in removing or otherwise securing such merchandise or baggage, shall each be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise or baggage so laden or unladen, and such merchandise or baggage shall be subject to forfeiture, and if the value thereof is $500 or more, the vessel or vehicle on or from which the same shall be laden or unladen shall be subject to forfeiture.

(i) Tariff Act of 1930, section 454:

If any passenger is unladen from any vessel or vehicle without a special license or permit therefor issued by the collector, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle and every other person who knowingly is concerned, or who aids therein, shall each be liable to a penalty of $500 for each such passenger so unladen.

(j) Tariff Act of 1930, section 586, as amended by section 205 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of August 5, 1935:

(a) The master of any vessel from a foreign port or place who allows any merchandise (including sea stores) to be unladen from such vessel at any time after its arrival within the customs waters and before such vessel has come to the proper place for the discharge of such merchandise, and before he has received a permit to unlade shall be liable to a penalty equal to twice the value of the merchandise but not less than $1,000, and such vessel and its cargo and the merchandise so unladen shall be seized and forfeited.

(b) The master of any vessel from a foreign port or place who allows any merchandise (including sea stores), the importation of which into the United States is prohibited, or which consists of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors, to be unladen from his vessel at any place upon the high seas adjacent to the customs waters of the United States to be transshipped to or placed in or received on any vessel of any description, with knowledge, or under circumstances indicating the purpose to render it possible, that such merchandise, or any part thereof, may be introduced, or attempted to be introduced, into the United States in violation of law, shall be liable to a penalty equal to twice the value of the merchandise but not less than $1,000, and the vessel from which the merchandise is so unladen, and its cargo and such merchandise, shall be seized and forfeited.

(c) The master of any vessel from a foreign port or place who allows any merchandise (including sea stores) destined to the United States, the importation of which into the United States is prohibited, or which consists of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors, to be unladen, without permit to unlade, at any place upon the high seas adjacent to the customs waters of the United States, to be transshipped to or placed in or received on any vessel of the United States or any other vessel which is owned by any person a citizen of, or domiciled in, the United States, or any corporation incorporated in the United States, shall be liable to a penalty equal to twice the value of the merchandise but not less than $1,000, and the vessel from which the merchandise is so unladen, and its cargo and such merchandise, shall be seized and forfeited.

(d) If any merchandise (including sea stores) unladen in violation of the provisions of this section is transshipped to or placed in or received on any other vessel, the master of the vessel on which such merchandise is placed, and any person aiding or assisting therein, shall be liable to a penalty equal to twice the value of the merchandise, but not less than $1,000, and such vessel, and its cargo and such merchandise, shall be seized and forfeited.

(e) Whoever, at any place, if a citizen of the United States, or at any place in the United States or within one league of the coast of the United States, if a foreign national, shall engage or aid or assist in any unlading or transshipment of any merchandise in consequence of which any vessel becomes subject to forfeiture under the provisions of this section shall, in addition to any other penalties provided by law, be liable to imprisonment for not more than two years.

(f) Whenever any part of the cargo or stores of a vessel has been unladen or transshipped because of accident, stress of weather, or other necessity, the master of such vessel and the master of any vessel to which such cargo or stores has been transshipped shall, as soon as possible thereafter, notify the collector of the district within which such unlading or transshipment has occurred, or the collector within the district at which such vessel shall first arrive thereafter, and shall furnish proof that such unlading or transshipment was made necessary by accident, stress of weather, or other unavoidable cause, and if the collector is satisfied that the unlading or transshipment was in fact due to accident, stress of weather, or other necessity, the penalties described in this section shall not be incurred.

ART. 139. Unlading or transshipment due to accident or other casualty.—(a) Whenever any part of the cargo or stores of a vessel has been unladen or transshipped because of accident, stress of weather, or other necessity, the master of such vessel shall, as soon as possible thereafter, notify the collector of the district within which such unlading or transshipment has occurred, or the collector within the district at which such vessel shall first arrive thereafter, and shall furnish proof that such unlading or transshipment was made necessary by unavoidable causes, and if the collector is satisfied of such fact, no penalty will be incurred. (See art. 138.)

(b) The affidavit of the master with two or more officers or members of the crew of the vessel of whom the mate or person next in command shall be one, taken before the collector, may be accepted as proof of the facts.

(c) The collector may then permit entry of the vessel and its cargo and permit the unlading in such place in his district as he may deem proper, to be forwarded to the port of destination, or duty paid at such place of discharge. Such cargo may be forwarded to destination in the same manner as merchandise is forwarded for immediate transportation, or for transportation and exportation, as the case may be. All regulations shall apply in such cases as if the unlading and delivery took place at the port of destination.

ART. 140. Discharge of ballast.—A master of a vessel bringing ballast of no mercantile value may obtain permission on customs Form 3171 to discharge the same.

ART. 141. Change of port of destination—Diverted cargo—Emergency.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 449:

Except as provided in sections 442 and 447 of this Act (relating to residue cargo and to bulk cargo, respectively), merchandise and baggage imported in any vessel by sea shall be unladen at the port of entry, to which such vessel is destined, unless (1) such vessel is compelled by any cause to put into another port of entry, and the collector of such port issues a permit for the unlading of such merchandise or baggage, or (2) the Secretary of the Treasury, because of an emergency existing at the port of destination, authorizes such vessel to proceed to another port of entry. Merchandise and baggage so unladen may be entered in the same manner as other imported merchandise or baggage and may be treated as unclaimed merchandise or baggage and stored at the expense and risk of the owner thereof, or may be reladen without entry upon the vessel from which it was unladen for transportation to its destination.

(b) Should an emergency exist at the port of destination, the Secretary of the Treasury may authorize a collector to permit a vessel which has entered with imported merchandise shown by the manifest to be destined to his port to proceed to another port of entry to unlade (following residue cargo bond procedure), provided the agent of the carrier makes written application therefor, stating reasons, and agreeing to hold the collector and the Government harmless for such diversion.

(c) Such merchandise and baggage unladen at the second port, under these circumstances, may be entered in the same manner as other imported merchandise and baggage; it may be treated as unclaimed, or it may be reladen without entry for transportation to its original destination.

(d) The destination of particular shipments may be changed on the joint request of the consignee and the carrier. For procedure see article 150, paragraphs (m), (n), (o), (p), and (q).

ART. 142. Prematurely discharged, overcarried, inaccessible, and undelivered cargo.—(a) On written application of the steamship company the collector may permit inward foreign cargo remaining on the dock, which was prematurely landed and left behind by the importing vessel, to be reladen on board the next available vessel of the same line on which the forwarding to destination of the prematurely landed cargo may be accomplished, provided it is shown on the original entrance manifest that such merchandise was so destined, and also provided the importing vessel was scheduled for and actually entered at the port of destination of the prematurely landed cargo. Unless so forwarded within 30 days from the date of landing, such cargo must be appropriately entered for customs clearance or for forwarding in bond. Otherwise, it shall be sent to general order as unclaimed.

(b) The collector may permit merchandise not landed at destination and overcarried to another domestic port through error to be returned to destination in the importing vessel, or in another vessel of the same line, in accordance with the provisions of and under the conditions stated in paragraph (a).

(c) Cargo so stowed as to be inaccessible upon arrival at destination may be retained on board, carried forward to another domestic port or ports and returned to port of destination in the importing vessel, or in another vessel of the same line, in the same manner as overcarried cargo.

(d) Prematurely landed, overcarried, or inaccessible cargo forwarded to destination by the importing vessel or another vessel of the same line shall be distinctively manifested in triplicate with appropriate notations, on an inward foreign manifest (customs Form 7527B), the abstract manifests certified, and the vessel cleared on a permit to proceed, etc. (commerce Form 1385) on which shall be shown the full details of all the vessel transactions and such information as is required in the case of regular residue cargo by the collector at the port where this cargo is to be discharged. A separate certificate (customs Form 3221) specifying foreign ports and the dates of departure of the importing vessel therefrom shall be issued in instances where merchandise is forwarded in a vessel other than the one in which the cargo was imported.

(e) A vessel upon which is forwarded (or returned) prematurely landed, overcarried, or inaccessible cargo, shall upon arrival at all intermediate ports, and at destination, comply with all the requirements prescribed for a vessel arriving with cargo from a foreign port via a domestic port (art. 150).

(f) Merchandise exported from a domestic port but undelivered at the foreign destination and brought back, should be manifested as "Undelivered—To be returned to original foreign destination", and permit to retain on board issued, or on written application of the steamship company, the collector may permit such merchandise to be transferred to another vessel (customs Form 7500A) for return to original foreign destinations. No charge should be made against the vessel bond. The items should be remanifested outward and an explanatory reference of the attending circumstances and compliance with export requirements noted.

ART. 143. Vessels in distress—Landing of cargo.—(a) When a vessel from a foreign port arrives in distress at a port other than that to which the same is destined, a permit to land merchandise or baggage may be issued if such action is necessary. Merchandise and baggage so unladen shall be taken into customs custody and may be entered and disposed of in the same manner as any other imported merchandise or may be reladen without entry on the vessel from which it was unladen for transportation to its destination, subject only to charges for storage and safekeeping and fees for entrance and clearance. (See arts. 107 and 141.)

(b) A bond should be required in order to insure the proper disposition of the cargo, whether such cargo be dutiable or free.

(c) Vessels not exceeding 500 net tons with alcoholic liquors aboard arriving in distress will be subject to the provisions of articles 122 (m) and (n) and 151 of these regulations.

ART. 144. Time limit for discharge of cargo.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 457:

Whenever any merchandise remains on board any vessel or vehicle from a foreign port more than 25 days after the date on which report of said vessel or vehicle was made, the collector may take possession of such merchandise and cause the same to be unladen at the expense and risk of the owners thereof, or may place one or more inspectors or other customs officers on board of said vessel or vehicle to protect the revenue. The compensation and expenses of any such inspector or customs officer for subsistence while on board of such vessel or vehicle shall be reimbursed to the Government by the owner or master of such vessel or vehicle.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 458:

The limitation of time for unlading shall not extend to vessels laden exclusively with merchandise in bulk consigned to one consignee and arriving at a port for orders, but if the master of such vessel requests a longer time to discharge its cargo, the compensation of the inspectors or other customs officers whose services are required in connection with the unlading shall, for every day consumed in unlading in excess of 25 days from the date of the vessel's entry, be reimbursed by the master or owner of such vessel.

(c) The Compensation of the inspector must be deposited with the collector, and, if, by reason of the delivery of the cargo in other districts, the limitation is exceeded, the compensation of the inspector in charge is to be paid for every day in excess, and before clearance shall be granted to such vessel the inspector must render an account in duplicate of the amount due for overtime—one copy to be delivered to the consignee and the other to the collector.

(d) Tariff Act of 1930, section 431:

• • • the master of any vessel laden exclusively with coal, sugar, salt, nitrates, hides, dyewoods, wool, or other merchandise in bulk consigned to one owner and arriving at a port for orders may destine such cargo "for orders", and within 15 days thereafter, but before the unlading of any part of the cargo such manifest may be amended by the master by designating the port or ports of discharge of such cargo, and in the event of failure to amend the manifest within the time permitted such cargo must be discharged at the port at which the vessel arrived and entered.

(e) The master of a vessel so laden will enter the vessel "for orders", and within 15 days thereafter and before the unlading of any part of the cargo, he may be permitted to amend the manifest by designating the actual port of discharge of such vessel. In the event of failure to designate the port of discharge within 15 days the cargo must be discharged at the port where the vessel entered.

ART. 145. General order—Extension of lay-order period.—(a) All merchandise unladen after the expiration of the 25-day period, for which no customs permit has been presented to the discharging inspector, shall be taken possession of by the collector and ordered sent to the public stores or general-order warehouse (customs Form 3193) and stored at the expense and risk of the owner of such merchandise.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 490:

Whenever entry of any imported merchandise is not made within the time provided by law or the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, or whenever entry of such merchandise is incomplete because of failure to pay the estimated duties, or whenever, in the opinion of the collector, entry of such merchandise cannot be made for want of proper documents or other cause, or whenever the collector believes that any merchandise is not correctly and legally invoiced, he shall take the merchandise into his custody and send it to a bonded warehouse or public store, to be held at the risk and expense of the consignee until entry is made or completed and the proper documents are produced, or a bond given for their production.

At the request of the consignee of any merchandise, or of the owner or master of the vessel or the person in charge of the vehicle in which the same is imported, any merchandise may be taken possession of by the collector after the expiration of 1 day after the entry of the vessel or report of the vehicle and may be unladen and held at the risk and expense of the consignee until entry thereof is made.

(c) One working day must intervene between the receipt of the request and the issuance of the order to discharge and send the merchandise to the public stores or general-order warehouse.

(d) Tariff Act of 1930, section 448 (a):

• • • After the entry, preliminary or otherwise, of any vessel or report of the arrival of any vehicle, the collector may issue a permit to the master of the vessel, or to the person in charge of the vehicle, to unlade merchandise or baggage, but except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section merchandise or baggage so unladen shall be retained at the place of unlading until entry therefor is made and a permit for its delivery granted, and the owners of the vessel or vehicle from which any imported merchandise is unladen prior to entry of such merchandise shall be liable for the payment of the duties accruing on any part thereof that may be removed from the place of unlading without a permit therefor having been issued. Any merchandise or baggage so unladen from any vessel or vehicle for which entry is not made within 48 hours exclusive of Sunday and holidays from the time of the entry of the vessel or report of the vehicle, unless a longer time is granted by the collector, as provided in section 484, shall be sent to a bonded warehouse or the public stores and held as unclaimed at the risk and expense of the consignee in the case of merchandise and of the owner in the case of baggage, until entry thereof is made.

(See art. 354 as to immediate delivery authorized by subsec. (b) of sec. 448 of the Tariff Act of 1930.)

(e) Inasmuch as the bills of lading usually provide that the cargo is deliverable immediately after the entry of a vessel, the collector may at once take possession of such merchandise and deposit the same in a general-order warehouse, but at the written request of the owner, agent, or master of the vessel (customs Form 3189), and at the risk and liability of the owner of the vessel, the collector may issue a lay order permitting the cargo landed, but not permitted, to remain on the wharf or pier properly protected, for a period of two working days after the entry of the vessel, not including the day on which the vessel is entered.

(f) The day of a vessel's entrance should be disregarded in calculating this general-order period, to make the general order effective at 5 p. m. on the second day after the day on which the vessel entered.

(g) This period may be extended in cases of necessity upon application of such owner, agent, or master. At the expiration of the said period the inspector will send the unpermitted merchandise to the designated warehouse and have the same weighed and gauged, if required.

(h) If the master or agent of a vessel entered under a preliminary entry fails to apply for a general order the collector should take possession of all unpermitted merchandise unladen from the vessel at the expiration of the usual period and send same to public store or a designated general-order warehouse.

(i) All merchandise or baggage unladen from a vessel for which no permit has been received before expiration of the "general-order" period, shall be sent to the public stores or general-order warehouse and held as unclaimed at the risk and expense of the consignee or owner.

(j) Collectors may approve applications of importers for further extensions of the lay-order time on separate importations, when concurred in by the transportation companies, and upon the importer's executing, in duplicate, a stipulation on customs Form 3207.

ART. 146. Release of cargo.—Entry having been made of the merchandise, and any duties thereon having been estimated and paid, or secured to be paid, the collector shall grant a permit (customs Form 7501a or 7502a) to release such merchandise, and then, and not before, it shall be lawful to release the same.

ART. 147. Record of disposition of cargo.—(a) The discharging inspectors will show the disposition of the cargo by noting on the certified duplicate manifest the various entries made therefor, with their numbers, and by indicating packages sent to the public stores or under general order, and noting all discrepancies between the manifests, the permits, and the merchandise found. They will also report on customs Form 5931 goods manifested but not landed and goods landed but not manifested. The certified duplicate manifest and such report, together with the permits, orders, receipts, and other vouchers covering the merchandise, will be forwarded to the surveyor or to the collector, if there be no surveyor, accompanied by customs Form 5933, signed by the discharging inspectors. This will constitute the return of the discharge of cargo as provided for in article 1349.

(b) Discrepancies shown by the inspectors' report of the unlading of a vessel's cargo (customs Form 5931) must be adjusted without undue delay either by post entry for merchandise found on board, but not manifested, or by an affidavit accounting for merchandise manifested but not found on board, or by both. In the absence of the master, discrepancies may be adjusted by the agent of a vessel. (See arts. 123 and 124.)

ART. 148. Discharge of cargo at unusual places.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 447:

It shall be unlawful • • • to unlade the cargo or any part thereof of any vessel elsewhere than at a port of entry: Provided, • • • That any vessel laden with merchandise in bulk may proceed after entry of such vessel to any place designated by the Secretary of the Treasury for the purpose of unlading such cargo, under the supervision of customs officers if the collector shall consider the same necessary, and in such case the compensation and expenses of such officers shall be reimbursed to the Government by the party in interest.

(b) Collectors may, if they consider the same necessary, permit any vessel laden with merchandise in bulk to proceed after entry of such vessel and its cargo to any place within their respective districts for the purpose of unlading such cargo.

(c) In such case a deposit of a sum sufficient to reimburse the Government for the compensation, travel, and subsistence expenses of the officers detailed to supervise the unlading and delivery of the cargo shall be made by the party in interest.

ART. 149. Simultaneous vessel transactions or movements.—(a) Vessels may move between coastwise ports engaged in several transactions or movements simultaneously, i. e.:

(1) To discharge residue cargo or passengers for domestic ports, under article 150.

(2) With foreign cargo destined for foreign ports, to be retained on board under article 151.

(3) To lade domestic cargo for foreign ports, via another domestic port, under article 183.

(4) American vessel on a coastwise voyage, under article 198.

(5) American vessel to a port in noncontiguous United States territory, under article 199 (a).

(6) American vessel on an intercoastal voyage, under article 199 (b).

(b) In all cases care should be exercised to indicate all the movements of the vessels on commerce Form 1385.

(c) A vessel with foreign cargo destined for several domestic ports, and for a foreign port or ports, will proceed from domestic port to domestic port on commerce Form 1385, and foreign clearance will be granted at the last domestic port.

(d) Any vessel proceeding from port to port with residue cargo may also lade cargo at each port for export, as outlined in article 183, and the manifest and statistical requirements should be met at each port. American vessels only, so proceeding, may lade cargo for delivery at coastwise, intercoastal, or noncontiguous American ports.

(e) The inward foreign voyage will be completed at port of final discharge. The outward foreign voyage begins at the port where cargo was first laden for export.

(f) Where a vessel is engaged in simultaneous transactions or movements, but one fee should be exacted.

ART. 150. Residue cargo for domestic ports—Bond—Penalty.—(a) Tariff Act 1930, section 442:

• • • Any vessel arriving from a foreign port or place having on board merchandise shown by the manifest to be destined to a port or ports in the United States other than the port of entry at which such vessel first arrived and made entry may proceed with such merchandise from port to port or from district to district for the unlading thereof.

(b) Tariff Act 1930, section 443:

Merchandise arriving in any vessel for delivery in different districts or ports of entry shall be described in the manifest in the order of the districts or ports at or in which the same is to be unladen. Before any vessel arriving in the United States with any such merchandise shall depart from the port of first arrival the master shall obtain from the collector a permit therefor with a certified copy of the vessel's manifest showing the quantities and particulars of the merchandise entered at such port of entry and of that remaining on board.

(c) Passengers arriving on such vessels may likewise be carried to destination. An essential requirement of this movement is that the customs officers at each port of discharge shall have available for reference while the vessel is in port a record of the complete lading of the vessel for the particular voyage and that on clearance from the first and each succeeding port there shall be presented a legible manifest in duplicate for that part of the cargo remaining on board for delivery at subsequent ports. Such manifests may consist of copies of the complete manifest with that part showing cargo previously discharged deleted, provided such copies are legible. The foregoing manifests are in addition to the comptroller's copies required by paragraphs (r) and (s) of this article.

(d) On clearance at the first port the master shall subscribe to the oath (commerce Form 1385) in triplicate with subdivision (1) filled in. The master shall also present a manifest, in duplicate, of all the foreign cargo then retained on board for delivery at other domestic or foreign ports, to which shall be attached the second and third copies of commerce Form 1385, with the permit to proceed (subdivision 2) filled in. These manifests shall be returned to the master together with a certified copy of the complete manifest filed on entrance from the foreign port, with a certificate (customs Form 3221) attached thereto, on which shall be shown all the foreign ports visited, beginning with the first foreign port of lading, and the dates of departure therefrom, which shall be deposited for reference purposes at each port of discharge. The ports visited and dates of departure therefrom shall be, as shown on the master's entrance oath at the port of first arrival, considered official for purposes of liquidation and if any errors or omissions are discovered after entrance of the vessel at the first port they shall be corrected by the master or agents of the vessel by a supplemental oath filed with the collector at the first port, or if discovered after leaving the first port, the correction shall be made in the same manner with the collector at the port of call next after discovery of the error or omission, who shall notify all preceding ports of discharge accordingly, and forward the supplemental oath to the collector at the port of first arrival.

(e) Whether the cargo is dutiable or free, a charge shall be made against the term bond (customs Form 7569) if on file, or a bond (customs Form 7567) shall be given at the port of first arrival, conditioned that no merchandise shall be landed in the United States without entry therefor having been made and a permit secured.

(f) Bonds covering United States Maritime Commission vessels under operating agreement 1935, have been waived, but as the Commission stipulated and agreed to observe all the requirements, and to assume the same responsibilities as if the bonds had been executed, collectors will continue to issue and forward landing certificates (customs Form 3225) whenever cargo is carried forward.

(g) Tariff Act of 1930, section 444:

Within 24 hours after the arrival of such vessel at another port of entry, the master shall report the arrival of his vessel to the collector at such port and shall produce the permit issued by the collector at the port of first arrival, together with the certified copy of his manifest.

(h) On arrival at the next domestic port the master will enter his vessel within 24 hours by presenting the duplicate manifests and permits to proceed together with the certified copy of the complete manifest, carried forward from the preceeding port. He will also make oath on customs Form 3251 which will be attached to one permit to proceed and extract manifest for collector's files, and the other permit and extract manifest will be sent to the discharging inspector to apprise him of the movement and cargo of the vessel. On departure for the next port duplicate manifests of the foreign cargo then remaining on board and permits to proceed shall be prepared in the same manner as on departure from the first port, and the collector shall return to the master the certified complete manifest deposited at the time of entry with a new certificate (customs Form 3221) attached thereto on which shall appear the following notation:

For foreign ports and dates of departure therefrom, see attached form 3221 issued at ——— ———, the first domestic port of entry. These movements should be recorded as foreign transactions.

(i) At each intermediate port the same procedure will be followed, i. e., the vessel shall be entered within 24 hours on the duplicate manifests and permits carried forward from the preceding port, and cleared on duplicate manifests of the cargo remaining on board. The certified complete manifest with the certificates issued at original and intermediate ports attached, shall be permanently filed at the final port of discharge. The complete manifest will, therefore, be at the first and last ports of discharge.

(j) Landing certificates (customs Form 3225) should be issued by the collector at the port of landing and forwarded to the collector at the port of first arrival, or where the bond was given.

(k) Tariff Act of 1930, section 445:

If the master of any such vessel shall proceed to another port or district without having obtained a permit therefor and a certified copy of his manifest, or if he shall fail to produce such permit and certified copy of his manifest to the collector at the port of destination, or if he shall proceed to any port not specified in the permit, he shall be liable to a penalty, for each offense, of not more than $500.

(l) If it becomes necessary to substitute one American vessel for another, collectors may grant an application from a regularly established company and issue an order to transfer the cargo and/or passengers. Notice of the withdrawal of a particular vessel and the substitution of another must be furnished by the collector granting the application, to the collector at the first domestic port where the bond was given.

(m) Provided there is no evidence of intent to violate the coastwise laws by foreign vessels, the destination in the United States of foreign cargo appearing on entrance manifest may be changed at any domestic port to permit the landing of such cargo at any other domestic port, when the consignee or his authorized representative and the vessel's owners or agents join in a written application therefor, in which they each stipulate that in consideration of the approval of the diversion the collector shall be held blameless for any consequence of the act. The owners or agents of the vessel should be required to furnish amended manifests which should be resworn to, and one copy should be forwarded to the collector at the port where the bond was given. The obligation to forward landing certificates (customs Form 3225) rests with the port to which the cargo was diverted. The certified manifest must not be altered or added to in any way by masters or agents but in instances where the applications for changes of destination are approved, that fact and a specific reference to the manifest sheet number and the bills of lading numbers, if any, should be included in the certification on the certified (traveling) manifest.

(n) When a vessel arriving at a port in a comptroller district files a manifest showing inward foreign cargo destined to another port in the same comptroller district and leaves such district without calling at the latter port, and such cargo, without having been diverted in such district, is subsequently diverted in another comptroller district, the collector to whom application for diversion is made shall promptly send a notice of the diversion to the comptroller of the first-mentioned district.

(o) Where a vessel arrives at an Atlantic or Pacific coast port from a foreign port, with cargo shown by the manifest and bills of lading as for delivery at various optional ports on the opposite coast, and the master, owner, or agents are unable at that time to designate the specific ports of discharge, it will be necessary for entrance purposes at such port, that a manifest be filed showing all such optional ports of discharge on the opposite coast. The abstract manifest for entrance at the first port on the opposite coast, and the certified copy of complete manifest carried forward to final port of discharge (art. 199 (b)) should show all the optional ports of delivery. Upon arrival at the first port on the opposite coast, the privilege of optional port of delivery expires, and the master, owner, or agent must name the port or ports where the residue of cargo is to be discharged as required by section 431 of the Tariff Act of 1930.

(p) On clearance from the first and succeeding ports on the opposite coast, certificates (customs Form 3221) should be issued amended so as to show the actual ports of discharge as determined at that port.

(r) The master of a vessel with foreign cargo shall furnish the comptroller of customs at the first port of arrival in the United States with a copy of the manifest of the entire cargo. When subsequent calls are made at ports within the same comptroller district, whether or not for discharge of cargo, the master shall furnish the comptroller for said district with a report on customs Form 3253, in lieu of copy of manifest. If any correction is necessary, the master of the vessel shall mail to the comptroller a true and correct copy of the record thereof, which is filed at the subsequent port of call.

(s) When the vessel proceeds to ports in other comptroller districts, the master shall furnish the comptroller at the port of first arrival in the respective districts with a manifest of the foreign cargo remaining on board, and shall be governed otherwise by the instructions contained in the preceding paragraph.

ART. 151. Foreign merchandise for foreign ports.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 442:

Any vessel having on board merchandise shown by the manifest to be destined to a foreign port or place may, after the report and entry of such vessel under the provisions of this Act, proceed to such foreign port of destination with the cargo so destined therefor, without unlading the same and without the payment of duty thereon. • • •

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 622:

The Secretary of the Treasury may by regulations require the production of landing certificates in respect of merchandise exported from the United States, or in respect of residue cargo, in cases in which he deems it necessary for the protection of the revenue.

(c) Whether the cargo is dutiable or free, a charge shall be made against the term bond (customs Form 7569) if on file, or a bond (customs Form 7567) shall be given at the port of first arrival in a sum equal to the amount of estimated duties but not to exceed $10,000, conditioned that the merchandise shall not be landed within the United States unless entry thereof shall first be made and the duties thereon paid or secured; provided that, if in the judgment of the collector the protection of the revenue so requires, a bond in a larger sum (not to exceed the estimated duties) may be exacted.

(d) The bond shall be canceled upon production of foreign landing certificates or other satisfactory evidence of compliance with such bond.

(e) (1) United States Code, title 19, section 1707:

In addition to any other requirement of law, every vessel, not exceeding 500 net tons, from a foreign port or place, or which has visited a hovering vessel, shall carry a certificate for the importation into the United States of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors on board thereof (sea stores excepted), destined to the United States, said certificate to be issued by a consular officer of the United States or other authorized person pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of State and the Secretary of the Treasury may jointly prescribe. Any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors (sea stores excepted) found, or discovered to have been, upon any such vessel at any place in the United States, or within the customs waters, without said certificate on board, which are not shown to have a bona fide destination without the United States, shall be seized and forfeited and, in the case of any such merchandise so destined to a foreign port or place, a bond shall be required in double the amount of the duties to which such merchandise would be subject if imported into the United States, conditioned upon the delivery of said merchandise at such foreign port or place as may be certified by a consular officer of the United States or otherwise as provided in said regulations: Provided, That if the collector shall be satisfied that the certificate required for the importation of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors was issued and was lost or mislaid without fraud, or was defaced by accident, or is incorrect by reason of clerical error or other mistake, said penalties shall not be incurred nor shall such bond be required. (Aug. 5, 1935, c. 438, title I, sec. 7, 49 Stat. 520.)

(e) (2) Landing bond.—Where any shipment of spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors, found as above prescribed on board of a vessel not exceeding 500 net tons, is shown to have a bona fide destination without the United States, a landing bond with an authorized corporate surety or sureties, to be furnished by the master, must be required by the collector of customs, in case the shipment is not accompanied by a certificate of shipment. For the purposes of this paragraph, the United States includes all territories and possessions of the United States, except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, the Canal Zone, American Samoa, and the island of Guam.

(e) (3) Form of landing bond.—The landing bond required by this article shall be on customs Form 7593, the form of which is set forth in T. D. 47886.

(e) (4) Proof of landing.—The condition of a landing bond (customs Form 7593) for the delivery of spirits, wines or other alcoholic liquors shipped upon a vessel not exceeding 500 net tons and destined to a port or place without the United States, shall be satisfied by the delivery to the collector of customs by whom the bond was required of a landing certificate or certificates showing that all such spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors on board of the vessel have been landed at their destination. The landing certificate or certificates required by this paragraph to be delivered in satisfaction of a landing bond must be delivered to such collector of customs within 6 months from the date of the bond, and in default thereof the sum of the bond shall be forfeited to the United States or the said bond cancelled upon the payment of such lesser amount as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem sufficient.

(e) (5) Certification of landing by foreign revenue officer.—A certificate of the landing of spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors, as prescribed in paragraph (e) (4) of this article, must be signed by a revenue officer of the foreign country to which the same are destined, unless it is shown to be impossible to secure the certificate of such an officer, as when the country to which the merchandise is destined has no customs administration, or when such country forbids its customs officers to sign such certificates. No verification of the signature of the revenue officer is necessary if the official seal of such officer be affixed to the certificate. If it is not possible to procure the certificate of the revenue officer, the landing certificate may be signed by the consignee or by the vessel's agent at the place of landing (consular Form 150), and in such a case the certificate should be certified by a consular officer of the United States, or if there is no such consular officer at the place of landing, it should be sworn to before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths and having an official seal.

(f) United States Maritime Commission transactions will be governed by the procedure indicated in article 150.

(g) If no other transaction is involved the vessel will be cleared to the foreign port or ports "direct" (commerce Form 1378) on a manifest completely itemizing the cargo retained on board, but if proceeding via another domestic port or ports the requirements of article 150 shall be followed.

(h) At each succeeding domestic port, the same procedure shall be followed as provided in paragraph (h) of the preceding article.

(i) Bond shall be taken in case of a vessel entering from sea in distress with foreign cargo destined for a foreign port and subsequently proceeding, to secure the landing of the vessel's cargo at its foreign destination.

(j) A vessel with foreign cargo destined for several domestic ports and for a foreign port or ports, will proceed from domestic port to domestic port as indicated in article 150, and foreign clearance will be granted at the last domestic port. Two charges against the bond shall be made, one covering the cargo for domestic ports and the other covering the cargo for foreign ports.

(k) In connection with simultaneous vessel transactions or movements under articles 150, 151, 183, and 199, vessels will be cleared separately for each movement as indicated in the respective articles.

ART. 152. Foreign vessels wrecked in American waters.—The equipment and ship stores of a foreign vessel wrecked in waters of the United States, on being recovered and brought into port and the materials and equipment of a foreign vessel condemned and dismantled in a United States port are free of duty. Such materials, equipment, and stores taken from a foreign vessel wrecked outside the waters of the United States are dutiable.

ART. 153. Cargo of wrecked vessel.—When vessels are wrecked in the waters of the United States, application should be made to the collector of customs by the original owners or consignees of the cargo, or by the underwriters, in case of abandonment to them, for permission to enter in the district where the casualty occurred the goods saved from the wreck or to forward the same to the ports of destination in other conveyances, without entry in the district in which the merchandise was cast ashore or unladen. On receipt of such permission the merchandise may be so forwarded, under carrier's special manifest.

ART. 154. Cargo of vessel sunk 2 years.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 310:

Whenever any vessel laden with merchandise, in whole or in part subject to duty, has been sunk in any river, harbor, bay, or waters subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, and within its limits for the period of 2 years and is abandoned by the owner thereof, any person who may raise such vessel shall be permitted to bring any merchandise recovered therefrom into the port nearest to the place where such vessel was so raised free from the payment of any duty thereupon, but under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(See art. 156 for regulations.)

ART. 155. Derelict merchandise prima facie dutiable—Application.—(a) Merchandise picked up at sea derelict or taken from a wreck, except from a vessel sunk in the waters of the United States 2 years and abandoned, is prima facie dutiable. If claimed to be of American production and consequently free, proof must be adduced as in ordinary cases of the reimportation of that description of merchandise. Foreign merchandise landed from a vessel in distress is dutiable if sold or disposed of in the United States.

(b) Before any merchandise which has been taken from a recent wreck shall be admitted to entry the same shall be appraised and the owner or importer shall have the same right of appeal as in other cases.

ART. 156. Merchandise derelict from a wreck—Entry by underwriters and salvors.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 483:

• • • The underwriters of abandoned merchandise and the salvors of merchandise saved from a wreck at sea or on or along a coast of the United States may be regarded as the consignees.

(b) All merchandise picked up at sea derelict or recovered from abandoned wrecks will be taken possession of in the port or district where it shall first arrive and be retained in the custody of the collector as unclaimed. If not claimed and entered by the owner on due proof of ownership, by the underwriters in case of abandonment to them, or by the salvors in the absence of adverse claims, it will be subject to sale for duties in the usual manner. Salvors have an uncertain interest in the goods saved, dependent upon the decree of a competent tribunal, and also have a presumptive right to possession of merchandise saved by them from abandoned wrecks. The collector will therefore permit salvors to make entry of derelict or wrecked goods in either contingency. If the merchandise be libeled for salvage the collector will notify the United States attorney of the claim of the United States for duties, and will intervene for the same. When such goods are brought into port by lighters or other craft each such vessel must make entry by manifest of her cargo.

CARRIAGE OF PASSENGERS

ART. 157. Passenger vessels—Restrictions—Penalties.—(a) A passenger, within the meaning of the steamboat inspection laws, is any person carried who is not connected with the vessel, her navigation, ownership, or business.

(b) Passenger vessels of the United States or United States vessels carrying passengers are subject to all the provisions of the laws governing the inspection of vessels and their equipment. They must be manned and have the accommodations required by the Passenger Act of 1882 (U. S. Code, title 46, secs. 151–162) and the Seamen's Act of March 4, 1915 (U. S. Code, title 46, sec. 672).

(c) It shall not be lawful to take on board of any vessel a greater number of passengers than is stated in the certificate of inspection.

(d) Foreign vessels carrying steerage passengers are subject to the provisions of the Passenger Act of 1882, and such vessels carrying passengers (cabin and steerage) from the United States are also subject to some of the inspection laws of the United States.

(e) Cargo vessels of the United States may carry not to exceed 16 persons in addition to the crew, provided the laws, rules, and regulations respecting lifesaving equipment, lifeboat accommodations, radio laws, etc., are complied with and the persons to be carried have been notified of the presence on board of any dangerous articles or of any condition or circumstances which would constitute a risk of safety for passengers or crew. (See art. 168.)

(f) This privilege is extended in so far as the foreign trade is concerned to the cargo vessels of any nation which allows the like privilege to cargo vessels of the United States in trades not restricted to vessels under its own flag.

(g) The master will be required to make oath on commerce Form 1375 or 1376 as to the number of such persons he proposes to carry.

(h) A vessel carrying passengers to and from a foreign country should be furnished with the same customs and navigation forms as a vessel carrying cargo, e. g., a vessel taking passengers at an American port for a foreign destination, intending to stop at another domestic port en route, should be cleared under article 183 on a permit to proceed coastwise to lade for a foreign port (commerce Form 1385), and inbound passenger vessels should be treated in the same manner under articles 149 and 150 (commerce Form 1385).

(i) Collectors do not certify the legal capacity of vessels for the carriage of passengers, except as prescribed in the Passenger Act of August 2, 1882.

(j) The inspectors of steam vessels issue to steamers for excursion trips a special permit in which is stated the number of passengers that may be carried and the number and kind of life-saving appliances to be provided for their safety, and also, in their discretion, limit the route for such excursions. (Commerce Form 1463.)

(k) Any vessel and the owner and master thereof carrying more passengers than are permitted, or failing to have on board the number and kind of life-saving appliances prescribed by the inspectors of steam vessels, will be subject to the penalties prescribed therefor in chapter 2 of title 52 of the Revised Statutes, as amended.

If any passenger is unladen from any vessel or vehicle without a special license or permit therefor issued by the collector, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle and every other person who knowingly is concerned, or who aids therein, shall each be liable to a penalty of $500 for each such passenger so unladen.

ART. 158. Masters in foreign trade must deliver, with manifest, list of passengers.—The master of every vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign place (ports and places in territory contiguous to the United States excepted) shall submit for inspection to the officer of customs who first makes demand therefor, and shall subsequently deliver, with his manifest of cargo on entry, a correct list (commerce Form 1440), signed and verified on oath by the master, of all passengers taken on board the vessel at any foreign port or place, specifying the name of each passenger, age (if a child of 8 years or under), sex, married or single, location of compartment or space occupied during the voyage (if the passenger be other than a cabin passenger), whether a citizen of the United States, number of pieces of baggage, and if any passenger die on the voyage the list shall specify the manner, age, and cause of death of each deceased passenger. For a violation of this law the master will be liable to a fine of $1,000.

ART. 159. Requirements for the carriage of steerage passengers.—It shall not be lawful for the master of any vessel whereon steerage passengers have been taken at any port or place in a foreign country or dominion (ports and places in foreign territory contiguous to the United States excepted) to bring such vessel and passengers to or take them from any port or place in the United States, unless the compartments, spaces, and accommodations prescribed by the Passenger Act of 1882 (U. S. Code, title 46, secs. 151–162) have been provided, allotted, maintained and used for and by such passengers, during the entire voyage, unobstructed by cargo, stores, or goods.

ART. 160. Examination of vessels with steerage passengers.—The collector, or the surveyor where there is one, of the port at which any vessel carrying steerage passengers arrives shall direct an officer to make an examination of the vessel, and to admeasure the compartments or spaces occupied by passengers other than cabin passengers during the voyage; and such admeasurement shall be made in the manner provided by law for admeasuring vessels for tonnage; and to compare the number of passengers found on board with the list of passengers (commerce Form 1440) furnished by the master to the collector; and the officer will make a report on commerce Forms 1461 and 1462 to the surveyor, if there be one, by whom it will be forwarded to the collector at the end of each month. The collector will transmit it to the Secretary of Commerce.

ART. 161. Deaths of passengers.—(a) The master, owner, or consignee of any vessel bringing steerage passengers from a foreign country, except foreign territory contiguous to the United States, must, under a penalty of $50, pay to the collector, within 24 hours after entry, $10 for every death by natural disease occurring during the voyage on board his vessel among such passengers over 8 years of age. (Commerce Forms 1461 and 1462.)

(b) The money so collected is to be deposited to the credit of the United States subject to the directions of the Secretary of the Treasury.

(c) The voyage referred to in this article terminates with the arrival of the vessel within a collection district.

ART. 162. Copies of law to be on board.—Vessels propelled in whole or in part by steam, carrying passengers, must have on board two copies of title 52 of the Revised Statutes entitled "Regulations of steam vessels," which will be furnished by the department through steamboat inspectors, upon application. A master who neglects to have said copies on board, or who unreasonably refuses to exhibit them to a passenger, becomes liable to a fine of $20.

ART. 163. Immigration collections.—(a) Moneys to be collected on account of head tax, fines, and other sums collectible under the immigration laws are levied by the immigration authorities and certified by them to the collector of customs for collection.

(b) Such sums shall be accounted for in the manner and on the forms prescribed by the Department of Labor.

(c) The attention of collectors is called to the provisions of the immigration laws and regulations published by the Department of Labor, which set forth the duties of collectors in connection with immigration matters.

ART. 164. Operator of passenger vessel to give notice of routes—Avoidance of ice regions—Penalty.—(a) United States Code, title 46, sections 738b and 738c:

SEC. 738b. (a) The owner, or operating agent, of any passenger vessel of the United States crossing the North Atlantic Ocean shall give public notice, in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, of the regular routes which he proposes such vessel will follow and of any changes made in a route, and shall require the vessel to follow the published route as far as circumstances will permit. Any passenger vessel of the United States crossing the North Atlantic Ocean shall follow, as far as circumstances will permit, the recognized ship routes; it shall avoid, as far as practicable, the fishing banks of Newfoundland, north of latitude forty-three degrees north during the fishing season; and shall, as far as circumstances will permit, pass outside of the regions reported or known to be endangered by ice.

(b) If the owner, or operating agent, of any such passenger vessel fails to comply with this section, he shall for each offense be liable to a fine not exceeding $100. (June 25, 1936, c. 807, sec. 3, 49 Stat.)

SEC. 738c. (a) The master of every vessel of the United States, when ice is reported on or near his course, shall proceed at a moderate speed or alter his course so as to go well clear of the danger zone.

(b) If the master of any such ship fails to comply with this section, he shall for each offense be liable to a fine not exceeding $500. (June 25, 1936, c. 807, sec. 4, 49 Stat.)

(b) (1) The owner or operating agent of any passenger vessel of the United States crossing the North Atlantic Ocean shall file with the collector of customs of the United States home port of such vessel, as defined in article 36, and, if the first United States port from which such vessel sails is different from the home port, with the collector of customs at that port, notice of the ship routes which he proposes such vessel will follow on its east-bound and west-bound crossings. Such notice or notices shall be filed prior to the first sailing of the vessel from a port of the United States after the effective date of these regulations (i. e. November 27, 1936). Upon any subsequent North Atlantic voyage of such vessel beginning at the same port in the United States, no further notice shall be required if it is proposed that the vessel will follow the same routes, but whenever it is proposed that such vessel, when crossing the North Atlantic Ocean, will sail from a port in the United States other than that specified in the last previous notice, or will follow a route or routes different from the route or routes specified in such last notice, notice of the proposed route or routes shall be filed, as aforesaid, before the vessel sails.

(2) The proposed route of any passenger vessel of the United States crossing the North Atlantic Ocean shall, whenever practicable be designated in any notice required hereby in the terms used to designate the North Atlantic Lane Routes, as established by the proper authorities.

(3) All notices of proposed ship routes filed with collectors of customs shall be considered public documents and copies thereof shall, while effective, be continuously posted by the respective collectors of customs in a place in the customhouse to which the public has free access.

(4) The owner or operating agent of any passenger vessel of the United States crossing the North Atlantic Ocean shall cause a copy of the proposed ship routes of the vessel to be continuously posted, while effective, in a public place in the passenger space of the vessel.

(c) If the master of any passenger vessel of the United States crossing the North Atlantic Ocean finds it necessary for any reason during the course of a voyage to deviate more than 20 nautical miles from the proposed ship route of such vessel, he shall be required by the owner or operating agent of such vessel, as soon as he arrives in the United States, to report such deviation to the collector of customs of the home port of such vessel and, if the first United States port from which such vessel sailed is different from the home port, to the collector of customs at that port, together with a written statement explaining the necessity for such deviation.

(d) For the purpose of these regulations, a vessel shall be deemed to be a passenger vessel if it carries more than twelve passengers.

(e) Each violation of any provision of these regulations by the owner, operating agent or master of a passenger vessel shall be penalized by a fine of not exceeding $100 for which the owner, or operating agent, of the passenger vessel involved in such violation shall be liable.

(f) (1) Information with respect to a violation or possible violation of these regulations coming into the possession of any officer or employee of the Treasury Department shall be communicated promptly to the commander of the coast guard division within which the home port of the vessel is located.

(2) The commander receiving such information, from this or from any other source, shall make an investigation to determine the actual facts involved and, if he is of the opinion that a violation occurred, shall submit a full written report, citing the paragraph of these regulations believed to have been violated, to the collector of customs of the home port of the vessel. Such report shall be made in quadruplicate; the original and one copy to be forwarded to the collector of customs, one copy to be transmitted to the Commandant, United States Coast Guard, Washington, D. C., and the remaining copy to be retained.

(3) If the commander is in doubt as to whether, in view of the facts involved, a violation of these regulations has occurred, he shall obtain a decision from the Commandant, United States Coast Guard, Washington, D. C., before submission of the report herein required to the collector of customs.

(g) The collector of customs receiving such report of violation shall send a written notice of the imposition of the $100 fine to the owner, or operating agent, of the passenger vessel involved in such violation, with a demand for the payment thereof. If the fine is not paid promptly, a copy of the report received from the commandant, together with the originals of all correspondence received from the owner or operating agent of the vessel and certified copies of all communications sent by the collector of customs to such owner or operating agent, shall be transmitted to the United States Attorney.

(h) Fines collected by collectors of customs under these regulations shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of "Miscellaneous Receipts (Fines and Penalties, Coast Guard)."

FOREIGN CLEARANCES

ART. 165. Requirements of clearance.—(a) United States Code, title 46, sections 91 and 91a:

(SEC. 91.) The master or person having the charge or command of any vessel bound to a foreign port, shall deliver to the collector of the district from which such vessel is about to depart, a manifest of all the cargo on board the same, and the value thereof, by him subscribed, and shall swear to the truth thereof; whereupon the collector shall grant a clearance for such vessel and her cargo, but without specifying the particulars thereof in the clearance, unless required by the master or other person having the charge or command of such vessel so to do.

If any vessel bound to a foreign port (other than a licensed yacht not engaging in any trade nor in any way violating the revenue laws of the United States) departs from any port or place in the United States without a clearance, or if the master delivers a false manifest, or does not answer truly the questions demanded of him, or, having received a clearance adds to the cargo of such vessel without having mentioned in the report outwards the intention to do so, or if the departure of the vessel is delayed beyond the second day after obtaining clearance without reporting the delay to the collector, the master or other person having the charge or command of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 nor less than $500, or if the cargo consists in any part of narcotic drugs, or any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors (sea stores excepted), a penalty of not more than $5,000 nor less than $1,000 for each offense, and the vessel shall be detained in any port of the United States until the said penalty is paid or secured. (R. S. 4197, as amended Aug. 5, 1935, ch. 438, title II, sec. 209, 49 Stat. 526.)

(SEC. 91a.) * * * That whenever, under any provision or provisions of any statute of the United States, it is made the duty of the masters of vessels to make entry and clearance of same, it shall be lawful for such duties to be performed by any licensed deck officer or purser of such vessel; and when such duties are performed by a licensed deck officer or purser of such vessel, such acts shall have the same force and effect as if performed by masters of such vessels: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall relieve the master of any penalty or liability provided by any statute relating to the entry or clearance of vessels. (May 4, 1934, ch. 212, 48 Stat. 663.)

(b) A vessel with cargo must be cleared for a definite port or ports in the order of its itinerary, but an application to clear for a port or place "for orders" (instructions to masters as to destination of vessels) may be acted upon favorably if the cargo is to be discharged in a port of the same country as the port to which the vessel is to be cleared.

(c) Before a clearance certificate (commerce Form 1378) is issued to a vessel bound to a foreign port collectors will verify the compliance with the following requirements as set forth in the succeeding articles:

(1) Accounting for inward cargo.
(2) Verifying nationality and tonnage.
(3) Verification of inspection.
(4) Cattle-carrying vessels.
(5) Meat and meat food products—Inedible fats.
(6) Fumigation.
(7) Radio apparatus and operators on steamers.
(8) Outward foreign manifests.
(9) Shippers' export declarations.
(10) Vessel properly documented for foreign trade.
(11) Crew list, certified copy of.
(12) Shipping articles and enforcement of seamen's act.
(13) Observance of neutrality—Exportation of arms and munitions.
(14) Inspection and fees under State laws.
(15) Port sanitary statements.
(16) Record of clearance of vessels—Record of manifest.
(17) Foreign vessels proceeding coastwise.
(18) Vessels clearing foreign via domestic ports.
(19) Clearance fees.
(20) Carriage of United States securities.

(21) Carriage of mail matter.
(22) Medicine and slop chest requirement.
(23) Load line regulations.
(d) Tariff Act of 1930, section 437:

The register, or document in lieu thereof, deposited in accordance with section 434 or 435 of this Act shall be returned to the master or owner of the vessel upon its clearance.

(e) While there is no requirement of law as to the length of time a vessel may remain in port after clearance, in the event that departure is delayed beyond the second day after clearance the fact of detention should be noted on the certificate of a clearance (commerce Form 1378) and on the official record of clearance. If, after clearance, the proposed voyage is canceled, the reason therefor should be reported in writing and the certificate of clearance surrendered.

(f) Collectors may permit vessels to proceed to sea to adjust compasses, try out new machinery, clean tanks, etc., without requiring formal clearance, but the provisions of the oil pollution act must be strictly complied with.

(g) A new vessel built in the United States for foreign account should be cleared under a certificate of record (commerce Form 1316), and a shipper's export declaration must be furnished by the agents or prepared by the collector for statistical purposes.

(h) A shipper's export declaration should likewise be furnished for an American vessel sold foreign upon her first departure from the United States.

ART. 166. Accounting for inward cargo.—Inward cargo discrepancies must be accounted for and adjusted by post-entry, affidavit, or both, but the vessel may be cleared and the adjustment deferred if the discharging officer's return has not been received.

ART. 167. Verifying nationality and tonnage.—Nationality and tonnage of a vessel should be verified by production of the certificate of registry or other national papers. If these documents are not submitted when tonnage tax is imposed and it is afterward found that the amount collected was too small, additional tax should be collected, and a separate tonnage tax receipt should be given.

ART. 168. Verification of inspection.—(a) Collectors will ascertain whether the certificate of inspection, as provided for in article 90, is still in force.

(b) Masters of all vessels required to be inspected, clearing without passengers, are required to make oath to that effect, as prescribed in commerce Form 1376.

(c) An application to carry persons on cargo vessels in addition to the crew should be made in time to permit an inspection for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the vessel's life saving equipment is sufficient for the entire company.

(d) When a permit is issued for a certain number of such persons it will not be necessary to renew the application or the permit for successive voyages so long as it remains in force unless it is desired to carry a greater number up to the limit of 16, when the vessel must be again visited. If the vessel is found to be equipped with life saving appliances sufficient for the additional number of persons, a permit may be issued therefor.

(e) The master on clearance should be required to subscribe to commerce Form 1375.

ART. 169. Cattle-carrying vessels.—The Bureau of Animal Industry, Department of Agriculture, inspects animals for export and notice of the inspection must be filed for vessels carrying horses, mules, asses, cattle, sheep, swine, goats, and live domestic poultry.

ART. 170. Meat and meat-food products—Inedible fats.—(a) All meat and meat-food products except ship stores and small quantities exclusively for the personal use of the consignee and not for sale or for distribution, when shipped to Great Britain or Ireland or any of the countries of continental Europe or to Canada, Venezuela, Argentina, Peru, Colombia, Japan, Cuba, Algeria, or the French Antilles shall be accompanied by export meat-inspection certificates issued by the United States Department of Agriculture. Export meat-inspection certificates are not required for meat and meat-food products exported to countries other than those named.

(b) The duplicate copies of export meat-inspection certificates are required to be delivered by the shipper to the agent of the railroad or other carrier which transports the consignment from the United States otherwise than by water or to the chief officer of the vessel on which the export shipment is made. The chief officer of the vessel shall file such duplicate with the United States customs officer at the time of filing the master's manifest or the supplemental manifest. No clearance shall be given to vessels containing meat and meat-food products destined to the countries named unless the meat and meat-food products are accompanied by export meat-inspection certificates handled as indicated.

(c) No tallow, stearin, oleo oil, or other rendered fat derived from cattle, sheep, swine, or goats that has not been inspected, passed, and marked by the United States Department of Agriculture shall be exported unless the shipper files with the collector of customs at the port from which the export shipment is made an affidavit by the exporter on his export declaration that such article is inedible.

ART. 171. Fumigation.—(a) Proof should be required that the vessel has been fumigated if same was ordered by the Public Health Service.

(b) In instances where the quarantine officer remands a vessel to another American port for fumigation, a notation "this vessel to be fumigated at the next United States port" must be placed on the face of the permit to proceed.

ART. 172. Radio apparatus and operators on steamers.—(a) It is unlawful for any steamer of the United States or of any foreign country navigating the ocean or the Great Lakes and licensed to carry, or carrying, fifty or more persons, including the passengers or crew or both, except steamers plying between ports or places less than two hundred miles apart, to leave or attempt to leave any port of the United States unless such steamer is equipped with efficient apparatus for radio communication, in good working order, in charge of two or more persons skilled in the use of such apparatus, one of whom shall be on duty at all times while the vessel is being navigated.

(b) The details concerning the apparatus and operators required for the various classes of vessels are contained in regulations issued from time to time by the Federal Communications Commission. These regulations are binding upon customs officers. All correspondence concerning the regulations should be addressed to the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D. C.

(c) The master of any vessel of the United States who willfully fails to maintain proper equipment and operators while at sea is subject to a penalty of $100 for each offense.

(d) The master of any vessel subject of these regulations who leaves, or attempts to leave, a United States port without the proper equipment and operators is subject to a fine of not more than $5,000 and the leaving or attempting to leave each and every port of the United States constitutes a separate offense.

(e) The foregoing requirements are not applicable to a vessel at the time of entering a port of the United States but only at the time of departure.

(f) The master of each vessel subject to these regulations, upon entering port with the expectation of departing therefrom, shall file a radio declaration on F. C. C. Form 753a in duplicate with the collector of customs who, at ports at which radio inspectors are on duty, will furnish the radio inspector with one copy in order that proper inspection may be made before the vessel departs. In addition, the master of each such vessel shall, at or before clearance, file a certificate on F. C. C. Form 753b, from which the customs officer in charge shall prepare monthly a report of departures on F. C. C. Form 755 and forward the same to the radio inspector in charge of the radio district in which the port of departure is located, or to the local radio inspector at ports at which there is such an officer.

(g) Radio inspectors and customs officers, as far as practicable, shall visit vessels subject to these regulations before they leave post and ascertain if they are equipped as required. Where a vessel subject to these regulations is about to attempt to leave port without the apparatus or operators prescribed, the radio inspector or customs officer visiting the vessel shall notify the master of the fine to which he is liable and also notify the collector of customs, by telephone if necessary. The radio inspector or customs officer shall submit to the collector of customs of the port a written report stating the exact nature of the violation, the section of law violated, and the penalties involved, and a precise statement of the facts in each case. The collector of customs will thereupon report the case to the Federal Communications Commission. These regulations do not authorize the refusal of clearance in the case of violations of their provisions.

(h) Radio inspectors will make inspection of ship stations in the immediate area of their respective headquarters offices. Inspections made by customs officers who do not possess technical radio knowledge should be confined to the ascertainment of: (1) Whether or not radio apparatus is installed on the vessel; (2) whether or not licensed radio operators are in charge thereof; and (3) whether or not a means of communication between the radio room and the bridge is provided.

ART. 173. Outward foreign manifest.—(a) Before or at the time of clearing for a foreign port the master should file with the collector a manifest (commerce Form 1374) of the complete lading of the vessel, but if that be impracticable collectors are authorized to grant clearance on an application on customs Form 7301 and execution of the bond on this form and the filing of a manifest of a few items of merchandise, preferably cargo, upon which advance statistical reports are published.

(b) Bonds are not required for vessels of the United States Maritime Commission under "Operating agreement, 1935."

(c) When a vessel with meat or meat food products as cargo clears for ports in Great Britain or Ireland or any of the countries of continental Europe, or to Canada, Venezuela, Argentina, Peru, Colombia, Japan, Cuba, Algeria or the French Antilles, the master should be required to file an affidavit as follows:

I, ——— ———, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I am the master of the steamship or vessel called the ———, for which clearance is this day requested, and that no meat or meat food products, as defined and classified by the Department of Agriculture, are or will be included in the cargo of the said steamship or vessel, unless such meat or meat food products are duly marked, "U. S. Inspected and Passed", and that the certificates covering the same, required by the regulations of the Bureau of Animal Industry, Department of Agriculture, known as Regulation 25 of B. A. I. Order No. 211, have been obtained from the Department of Agriculture and are herewith filed with the master's manifest, or will hereafter be filed with the supplemental manifest of the cargo of said steamship or vessel.

———— ————,
Master.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this ——— day of ———, 19——.

———— ————,
Deputy Collector.

(d) The certificate of clearance (commerce Form 1378) granted by a collector for a vessel and its cargo need not specify the particulars thereof, unless required by the master or other person in charge or command of the vessel.

(e) The complete manifests, together with the duplicate shippers' export declarations, must be filed within four days after clearance of vessels and when received should be numbered consecutively. The customhouse number of the shippers' export declaration for each item of lading must be indicated and the manifests verified by comparison with the shippers' export declarations to verify completeness. Therefore, agents should not accept merchandise for shipment unless accompanied by shippers' export declarations.

(f) Copies of outward manifests will be certified on request.

(g) The following oath must be taken by agent filing final manifest:

I, ——— ———, attorney for the agent of the ——— which cleared from this port ———, do truly swear to the best of my knowledge and belief that the within manifest is a true statement of all the goods, wares, and merchandise laden on board said vessel and that the values of the separate items are as stated in the shipper's export declarations, duplicates of which are filed herewith.

———— ————.

Sworn to before me this ——— day of ———.

———— ————,
Deputy Collector.

ART. 174. Shippers' export declarations.—(a) The shippers and consignors of merchandise should deliver to the collector, before clearance of the exporting vessel is granted, verified declarations in duplicate, on customs Forms 7525, of the portions of the cargo to be shipped by them. The declarations may be verified on oath before the collector, his representative, or before notaries public or other persons authorized by law to administer oaths.

(b) On presentation the declarations should be scrutinized carefully to insure compliance with the requirement that the merchandise be correctly described, that the quantities be given in the units called for by the statistical schedule, and that values be correctly stated.

(c) When the declarations are accepted they should be numbered, the duplicates returned to the shippers for delivery with merchandise to the steamship company, and the originals filed in numerical order.

(See art. 1281 et seq. for preparation of shipper's export declarations.)

ART. 175. Vessel properly documented for foreign trade.—(a) Vesseis of the United States in the foreign trade must be documented therefor before being cleared for a foreign port and are required to operate under a certificate of registry. (Commerce Form 1265.) A vessel is in the foreign trade as soon as cargo is laden for a foreign port, whether sailing foreign direct or via a domestic port or ports.

(b) Every enrolled or licensed vessel, unless enrolled and licensed for the coasting and foreign trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers otherwise than by sea, commerce Form 1273, which proceeds on a foreign voyage without being registered is liable to seizure and forfeiture, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the merchandise so imported therein.

(c) Vessels may engage in trade with and transit the Canal Zone under enrollment and license.

ART. 176. Crew list, certified copy of.—Crew lists must be filed at the port of final departure for vessels of the United States clearing for foreign ports or engaged in the whale fishery. A vessel's crew list (commerce—shipping service Form 710A) must contain the names, places of birth, and residence, and personal description of the ship's company, and the names and addresses of their next of kin, to which list the oath of the master shall be annexed that the statements are correct as far as he can ascertain them. The list must be presented in duplicate without erasure or interlineation, and the collector shall certify one copy and deliver it to the master, who shall surrender the list and account for the persons named therein to the collector at the first port in the United States touched at on the return voyage.

ART. 177. Shipping articles and enforcement of seamen's act.—(a) Shipping articles (commerce—shipping service Form 705a) in duplicate must be presented at the port of final departure for every vessel of the United States bound to a foreign port, or for any such vessel of 75 tons or upward bound from a port on the Atlantic to a port on the Pacific, or vice versa, and the collector will certify (commerce Form 1435) the duplicate of the articles before a clearance is granted.

(b) These articles of agreement should be entered into before a United States shipping commissioner if such an officer is at the port or before the collector who is authorized to act at any port in which no shipping commissioner shall have been appointed.

(c) The masters of vessels of the United States engaged in trade between the United States and British North America, or the West Indies or Mexico, or of vessels engaged in the coastwise trade, or lake-going vessels that touch at foreign ports, or of vessels where the seamen are by agreement entitled to share in the profits of voyages, are however, not required to enter into agreements with their seamen before a United States shipping commissioner unless they so desire. They shall, however, obtain a copy of the shipping articles certified by the collector on commerce Form 1435 when bound on any foreign voyage.

(d) The Seamen's Act of March 4, 1915, provides that no clearance shall be granted any American or foreign vessel until the requirements of section 11 respecting advances and allotments of wages and section 13 regarding the language test and number of able seamen have been complied with but the requirements of section 11 apply to foreign vessels only when seamen are signed at United States ports.

(e) When an American vessel, clearing foreign and subject to the act, applies for clearance, the collector shall examine the shipping articles (commerce—shipping service Form 705a) and satisfy himself that they carry notations of allotments of wages, if any, and the numbers of the certificates of the required quota of able seamen (65 per cent of deck crew).

(f) Collectors are authorized to accept consuls' certificates that there have been no advances of wages to or for the account of persons signed on in port as members of crews of foreign vessels, nor allotments to any one other than the relatives specified in the act.

(g) A statement, as follows, should be made a part of the outward manifest sworn to by the master, of all vessels, American and foreign, clearing for foreign ports:

> I, ——— ———, master of the within-named vessel do certify that to the best of my knowledge and belief the provisions of the Seamen's Act of March 4, 1915, have been fully complied with.
> ——— ———,

(h) A collector may, upon his own motion, and shall, upon sworn information of any reputable citizen filed at least 6 hours before a vessel departs or is scheduled to depart, cause a muster of the crew to determine whether 75 per cent of the crew can understand any order given by the officers of such vessel and if 65 per cent of her deck crew, exclusive of licensed officers and apprentices, are of a rating not less than able seamen.

ART. 178. Observance of neutrality—Exportation of arms and munitions.—(a) Collectors of customs are responsible for the enforcement in their districts of the neutrality laws of the United States. They are required to detain any vessel manifestly built for warlike purposes and about to depart from the United States with a cargo consisting principally of arms and munitions of war when the number of men shipped on board or other circumstances render it probable that such vessel is intended to cruise or commit hostilities upon the subjects, citizens, or property of any foreign country with which the United States is at peace, until the decision of the President be had thereon, or until the owner or owners shall give bond or security in double the value of the vessel and cargo, that she will not be so employed.

(b) They will not, however, refuse clearance solely on the ground that the cargo contains contraband of war.

(c) Whenever a vessel of a belligerent power, which has arrived as a merchant vessel, alters, or attempts to alter, her status as a merchant vessel, or there is reason to believe that she intends to alter such status, so as to become an auxiliary cruiser or armed vessel, collectors will promptly notify the Bureau of Customs.

(d) Collectors of customs under instructions from the Bureau of Customs will withhold clearance from any vessel, American or foreign, believed to be about to carry fuel, arms, ammunition, men, or supplies to any warship, or tender or supply ship of a belligerent nation during the existence of a war to which the United States is not a party.

(e) In case such vessel shall depart or attempt to depart without clearance for any of the purposes above mentioned, any person who shall take, attempt or conspire to take, or authorize the taking of such vessels out of port or from the jurisdiction of the United States, shall be fined not more than $10,000, or be imprisoned not exceeding 5 years, or both, and in addition such vessel and her cargo shall be forfeited.

(f) The importation and exportation of arms, ammunition, and implements of war, and the exportation of other munitions of war are prohibited except under license issued by the Secretary of State. The list of articles comprising arms, ammunition, and implements of war, and the laws and regulations administered by the Secretary of State governing the international traffic in arms, ammunition, and implements of war, and other munitions of war (tin-plate scrap) are set forth in the pamphlet entitled "International Traffic in Arms", Third Edition, copies of which accompanied Bureau of Customs Circular Letter No. 1550, dated May 5, 1936. The importation and exportation of firearms are restricted by regulations issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue under authority of the National Firearms Act, as amended, copies of which accompanied Bureau of Customs Circular Letters Nos. 1388 and 1567, dated June 3, 1935, and June 11, 1936. The definition of the term "firearm" under this law, as amended, reads:

> The term "firearm" means a shotgun or rifle having a barrel of less than 18 inches in length, or any other weapon, except a pistol or revolver, from which a shot is discharged by an explosive if such weapon is capable of being concealed on the person, or a machine gun, and includes a muffler or silencer for any firearm whether or not such firearm is included within the foregoing definition, but does not include any rifle which is within the foregoing provisions solely by reason of the length of its barrel if the caliber of such rifle is .22 or smaller and if its barrel is 16 inches or more in length.

(g) Arms, ammunition, and implements of war imported or which are being exported, or are intended to be exported or shipped from the United States in violation of the regulations mentioned in the preceding paragraph may be seized and detained and the carrying vessel or vehicle detained by the collector of customs.

(h) Collectors shall promptly notify the United States attorney of all such seizures or detentions in order that action may be taken as required by law.

(i) Collectors are also charged with the enforcement of the observance of neutrality in radio communication by vessels, and if necessary will seal up the wireless room and apparatus of any merchant vessel of a belligerent power. When sealing a vessel's radio apparatus they should inform the master that the seal must not be broken until he has cleared the port, and that upon obtaining his clearance papers he should make application for a written permit to break the seal. In the case of vessels of war of belligerent nations, collectors will notify the commanders that their radio apparatus can not be used while in port.

(j) Collectors may call upon the Coast Guard or officers of the Navy or Army for such force or assistance as may be necessary in the prevention of violations of the neutrality laws.

ART. 179. Inspection and fees under State laws.—(a) United States Code, title 46, section 97:

> The collectors and other officers of the customs shall pay due regard to the inspection laws of the States in which they may respectively act, in such manner that no vessel having on board goods liable to inspection shall be cleared until the master, or other proper person, shall have produced such certificate that all such goods have been duly inspected, as the laws of the respective States may require to be produced to collectors or other officers of the customs. (R. S. 4202.)

(b) United States Code, title 46, section 100:

> Previous to a clearance being granted to any vessel, outward bound, the legal fees which shall have accrued on such vessel shall be paid at the offices where such fees are respectively payable; and receipts for the same shall be produced to the collector or other officer whose duty it may be to grant clearances, before a clearance is granted. (R. S. 4206.)

ART. 180. Port sanitary statements.—(a) Port sanitary statements, United States Public Health Service Form 1964, are issued by medical officers of the United States Public Health Service to vessels departing from United States ports.

(b) At ports where Public Health Service officers are not available, the port sanitary statements will be issued by collectors of customs.

ART. 181. Record of clearance of vessels—Record of manifest.—Records of clearance of vessels and outward manifests shall be made in accordance with article 125.

ART. 182. Foreign vessels proceeding coastwise.—(a) A foreign vessel can not, without incurring a penalty, carry merchandise or passengers from port to port in the United States, or for any part of the voyage even though the voyage may be temporarily broken by a clearance for a foreign port and arrival there.

(b) A foreign vessel may, however, proceed from one domestic port to another domestic port in ballast, and should be cleared as follows: Subdivisions (4) and (5) on the reverse side of commerce Form 1385 in duplicate should be used. The original should be filed by the collector issuing the permit to proceed and the copy delivered to the master on which to enter at the next port. Upon arrival at destination the vessel should be entered by making use of the entrance oath subdivision (6) provided on this form. Such movements should be recorded as foreign transactions. A foreign vessel may also proceed from port to port in the United States for the purpose of unlading foreign cargo and/or passengers (art. 150), retaining foreign cargo on board (art. 151), and/or loading domestic cargo for foreign ports (art. 183). Such movements should be recorded as foreign transactions.

(c) The transportation of passengers by foreign vessels from a port in the United States through domestic and foreign waters, sometimes touching at a foreign port and returning them to the port of departure, is not in violation of the first paragraph of this article.

(d) Foreign vessels can not engage in the American fisheries.

(e) It has been held that the coastwise laws have not been extended to the Canal Zone, and consequently foreign vessels may engage in trade therewith.

ART. 183. Vessels clearing foreign via domestic ports.—(a) Any vessel may proceed from port to port to lade cargo for export and/or take passengers for foreign ports. When merchandise is to be laden at several ports the vessel should be cleared at the first port for the foreign port or ports of destination via the domestic port or ports on manifest (commerce Form 1374), in duplicate, itemizing the entire cargo laden at that port. Such movements should be recorded as foreign transactions.

(b) The procedure regarding incomplete manifests outlined in article 173 may be followed.

(c) The oath on the reverse side need not be executed, but a permit to proceed (commerce Form 1385) should be attached to each copy of the manifest and one copy given to the master to be used in entering his vessel at the next port of lading and the original copy filed. The shipper's export declarations for the cargo laden at each port should be filed thereat.

(d) On arrival at the second domestic port the master will enter his vessel within 24 hours by making oath on commerce Form 1385 and filing the manifest and permit issued at the first port. This procedure should be followed at all intermediate ports and collectors should specify on outward manifests the domestic ports at which cargo was laden for export.

(e) The direct foreign clearance of the vessel on commerce Form 1378 will be granted at the final port of departure.

(f) A manifest of a vessel's complete lading must be filed at the final port of clearance. This manifest should consist of certified copies of the complete manifests, filed at each preceding port, and the obligation to prepare, present for certification, and forward the copies to the final port rests with the vessel's agents at each port.

(g) A notation as follows should be made by rubber stamp or otherwise on the outward foreign manifest forms, delivered by the master at each port:

> Manifest ——— complete (or incomplete). Shippers' export declarations and export requirements have been, or will be, met at port of lading and certified copies of complete manifest will be forwarded by vessel's agents to the final port of departure in the United States.

(h) If it becomes necessary to substitute one American vessel for another, collectors may grant an application from a regularly established company and issue an order to transfer the cargo and/or passengers. Notice of the abandonment of the voyage and the name of the substituted vessel must be furnished by the collector granting the application to the collector at the port where the cargo was laden.

(i) Vessels proceeding to American ports in noncontiguous territory to lade or unlade should be entered and cleared in the same manner as vessels proceeding from port to port on the mainland, except that a certificate of clearance (commerce Form 1378) appropriately modified, should be issued to such vessels at the last port of departure.

(j) Any vessel proceeding from port to port to lade cargo for export may also discharge residue foreign cargo, as outlined in article 150. American vessels, excepting those not authorized to engage in the coastwise trade, so proceeding, may also lade cargo for delivery at coastwise ports.

(k) On clearance from each port the master shall present a copy of the store list or extract therefrom showing all articles not released from customs acquired abroad by officers and members of the crew, together with all liquor and tobacco remaining on board. The collector shall certify such list, noting thereon any other sea or ship stores which may be unusual in character or quantity, and attach it to the vessel's clearance papers for presentation at the next port.

ART. 184. Clearance fees.—United States Code, title 46, section 100:

> Previous to a clearance being granted to any vessel, outward bound, the legal fees which shall have accrued on such vessel shall be paid at the offices where such fees are respectively payable; and receipts for the same shall be produced to the collector or other officer whose duty it may be to grant clearances, before a clearance is granted. (R. S. sec. 4206.)

ART. 185. Carriage of United States securities.—United States Code, title 46, section 98:

> All vessels belonging to citizens of the United States, and bound from any port in the United States to any port therein, or to any foreign port, or from any foreign port to any port in the United States, shall, before clearance, receive on board all such bullion, coin, United States notes and bonds and other securities, as the Government of the United States, or any department thereof, or any minister, consul, vice consul, or commercial or other agent of the United States abroad, shall offer, and shall securely convey and promptly deliver the same to the proper authorities or consignees on arriving at the port of destination; and shall receive for such service such reasonable compensation as may be allowed to other carriers in the ordinary transaction of business. (R. S. sec. 4204.)

ART. 186. Carriage of mail matter.—A master bound for a foreign port must make oath (commerce Form 1374) that he will not receive nor convey any letters or other packets which have not been regularly posted and received from the post office at the port of departure, except letters or letter packets relating to the cargo and addressed to the owner or consignee of the vessel and letters or letter packets inclosed in United States stamped envelopes of sufficient denomination to cover the postage. It is the duty of the collector to require from the master, as a condition of clearance (commerce Form 1378), an oath or affirmation (commerce Form 1374), that he has not under his care, or within his control, and will not receive or convey any letters or letter packets in violation of this provision. (See art. 121.)

ART. 187. Medicine and slop chest requirement.—Collectors will see that the provisions of R. S. 4569 and section 11 of the act of June 26, 1884 (U. S. Code, title 46, secs. 666, 670), are fully complied with as regards medicine chests and slop chests on vessels of the United States.

ART. 188. Load line regulations.—(a) Load lines have been established and are required to be carried on—

(1) Merchant vessels of 250 gross tons or over, loading at or proceeding to sea from any port or place within the United States or its possessions for a foreign voyage by sea, the Great Lakes excepted.

(2) Merchant vessels of the United States of 250 gross tons or over, loading at or proceeding to sea from any foreign port or place for a voyage by sea, the Great Lakes excepted.

(b) The duties and powers of the collector of customs regarding load lines are contained in specific regulations promulgated and published by the Secretary of Commerce. (See Regulations approved Aug. 20, 1930, effective Sept. 2, 1930.)

(c) United States Code, title 46, sections 88 to 881:

SEC. 88. Load lines are hereby established for merchant vessels of 150 gross tons or over, loading at or proceeding to sea from any port or place within the United States or its possessions for a coastwise voyage by sea. By "coastwise voyage by sea" is meant a voyage on which a vessel in the usual course of her employment proceeds from one port or place in the United States or her possessions to another port or place in the United States or her possessions and passes outside the line dividing inland waters from the high seas, as defined in section 151 of Title 33. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 1, 49 Stat. 888.)

SEC. 88a. The Secretary of Commerce is hereby authorized and directed in respect of the vessels defined in section 88 of this title to establish by regulations from time to time the load-water lines and marks thereof indicating the maximum depth to which such vessels may safely be loaded and in establishing such load lines due consideration shall be given to, and differentials made for, the various types and character of vessels and the trades in which they are engaged. In establishing load-water lines on passenger vessels due consideration shall be given to, and differentials shall be made for, the age and condition of the vessel, its subdivision and efficacy thereof, and the probable stability of the vessel if damaged: Provided, That the load-line provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title shall apply to the Great Lakes and that no load line shall be established or marked on any vessel which load line gives a lesser freeboard and less buoyance than the load line established by the International Treaty on Load Lines of 1930, and that the regulations established under this proviso shall have the force of law: Provided further, That in applying the load lines to vessels on the Great Lakes and to steam colliers, tugs, barges, and self-propelled barges engaged in special services on inter-island voyages and on coastwise voyages from port to port in the continental United States the Secretary of Commerce is vested with discretion to vary the load-line marks from those established by said treaty when in his opinion the changes made by him will not be above the actual line of safety. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 2, 49 Stat. 888, as amended June 20, 1936, c. 626, 49 Stat.)

SEC. 88b. It shall be the duty of the owner and of the master of every vessel subject to sections 88 to 881 of this title and to the regulations established thereunder to cause the load line or lines so established to be permanent and conspicuously marked upon the vessel in such manner as the Secretary of Commerce shall direct, and to keep the same so marked. The Secretary of Commerce shall appoint the American Bureau of Shipping, or such other American corporation or association for the survey or registry of shipping as may be selected by him, to determine whether the position and manner of marking on such vessels the load line or lines so established are in accordance with the provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title and of the regulations established thereunder: Provided, however, That at the request of the shipowner, the Secretary of Commerce may appoint, for the purpose aforesaid, any other corporation or association for the survey or registry of shipping which the Secretary of Commerce may approve; or the Secretary of Commerce may appoint for said purpose any officer of the Government, who shall perform such services as may be directed by the Secretary of Commerce. The Secretary of Commerce may, in his discretion, revoke any appointment made pursuant to this section. Such corporation, association, or officer shall, upon approving the position and manner of marking of such load line or lines, issue a certificate, in a form to be prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce, that the same are in accordance with the provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title and of the regulations established thereunder, and shall deliver a copy thereof to the master of the vessel. It shall be unlawful for any vessel subject to sections 88 to 881 of this title and to said regulations to depart from any port or place designated in section 88 without bearing such mark or marks, approved and certified by such corporation, association, or officer, and without having on board a copy of said certificate. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 3, 49 Stat. 888.)

SEC. 88c. It shall be unlawful for any vessel subject to sections 88 to 881 of this title and to the regulations established thereunder to be so loaded as to submerge the load line or lines marked pursuant to section 88b and to the regulations established thereunder applicable to her voyage; or to be so loaded as to submerge under like conditions the point where such load line or lines ought to be marked pursuant to the provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title and of the regulations established thereunder; or to be so loaded as in any manner to violate the said regulations. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 4, 49 Stat. 889.)

SEC. 88d. Whenever the Secretary of Commerce shall certify that the laws and regulations in force in any foreign country relating to load lines are equally effective with the regulations established under sections 88 to 881 of this title, the Secretary of Commerce may direct, on proof that a vessel of that country has complied with such foreign laws and regulations, that such vessel and her master and owner shall be exempted from compliance with the provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title, except as hereinafter provided: Provided, That this section shall not apply to the vessels of any foreign country which does not similarly recognize the load lines established under sections 88 to 881 of this title and the regulations made thereunder. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 5, 49 Stat. 889.)

SEC. 88e. It shall be the duty of the master of every vessel subject to sections 88 to 881 of this title and to the regulations established thereunder and of every foreign vessel exempted pursuant to section 88d, before departing from her loading port or place to provide a ship's record or log book and enter therein a statement of the position of the load line marked applicable to the voyage in question and the actual drafts forward and aft at the time of departing as nearly as the said drafts can be ascertained. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 6, 49 Stat. 889.)

SEC. 88f. If any collector of customs has reason to believe on complaint or otherwise that a vessel subject to the provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title is about to proceed on a voyage from a port in the United States or its possessions within his district without conforming to the provisions of section 88b hereof, or when loaded in violation of section 88c hereof, or that any vessel exempted pursuant to section 88d hereof is about to proceed on a voyage from such port when loaded in violation of the laws and regulations of her country with respect to load line, he may serve on the master or officer in charge of such vessel a written order detaining the vessel for the purpose of being surveyed to determine whether or not the provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title are complied with. Where the detention is on the ground that the vessel does not conform to the provisions of section 88b of this title, the collector shall cause an examination of the vessel to be made, and if from such examination it appears that the vessel is not marked with the load line established in conformity with the provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title, the collector shall so notify the master or officer in charge of such vessel and shall detain her until a load line shall have been duly established in accordance with section 88b of this title, provided that in cases of exceptional hardship, subject to regulations issued by the Secretary of Commerce, the collector may cause a proper load line to be provisionally established by one of the agencies or persons designated under section 88b of this title, which provisional load line shall constitute a compliance with the provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title only until completion of the particular voyage in which the vessel is at the time engaged. After such establishment or provisional establishment of a load line the collector shall appoint three disinterested surveyors to examine the loading of the vessel and to report to him whether such vessel is so loaded as to submerge said provisional load line and if from such report it appears that the vessel is so loaded, the collector may by written order served on the master or officer in charge of said vessel detain the vessel until she has been reloaded in whole or in part so as not to submerge said provisional load line or lines. Where the detention is on the ground of a supposed violation of section 88c or section 88d of this title, the collector shall appoint three disinterested surveyors to examine the vessel and her loading and to report to him and if from such report it appears that the vessel is loaded in violation of the provisions of section 88c or section 88d of this title, the collector shall so notify in writing the master or other officer in charge of such vessel and detain the vessel until she has been reloaded in whole or in part so as to conform to the provisions of section 88c or section 88d of this title. If a vessel is ordered detained by a collector acting under the provisions of this section, the master may within five days appeal to the Secretary of Commerce, who, if he so desires, may order a further survey and may affirm, set aside, or modify the order of the collector. Clearance shall be refused to any vessel which shall have been ordered detained. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 7, 49 Stat. 889.)

SEC. 88g. (a) If the owner or master of any vessel subject to this chapter and to the regulations established thereunder shall permit her to depart from any port or place designated in section 88 of this title without having complied with the provisions of section 88b, he shall for each offense be liable to the United States in a penalty of $500. If the owner or master of any vessel exempted pursuant to section 88d shall permit her to depart from any port or place designated in section 88 of this title without having the load line or lines required by the laws and regulations of the country to which she belongs marked upon her as required by said law and regulations, he shall for each offense be liable to the United States in a penalty of $500. The Secretary of Commerce may, in his discretion, remit or mitigate any penalty imposed under this paragraph, or discontinue prosecution therefor on such terms as he may deem proper.

(b) If the master of any vessel subject to sections 88 to 881 of this title, or of any foreign vessel exempted pursuant to section 88d, shall fail, before departing from any port or place designated in section 88, to enter in and make a part of the ship's record or log book the statement required by section 88e, he shall for each offense be liable to the United States in a penalty of $100. The Secretary of Commerce may, in his discretion, remit or mitigate any penalty imposed under this paragraph.

(c) If any person shall knowingly permit or cause or attempt to cause any vessel subject to sections 88 to 881 of this title to depart or arrive, or if, being the owner, manager, agent, or master of such vessel, he shall fail to take reasonable care to prevent her from departing from or arriving at any port or place designated in section 88 of this title when loaded in violation of section 88c, or if any person shall knowingly permit or cause or attempt to cause a foreign vessel exempted pursuant to section 88d to depart or arrive, or if, being the owner, manager, agent, or master of such vessel he shall fail to take reasonable care to prevent her from departing from or arriving at any port or place designated in section 88 of this title when loaded more deeply than permitted by the laws and regulations of the country to which she belongs, he shall, in respect of each offense, be liable to the United States, in a penalty of $500 unless the vessel's departure or arrival was, under the circumstances, reasonable and justifiable. The Secretary of Commerce, may, in his discretion, remit or mitigate any penalty imposed under this paragraph.

(d) If the master of any vessel or any other person shall knowingly permit or cause or attempt to cause any vessel to depart from any port or place in the United States or its possessions in violation of any order of detention made pursuant to section 88f, he shall, in respect of each offense, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $500 or by imprisonment not to exceed 3 months, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(e) If any person shall conceal, remove, alter, deface, or obliterate or shall suffer any person under his control to conceal, remove, alter, deface, or obliterate any mark or marks placed on a vessel pursuant to sections 88 to 881 of this title or to the regulations established thereunder, except in the event of lawful change of said marks, or to prevent capture by an enemy, he shall in respect of each offense be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000, or by imprisonment not to exceed 1 year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(f) Whenever the owner, manager, agent, or master of a vessel shall become subject to a fine or penalty by way of money payment pursuant to the provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title, the vessel shall also be liable therefor and may be seized and proceeded against in the district court of the United States in any district in which such vessel may be found. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 8, 49 Stat. 890.)

SEC. 88h. The provisions of sections 88 to 881 of this title shall become effective as to vessels of 4,000 gross tons and upwards, not later than 3 months, and as to all other vessels subject hereto not later than 12 months, from and after August 27, 1935. (Aug. 27, 1935, c. 747, sec. 9, 49 Stat. 891.)

SEC. 881. This subchapter may be cited as the "Coastwise Load Line Act, 1935." (Aug. 27, 1935 c. 747, sec. 9, 48 Stat. 891.)

(NOTE.—Regulations covering the above law will be issued by the Department of Commerce.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

ART. 189. Carriage of high explosives.—(a) It is unlawful to transport on any vessel or vehicle in interstate or foreign commerce nitroglycerin, glynoin oil, nitroleum or blasting oil, or nitrated oil, or powder mixed with any such oil, or fiber saturated with any such article or substance, unless the same shall be securely inclosed, deposited, or packed in a metallic vessel surrounded by plaster of paris, or other material that will be nonexplosive when saturated with such oil or substance, and separate from all other substances, and the outside of the package containing the same be marked, printed, or labeled in a conspicuous manner with the words "Nitroglycerin—Dangerous", but such articles may not in any case be transported on vessels carrying passengers.

(b) It is also unlawful to transport liquid nitroglycerin, fulminate in bulk in dry condition, or other like explosives, on any vessel or vehicle operated by a common carrier in the transportation of passengers or articles of commerce by land or water in interstate or foreign commerce.

(c) High explosives, such as and including dynamite, blasting caps, detonating fuses, black powder, gunpowder, or other like explosives, shall not be transported on any vessel or vehicle operated by a common carrier engaged in interstate or foreign commerce carrying passengers for hire. This does not apply to small-arms ammunition in any quantity and such fuses, torpedoes, rockets, and other signal devices as may be essential to promote safety in operation of the carrying vessel, and properly packed and marked samples of explosives for laboratory examination, not exceeding 20 samples at one time in a single vessel or vehicle: Provided, That such samples shall not be carried in that part of a vessel or vehicle which is intended for the transportation of passengers for hire.

(d) Upon application of the master or owner of a steam vessel carrying passengers, the local inspectors of steam vessels shall examine such vessel, and if they find it is provided with a safe and proper receptacle or compartment for the carriage of gunpowder, they may grant a license to carry gunpowder. But no gunpowder, except for the ship's use, may under any circumstances be carried on steamships or other vessels carrying steerage passengers.

ART. 190. Carriage of inflammable or explosive materials on steam passenger vessel departing from the United States.—(a) No loose hay, loose cotton, or loose hemp, camphene, nitroglycerin, naphtha, benzine, benzole, coal oil, crude or refined petroleum, or other like explosive burning fluids, ferrosilicon, or like dangerous articles shall be carried as freight or used as stores on any steamer carrying passengers departing from any port in the United States; nor shall baled cotton or hemp be carried on such steamers unless the bales are compactly pressed and thoroughly covered and secured, as prescribed by the steamboat regulations; nor shall gunpowder be carried on any such vessel except under special license; nor shall oil of vitriol, nitric or other chemical acids be carried on such steamers except on the decks or guards thereof or in such other safe part of the vessel as shall be prescribed by the inspectors.

(b) Refined petroleum which will not ignite at a temperature of less than 110° F. may be carried on board such steamers upon routes where there is no other practicable mode of transporting it and under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the board of supervising inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce. Oil or spirits of turpentine may be carried on such steamers when put up in good metallic vessels, or casks, or barrels well and securely bound with iron and stowed in a secure part of the vessel. Friction matches may be carried on such steamers when securely packed in strong, tight chests or boxes, the covers of which shall be well secured by locks, screws, or other reliable fastenings, and stowed in a safe part of the vessel at a secure distance from any fire or heat.

(c) All such other provisions shall be made on every steamer carrying passengers or freight to guard against and extinguish fire as shall be prescribed by the board of supervising inspectors and approved by the Secretary of Commerce.

ART. 191. Gasoline, etc., for motor vehicles.—(a) Steam vessels may transport gasoline or any of the products of petroleum when carried by motor vehicles (commonly known as automobiles) using the same as a source of motive power: Provided, however, That all fire in such vehicles or automobiles be extinguished immediately after entering the said vessel, and that the same be not relighted until immediately before said vehicle shall leave the vessel: Provided further, That any owner, master, agent, or other person having charge of passenger steam vessels shall have the right to refuse to transport automobile vehicles the tanks of which contain gasoline, naphtha, or other dangerous burning fluids.

(b) The owner of any automobile in which all fire has not been extinguished and the motors stopped immediately after the automobile has taken its position on any vessel found on navigable waters of the United States and in which such fires do not remain extinguished and the motors remain idle until the vessel is made fast to the wharf or ferry bridge at which she lands, shall incur a penalty of not more than $500, for which the automobile shall be liable.

(c) Vessels may carry gasoline or any petroleum product to supply power to their motor boats or launches, when part of their regular equipment. They may also carry gasoline or any petroleum products for the operation of engines to supply an auxiliary lighting and wireless system independent of the vessel's main power plant.

ART. 192. Oil pollution of coastal waters.—(a) When any officer of the customs or coast guard actually witnesses oil being discharged by any method, means, or manner into or upon coastal navigable waters of the United States, from a vessel using oil as a fuel for the generation of propulsion power, or any vessel carrying or having oil thereon in excess of that necessary for its lubricating requirements and such as may be required under the laws of the United States and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder, he shall arrest and take into custody the person or persons who shall have discharged or suffered or permitted the discharge of such oil; and such officer shall promptly furnish to the district engineer a full report of the incident, together with the names of the witnesses, and when it is practicable, a sample of the oil discharged from the vessel in question. Copies of each such report shall be furnished to the United States attorney, to the Board of Local Inspectors of Vessels, and to the Department. In the enforcement of the Oil Pollution Act, no person shall be arrested and taken into custody without process for any violation not committed in the presence of a customs or coast guard officer or any person empowered to enforce said law. Whenever any arrest is made under said law, the person so arrested shall be brought forthwith before a commissioner, judge, or court of the United States for examination of the offenses alleged against him.

(b) When it comes to the attention of any officer of the customs or coast guard that oil has been discharged into or upon the coastal navigable waters of the United States from any vessel and the available evidence indicates that a certain vessel or some one of certain vessels has caused the pollution, a full report of the circumstances and a list of the witnesses, together with a sample of the oil, shall be furnished to the district engineer, and copies of each such report shall be furnished to the United States attorney, to the Board of Local Inspectors of Vessels, and to the Department.

(c) Action as provided in (a) or (b) hereof shall not be taken in any case where the discharge of oil is the result of an emergency imperiling life or property, or unavoidable accident, collision, or stranding, or in pursuance of any regulations that may be issued by the Secretary of War. In every such case when life is not imperiled every effort shall be made to prevent the discharge of oil into the coastal navigable waters; and when any such case comes to the attention of any officer of the customs or coast guard it shall be his duty to report it promptly and directly to the district engineer and to the Department.

(d) The Oil Pollution Act was published in T. D. 40516, to which customs officers are referred for definitions, etc.

ART. 193. Cargo and passenger reports.—(a) Cargo reports on Maritime Commission Forms 7801 and 7802 are required from all vessels of 100 gross tons and over carrying cargo, passengers, mail, or ballast between continental United States ports and foreign ports or ports in noncontiguous United States possessions, or between ports on the Pacific coast and ports on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts of continental United States, also from such vessels clearing with bunkers only.

(b) Reports shall be filed with the collector of customs within 10 days after entrance or clearance of vessels.

(c) Reports on Maritime Commission Forms 7801 and 7802 are not required from vessels entering or clearing in transit or for repairs.

(d) Daily reports by collectors of customs on Maritime Commission Forms 7036 and 7037 shall include entrances and clearances of all vessels of 100 gross tons and over in foreign, intercoastal, and/or noncontiguous trades. In addition to entrances and clearances daily reports on these forms shall include lists of all arrivals and departures of vessels of 100 gross tons and over engaged in foreign, intercoastal, and/or noncontiguous trades. "No transaction report" on Maritime Commission Form 7038 shall also refer to vessels of 100 gross tons and over.

(e) Reports on Maritime Commission Forms 7801 and 7802 shall be forwarded within 24 hours after receipt by collectors and reports on Maritime Commission Forms 7036, 7037, and 7038 shall be forwarded within 24 hours after the dates to which they pertain, to the division of statistics, Bureau of Research, United States Maritime Commission, Washington, D. C.

(f) Such reports shall be prepared in accordance with T. D. 43045.

ART. 194. Controlled exports—Narcotics, leaf tobacco, munitions, helium gas.—(a) No person shall take out of the United States or offer to any carrier for transportation therefrom, nor shall any carrier receive for exportation out of the United States any narcotic drugs until permit therefor shall have been issued by the Commissioner of Narcotics, as set forth in article 657. (See also art. 1109.) Export declarations covering drugs, pharmaceuticals, medicines, chemicals, or other articles of a similar general description, not covered by a permit to export, shall contain a statement in writing that the articles are nonnarcotic. In the absence of such a statement in the export declaration covering such articles, the collector shall detain the merchandise, at the exporter's risk and expense, until, by examination or the submission of evidence by the exporter, the collector shall be convinced that the articles are nonnarcotic.

(b) Leaf tobacco may be exported only by registered dealers in leaf tobacco, or by tobacco growers' cooperative associations as defined in subdivision (f) of section 3360, United States Revised Statutes, as amended, and reenacted in section 403 of the Revenue Act of 1926, or by farmers or growers of leaf tobacco, who export it in the natural state as cured on the farm. When leaf tobacco is exported by a registered dealer, three copies of the shipper's export declaration (customs Form 7525) covering such tobacco are required. The third copy should be marked "For Internal Revenue purposes", and must have attached thereto the tobacco invoice, internal revenue Form 774, which copy, with the invoice attached, should be forwarded to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Tobacco Division, Washington, D. C.

(c) No tobacco invoices, internal-revenue Form 774, are required for shipments of tobacco to foreign countries made from customs bonded warehouses of class 6. Such form, however, is required for each shipment or delivery of tobacco to warehouses of class 6; for each shipment withdrawn for consumption from customs bonded warehouses of classes 1, 2, 3, and 8; and for each shipment entered for direct consumption. The invoice should be forwarded to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Tobacco Division, Washington, D. C.

(d) See paragraphs (f) and (g) of article 178 relative to the importation and exportation of arms, ammunition, and implements of war, and the exportation of other munitions of war and firearms.

(e) The exportation of helium gas, except by permission of the President, is prohibited by the act of March 3, 1925, as amended by the act of March 3, 1927, and any person guilty of a violation of the act is subject to a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Collectors will require exporters of helium gas to exhibit and file competent evidence that the President has authorized the exportation of the gas in each instance before exportation is permitted. A certificate or letter from the Secretary of Commerce to the effect that the exportation of the helium gas is authorized will be deemed sufficient.

COASTING TRADE AND FISHERIES

ART. 195. Coastwise trade and fisheries limited to American vessels.—(a) The coastwise trade and fisheries of the United States are limited to vessels documented under the laws of the United States.

(b) Foreign vessels, and American vessels with limited registration (registered for foreign trade only) may proceed from one domestic port to another domestic port or ports to complete discharging inward cargoes (art. 150), retaining on board cargo for foreign ports (art. 151), or to complete lading of outward cargoes, or for both purposes (art. 183); but if such vessels proceed in ballast they must be cleared on commerce Form 1385, as outlined in article 182.

(c) Barges equipped for harbor transportation must be owned by citizens of the United States.

If any merchandise is laden at any port or place in the United States upon any vessel belonging wholly or in part to a subject of a foreign country, and is taken thence to a foreign port or place to be reladen and reshipped to any other port in the United States, either by the same or by another vessel, foreign or American, with intent to evade the provisions relating to the transportation of merchandise from one port or place of the United States to another port or place of the United States in a vessel belonging wholly or in part to a subject of any foreign power, the merchandise shall, on its arrival at such last-named port or place, be seized and forfeited to the United States, and the vessel shall pay a tonnage duty of 50 cents per net ton.

ART. 196. Great districts.—(a) The seacoasts and navigable waters of the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico are divided into six great districts: The first to include all the collection districts on the seacoast and navigable rivers between the northern boundary of the State of Maine and the southern boundary of the State of Texas; the second to consist of the island of Puerto Rico; the third to include the collection districts on the seacoasts and navigable rivers between the southern boundary of the State of California and the northern boundary of the State of Washington; the fourth to consist of the Territory of Alaska; the fifth to consist of the Territory of Hawaii; and the sixth to include all the collection districts on the Great Lakes, their connecting and tributary waters, as far east as the Raquette River, New York.

(b) The navigation of the Yukon, Stikine, and Porcupine Rivers is governed by special regulations.

ART. 197. Clearance and entrance of vessels coastwise.—(a) Vessels licensed for the coasting trade, and wholly laden with domestic products or in ballast, may proceed from port to port or from place to place within the same great district without reporting their departures or arrivals, but such vessels may be entered and cleared if the owners or agents so desire.

(b) Vessels carrying merchandise in bond are required to be cleared and entered at ports of lading and destination of the bonded merchandise, but not at intermediate ports.

(c) Registered vessels moving coastwise and enrolled and licensed vessels proceeding between ports in different great coasting districts are required to be entered and cleared.

(d) Neglect to comply with the foregoing requirements subjects the master or other person in charge or command to a penalty of $100.

(e) The foregoing provisions concerning vessels in the coastwise trade shall not be held to include vessels exclusively engaged in the navigation of the Mississippi River or tributaries above the port of New Orleans.

ART. 198. Coastwise clearance and entrance procedure between ports in the same great district.—(a) The master of a vessel clearing from one coastwise port to another coastwise port in the same great district will deliver to the collector verified duplicate manifests on commerce Form 1381 of the cargo laden at that port for the other domestic port of discharge. If the vessel is light or in ballast, the reverse side of commerce Form 1385 should be used in lieu of the manifest. The collector will return to the master one copy of commerce Form 1381 or 1385, as the case may be, with the permit to proceed thereon, which the master, upon his arrival at the port of destination, will present for entry purposes.

(b) If cargo is laden at one domestic port for more than one other domestic port, the master will deliver to the collector verified duplicate manifests (commerce Form 1381) representing the lading at that port for each such other port, and the collector will return one copy for each such other port with permit to proceed thereon. Cargo other than bonded goods need not be itemized—a general statement being sufficient.

(c) Where bonded goods are carried covered by transportation entries, the merchandise should be so manifested as to show that it is bonded and the transportation entry numbers quoted. The names and addresses of shippers and consignees need not be quoted.

(d) If bonded goods are loaded after the master has cleared the vessel at the customhouse, the master may make proper notations on the copy of the manifest in his possession before he presents it for entrance of the vessel at the port of destination, and he should notify the collector at port of clearance, furnishing the necessary details.

(e) Collectors at intermediate ports should not take up manifests not pertaining to the cargo destined for such ports, nor should they require masters, upon clearance, to furnish duplicate manifests covering other than the cargo or ballast laden at their particular ports.

(f) The entry of a vessel coastwise consists of delivering to the collector within 24 hours after arrival the sworn manifest of cargo certified to on commerce Form 1381 or 1385, and obtaining from the collector a permit to discharge on customs Form 3169.

(g) If there be no cargo on board the master must produce the coastwise clearance and permit granted by the collector at the port of departure.

ART. 199. Coastwise clearance and entrance procedure between ports in different great districts.—(a) Trade with noncontiguous territories of the United States.—(1) While the trade between continental United States and Alaska, Puerto Rico, and Hawaii is strictly coastwise, for statistical purposes, American vessels clearing to ports in noncontiguous territories of the United States must file complete manifests (or incomplete manifests—customs Form 7301), together with shippers' export declarations as described in article 173. Bonded merchandise should be manifested as prescribed in article 198.

(2) Where the cargo is to be transshipped in another customs district, including Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgina Islands of the United States, for transportation to a foreign country or noncontiguous territory of the United States, the shippers' export declarations (customs Form 7525) should be filed only with the collector of customs at the port where the merchandise is last laden for its final destination.

(3) A certificate of clearance (commerce Form 1378), appropriately modified by striking out "to a foreign port" and substituting "to noncontiguous territory of the United States" should be issued to such vessels.

(4) Upon arrival the master should surrender the modified clearance (commerce Form 1378); present an itemized manifest (commerce Form 1381) in triplicate, subscribing to the coastwise entrance oath thereon; furnish a passenger list (commerce Form 1440), and comply with the requirements of the Public Health Service regarding bills of health and quarantine inspection.

(5) One copy of the manifest should be filed as coastwise entrance; and when covering merchandise subject to internal-revenue tax, another copy should be sent by the collector of customs to the collector of internal revenue indicating the merchandise subject to such tax; and the third copy should be attached to the coastwise permit to land goods (customs Form 3169) which should bear the following notation: "You will deliver to the collector of internal revenue all merchandise subject to internal revenue tax and obtain his receipt for same on back hereof."

(b) Special procedure for vessels engaged in intercoastal trade.—(1) American vessels in trade between Atlantic and Pacific ports will be cleared on commerce Form 1382, "Intercoast permit for an American vessel to proceed from port to port on the Atlantic or the Pacific coast to lade for a port or ports on the opposite coast", and on manifest formed of as many parts as there are ports of discharge, i. e., the lading for each port on the opposite coast shall be manifested on uncertified separate sheets, in duplicate, in such detail as to show the quantity in long tons of 2,240 pounds, and description of each commodity carried, but commodities in quantities of less than 10 tons each may be combined and designated as "General cargo."

(2) Original manifests, or parts thereof, will be filed at port of lading, and copies will go forward with vessels to the respective ports of discharge.

(3) Excepting the cargo reports provided for in article 193, no statistical reports of coastwise cargoes are required at the port of departure. If a vessel (not engaged in a simultaneous foreign transaction as described in art. 201) continues to load cargo after clearing, corrected uncertified sheets showing all the cargo loaded may be prepared by the agents after departure of the vessel and forwarded by overland mail, to be substituted before entrance for the sheets presented on clearance.

(4) To provide for the master's oath on clearance and entrance between intermediate ports, when proceeding from the first port of lading to the last port of discharge, duplicate manifests on commerce Form 1381 will be used, on which a notation as follows should be made in lieu of specifying the cargo on board.

Cargo laden at _____ for (Name first and each subsequent port)
(Pacific coast ports or vice versa)
as per manifest(s) filed at each port on clearance.
No local cargo loaded at _____ for (That port of departure)
(Next intermediate port)
(Or cross out and specify local cargo, if any was carried.)
The oath and permit on the reverse side will be used.

(5) On arrival at the first intermediate port of lading the master will enter his vessel on the returned copy of commerce Form 1381 and will deposit the coastwise permit to proceed, commerce Form 1382, and the manifests of cargo laden at preceding port. This permit with attached manifests will be returned to the master on clearing, together with a copy of the manifest of the cargo laden at that port, which copy should be attached to the appropriate sheets; and the vessel will be cleared on duplicate commerce Form 1381 to the next intermediate port.

(6) On arrival at the second and subsequent ports the procedure outlined will be followed.

(7) At final port of lading the vessel will be cleared for the first port of discharge on the opposite coast on the same permit, commerce Form 1382, and on duplicate commerce Form 1381.

(8) On arrival at the first port of discharge (on the opposite coast) the master will enter on the returned copy of commerce Form 1381 issued on clearance at the last port, the duplicate and triplicate part manifest of the cargo destined for that port, and the permit to proceed, commerce Form 1382. The triplicate manifest should be attached to customs Form 3169 for the use of the discharging inspector. He will also deposit with the collector the part manifests of the cargo destined for other ports. On completion of unlading the vessel will be cleared on duplicate commerce Form 1381, and the collector will return the manifests of the cargo destined for other ports attached to commerce Form 1384, "Coasting trade permit allowing American vessel to proceed to another port with residue of cargo under original coasting manifest."

(9) On arrival at the second and at subsequent ports of discharge the vessel will be entered on the returned copy of commerce Form 1381, issued at the preceding port, and the permit, commerce Form 1384, and the part manifest of the cargo destined for that port. The master will deposit with the collector the part manifests of the residue cargo not destined for that port.

(10) On clearing from second and subsequent ports the procedure outlined will be followed.

(c) Special procedure for the shipment of other than bonded merchandise on an American vessel between any two ports of the United States or its island possessions via the Panama Canal, to be transshipped in the Canal Zone to another American vessel.—(1) When other than bonded merchandise, shipped on an American vessel between ports of the United States, including its island possessions, via the Isthmus of Panama, is to be transshipped to another American vessel in the Canal Zone, a special manifest shall be prepared in triplicate on commerce Form 1381, and certified by the collector of customs at the port of departure, Form 1381, to be modified to meet the circumstances and to harmonize with the forms provided for in article 236, as follows:

SPECIAL COASTWISE MANIFEST OF MERCHANDISE TO BE TRANSSHIPPED IN THE CANAL ZONE

Customs District No. ——— Port of ———.
We certify that the above-described merchandise (other than bonded goods) has been laden on the American S. S. ——— at ——— for transportation to ——— to be transshipped at the Panama Canal Zone to [1] another American vessel for carriage to destination.

———, ———, ——— ———,
Inspector. Deputy Collector of Customs.

Oath on arrival

I, ———, master of the ——— (second vessel) of ———, do swear that the certified manifest which I now exhibit contains a true account of the articles transshipped from the said ——— (first vessel), in the Canal Zone.

———, ———,
Master.

(2) One copy of the manifest shall be filed in the office of the collector at the port of departure, one copy delivered to the master of the vessel to be given to the master of the second vessel for his use in making entry at the port of arrival, and one copy mailed to the collector at the port of destination of the merchandise, same to be attached to the delivery permit (customs Form 3169) when the second vessel enters at destination.

(3) It will not be necessary to seal the packages or the compartments in which they are shipped, nor will any supervision of the transshipment in the Canal Zone be required. However, upon arrival of the merchandise at the port of destination, the packages will be examined by officers of the customs and compared with the marks and numbers on the manifest. All goods so shipped not corresponding with the manifest, will be held for duty. Baggage of passengers may be manifested in this manner, but will be subject to inspection.

(4) These regulations shall not apply to merchandise shipped in bond.

(d) Trade between ports in Great District No. 1 (Atlantic and Gulf coasts) and Great District No. 6 (Great Lake ports).—(1) Vessels proceeding via the St. Lawrence River must operate under certificate of registry (art. 71). They are required by Canadian Customs to enter and clear at Montreal, and must comply with foreign entrance requirements (art. 113) in addition to the coastwise procedure (art. 201). If cargoes are laden or discharged at, or passengers carried to or from, Canadian ports, tonnage taxes and navigation fees should be collected. Foreign manifests in detail (customs Form 7527-B) with appropriate notations are a necessity and the duplicate manifests (commerce Form 1381) of the lading at each coastwise port must be certified by the collectors (art. 201). When no passengers or cargoes or supplies are carried to or from Canadian ports, tonnage taxes and navigation fees may be waived.

(2) Vessels proceeding via the Hudson River should operate under Frontier Enrollment and License, commerce Form 1273, which may be issued at seaboard ports. If the vessels are engaged only in the coastwise trade they should follow the procedure for the trade between ports in the same Great District (art. 198) and if engaged in the coastwise and foreign trade they should follow the procedure outlined in article 201.

ART. 200. Registered vessels in coastwise trade.—(a) Vessels under register engaged in the coasting trade, bound from one collection district to another, are required to enter and clear, whether they are in ballast or with cargo. The regulations regarding great coasting districts do not affect them.

(b) When a part only of the cargo is discharged, the collector will indorse the articles so discharged on the manifest and will grant a permit to the master to proceed with the vessel to the place of her further destination.

(c) If there be no cargo on board, the master must produce the coastwise clearance and permit granted by the collector at the port of departure.

(d) The register will be deposited with the collector upon entrance, and returned to the master upon clearance. It should be examined to see that the vessel is entitled to engage in the coastwise trade.

[1] The oath of arrival on reverse side should be modified so that the master of the vessel to which transshipped will certify transshipment and sign his name as master of such vessel (naming the vessel to which transshipped).

ART. 201. Registered vessels in coastwise and foreign trade.—(a) A vessel with unrestricted registration (i. e., one which may engage in coastwise trade) moving coastwise with inward foreign cargo under article 150 and/or proceeding from port to port to lade cargo for a foreign port under article 183, may simultaneously engage in the coastwise trade. Under these conditions, both foreign and coastwise clearance and entrance are required.

(b) Such a registered vessel may engage in trade between ports of the United States, with the privilege of touching at one or more foreign ports during the voyage, discharging and receiving merchandise, passengers, baggage, and mails, but must be furnished by the collector of the port in the United States at which cargo is laden, with certified manifests in duplicate setting forth the particulars of the cargo, the marks, numbers of packages, names of shippers, consignees, and destination.

(c) Vessels so employed, and their cargoes, are subject to the provisions of the revenue and collection laws of the United States, and their masters must, on arrival from a foreign port, conform to the laws regulating foreign and coastwise entrance. The duplicate certified coastwise manifest will be sent to the discharging inspector with the permit to land (customs Form 3169) attached.

(d) Merchandise conveyed from one port to another port within the United States, under the provisions of the warehousing laws, and duty-paid goods, are not subject to duty by reason of the vessel having touched at a foreign port during the voyage.

ART. 202. Report of arrival at another port.—Whenever a vessel which is required to enter and clear in the coastwise trade shall put into a port other than the one to which she is bound, the master must, if she remains 24 hours, report to the collector his arrival, the place whence he came, and whither he is bound, with an account of the lading on board his vessel.

ART. 203. Masters in coastwise trade to keep a count of passengers.—(a) The master of every passenger steamer of the United States in the coastwise trade shall keep a correct count of all the passengers received and delivered from day to day, which count shall be open to the inspection of the inspectors and officers of the customs at all times, and the aggregate number of passengers shall be furnished to inspectors as often as called for.

(b) A correct list of passengers received and delivered from day to day shall be kept, instead of a correct count, by the masters of seagoing passenger steamers in the coastwise trade and by the masters of passenger steamers on the Great Lakes on routes exceeding 300 miles. Nothing herein shall affect existing laws relative to vessels running between this country and foreign ports.

(c) The master of any passenger steamer who fails through negligence or design to keep a count or list of passengers as required by the preceding paragraphs shall be liable to a penalty of $100.

(d) The penalty shall be a lien upon the vessel, but a bond may, as provided in other cases, be given to secure the satisfaction of the judgment.

ART. 204. Fishing vessels touching and trading at foreign places.—(a) The master of a vessel licensed to carry on the fisheries which is about to engage in a fishing voyage must, if the vessel intends to touch or trade at a foreign port or place, obtain from the collector at the port from which the vessel is to depart a permit (commerce Form 1379) for such purpose. On return to the United States he must make regular entry, surrender the permit to touch and trade, and in all respects conform to the regulations prescribed for vessels arriving from a foreign port. A permit to touch and trade for the purpose of touching at a foreign port or place may not be issued to a vessel licensed for the "coasting trade and mackerel fishery" which is departing on a voyage to engage exclusively in trade. In such a case the vessel must secure a certificate of registry and obtain clearance for the foreign port or place.

(b) Foreign merchandise imported in such vessels is liable to the payment of duties thereon. Vessels licensed for the fisheries found within 3 leagues of the coast with foreign goods of greater value than $500, and without such permit, will, with such goods, be subject to forfeiture.

ART. 205. Whale fishery.—Registered vessels engaging in the whale fishery have the privileges and exemptions of vessels enrolled and licensed for the fisheries.

ART. 206. Guano trade.—(a) Commercial intercourse with the guano islands that are bonded in pursuance of law forms a part of the coasting trade of the United States, and the laws relative thereto forbid foreign vessels from engaging in such trade.

(b) Vessels engaged in the guano trade are not required to produce clearances or certified manifests from such islands. The masters of such vessels must have manifests of the cargo, subscribed by themselves, to be produced on demand to officers of the customs for inspection. Entry at the customhouse must be made on arrival at the port of destination in the United States, and the cargo inspected by the customs officers.

PILOTAGE

ART. 207. Federal pilots.—(a) Every vessel propelled in whole or in part by steam, excepting those defined as motor boats in the act of June 9, 1910 (U. S. Code, title 46, sec. 511), engaged in the coasting trade, is required, when under way, except on the high seas, to be piloted by an officer duly licensed for such purpose under the laws of the United States. Any person acting as such pilot without proper license, also the person employing him, will be liable to a penalty of $100, which is a lien upon the vessel.

(b) The master of a foreign vessel is not required to employ a pilot licensed under the laws of the United States.

ART. 208. State pilots.—(a) The piloting of vessels in State waters, except steam vessels employed in the coasting trade, is regulated by the laws of the respective States in which such waters are situated. No regulation or provision can be adopted by any State making a discrimination in the rate of pilotage or half pilotage as to vessels sailing between the ports of one State and vessels sailing between the ports of different States, or any discrimination against steam vessels; nor can a State or a municipal government require pilots of the United States to procure a State or other license in addition to that issued by the United States, or to comply with any other regulation that may impede the performance of their duties.

(b) A State may require vessels, except steam vessels in the coastwise trade, entering or leaving ports therein to take on a pilot duly authorized or licensed to act as such under the laws thereof.

ART. 209. Interstate pilots.—(a) The master of a vessel, except steam vessels in the coasting trade, entering or departing from a port on waters forming the boundary between two States, may employ a pilot, authorized or licensed by the laws of either of the States bounded by such waters, to pilot such vessel.

(b) The pilot laws have reference to the merchant service, and do not extend to public vessels of the United States entering or departing from a port.

NAVIGATION FEES

ART. 210. Table of fees.—(a) The fees given in the following table should be collected from the persons for whom the services are rendered and deposited in the Treasury as "Navigation fees", in the name of the collector of customs and to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States.

(b) The collections should be accounted for at the end of the month on commerce Form 1001, and standard Form No. 1020, as required by section 12 of the act of July 31, 1894 (U. S. Code, title 31, secs. 78, 496).

(c) The fees in column A are those collectible on the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coasts and on the Missisippi River and tributaries; those in column B are collectible on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers (Great Lakes, Lake Champlain, and St. Lawrence River).

(d) Table of navigation fees.—These fee numbers are to be cited to the exclusion of all former lists.

Fee 1 should be collected at the first port of entry only. This fee should not be collected from a vessel entering at a port on the northern, northeastern, or northwestern frontier otherwise than by sea.

Fee 2 should be collected at the port from which a vessel clears for a foreign country. If a foreign vessel proceeds from New York to La Guaira, Venezuela, via San Juan, Puerto Rico, with foreign cargo for both ports, fee 3 would be collected at New York and fee 4 at San Juan and, whether the vessel be American or foreign, fee 2 would be collected on clearing from San Juan. This fee should not be collected from a vessel clearing from a port on the northern, northeastern, or northwestern frontier otherwise than by sea.

Fee 3 should be collected for granting a permit (commerce Form 1385 or 1386) to a foreign vessel to proceed to another customs district, but not for a permit to a port in the same district.

Fee 4 should be collected for receiving manifest of a foreign vessel arriving from another customs district, but not on arriving from another port in the same district.

Fee 6 should be collected when the application is approved.

Fee 7 is 20 cents for each folio of 100 words, with a minimum charge of $1. No charge should be made for less than 100 words in excess of the minimum number of 500; thus, the charge for 599 words is $1, and for 600 words is $1.20. See Department Circular No. 283, par. 23, for the method of computing the number of words.

Fee 8 is collected principally from vessels in the Alaska trade.

Fee 9 should be collected from foreign vessels only.

Fee 10 should be collected for each copy whether certified or not, of any official document, including marine document, furnished to any person other than a Government officer.

NOTE.—No fee should be collected for admeasuring a vessel for a certificate of record (commerce Form 1316) nor for a Panama Canal tonnage certificate.

(e) The phrase "or other official certificate" as used in section 2654, Revised Statutes (U. S. Code, title 19, sec. 58), is held to embrace a certificate requiring the collector's official signature, required by and given to a merchant or his agent, and not simply a memorandum between officers for the convenience or security of the United States.

(f) For vessels not required to be documented see Chapter II.

(g) For vessels not required to be entered see article 107.

(h) United States Code, title 19, section 288:

Enrolled or licensed vessels engaged in the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers of the United States, departing from or arriving at a port in one district to or from a port in another district, and also touching at intermediate foreign ports, shall not thereby become liable to the payment of entry and clearance fees, as if from or to foreign ports; but such vessels shall, notwithstanding, be required to enter and clear (R. S. sec. 2793).

(i) United States Code, title 46, section 334:

All vessels subject to enrollment or license shall be liable to the payment of the fees established by law for services of customs officers incident thereto (R. S. sec. 4384).

(j) United States Code, title 46, section 100:

Previous to a clearance being granted to any vessel, outward bound, the legal fees which shall have accrued on such vessel shall be paid at the offices where such fees are respectively payable; and receipts for the same shall be produced to the collector or other officer whose duty it may be to grant clearances, before a clearance is granted (R. S. sec. 4206).

ART. 211. Table of fees to be posted—Receipts to be given—Penalty.—United States Code, title 19, section 59:

Every collector, comptroller, and surveyor shall cause to be affixed, and constantly kept in some public and conspicuous place of his office, a fair table of the rates of fees * * * demandable by law, and shall give a receipt for the fees received by him, specifying the particulars whenever required to do so; and for every failure so to do, he shall be liable to a penalty of $100, recoverable to the use of the informer (R. S. sec. 2635).

VESSELS TRADING WITH CONTIGUOUS COUNTRIES

ART. 212. Report—Manifest—Penalty.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 459:

The master of any vessel of less than five net tons carrying merchandise and the person in charge of any vehicle arriving in the United States from contiguous country, shall immediately report his arrival to the customs officer at the port of entry or customhouse which shall be nearest to the place at which such vessel or vehicle shall cross the boundary line or shall enter the territorial waters of the United States, and if such vessel or vehicle have on board any merchandise, shall produce to such customs officer a manifest as required by law, and no such vessel or vehicle shall proceed farther inland nor shall discharge or land any merchandise, passengers, or baggage without receiving a permit therefor from such customs officer. The master of any such vessel or the person in charge of and such vehicle who fails to report arrival in the United States as required by the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of $100 for each offense. If any merchandise or baggage is unladen or discharged without a permit therefor, the same, together with the vessel or vehicle in which imported, shall be subject to forfeiture; and if any passenger is unladen or discharged from any such vessel or vehicle without a permit therefor the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $500 for each such passenger so unladen or discharged.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 460:

If any merchandise is imported or brought into the United States in any vessel or vehicle from a contiguous country without being so reported to the collector, or in case of the neglect or failure of the master of the vessel or the person in charge of the vehicle to file a manifest therefor, such merchandise and the vessel or vehicle shall be subject to forfeiture and the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise imported in such vessel or vehicle which was not reported to the collector or included in the manifest.

(c) In the case of vessels of less than 5 net tons, the manifest shall be in duplicate on customs Form 7533, numbered in a separate series beginning with No. 1, on the 1st day of July of each year, and shall be sworn to before the collector or other customs officer authorized to administer oaths. Merchandise shall be entered and baggage declared as required by law. When such vessels have no merchandise, passengers, or baggage on board no report is required.

(d) Vessels of 6 net tons or over arriving from contiguous foreign countries, including such vessels sailing coastwise from a domestic port and touching at a foreign port or ports enroute for the purpose of lading or unlading cargo, shall be entered and manifests shall be filed therefor in duplicate on customs Form 7527, in the same manner as in the case of vessels arriving from any other foreign country. (See art. 122 (b).)

ART. 213. Domestic vessels touching at foreign ports—Departure.—(a) United States Code, title 19, section 293:

Any vessel, on being duly registered in pursuance of the laws of the United States, may engage in trade between one port in the United States and one or more ports within the same, with the privilege of touching at one or more foreign ports during the voyage, and land and take in thereat merchandise, passengers and their baggage and letters and mails. All vessels shall be furnished by the collectors of the ports at which they shall take in their cargoes in the United States with certified manifests, setting forth the particulars of the cargoes, the marks, number of packages, by whom shipped, to whom consigned, at what port to be delivered; designating such merchandise as is entitled to drawback, or to the privilege of being placed in warehouse; and the masters of such vessels shall, on their arrival at any port of the United States from any foreign port at which such vessel may have touched, as herein provided, conform to the laws providing for the delivery of manifests of cargo and passengers taken on board at such foreign port, and all other laws regulating the report and entry of vessels from foreign ports, and be subject to all the penalties therein prescribed. (R. S. sec. 3126.)

(b) United States Code, title 46, section 258:

Any vessel of the United States, navigating the waters of the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers, otherwise than by sea, shall be enrolled and licensed in such form as other vessels; such enrollment and license shall authorize any such vessels to be employed either in the coastal or foreign trade on such frontiers, and no certificate of registry shall be required for vessels so employed. Such vessels shall be, in every other respect, liable to the regulations and penalties relating to registered and licensed vessels. (R. S. sec. 4318.)

(c) The master of every registered or enrolled and licensed vessel departing for a foreign contiguous country shall be required to clear and file a manifest in duplicate on commerce Form 1374 in the same manner as in the case of a vessel departing for any other foreign country.

(d) The master or owner of every vessel shall file a report at the end of each month or at the end of the season, on commerce Form 1387, with the collector of customs in each customs district in which he has had transactions, showing the whole cargo for domestic ports which he has laden or unladen during the month. These reports should be filed in the customhouse for statistical use.

ART. 214. Foreign vessels—Departure.—Foreign vessels departing for a foreign contiguous country are subject to all the laws and regulations governing the departure of vessels for any other foreign country.

ART. 215. Merchandise arriving in sealed vessels.—Merchandise which is not to be unladen at the port of first arrival may be transported to destination in sealed vessels without inspection at the port of first arrival, subject to the conditions set forth in sections 463 and 464 of the Tariff Act of 1930, and articles 912 to 917 of these regulations.

ART. 216. Tugs—Ferryboats.—For regulations governing the treatment of tugs and ferryboats, see article 107.

ART. 217. Foreign vessels not to engage in coastwise trade on frontiers.—United States Code, title 46, section 883:

No merchandise shall be transported by water, or by land and water, on penalty of forfeiture thereof, between points in the United States, including Districts, Territories, and possessions thereof embraced within the coastwise laws, either directly or via a foreign port, or for any part of the transportation, in any other vessel than a vessel built in and documented under the laws of the United States and owned by persons who are citizens of the United States, or vessels to which the privilege of engaging in the coastwise trade is extended by sections 13 or 808: Provided, That this section shall not apply to merchandise transported between points within the continental United States, excluding Alaska, over through routes recognized by the Interstate Commerce Commission for which routes rate tariffs have been or shall be filed with said commission when such routes are in part over Canadian rail lines and their own or other connecting water facilities: Provided further, That this section shall not become effective upon the Yukon River until the Alaska Railroad shall be completed and the Shipping Board shall find that proper facilities will be furnished for transportation by persons citizens of the United States for properly handling the traffic. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, sec. 27, 41 Stat. 999.)

ART. 218. Sea and saloon stores and supplies of American vessels—Repairs and equipment—Penalty.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 465:

The master of any vessel of the United States documented to engage in the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers shall, upon arrival from a foreign contiguous territory, file with the manifest of such vessel a detailed list of all supplies or other merchandise purchased in such foreign country for use or sale on such vessel, and also a statement of the cost of all repairs to and all equipment taken on board such vessel. * * * If any such supplies, merchandise, repairs, or equipment shall not be reported, the master, * * * or other person having charge of such vessel * * * shall be liable to a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $500, or to imprisonment for not more than 2 years, or both.

(b) The master will make affidavit on customs Form 3415 as to such equipment or repairs as may have been purchased or made, or on customs Form 3417, if none.

(c) Equipment purchased and repairs made in a foreign country are subject to duty, but such duty may be remitted under certain conditions. (See art. 128.)

(d) The master will also make oath before the collector that such supplies listed as "sea stores" are intended for the exclusive use of the vessel. If the quantities thereof be excessive, duties must be paid on the excess.

(e) Supplies listed as "saloon stores", intended for sale on board the vessel, are dutiable and must be entered as merchandise.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

ART. 219. Definition of vehicle.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 401 (b):

The word "vehicle" includes every description of carriage or other contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation on land, but does not include aircraft.

ART. 220. Imports from contiguous countries—Report—Manifests.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 459:

The master of any vessel of less than 5 net tons carrying merchandise and the person in charge of any vehicle arriving in the United States from contiguous country, shall immediately report his arrival to the customs officer at the port of entry or customhouse which shall be nearest to the place at which such vessel or vehicle shall cross the boundary line or shall enter the territorial waters of the United States, and if such vessel or vehicle have on board any merchandise, shall produce to such customs officer a manifest as required by law, and no such vessel or vehicle shall proceed farther inland nor shall discharge or land any merchandise, passengers, or baggage without receiving a permit therefor from such customs officer. The master of any such vessel, or the person in charge of any such vehicle who fails to report arrival in the United States as required by the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of $100 for each offense. If any merchandise or baggage is unladen or discharged from any such vessel or vehicle without a permit therefor, the same, together with the vessel or vehicle in which imported, shall be subject to forfeiture; and if any passenger is unladen or discharged from any such vessel or vehicle without a permit therefor, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $500 for each such passenger so unladen or discharged.

If any merchandise is imported or brought into the United States in any vessel or vehicle from a contiguous country without being so reported to the collector, or in case of the neglect or failure of the master of the vessel or the person in charge of the vehicle to file a manifest therefor, such merchandise and the vessel or vehicle shall be subject to forfeiture and the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise imported in such vessel or vehicle which was not reported to the collector or included in the manifest.

(c) The manifest shall be in duplicate on customs Form 7523. Customs Form 7533–A may be used for baggage arriving in baggage cars in lieu of customs Form 7533. Customs Form 5119 may be used in lieu of customs Form 7533 or 7533–A when the value of the merchandise does not exceed $100. One copy of customs Form 7533, 7533–A, or 5119, as the case may be, shall be immediately forwarded to the comptroller.

ART. 221. Certificate of manifest—Falsity or lack of manifest—Penalty.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 583:

The master of every vessel and the person in charge of every vehicle bound to a port or place in the United States shall deliver to the officer of the customs or Coast Guard who shall first demand it of him, the original and one copy of the manifest of such vessel or vehicle, and such officer shall certify on the back of the original manifest to the inspection thereof and return the same to the master or other person in charge.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 584, as amended by section 204 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of August 5, 1935:

Any master of any vessel and any person in charge of any vehicle bound to the United States who does not produce the manifest to the officer demanding the same shall be liable to a penalty of $500, and if any merchandise, including sea stores, is found on board of or after having been unladen from such vessel or vehicle which is not included or described in said manifest or does not agree therewith, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle or the owner of such vessel or vehicle shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise so found or unladen, and any such merchandise belonging or consigned to the master or other officer or to any of the crew of such vessel, or to the owner or person in charge of such vehicle, shall be subject to forfeiture, and if any merchandise described in such manifest is not found on board the vessel or vehicle the master or other persons in charge or the owner of such vessel or vehicle shall be subject to a penalty of $500: Provided, That if the collector shall be satisfied that the manifest was lost or mislaid without intentional fraud, or was defaced by accident, or is incorrect by reason of clerical error or other mistake and that no part of the merchandise not found on board was unshipped or discharged except as specified in the report of the master, said penalties shall not be incurred.

If any of such merchandise so found consists of heroin, morphine, or cocaine, the master of such vessel or person in charge of such vehicle or the owner of such vessel or vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $50 for each ounce thereof so found. If any of such merchandise so found consists of smoking opium or opium prepared for smoking, the master of such vessel or person in charge of such vehicle or the owner of such vessel or vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $25 for each ounce thereof so found. If any of such merchandise so found consists of crude opium, the master of such vessel or person in charge of such vehicle or the owner of such vessel or vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each ounce thereof so found. Such penalties shall, notwithstanding the proviso in section 594 of this Act (relating to the immunity of vessels or vehicles used as common carriers), constitute a lien upon such vessel which may be enforced by a libel in rem; except that the master or owner of a vessel used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as such common carrier shall not be liable to such penalties and the vessel shall not be held subject to the lien, if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that neither the master nor any of the officers (including licensed and unlicensed officers and petty officers) nor the owner of the vessel knew, and could not, by the exercise of the highest degree of care and diligence, have known, that such narcotic drugs were on board. Clearance of any such vessel may be withheld until such penalties are paid or until a bond, satisfactory to the collector, is given for the payment thereof. The provisions of this paragraph shall not prevent the forfeiture of any such vessel or vehicle under any other provision of law.

If any of such merchandise (sea stores excepted), the importation of which into the United States is prohibited, or which consists of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors for the importation of which into the United States a certificate is required under section 7 of the Anti-Smuggling Act and the required certificate be not shown, be so found upon any vessel not exceeding 500 net tons, the vessel shall, in addition to any other penalties herein or by law provided, be seized and forfeited, and if any manifested merchandise (sea stores excepted) consisting of any such spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors be found upon any such vessel and the required certificate be not shown, the master of the vessel shall be liable to the penalty herein provided in the case of merchandise not duly manifested: Provided, That if the collector shall be satisfied that the certificate required for the importation of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors was issued and was lost or mislaid without intentional fraud, or was defaced by accident, or is incorrect by reason of clerical error or other mistake, said penalties shall not be incurred.

ART. 222. Departure before report or entry—Penalty.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 585, as amended by section 303 of the Anti-Smuggling Act of August 5, 1935:

If any vessel or vehicle from a foreign port or place arrives within the limits of any collection district and departs or attempts to depart, except from stress of weather or other necessity, without making a report or entry under the provisions of this Act, or if any merchandise is unladen therefrom before such report or entry, the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $5,000, and the person in charge of such vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $500, and any such vessel or vehicle shall be forfeited, and any officer of the customs may cause such vessel or vehicle to be arrested and brought back to the most convenient port of the United States.

ART. 223. Inspection—Penalty.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 461:

All merchandise and baggage imported or brought in from any contiguous country, except as otherwise provided by law or by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be unladen in the presence of and be inspected by a customs officer at the first port of entry at which the same shall arrive; and such officer may require the owner, or his agent, or other person having charge or possession of any trunk, traveling bag, sack, valise, or other container, or of any closed vehicle, to open the same for inspection, or to furnish a key or other means for opening the same.

(b) Customs officers shall not open baggage for the purpose of examining the contents. All baggage which is not opened by the owner or his agent should be detained until so opened, or a request is received from the owner or his agent to make other proper disposition thereof, except as provided in the following paragraph.

(c) Tariff Act of 1930, section 462:

If such owner, agent, or other person shall fail to comply with his demand, the officer shall retain such trunk, traveling bag, sack, valise, or other container or closed vehicle, and open the same, and, as soon thereafter as may be practicable, examine the contents, and if any article subject to duty or any article the importation of which is prohibited is found therein, the whole contents and the container or vehicle shall be subject to forfeiture.

(d) For procedure relative to the examination of uninspected baggage, form of declaration, exemptions and forwarding baggage in bond, see "Passengers' baggage", chapter VIII.

ART. 224. Preliminary entry of vessels—Overtime services of officers.—The procedure in article 112, is applicable to the preliminary entry of vessels of 5 net tons or more arriving from contiguous foreign countries and overtime services to be rendered by customs officers in connection therewith. Overtime services to be rendered by customs officers in connection with the arrival from contiguous foreign countries of vessels of less than 5 net tons and vehicles shall likewise be governed by the applicable provisions of article 112, except that the application and permit shall in all cases be on customs Form 3351 and, in the case of a railroad or trucking company, the bond shall be on the special form provided in T. D. 46780, or the blanket form thereof authorized in T. D. 46892, and shall be required, even though such railroad or trucking company is bonded as a common carrier, unless bonded merchandise only is involved.

ART. 225. Examination of baggage in foreign territory.—(a) United States customs officers stationed in foreign territory for that purpose, may examine checked baggage of persons destined to the United States who have made proper declaration therefor (see ch. VIII), when requested to do so by such persons, and place the same in the custody of the carrier under United States customs cords and blue button seals, with a special manifest on white cardboard 2½ by 4½ inches in size, in the following form, attached to each piece on the cord back of the seal:

UNITED STATES CUSTOMS

U. S. Customs Officer.

(b) In lieu of cording and sealing, such baggage may be laden in cars or compartments sealed with United States customs in transit blue Tyden seals, accompanied by a sheet manifest in duplicate in the following form:

UNITED STATES CUSTOMS

SPECIAL MANIFEST OF BAGGAGE FORWARDED IN SEALED CAR OR COMPARTMENT

This baggage is in transit from ----------, ------, to ---------, ------, in the United States.

| | | | | |

The above described baggage has been carefully examined and passed by me, and laden, and the car or compartment sealed, under my personal supervision; and no goods of any kind subject to duty are contained in such baggage except that on which proper exemption has been allowed.

Date---------

U. S. Customs Officer.

One copy of this manifest shall be given to the railroad employee in charge of the baggage for delivery by him to the customs officer at the port of first arrival in the United States, and the other copy retained as an office record.

(c) When the customs officer boards the train at the port of first arrival of the baggage, he shall cut the cord on the baggage or remove the seal or seals from the car or compartment, and retain the manifest for his office record. If the officer finds that the seals are not intact or for any other reason believes that the baggage has been tampered with en route to the United States, he shall detain the same for examination.

(d) If the baggage is to reenter foreign contiguous territory before it reaches the final port of entry into the United States, the cord shall be cut or the seal or seals removed by the customs officer at such final port of entry.

(e) No baggage containing merchandise subject to duty in excess of that on which an exemption may be allowed, shall be passed in foreign territory. If in the examination of baggage in foreign territory the customs officer finds any merchandise subject to duty in excess of the exemption which may be allowed, or any circumstances connected therewith affecting the customs revenue, he shall promptly advise the proper customs officer in the United States by such means as may be appropriate. Customs officers in the United States who receive such advice from customs officers in foreign territory, should notify the latter as to the action taken as the result of the information furnished.

ART. 226. Domestic baggage through contiguous foreign territory.—The provisions of article 431, relative to the transportation of domestic baggage from port to port in the United States through foreign territory, are applicable to ports on the Canadian and Mexican frontiers and should be allowed in all cases.

ART. 227. Weekly invoices for installment shipments.—(a) Importations made on different cars or different trains of the same road and on different days within 1 week from the date of first arrival for the same consignee, and in the same fiscal year, may be comprised in one invoice, if covered by one order or contract and shipped from one consignor to one consignee. This privilege does not include merchandise for various purchasers consigned to one consignee for entry purposes, as the shipment must not only be from one consignor to one consignee but must also be covered by the same order or contract of sale.

(b) A pro forma invoice shall be filed with each individual entry and, when the merchandise is of a class requiring a certified invoice, a bond therefor shall be taken with each individual entry or a charge made against the importer's term bond. At the end of the week a certified invoice for the shipments actually arriving during the week shall be produced, provided the merchandise is of a class requiring it, such certified invoice to state the respective dates of shipment, quantity, and value, and, whenever practicable, car numbers.

(c) Merchandise imported by highway not exceeding $100 in value may be entered on a combined manifest and entry (customs Form 5119). This form of entry may also be accepted for each vehicle or train of vehicles covering incomplete or partial shipment if the value of each separate importation does not exceed $100: Provided, however, That in cases where the total value of an importation when complete will exceed $100 a consular invoice shall be filed with the first entry provided the merchandise is of a class requiring it, and subsequent loads arriving within 1 week from the first arrival may be entered on extracts therefrom.

ART. 228. Supplies—Report of—Penalty.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 465:

* * * The conductor or person in charge of any railway car arriving from a contiguous country shall file with the manifest of such car a detailed list of all supplies or other merchandise purchased in such foreign country for use in the United States. * * *

(b) Report shall be made on customs Form 3415 to cover supplies or merchandise acquired in such foreign country. Customs Form 3417 will be used when no such supplies or merchandise have been acquired in such foreign country. Customs Forms 3415 and 3417 will be modified to meet requirements for vehicles.

(c) Tariff Act of 1930, section 465:

* * * If any such supplies, merchandise, repairs, or equipment shall not be reported, the master, conductor, or other person having charge of such vessel or vehicle shall be liable to a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $500, or to imprisonment for not more than 2 years, or both.

(d) Supplies purchased in the United States may be passed free of duty without entry.

ART. 229. Supplies not to be used in United States.—Cigars and other merchandise acquired in a foreign country constituting supplies of dining, observation, or buffet cars attached to international trains passing and repassing the boundary line, in order to be exempt from duty, must, upon arrival at the frontier port of the United States, be locked or sealed in a separate compartment or locker, which lock or seal must not be broken until the final departure of the train from the United States at the frontier port.

ART. 230. Railway equipment imported for temporary stay.—Bond.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 308:

The following articles, when not imported for sale or for sale on approval, may be admitted into the United States under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, without the payment of duty, under bond for their exportation within 6 months from the date of importation, which period may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury (whether such articles are imported before or after this section becomes effective), be extended, upon application, for a further period not to exceed 6 months: * * *

Locomotives, cars, and coaches, and repair equipment belonging to railroads brought temporarily into the United States for the purpose of clearing obstructions, fighting fires, or making emergency repairs on lines the property of railroads within the United States; * * *

(b) The regulations under the above provisions of law are contained in articles 435 to 444.

ART. 231. Locomotives—Railroad equipment—When entry required.—(a) Foreign locomotives or other foreign railroad equipment in use on a continuous route, crossing the boundary into the United States, may be admitted without entry or the payment of duty to proceed to and return from the end of the run, i. e., in the case of locomotives, the last place to which the locomotive takes the inbound train by a continuous haul, and in the case of other equipment, the place of complete unloading. Unless formally entered and cleared through customs in the United States, such locomotives or other equipment shall not be used on the inward trip otherwise than in connection with the continuous run. On the return trip the locomotives may be used only in connection with through trains crossing the boundary, but the other equipment may be used in such trains or for such local traffic as is reasonably incidental to its economical and prompt return to the country from whence it entered the United States. Empty foreign railroad cars may enter the United States without formal entry to be loaded only if the passengers or goods are to be transported directly to or through the country from which the cars entered the United States. Customs officers will seize any locomotive or other railroad equipment used in violation of this regulation as being imported contrary to law.

(b) Domestic locomotives or other domestic railroad equipment upon which repairs have been made in a foreign country shall be subject upon reentry into the United States to a duty upon the value of the repairs at the rate at which the locomotive or other equipment would be dutiable if imported, but no such duty shall be assessed by reason of repairs required to restore any such article to the condition in which it last left the United States, or by reason of "running" repairs required for the immediate safety of transportation.

(c) For the purpose of this article, locomotives or other railroad equipment manufactured in, or regularly imported into, the United States, and not subsequently cleared through foreign customs into another country, nor used in foreign local traffic otherwise than as an incident of the return of the equipment to the United States, shall be considered "domestic." Other railroad equipment shall be considered "foreign."

ART. 232. Immediate transportation without appraisement.—The provisions of chapter XVI relating to the immediate transportation without appraisement of merchandise are applicable to merchandise arriving from contiguous foreign territory.

ART. 233. Bills of lading, shipping receipts, etc., used for entry at frontier ports.—The provisions of article 290, relative to the production at time of entry of evidence of the right to make entry, are applicable to ports on the Canadian and Mexican frontiers and should be followed in all cases.

ART. 234. Immigrants' teams—Affidavit—use.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1607 (free list):

> • • • Teams of animals, including their harness and tackle, and the wagons or other vehicles actually owned by persons emigrating from foreign countries to the United States with their families, and in actual use for the purpose of such emigration under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; • • •.

(b) A declaration on customs Form 3317 made by the immigrant before a United States consular officer, or before the collector of customs, shall be filed, stating the number and kind of animals, wagons, and other articles that are so used by him for the purpose of emigration, and that the same are actually owned by him and have been in actual use by him abroad and are not intended for sale.

(c) Horses, with their harness, wagons, and other vehicles, owned by immigrants and used by them for the transportation of themselves and luggage to a railway station, and then shipped to the United States, where they are again used by such immigrants to reach their destination, are entitled to entry free of duty.

(d) Only such vehicles as are drawn by animals are entitled to free entry under paragraph 1607, and automobiles are therefore excluded from the privilege.

(e) Formal entry will be required of such teams, vehicles, and effects valued at more than $100.

MERCHANDISE IN TRANSIT BETWEEN PORTS IN THE UNITED STATES THROUGH CONTIGUOUS FOREIGN TERRITORY

ART. 235. Regulations authorized.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 554:

> With the consent of the proper authorities, imported merchandise, in bond or duty-paid, and products and manufactures of the United States may be transported from one port to another in the United States through contiguous countries, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, unless such transportation is in violation of section 4347 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act 1920, or section 588 of this Act.

ART. 236. Procedure at port of exit.—(a) Merchandise may be transported from one port to another in the United States through Canada or Mexico in sealed cars covered by manifests printed on yellow paper 3½ by 8 inches in size, in the following form:

RAILROAD COMPANY.

U. S. CUSTOMS IN TRANSIT MANIFEST

Port of exit_____
Port of reentry_____
Car No. and initial_____

Agent of Railway Co.

CUSTOMHOUSE:
I certify that the above car number is correct and that customs seals are intact and locked.

Time stamp.

(b) The information contained in this manifest shall be in accordance with the information contained in the bill accompaying the car.

(c) In case of mixed cars; that is, cars which call for several waybills, the description shall be mixed cars and the waybills shall be available for use of the customs officers at the port of reentry in case they are requested.

(d) The railroad company will be required to produce train sheets, otherwise known as consists, bridge sheets, or trip sheets, on arrival and departure of in-transit trains, to the collector of the port of exit and at the port of reentry. These sheets will be kept by the customs as a permanent record in the customhouse.

Port_____
Date_____
Inspector's initials_____

(f) All of the information shown on this stamp shall be in ink or in indelible pencil and shall bear the personal initials of the customs inspector.

(g) Train consist shall be furnished the customs inspector at the port of exit by the railroad company, showing all cars on the train and specifically indicating the in-transit cars leaving the United States. The inspector shall check each in-transit seal used to see that it is properly attached and locked, which shall be ascertained by an actual test of the seals placed on each car. While the outside inspector is checking the car numbers and initials and testing the in-transit seals applied, the inside inspector will have the manifests otherwise prepared so that, on return of the outside inspector, the certificate on the manifest may be executed and the initials of the outside inspector added to complete the manifest without delay.

(h) As an alternative to the above regulation the railroads may use the following plan if it is found to be more expeditious: Train consist shall be furnished the customs inspectors at the port of exit by the railroad company showing all cars on the train and specifically indicating the in-transit cars leaving the United States. The customs inspector will retain custody of the in-transit seals; he will accompany the railroad sealer, furnishing him with in-transit seals at the time of application; test each seal used to see that it is properly applied and upon completion of the sealing of the cars will immediately report to the inside inspector. While the outside inspector is checking the car numbers and initials and testing the in-transit seals applied, the inside inspector will have the manifests otherwise prepared so that on return of the outside inspector, the certificate on the manifest may be executed and the initials of the outside inspector added to complete the manifest without delay.

(i) Blue "in-transit" seals shall be affixed to all openings of each car, except that cars already secured by "In bond" seals, painted red, may go forward without having "In transit" seals, painted blue, affixed thereto, and without in-transit manifest.

(j) Live animals in sealed cars may be fed and watered in Canada under the supervision of United States or Canadian customs officers, who shall reseal the cars with United States or Canadian customs seals, as the case may be, and make a notation thereof on the manifest.

(k) Live animals which may be identified by specific description in the manifest may be transported in cars not secured with customs seals in the care of an attendant or customs inspector at the expense of the parties in interest.

(l) Merchandise may be forwarded in less than carload lots without being corded and sealed, such fact being noted on the manifest. The customs officer at the port of exit shall, however, carefully examine the packages and satisfy himself that the merchandise agrees with the manifest quantity and description.

(m) Collectors of customs will immediately take steps to see that all stamps, customs seals, records, and other Government property necessary for use in the shipment of in-transit cars be kept in a place specially provided for that purpose under special lock and key, which place shall be inaccessible to anyone other than the particular customs officer designated by the collector to perform duty relative to the shipment of cars in transit.

ART. 237. Procedure at port of reentry.—(a) On arrival at the first port in the United States after transportation through foreign territory the railroad conductor shall present a consist sheet showing the initials, car numbers, and port of exit of each car in the train and a manifest for each loaded car, to the customs. The inspector shall check the manifest so received with the consist sheet to determine that a manifest has been tendered for every loaded car and then shall check the train from the consist. He shall also examine the fastenings of the car.

(b) In the event that the inspector finds an in-transit car improperly sealed, or without seals, said car may be treated as a car containing freight originating in Canada or Mexico, as the case may be. If any cases of substitution of merchandise are found the cars will be detained and the facts reported to the Bureau. The manifest with the consist sheet shall be filed in the customhouse at the port of reentry as a permanent record.

(c) In-bond seals may be broken only by a customs officer or by his direction. In-transit seals may be broken by any railroad employee or consignee at any time or place after the car has been released at the port of reentry.

(d) In cases where in-transit cars are diverted, cut out of a train for any reason, or unusually delayed, the railroad superintendent at the point of such diversion, cut-out, or such delay must immediately notify the customs at the port of reentry by telegraph.

(e) All in-transit cars arriving at ports in the United States for which manifests are not received are to be held until manifests are received, or they may be treated as loads originating in Canada or Mexico, as the case may be.

(f) The customs officer shall carefully examine each less than carload shipment to satisfy himself that the merchandise agrees with the manifest quantity and description and shall verify the contents of any package which he finds in bad order or which he has reason to believe has been tampered with while outside the United States.

(g) In cases of merchandise in in-transit cars for which customs entry is made in Canada or Mexico the railroad company will be required to send to the port of reentry the in-transit seals on such cars and manifests with indorsement on each manifest by the railroad agent showing that the merchandise is so entered.

ART. 238. Transshipment—Shipments by rail and water—Storage.—(a) Merchandise in transit may be transshipped in foreign territory from car to car or from car to vessel or from vessel to car under the supervision of a customs officer. In such cases an extra copy of the manifest shall be made out for each place of transshipment and mailed to the customs officer stationed at such place, who shall supervise the transshipment and sealing of the car or vessel to which the merchandise is transshipped, note the same on the conductor's or master's copy of the manifest, return said copy and retain the extra copy as a record of his action.

(b) When the transshipment involves the breaking up or consolidation of shipments a consolidated form of car manifest, preferably 8 by 10½ inches, shall be used in lieu of the short form prescribed in article 236, showing, in the case of each shipment, in addition to the information required on the short form, the name of the consignee, the final destination, the marks and numbers of the packages, the number of packages, and whether the shipment is free or in bond. The conductor's or master's copy of the manifest or manifests, shall be taken up by the customs officer at the place of transshipment and a new manifest shall be prepared by the carrier and certified by the customs officer for each car or vessel to which the merchandise is transshipped, and a copy of each new manifest shall be given to the conductor or master for surrender at the port of reentry into the United States. The customs officer shall attach a copy of each new manifest to the original manifest and retain the same as a record of his action.

(c) When the merchandise is to be stored in foreign territory awaiting transshipment, the customs officer at the place of transshipment shall check the merchandise into a storehouse where it shall remain under customs locks or seals until the transshipment is made.

(d) Merchandise leaving the United States under in-transit seals and transshiped in foreign territory without United States customs supervision, shall be treated at the port of reentry as merchandise arriving from a foreign country.

MERCHANDISE IN TRANSIT BETWEEN PORTS OF CANADA THROUGH THE UNITED STATES, AND BETWEEN PORTS IN MEXICO, THROUGH THE UNITED STATES

ART. 239. Procedure.—(a) Whenever merchandise, whether in carload or less than carload lots, arrives at a frontier port under Canadian or Mexican customs seals in transit through the United States to the same country from which it arrived, the same procedure shall be followed as that provided for merchandise in transit through the United States to foreign countries (arts. 902 to 909), except that only three copies of customs Form 7512 will be required, and that when the route is such that the train and cars will remain intact while proceeding through the United States, a consolidated train manifest containing the same information as is required on customs Form 7512 may be used. Such copies shall be disposed of as provided in the general regulations for transportation in bond, article 873 (c), except that the certificate of delivery shall be forwarded to the collector at the port of origin instead of to the comptroller of customs in whose district the port of origin is located.

(b) When any such merchandise arrives without Canadian or Mexican customs seals, the regular procedure governing transportation and exportation shall be followed.

GRAIN FROM CANADA TO BE GROUND AND RETURNED

ART. 240. When exempt from duty.—United States Code, title 19, section 193:

Grain brought into the United States in wagons or other ordinary road vehicles, by farmers residing in the Dominion of Canada, to be ground by mills owned by citizens of the United States, shall not be deemed to be imported or liable to import duties. Such grain shall be brought into the United States under such regulations as the Treasury Department may prescribe to prevent fraud and evasion, and shall be returned as in like manner provided by such regulations. Entry shall be made of and duties paid upon all such grain as shall be taken or received by mill owners as tolls for such grinding, under like regulations provided by the Treasury Department. (Jan. 9, 1883, c. 17, 22 Stat. 402.)

ART. 241. Deposit of duties—Refunds.—In cases where the mill at which such grain is to be ground is not located at a port of entry, a deposit of the duties on such grain shall be taken, such deposit to be refunded upon receipt of the sworn statement of the owner of the mill that the said grain has been received at the mill, and evidence satisfactory to the collector that the product of the grinding thereof, less the toll, has been returned to Canada.

ART. 242. Citizenship—Accounts—Sworn statements.—A statement from the owners of the mill, showing that they are citizens of the United States, must be filed with the collector. An account will be kept by the miller, in a proper register, to be open to inspection by any customs officer, showing the name of the farmer bringing any such grain to the mill, the nature of the grain, the date of its receipt by him and of its delivery, the quantity received at the mill, the quantity of flour delivered to the farmer, and the quantity of grain taken as tolls for grinding. The miller will produce a sworn statement of such quantities at the end of each month to the collector, and shall then enter the grain received as tolls and pay the duties due thereon.

ART. 243. Exportation—Mixing.—Duties must be paid on any grain, or manufactures thereof, not removed from the mill for transportation to Canada within one month from the date of its receipt by the miller. Such grain may be mixed, provided the entire product of the grinding be returned to Canada, with the exception of the tolls and other portions on which duty has been paid.

BUILDINGS ON BOUNDARY

ART. 244. Merchandise deposited therein—Penalty—Search of—Procedure.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 596:

Any person who receives or deposits any merchandise in any building upon the boundary line between the United States and any foreign country, or carries any merchandise through the same, or aids therein, in violation of law, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000, or by imprisonment for not more than 2 years, or both.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 595:

If any collector of customs or other officer or person authorized to make searches and seizures shall have cause to suspect the presence in any dwelling house, store, or other building or place of any merchandise upon which the duties have not been paid, or which has been otherwise brought into the United States contrary to law, he may make application, under oath, to any justice of the peace, to any municipal, county, State, or Federal judge, or to any United States commissioner, and shall thereupon be entitled to a warrant to enter such dwelling house in the daytime only, or such store or other place at night or by day, and to search for and seize such merchandise: Provided, That if any such house, store, or other building, or place in which such merchandise shall be found, is upon or within 10 feet of the boundary line between the United States and a foreign country, such portion thereof as is within the United States may forthwith be taken down or removed.

* * * * * * *

(c) When any merchandise on which the duty has not been paid or which was imported contrary to law is found in any building upon or within 10 feet of the boundary line, the collector shall give notice to the owner of such building to take down or remove the same under pain of legal proceedings to that end. Should the building in question be not promptly taken down or removed the collector shall, through the United States attorney, apply to the United States district court for the issuance of an order directed to the owner of the building to show cause why the same should not be taken down or removed and for authority to take down or remove such building, and upon the receipt of proper authority from the court, the collector shall cause such building to be taken down or removed.

(d) All unpatented public lands of the United States lying within 60 feet of the boundary line of the United States and the Dominion of Canada and within 60 feet of the boundary line between the United States and Mexico have been set apart as a public reservation.

AIR COMMERCE

ART. 245. Regulation and supervision.—United States Code, title 49, section 177 (b), (c), and (d); Tariff Act of 1930, section 644:

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to (1) designate places in the United States as ports of entry for civil aircraft arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof and for merchandise carried on such aircraft; (2) detail to ports of entry for civil aircraft such officers and employees of the customs service as he may deem necessary, and to confer or impose upon any officer or employee of the United States stationed at any such port of entry (with the consent of the head of the Government department or other independent establishment under whose jurisdiction the officer or employee is serving) any of the powers, privileges, or duties conferred or imposed upon officers or employees of the customs service; and (3) by regulation to provide for the application to civil air navigation of the laws and regulations relating to the administration of the customs and public health laws to such extent and upon such conditions as he deems necessary.

(c) The Secretary of Commerce is authorized by regulation to provide for the application to civil aircraft of the laws and regulations relating to the entry and clearance of vessels to such extent and upon such conditions as he deems necessary.

(d) The Secretary of Labor is authorized to (1) designate any of the ports of entry for civil aircraft as ports of entry for aliens arriving by aircraft, (2) detail to such ports of entry such officers and employees of the immigration service as he may deem necessary, and to confer or impose upon any employee of the United States stationed at such port of entry (with the consent of the head of the Government department or other independent establishment under whose jurisdiction the officer or employee is serving) any of the powers, privileges, or duties conferred or imposed upon officers or employees of the immigration service, and (3) by regulation to provide for the application to civil air navigation of the laws and regulations relating to the administration of the immigration laws to such extent and upon such conditions as he deems necessary.

SEC. 644. The authority vested by section 7 of the Air Commerce Act of 1926 in the Secretary of the Treasury, and in the Secretary of Commerce, by regulation to provide for the application to civil air navigation of the laws and regulations relating to the administration of customs, and of the laws and regulations relating to the entry and clearance of vessels, respectively, shall extend to the application in like manner of any of the provisions of this Act or of any regulations promulgated hereunder.

ART. 246. Definitions.—As used in articles 247 to 257 of these regulations—(a) The term "United States", when used in a geographical sense, means the territory comprising the several States, Territories, and possessions of the United States (except the Philippine Islands, American Samoa, and the island of Guam), and the District of Columbia, including the territorial water thereof and the overlying air space;

(b) The term "foreign port or place" means any port or place outside the United States as above defined;

(c) The term "aircraft" means "civil aircraft" as defined in section 9 of the Air Commerce Act of 1926;

(d) The term "airport of entry" means a place designated by the Secretary of the Treasury as a port of entry for civil aircraft, so long as such designation remains in force.

ART. 247. Landing at airports of entry—Requirement.—Except in the case of forced landings, aircraft arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall make the first landing at an airport of entry, unless permission to land elsewhere than at an airport of entry is first obtained from the Commissioner of Customs, and in such cases the owner or person in charge of the aircraft shall pay the additional expenses, if any, incurred in inspecting the aircraft, merchandise, passengers, and baggage carried therein.

ART. 248. Advance notice of arrival.—The person in charge of any aircraft about to depart for the United States from a foreign port or place shall give notice of the intended flight to the collector of customs for the district in which is situated the intended place of first landing in the United States. Such notice shall specify the type of aircraft, the markings thereon, the name of the person in charge, the intended landing place, and the estimated time of arrival, and shall be sent in sufficient time and by such means as to enable the officer designated to inspect the aircraft to reach the landing field prior to the arrival of the aircraft. Except in the case of a forced landing, no aircraft from a foreign port or place shall land in the United States unless notice shall have been sent in accordance with this article, nor make its first landing in the United States at any place other than that specified in such notice. Such advance notice will not be required in the case of an aircraft making a flight in accordance with a regular schedule filed with the collector for each district in which a landing is to be made.

ART. 249. Report of arrival—Manifest.—The person in charge of any aircraft arriving from a foreign port or place shall immediately report his arrival to the customs officer at the airport of entry or other place of first landing in the United States, and, if such aircraft shall have on board any merchandise or baggage, or, in the case of an aircraft of the United States, shall have been repaired abroad, the person in charge shall produce to such customs officer a manifest, in duplicate, on customs Form 7533, signed by such person under oath as to the truth of the statements contained therein. Customs Form 5119 may be used in lieu of customs Form 7533 if the merchandise does not exceed $100 in value. One copy of customs Form 7533 or 5119, as the case may be, shall be immediately forwarded to the comptroller. No such aircraft shall, without receiving permission therefor from such customs officer, depart from the airport or other place of first landing, or discharge any merchandise, passengers, or baggage.

ART. 250. Forced landing—Report of.—Should any aircraft arriving from a foreign port or place make a forced landing in the United States, the person in charge of such aircraft shall not permit any merchandise or baggage to be removed therefrom or any passengers to depart from the landing place during the period of the forced landing (except as may be necessary for purposes of safety or preservation), unless permission has been obtained from a customs officer for such removal or departure. The person in charge shall, if possible, proceed with such aircraft, after servicing and minor repairs, to the intended place of first landing or to an airport of entry or any customs port of entry, where a full report of the circumstances of the flight and forced landing shall be made. If it is impossible so to proceed, the person in charge of the aircraft shall at once make such report to the nearest customs officer. If the person in charge of the aircraft is disabled, the report shall be made by the owner of the aircraft or by any mechanic or other employee able to do so. Mail, carried as such, may be removed from any aircraft upon making a forced landing, but, if so removed, shall at once be delivered to a responsible officer or employee of the Postal Service.

ART. 251. Immigration and public health requirements.—(a) All passengers carried on aircraft arriving in the United States shall be reported to the proper immigration officer.

(b) Any aircraft clearing from or leaving any foreign port or place or from any port or place in the possessions or other dependencies of the United States for a port or place in the United States or its possessions or other dependencies shall be required to obtain a bill of health, in duplicate, signed by the proper officer or officers of the United States as provided for by law (except as provided for in paragraph 3 of the United States Quarantine Regulations); provided that aircraft may be exempted from obtaining bills of health except during the prevalence of any of the quarantinable diseases at such foreign port or place or at such port or place in the possessions or other dependencies of the United States.

ART. 252. Inspection—Payment of duty—Forwarding in bond.—(a) Unless forwarded in bond, all merchandise and baggage imported or brought into the United States by aircraft shall be unladen (if necessary) in the presence of and be inspected by a customs officer at the customs airport where the first landing is made, where such merchandise and baggage shall be duly entered and the duty thereon shall be paid, if any is due.

(b) After being duly entered and the duties thereon paid and permit issued, the merchandise may be reladen or retained on the aircraft for transportation to destination.

(c) Merchandise may be forwarded in bond via aircraft provided the aircraft line has been bonded as a common carrier and the merchandise is destined to a place where there is a customs airport of entry or at which the Commissioner of Customs has authorized such aircraft to land, under the conditions specified in article 247.

ART. 253. Foreign aircraft—Permit to proceed inland.—(a) The person in charge of an aircraft registered in a foreign country arriving in the United States carrying passengers for hire or merchandise and not clearing for a foreign destination from the airport of first arrival without proceeding further inland, shall, before proceeding further inland, obtain from the collector of customs at that port a "Permit allowing aircraft of foreign registry to proceed inland", customs Form 4449, which shall be retained on board such aircraft while in the United States and be surrendered to the collector of customs at the port of final clearance for a foreign destination.

(b) A copy of such permit shall be retained by the collector at the port where issued. If within 30 days after the issuance of such permit the said collector does not receive a report of the outward clearance of the aircraft covered thereby, the matter shall be reported to the supervising customs agent for investigation and also to the Department of Commerce.

(c) Except when registered in a foreign country with which the United States has a reciprocal agreement as to aircraft and piloting privileges, permits to proceed inland shall not be issued to aircraft of foreign registry unless the operators thereof present satisfactory evidence of authority from the United States Department of Commerce to operate in the United States. The United States now has reciprocal agreements with the Dominion of Canada, Italy, and the Republic of Colombia. Additions to the list of such countries will published from time to time in the Treasury Decisions.

(d) Civil aircraft registered in the United States arriving from a foreign country with passengers for hire or merchandise may, after proper customs treatment of their cargo, be allowed to proceed upon their identity being established.

ART. 254. Fuel, stores, and equipment.—The provisions of section 446 of the Tariff Act of 1930 and the regulations thereunder (relating to stores, fuel, and equipment of vessels), shall apply to the corresponding stores, fuel, and equipment of such aircraft.

ART. 255. Clearance—When required—What constitutes—Procedure.—(a) The person having charge or command of any aircraft of United States registry transporting passengers for hire or merchandise, and all aircraft of foreign registry, bound to a foreign port, shall clear at the customs port of entry nearest to the place of departure, or at the airport of departure if such airport has been designated as a customs airport.

(b) Aircraft of United States registry not transporting passengers for hire or merchandise are not required to clear on departing from the United States.

(c) Clearance shall consist of the filing of a manifest, together with export declarations on customs Form 7525 for all cargo on board, and a correct list of passengers, if any, received on board, giving their names and addresses and, in the case of an aircraft of foreign registry, departing from a port of entry other than that at which it first arrived, the surrender of the permit to proceed inland issued at the first port. Each permit to proceed inland surrendered by a foreign aircraft at the port of departure thereof shall be indorsed by the customs officer in charge at the place of departure to show the fact and date of departure and returned to the port at which it was issued.

(d) The manifest shall specify the kinds and quantities of the articles contained on board and the value and total quantity of each kind of article. The manifest shall also contain a statement by the person in charge or command of the aircraft that the said manifest contains a full, just, and true account of all articles laden on board such aircraft by the owners, shippers, consignors, or carrier, respectively, and that the value of such articles are truly stated according to their actual cost or the values which they truly bear at the port and time of exportation; and shall show the foreign port or country in which such articles are truly intended to be landed. Such statement shall be under oath unless the total value of the merchandise is less than $25 or it is to be shipped to or through Mexico or Canada.

(e) The statement "as per export declarations attached" may be made on the manifest in lieu of the description of the merchandise, provided the manifest is accompanied by complete export declarations. The manifest may be the waybill or a copy thereof, or a copy of the manifest prepared for the foreign customs. If the export declarations are not at hand for any of the merchandise, a pro forma export declaration for such merchandise may be executed by the person in charge or command of the aircraft on customs Form 7303 and a bond given (on the same form) for the production of the export declarations within 6 days after the date of exportation. A term bond may be given if desired.

(f) A clearance certificate, commerce Form 1378, may be issued when requested by the person in charge of the aircraft.

(g) A record of clearances of aircraft shall be kept at ports of departure on commerce Form 1401, "Record of vessels clearing for foreign ports", modified as necessary.

ART. 256. General provisions.—Except as otherwise in these regulations provided, aircraft arriving from any foreign port or place, and the merchandise, passengers, and baggage carried therein, shall be subject to the administrative provisions of the custom laws and regulations applicable to vehicles arriving from contiguous foreign territory and to the merchandise, passengers, and baggage carried thereon, respectively. All administrative provisions of the customs laws and regulations applicable solely to vessels, or inconsistent with these regulations, shall be inapplicable to such aircraft, merchandise, passengers, or baggage.

ART. 257. Penalties.—Any person violating any customs regulation involving aircraft or any provision of the customs laws or regulations made applicable to aircraft by article 256 shall be subject to a civil penalty of $500, and any aircraft used in connection with any such violation shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture as provided for in the customs laws. Such penalty and forfeiture may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of the Treasury.

CHAPTER V

CUSTOMS RELATIONS WITH INSULAR POSSESSIONS, PANAMA CANAL ZONE, AND GUANTANAMO BAY NAVAL STATION

Art.
258. Hawaii and Puerto Rico.
259. Internal-revenue tax—Puerto Rico.
260. The Philippine Islands.
261. Tariff duties after independence.
262. Sugar, refined and unrefined, coconut oil, and cordage.
263. Invoices required.
264. Internal-revenue tax on articles from the Philippine Islands—Stamps.
265. Shipments from warehouse.
266. Shipments to the Philippine Islands with benefit of drawback.
267. Shipments in transit.
268. Merchandise made by convict, forced, or indentured labor.
269. Jurisdiction.
270. Guam and American Samoa.
271. Canal Zone.
272. Virgin Islands.
273. Guantanamo Bay Naval Station.

ART. 258. Hawaii and Puerto Rico.—(a) Hawaii and Puerto Rico are customs collection districts and are subject to all the provisions of the customs laws and regulations of the United States, including the privileges of immediate transportation without appraisement to and from ports in the United States.

(b) As section 319 of the Tariff Act of 1930 authorizes the Legislature of Puerto Rico to impose a duty on coffee imported into Puerto Rico, including coffee grown in a foreign country coming into Puerto Rico from the United States, and as the Legislature of Puerto Rico has imposed such a duty, a regular entry shall be made for all foreign-grown coffee shipped to Puerto Rico from the United States, but consular invoices will not be required for such shipments.

ART. 259. Internal-revenue tax—Puerto Rico.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 302:

> Articles, goods, wares, or merchandise going into Puerto Rico from the United States shall be exempted from the payment of any tax imposed by the internal-revenue laws of the United States.

(b) United States Code, title 26, section 1481 (c):

> All provisions of law for the allowance of drawback of internal-revenue tax on articles exported from the United States are, so far as applicable, extended to like articles upon which an internal-revenue tax has been paid when shipped from the United States to the Island of Puerto Rico. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 164, 38 Stat. 1189.)

(c) Section 404, title IV, Liquor Tax Administration Act, approved June 26, 1936, amends section 311, Tariff Act of 1930, by adding the following:

> Distilled spirits and wines which are rectified in bonded manufacturing warehouses, class 6, and distilled spirits which are reduced in proof and bottled in such warehouses, shall be deemed to have been manufactured within the meaning of this section, and may be withdrawn as hereinbefore provided, and likewise for shipment in bond to Puerto Rico, subject to the provisions of this section, and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, there to be withdrawn for consumption or be rewarehoused and subsequently withdrawn for consumption: Provided, That upon withdrawal in Puerto Rico for consumption, the duties imposed by the customs laws of the United States shall be collected on all imported merchandise (in its condition as imported) and imported containers used in the manufacture and putting up of such spirits and wines in such warehouses: Provided further, That no internal-revenue tax shall be imposed on distilled spirits and wines rectified in class 6 warehouses if such distilled spirits and wines are exported or shipped in accordance with the provisions of this section * * *.

(d) Upon the withdrawal for shipment to Puerto Rico of spirits and wines so manufactured, the warehouse withdrawal shall contain on the face thereof a statement of the kind and quantity of all imported merchandise (in its condition as imported) and imported containers used in the manufacture and putting up of such spirits and wines. The duty assessed on the imported merchandise and containers so used, and their classification and value, shall be shown on the withdrawal, in accordance with article 324. If no imported merchandise or containers have been used, the warehouse withdrawal shall contain an endorsement to that effect.

(e) The spirits and wines shall be forwarded in accordance with the general provisions of the regulations governing the transportation of merchandise in bond (ch. XVI).

ART. 260. The Philippine Islands.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 301:

> There shall be levied, collected, and paid upon all articles coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands the rates of duty which are required to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries: Provided, That all articles, the growth or product of or manufactured in the Philippine Islands from materials the growth or product of the Philippine Islands, or of the United States, or of both, or which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 20 per centum of their total value upon which no drawback of customs duties has been allowed therein, coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands shall hereafter be admitted free of duty: * * * And provided further, That the free admission, herein provided, of such articles, the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States, into the Philippine Islands, or of the growth, product, or manufacture, as hereinbefore defined, of the Philippine Islands into the United States, shall be conditioned upon the direct shipment thereof, under a through bill of lading, from the country of origin to the country of destination: Provided, That direct shipments shall include shipments in bond through foreign territory contiguous to the United States: Provided, however, That if such articles become unpacked while en route by accident, wreck, or other casualty, or so damaged as to necessitate their repacking, the same shall be admitted free of duty upon satisfactory proof that the unpacking occurred through accident or necessity and that the merchandise involved is the identical merchandise originally shipped from the United States or the Philippine Islands, as the case may be, and that its condition has not been changed except for such damage as may have been sustained: * * *

(b) The Philippine Islands are not customs collection districts. Shipments between those islands and the United States are the subject of various specific statutory provisions defining their status. All merchandise arriving from the Philippine Islands must be entered at the customhouse.

(c) Merchandise from the Philippine Islands to be entitled to admission free of duty must be accompanied by a certificate of origin signed and sealed by the collector or by a deputy collector at the port of shipment in the Philippine Islands. In the absence of said certificate a bond on customs Form 7551 or 7553 or a deposit of estimated duties will be taken for its production. Shipments by mail or otherwise valued at $10 or less are not required to be accompanied by such certificate. A bond may be given for the production of any document necessary to complete entry on customs Form 7551 or 7553, except that bond for the production of a bill of lading shall be given on customs Form 7581 or 7587.

ART. 261. Tariff duties after independence.—United States Code, title 48, section 1243:

> After the Philippine Islands have become a free and independent nation there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon all articles coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands the rates of duty which are required to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from other foreign countries * * *. (Mar. 24, 1934, c. 84, 48 Stat. 464.)

ART. 262. Sugar, refined and unrefined, coconut oil, and cordage.—(a) United States Code, title 48, section 1236:

> After the date of the inauguration of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands trade relations between the United States and the Philippine Islands shall be as now provided by law, subject to the following exceptions:
> (a) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all refined sugars in excess of 50,000 long tons, and on unrefined sugars in excess of 800,000 long tons, coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands in any calendar year, the same rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries.
> (b) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all coconut oil coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands in any calendar year in excess of 200,000 long tons, the same rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries.
> (c) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all yarn, twine, cord, cordage, rope, and cable, tarred or untarred, wholly or in chief value of manila (abaca) or other hard fibers, coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands in any calendar year in excess of a collective total of 3,000,000 pounds of all such articles hereinbefore enumerated, the same rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries. * * * (Mar. 24, 1934, c. 84, 48 Stat. 459.) (Note the act of June 14, 1935, suspends the operation of this paragraph for a period of 3 years and grants authority to the President of the United States to extend the suspension for an additional period of 3 years or more.)

(b) United States Code, title 48, section 1236a:

> Effective May 1, 1935, and for 3 years thereafter, the total amount of all yarns, twines, cords, cordage, rope, and cable, tarred or untarred, wholly or in chief value of Manila (abaca) or other hard fiber, produced or manufactured in the Philippine Islands, coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands, shall not exceed 6,000,000 pounds during each successive 12 months period, which 6,000,000 pounds shall enter the United States duty free.
> The amount or quantity of such articles which may be so exported to the United States shall be allocated, under export permits issued by the Government of the Philippine Islands, to the producers or manufacturers thereof. This allocation shall be made by the Governor General of the Philippine Islands prior to the inauguration of the Commonwealth of the Philippines, and thereafter by the President of said Commonwealth, unless otherwise provided by the Legislature of the Commonwealth.

Pending the final and complete withdrawal of American sovereignty over the Philippine Islands, the President of the United States may, by proclamation, at least 90 days prior to the expiration of the 3-year period provided herein, extend the operation of this section for an additional period of 3 years or more, provided such extension is accepted by the President of the Commonwealth of the Philippines.

On and after the expiration of the operation of this section the articles described herein coming into the United States from the Philippines shall be subject to the provisions of section 1236 of this chapter.

Except as provided herein, nothing in this section shall be construed to modify or repeal the provisions of any existing law.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to enforce the provisions hereof; and this section shall be enforced as part of the customs law. (June 14, 1935, c. 240, 49 Stat. 340.)

(c) Collectors of customs shall render reports to the Commissioner of Customs, Washington, D. C. (Attention, Division of Statistics and Research), on Monday of each week for the week ending the previous Saturday, giving in respect of each shipment from the Philippine Islands of any commodity specified above the name of the commodity, date and number of entry, date and port of original arrival, and the net weight in pounds of the commodity. In the case of sugar, refined or unrefined, the net weight in pounds (irrespective of polarization) and the class (refined or unrefined) shall be reported.

(d) When the quotas for sugar, refined and unrefined, or coconut oil, or cordage permitted to be brought into the United States from the Philippine Islands duty free under the acts set out above, approach fulfillment, special instructions will be issued by the Bureau.

(e) For the purpose of these regulations, binder twine, wholly or in chief value of manila (abaca) or other hard fiber, is included among the products specified in paragraph (c) of section 6 of the Philippine Independence Act of March 24, 1934, and in the Cordage Act of June 14, 1935.

ART. 263. Invoices required.—Except as provided in article 299 (b), invoices, certified by the collector or deputy collector of customs in the Philippine Islands will be required upon the entry of all dutiable merchandise from those islands valued at more than $100. When merchandise is covered by a certificate of origin no certified invoice is required.

ART. 264. Internal-revenue tax on articles from the Philippine Islands—Stamps.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 301:

> * * * That there shall be levied, collected, and paid, in the United States, upon articles, goods, wares, or merchandise coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands a tax equal to the internal-revenue tax imposed in the United States upon the like articles, goods, wares, or merchandise of domestic manufacture; such tax to be paid by internal-revenue stamp or stamps, to be provided by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and to be affixed in such manner and under such regulations as he, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe; * * * * * * * *

(b) Stamps may be affixed on such articles prior to shipment to the United States, and a certificate to that effect from the collector of internal revenue of the Philippine Islands affixed to the outer shipping case.

(c) When such certificate is affixed, customs officers need not inspect the interior packages for the purpose of determining whether proper internal-revenue stamps have been affixed thereto. When such certificate is not affixed to the exterior package and it is found upon examination that the interior packages are not properly stamped, the collector of customs at the port of entry will at once so notify the collector of internal revenue for that district.

(d) Should the consignee, or his agent, fail to procure and affix the required internal-revenue stamps to such articles within a reasonable time after inspection the collector will so report to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

ART. 265. Shipments from warehouse.—(a) United States Code, title 19, section 152a:

> All articles manufactured in bonded manufacturing warehouses in whole or in part of imported materials, or of materials subject to internal-revenue tax and intended for shipment from the United States to the Philippine Islands, shall, when so shipped, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, be exempt from internal-revenue tax, and shall not be charged with duty except the duty levied upon imports into the Philippine Islands. • • •

(b) All packages of merchandise so shipped must be marked by the shipper "Manufactured in customs bonded manufacturing warehouse" in a conspicuous, legible, and permanent manner. Customs officers supervising the lading of such merchandise must see that the packages are so marked.

(c) In such cases the withdrawal entry shall contain on the face thereof a statement of the kind and quantity of any dutiable imported material which has entered into the manufacture of the merchandise. If no such material has been used the indorsement will read "No dutiable imported material used."

(d) United States Code, title 19, section 152b:

Merchandise in bonded warehouse or otherwise in the custody and control of the officers of the customs upon which duties have been paid, shall be entitled, on shipment to the Philippine Islands within 3 years from the date of the original arrival, to a return of the duties paid less 1 per centum, and merchandise upon which duties have not been paid may be shipped without the payment of duties to the Philippine Islands within said period, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Mar. 8, 1902, c. 140, sec. 7, 32 Stat. 55.)

(e) An additional copy of all such withdrawal entries will be required to be filed and will be mailed to the collector of customs at Manila, Philippine Islands.

ART. 266. Shipments to the Philippine Islands with benefit of drawback.—(a) United States Code, title 19, section 152a:

• • • Where materials on which duties have been paid are used in the manufacture of articles manufactured or produced in the United States, there shall be allowed on the shipment of said articles to the Philippine Archipelago a drawback equal in amount to the duties paid on the materials used, less 1 per centum of such duties, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (Mar. 8, 1902, c. 140, sec. 6, 32 Stat. 55.)

(b) All packages so shipped, upon which drawback is claimed, must be marked by the shipper "drawback claimed" in a conspicuous, legible, and permanent manner. Customs officers supervising the lading of goods shipped to said islands with benefit of drawback must see that the packages are so marked.

(c) United States Code, title 26, section 1461 (c):

All provisions of law for the allowance of drawback of internal-revenue tax on articles exported from the United States are, so far as applicable, extended to like articles upon which an internal-revenue tax has been paid when shipped from the United States to the Philippine Islands. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 164, 38 Stat. 1189.)

ART. 267. Shipments in transit.—Merchandise which appears by the invoice, manifest, bill of lading, or other document to be intended for shipment through the United States to the Philippine Islands may be entered for transportation and exportation in the same manner as similar shipments are made in transit to foreign countries, and merchandise similarly shown to be intended for shipment from the port of arrival in the United States to said islands may be entered on the form used for merchandise brought in at and exported from the same port. (See arts. 902 to 909.)

ART. 268. Merchandise made by convict, forced, or indentured labor.—The prohibition against the importation of goods mined, produced, or manufactured wholly or in part by convict, forced, or indentured labor contained in section 307 of the Tariff Act of 1930 does not apply to goods mined, produced, or manufactured in the Philippine Islands.

ART. 269. Jurisdiction.—The customs administration of the Philippine Islands is under the jurisdiction of the Department of War, Bureau of Insular Affairs.

ART. 270. Guam and American Samoa.—(a) Guam and American Samoa are American territory. They are not customs collection districts and importations into those islands are not governed by the customs regulations. Their customs administration is under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Navy.

(b) Merchandise arriving in the United States from Guam and American Samoa must be entered, but will be admitted free of duty if accompanied by a certificate of the chief customs officer at the port of shipment showing the same to be the growth or product of those islands or actual importations into the islands. Merchandise arriving from those islands unaccompanied by such certificate will be subject to duty as if imported from a foreign country. In the absence of such a certificate at the time of entry, a bond on customs Form 7551 or 7553 may be given for its production. Shipments, by mail or otherwise, valued at $10 or less, if the growth or product of those islands, are not required to be accompanied by such certificate; but in the case of shipments claimed to be actual importations into said islands, the proper certficate will be required as a condition to admission free of duty, regardless of the value of the shipment.

(c) Except as provided in article 299 (b), invoices certified by the chief customs officer in Guam or American Samoa will be required upon the entry of all dutiable merchandise from those islands valued at more than $100. When merchandise is covered by a certificate of origin or of actual importation into those islands, no certified invoice is required.

(d) Merchandise may be withdrawn from bonded warehouse under section 557 of the Tariff Act of 1930 for shipment to Guam and American Samoa without payment of duty, or with benefit of drawback if the duties have been paid thereon. No drawback can be allowed under section 313 of the Tariff Act of 1930 on articles manufactured or produced in the United States with the use of imported merchandise or domestic tax-paid alcohol and shipped to Guam or American Samoa.

ART. 271. Canal Zone.—(a) United States Code, title 19, section 126:

All laws affecting imports of articles, goods, wares, and merchandise from foreign countries shall apply to articles, goods, wares, and merchandise and persons coming from the Canal Zone, Isthmus of Panama, and seeking entry into any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia. (Mar. 2, 1905, c. 1311, 33 Stat. 438.)

(b) The customs administration of the said Canal Zone is under the jurisdiction of the Governor of the Panama Canal.

ART. 272. Virgin Islands.—(a) United States Code, title 48, section 1394:

There shall be levied, collected, and paid upon all articles coming into the United States or its possessions from the Virgin Islands the rates of duty and internal-revenue taxes which are required to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries: Provided, That all articles, the growth or product of, or manufactured in, such islands, from materials the growth or product of such islands or of the United States, or of both, or which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 20 per centum of their total value, upon which no drawback of customs duties has been allowed therein, coming into the United States from such islands shall be admitted free of duty. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 171, sec. 3, 39 Stat. 1133.)

(b) Compliance with these requirements of the law must be established by an official certificate of origin of the collector or deputy collector of customs at the port of shipment in the Virgin Islands. Such certificate will not, however, be required for shipments by mail or otherwise valued at $10 or less.

(c) In case merchandise arrives unaccompanied by a certificate of origin or any document necessary to complete entry is lacking bond for the production thereof may be taken, on customs Form 7551 or 7553, except that bond for the production of a bill of lading shall be taken on customs Form 7581 or 7587.

(d) Except as provided in article 299 (b), invoices certified by the collector or deputy collector of customs in the Virgin Islands will be required upon the entry of all dutiable merchandise from those islands valued at more than $100. When merchandise is covered by a certificate of origin, no certified invoice is required.

(e) Merchandise may be withdrawn from bonded warehouse under section 557 of the Tariff Act of 1930 for shipment to the Virgin Islands without payment of duty, or with benefit of drawback if the duties have been paid thereon. No drawback can be allowed under section 313 of the Tariff Act of 1930 on articles manufactured or produced in the United States with the use of imported merchandise or domestic tax-paid alcohol and shipped to the Virgin Islands.

ART. 273. Guantanamo Bay Naval Station.—Articles of foreign origin may enter the area (both land and water) of the Guantanamo Bay Naval Station free of duty, but such articles will be subject to duty upon their subsequent entry into the United States.

INVOICES

ART. 274. Requirements as to all invoices.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 481 (a):

All invoices of merchandise to be imported into the United States shall set forth—

(1) The port of entry to which the merchandise is destined;

(2) The time when, the place where, and the person by whom and the person to whom the merchandise is sold or agreed to be sold, or if to be imported otherwise than in pursuance of a purchase, the place from which shipped, the time when and the person to whom and the person by whom it is shipped;

(3) A detailed description of the merchandise, including the name by which each item is known, the grade or quality, and the marks, numbers, or symbols under which sold by the seller or manufacturer to the trade in the country of exportation, together with the marks and numbers of the packages in which the merchandise is packed;

(4) The quantities in the weights and measures of the country or place from which the merchandise is shipped, or in the weights and measures of the United States;

(5) The purchase price of each item in the currency of the purchase, if the merchandise is shipped in pursuance of a purchase or an agreement to purchase.

(6) If the merchandise is shipped otherwise than in pursuance of a purchase or an agreement to purchase, the value for each item, in the currency in which the transactions are usually made, or, in the absence of such value, the price in such currency that the manufacturer, seller, shipper, or owner would have received, or was willing to receive, for such merchandise if sold in the ordinary course of trade and in the usual wholesale quantities in the country of exportation;

(7) The kind of currency, whether gold, silver, or paper;

(8) All charges upon the merchandise, itemized by name and amount when known to the seller or shipper; or all charges by name (including commissions, insurance, freight, cases, containers, coverings, and cost of packing) included in the invoice prices when the amounts for such charges are unknown to the seller or shipper;

(9) All rebates, drawbacks, and bounties, separately itemized, allowed upon the exportation of the merchandise; and

(10) Any other facts deemed necessary to a proper appraisement, examination, and classification of the merchandise that the Secretary of the Treasury may require.

(b) When any of the component materials of an imported article affects its classification or appraisement, the "grade or quality" of the article shall be shown on the invoice by an analysis of the article or the formulae under which it was manufactured or produced, showing the percentage of each such component material contained in the article if known or, if such percentage is unknown, by a statement that the article contains such material or materials.

(c) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (g):

Under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, the collector or the appraiser may require a verified statement from the manufacturer or producer showing the cost of production of the imported merchandise, when necessary to the appraisement of such merchandise.

Whenever it shall be determined by the appraising officer that information as to the cost of production is necessary in the appraisement of certain merchandise, the importer shall be notified by the collector or appraiser and thereafter invoices covering shipments of such merchandise shall contain a verified statement by the manufacturer or producer as to the cost of production, as defined in section 402 (f) of the Tariff Act of 1930.

(d) Tariff Act of 1930, section 481 (b):

If the merchandise is shipped to a person in the United States by a person other than the manufacturer, otherwise than by purchase, such person shall state on the invoice the time when, the place where, the person from whom such merchandise was purchased, and the price paid therefor in the currency of the purchase, stating whether gold, silver, or paper.

(e) All special regulations heretofore issued, whether published or unpublished, and now in force, requiring special information in addition to that prescribed in this article on invoices of certain classes of merchandise are continued in force until modified or revoked.

(f) Tariff Act of 1930, section 481 (d):

The Secretary of the Treasury may by regulations provide for such exceptions from the requirements of this section as he deems advisable.

(g) When the kind of currency is apparent from the invoice a specific statement that the currency is gold, silver, or paper need not be required.

ART. 275. Additional requirements as to invoices over $100.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 482 (a), (b), (c), and (d):

(a) Every invoice covering merchandise exceeding $100 in value shall, at or before the time of the shipment of the merchandise, or as soon thereafter as the conditions will permit, be produced for certification to the consular officer of the United States—

(1) For the consular district in which the merchandise was manufactured, or purchased, or from which it was to be delivered pursuant to contract;

(2) For the consular district in which the merchandise is assembled and repacked for shipment to the United States, if it has been purchased in different consular districts.

(b) Such invoices shall have indorsed thereon, when so produced a verified declaration, in a form prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, stating whether the merchandise is sold or agreed to be sold, or whether it is shipped otherwise than in pursuance of a purchase or an agreement to purchase, that there is no other invoice differing from the invoice so produced, and that all the statements contained in such invoice and in such declaration are true and correct.

(c) Every certified invoice shall be made out in triplicate, or, for merchandise intended for immediate transportation under the provisions of section 552 of this Act, in quadruplicate, if desired by the shipper, and shall be signed by the seller or shipper, or the agent of either; but a person who has no interest in the merchandise except as broker or forwarder shall not be competent to sign any such invoice. Where any such invoice is signed by an agent, he shall state thereon the name of his principal.

(d) Such invoices shall be certified in accordance with the provisions of existing law.

ART. 276. Mode of certification and disposition of invoices.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 481 (c):

When the merchandise has been purchased in different consular districts for shipment to the United States and is assembled for shipment and embraced in a single invoice which is produced for certification under the provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of section 482 of this Act, the invoice shall have attached thereto the original bills or invoices received by the shipper, or extracts therefrom, showing the actual prices paid or to be paid for such merchandise. The consular officer to whom the invoice is so produced for certification may require that any such original bill or invoice be certified by the consular officer for the district in which the merchandise was purchased.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 482 (e):

The original of the invoice and, if made, the quadruplicate shall be delivered to the exporter, to be forwarded to the consignee for use in making entry of the merchandise, and the triplicate shall be promptly transmitted by the consular officer to the collector of customs at the port of entry named in the invoice. The duplicate shall be filed in the office of the consular officer by whom the invoice was certified, to be there kept until the Secretary of State authorizes its destruction.

(NOTE.—Consular officers have been instructed to deliver to shippers at the time the original certified copy is delivered an additional uncertified copy of each consular invoice (names of shippers and consignees being omitted and to advise shippers to forward each additional copy to the consignee with its related original certified copy. Collectors should request importers to submit the additional copy at the time the related entry is filed. When received in the customhouse the uncertified copy should be given the appropriate entry number and attached to the statistical copy of the entry for transmission to the Section of Customs Statistics, Department of Commerce, New York, N. Y. In cases where the uncertified copy of the invoice is received subsequent to the date of entry, the statistical copy of the entry will be forwarded without waiting for the uncertified copy of the invoice, but on the subsequent receipt of this copy the entry number will be placed thereon, and it will then be forwarded to the Section of Customs Statistics. (Bureau Circular Letter 1587 of July 22, 1936.))

(c) Tariff Act of 1930, section 482 (f):

When merchandise is to be shipped from a place so remote from an American consulate as to render impracticable certification of the invoice by an American consular officer, such invoice may be certified by a consular officer of a nation at the time in amity with the United States, or if there be no such consular officer available such invoice shall be executed before a notary public or other officer having authority to administer oaths and having an official seal: Provided, That invoices for merchandise shipped to the United States from the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, the island of Guam, or the Canal Zone may be certified by the collector of customs or the person acting as such, or by his deputy.

(d) While the seller or shipper must sign all copies of the invoice, only one copy need be signed by the consular officer, the signed copy invariably to be the original. However, the consular officer's name as well as the rubber seal of the consulate must be stamped on all copies of the invoice.

ART. 277. Consular notations.—(a) If the consul shall be of the opinion that the data given in the invoice will not for any reason enable the appraiser to arrive at the true market value of the merchandise, the consul should state on a separate sheet, a copy to be attached to each copy of the invoice, such facts as he believes the appraiser may desire to consider in addition to or in connection with the data already given in the invoice.

(b) If the facts which the consul believes should be considered by the appraiser are confidential or can not for any reason be stated fully on the sheet attached to the invoice, they should be communicated by letter to the appraiser at the port of entry named in the invoice at the time of or as soon as possible after the certification of the invoice. When the consul suspects fraud, a copy of his letter to the appraiser should be sent to the Customs Information Exchange in New York City.

(c) The appraiser will notify the consul of the return of value made by him on any invoice to which consular notations of value are attached.

ART. 278. Fee stamp to be affixed.—The original of the invoice must be stamped and the stamp canceled by the consular officer to show the payment of the fee. No unstamped original invoice shall be accepted as valid, but an unstamped invoice may be used as a pro forma invoice and entry made thereon upon the giving of a bond for the production of a stamped invoice. If, however, the triplicate or the quadruplicate consular invoice shall bear a consular notation that the original was stamped, such invoice may be accepted the same as the stamped invoice when produced. Collectors should notify consular officers of the receipt of unstamped invoices.

ART. 279. Descriptive list—Disposition of triplicate consular invoices.—On receipt in the collector's office triplicate consular invoices should be checked against the accompanying descriptive list (consular Form 142). They should be examined for the purpose of ascertaining whether consular notations appear thereon and invoices bearing such notations should be referred to the appraiser or to the other proper customs officer. The triplicate invoices will be filed temporarily in the entry division in numerical order under place of consulation, and held, if necessary, for a period of 30 to 60 days for use as provided in article 304, after which they should be transferred to the record room and kept there for a period of 5 years for reference in case the original invoice shows signs of having been tampered with or other fraud is suspected. Descriptive lists should be filed at ports of receipt.

ART. 280. Change in destination.—When, on account of a change in the destination of merchandise after verification of the invoice before the consul, the required triplicate shall not have been received, the collector at the port of entry may request in duplicate on customs Form 3449 the collector at the port of original destination to transmit to him the triplicate invoice. The duplicate copy of the request for the document will be returned with the invoice to the collector who issued it. When the triplicate invoice can not be so produced, the consul may be requested to transmit a certified transcript of the invoice retained by him.

ART. 281. Invoice to be for single shipment.—(a) Every invoice must represent a distinct shipment by one consignor to one consignee or firm of consignees by one vessel. If by reason of accident or short shipment a portion thereof should fail to arrive, an extract from the original invoice, certified by the collector or appraiser, may be used for entering the remaining packages.

(b) Except as provided in article 227 the consolidation of separate shipments on one invoice, or the breaking up of importations into small lots, each valued at less than $100, for the purpose of avoiding consular fees, shall not be permitted.

ART. 282. Incomplete invoices.—(a) Collectors will reject certified invoices which are not made in accordance with the regulations, but entry may be permitted on a pro forma invoice and a bond taken for the production of a corrected consular invoice.

(b) Incomplete invoices covering merchandise valued at $100 or less will not be rejected, if the classification and appraisement of the merchandise thereon can be made without endangering the revenue.

ENTRY

ART. 283. Entry required.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (a):

Except as provided in sections 490, 498, 552, and 553 and in subdivision (j) of section 336 of this Act, and in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section, the consignee of imported merchandise shall make entry therefor either in person or by an agent authorized by him in writing under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. • • •

(b) Entry must be made of all importations whether free or dutiable and regardless of their value, except (1) as provided in article 365; (2) as provided in article 832; (3) as provided in article 375 (b); (4) parcels contained in packed packages where the individual parcel contains merchandise unconditionally free of duty and not exceeding $100 in value. When action is taken under (2) or (4) an appropriate notation as to the disposition of the articles and the authority under which they were passed free of duty or the statement "no dutiable value" shall be made on the manifest in lieu of the entry.

ART. 284. Examination of merchandise prior to entry.—(a) Customs officers at the port of entry will not permit the opening, examination, or inspection of any package containing imported merchandise until proper entry therefor has been made, except as otherwise provided by law or regulation, or when a real necessity is shown and the consignee makes application therefor in writing, in which the carrier concurs.

(b) Upon written application by the consignee or his agent, concurred in by the carrier, perishable merchandise may be inspected before entry upon arrival at the port of entry, or while in transit under bond, but only for the purpose of determining its condition and under customs supervision. The additional expense, if any, of customs supervision, including actual expenses for travel and subsistence, but not the compensation of the customs officer, shall be paid by the party requesting the inspection.

ART. 285. Date of importation.—In the case of merchandise imported by vessel, the date of importation is the date on which the vessel arrives within the limits of a port with intent to unlade. When the vessel enters two or more United States ports, the date of importation is the date of arrival of the vessel at the port at which the merchandise is landed. The date of importation of merchandise arriving otherwise than by vessel is the date on which the vehicle carrying the same arrives within the limits of the United States. The date of importation of merchandise forwarded under an immediate transportation entry is the date of arrival of the merchandise at the first port.

ART. 286. Entry—Definition—Date of.—(a) The term "entry" has three meanings, as follows:

(1) The document which the consignee or his agent presents at the customhouse, containing his declaration and setting forth the intended customs disposition of the merchandise, together with such facts in regard thereto as the law or regulations may require.

(2) The presentation of the above-described document and accompanying papers at the customhouse and its acceptance by the proper customs officer.

(3) In its broader sense it includes all transactions necessary to secure the release of the merchandise from customs control.

(b) The date of entry is the date on which the document described in (1) above is accepted, provided that no entry shall be officially accepted until the importer has performed all acts required of him which are necessary to secure a customs permit for the release of the unexamined merchandise, or for the transfer of the merchandise to a bonded warehouse or to secure the issuance of an order for the examination of the packages designated therefor. The date of official numbering, which shall be noted on all entries, shall in each case correspond with the date of acceptance, thus establishing the date of entry.

ART. 287. Effective date of rates of duty.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 315:

On and after the day when this Act shall go into effect all goods, wares, and merchandise previously imported, for which no entry has been made, and all goods, wares, and merchandise previously entered without payment of duty and under bond for warehousing, transportation, or any other purpose, for which no permit of delivery to the importer or his agent has been issued, shall be subjected to the duties imposed by this Act and to no other duty upon the entry, or the withdrawal thereof: Provided, That when duties are based upon the weight of merchandise deposited in any public or private bonded warehouse, said duties shall, except as provided in section 562 of this Act (relating to manipulating warehouses), be levied and collected upon the weight of such merchandise at the time of its entry.

ART. 288. Consignee as owner of merchandise.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 483:

For the purposes of this title—

(1) All merchandise imported into the United States shall be held to be the property of the person to whom the same is consigned; and the holder of a bill of lading duly indorsed by the consignee therein named, or, if consigned to order, by the consignor, shall be deemed the consignee thereof. The underwriters of abandoned merchandise and the salvors of merchandise saved from a wreck at sea or on or along a coast of the United States may be regarded as the consignees.

(2) A person making entry of merchandise under the provisions of subdivision (h) or (i) of section 484 (relating to entry on carrier's certificate and on duplicate bill of lading, respectively) shall be deemed the sole consignee thereof.

ART. 289. When and by whom entry may be made.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (a):

• • • Such entry shall be made at the customhouse within 48 hours, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, after the entry of the importing vessel or report of the vehicle, or after the arrival at the port of destination in the case of merchandise transported in bond, unless the collector authorizes in writing a longer time. • • •

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (a):

Except as provided in sections 490, 498, 552, and 553 and in subdivision (j) of section 336 of this Act, and in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section, the consignee of imported merchandise shall make entry therefor either in person or by an agent authorized by him in writing under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. • • •

(c) The executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased consignee, the receiver or other legal representative of an insolvent consignee or the representative of a consignee appointed in any action or proceeding at law, shall not be permitted to make entry unless he shall produce a duly indorsed bill of lading or a certificate from the carrier or a duplicate bill of lading executed in accordance with subsections (h) and (i), respectively, of section 484 of the tariff act, showing him to be consignee for customs purposes.

(d) A nonresident consignee who appears in person at the customhouse has the right to make entry but the bond (customs Form 7551 or 7553) when required, shall have a resident corporate surety thereon.

(e) A foreign corporation can not enter merchandise for consumption unless it has, in the State where the port of entry is located, a resident agent authorized to accept service of process against such corporation and files a bond with resident corporate surety to secure the payment of any increased and additional duties which may be found due.

ART. 290. Evidence of right to make entry.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (c):

> The consignee shall produce the bill of lading at the time of making entry; except that—
> (1) If the collector is satisfied that no bill of lading has been issued, the shipping receipt or other evidence satisfactory to the collector may be accepted in lieu thereof;
> (2) The collector is authorized to permit entry and to release merchandise from customs custody without the production of the bill of lading if the person making such entry gives a bond satisfactory to the collector, in a sum equal to not less than one and one-half times the invoice value of the merchandise, to produce such bill of lading, to relieve the collector of all liability, to indemnify the collector against loss, to defend every action brought upon a claim for loss or damage, by reason of such release from customs custody or a failure to produce such bill of lading and to entitle any person injured by reason of such release from customs custody to sue on such bond in his own name, without making the collector a party thereto. Any person so injured by such release may sue on such bond to recover any damages so sustained by him; and
> (3) The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply in the case of an entry under subdivision (h) or (i) of this section (relating to entry on carrier's certificate and on duplicate bill of lading, respectively).

(b) A shipping receipt or other document presented in lieu of a bill of lading shall not be accepted as authority for making entry unless bearing a certificate of the carrier in accordance with subsection (h) or (i) of section 484 of the tariff act, or unless entry is made by the actual consignee in person or in his name by a duly authorized agent.

(c) When merchandise is not being transported by a common carrier, possession of the merchandise at the time of arrival in the United States shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the right to make entry.

(d) Entry may not be made on an extract from a bill of lading unless the same is certified to be genuine by the carrier bringing the merchandise to the port at which entry is made. Collectors of customs shall not certify extracts from bills of lading.

(e) Separate entries may be made for consolidated shipments upon compliance with the following requirements:

(1) The consignee of a consolidated shipment covering merchandise for various ultimate consignees who desire to make separate entries, shall deposit with the collector the original bill of lading, certified duplicate or carrier's certificate (or shipping receipt where no bill of lading has been issued) covering the entire shipment, and such document shall be permanently retained by the collector.

(2) If a bill of lading is filed it shall contain the following indorsement, signed by the consignee named therein:

"As the within described merchandise belongs to various ultimate consignees who desire to make separate entries therefor, the undersigned consignee thereof hereby expressly waives the right granted by section 484 (j) of the Tariff Act of 1930, to have this bill of lading returned."

(3) At the time of depositing such bill of lading, or other document, the consignee named therein shall produce a certificate prepared and signed by him for each portion of the shipment for which separate entry is desired. The certificate shall be in the following form:

*Collection district No.*_____

(4) Such certificates shall be compared with the supporting document and after being checked by the entry clerk over his initials may be returned to the consignee for the purpose of making entry.

(5) The authority to make entry carried by these certificates may be made transferable by indorsement.

(f) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (h):

> Any person certified by the carrier bringing the merchandise to the port at which entry is to be made to be the owner or consignee of the merchandise, or an agent of such owner or consignee, may make entry thereof either in person or by an authorized agent, in the manner and subject to the requirements prescribed in this section (or in regulations promulgated hereunder) in the case of a consignee within the meaning of paragraph (1) of section 483.

When a carrier's certificate is used in making entry or is filed therewith, it shall completely identify the merchandise or be made on, or attached to, a copy, duplicate, or memorandum of the original bill of lading certified to be a true copy of the original. Such certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

Carrier's certificate

The undersigned carrier bringing the merchandise to this port, to whom or upon whose order the same must be released, hereby certifies that (name)_____ (address) _____, is the owner or consignee (as described in section 484 (h) of the tariff act), of the following merchandise (or the merchandise described in the within or attached document):

(g) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (i):

> Any person may, upon the production of a duplicate bill of lading signed or certified to be genuine by the carrier bringing the merchandise to the port at which entry is to be made, make entry for the merchandise in respect of which such bill of lading is issued, in the manner and subject to the requirements prescribed in this section (or in regulations promulgated hereunder) in the case of a consignee within the meaning of paragraph (1) of section 483, except that such person shall make such entry in his own name.

The certificate on a duplicate bill of landing shall be in substantially the following form:

[1] Insert "bill of lading", "certified duplicate bill of lading", "carrier's certificate", or "shipping receipt."

Duplicate Bill of Lading Certificate

The undersigned carrier, bringing the within described merchandise to this port, hereby certifies that this signed copy of the bill of lading is genuine and may be used for the purpose of making customs entry as provided in section 484 (i) of the tariff act.

Name of carrier:_____
Agent: _____

(h) When a bond is given for the production of a bill of lading it should be on customs Form 7581 and should run in favor of the collector individually and as collector of customs. When the collector is in doubt as to the propriety of accepting entry on a bond for the production of a bill of landing he may, if he deems it advisable, require authority to do so from the Bureau.

(i) Inasmuch as the provisions of section 484 (c) do not apply in the case of entries made under subsections (h) and (i), no bond for the production of a carrier's certificate or certified duplicate bill of lading can be taken; but when entry is made on a bond for the production of a bill of lading, such bond may be considered as satisfied upon the production of a carrier's certificate or certified duplicate bill of lading, but shall not be canceled.

(j) Underwriters of abandoned merchandise or salvors of merchandise saved from a wreck, who are unable to produce a bill of lading, certified duplicate, or carrier's certificate, shall produce evidence satisfactory to the collector of their right to act.

ART. 291. Disposition of bill of lading or carrier's certificate.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (j):

> • • • The collector shall return to the person making entry the bill of lading (if any is produced) with a notation thereon to the effect that entry for such merchandise has been made. • • •

(b) When the return of the bill of lading is requested, the collector may require a receipt therefor. If the original bill of lading is necessary to obtain a carrier's certificate or duplicate bill of lading from the carrier, such exchange should be made in advance of making entry.

(c) When a carrier's certificate or duplicate bill of lading is used in making entry, it shall be retained by the collector as evidence that the person making entry is authorized to do so.

ART. 292. Release of merchandise.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (j):

> Merchandise shall be released from customs custody only to or upon the order of the carrier by whom the merchandise is brought to the port at which entry is made, except that merchandise in a bonded warehouse shall be released from customs custody only to or upon the order of the proprietor of the warehouse. • • •

(b) The delivery order from the carrier, which may be included in the certificate provided for in section 484 (h) or be indorsed on the certified duplicate bill of lading provided for in section 484 (i), shall be in substantially the following form:

In accordance with section 484 (j) of the tariff act, authority is hereby given to release the above-described merchandise to: _____.

This order may be qualified as follows:

1. (If the merchandise is entered for warehouse.) For transfer to the bonded warehouse designated in the warehouse entry.

2. (If the merchandise is entered for transportation in bond.) For transfer to the bonded carrier designated in the transportation entry.

3. (If the merchandise is entered for exportation.) For transfer to the carrier designated in the export entry.

(c) A delivery order from the proprietor of a bonded warehouse covering merchandise therein shall be in substantially the same form.

(d) The merchandise may be released to the person named in the bill of lading in the absence of a specific delivery order from the carrier, provided the carrier concerned shall have filed a blanket order authorizing release to the consignee in such cases.

(e) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (j):

> • • • The collector shall not be liable to any person in respect of the delivery of merchandise released from customs custody in accordance with the provisions of this section. Where a recovery is had in any suit or proceeding against a collector on account of the release of merchandise from customs custody, in the performance of his official duty, and the court certifies that there was probable cause for such release by the collector, or that he acted under the directions of the Secretary of the Treasury, or other proper officer of the Government, no execution shall issue against such collector, but the amount so recovered shall, upon final judgment, be paid out of moneys appropriated from the Treasury for that purpose.

ART. 293. Liens.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 564:

> Whenever a collector of customs shall be notified in writing of the existence of a lien for freight, charges, or contribution in general average upon any imported merchandise sent to the appraiser's store for examination, entered for warehousing or taken possession of by him, he shall refuse to permit delivery thereof from public store or bonded warehouse until proof shall be produced that the said lien has been satisfied or discharged. The rights of the United States shall not be prejudiced or affected by the filing of such lien, nor shall the United States or its officers be liable for losses or damages consequent upon such refusal to permit delivery. If merchandise, regarding which such notice of lien has been filed, shall be forfeited or abandoned and sold, the freight, charges, or contribution in general average due thereon shall be paid from the proceeds of such sale in the same manner as other lawful charges and expenses are paid therefrom.

ART. 294. Same—Definitions.—(a) The term "freight" is held to be the carrier's charge for the transportation of the goods from the place of shipment in the foreign country to final destination in the United States.

(b) The term "charges" is held to be the charges due to or assumed by the claimant of the lien which are incident to the shipment and forwarding of the goods to destination in the United States, but does not include the purchase price, whether advanced or to be collected, nor other claims not connected with the transportation of the goods.

(c) General average has been defined to be the liability to contribution of the owners of a cargo, which arises when a sacrifice of a part of such cargo has been made for the preservation of the residue or when money is expended to preserve the whole. It always arises from actions produced by necessity.

ART. 295. Same—Notice of lien.—(a) Notices of lien filed with the collector shall be on customs Form 3485, signed by the authorized agent of the carrier and verified by his affidavit.

(b) When the cargo of a vessel is subject to contribution in general average a preliminary notice thereof may be filed with the collector and individual notices of lien may be filed thereafter. The collector shall thereupon withhold release of any merchandise imported in the vessel for two official days from and after the taking of such merchandise into customs custody, unless proof is submitted that the claim for contribution in general average has been paid or secured.

(c) Notice of lien upon goods entered for immediate transportation should be filed by the carrier with the collector of customs at destination. If such notice, however, be filed with the collector at the port of first arrival he will promptly transmit it to the collector at destination. When a notice of lien has been transmitted to the collector at destination and such lien afterwards is discharged at the port of first arrival the collector at such port will immediately notify the collector at destination.

(d) The time of filing shall be noted on each notice of lien, customs Form 3485, which shall be numbered consecutively and tentatively filed alphabetically by name of lienor. A notation should be made of the filing of such lien on the consumption entry or if warehoused, sent into general order or seized, on the appropriate record, customs Form 5201, 5209, 4653, or 5211. As soon as a lien has been satisfied it shall be so noted on the face thereof and filed with its related entry or other papers as provided in article 355 (e).

(e) Liens may not be filed against goods after forfeiture under any provision of law; nor after sale thereof by the Government under sections 491 or 559 of the tariff act; nor after customs release; nor, in the case of goods abandoned to the Government under section 506 (1) or section 563 (b) of the tariff act, after the receipt and acceptance of the notice of abandonment. Notices of lien received thereafter should be returned with a statement thereon as to the reason for rejection. The acceptance of any notice of lien cannot in any manner disturb the order of disposition and accounting for the proceeds of sales of forfeited and abandoned property, as provided for in articles 1136, 1021, 1022, 1023, and 809 of these regulations.

ART. 296. Same—Controverted liens.—(a) Collectors have no authority to adjudicate disputes respecting the validity of any lien, except that whenever the amount of such lien depends upon the quantity or weight of merchandise actually landed, the collector may hold that the lien may be satisfied upon the payment of an amount computed upon the basis of the return made by the United States appraiser, weigher, or gauger.

(b) When any doubt exists as to the validity of a lien filed with the collector, he may exact a bond of indemnity running to himself to save him harmless from any personal liability which may result from withholding the release of the goods.

ART. 297. Same—Discharge of liens.—Proof that the lien has been satisfied or discharged shall consist of a release in writing signed by the claimant, or a written receipt of such claimant, filed with the collector, showing the payment of the claim in full. Merchandise covered by liens may be released upon the filing of the above evidence of payment.

ART. 298. Requirements on entry.—(a) Entries shall be in legible writing, preferably typewriting, and if written by hand, ink, or indelible lead shall be used. They shall be in the forms prescribed by the regulations, and shall show the name, nationality, and motive power of the importing vessel or other carrier; the port or place of departure and the date of arrival; the place, date, and consular number of the certified invoices, if any; the marks, numbers, and number of packages, and the quantity of each kind of merchandise covered thereby described in terms of the tariff act and in accordance with statistical Schedule A of the Department of Commerce; also the rates of duty, and, except in the case of entries by appraisement, the separate value for each classification. In order to show how he arrived at the entered value, the importer shall also show on the entry for each invoice covered thereby, and in the order named, the gross invoice value of the merchandise, the total nondutiable charges, the total dutiable charges, the totals of the additions or deductions, if any, to make value, and the net entered value. Where importers prepare and file customs Form 6417 (Summary of Entered Value, Examination, and Appraisement) with the entry, showing thereon the information required by the preceding sentence, such summary sheet shall be considered part of the entry for the purpose of paragraph (a) of this article and, in such cases, it will be unnecessary to duplicate the information in question on the entry form.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (d):

Such entry shall be signed by the consignee or his agent, and shall set forth such facts in regard to the importations as the Secretary of the Treasury may require for the purpose of assessing duties and to secure a proper examination, inspection, appraisement, and liquidation, and shall be accompanied by such invoices, bills of lading, certificates, and documents as are required by law and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(c) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (e):

The Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Commerce, and the chairman of the United States Tariff Commission are authorized and directed to establish from time to time for statistical purposes an enumeration of articles in such detail as in their judgment may be necessary, comprehending all merchandise imported into the United States, and as a part of the entry there shall be attached thereto or included therein an accurate statement specifying, in terms of such detailed enumeration, the kinds and quantities of all merchandise imported and the value of the total quantity of each kind of article.

For instructions relative to the preparation of statistical statements, see chapter XXV.

(d) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (f):

If any of the certificates or documents necessary to make entry of any part of merchandise arriving on one vessel or vehicle and consigned to one consignee have not arrived, such part may be entered subsequently, and notation of the packages or cases to be omitted from the original entry shall be made thereon. • • • All other merchandise arriving on one vessel or vehicle and consigned to one consignee shall be included in one entry.

(e) Consolidated shipments to one consignee for various ultimate consignees, and the several inclosures of a packed package, may be separately entered upon compliance with the provisions of articles 290 (e) and 345, respectively.

ART. 299. Invoice to be filed with entry.—(a) (1) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (b):

No merchandise shall be admitted to entry under the provisions of this section without the production of a certified invoice therefor, except that entry may be permitted if—

(1) The collector is satisfied that the failure to produce such invoice is due to causes beyond the control of the person making entry;

(2) Such person makes a verified declaration in writing that he is unable to produce such invoice and (A) files therewith a seller's or shipper's invoice, or (B) if he is not in possession of a seller's or shipper's invoice files therewith a statement of the value, or the price paid, in the form of an invoice; and

(3) Such person gives a bond for the production of such certified invoice within 6 months. • • •

(2) Bonds for the production of consular invoices shall be on customs Form 7551 or 7553, or other appropriate bond containing such requirement.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (b):

• • • The Secretary of the Treasury may by regulations provide for such exceptions from the requirements of this subdivision as he deems advisable.

Consular invoices will not be required for—

(1) Merchandise not exceeding $100 in dutiable value, and merchandise the purchase price of which, including the cost of packing and other dutiable items, does not exceed $100;

(2) Merchandise damaged on the voyage of importation by fire or through marine casualty or any other cause, without fault on the part of the shipper. If a consular invoice is available it shall be produced for the information of the appraiser;

(3) Merchandise recovered from a wrecked or stranded vessel;

(4) Household effects used abroad and personal effects not imported in pursuance of a purchase or agreement for purchase and not intended for sale; and automobiles entered under bond for touring purposes and not intended for sale;

(5) Articles sent by persons in foreign countries as gifts to persons in the United States;

(6) Articles carried on the person or contained in the baggage of a person arriving in the United States, except merchandise (that is, articles not of a personal nature or which are intended for sale or were bought on commission for others) valued at more than $100;

(7) Tools of trade of a person arriving in the United States;

(8) Personal effects of citizens of the United States who have died in a foreign country;

(9) Merchandise within the provisions of sections 465 and 466 of the Tariff Act of 1930, at the first port of arrival;

(10) Merchandise when in the opinion of the Bureau of Customs the value thereof cannot be declared;

(11) (a) The following articles, when unconditionally free of duty or subject only to a specific rate of duty not depending on value:

Forest products, crude, or not further manufactured than sawed into planks, boards, or deals, planed and tongued and grooved, except red cedar shingles.

Standard newsprint paper.

Pulpwood and wood pulp.

Agricultural products, crude or unmanufactured, except opium and coca leaves, wool of all kinds (including wool on the skin), hides and skins of all kinds, tea, coffee, and dairy products other than milk and cream, raw cotton, tobacco, and seeds imported subject to the provisions of the Federal Seed Act (T. D. 44419), or for seeding (planting) purposes. Importers should be required by collectors of customs to furnish satisfactory evidence that the seeds are not imported for seeding purposes, when such claim is made the basis for exemption from the necessity of producing a consular invoice. When such evidence is not furnished at the time of entry and a bond is given for the production of a consular invoice, the required evidence may be accepted in satisfaction of the bond obligation if produced within the period prescribed in section 484 (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930.

Minerals, crude.

Live domestic animals.

Fertilizer and fertilizer materials.

News-reel films.

Fish.

Mother-of-pearl shells.

(11) (b) In such cases the commercial or pro forma invoice presented with the entry shall set forth all the necessary information for customs and statistical purposes.

(11) (c) For the purpose of this exception the terms used are defined as follows:

The term "crude" means in the natural state, not processed, manufactured, or advanced beyond the state necessary to the transportation of the article from the place of origin to the market.

The term "forest products" means crude vegetable substances, grown in or obtained from the forests, and includes logs, timber, and lumber, not further manufactured than sawed into planks, boards, or deals, and planed and tongued and grooved.

The term "standard newsprint paper" means the kind of paper chiefly used for printing newspapers, as defined by the Department in T. D. 40996 and T. D. 44317.

The term "pulpwood" means logs and timber cut to lengths for the purpose of manufacturing into wood pulp. The term "wood pulp" means the fibers of wood produced either mechanically or chemically for use in the manufacture of paper and pulpboard and other pulp products.

The term "agricultural products" means those things which are produced from the soil of farms, plantations, and estates, or which are brought into condition for the use of society by the labor of those engaged in agricultural pursuits.

The term "minerals" means all inorganic matter occurring naturally and not advanced by any process of manufacture, and includes crude mineral oils, ores, earths, and clays.

(12) Stamps; postage or revenue stamps canceled or uncanceled, and Government stamped envelopes or post cards bearing no other printing than the official imprint thereon.

(13) Merchandise shipped abroad, not delivered to the consignee, and returned to the United States.

(14) Merchandise (other than gold or silver) consigned to a branch of the United States Government.

(15) Archaeological articles imported by an institution established for the encouragement of the arts, science, or education for exhibition and not for sale.

(16) Automobiles, aircraft, and other vehicles, boats, teams, and saddle horses taken abroad by the owner or his agent for noncommercial use, and returned by or for the account of such owner under the provisions of article 476.

(17) Imported merchandise which is exported from continuous customs custody.

ART. 300. Declaration on entry.—(a) (1) Tariff Act of 1930, section 485 (a) and (e):

(a) Every consignee making an entry under the provisions of section 484 of this Act shall make and file therewith, in a form to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, a declaration under oath, stating—

(1) Whether the merchandise is imported in pursuance of a purchase or an agreement to purchase or whether it is imported otherwise than in pursuance of a purchase or agreement to purchase;

(2) That the prices set forth in the invoice are true, in the case of merchandise purchased or agreed to be purchased; or in the case of merchandise secured otherwise than by purchase or agreement to purchase, that the statements in such invoice as to value or price are true to the best of his knowledge and belief;

(3) That all other statements in the invoice or other documents filed with the entry, or in the entry itself, are true and correct; and

(4) That he will produce at once to the collector any invoice, paper, letter, document, or information received showing that any such prices or statements are not true or correct.

(e) The Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe separate forms for the declaration in the case of merchandise which is imported in pursuance of a purchase or agreement to purchase and merchandise which is imported otherwise than in pursuance of a purchase or agreement to purchase.

(2) The consignee in whose name the entry is made shall execute the declaration applicable to the circumstances of the particular case.

(b) (1) Tariff Act of 1930, section 485 (b):

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe regulations for one declaration in the case of books, magazines, newspapers, and periodicals published and imported in successive parts, numbers, or volumes, and entitled to free entry.

(2) One declaration filed at the time of arrival of the first importation will be sufficient.

(c) (1) Tariff Act of 1930, section 485 (c):

In the event that an entry is made by an agent under the provisions of section 484 of this act and such agent is not in possession of such declaration of the consignee, such agent shall give a bond to produce such declaration.

(2) Tariff Act of 1930, section 485 (f):

Whenever such merchandise is consigned to a deceased person, or to an insolvent person who has assigned the same for the benefit of his creditors, the executor or administrator, or the assignee of such person or receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, shall be considered as the consignee; when consigned to a partnership, the declaration of one of the partners only shall be required, and when consigned to a corporation such declaration may be made by any officer of such corporation, or by any other person specifically authorized by any officer of such corporation to make the same.

(3) The agent referred to in section 485 (c) is a person, acting under written authority from the consignee (section 484 (a)), who makes entry in the name of the consignee. A nominal consignee who makes entry in his own name is not an agent within the purview of such section 485 (c). When entry is made by an agent he should execute on the entry form as agent the declaration of the consignee applicable to the person for whom he acts as agent. An agent shall not execute the declaration of a nominal consignee unless he is acting as agent for a nominal consignee. If the consignee (whether the actual owner or a nominal consignee) is an individual or partnership and the agent is not in possession of the consignee's declaration on customs Form 3347–A at the time the agent makes entry, the bond required by section 485 (c) must be given on customs Form 7551 or other appropriate form and must be conditioned for the production of the consignee's declaration. When the consignee is an individual or a partnership, the consignee's declaration may be executed only by the individual (principal) or one of the partners, and may not be executed by an agent.

(4) In view of the specific provision in section 485 (f) that when the merchandise is consigned to a corporation the consignee's declaration may be made by any officer of the corporation or by any other person specifically authorized by any officer of the corporation to make the same, such officer or other person who executes the declaration on behalf of the corporation is not considered to be an agent within the purview of section 485 (c) and he is not required by such section 485 (c) to produce or give bond to produce any further declaration.

A consignee shall not be liable for any additional or increased duties if (1) he declares at the time of entry that he is not the actual owner of the merchandise, (2) he furnishes the name and address of such owner, and (3) within 90 days from the date of entry he produces a declaration of such owner conditioned that he will pay all additional and increased duties, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Such owner shall possess all the rights of a consignee.

(2) A consignee in whose name an entry is made, who desires to be relieved from liability for the payment of increased and additional duties under this provision of law, should execute the declaration of nominal consignee on the entry form or, if entry is made by an agent, on customs Form 3347A. The filing of the owner's declaration by the nominal consignee is optional and no bond should be taken for the production thereof when entry is made by a nominal consignee. The owner's declaration, if filed, shall be on customs Form 3347, and may be filed only by the nominal consignee or his duly authorized agent. A nonresident owner's declaration shall not be accepted as a compliance with section 485 (d) unless there is filed therewith a bond of such owner on customs Form 7551 or 7553, with a resident corporate surety thereon, and containing an added condition for the payment of any increased or additional duties which may become due on the merchandise covered by the entry.

ART. 301. Powers of attorneys.—(a) A power of attorney may be executed for the transaction of a specified part or, for all the customs business of the principal. However, a separate power of attorney (customs Form 5295–A or 5295–B) will be required for filing protests. (See art. 849.) It must be explicit in its terms, and without any clause of substitution except for the purpose of taking export declarations. If for the execution of sealed instruments it must be under seal. A power of attorney given by a partnership for the execution of sealed instruments must be signed and sealed by each partner. A power of attorney to a minor will not be accepted. Customs Form 5291 may be used for powers of attorney for individuals and customs Form 5293 for corporations.

(b) An individual, other than a married woman, may execute a power of attorney to sign as surety on customs bonds. If the power is limited to bonds of one or several importers, such importers must be named. Such power must have attached a justification of the donor in a specified amount.

(c) A trustee may execute a power of attorney for the transaction of customhouse business incident to the trusteeship.

(d) One member of a partnership may execute a power of attorney in the name of the partnership for the transaction of all its customs business, except the signing of bonds. Such power must recite the names of all members of the partnership and shall be limited to a period of not more than two years from the date of receipt of the power by the collector. When a new firm is formed by a change of membership, no power of attorney filed by the antecedent firm shall thereafter be recognized for any customs purpose.

(e) Before accepting powers of attorney executed on behalf of corporations, the collector shall require the following documents to be filed:

(1) A certificate from the proper public officer showing the legal existence of the corporation;

(2) A copy of that portion of the charter or articles of incorporation which shows the scope of the business of the corporation and the governing body thereof;

(3) If the authority of the donor is derived from the charter or articles of incorporation, there shall also be filed a copy of that portion thereof which contains such authority; or, if the authority is derived from the governing body, there shall be filed a copy of the document or part thereof which authorizes the governing body, through its bylaws or otherwise, to designate others to appoint attorneys or agents, together with a copy of the bylaw, resolution, or other document by which the authority was conferred on the donor.

All such documents, except the certificate of incorporation first above referred to, shall be certified as correct by the clerk or secretary of the corporation under its corporate seal. Collectors may waive the production of evidence of incorporation when such fact is a matter of common knowledge.

(f) If it is desired that the attorney in fact of a corporation shall make a declaration, the power must specifically so authorize.

(g) A power of attorney filed by a nonresident person (which includes individuals, partnerships, associations, and corporations) shall not be accepted unless the agent designated thereby is a resident of the United States and is authorized to accept service of process against such nonresident person.

(h) When a power of attorney which is not limited to acts transacted at a specified port has been filed, and it is desired to use it at another port, the collector at the port where it is filed will, upon request of the collector at the other port, or upon request from the person, firm, or corporation executing the same, forward a certified copy thereof. If the power be given by a corporation, the collector at the port where it is filed will state that there is on file in his office the evidence of authority above required. Any expense in connection with the preparation of such documents will be borne by the parties in interest.

(i) The collector at the port where the power of attorney is filed will immediately notify each collector, to whom a certified copy has been sent, when such power is revoked.

(j) Files of powers of attorneys in customs offices should be checked from time to time by the customs officers in charge of them and all those powers which have been in the file for more than three years, and under which there have been no transactions, should be placed in an inactive file. Customs officers are cautioned particularly to keep themselves advised as to the status of partnerships which have filed powers and to inform themselves as to whether those powers remain good.

ART. 302. Entered value to be determined by importers by adding to or deducting from the invoice value.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 487:

The consignee or his agent may, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, at the time entry is made, or at any time before the invoice or the merchandise has come under the observation of the appraiser for the purpose of appraisement, make in the entry such additions to or deductions from the cost or value given in the invoice as, in his opinion, may raise or lower the same to the value of such merchandise.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 401 (j):

The word "appraiser" means appraiser of merchandise and includes chief assistant appraiser and any person authorized by law or by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury to perform the duties of an appraiser, but does not include the United States Customs Court or any division or judge thereof.

(c) Additions to or deductions from the invoice value, together with the items to which they refer, shall be clearly shown in detail on the invoice or a statement attached thereto.

(d) After an entry has been lodged in the customhouse, no change shall be made in the value thereon, except in the following manner:

(1) When the importer desires to amend an entry, he shall file the amendment with the collector in duplicate specifying the items affected and the amount of the addition or deduction made. The amendment may be made on the same form as the original entry.

(2) When the supplemental duties resulting from the amendment, if any, are deposited, or at the time of filing of the amendment when no supplemental duties accrue, the amendment shall be accepted subject to the conditions of section 487 supra, and the time of acceptance noted thereon.

(3) If the invoice is with the collector, he shall attach the amendment thereto and forward both to the appraiser. If the invoice is with the appraiser, the amendment shall be forwarded to that official, who shall note thereon whether or not the invoice or the merchandise, came under the observation of the appraiser, the chief assistant appraiser, or the acting appraiser for the purpose of appraisement prior to the time of the acceptance of the amendment, attach it to the invoice and proceed with his appraisement.

(4) If, prior to the time of the acceptance of the amendment, the invoice or the merchandise came under the observation of the appraiser, the chief assistant appraiser, or the acting appraiser, for the purpose of appraisement, the amendment shall be disregarded.

(e) Information as to values shall not be given by customs officers in connection with amendment of entries except upon compliance with the provisions of article 780.

ART. 303. Additions because of advances by appraiser pending reappraisement.—(a) (1) Tariff Act of 1930, section 503 (b):

If the importer certifies at the time of entry that he has entered the merchandise at a value higher than the value as defined in this Act because of advances by the appraiser in similar cases then pending on appeal for reappraisement or re-reappraisement, and if the importer's contention in such pending cases shall subsequently be sustained, wholly, or in part, by a final decision on reappraisement or re-reappraisement, and if it shall appear that such action of the importer on entry was taken in good faith, the collector shall liquidate the entry in accordance with the final appraisement.

(2) House Joint Resolution 336 of July 12, 1932:

* * * it was and is the true intent and meaning of section 503 (b) * * * that imported merchandise entered in accordance with the provisions of said section 503 (b) * * * shall be appraised and reappraised in the same manner as though the merchandise was not so entered; that the appraisement and reappraisement of such merchandise shall have the same force and effect as in the case of merchandise not so entered; and that entries covered by certification of the importer as provided in said section 503 (b) * * * shall be liquidated in accordance with the final appraised value of the merchandise covered by such certificates.

(b) A consignee making such addition on entry should make his certificate at the time of entry in substantially the following form:

I hereby certify that the entered value of the merchandise mentioned below is higher than the dutiable value and that the goods are so entered because of advances by the appraiser in similar cases now pending on appeal for reappraisement. The similar cases now pending are entries Nos. ——, at the port ——, reappraisement Nos. ——.

I contend that duty should be assessed on the basis of the dutiable value shown below:

| Items | Invoice value | Add to make dutiable value | Deduct to make dutiable value | Dutiable value | Add because of advances by appraiser in similar cases | Entered value |

——— ———,
Importer.

ART. 304. Entry on triplicate invoices.—An importer is not only permitted but required to make entry on the triplicate invoice where he has failed to receive his copy of the invoice, and no entry upon a pro forma invoice will be allowed unless it be shown that no triplicate is on file.

ART. 305. Incomplete entry—General order—Bonds for the production of documents—Transmission of documents to comptroller.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 490:

(a) Whenever entry of any imported merchandise is not made within the time provided by law or the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, or whenever entry of such merchandise is incomplete because of failure to pay the estimated duties, or whenever, in the opinion of the collector, entry of such merchandise can not be made for want of proper documents or other cause, or whenever the collector believes that any merchandise is not correctly and legally invoiced, he shall take the merchandise into his custody and send it to a bonded warehouse or public store, to be held at the risk and expense of the consignee until entry is made or completed and the proper documents are produced, or a bond given for their production.

(b) At the request of the consignee of any merchandise, or of the owner or master of the vessel or the person in charge of the vehicle in which the same is imported, any merchandise may be taken possession of by the collector after the expiration of one day after the entry of the vessel or report of the vehicle and may be unladen and held at the risk and expense of the consignee until entry thereof is made.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in these regulations, a bond may be given on the appropriate form for the production of any document required which is not available at the time of entry. Upon timely production of such a document or documents, the collector shall send them immediately to the comptroller, together with related entry when required, for indorsement and return, to close the comptroller's record required by article 1212, against the particular entry.

(c) The only missing documents which upon their production collectors are required by this article to transmit to the comptroller are those relating to entries in connection with which the comptroller has the record provided for in article 1212 (b).

ASSESSMENT OF DUTIES

ART. 306. When duties accrue.—Unless otherwise specially provided by law, duties accrue upon imported merchandise on arrival of the importing vessel within a customs port with intent to unlade, or at the time of arrival within the limits of the United States if the merchandise arrives otherwise than by vessel.

ART. 307. Importer's liability for duties—Insolvent importer—Priority of duty claim—Release of merchandise in customs custody after liquidation—Merchandise refused by consignee.—(a) Unless relieved by law or regulations, the liability for duties, both regular and additional, attaching on importation constitutes a personal debt, due from the importer to the United States, which can be discharged only by payment in full of all duties legally accruing. It may be enforced notwithstanding an erroneous construction of law or regulation may have enabled the importer to pass his goods through the customhouse without such payment. It also constitutes a lien upon the merchandise imported, which may be enforced while the same is in the custody or subject to the control of the United States.

(b) United States Code, title 31, section 191:

Whenever any person indebted to the United States is insolvent, or whenever the estate of any deceased debtor, in the hands of the executors or administrators, is insufficient to pay all the debts due from the deceased, the debts due to the United States shall be first satisfied; and the priority established shall extend as well to cases in which a debtor, not having sufficient property to pay all his debts, makes a voluntary assignment thereof, or in which the estate and effects of an absconding, concealed, or absent debtor are attached by process of law, as to cases in which an act of bankruptcy is committed. (R. S. sec. 3466.)

(c) United States Code, title 31, section 192:

Every executor, administrator, or assignee, or other person, who pays * * * any debt due by the person or estate for whom or for which he acts before he satisfies and pays the debts due to the United States from such person or estate, shall become answerable in his own person and estate * * * for the debts so due to the United States, or for so much thereof as may remain due and unpaid. (R. S. sec. 3467.)

(d) The court shall order the trustee to pay all taxes legally due and owing by the bankrupt to the United States, State, county, district, or municipality in advance of dividends to creditors.

(e) No merchandise remaining in customs custody after liquidation of the entry shall be released until the full amount of liquidated duties have been paid, if any are due. Collectors must not permit one importation to pass out of their custody when duties are unpaid, with a view of holding a lien upon a subsequent importation.

(f) Merchandise consigned to parties without their authority and refused by them should be treated as unclaimed.

(g) The States and their instrumentalities are entitled to no constitutional exemption from the payment of customs duties prescribed by the tariff laws enacted by the Congress.

ART. 308. Reimportation.—Dutiable merchandise imported and afterwards exported, although it may have paid duty on the first importation, is liable to duty on every subsequent importation into the United States; but this does not apply to wearing apparel, personal and household effects taken abroad and brought back by a returning resident of the United States, nor to professional books, implements, instruments, and tools of trade, occupation, or employment, taken by any individual to foreign countries from the United States. Neither does it apply to automobiles and other vehicles taken abroad for temporary use, to quicksilver flasks or bottles, or drums of iron, steel, or other metal used for the shipment of acids or other chemicals which shall have been exported from the United States; to articles exported from the United States for repairs, which may be returned upon payment of a duty upon the value of the repairs at the rate at which the article itself would be subject if imported; to articles exported for exhibition; nor to domestic animals taken abroad for temporary pasturage purposes and returned within 8 months, nor to any other articles the free entry of which is elsewhere provided for.

KINDS OF ENTRY

ART. 309. List of entries.—The following entries may be made for imported merchandise:

Consumption (art. 310).
Warehouse (art. 317).
Rewarehouse (art. 323).
Combined entry for rewarehouse and withdrawal for consumption (art. 326).
Exportation under warehouse withdrawal for transportation (art. 328).
Withdrawal at original and secondary ports for:
(a) Consumption (art. 329).
(b) Exportation (art. 334).
(c) Conditionally free, see chapter VIII.
Exportation (art. 342).
Temporary free importations under bond for exportation (art. 434).
Appraisement (art. 343).
Informal (art. 344).
Entry of packed packages (art. 345); special delivery packages (art. 346); preliminary entry and immediate delivery (art. 354).
Entries for immediate transportation without appraisement; transportation and exportation; withdrawals from warehouse at original and secondary ports for transportation, see chapter XVI.
Entries for exportation with benefit of drawback of duties, see chapter XX.
Customs mail entries, see chapter VII.
Baggage declarations and entries, see chapter VIII.
Entry of equipment and repairs to vessels (art. 128).
Entry for permanent exhibition (art. 453).

ENTRY FOR CONSUMPTION

ART. 310. Form.—Entry for consumption shall be made in triplicate on form substantially in accordance with customs Form 7501 and will be divided into two classes, free and dutiable.

ART. 311. Estimation of duties.—(a) When the entry is filed, the classification and values stated therein will be compared with the description and values in the invoice and the proper amount of duties estimated.

(b) The rates of duty at which the entry is passed and the appropriate paragraphs shall be noted in black ink on the invoice by the importer in the left-hand margin, and the invoice transmitted to the appraiser when the entry is complete.

(c) Special examination labels, customs Form 3359, will be attached to invoices of perishable goods and other articles for which immediate delivery is necessary.

ART. 312. Designation of merchandise to be examined—Order of appraisement.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 499:

> • • • The collector shall designate the packages or quantities covered by any invoice or entry which are to be opened and examined for the purpose of appraisement or otherwise and shall order such packages or quantities to be sent to the public stores or other places for such purpose. Not less than one package of every invoice and not less than one package of every ten packages of merchandise, shall be so designated unless the Secretary of the Treasury, from the character and description of the merchandise, is of the opinion that the examination of a less proportion of packages will amply protect the revenue and by special regulation permit a less number of packages to be examined. The collector or the appraiser may require such additional packages or quantities as either of them may deem necessary. • • •

(b) Special regulations authorizing the examination of less than one package of every ten packages of certain merchandise will be published in the weekly Treasury Decisions from time to time.

(c) The collector shall designate, on the summary sheet (customs Form 6417), the packages to be examined, and indicate them on the permit and, if he deems it necessary, on the entry. The summary sheet may be signed only by the collector, the assistant collector, a deputy collector, or a customs officer officially acting for one of the officers named. If the merchandise is bulky the collector will direct examination on the wharf or other suitable place, subject to the approval of the appraiser. When merchandise is to be gauged, measured, or weighed, the collector will make such order on the entry, invoice, and permit.

(d) Tariff Act of 1930, section 488:

> The collector within whose district any merchandise is entered shall cause such merchandise to be appraised.

ART. 313. Statement of entered value, examination packages, etc., to be attached to invoice.—(a) Collectors will securely attach to each invoice a statement, customs Form 6417, on which will be noted for the information of the appraiser the entered value and the manner in which it is determined, beginning with the gross invoice value and specifying the nondutiable charges deducted therefrom, the dutiable charges added thereto, and the additions or deductions made on entry by importers to make market value. Two or more invoices may, however, be included in one summary sheet when they cover unconditionally free merchandise of the same kind, consigned to the same consignee, and included in the same entry, provided that each invoice covered by the summary sheet shall be listed thereon, and that all such invoices, together with the summary sheet are securely fastened together. On entries for consumption the word "warehouse" will be erased, otherwise the name of the warehouse will be noted thereon.

(b) Under the head of "For examination" collectors will designate the packages to be examined by marks and numbers, if any, and the place where the examination is to be made.

ART. 314. Bond—Deposit of estimated duties—Permit.—(a) When the importer desires the release from customs custody of any part of the merchandise before (1) the full amount of duties, including dumping or other special duties, and charges due thereon has been ascertained by liquidation of the entry, (2) before the right of such merchandise to admission into the United States, or to entry free of duty or at a reduced rate, has been determined by the proper officer, or (3) before any document relating thereto required by law or regulations has been furnished, he shall file a bond on customs Form 7551 or 7553 or other appropriate form, at the time of entry or prior to such release. Such a bond shall not be required, however, when all of the merchandise in an importation has remained in customs custody at the public stores or on the wharf or other place in charge of a customs officer until it has been inspected, examined, and appraised, and has been found to comply with the law and regulations governing its admission into the commerce of the United States, and until there have been produced all documents for the production of which a bond is required by law or regulations if not filed at time of entry. Term consumption entry bond, customs Form 7553, refers only to entries to be made at a single port and must not be modified to cover more than one port.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 505:

> The consignee shall deposit with the collector, at the time of making entry, unless the merchandise is entered for warehouse or transportation, or under bond, the amount of duty estimated to be payable thereon. • • •

(c) The estimated duties, if any, having been deposited and the bond filed, a permit on customs Form 7501–A may be issued and delivered to the importer or his agent, to be by him sent to the inspector in charge of the merchandise, who will release to or upon the order of the carrier that part of the merchandise not designated for examination.

(d) Estimated duties need not be deposited on shipments consigned to Government departments or bureaus or authorized representatives thereof, nor will the bond above provided for be required in such cases. After due entry therefor has been made, such merchandise may be immediately released. On liquidation of the entry the collector will state the duties due on vouchers, in duplicate, and present them for payment to the proper department disbursing officer.

ART. 315. Release of examined packages.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 499:

> Imported merchandise, required by law or regulations made in pursuance thereof to be inspected, examined, or appraised, shall not be delivered from customs custody, except as otherwise provided in this Act, until it has been inspected, examined, or appraised and is reported by the appraiser to have been truly and correctly invoiced and found to comply with the requirements of the laws of the United States. • • •

(b) If, upon the receipt of the appraiser's report, the estimated duties deposited are found to be sufficient, and the goods are correctly invoiced and otherwise comply with the law, the collector may issue a permit order for the release of the examined packages. The collector may designate an appraising officer to exercise this function.

(c) If it be found that the increased or additional duties will be small, and the importer responsible, the collector may likewise permit the release of the examined packages upon the importer indorsing on the invoice or entry a stipulation to pay any increased or additional duties found due on liquidation.

(d) When the appraiser's return indicates that the increased or additional duties will exceed $50, the collector shall require a deposit of an amount sufficient to cover said duties before release of the examination packages.

(e) The collector may release any merchandise pending reappraisement which has not been advanced more than 100 percent upon a deposit by the consignee of an amount sufficient to pay the increased and additional duties, provided the appraiser has reported same to have been truly and correctly invoiced and found to comply with the requirements of the laws of the United States.

ART. 316. Recall of merchandise released from customs custody.—(a) If at any time after entry the collector determines, either from the appraiser's report or otherwise, that any of the merchandise contained in an importation is for any reason not entitled to admission into the commerce of the United States, he shall promptly demand the return to customs custody of any such merchandise which has been released.

(b) The collector may demand the return to customs custody of any merchandise which has been released therefrom, provided such demand is made within 20 days after the appraiser's report.

(c) A demand for the redelivery of the merchandise shall be made when the appraiser's report indicates that increased or additional duties will accrue, unless the increased and additional duties are promptly deposited, provided that such demand must be made within 20 days after the appraiser's report.

ENTRY FOR WAREHOUSE

ART. 317. Entry—Form and contents—Articles not entitled to entry.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 557:

> Any merchandise subject to duty, with the exception of perishable articles and explosive substances other than firecrackers, may be entered for warehousing and be deposited in a bonded warehouse at the expense and risk of the owner, importer, or consignee. • • •

(b) Entry for warehousing shall be made in triplicate on a form substantially in accordance with customs Form 7502.

(c) An importer must designate upon the entry the bonded warehouse in which he desires his merchandise deposited and may designate thereon the bonded cartman or lighterman by whom he wishes the goods transferred.

(d) Dangerous and highly inflammable merchandise, though not classified as explosive, may not be entered for warehouse without the written consent of the insurance company by whom the warehouse in which the merchandise is to be stored is insured.

(e) Merchandise, including American distilled spirits, withdrawn from warehouse at the end of the bonded period and shipped to a foreign country with the intention to bring the same back to this country can not be warehoused again on its return to the United States. (See art. 1267.)

(f) The procedure to be followed in connection with the preparation and filing of the entry, making notations on invoices, the preparation of customs Form 6417, the designation of examination packages, and the appraisement of the merchandise shall be the same as that prescribed in the case of consumption entries.

ART. 318. Liability of importers and sureties.—(a) Under the first condition of the warehouse entry bond the surety on the bond is liable for the full amount of duties and customs charges legally due on merchandise when withdrawn from public store or bonded warehouse, and also for any duties and charges subsequently found legally due thereon. The importer is liable for increased duties irrespective of the bond.

(b) Original importers are not by a subsequent transfer relieved from their liability to the Government, either personally or upon the warehousing bond, for duties on the original importation. Both principal and sureties continue liable under such bond until the duties are paid or the merchandise is exported or relief from the payment of duties is otherwise lawfully obtained. The said bond may be closed, however, if there is substituted therefor a similar bond given by the one to whom the merchandise is transferred and which shall be satisfactory to the collector of customs. Such bond shall be accepted as collateral security and will not relieve the importer of his liability for duties on the original bond.

ART. 319. Divided importation.—(a) Any portion of an invoice not less than an entire package, and if the merchandise be in bulk not less than 1 ton, may be entered for warehousing and the remainder for immediate consumption. In such case the entries must be made simultaneously and the declarations made to conform thereto.

(b) Except in the case of merchandise cleaned, sorted, repacked, or otherwise changed in condition under the provisions of section 562 of the tariff act, and merchandise not ordered by the consignee and refused by him, no merchandise shall be withdrawn from warehouse under any form of withdrawal in a quantity less than the entire package, or 1 ton in weight if the merchandise be in bulk. Merchandise so withdrawn shall be in the original package in which imported unless the collector for its safety or preservation has permitted it to be repacked or transferred, or it has been cleaned, sorted, repacked, or otherwise changed in condition, under said section 562.

ART. 320. Estimation of duties—Bond.—After the duty has been estimated upon the warehouse entry in the same manner as upon an entry for consumption, the collector shall take a bond on customs Form 7555.

ART. 321. Permit.—The bond having been executed, the collector will issue a permit to the inspector on customs Form 7502–A, to send the goods to the bonded warehouse, except such as may be designated for examination. This permit must also indicate what goods are to be weighed, gauged, or measured. Such weighing, gauging, or measuring is to be done before or at the time of the deposit of the goods in warehouse.

ART. 322. Records.—A warehouse ledger shall be kept on customs Form 5201 covering each warehouse or rewarehouse entry and withdrawals thereunder.

ENTRY FOR REWAREHOUSE

ART. 323. Procedure.(a)—Immediately after the receipt of the mail copy of the warehouse withdrawal for transportation (customs Form 7512) at the port of destination, the merchandise may be entered for rewarehouse by the consignee named in the withdrawal. The entry shall be on customs Form 7502 and shall be filed in triplicate. If the merchandise is not entered within 48 hours after its arrival, it shall be sent to the general order warehouse.

(b) Should the consignee fail to make entry within 48 hours, the collector will notify the collector at the port where the original warehouse entry was filed by letter of the fact, and the goods shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of as unclaimed until the expiration of the original warehouse entry bond period.

(c) No declaration is required on entry, and unless a question is raised as to the correctness of the appraisement or classification, no examination of the merchandise will be made.

(d) When a bond on customs Form 7555 shall have been given a permit may be issued on customs Form 7502–A for sending the merchandise to the bonded warehouse designated on the entry. No bond will be required if the merchandise is entered by the consignee named in the original warehouse entry bond filed at the original port of entry. (See art. 895.)

ART. 324. Value and classification.—(a) The value and duty as assessed at the port of original importation, and so stated in the copy of the entry or withdrawal for transportation forwarded to the port of destination, will in all cases be the value and duty to be charged on the rewarehouse entry, or, if the merchandise be withdrawn immediately on arrival, on the rewarehouse withdrawal, as the voucher and authority for the assessment of duty.

(b) Should any difference in valuation or classification be discovered, the matter should be taken up with the collector at the port where the entry was liquidated, and if there be a disagreement as to the correct value or rate of duty, the case should be reported to the Bureau for instructions.

(c) If a clerical error be found in the transportation entry, it should be corrected, entry allowed, and the fact reported to the collector at the port of withdrawal.

ART. 325. Protest.—Protest against the assessment of duty cannot be received at the port of destination, except against the reliquidation, or against the refusal of the collector to so reliquidate, under a change in the law.

COMBINED ENTRY FOR REWAREHOUSE AND WITHDRAWAL FOR CONSUMPTION

ART. 326. Form.—If the consignee of merchandise withdrawn from warehouse for transportation desires to pay duty and get possession of the goods immediately on arrival at destination, a combined entry for rewarehouse and withdrawal for consumption may be made in quadruplicate (including permit) on customs Form 7519.

ART. 327. Procedure.—(a) In this case no rewarehouse bond will be required, but upon payment of the duties in the amount certified as payable on the transportation entry, the collector may issue a permit for release on customs Form 7519.

(b) On receipt of such permit the inspector will release the goods as directed and return the permit to the collector with his indorsement.

(c) No declaration will be required on the rewarehousing of such merchandise, and no further examination of the same will be made other than may be necessary for the identification of the goods.

EXPORTATION UNDER WAREHOUSE WITHDRAWAL FOR TRANSPORTATION

ART. 328. Procedure.—The consignee of merchandise withdrawn from warehouse for transportation desiring to export the same on arrival at destination, may so advise the collector at destination in writing, who shall thereupon make proper notation on the entry and manifest and permit the exportation of the merchandise under customs supervision. The subsequent procedure shall be the same as that provided for warehouse or rewarehouse withdrawals for transportation and exportation. (See ch. XVI.)

WITHDRAWAL AT ORIGINAL AND SECONDARY PORTS FOR CONSUMPTION

ART. 329. Entry—Form and contents.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 557:

> * * * Such merchandise may be withdrawn, at any time within three years (or ten months in the case of grain) from the date of importation, for consumption upon payment of the duties and charges accruing thereon at the rate of duty imposed by law upon such merchandise at the date of withdrawal; * * *.

(b) Withdrawal for consumption of merchandise in bonded warehouse shall be made in triplicate on customs Form 7505 and shall show the number of the bond, the marks and numbers of the packages withdrawn, the vessel and date of importation, the description, quantity, rates of duty, separate value of each package, and total dutiable value of the merchandise, and shall be signed by the party making the withdrawal. No declaration is required.

ART. 330. Computation and payment of duties.—On presentation of a withdrawal at the collector's office it shall be compared with the warehouse ledger, customs Form 5201. The duty payable shall be assessed on the withdrawal and recorded on the ledger.

ART. 331. Withdrawal—When completed.—When the duties and other charges have been paid, a permit on customs Form 7505–A shall be issued and delivered to the person making the warehouse withdrawal. Upon the lodging of the permit with the storekeeper, he shall release the merchandise to or upon the order of the proprietor of the warehouse, in accordance with article 933 (a) and (b), unless the person making the withdrawal requests by endorsement on the permit that release be withheld, subject to the provisions of article 1011 (b) until he shall have lodged with the storekeeper an order to release on customs Form 7505–B. If partial release is desired, the order may cover part only of the merchandise specified in the permit, but not less than an entire package, or, if in bulk, 1 ton in weight (art. 319). The storekeeper shall not release any merchandise under an order until after he has compared the order with the related permit. He shall note the date of release on all permits and orders and shall obtain the acknowledgment of such release from the proprietor in the space provided for on the forms. In the case of partial releases, the acknowledgment of the proprietor on the permit shall be obtained at the time of the last release thereunder. Proprietors may be permitted to make copies of permits and orders to release. Storekeepers shall dispose of permits and orders in accordance with article 946 (c).

ART. 332. Withdrawal by transferee.—(a) A transferee of merchandise in bonded warehouse may make a withdrawal therefor upon the order of the person who made the warehouse entry indorsed upon the withdrawal.

(b) If the importer does not wish to limit the right of withdrawal to one person, he may leave the space for the name of the transferee blank. Subsequent transfers may be made by delivery of the withdrawal, without notation on the records of the customhouse. The person paying the duties and charges must insert his name in the blank space in the withdrawal; whereupon the delivery permit may be delivered to him.

(c) In cases where the transferee does not desire to pay the duties and charges at the time the right to withdraw the merchandise is transferred to him, he may lodge the indorsed withdrawal in the customhouse as evidence of the transfer. A notation thereof shall be made on the customs records. The transferee may thereafter obtain the release of all or part of the merchandise, unless the transfer of the right to withdraw shall have been revoked, by filing proper withdrawals and otherwise complying with the provisions of articles 329 and 331. No indorsement of the person who has previously transferred the right to withdraw the merchandise shall be required on such withdrawals.

ART. 333. Withdrawals before and after liquidation.—(a) Merchandise may be withdrawn for consumption before liquidation upon payment of the estimated duties and after liquidation upon payment of the liquidated duties.

(b) Upon the liquidation or reliquidation of a warehouse entry, if the amount of estimated duties collected on merchandise previously withdrawn differs from the amount of liquidated duties due on such merchandise, a statement showing the difference shall be prepared in duplicate by the collector on customs Form 7505. The statement shall not be numbered. It shall show the total number of withdrawals for consumption made before liquidation or reliquidation, the total estimated duties collected under such withdrawals, the total liquidated or reliquidated duties on the merchandise withdrawn, and the difference between these amounts. One copy of the statement shall be retained by the collector, and the other promptly forwarded to the comptroller.

(c) A notice covering the difference shall be issued on customs Form 5107 or customs Form 5269 as the case may be. Increased duties collected and refunds made shall be scheduled on customs Forms 5157 and 5193, respectively, under the warehouse entry number and recorded on the warehouse ledger, customs Form 5201.

WITHDRAWAL AT ORIGINAL AND SECONDARY PORTS FOR EXPORTATION

ART. 334. Authorization.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 557:

> Any merchandise subject to duty, with the exception of perishable articles and explosive substances other than firecrackers, may be entered for warehousing and be deposited in a bonded warehouse at the expense and risk of the owner, importer, or consignee. Such merchandise may be withdrawn, at any time within 3 years (or 10 months in the case of grain) from the date of importation * * * for exportation or for transportation and exportation to a foreign country, or for shipment or for transportation and shipment to the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, or the Island of Guam, without the payment of duties there on * * *: Provided, That the total period of time for which such merchandise may remain in bonded warehouse shall not exceed 3 years (or 10 months in the case of grain) from the date of importation. * * *

(b) United States Code, title 19, section 152-b:

> Merchandise in bonded warehouse or otherwise in the custody and control of the officers of the customs upon which duties have been paid, shall be entitled, on shipment to the Philippine Islands within 3 years from the date of the original arrival, to a return of the duties paid less 1 per centum, and merchandise upon which duties have not been paid may be shipped without the payment of duties to the Philippine Islands within said period, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Mar. 8, 1902, c. 140, sec. 7, 32 Stat. 55.)

ART. 335. Withdrawal—Form and contents.—(a) Merchandise may be withdrawn from warehouse at original and secondary ports for exportation in accordance with article 900.

(b) If exported by other than the original importer, the same authority will be required as in case of withdrawal for consumption. The exportation shall be made under the original marks of importation. Port marks may be added by authority of the collector and under the supervision of a customs officer. The original and the port marks shall appear in all papers pertaining to the exportation.

ART. 336. Report of packages not laden.—Inspectors will report goods not laden, by marks and numbers, and goods received and not laden will be sent to general order unless otherwise directed by the collector.

ART. 337. Withdrawal before liquidation—Damage, etc.—(a) In the case of merchandise subject to ad valorem rates of duty, no withdrawal for exportation shall be allowed before the liquidation of the warehouse entry, or a special liquidation of the items covering the merchandise to be exported, unless the appraiser's return shows no advance in value.

(b) Merchandise subject to specific rates of duty may be withdrawn at the entered quantities.

(c) In the case of merchandise withdrawn for transportation and exportation, no further examination or appraisal is necessary at the port of exit.

(d) In any case, if the merchandise is not exported, the liquidation on the original warehouse entry must be followed.

(e) There shall be no abatement or allowance of duties on account of damage, loss, or deterioration of the merchandise while in warehouse, except as provided by statute.

ART. 338. Weight, gauge, or measure.—(a) Merchandise in bulk and articles in packages bought and sold by weight, gauge, or measure may be withdrawn for export or transportation only at the actual quantities ascertained at the time of arrival in the United States, except as otherwise provided by law.

(b) In any case the collector may require a special return of weight, gauge, or measure, if he deems it necessary.

ART. 339. Distilled spirits, regauge.—Distilled spirits in casks and similar containers shall be regauged on withdrawal for exportation, and duty shall be collected on any deficiency from the original gauge unless the collector of customs is satisfied, after careful investigation, that the deficiency is due solely to evaporation.

ART. 340. Parcel post packages.—Merchandise in bonded warehouse may be withdrawn for exportation by mail in accordance with the provisions of article 387.

ENTRY AND SAMPLING OF ZINC AND LEAD BEARING ORES NOT FOR SMELTING IN BOND

ART. 341. Entry—Bond—Statistical Reports.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930; paragraph 391:

> Provided further, That on all importations of lead-bearing ores, flue dust, and mattes of all kinds the duties shall be estimated at the port of entry and a bond given in double the amount of such estimated duties for the transportation of the ores, flue dust, or mattes by common carrier bonded for the transportation of appraised or unappraised merchandise to properly equipped sampling or smelting establishments, whether designated as bonded warehouses or otherwise. On the arrival of the ores, flue dust, or mattes at such establishments they shall be sampled according to commercial methods under the supervision of Government officers who shall be stationed at such establishments, and who shall submit the samples thus obtained to a Government assayer, designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall make a proper assay of the sample and report the result to the proper customs officers, and the import entries shall be liquidated thereon. And the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make all necessary regulations to enforce the provisions of this paragraph.

(Par. 393 contains exactly the same provision with respect to zinc-bearing ores.)

(b) When entered for consumption or warehouse at the port of first arrival, the merchandise may be weighed at the place of landing or on arrival at the plant where the same is to be used. It shall be transported to the place of sampling by bonded trucks or lighters.

(c) When the merchandise is not to be used at the port of first arrival, it may be transported without weighing to the sampling or smelting establishment under an I. T. entry (customs Form 7512) on which the estimated duties shall be shown in order to fix the penalty of the transportation bond. The transportation entry shall be forwarded to the collector of customs at the nearest port in the district where such establishment is located. The bond shall be on customs Form 7557 or 7559. Where the term bond is given the penalty shall be an amount which the collector deems sufficient to protect the revenue but not less than $10,000. The records kept and procedure followed will otherwise be the same as provided for transportation in bond, general provisions, articles 873 and following of these regulations.

(d) The sampling and weighing of the merchandise at points other than the port of entry will be at the expense of the parties in interest.

(e) Quantities and values of the different metals contained in the ore or base bullion will be stated in the entry according to the commercial assay of the consular invoice, or estimated from previous similar importations, the importer making such addition to or deduction from such values as he may deem necessary to make value. Changes in entered quantities and values ascertained from the official assay will be reported to the Section of Customs Statistics at New York on customs statistical correction report of import entry or withdrawal, customs Form 7401.

(f) Collectors will inform the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce at Washington when consular invoices fail to show the information specified in the Statistical Classification of Imports, Schedule A, in order that such cases may be reported to the Department of State.

ENTRY FOR EXPORTATION

ART. 342. Merchandise unentered or rejected, exportation of.—(a) Merchandise in customs custody, for which no entry has been made or completed, may be exported under the procedure outlined in article 910.

(b) Merchandise in continuous customs custody (see art. 1079) covered by an unliquidated consumption entry may be exported in like manner with refund of estimated duties paid; except that such merchandise when subject to an ad valorem duty shall be appraised, and if advanced in value, the additional duties shall be paid before exportation is permitted.

(c) Entered merchandise denied admission into the United States by any Government agency may be exported under like procedure as a nonimportation, with refund of estimated duty and without the assessment of additional duty.

(d) When merchandise to be exported from continuous customs custody is subject to duty and is covered by a liquidated entry, the drawback procedure provided in chapter XX shall be followed. (See arts. 1079 to 1082.)

ENTRY BY APPRAISEMENT

ART. 343. Procedure.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 498 (a) (2), (3), (4), (5), (7), (8), and (10), and (b):

(a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations for the declaration and entry of—

(2) Merchandise damaged on the voyage of importation, by fire or through marine casualty or any other cause, without fault on the part of the shipper;
(3) Merchandise recovered from a wrecked or stranded vessel;
(4) Household effects used abroad and personal effects, not imported in pursuance of a purchase or agreement for purchase and not intended for sale;
(5) Articles sent by persons in foreign countries as gifts to persons in the United States;
(7) Tools of trade of a person arriving in the United States;
(8) Personal effects of citizens of the United States who have died in a foreign country;
(10) Merchandise when in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury the value thereof can not be declared.

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to include in such rules and regulations any of the provisions of section 484 or 485 of this act (relating, respectively, to entry and to declaration of merchandise generally).

(b) The foregoing classes of articles, except as provided in paragraph (d) of this article, regardless of value, may be entered by appraisement on customs Form 7500, unless the articles accompany the owner, in which case they should be included in his baggage declaration.

(c) No consular invoice or bond for its production is required, but the consignee or owner shall in all cases furnish any bills or statements of cost relating to the articles which may be in his possession, and declare under oath that he has no other information as to the value of the articles and is unable to obtain the same or determine the value of the articles for the purpose of making formal entry thereof.

(d) Appraisement entries may be accepted under subsection (10) only for articles which are second-hand or damaged or deteriorated, or are not the subject of a commercial transaction, as, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, the value of such articles can not be declared; but when the value of any such articles exceeds $100, the approval of the Bureau of Customs must be obtained before the entry is officially accepted.

(e) The entry shall be forwarded to the appraiser who shall report the result of his appraisement on the entry and duties shall be assessed in accordance therewith, but the importer may substitute an entry for warehouse at any time within 1 year from the date of importation, provided the merchandise has remained in continuous customs custody.

(f) Any additional expense for cartage, storage, or labor occasioned by reason of an entry by appraisement shall be borne by the importer.

INFORMAL ENTRIES

ART. 344. Procedure.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 498 (a) (1), and (b):

(a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations for the declaration and entry of—
(1) Merchandise not exceeding $100 in value. • • •
(b) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to include in such rules and regulations any of the provisions of section 484 or 485 of this act (relating, respectively, to entry and to declaration of merchandise generally).

(b) Such merchandise, unless falling within the provisions of article 343, shall be entered on customs Form 5119, in quadruplicate, which may, in the discretion of the collector, be accepted at the customhouse, on the piers, at railroad stations, or other places where there are customs officers competent to examine and appraise the article and assess the duties. This form may also be used for the entry of articles regardless of value covered by section 498 (a) (4) arriving from contiguous foreign territory.

(c) The original copy of the entry shall be used as the collector's copy and one copy as the permit; one copy shall be immediately forwarded to the comptroller of customs and one copy issued as a receipt when duties are collected.

(d) The collector may, when he deems it necessary for the protection of the revenue, require a formal entry (customs Form 7501) for any such merchandise, and individual shipments for the same consignee, when such shipments are valued at $100 or less, may be consolidated on customs Form 7501.

(e) No consular invoice is required but in the case of merchandise imported pursuant to a purchase or agreement to purchase, or intended for sale, the consignee shall produce the commercial invoice covering the transaction or, in the absence thereof, an itemized statement of value.

(f) The collector may, in his discretion, require any merchandise entered in accordance with this article to be regularly examined and appraised.

(g) When such merchandise arrives under immediate transportation entry, the number of the transportation entry and port from which received should be noted on the upper left-hand corner of customs Form 5119 and handled in all other respects as if formal entry were made.

PACKED PACKAGES

ART. 345. Definition—Marking—Entry.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 484 (f):

• • • One or more packages arriving on one vessel or vehicle addressed for delivery to one person and imported in another package containing packages addressed for delivery to other persons may be separately entered, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. • • •

(b) Such packages are known as packed packages and should be marked to indicate their character. Discharging inspectors will send such packages to the appraiser's stores immediately after landing without a permit or specific order.

(c) Entire packed packages, or one or more of the inclosures thereof, may be entered on any form of formal or informal entry applicable thereto.

SPECIAL-DELIVERY PACKAGES

ART. 346. Application—Order for appraisement.—(a) Application for the entry of special-delivery packages under the provisions of the act of June 8, 1896, may be made by the agent of the carrier bringing the merchandise to the United States, which carrier must be bonded under section 551 of the tariff act, and be in the following form, which shall be treated in the same manner as an appraisement entry:

Application to enter and entry of articles not merchandise intended for sale under the provisions of the act of June 8, 1896

TO THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS, PORT OF ------:

I, ----------, of the firm of ------, hereby make application to make special entry of ------ packages, containing articles not merchandise intended for sale, and not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) in value nor weighing more than one hundred (100) pounds per package, imported per steamship ------, a vessel of the United States, from ------ on ------ for ------, ultimate consignee, residing at ------.

And I do certify that there is but one consignment from any one consignor to said ultimate consignee imported in the vessel above specified on the date above mentioned.

Declared to before me this ------ day of ------, -------.

----------,
Deputy Collector.

(b) On the back of this application will be printed the special order for appraisement to be made in these cases, and the form for the return of the appraiser. The application having been made, the collector shall execute the order of appraisement, which shall be in the following form:

SPECIAL ORDER FOR APPRAISEMENT

PORT OF ------.
COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, ------, -------.

TO THE APPRAISER:

You will examine promptly and report the contents and value of ------ packages imported by ------ in the ------ from -------.

Deputy Collector.

ART. 347. Marking—Appraiser's report.—Every package imported under the provisions of this act must be plainly marked "Special delivery package." Packages so marked may be landed on the dock immediately after the entry of the vessel, and the inspector in charge will forthwith forward such packages to the appraiser's stores, notifying the collector of customs of his action, and stating the number and marks of the packages and the vessel by which imported. The contents of packages thus sent to public store shall, upon receipt of the collector's special order, be examined immediately and appraised, the appraiser's report to the collector to be in the following form:

Appraiser's Report

In pursuance of your special order, we have examined the following-described articles, and do certify the contents of the packages and the value thereof to be as follows, viz:

----------, Examiner.
----------, Appraiser.

ART. 348. Liquidation—Delivery.—(a) Upon receipt by the collector of the appraiser's return the entry shall be immediately liquidated, and upon payment of the ascertained duties the packages shall be released.

(b) The liquidation is final and conclusive against the owner, importer, consignee, or agent, except in the case of clerical error.

ART. 349. Bond.—The following form of bond shall be given by carriers making entry for special-delivery packages:

Bond upon entry under act of June 8, 1896

Know all men by these presents, ----------, of ------, a principal, and ----------, of -------, and ----------, of as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the United States of America in the sum of $10,000, for the payment whereof to the United States we firmly bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, jointly and severally, by these presents, as witness our hands and seals at the port of ------, this ------ day of ------, nineteen hundred and ----------.

Whereas the undersigned, principals on this bond, propose to enter at the customhouse, and to transport merchandise imported under the provisions of the act entitled "An act to expedite the delivery of imported parcels and packages not exceeding five hundred dollars in value", approved June 8, 1896.

Now, therefore, the condition of this obligation is such that if the herein-mentioned obligors shall duly observe and faithfully comply with all the requirements and provisions of the above-specified act, and with the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury thereunder, then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force.

ART. 350. Cording and sealing.—Only packages as to which the common carrier may desire to reserve the right of returning to the customs authorities for refund of duties paid will be corded and sealed under customs supervision. A record of such packages shall be kept.

ART. 351. Returned packages—Refund of duty.—If any package so corded and sealed shall be returned intact within 90 days from date of importation to the collector of customs at the port of entry, the duties shall be refunded and the common carrier relieved of any liability therefor.

ART. 352. Unclaimed packages.—Whenever a package which has been sent to the appraiser's office under the provisions of this act shall be found to contain articles of more than $500 in value, or to weigh over 100 pounds, a report of the facts shall be made to the collector, who shall cause the package to be treated as if unclaimed.

ART. 353. Invoice.—Nothing contained in these regulations shall be held to relieve importers from the necessity of submitting certified invoices for any importation exceeding $100 in value when otherwise required. Whenever such invoice shall accompany the package, as provided in the act, it shall be transmitted to the collector with the appraiser's report.

LANDING AND DELIVERY OF ARTICLES FOR WHICH IMMEDIATE DELIVERY IS NECESSARY

ART. 354. Application—Entry—Procedure.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 448 (b):

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to provide by regulations for the issuing of special permits for delivery, prior to formal entry therefor, of perishable articles and other articles, the immediate delivery of which is necessary.

(b) "Articles, the immediate delivery of which is necessary" includes, in addition to perishable articles, any other articles in connection with which it is definitely established that delay in securing release would occasion unusual loss or inconvenience to the importer or to the carrier bringing the merchandise to the port.

(c) Special permits for the delivery of articles of a class referred to in paragraph (b) prior to formal entry shall be granted only in cases where the collector of customs shall be satisfied that such delivery can be permitted with safety to the revenue.

(d) Applications for special permits for the delivery of imported articles prior to formal entry therefor shall be made in triplicate on customs Form 3461 and shall be supported by evidence satisfactory to the collector of the right of the applicant to make entry for the articles with respect to which the application is filed. If the application is approved, one copy thereof shall be retained as an office record, one copy shall be executed as the permit, and the third copy shall be forwarded to the comptroller of customs. If the collector is satisfied that the conditions warrant such action, a special permit may be granted to cover the delivery prior to formal entry of a class or classes of articles particularly described in the application for such permit and imported during a period not to exceed one year. In such case the fact of release of the merchandise, together with such supplemental information as may be necessary to identify the shipment and determine its quantity and value, shall be noted on the manifest and initialed by the customs officer who releases the merchandise.

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (f) of this article, no permit for the delivery of imported articles prior to formal entry shall be issued until there has been filed in connection with the application therefor a special single entry bond on customs Form 7551–A, with approved corporate surety, in a sum equal to the value of the articles plus the estimated duties thereon, if any; or a special term bond on customs Form 7553–A, with approved corporate surety, in a sum which the collector deems sufficient, but not less than $10,000. The special term bond may be filed in connection with a single application to cover several importations during a period of not more than one year, or in connection with several applications to be filed during a period of not more than one year.

(f) If there is available sufficient information as to the quantities and values of the merchandise properly to estimate the duties, there may be filed with the application for a special permit a proper entry in regular form, accompanied by the estimated duties and supported by the regular entry bond (customs Forb 7551 or 7553), in lieu of the special bond provided for in the preceding paragraph. Such an entry is not effective as such until after the merchandise covered thereby has actually arrived within the port limits and the entry has been officially accepted in accordance with article 286 (b).

(g) No special permit will be required for the delivery of importations for which informal entry is permitted as provided for in article 344.

(h) In the case of articles of a class referred to in paragraph (b), except those entered in accordance with paragraph (g), arriving from Canada or Mexico when the customhouse is closed, and destined to places other than the port of arrival, the application and the evidence of the right to make entry may be submitted to the chief customs officer on duty and a special permit may be issued for their release, provided the person making application has on file in the customhouse a special term bond as described in paragraph (e).

(i) In cases where formal entry is not made and estimated duties deposited within 48 hours (exclusive of Sunday and holidays) after the release of the articles under special permit, the collector shall take immediate action to collect, as liquidated damages, the penal sum of the bond in the case of a single entry bond, or an amount equal to the value of the articles as to which there was default, plus the duties thereon, in the case of a term bond, and, unless the claim is promptly satisfied, shall discontinue allowing immediate delivery of articles imported by or for the account of the person in default.

(j) Except in the case of articles entered in accordance with paragraph (g) of this article, the collector shall give timely notice of the arrival of the vessel or vehicle to the appraiser, who shall promptly detail an officer to examine the merchandise, except that when the vessel or vehicle arrives at night or on a Sunday or holiday, and the articles consist of fruits or vegetables or other merchandise which it is practicable to appraise by means of samples, the discharging inspector shall take samples in such manner and in such quantities as the appraiser may direct, and retain the same for examination on the next business day. The discharging inspector shall not release the merchandise to the carrier until it shall have been examined, or adequate samples shall have been taken when appraisement is to be made by sample, and shall keep an accurate account of all releases made under the special permit, which he shall attach to his return of cargo discharged.

(k) In all other respects the procedure shall be the same as in the case of other imported merchandise.

DISPOSITION OF ENTRIES

ART. 355. Numbering, filing, etc.—(a) A separate series of numbers shall be used at each port of entry for each class of formal entries, including dutiable consumption, free consumption (preceded by the identifying symbol "O"), warehouse (including rewarehouse), I. T., T. & E., drawback, and other entries, and also for appraisement entries (customs Form 7500), special manifests, warehouse withdrawals, notices of intent, dutiable baggage entries (customs Form 6059 or 6063), and general order (including abandoned) goods. Each series of numbers shall begin with no. 1 on the first day of July of each year, except permanent exhibition entries (see article 446 (b), those covering warehouse (including rewarehouse) entries, and general order (including abandoned) goods, in each of which cases a new series shall be started on the 1st day of July of each third year. Warehouse and rewarehouse bonds shall bear the same numbers as the entries to which they belong.

(b) At ports where the collector deems it necessary, consumption and appraisement entries and warehouse withdrawals may be numbered informally when presented, in which case they must be given an official number when paid and so recorded. Baggage declarations on customs Form 6059 may also be numbered informally when presented and given an official number should duties be collected thereunder.

(c) A copy of the entry shall be sent on the date of receipt to the collector at the headquarters port to serve as a voucher in support of the daily report, customs Form 5207–B. The collector at the headquarters port shall forward this copy to the comptroller of customs for the district, with the appropriate schedule, as the schedule sheets are completed, or at the end of the month if not sooner completed.

(d) As soon as practicable after entry, one copy of the entry shall be forwarded to the Section of Customs Statistics at New York (see art. 1300); and as soon as possible after examination and appraisement the original copy of the entry, together with all necessary papers and reports, shall be transmitted to the headquarters port.

(e) All entries and documents referred to in this article shall be filed flat or unfolded, and all related papers (including all single-entry bonds) must be filed therewith. Withdrawals will be filed with the related warehouse or rewarehouse entries.

ART. 356. Regulations authorized.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 498 (a) (1):

(a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations for the declaration and entry of—

(1) Merchandise not exceeding $100 in value, including such merchandise imported through the mails;

NOTE.—The Joint Regulations approved by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General governing the treatment of mail matter from foreign countries involving the customs revenue, are incorporated in this chapter, the paragraphs being designated by the suffix "J. R." immediately following the number of the article. The Joint Regulations also appear in section 632 of the Postal Laws and Regulations of 1924. The articles not designated "J. R." are not parts of the Joint Regulations and relate to customs procedure only. References made to "paragraphs" in the several articles relate to paragraphs of the Joint Regulations.

The word "article" is used in the Joint Regulations to conform to postal terminology, and is synonymous with the words "parcel" or "package" in customs phraseology, as distinguished from the merchandise contents thereof.

ART. 357. J. R. 1—Facilities at post offices.—In order to safeguard the revenue and expedite delivery of the mails, collectors of customs shall detail representatives for duty at exchange post offices and at other post offices to which mails of foreign origin may be forwarded for customs examination. Postmasters shall provide proper facilities for treatment of such mails by customs officers and shall furnish them with information regarding prospective arrivals thereof.

ART. 358. Segregation and primary treatment.—(a) J. R. 2a.—Customs officers should be present at the opening and distribution of the mails, and segregate all articles known or believed to contain merchandise or printed matter, including those mailed originally in the United States and returned for any reason. Such articles shall be stamped "Supposed liable to customs duty", except those which are to be redispatched without customs examination, under seal, from New York, Chicago, San Francisco, and Seattle. See J. R. 10 (b). Articles subsequently found on examination to contain dutiable matter shall be stamped "Examined by U. S. Customs (at ——): Duty to be collected", in addition to having the entry form attached in the case of articles for informal entry. Articles found not to contain dutiable matter shall be stamped "Passed free, U. S. Customs (at ——)" and the "Supposed liable" impression effectively canceled. Registered articles shall be segregated and treated only in the presence of an authorized representative of the postmaster. Unregistered parcel-post articles, books, and printed matter shall, when practicable, be delivered immediately to customs officers for examination.

(b) J. R.2b.—When it is not possible for customs officers to be present, the segregation shall be made by postal employees in order that the mails may not be delayed unnecessarily. All articles known or believed to contain merchandise except as indicated above shall be properly stamped and held by the postmaster for inspection by customs officers.

(c) J. R. 2c.—Should an article supposed or known to be dutiable escape examination at an exchange post office of receipt, the postmaster handling it either in transit or for delivery shall withhold delivery and submit the article to the nearest customs officer.

(d) J. R. 2d.—If merchandise returned from a foreign country in a mail package which has remained continuously in the custody of the International Postal Service is found to correspond with the outward customs declaration, and the package is in substantially the same condition in which it was when dispatched from the United States, the package, after customs examination, shall be returned to the postmaster free of informal or formal customs entry requirements. The examining customs officer shall, however, determine whether or not any drawback was allowed or paid, or internal-revenue tax remitted, upon the exportation of the merchandise. If so, such amounts shall be collected prior to release of the merchandise from customs custody.

(e) J. R. 2e.—Foreign mails in transit shall not be submitted for inspection by United States customs officers.

(f) J. R. 2f.—Unnecessary delay by customs officers in the treatment of articles submitted to them for examination shall be reported to the Second Assistant Postmaster General by the postmaster.

ART. 359. J. R. 3—Treatment by post office, sea post, and R. P. O. clerks.—Post office, sea post, railway postal and terminal railway postal clerks shall scrutinize letters handled by them (particularly sealed envelopes which may contain merchandise or prohibited articles), also newspapers mailed by others than publishers, and packages, sealed and unsealed, of foreign origin, including matter from Canada, Cuba, Mexico, the Republic of Panama, and United States postal agencies, naval vessels and naval stations abroad, whether or not such articles are marked "Supposed liable to customs duty." Railway postal, sea post, and terminal railway postal clerks shall forward supposed dutiable articles to the post office nearest the end of their run or nearest their terminal railway post office at which there is a customs officer, in locked pouches, sealed sacks, or sealed envelopes labeled "For customs inspection." Supposed dutiable articles shall not be stamped or otherwise treated by railway postal or terminal railway postal clerks. Postmasters, upon receipt of the supposed dutiable articles shall treat them in accordance with these regulations.

ART. 360. J. R. 4—Packages of letters labeled to "States", "Cities", etc.—Packages of letters labeled to "States", "Cities", or to "R. P. O." lines may be forwarded intact, provided the address label or wrapper be stamped "Supposed liable to customs duty." Postal employees shall treat such mail in accordance with the instructions in J. R. 3.

ART. 361. Mail articles for diplomatic and consular officers—(a) J. R. 5a.—Articles addressed to ambassadors, ministers, and chargés d'affaires, representing foreign governments in the United States, shall be delivered to the addressees without submission to customs officers.

(b) J. R. 5b.—Articles intended for the personal use of members of the families of ambassadors, ministers, and chargés d'affaires; or for members and attachés of foreign embassies and legations or members of their families, may be admitted free of customs duty, upon the Treasury Department's instructions to the collector of customs in each instance, which instructions will be issued only upon request of the Department of State.

(c) J. R. 5c.—Articles addressed to members and attachés of foreign embassies and legations and to consular and other representatives not heretofore mentioned, bearing the official seal of a foreign government or inclosed in its official envelope, and indicating from casual examination, without breaking the seal, that they contain only official communications or documents, shall be forwarded immediately to the addresses without customs examination. Sealed and unsealed articles addressed to "consular and other representatives" referred to in this paragraph, when believed to contain dutiable merchandise, shall be subject to usual customs treatment.

(d) J. R. 5d.—Mail articles for representatives of foreign governments resident in Washington, D. C., shall not be detained for examination or other customs treatment at the exchange post office of first receipt in the United States. Such articles shall be forwarded by mail to the customs authorities in Washington, accompanied by customs Form 3511 in entry-form envelope addressed to the collector of customs, in care of the postmaster, Washington, D. C., in the manner set forth in J. R. 12 (a).

(See article 433 for regulations governing the free entry of articles for consular officers and other representatives of foreign countries under special agreements with such countries.)

ART. 362. J. R. 6—Merchandise in diplomatic pouches.—Articles containing merchandise of any character must not be forwarded in diplomatic or other official pouches; as such articles are subject to the customs laws and regulations.

ART. 363. J. R. 7—Articles for United States Government officials.—Articles addressed to officials of the United States Government, known or believed to contain only official documents, shall be forwarded immediately to the addressees. Such articles, when known or believed to contain merchandise, shall be treated as provided in these regulations for other similar articles.

ART. 364. Articles for copyright.—Articles marked for copyright, addressed to the Librarian of Congress, to the Copyright Office, or to the Register of Copyrights, Washington, D. C., may be passed free of duty and promptly forwarded to destination, provided there is no attempted violation of the law.

ART. 365. Importations not exceeding $1 in value.—Customs officers may pass free of duty, without issuing a mail entry therefor, parcels containing articles (except those subject to internal-revenue tax) the aggregate value of which is not more than $1, provided the merchandise is not imported for sale or forwarded in a manner designed to evade the payment of customs duty. Where such importations are subject to internal-revenue tax, both duty and tax shall be assessed. (See arts. 283 and 832.)

ART. 366. Sealed mail articles to bear label or indorsement—(a) J. R. 8a.—The importation of merchandise in sealed mail articles will be permitted, provided the sealed letter or other sealed article bears on the address side thereof the label ("Form C 1") provided by the postal convention, or the indorsement "May be opened for customs purposes before delivery to the addressee", or words of similar purport indicating that the article may be opened by customs officers without recourse to the addressee—the privacy of the seal being definitely waived. Such articles shall be treated as provided in J. R. 10 (a), 10 (b), 11 (a), 11 (b), and 12 (a) to 12 (c). Sealed articles not so labeled or indorsed, and which from their outward appearance are believed to contain merchandise, shall be treated as hereinafter provided. (See J. R. 11 (c) and 12 (d).)

(b) J. R. 8b.—The foregoing requirement as to label or indorsement shall not apply to parcels mailed under the provisions of the parcel-post conventions between the United States and foreign countries. Such parcels, if sealed, may be opened by customs officers immediately upon receipt and after examination resealed with official seals.

ART. 367. Customs declarations and invoices—(a) J. R. 9a.—A customs declaration (on the form provided by the foreign mailing office), giving an accurate description and the value of the contents, shall accompany each parcel post shipment and be securely attached thereto. Commercial shipments by parcel post shall also be accompanied by commercial invoices. In case the shipment consists of more than one package, the invoice shall be placed in the package to which the postal form of customs declaration is attached. There shall be enclosed with the contents of all mail articles containing merchandise dispatched under the respective mail classifications of the Universal Postal Union Conventions, an invoice in the case of commercial shipments, or a statement of value in the case of merchandise not purchased or consigned for sale, giving an accurate description and value of the merchandise. If impracticable to enclose the invoice or statement within a sealed article, the same shall be securely attached to the article.

(b) J. R. 9b.—When the aggregate value of a single mail shipment exceeds $100, a consular invoice shall be furnished, except as otherwise provided by the customs regulations. Customs entry will be facilitated by sending such invoices with the mail shipment. When this is done no other invoice or statement is required to be sent with the shipment. When an invoice or statement is required to be sent with any mail shipment, the particular package containing the same shall be marked on the address side "INVOICE ENCLOSED." Single shipments not exceeding $100 in value, if mailed abroad at different times (as shown by the declaration or other mailing indicia), should not be combined for the purpose of requiring formal customs entry, even though they reach customs at approximately the same time, unless there was an obvious intent to evade payment of the lawful customs duty.

ART. 368. Reports of delinquencies.—Collectors of customs shall report to the Bureau of Customs repeated failures to comply with the foregoing requirements regarding declarations and invoices, to such an extent as to interfere materially with customs procedure.

ART. 369. Articles received at New York, Chicago, San Francisco, and Seattle—(a) J. R. 10a.—Articles of all classes supposed liable to customs duty not exceeding $100 in value, received at New York, Chicago, San Francisco, and Seattle, for delivery within their distribution districts, as shown in the special distribution scheme, shall be given customs treatment as provided in J. R. 11 (a) to 11 (c). When the value exceeds $100, such articles shall be treated in accordance with J. R. 12 (a) to 12 (d).

(b) J. R. 10b.—All articles, including shipments for formal entry, for delivery at points outside the distribution districts of these four exchange offices shall be left in the custody of the postmaster, without customs examination, for redispatch to other distributing post offices in accordance with the special distribution scheme, in sealed sacks, sealed Post Office Department penalty envelopes, or sealed registered sacks or jackets, as may be appropriate. No mail matter other than articles supposed to be liable to customs duty shall be sent in such dispatches. The sack labels or address side of penalty envelopes or jackets shall be conspicuously marked "Supposed liable to customs duty; treat in accordance with section 632, Postal Laws and Regulations of 1924." Upon receipt at the distributing post offices the dispatches shall be opened in the presence of customs officers and the mail handled as provided in J. R. 11 (a) to 11 (c) and 12 (a) to 12 (d).

(c) J. R. 10c.—The dispatching postmaster shall forward by the same mail, not registered, apart from the dispatches to which they relate, card notices advising the collector of customs as to the respective number of sacks, envelopes, and jackets forwarded, and the date, R. P. O., and number of train on which dispatched. The dispatches shall be addressed to the main post office at which the customs officer is located, and not to a post office station unless a customs officer is located at or near such place.

ART. 370. Articles arriving from foreign countries by air mail.—(a) J. R. 10½a.—In order to hasten the delivery to other post offices of mail articles reaching exchange post offices, from foreign countries by air mail, (1) sealed articles not marked as required by J. R. 8 (a); (2) motion-picture and news-reel films; and (3) sample shipments of tobacco (when necessary for customs purposes) shall, after customs inspection, be redispatched in postal equipment, without other customs or postal treatment, to appropriate distributing post offices, as set forth in the special distribution scheme, for compliance there with the postal the postal and customs requirements applicable to these special articles of merchandise. Other mail articles shall be inclosed in the dispatches if there is insufficient time between arrival and departure of airplanes at post offices of first receipt to accord the articles customs examination and affix mail entries thereto. Shipments for formal entry should also be inclosed in the dispatches. Should it be found impracticable to inclose in the dispatches formal entry shipments, film packages, samples of tobacco, or other articles, such articles shall be redispatched in accordance with J. R. 12 (a). Films received from foreign countries otherwise than through the mails, if accepted by the postmaster from the custody of the customs officer for transmission in the domestic mails, shall be redispatched in the same manner and for the same purposes as films received in the mails. The mail articles referred to in this paragraph shall be treated in other respects in accordance with these regulations.

(b) Mails shall not be segregated or examined for customs purposes at intermediate points en route to continental United States. However, in order to obviate congestion at ports of first receipt in the United States, closed dispatches may be made up en route by postmasters, to include all classes of mail articles, but such dispatches shall be addressed only to post offices covered by the special distribution scheme, and the segregation and customs treatment of the mails shall be accomplished at such post offices and customs ports contiguous thereto.

ART. 371. Treatment at offices of examination—Shipments not exceeding $100 in value—(a) J. R. 11a.—Sealed articles indorsed as required in J. R. 8 (a), and unsealed articles, supposed liable to customs duty, shall be opened by customs representatives (registered matter and sealed matter only in the presence of a representative of the postmaster), contents examined and appraised, duty assessed, and entry form attached, when dutiable and when the value does not exceed $100, unless the article is subject to seizure, in which case it shall be treated in accordance with J. R. 20 (a) to 20 (c).

(b) J. R. 11b.—Immediately after customs treatment, sealed articles, except those opened by or in the presence of the addressee and delivery effected at the time of such opening, shall be inclosed in special penalty envelopes, readdressed, and resealed by a postal employee in the presence of the customs representative who participated in the opening thereof. Both persons shall sign or initial the envelope in all cases; and when the article is found in bad order, shall note on the envelope over their signatures the exact nature of its condition. Mail articles containing merchandise of nominal value shall be resealed by the use of adhesive tape, mucilage, or wax, and the official adhesive seal of the Post Office Department, in lieu of reinclosure in special penalty envelope described heretofore.

(c) J. R. 11c.—When a sealed article believed to contain merchandise is not indorsed (or labeled), as required by J. R. 8 (a), the postmaster shall notify the addressee to appear and open it in the presence of postal and customs officers, or furnish written authority whereby the article may be opened (the collector of customs may be so designated to act for the addressee). After the article is opened the postmaster shall submit same to the customs officer, but only after receipt has been given in the case of a registered article. Such sealed articles shall be retained by the postmaster until opened, except as provided in J. R. 20 (a) to 20 (c) relating to seizures. If the article shall be found to contain merchandise free of duty, or the aggregate value of the merchandise is not more than $1, it may be delivered to the addressee. If the article is found to contain dutiable merchandise the aggregate value of which is more than $1, it may be released to the addressee, upon payment in lieu of the duty of a fine equal to the duty plus 10 percent thereof, the amount of the duty and the 10 percent thereof to be shown as separate items on mail fine customs Form 3421. Should the addressee fail to respond to the postmaster's notice within 30 days, or should the article remain undelivered after 30 days, it shall be treated as undeliverable mail matter to be disposed of in accordance with the postal regulations, except as provided in J. R. 19 (a) to 19 (c) and 20 (a) to 20 (c).

ART. 372. Treatment at offices of examination—Shipments exceeding $100 in value—(a) J. R. 12a.—When a single shipment exceeds $100 in value and is addressed for delivery at a customs port or station, the customs officer handling the shipment at the exchange post office of first receipt or at the distributing office to which the shipment has been redispatched in accordance with the special distribution scheme, shall transmit therewith customs Form 3511, using mail entry tag envelope, addressed to the collector of customs in care of the postmaster at destination; attach the tag envelope to the package and return the latter to the postmaster for dispatch to destination. When the shipment consists of more than one package, customs label, customs Form 3435, also shall be used. The postmaster at destination shall submit such packages to the customs officer, who shall sign card, customs Form 3511, and return it to the issuing collector, who shall note its return on customs Form 3515. The customs officer handling the shipment at the office where the merchandise has been examined and found to be subject to formal entry shall also prepare, in quadruplicate, customs Form 3509 (notification to addressee or consignee to make formal entry) and mail the original copy to the addressee or consignee; send one copy to the comptroller of customs of the comptroller district in which the port of destination is located; forward one copy to the collector of customs, or deputy collector of customs, where the addressee or consignee is located, and retain the remaining copy as an office record.

(b) J. R. 12b.—When addressed to a point which is not a customs port or station, the customs officer handling the shipment at the office where the merchandise has been examined and found to be subject to formal entry shall prepare, in quadruplicate, customs Form 3509, notifying the addressee or consignee to make formal entry at the port where said form was issued. The customs officer shall mail the original copy of the form to the addressee or consignee; send one copy to the comptroller of customs of the district in which the form is issued; deliver one copy to the entry division at his port, and retain the remaining copy as an office record.

(c) J. R. 12c.—When a mail shipment treated in accordance with J. R. 12a is returned to the sender or forwarded outside the jurisdiction of the United States the collector delivering the shipment to the postmaster for that purpose shall obtain the latter's indorsement as to the dispatch of the shipment on the collector's copy of customs Form 3509 and forward it to his comptroller, who shall notify the collector of the port at which the form was issued. When a shipment treated in accordance with J. R. 12b is so returned or forwarded the collector of the port at which customs Form 3509 was issued shall obtain the postmaster's indorsement on the form and forward it to his comptroller. When for any other reason the merchandise is not entered the collector of customs having custody of the shipment shall indorse customs Form 3509 to show the disposition of the merchandise and forward the form to his comptroller.

(d) J. R. 12d.—Sealed articles not endorsed or labeled as required by J. R. 8a, which are found after opening in accordance with J. R. 11c to contain merchandise valued at not more than $100 shall be subjected to formal entry in accordance with J. R. 12a and 12b. In such cases the customs officer preparing the notice to make formal entry (customs Form 3509) shall note thereon that the shipment is subject to a penalty equal to 10 percent of the duty and that such penalty must be deposited prior to the release of the merchandise. The collector of customs at the place where formal entry is made shall record the transaction on customs Form 5211 and schedule the penalty when collected on customs Form 5161–B. The duty shall be accounted for as such in the regular manner.

ART. 373. J. R. 13—Forwarding after customs treatment.—After the merchandise has been examined, appraised, and assessed with duty and the entry form is attached thereto in the case of shipments valued at less than $100, it shall be retained by or returned to the postmaster for delivery or dispatch to destination or for appropriate treatment under the Postal Laws and Regulations, except as indicated in J. R. 20 (a) to 20 (c) relating to matter subject to seizure.

ART. 374. Repacking parcels—Damage—Rifling—(a) J. R. 14a.—Postal and customs employees shall exercise proper care in repacking the contents of parcels examined by them. Particular care shall be exercised in the case of articles of glass or other articles of an easily breakable nature, to see that they are repacked in the same condition as when the package was opened or in better condition. All original wrappers, labels, tags, customs declarations, and other articles contained in the packages shall be repacked therein. Where it can be shown that an article has sustained damage as the result of improper repacking, the negligent employee will be held personally responsible for the damage. When packages are received in damaged condition by postal employees, notation shall be made on the address side of the wrapper, showing the nature and extent of the damage, to be followed by the signature of the employee making the written statement.

(b) J. R. 14b.—When a damaged or rifled package reaches a customs employee, a "Damage notice", customs Form 6423, or a shortage slip, customs Form 6425, as the occasion may require, shall be inclosed, a written report thereof promptly made to the local postmaster, and the damage or rifling taken into account in the appraisement and the assessment of duty.

(c) J. R. 14c.—Envelopes containing entry forms shall be so affixed to mail articles that they will not become mutilated or detached in transit. When possible they shall be placed under and attached to the twine used in wrapping the parcel, where the twine crosses on the address side. Upon receipt of such mail articles with entry form attached postmasters shall make appropriate records for tracing and accounting purposes. Any postmaster receiving or handling an article from which the entry form has become detached shall endeavor to locate the entry form and reaffix the same to the article; and if unable to do so, shall hold the article and communicate with the collector of customs at the office where the article was examined as shown by the stamp thereon.

ART. 375. Mail entries—Issuance.—(a) Customs officers will issue mail entries in quadruplicate on customs Form 3419 for articles subject to duty, and on customs Form 3421 for articles subject to fine. Information concerning the merchandise shall be stated on the entry in the following order:

(1) Quantity; (2) commercial name; (3) description in the terms of the tariff act, and (4) the number of the paragraph of the tariff act covering the item. The original and duplicate copies of the entry shall be placed in a tag envelope attached to the package for disposition by the postmaster according to the instructions printed on the back of the entry. The triplicate copy should be sent immediately to the comptroller of customs, and the quadruplicate copy retained in the files of the issuing office.

(b) Mail entries shall not be issued covering articles unconditionally free of duty, but formal entry is required for such articles when the value thereof exceeds $100.

(c) When the aggregate value of two or more parcels arriving in the same mail from one sender to one addressee does not exceed $100, one mail entry may be issued covering all the parcels in which event a label, customs Form 3435, shall be affixed to each of the parcels not accompanied by the mail entry, showing the total number of parcels covered by the entry, and notifying the postmaster that the entry will be found attached to one of the parcels.

(d) Report should be submitted (on customs Form 3517) through the headquarters port to the "Commissioner of Customs", Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., promptly at the close of business on the last day of each fiscal year, showing the number of parcels handled and the entries issued during the fiscal year, as specified on the form.

ART. 376. Treatment of cigars, cigarettes, cheroots, and tobacco products, oleomargarine, and playing cards.—(a) Customs officers will fill out, sign, and attach to mail entries covering cigars, cigarettes, cheroots, and tobacco products, oleomargarine and playing cards, internal revenue Form 923 (request to sell internal-revenue stamps). The addressee shall procure the stamps, affix them to the immediate containers of the merchandise, and cancel the stamps before the parcel is delivered to him. When the packages are addressed for delivery at places other than where examined by customs officers and where no collector of internal revenue is located, the customs officer will also fill out and attach to the mail entry customs Form 3473, and forward the same to the postmaster with the package.

(b) Customs inspection stamps shall be affixed to the immediate containers of the cigars, etc., by customs officers, and canceled by them, before the packages are released for delivery.

(c) At the option of the sender and upon compliance with the provisions of T. D. 44208 (modified to require the preparation of customs Form 3419 in quadruplicate), customs duty and internal-revenue tax may be prepaid at Jacksonville, Fla., upon mail shipments of cigars from Cuba not exceeding $100 in value.

(NOTE.—Sec. 2804, R. S., as amended by the Tariff Act of 1894, making it unlawful to import less than 3,000 cigars (including cigarettes and cheroots) in a single package, was repealed by sec. 651 (a) (4) of the Tariff Act of 1930.)

ART. 377. Transmission of funds and accounting for entries.—(a) J. R. 15a.—Postmasters and Navy mail clerks or assistants, upon delivery of dutiable articles to addressees, shall collect the duty (or fine) and immediately forward same by means of certified checks or official postal checks, with the mail entry, as directed thereon, accompanied by receipt, customs Form 3437, in duplicate, in penalty envelope, by ordinary mail, to the customs officer who issued the entry. The customs officer shall promptly acknowledge receipt.

(b) J. R. 15b.—If it is impossible to make remittances by certified checks or official postal checks, then the duty (or fine) collected shall be remitted at once in the form of currency in the registered mails, and all the requirements of section 115 of the Postal Laws and Regulations as to describing the money and witnessing its inclosure, shall be followed by the postmaster at the remitting office. The mail entry and receipt customs Form 3437, in duplicate, shall also accompany the cash remittance.

(c) J. R. 15c.—The receiving customs officer shall designate two employees, both of whom shall take part in opening each registered package containing a remittance in currency, and shall examine and count the contents and compare the same with the remittance letter. If any discrepancy is found in the amounts, it shall be carefully noted on the letter, over the initials of both witnesses, and on the letter envelope, which shall be forwarded to the postoffice inspector in charge of the division in which the office of mailing is located, with a report giving a description of the missing money, as entered in the remittance letter. The postmaster or other remitting officer shall at the same time be notified by the receiving customs officer of the discrepancy, the particulars of which shall be clearly specified.

(d) J. R. 15d.—Customs officers issuing mail entries shall review their records of such entries weekly and promptly request postmasters on customs Form 3439 to account for entries not returned within 30 days after the date of issuance thereof accompanied by the duty or proper evidence of exemption from duty. Should the postmaster fail to make proper accounting within a reasonable time, the facts shall be reported to the Chief Post Office Inspector, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C., for investigation. In the case of delinquencies arising at ports of entry other than headquarters ports, the report to the chief inspector shall be made through the headquarters port. The chief inspector shall promptly advise the collector of customs of the result of the investigation.

(e) When the chief post-office inspector reports that the duty is uncollectible, the collector shall request authority from the Bureau for the cancelation of the mail entry.

(f) J. R. 15e.—Mail entries covering undelivered dutiable articles shall be returned to the collector of customs who issued them, after first being marked by postmasters to show the reason for nondelivery of the articles and the disposition made thereof. The parcels shall be similarly marked to show why delivery was not made and forwarded to the proper exchange post office for return to the country of origin, unless the contents thereof are liable to deterioration or corruption, in which case they may be destroyed by the postal officials, if having no commercial value. If having commercial value, they shall be delivered, with the mail entries covering the same to the nearest customs officer for disposition as unclaimed or seized articles. The customs officer receiving and disposing of such articles shall make proper notation on the mail entry and return it to the customs officer who issued it. Appropriate note shall be made in the post office records. See J. R. 14 (c).

(g) Mail entries in proper cases will be forwarded to the collector at the headquarters port for amendment and cancelation and transmission to the comptroller of customs of that district for verification and return. When the original and duplicate have been lost, copies in lieu thereof, on customs Form 3419–A, will be forwarded.

(h) J. R. 15f.—When an article covered by a mail entry is redirected to another post office, the postmaster at the forwarding office shall notify the customs officer who issued the entry, and shall inclose the entry in a properly readdressed penalty envelope securely attached to the article covered thereby.

ART. 378. Liquidation.—Mail entries on customs Form 3419 will be scheduled on customs Form 5171 and liquidated in accordance with article 830.

ART. 379. Fines and duties—How accounted for.—Fines and duties collected on mail importations shall be reported on customs Forms 5161–B and 5171, respectively. Such collections will be accounted for to the headquarters ports as in the case of other collections. The mail entries and schedules will be forwarded to headquarters daily, weekly, or monthly, as the volume of business may require.

ART. 380. Dissatisfied addresses—Procedure—(a) J. R. 16a.—Amounts collected on mail entry forms shall not be refunded by postmasters. Should an addressee be dissatisfied with the charges he should notify in writing the postmaster, who shall hold the package and report the facts to the collector of customs who issued the entry, forwarding such papers or statements as the addressee may submit.

The mail article shall not be delivered until authority therefor is given by the collector of customs. The addressee may decline to accept delivery, in which event the parcel shall be marked by the postmaster "REFUSED" and disposed of pursuant to the provisions of article 389 (J. R. 19) of these regulations.

(b) J. R. 16b.—If the addressee of a parcel covered by an informal mail entry objects to the rate or amount of duty assessed or to the valuation placed upon the merchandise for customs purpose and the collector is satisfied by a report of a customs officer who has reexamined the merchandise or by other sufficient evidence that the objection is well founded, the collector may reclassify the merchandise or, with the concurrence of the appraising officer, amend the value, even though the merchandise has been delivered to the addressee, provided such action is taken before liquidation or within sixty days thereafter. Informal mail entries may be reliquidated to allow a claim of the addressee after the expiration of sixty days after liquidation only if a protest has been filed in the form and manner prescribed in section 514 of the tariff act.

(c) J. R. 16c.—Fines covered into the Treasury cannot be refunded unless they have been erroneously collected. Applications for refund of fines should be transmitted to the Bureau of Customs with date and number of the certificate of deposit.

ART. 381. Protest and reappraisement.—Liquidation of mail entries is subject to protest as in the case of formal entries. It is not, however, subject to an appeal to reappraisement unless formal entry has been made.

ART. 382. Articles conditionally free.—(a) When the appraising officers' return shall indicate that the contents of a parcel may be conditionally free of duty under the Tariff Act of 1930, they will be described in the mail entry so as to indicate their character, and forwarded to the postmaster for delivery, accompanied by the appropriate blank form of affidavit for free entry, and a notice on customs Form 3433.

(b) When institutions file evidence to show that they are entitled to import books, music, and similar articles free of duty the names of such institutions may be placed on a "free list", to be kept by collectors for that purpose, provided the institution agrees in writing under oath to notify the collector in the event articles not the sole property of the institution arrive addressed to the institution.

(c) Mail importations containing such articles will be passed free of duty without requiring an affidavit to be filed in each case, provided the parcels are addressed directly to such institution.

(d) Importations from the Philippine Islands (T. D. 31781 and T. D. 38739), Virgin Islands (T. D. 37089), Guam and American Samoa (T. D. 23759 and T. D. 41839), are entitled to free entry when accompanied by a certificate of origin from the chief customs officer at the port of shipment showing that such articles are the growth or produce of those islands or, in the case of Guam and American Samoa only, that they were actual importations into those islands. When the article is not accompanied by such certificate when required as a condition to free entry, estimated duty should be collected and the addressee advised by notation on the copy of the entry form (customs Form 3419) tendered as a receipt that the estimated duty may be refunded upon production of the certificate within 6 months. In such cases liquidation of the entry should be suspended for a period of 6 months from the date of the entry. Upon the production of the certificate within 6 months the entry should be liquidated free of duty and the estimated duty refunded. Otherwise the entry should be liquidated as dutiable. Shipments valued at $10 or less are not required to be accompanied by such certificates if the collector is otherwise satisfied that the articles are entitled to free entry. (See ch. V as to the treatment of shipments over $100 in value.)

ART. 383. J. R. 17—Administration of oaths.—The postmaster or assistant postmaster of the United States at any post office where customs officers are not stationed, is authorized to administer any oaths required to be made to statements in customs documents by importers of merchandise, not exceeding $100 in value, through the mails.

ART. 384. Canal Zone.—Shipments between the United States and the Canal Zone will be treated in all respects as shipments to and from foreign countries. The customs administration of the Canal Zone is under the jurisdiction of the Governor of the Panama Canal.

ART. 385. J. R. 18—Navy mail service.—Navy mail clerks, or assistants, shall mark with the words "Supposed liable to customs duty" all articles addressed for delivery in the United States or any of its possessions mailed on board United States naval vessels which may contain matter subject to United States customs duty. All articles of foreign origin, received for delivery on board United States naval vessels, in the waters of the United States which may contain matter subject to United States customs duty, but not marked "Supposed liable to customs duty", and not showing evidence of having been passed upon by United States customs officers, shall be marked "Supposed liable to customs duty" and forwarded to the nearest collector of customs for treatment in accordance with these regulations. If the vessel is in foreign waters, articles may be delivered without submission to customs officers or the collection of duty; and if accompanied by a mail entry form, such form shall be indorsed to show that the vessel was in foreign waters when delivery was made, and then returned to the customs officer who issued it. Articles of merchandise of foreign origin may enter the area (both land and water) of the Guantanamo Bay Naval Station free of customs duty, but such articles are subject to duty upon their subsequent entry into the United States.

ART. 386. Packages addressed to commercial vessels.—Dutiable packages addressed to persons on commercial vessels in harbor bound for a foreign port are subject to duty unless remailed to a foreign destination or otherwise exported under customs supervision.

ART. 387. Exportation by mail.—(a) Articles of foreign origin subject to duty may be exported by mail provided the packages are inspected and mailed under customs supervision. Where registry service is maintained between the United States and the country of destination, exportation shall be made by registered mail and the postal registry receipt therefor shall be delivered to the customs officer to be attached to his return of shipment.

(b) Waiver of the right to withdraw the package from the mails must be indorsed on each package and signed by the exporter, and the customs officer must state in his return that such waiver was so indorsed. The postmaster shall not permit any package so indorsed to be withdrawn from the mail.

(c) Plant material may be imported by mail, for immediate exportation by mail, under customs supervision, free of customs duty, subject to the regulations contained in T. D. 48237 (A).

(d) Mail articles of foreign origin addressed to, or in care of, an air transportation agency in the United States (located at a customs port), containing merchandise intended for immediate exportation by such agency, may be exported, under customs supervision, free of duty, subject to the regulations contained in T. D. 48237 (B).

ART. 388. Advisory appraisement.—Articles imported by mail on which appraising officers desire advisory appraisement should be forwarded to the Customs Information Exchange at New York, as in the case of merchandise otherwise imported, with such variations in practice as may be required by the joint regulations governing importations by mail.

ART. 389. Failure of addressee to take delivery—(a)—J. R. 19a.—If the addressee fails to respond within 30 days to a notice sent him as required by J. R. 11 (c), 12 (a) or 12 (b), the article shall be treated as undelivered, except in the case of a registered article, which, under the postal regulations, is required to be held for a longer period, and except also as provided in J. R. 20 (a) to 20 (c) for articles subject to seizure.

(b) J. R. 19b.—If the addressee of an article declines to accept delivery, it shall be rewrapped or reenveloped, marked "Refused", and treated as other undeliverable mail matter, except as provided in J. R. 20 (a) to 20 (c), for articles subject to seizure. In the case of registered matter, the receipt also shall be marked "Refused."

(c) J. R. 19c.—If for any reason an undelivered article known or supposed to be dutiable is not returned to the country of origin, it shall be delivered to the proper customs officer for disposition under the customs laws and regulations governing seized or unclaimed articles as the case may be.

ART. 390. Seizure under the customs laws.—(a) J. R. 20a.—Articles arriving at a post office where no customs officer is located and with respect to which the postmaster may have information as to their seizable character, shall be detained by the postmaster and, except when known or supposed to contain lottery matter, shall be forwarded to the nearest customs officer for appropriate treatment under the customs laws and regulations. Sealed articles not indorsed as required by J. R. 8 (a) should first be opened by the addressee. In the case of registered articles the addressee's receipt should be obtained. If the addressee refuses to receipt for or open the article, it shall be delivered to the customs officer for disposition under the customs laws and regulations.

(b) J. R. 20b.—Except when known or supposed to contain lottery matter, articles brought into the United States contrary to law and placed in the mails shall, upon the production to the postmaster or postal employee of satisfactory evidence to that effect, be marked "Imported contrary to law: Seizable." Unsealed articles, not registered, when so marked, shall be delivered immediately to the nearest customs officer to be treated as required by the customs laws and regulations. Sealed articles and all registered articles when so marked shall be forwarded to the post office of delivery to be opened by the addressee (after receipt has been given in the case of a registered article) in the presence of the postmaster, who shall then deliver the article to the nearest customs officer for treatment, as provided above for unsealed articles. If the addressee refuses to receipt for or open the article, it shall be delivered to the customs officer for disposition under the customs laws and regulations.

(c) J. R. 20c.—All articles except lottery matter which are prohibited importation and all articles subject to seizure as being imported or brought into the United States in any manner contrary to law, including articles subject to seizure under the customs laws because of a false or fraudulent invoice or declaration covering the same, or for any willful act or omission on the part of any consignor, seller, owner, importer, consignee, or agent, by means whereof the United States shall or may be deprived of the lawful duties, shall be immediately taken and held by customs officers for appropriate treatment under the customs laws. All articles known or believed to contain merchandise, of which the addressee refuses to take delivery, or declines to make formal entry when requested by the customs officer in cases where the appraised value exceeds the value shown in the declaration or invoice, shall be delivered to customs officers for treatment under the customs laws upon production to postmasters of satisfactory evidence of fraudulent intent on the part of any of the persons mentioned in this section. In all cases where articles are seized by customs officers, they shall notify the addressee of that fact and the reason therefor. Such reason shall be noted also on the receipt covering registered mail.

(d) J. R. 20d.—Mail articles of all classes, sealed or unsealed, which, upon inspection or examination, are found to contain or are supposed to contain lottery matter, prohibited importation under section 305 of the Tariff Act of 1930, or enclosures pertaining thereto, shall be retained by the Postal Service, or delivered to that services by the Customs Service, for disposition under the Postal Laws and Regulations. If such an article is found to contain other merchandise, the articles shall be held by, or delivered to, the Customs Service for appropriate treatment under the customs laws and regulations.

ART. 391. Undervalued shipments—Release of.—(a)—When the collector is satisfied that there was no willful violation of the law and that steps have been or will be taken to prevent a repetition of the offense, if the merchandise is valued at less than $100 it may be released upon payment of the full amount of duties thereon, the amount to be accounted for as duties.

(b) If the collector is of the opinion that there has been a willful violation of the law and the value is less than $100, the merchandise may be released upon payment of a fine equal to the domestic value thereof, the amount to be collected and reported as a fine.

(c) Merchandise prohibited entry by reason of its nature, such as obscene articles, narcotics, firearms by mail, copyright matter, wild-bird plumage, postage-stamp reproductions, etc., and sealed mail articles not labeled or indorsed as required by J. R. 8 (a), may not be released under the foregoing provisions of this article.

ART. 392. J. R. 21—Marking importations to show country of origin, etc.—The requirements of the customs laws and regulations relating to the marking, stamping, branding, or labeling of imported merchandise shall be strictly enforced. When a mail article not marked, stamped, branded, or labeled as required by such provisions is not to be delivered from the post office where it has been given a customs examination, the examining customs officer shall place in the envelope containing the mail entry a copy of customs Form 3475, containing instructions to the postmaster relative thereto. Mail importations of trifling value, or for personal use of the importer, or for use in his home, factory, or place of business, and not intended for sale or distribution, may be released without marking to indicate the country of origin (art. 532 (a) (3) of these regulations) and without the assessment of any marking duty. When the mail article is to be delivered from the post office where it has been given customs examination, the customs officials shall require compliance with the provisions of the law and regulations. Mail shipments for formal entry shall be accorded treatment as prescribed for other formal entry shipments. Upon failure of an addressee to comply with the requirements, the article and the mail entry shall be treated as set forth in J. R. 15 (e) for undelivered articles.

ART. 393. J. R. 22—Examination of newspapers.—Postmasters and other postal employees shall permit customs officers to examine newspapers received in the mails from foreign countries as often as they may desire to do so, and shall assist in such examination when necessary.

ART. 394. (a) J. R. 23a—Prohibited and restricted importations.—Postal and customs officers and employees shall keep themselves informed as to the law and regulations covering obscene, seditious, and lottery matter, copyrighted, trademarked, and other articles prohibited importation in the mails. The importation by mail of intoxicating liquors, opium, morphine, cocaine, and other narcotics, and firearms capable of being concealed on the person is prohibited. See J. R. 20 (a) to 20 (c). Plants and plant products, including seeds and bulbs of all kinds for, or capable of, propagation may be imported into the United States only under the conditions set forth in the Plant Quarantine Act, amendments thereto, and regulations thereunder. All such articles shall be submitted to customs officials for fulfillment of the requirements of the law. Viruses, serums, toxins, and other biological products covered by the act of July 1, 1902, may be imported only in accordance with the provisions of the act and the regulations thereunder and shall, therefore, in all cases be submitted to customs representatives, who shall, before returning the merchandise to the country of origin, communicate with the addressee to determine whether such importations are in compliance with the law and regulations. (See secs. 460, 467 to 478, 506, 626, 627, and 631, Postal Laws and Regulations of 1924.)

(b) J. R. 23b.—Instructions applicable to the foregoing and to other articles prohibited importation, or requiring special treatment, based on postal and customs laws and regulations, and also list of post offices where customs officers are located, will be found in the current annual official Postal Guide.

ART. 395. J. R. 24—Distribution scheme.—The postal and customs officers at the ports of New York, Chicago, San Francisco, and Seattle will be furnished with copies of the special scheme of mail distribution referred to in these regulations.

DOMESTIC PRODUCTS EXPORTED AND RETURNED

ART. 396. Free entry authorized.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 201, paragraph 1615:

SEC. 201. That on and after the day following the passage of this Act, except as otherwise specially provided for in this Act, the articles mentioned in the following paragraphs, when imported into the United States or into any of its possessions (except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, and the island of Guam), shall be exempt from duty:

PAR. 1615. Articles, the growth, produce, or manufacture of the United States, when returned after having been exported, without having been advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other means if imported by or for the account of the person who exported them from the United States; steel boxes, casks, barrels, carboys, bags, and other containers or coverings of American manufacture exported filled with American products, or exported empty and returned filled with foreign products, including shooks and staves when returned as barrels or boxes; also quicksilver flasks or bottles, drums of iron, steel, or other metal of either domestic or foreign manufacture, used for the shipment of acids or other chemicals, which shall have been actually exported from the United States; but proof of the identity of such articles shall be made, under general regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, but the exemption of bags from duty shall apply only to such domestic bags as may be imported by the exporter thereof, and if any such articles are subject to internal-revenue tax at the time of exportation, such tax shall be proved to have been paid before exportation and not refunded; photographic dry plates and films of American manufacture (except moving-picture films to be used for commercial purposes) exposed abroad, whether developed or not, and photographic films light struck or otherwise damaged, or worn out, so as to be unsuitable for any other purpose than the recovery of the constituent materials, provided the basic films are of American manufacture, but proof of the identity of such articles shall be made under general regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury; • • • The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to animals made dutiable under the provisions of paragraph 1606.

(b) The requirement that articles of American origin be imported by or for the account of the person who exported them from the United States in order to be free of duty under this paragraph, does not apply to the following articles:

(1) Steel boxes, casks, barrels, carboys, and similar containers or coverings (not including bags) exported filled with American products, or exported empty and returned filled with foreign products, including shooks and staves when returned as barrels or boxes.

(2) Quicksilver flasks or bottles, and metal drums used for the shipment of acids and other chemicals.

(3) Photographic dry plates and films (except moving-picture films to be used for commercial purposes) exposed abroad, whether developed or not, and photographic films light struck or otherwise damaged or worn out so as to be unsuitable for any other purpose than the recovery of the constituent materials.

(c) Articles subject to duty in the amount of the drawback under the first proviso to paragraph 1615, or subject to duty in the amount of the internal-revenue tax imposed on such articles at the time of reimportation, need not be shown to have been imported by or for the account of the person who exported them from the United States.

(d) Animals straying across the border or driven across the border for pasturage purposes or for feeding to improve them for the market and not returned within eight months are excluded from free entry as domestic products returned.

ART. 397. Requirements on entry.—(a) The following documents shall be filed in connection with the entry:

1. A declaration of the foreign shipper certified by the American consular officer (consular Form 129) if the value exceeds $100. This declaration will be accepted in lieu of a consular invoice.

2. An affidavit of the owner, importer, consignee, or agent on customs Form 3311.

3. A certificate (customs Form 4467) of the collector of customs at the port from which the merchandise was exported from the United States. Such certificate must show whether or not drawback was claimed or paid on the merchandise covered by the certificate and if paid, the amount thereof. This certificate will be issued on application of the importer or the collector at the importer's request, and be mailed direct to the port at which it is to be used, and its issuance noted on the export manifest or shipper's export declaration, or on a memorandum attached thereto, reference to the memorandum being made on the export manifest or export declaration, in order that the issuance of duplicate certificates of exportation may be avoided. If the merchandise has been exported from the port at which entry is made, exportation must appear on the records of the customhouse and the fact of reimportation shall be noted on such export records.

(b) If the appraising officer's report does not show that merchandise the value of which exceeds $100 is of domestic origin the collector may require the affidavit (customs Form 3311) to be executed by the owner or ultimate consignee, such affidavit to be filed within three months after date of demand on importer.

(c) If any person other than the shipper of record claims to be the exporter of merchandise for the purpose of showing that the merchandise was imported by or for the account of the person who exported it from the United States, there should be filed in connection with the entry, in addition to the evidence above required, an affidavit of the importer to the effect that the goods were exported by his order or for his account, and an affidavit of the shipper of record setting forth the circumstances under which the shipment was made. If, however, the collector is satisfied that it is impracticable for the importer to produce the affidavit of the shipper, other satisfactory evidence may be accepted in lieu thereof. Similar evidence may be required in support of any claim that the merchandise is imported for the account of a person not named in the entry. In cases of doubt the question should be referred to the Bureau for instructions.

(d) In the case of moving-picture films exposed abroad, the importer shall, in addition to the other requirements, satisfy the collector by affidavit and if the collector deems it necessary, other evidence, that they are for noncommercial use, provided that, in the discretion of the collector, such moving-picture films brought in as passengers' baggage may be passed free of duty without compliance with the requirements of this article if the collector is satisfied that the basic film is of American manufacture and that it is not to be used for commercial purposes.

ART. 398. Waiver of evidence.—(a) The collector may waive record evidence of exportation and declaration of the foreign shipper, provided for in article 397 (a), if he is satisfied by the production of other evidence that the articles for which free entry under paragraph 1615 is sought are of domestic origin, were imported by or for the account of the exporter (in cases to which that requirement applies), have not been advanced in value or improved in condition while abroad, and that no drawback was allowed or paid on exportation. However, a bond given for the production of a consular invoice, or foreign shipper's declaration in lieu thereof, shall not be canceled without the payment of liquidated damages, notwithstanding the declaration of the foreign shipper is waived for the purpose of permitting free entry.

(b) No evidence relative to the conditions of paragraph 1615 will be required in the case of articles of domestic manufacture, not dutiable as unusual coverings or containers, in use at the time of importation as coverings or containers of merchandise not subject to an ad valorem rate of duty, unless the free entry of such articles under paragraph 1615 is dependent upon their return to the exporter, or unless such articles would be dutiable if not of American manufacture, under special provisions of the tariff act, such as paragraphs 217, 328, and 408.

ART. 399. Drawback—Internal-revenue tax.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1615 (free list).

• • • This paragraph shall not apply to any article upon which an allowance of drawback has been made, the reimportation of which is hereby prohibited except upon payment of duties equal to the drawbacks allowed; or to any article manufactured in bonded warehouse and exported under any provision of law; except that it shall apply to articles (not dutiable under section 504 as unusual coverings and containers) used as coverings or containers for merchandise not subject to an ad valorem rate of duty: Provided further, That when manufactured tobacco which has been exported without payment of internal-revenue tax shall be reimported it shall be retained in the custody of the collector of customs until internal-revenue stamps in payment of the legal duties shall be placed thereon: • • •

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, section 314:

Upon the reimportation of articles once exported, of the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States, upon which no internal tax has been assessed or paid, or upon which such tax has been paid and refunded by allowance or drawback, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a duty equal to the tax imposed upon such articles by the internal revenue laws at the time of reimportation, except articles manufactured in bonded warehouses and exported pursuant to law, which shall be subject to the same rate of duty as if originally imported, but proof of the identity of such articles shall be made under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

(c) The following articles, not dutiable as unusual coverings or containers, in use at the time of importation as coverings or containers for merchandise not subject to an ad valorem rate of duty, should be admitted free of duty, although exported with benefit of drawback:

(1) Drums, steel boxes, casks, barrels, carboys, bags, and similar substantial outer containers and coverings of American manufacture, exported filled with American products, or exported empty and returned filled with foreign products, including shooks and staves, when returned as boxes or barrels; and

(2) Other coverings and containers of American manufacture, if imported by or for the account of the person who exported them from the United States, and not advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other means. Filling, sealing, and labeling are held to advance the value of the contents rather than that of the containers.

(d) In the case of all other articles, the entry shall not be liquidated free of duty unless the collector is satisfied from the certificate of exportation or other evidence satisfactory to the collector that no drawback was allowed or paid at the time of exportation and that the merchandise is not subject to a duty equal to the internal-revenue tax on similar articles in force at the time of reimportation.

(e) Articles manufactured in bonded warehouse and exported shall be subject on reimportation to duty and internal-revenue tax as foreign merchandise.

ART. 400. Articles retained on export vessel.—(a) A certificate from the master of a vessel showing that articles of domestic production are returned in the same vessel without having been unladen may be accepted in lieu of a declaration of the foreign shipper, consular Form 129.

(b) Bags of American or foreign manufacture constituting part of a vessel's equipment may be retained on board or landed temporarily and reladen on such vessel under customs supervision without entry or payment of duty.

ART. 401. Internal-revenue marks—Erasure.—Internal-revenue brands or marks on casks or other vessels or containers must be erased at the importer's expense under customs supervision before delivery from customs custody.

ART. 402. Shooks and staves—Consular account.—(a) Pursuant to paragraph 1615, American shooks and staves reimported in the form of complete boxes or barrels filled with foreign products are exempt from any duties imposed by the tariff laws upon similar containers made of foreign shooks or staves, provided their identity is established under these regulations.

(b) The term "shook" embraces only shooks which, at the time of exportation from this country, are ready to be assembled into boxes or barrels without further cutting to size; except that box shooks may be exported in double lengths and cut abroad, provided that the number of boxes made from such shooks which may be imported into this country free of duty cannot exceed the number of sets of shooks exported.

(c) American shooks may be reimported as the sides, tops, and bottoms of boxes containing fruit upon the payment of duty on the boxes at one-half the rate imposed on similar boxes of entirely foreign growth and manufacture. Proof as to the identity of such shooks shall be made under these regulations.

(d) An exporter of shooks or staves for which free entry or a reduction in duty is to be claimed when returned as boxes or barrels shall file with the collector of customs at the port of exportation, at least 6 hours before the lading of the articles on the exporting vessel, a notice of intent to export, customs Form 4481.

(e) Upon the receipt of such notice of intent, the collector shall designate a customs officer to examine and verify the shipment, supervise the lading thereof on the exporting vessel, and report the facts in regard thereto by indorsement on the notice of intent.

(f) A certificate of exportation, customs Form 4479, describing the shooks and staves in the manner set forth in the notice of intent to export, will be issued by the collector in duplicate after verification from the manifest of the exporting vessel and the return of the lading officer. The certificate shall show the number of bundles of shooks and staves exported, the number of shooks of each size, and the number of superficial feet of lumber contained in the shipment. The original certificate shall be forwarded by the collector to the American consul for the district to which the shooks and staves are exported, and the copy shall be given to the exporter. If the shipment is to a "no consul" district, the original certificate shall be forwarded to the consignee.

(g) Accounts are kept by American consular officers of the shooks and staves for which certificates of exportation are received by them, showing the number of shooks of each size and the number of superficial feet of lumber therein received in each consular district, and the boxes and barrels made from such shooks for which consular shook certificates have been issued.

ART. 403. Same—Certificates of foreign shipper and box maker.—(a) A foreign shipper desiring to export to the United States boxes or barrels alleged to have been made from American shooks, shall execute and file in the American consulate, preferably with the invoice covering the merchandise contained in such boxes or barrels a "certificate of foreign shipper" (consular Form 130), stating that the boxes or barrels were made from American shooks or staves, and identifying the latter with the certificate covering their exportation from the United States. This certificate shall be in the following form:

I, _____, of _____, do hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the boxes and (or) barrels mentioned in (the annexed invoice)[1] (invoice No. _____, of _____, 19__)[1] are made (wholly)[1] (except for the ends and partitions)[1] of shooks (or staves) of the manufacture of the United States, as stated in the accompanying certificate of _____, box maker; that the shooks (or staves) were exported from _____, per S. S. _____, on _____, 19__, and that the said boxes (or barrels) (will be)[1] (have been)[1] filled with _____, covered by the above-mentioned invoice, and (will be)[1] (have been)[1] shipped to the port of _____, in the United States, per S. S. _____, sailing from _____, on _____, 19__.

Dated at _____ this _____ day of _____, 19__.

(Shipper)

(b) There shall be annexed to the certificate of the foreign shipper, on the same or a separate form, a certificate of the box maker, stating that the boxes or barrels were made from American shooks or staves, and showing the number of boxes or barrels in the shipment, the dimensions of each, and number of shooks or staves of each size,

(Box maker)

(c) The consul, after verification of the certificates of the shipper and box maker from the records of his office, will issue a certificate as follows:

I, ------ ------, ------ of the United States of America at ------, do hereby certify that the certificates of the shipper and box maker required by the customs regulations have been filed with me, and that such certificates and the records of this consulate show that the boxes and (or) barrels described in (the annexed invoice)[1] (invoice No. ------, of ------, 19--)[1] were manufactured from shooks or staves covered by a certificate of exportation issued by the collector of customs at the port of ------, on ------, 19--, and exported from the port of ------, on the S. S. ------, which sailed on ------, 19--.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the seal of my office at ------, this ------ day of ------, 19--.

------ of the United States of America.

(d) If a claim is made by the importer at the time of entry for an exemption from duty on account of boxes or barrels in the importation made from American shooks or staves, the consular certificate may be accepted if produced at any time prior to the liquidation of the entry.

(e) In the case of a shipment from a "no consul" district, a sworn statement of the foreign shipper that the boxes or barrels were made from American shooks or staves, and identifying the shooks or staves used with the certificates covering their exportation from the United States, will be accepted in lieu of the consular certificate above described, provided the importer files an affidavit on customs Form 3311, appropriately modified.

ART. 404. Same—Shipment from different consular district.—Whenever boxes or barrels alleged to have been manufactured from American shooks or staves are shipped to the United States from a consular district other than that into which the shooks or staves were imported from the United States, the consul for the district from which the boxes or barrels are shipped shall require the consul for the district into which the shooks or staves were imported to forward the certificate or certificates (customs Form 4479) covering the exportation of the shooks or staves from the United States, or a verified extract therefrom, showing the number of shooks or staves covered by such certificate or certificates for which no consular shook certificate has been issued, together with the number of superficial feet in such shooks or staves.

ART. 405. Drums—Quicksilver flasks.—(a) Quicksilver flasks or bottles and metal drums, including those used for the shipment of acids or chemicals, if of domestic manufacture, should be entered under the general regulations governing the free entry of domestic products exported and returned. If the record evidence of exportation cannot be produced, the collector may accept other satisfactory evidence of payment or nonpayment of drawback. In the absence of satisfactory evidence as to the nonpayment of drawback, or as to the amount thereof paid, on metal drums of American manufacture, unless exempt from duty in accordance with article 399 (c), duty should be assessed in the amount of 24 cents per drum, the fair average amount of drawback paid on such articles.

(b) Flasks or bottles of foreign manufacture for the shipment of quicksilver, and metal drums of foreign manufacture for the shipment of acids or other chemicals, if actually exported from the United States and used on exportation or reimportation as containers of such articles, shall be exempt from duty if exported in accordance with the regulations contained in article 402 (c, d, e), except that the notice of intent shall be on customs Form 4481 and the certificate of exportation issued by the collector on customs Form 4473, and if there are filed in connection with the entry an affidavit of the importer on customs Form 3289 and certificates of the foreign shipper and the American consul as prescribed in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this article. When foreign quicksilver flasks or bottles are exported and returned, the forms mentioned should be appropriately modified. Prior to exportation from the United States the drums of foreign manufacture must be permanently and indelibly marked for identification by means of a plate or a steel die.

(c) A foreign shipper desiring to return to the United States any articles described in the preceding paragraph should furnish the American consul at the place of shipment with a certificate in the following form:

I, ------, ------ of ------, do hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the (drums) (bottles or flasks)[1] mentioned in (the annexed invoice) (invoice No. ------, of ------, 19--)[1] are of the manufacture of ------ and were exported from the United States at the port of ------, per S. S. ------, on ------, 19-- (empty ------) (filled with ------),[1] and that the same are being returned to the United States (empty ------) (filled with ------).[1]

---

(Shipper)

(d) The consul, after verification of the foreign shipper's certificate from the records of his office, will issue a certificate as follows:

I, ------ ------, ------ of the United States of America, at ------, do hereby certify that the facts set forth in the attached certificate are in accordance with the records of this consulate, and are, in my opinion, entitled to full faith and credit.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the seal of my office at ------, this ------ day of ------, 19--.

---------- of the United States of America.

(e) If claim for exemption from duty for foreign quicksilver flasks or bottles or drums is made at the time of entry, the certificates of the foreign shipper and American consul may be accepted if produced at any time prior to the liquidation of the entry.

(f) In the case of a shipment from a "no consul" district, a sworn statement of the foreign shipper in the form set forth in paragraph (c) of this article may be accepted without consular certification.

ART. 406. Cloth boards.—A record of cloth boards exported to be wrapped with foreign textiles shall be kept by American consuls similar to the record kept for shooks and staves. If such boards have been advanced in value or improved in condition while abroad, this fact should be noted on the certificates issued therefor, in order that free entry may be denied on importation. Collectors should be satisfied that such boards are being imported by or for the account of the exporter thereof before permitting free entry.

ART. 407. News-reel films.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1726 (free list):

• • • undeveloped negative moving-picture film of American manufacture exposed abroad for silent or sound news reel, • • •.

(b) The invoice should state the footage and title of each subject and there shall be furnished a statement of the cameraman, shipper, or other person having knowledge of the facts, identifying the films with the invoice and stating that the basic films are to the best of his knowledge and belief the manufacture of the United States, and that they have been exposed abroad and are shipped for use as news reel. There shall also be required an affidavit of the importer to the effect that he believes the films entered by him are the ones covered by the statement above referred to and that they are for use as news reel.

ART. 408. Articles exported for repairs.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1615 (free list):

[1] Cross out inapplicable words.

[1] Cross out inapplicable words.

• • • articles exported from the United States for repairs may be returned upon payment of a duty upon the value of the repairs at the rate at which the article itself would be subject if imported, under conditions and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury • • •.

(b) The foregoing provision of law applies to articles of either foreign or domestic origin.

(c) Prior to the exportation of such articles, an affidavit and application, in duplicate, on customs Form 4455, shall be filed with the collector of customs a sufficient time before the departure of the exporting conveyance to permit of the examination of the articles.

(d) Notification, on customs Form 4455, shall be sent the owner or exporter to deliver the articles to the place designated by the collector for examination. All expense in connection with the delivery of the articles, cording, sealing, and transfer to the exporting vessel or conveyance must be borne by the exporter.

(e) Upon delivery of the articles to the place designated by the collector, the appraiser shall cause them to be examined for the purpose of identification, and make his report on customs Form 4455. At the time of examination the articles shall, whenever possible, be marked, stamped, or tagged, in such manner as readily to secure their identification upon return to the United States. Photographs or other means of identification must be furnished appraising officers when required. The inspector at the place of lading for exportation shall supervise the lading of the articles on the exporting vessel or conveyance and execute the indorsement on customs Form 4455. Upon the receipt of the reports of the appraiser and inspector, showing the examination of the articles and their lading on the exporting conveyance, the collector will deliver to the exporter a duplicate of customs Form 4455.

(f) The provisions of paragraph (e) of this article shall be applied, as nearly as practicable, to articles exported by mail or parcel post, as well as to articles exported through other channels. The export procedure shall be in accordance with article 387.

(g) If at the time of reimportation the value of the articles, including repairs, exceeds $100 there shall be filed in connection with the entry an invoice showing separately the value of the articles in their repaired condition and the cost or value of the repairs. This invoice shall be certified by the American consul when the merchandise is of a class requiring a consular invoice, and shall have attached thereto a certificate, certified by an American consul, made by the party in the foreign country who made the repairs. This certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

(Place and date)

I, ------, do solemnly and truly declare, that the articles herein specified are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the identical articles received by (me, us) on ---------- 19----,

(Date of receipt)

from ----------, U. S. A.; that they were received by (me, us) for the sole purpose of being repaired; that the repairs described in detail below, and no other repairs, have actually been made by (me, us); that the cost or value of such repairs and the value of the articles after repair are correctly stated below; and that no substitution whatever has been made to replace any of the articles originally received by (me, us) from the owners thereof mentioned above.

(Name of owner in the United States)

Of the United States of America.

(h) There shall also be filed the certificate of registration (customs Form 4455) and a declaration made by the consignee, owner, or agent having knowledge of the facts, that the articles entered are the identical articles covered by the certificate of registration, and that the value or cost of repairs is correctly stated in the entry. In cases where an article exported and repaired abroad is imported by a person not a regular importer, and the exportation was not made in accordance with these regulations, the collector, if satisfied as to the bona fides of the transaction and that the exporter was ignorant of the regulation requirements, may waive the production of the certificate of registration (customs Form 4455) and compliance with so much of these regulations as relates to the exportation under such certificate.

(i) When the value of the returned articles, including the repairs, is less than $100, a bill or statement showing separately the value of the articles in their repaired condition and the cost or value of the repairs may be accepted in lieu of a certified consular invoice and the certificate of the party in the foreign country who made the repairs need not be filed.

(j) Collectors shall require at the time of entry a deposit of estimated duties, based upon the value of the repairs, and shall order all packages containing such articles to the appraiser's stores for identification of the articles and appraisement of the value of the repairs when necessary.

(k) Special investigations shall be made when there is suspicion that substitution has occurred, when there is question as to the amount and nature of the repairs, or in any other case when there is doubt as to the bona fides of a particular transaction.

(l) The word "repairs" as used in paragraph 1615 is hereby defined to mean any change, renovation, cleaning, redyeing, etc., which is necessary to restore an article to its original condition after decay, injury, deterioration, or partial destruction, when such change, renovation, etc., does not destroy the identity of the article exported or create a new or different article.

ART. 409. Books bound abroad.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1410:

• • • Exported books of domestic manufacture, when returned to the United States after having been advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other means, shall, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, be dutiable only on the cost of materials added and labor performed in a foreign country. • • •

(b) The procedure governing the exportation and assessment of duty on such books shall be the same as that provided in article 408 for articles exported for repairs, except that the collector should satisfy himself from the return of the appraiser or other satisfactory evidence that the books were of American manufacture.

HOUSEHOLD EFFECTS

ART. 410. Free entry authorized.—Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1632 (free list):

Books, libraries, usual and reasonable furniture, and similar household effects of persons or families from foreign countries if actually used abroad by them not less than 1 year, and not intended for any other person or persons, nor for sale.

ART. 411. Household effects defined.—(a) The free entry of household effects under paragraph 1632 is limited to such as are similar to books, libraries, furniture, carpets, paintings, tableware, and other usual household furnishings. Automobiles, horses, carriages, sleighs, boats, and similar articles, and wines, provisions, and other consumable supplies do not constitute similar household effects within the meaning of paragraph 1632.

(b) Articles such as office safes and office furniture used abroad in business pursuits are not entitled to free entry as household effects.

ART. 412. Declaration.—(a) A declaration of the owner (customs Form 3301) will be required in connection with the entry of articles under paragraph 1632.

(b) If it is impracticable to produce such declaration at the time of entry, the consignee may make declaration on customs Form 3303, and give bond on customs Form 7551 or 7553, for the production of the owner's declaration within 6 months.

ART. 413. Use abroad.—(a) Use abroad for one year must be proven to the satisfaction of the collector, who may in his discretion require evidence other than the declaration of the applicant. The year of use need not immediately precede the time of importation nor need it be continuous.

(b) As a general rule, household effects arriving more than 10 years after the arrival of the importer in the United States should not be admitted free under paragraph 1632.

(c) If, however, the collector is satisfied from the importer's explanation that the effects were unavoidably detained beyond the 10-year period, he may admit them to free entry under paragraph 1632 upon the filing of the declaration, customs Form 3301.

(d) In no case, however, should free entry be allowed under paragraph 1632 when a period of 25 years or more has elapsed since the time of the importer's arrival.

(e) The date of the last arrival of the importer from the country in which the effects were used may be taken in applying the time limitation.

(f) Household effects used abroad not less than 1 year by a family of which the importer was a resident member for not less than 1 year during such period of use may be passed free of duty, although the importer did not own the effects at the time of use.

(g) The statute is applicable to residents as well as nonresidents of the United States.

EFFECTS OF CITIZENS DYING ABROAD

ART. 414. Free entry authorized—Procedure.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1739 (free list):

> Personal effects, not merchandise, of citizens of the United States dying in foreign countries.

(b) The period of use does not affect the right to free entry of such articles, which should be entered in accordance with the provisions of article 343. The term "personal effects", as used in paragraph 1739, embraces all articles of personalty not merchandise, and includes household effects.

(c) The collector shall require an affidavit of a person having knowledge of the facts, or otherwise satisfy himself, as to the citizenship of the deceased owner of the effects at the time of his death.

TOOLS OF TRADE

ART. 415. Tools of trade, occupation, or employment.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraphs 1747 and 1798 (free list):

> PAR. 1747. Professional books, implements, instruments, and tools of trade, occupation, or employment in the actual possession of persons emigrating to the United States owned and used by them abroad; but this exemption shall not be construed to include machinery or other articles imported for use in any manufacturing establishment, or for any other person or persons, or for sale, nor shall it be construed to include theatrical scenery, properties, and apparel;
> PAR. 1798. * * * In the case of individuals, returning from abroad, all professional books, implements, instruments, and tools of trade, occupation, or employment, taken by them out of the United States to foreign countries shall be admitted free of duty, without regard to their value, upon their identity being established under appropriate rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. * * *

(b) The privilege of free entry granted by paragraph 1747 applies whether the articles accompany the emigrant or are imported subsequent to his arrival, provided they were owned and used by him and in his possession abroad. The owner of such articles shall execute in connection with the entry a declaration on customs Form 3317.

(c) The above quoted provision of paragraph 1798 applies to any individual returning from abroad whether or not he is a resident of the United States. If the articles accompany the passenger, they may be passed on the baggage declaration if the collector is satisfied that the articles were taken abroad by the passenger. If they do not accompany the passenger, there shall be filed in conection with the entry an affidavit on customs Form 3297.

PASSENGERS' BAGGAGE

ART. 416. Regulations authorized.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 498 (a) (6):

> (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations for the declaration and entry of—
> (6) Articles carried on the person or contained in the baggage of a person arriving in the United States.

ART. 417. Status of passengers.—(a) Persons arriving from foreign countries are divided into two classes for customs purposes—first, residents of the United States returning from abroad, and, second, all other persons.

(b) Citizens of the United States, or persons who have formerly resided in the United States, shall be deemed to be residents thereof returning from abroad, within the meaning of the tariff laws, in the absence of satisfactory evidence of nonresidence. The residence of a wife follows that of her husband unless satisfactory evidence is presented that the wife has acquired a separate residence elsewhere, and the residence of a minor child follows that of its parents.

(c) Any person not a resident of the United States or any person who, though a legal resident thereof, is not returning from abroad, will be treated for customs purposes as a nonresident.

ART. 418. Nonresidents—Free entry of certain articles authorized.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1798 (free list):

> Wearing apparel, articles of personal adornment, toilet articles, and similar personal effects of persons arriving in the United States; but this exemption shall include only such articles as were actually owned by them and in their possession abroad at the time of or prior to their departure from a foreign country, and as are necessary and appropriate for the wear and use of such persons and are intended for such wear and use, and shall not be held to apply to merchandise or articles intended for other persons or for sale: Provided, That all jewelry and similar articles of personal adornment having a value of $300 or more, brought in by a nonresident of the United States, shall, if sold within 3 years after the date of the arrival of such person in the United States, be liable to duty at the rate or rates in force at the time of such sale, to be paid by such person * * *.

(b) This exemption applies to the articles mentioned regardless of value.

ART. 419. Returning residents—Free entry of certain articles authorized.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1798 (free list), as amended by section 337 of the Liquor Tax Administration Act, approved June 26, 1936:

> * * * In case of residents of the United States returning from abroad all wearing apparel, personal and household effects, * * * taken by them out of the United States to foreign countries shall be admitted free of duty, without regard to their value, upon their identity being established under appropriate rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided further, That up to but exceeding $100 in value (including distilled spirits, wines, and malt liquors aggregating not more than one wine-gallon) of articles acquired abroad by such residents of the United States for personal or household use or as souvenirs or curios, but not bought on commission or intended for sale, shall be admitted free of duty: Provided further, That a resident of the United States shall not take advantage of the exemption herein granted within a period of thirty days from the last exemption claimed.

(b) If an article taken abroad has been advanced in value or improved in condition while abroad by reason of repairs or cleaning further than that necessarily incident to wear and use while abroad, or by reason of alterations or additions which do not change the identity of the article, the cost or value of such repairs, cleaning, alterations, or additions is subject to duty. Articles taken abroad and there changed in such a manner that they cease to be the same entities and become new creations are dutiable when returned to the United States at their full value. In either such case, the $100 exemption may be applied to the dutiable cost or value.

(c) The date of last exemption claimed shall be the date of the passenger's last arrival in connection with which exemption was allowed, notwithstanding the articles admitted under the exemption arrived at a subsequent date.

(d) A passenger who has received a total exemption for the trip of less than $100 is not entitled to apply the remainder of that amount to articles acquired abroad on a subsequent trip, whether or not returning within 30 days from the date of the preceding arrival. No exemption shall be allowed in any case unless the articles claimed to be exempt were purchased or otherwise acquired merely as an incident of the trip.

(e) When no exemption or only a partial exemption has been granted at the border port or seaport or by a customs officer in foreign territory, the exemption or the remainder of the amount allowable may be applied at the port of clearance to articles acquired abroad during the same trip but not accompanying the passenger on return, or to articles acquired abroad during the same trip, whether or not accompanying the passenger, which are shipped in bond to another port. All articles acquired abroad during the trip should be noted on the declaration made to the United States customs officer at the time the returning resident enters the United States, or to the United States customs officers in a foreign country, just before such return to the United States if an exemption on such articles is to be claimed. Customs officers should be careful to bring this requirement to the attention of returning residents, and should see that the declarations show the articles which accompany the passengers and those which are intended for subsequent delivery or shipment in bond to another port.

(f) Collectors of customs shall limit exemptions to articles actually before them for examination. When the declaration covers articles not accompanying the passenger, or articles, whether or not accompanying him, which are shipped in bond to another port, it shall be made in duplicate and one copy, certified by the customs officer and showing the amount of the exemption allowed by him on the articles accompanying the passenger, shall be returned to the declarant. In such cases a notation, initialed by the issuing officer, showing the issuance of the certified copy, shall be made on the declaration retained by the collector, and no further exemption shall be made by any collector thereunder without the surrender of the certified copy or obtaining a second certified copy from the port at which the first certified copy has been filed.

(g) The certified copy of the declaration returned to the declarant may be accepted by the collector of customs at the port of clearance of the articles subsequently imported or forwarded in bond, as evidence of eligibility to the exemption and as determining the amount of the exemption allowed by the certifying officer, and such collector may, in his discretion, verify the declaration by communicating with the port or station at which the certified copy was issued. He shall retain the certified copy of the declaration in his files and if a subsequent claim is made at another port under the same declaration he will, upon request, furnish the collector interested with a copy thereof, showing the exemptions previously allowed. He shall also make proper notation of the issuance of such copy on the original certified copy and before issuing any subsequent copies, shall ascertain from the collectors of customs to whom previous copies were sent the amount of the exemptions allowed thereunder, noting the same on the copy to be issued, so that any copy issued will show the amount of all exemptions previously allowed.

(h) In the absence of evidence prescribed above or in article 422 (c), (4) and (5), the collector shall make a thorough investigation of any claim for the allowance of the exemption on goods not accompanying the passenger or shipped in bond to his port, and shall allow such exemption only when he is satisfied from other evidence that the necessary conditions have been met.

(i) Each member of a family is entitled to the exemption of $100 for articles acquired abroad of the character described in paragraph 1798, subject to the conditions prescribed therein. Articles belonging to one passenger can not be included in the exemption of another, except that when a husband and wife or a parent or parents and minor or financially dependent children travel together, the articles included within the exemption may be grouped and allowance made without regard to which member is the owner, provided that the grouped exemption shall not include that of any person who has claimed an exemption within 30 days, nor be allowed for the property of such person. For the purpose of grouping, a minor shall be deemed a person who has not reached the age of 21 years.

ART. 420. Tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, foodstuffs, and tea.—(a) Fifty cigars or three hundred cigarettes or three pounds of manufactured tobacco, and not exceeding one quart of alcoholic beverages, when brought in by an adult nonresident passenger, if not for sale or other commercial use, may be passed free of duty and internal-revenue tax.

(b) Cigars, cigarettes, tobacco, and not exceeding an aggregate of 1 wine-gallon of distilled spirits, wines, and malt liquors may be included within the $100 exemption accorded each returning resident. No internal-revenue tax is payable on any articles accorded free entry under the $100 exemption. Foodstuffs may be included in the $100 exemption.

(c) The quart of alcoholic beverages which may be imported by an adult nonresident without payment of duty or tax, or the 1 wine-gallon of alcoholic beverages which may be imported by a resident without payment of duty or tax if included within the $100 exemption, may consist of lesser quantities of more than one kind of beverage. In the case of adult nonresident passengers bringing in more than one kind of tobacco product, the exemption from internal-revenue tax and duty allowed such nonresidents may be applied proportionately, for example, to 25 cigars and 100 cigarettes, or to 25 cigars, 50 cigarettes, and 1 pound of manufactured tobacco.

(d) Internal-revenue stamps shall be affixed to taxable tobacco products imported in baggage. Before sale of such stamps to a passenger, the customs officer shall stamp across the face thereof with a rubber stamp the legend "United States Customs; imported in passenger's baggage." No customs inspection stamps are required.

(e) Packages of tea not exceeding 5 pounds in weight and imported in a passenger's baggage may be delivered without examination for purity under the act of March 2, 1897, as amended.

ART. 421. Sealskin garments.—(a) Fur-seal garments made from the skins of seals taken in the open waters of the North Pacific Ocean are prohibited importation by the act of August 24, 1912. (See arts. 645 to 651.)

(b) Sealskin garments brought in by persons arriving in the United States will not be presumed to have been taken in prohibited waters and will be admitted if the collector is satisfied that they were taken from the United States, or are being brought in for temporary use only, or were purchased abroad from reputable merchants, whose names and addresses shall be given and shown in the baggage declaration, in order that the origin of the skins may be traced if advisable.

ART. 422. Declaration and entry.—(a) Passengers from noncontiguous countries.—(1) Each returning resident arriving from a noncontiguous country directly by sea, unless a cruise or steerage passenger, shall declare in writing on customs Form 6063, all articles acquired abroad contained in his baggage or worn or carried on his person, together with effects or articles taken from the United States which have been advanced in value or improved in condition while abroad beyond that necessary to restore them to their original condition, and the cost or value of repairing or cleaning abroad articles taken from the United States further than that necessary to wear and use while abroad. Articles acquired abroad which do not accompany him must be declared if free entry therefor under paragraph 1798 is to be claimed. Wearing apparel, personal and household effects taken from the United States by a returning resident should also be included in his declaration but need not be itemized. Vehicles taken from the United States for noncommercial use should likewise be included. When a returning resident has no articles except personal and household effects taken from the United States, a declaration to that effect should be required on customs Form 6063 or 6067.

(2) A nonresident, unless a cruise or steerage passenger, must declare in writing on customs Form 6063, all articles contained in his baggage or worn or carried on his person except wearing apparel, articles of personal adornment, toilet articles, and similar personal effects which were actually owned by him and in his possession prior to his departure from a foreign country and which are necessary and appropriate for his wear and use. When articles claimed to be free of duty as the personal effects of a nonresident under the first clause of paragraph 1798 do not accompany the passenger, there shall be filed in connection with the entry of such articles a declaration on customs Form 3299.

(3) Forms of baggage declaration and entry, customs Form 6063, will be furnished by collectors to steamship companies for use on steamships coming directly to the United States carrying first and second class and cabin and tourist passengers. Forms of baggage declaration and entry, customs Form 6059, will be furnished to steamship companies for use on vessels carrying passengers destined for the United States, arriving at Canadian ports. Copies of United States Customs Information for Passengers from Overseas, Customs Form 6061, will also be furnished for distribution on steamers.

(4) Passengers should prepare and sign their declarations on board steamships at least one day before arrival and should hand them to the purser for delivery to the proper customs officer on arrival in port.

(b) Cruise and steerage passengers.—(1) Nonresident cruise and steerage passengers who have only usual personal and household effects not intended for other persons or for sale, and residents of the United States returning as cruise or steerage passengers who have only articles taken from the United States which are not subject to duty by reason of alterations or repairs abroad, may make oral declarations. Written declarations on customs Form 6067 shall be required for all other articles brought in by steerage passengers. Customs Forms 6063 or 6067 may be used in the case of cruise passengers if a written declaration is required.

(2) Blank copies of customs Form 6067 shall be furnished by collectors to steamship companies for distribution among steerage passengers, and cruise passengers when necessary. Any such passengers who have articles for which a written declaration is required should prepare and sign their declarations in advance of arrival and retain them for presentation to the proper customs officer on the pier.

(c) Persons arriving from or through contiguous countries.—(1) A declaration, either oral or written, shall be made by each person arriving from or through a contiguous country for all articles contained in his baggage or worn or carried on his person including wearing apparel, personal and household effects, and other articles taken from the United States, stating whether or not any of such articles has been advanced in value or improved in condition while abroad, by any alteration or addition beyond that necessary to restore it to its original condition, or has been repaired or cleaned abroad beyond that necessary to wear and use while abroad. The declaration may be made to a customs officer at the port of first arrival in the United States or on a train or vessel en route to the United States on which such service is provided; or, when the baggage contains no dutiable articles in excess of any exemption which may be allowed, the declaration may be made to a United States customs officer stationed in foreign territory for that purpose. Whenever a written declaration is required, it shall be made on customs Form 6059, whether the passenger's journey originated in contiguous or noncontiguous territory, and whether the passenger arrives at a seaport or border port.

(2) When the value of articles acquired abroad by a returning resident or the value of any articles taken from the United States which are subject to duty by reason of alterations or additions beyond that necessary to restore them to their original condition, or the cost or value of repairing or cleaning such articles while abroad further than that necessary to wear and use abroad, or the aggregate of such items, exceeds $25, or his baggage or any part thereof is shipped in bond to another port or does not accompany him, and upon interrogation at the port of arrival he states that an exemption will be claimed on such articles shipped in bond or not accompanying him, his declaration shall be in writing.

(3) A written declaration shall be required for all articles brought in by a nonresident which, in the opinion of the inspector, are not usual personal effects entitled to free entry under paragarph 1798. When articles claimed to be free of duty, as the personal effects of a nonresident under the first clause of paragraph 1798, do not accompany the passenger, there shall be filed in connection with the entry of such articles a declaration on customs form 3299.

(4) When the baggage of a returning resident containing articles of a character requiring written declaration (see par. (2) of this subdivision) is examined and passed in foreign territory, the declaration shall be in duplicate and a certified copy thereof, showing the action taken by the customs officer making the examination, shall be returned to the declarant for surrender to the customs officer on the train or vessel on which the declarant arrives in the United States, or to the customs officer at the port of arrival, in order that such customs officer may determine what exemption, if any, has been already allowed. When the declarant, subsequent to the examination and passing of his baggage in foreign territory, acquires additional articles before arriving in the United States, a supplemental declaration shall be made therefor to the customs officer to whom the certified copy of the original declaration is surrendered. A written declaration is required when the value of articles acquired abroad by a returning resident, or the value of any articles taken from the United States which are subject to duty by reason of alterations beyond that necessary to restore them to their original condition, or the cost or value of repairing or cleaning such articles while abroad further than that necessary to wear and use abroad, or the aggregate of such items, exceeds $25, or his baggage or any part thereof is shipped in bond to another port or does not accompany him, and upon interrogation he states that an exemption will be claimed on such articles shipped in bond or not accompanying him.

(5) When the original or supplemental declaration of a returning resident whose baggage or any part thereof has been examined and passed in foreign territory, covers articles which do not accompany the declarant or which are shipped in bond to another port, the customs officer who takes up the certified copy of the original declaration shall note thereon the articles covered by the supplemental declaration, if any, and the action taken by him with respect to the articles examined and passed by him, and return the certified copy to the declarant for use in clearing the articles which do not accompany the declarant or which are shipped in bond to another port.

(d) Acknowledgment.—All declarations must be made to a customs officer and, if in writing, must be acknowledged before such officer.

(e) Merchandise.—Merchandise, that is, articles not of a personal nature, or which are intended for sale, or were bought on commission for others, may be included in the baggage declaration of a resident or nonresident under certain conditions. If not so included, regular entry therefor will be required. (See art. 423 (e).)

(f) Family declarations.—The senior member of a group of passengers who are members of the same family may declare for the entire family, including servants traveling with them.

(g) Value.—Passengers must state in their declarations in the currency of the purchase or the equivalent in United States currency, the prices actually paid for all articles purchased abroad. Passengers must state a fair value for all articles obtained abroad other than by purchase, such as gifts, etc. The purchase price or value stated is not necessarily the dutiable value but must be declared in order to assist the appraising officer in arriving at the correct dutiable value. Due allowance will be made by appraising officers whenever the purchase price or value declared is higher than the correct dutiable value. Allowance will also be made for depreciation due to wear and use.

(h) Failure to declare.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 497:

Any article not included in the declaration and entry as made, and, before examination of the baggage was begun, not mentioned in writing by such person, if written declaration and entry was required, or orally if written declaration and entry was not required, shall be subject to forfeiture and such person shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of such article.

(i) Amendment of declaration.—Declarations may be amended before examination of the baggage has begun or, in the absence of fraudulent intent, articles omitted may be added after that time provided such articles have not been previously discovered by the inspector. (See art. 1103.)

(j) Regular entry.—An appropriate regular entry shall be required for articles which do not accompany a passenger, unless such articles are covered by a baggage declaration made at the time of the passenger's arrival. The provisions of Department circular letter no. 825 of December 31, 1931, are hereby incorporated in and made a part of these regulations.

ART. 423. Examination procedure—Collection of duties.—(a) Customs officers will not open baggage or other container or closed vehicle, for the purpose of examination. Any such baggage or other container or closed vehicle which is not opened by the owner or his agent for examination should be treated as unclaimed.

(b) The inspector at the place of arrival may examine and pass, without calling an examiner, articles acquired abroad by a resident of the United States for personal or household use or as souvenirs or curios, but not bought on commission or intended for sale, including dutiable alterations, additions, and repairs made to articles taken abroad by such resident, valued at $100 or less for each passenger regardless of the number of passengers included under one declaration, and, in addition, the inspector may grant an allowance for use and wear not to exceed $25 for any one passenger.

(c) The inspector at the place of arrival may also examine and pass, without calling an examiner, and without regard to value, personal effects of nonresidents arriving in the United States within the meaning of paragraph 1798 of the Tariff Act of 1930; wearing apparel, personal and household effects of returning residents of the United States and tools of trade of individuals returning to the United States, taken abroad by them, within the meaning of paragraph 1798 of the Tariff Act of 1930; household effects within the meaning of paragraph 1632 of the Tariff Act of 1930; tools of trade of persons emigrating to the United States within the meaning of paragraph 1747 of the Tariff Act of 1930; personal effects, not merchandise, of citizens of the United States dying in foreign countries; and automobiles and other vehicles taken abroad for noncommercial use, provided that any such vehicle is not subject to formal entry and that the cost or value of any dutiable alterations, additions, or repairs thereto can be included in the exemption allowed the owner or agent.

(d) If the total value of articles acquired abroad by a returning resident of the United States exceeds $100, after an allowance for use and wear, or, if the inspector is in doubt as to the character of any article, an examiner should be called.

(e) Merchandise—that is, articles not of a personal nature, or which are intended for sale, or were bought on commissions for others—valued at less than $500, may be examined and appraised on the baggage declaration at the place of arrival, if accompanied by a consular invoice when the value exceeds $100 and the merchandise is of a class requiring a consular invoice. If not accompanied by a consular invoice, when required, and the value exceeds $100, regular entry at the customhouse and appraisement will be required. If the value of such merchandise exceeds $500, regular entry and appraisement must be made whether or not accompanied by a consular invoice.

(f) Whenever the customs officer deems it advisable, or at the request of the passenger, any or all of the baggage may be sent to the appraiser's store for examination or reexamination, in which case a receipt for such baggage should be given on customs Form 6051.

(g) Passengers dissatisfied with the assessment of duty on their baggage may demand a reexamination, provided the articles have not been removed from customs custody.

(h) In case reappraisement by the United States Customs Court is desired, the passenger must make application therefor to the collector of customs in writing within 30 days after the original appraisement.

(i) Collectors may in their discretion admit without the collection of duty passengers' baggage containing articles acquired abroad not exceeding $5 in value and such remission shall not be construed as an exemption within the meaning of the last proviso to paragraph 1798 of the tariff act.

(j) Upon completion of the examination of baggage and payment of the duties and taxes, if any, a passengers' baggage stamp, upon which shall be legibly written or stamped on the lines provided for that purpose the name or number of the inspector and the date, shall be attached to each piece of baggage in accordance with the instructions on the inside of the cover of the booklet, "Passengers' Baggage Stamps" (customs Form 6065). Each baggage stamp shall be canceled by stamping thereon with the use of black ink a smudge or other defacement at the time the baggage leaves the customs inclosure.

(k) When duties are collected on articles in passengers' baggage, the coupon receipt attached to customs Forms 6063 shall be given the passenger when declaration is made on that form. When the declaration is made on customs Form 6059, customs Form 5103 shall be used as a receipt.

(l) When alcoholic beverages upon which duties or duties and internal-revenue taxes are payable are imported from a contiguous country in the baggage of a bona fide tourist (resident or nonresident) the transaction shall be cleared on baggage declaration (customs Form 6059), whether or not a written declaration is otherwise required, and on informal entry (customs Form 5119) or on consumption entry (customs Form 7501), as the case may be, if imported by a person other than a bona fide tourist.

(m) Alcoholic beverages found in passengers' baggage shall be released without the placing of strip stamps on the bottles provided it appears from the baggage declaration or otherwise that the liquors are for personal use and not for sale or other commercial purposes. The internal-revenue tax, however, shall be collected on all liquors above the exemption specified in article 420.

ART. 424. Statements and deposit of collections.—Duties and internal-revenue taxes collected on articles in passengers' baggage shall be accounted for as provided in articles 1172 and 1189, respectively. All moneys collected shall be deposited daily with the cashier and be included in the cashier's daily receipts.

ART. 425. Naval vessels.—(a) Upon the arrival of American naval vessels from foreign ports, commanding officers are required, under Navy Department General Order No. 102, to submit to collectors of customs information as to dutiable articles purchased abroad in the following form:

UNITED STATES NAVY CUSTOMS DECLARATION

U. S. S. ---------, Port of arrival ---------

TO THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS:

Herewith is submitted a list of articles acquired in foreign countries by myself and the respective officers and members of the crew under my command, which list is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

| Owner | Rank | Description of articles | Cost or value |
|---|---|---|---|
| | | | |
| | | | |

Date ------, 19--.

(Name) ------ ------,
Rank ------ ------,
Commanding Officer.

NOTE.—This form must be filled out and filed with the collector of customs immediately upon arrival from a foreign port. The listed articles should be segregated until formally passed by the customs. If there are no articles to be listed, the statement "Nothing to declare" will suffice.

(b) No baggage declarations will be required, but the articles listed will be examined and passed in the same manner as the baggage on passenger vessels.

(c) After the examination of the baggage containing dutiable articles has been completed, customs supervision of such vessels will be withdrawn.

ART. 426. Army and Navy transports.—(a) Vessels of the Army or Navy Transport Service arriving from foreign ports will not be required to enter formally at the customhouse, but the commanding officer or master of a transport will cause to be filed with the collector of customs, within 48 hours following arrival, the original and one certified copy of the complete manifest of the vessel, including a list of all passengers on board, whether cabin or otherwise, with their baggage, specifying the number and description of the pieces of baggage belonging to each, a list of all baggage not accompanied by passengers, and a list of all articles acquired abroad by officers and crew members, and passengers (including enlisted personnel of the armed forces of the United States), other than cabin passengers, in the following form:

UNITED STATES ARMY AND NAVY TRANSPORT
CUSTOMS DECLARATION
U. S. S. -------- Port of Arrival --------

TO THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS:

Herewith is submitted a list of articles acquired in foreign countries by myself, the respective officers and members of the crew under my command, and passengers (including enlisted personnel of the armed forces of the United States), other than cabin passengers, which list is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief:

| Owner | Rank | Description of articles | Cost or value |
|---|---|---|---|
| | | | |
| | | | |

Date----------, 19--.
(Name) ----------
(Rank) ----------
Commanding Officer, or Master.

A third copy of the manifest will be mailed or delivered to the comptroller of customs of the district in which the port of entry is located. An uncertified copy of the manifest should also be available for the discharging inspector's use at the pier.

(b) Baggage declarations on customs Form 6063 will be required for all cabin passengers. Commissioned officers and enlisted personnel of the armed forces of the United States in charge of the operation of the vessel, enlisted men carried as passengers, and civilian officers and crew members, will not be required to execute baggage declarations, but all articles acquired abroad by them must be listed on the declaration provided for in paragraph (a).

(c) Passengers on transports are entitled to the privilege of exemption from duty provided by paragraph 1798 of the tariff act, and commissioned officers and enlisted personnel of the armed forces of the United States in charge of the operation of the vessel will be accorded the same privilege. Civilian officers and crew members will be subject to the provisions of article 122 (i) and (j), of these regulations with respect to exemption from duty.

(d) Baggage on transports will be examined at the port where landed, in the same manner as baggage on commercial vessels.

(e) If the collector believes that sufficient grounds exist to justify a search of the vessel, the facts should be reported to the commanding officer or master with request that he cause a full search to be made and advise the collector of the results.

(f) Customs supervision will be withdrawn from the vessel when the cargo has been discharged, passengers and their baggage landed, and the baggage of officers and crew members examined and passed, unless the collector believes that sufficient grounds exist to justify its continuance, in which case he will advise the commanding officer or master accordingly.

ART. 427. Unclaimed and unaccompanied baggage.—Articles in passengers' baggage on which duties are not paid, and baggage not claimed within a reasonable time, will be treated as unclaimed and sent to general order. All baggage on board a vessel not accompanying a passenger shall be listed on the last sheet of the passenger manifest under the caption "Unaccompanied baggage", giving marks or address, and date of the arrival of the vessel on which the owner was a passenger.

ART. 428. Registration—Certificate.—The owner of valuable effects of foreign origin, sealskin garments and plumage, may, prior to his departure from the United States, make an application to the collector or his representative in the appraiser's office, if any, on customs Form 4455, in duplicate, for the registration of such articles to facilitate their identification on return. Upon the filing of the application the collector, or his representative, shall designate the place of examination and cause the articles to be examined. After the articles have been examined and the certificate of registration on customs Form 4455 has been executed, one copy of the form shall be delivered to the applicant for use on return and the other copy shall be filed in the appraiser's office.

ART. 429. Shipment of baggage in bond—Manifest.—(a) When baggage appears by the manifest of the importing vessel, or other satisfactory evidence, to be destined to a port of entry other than the port of first arrival, it may be forwarded to its destination over a bonded route at the request of the passenger, the transportation company, or the agent of either, under cord and seal and baggage manifest described below, without examination or assessment of duty. For this purpose the carrier will furnish cards of bright red cardboard not less than 2½ by 4 inches in size, with the following printed text:

UNITED STATES CUSTOMS

Check No. --------
Baggage in bond:
Carrier ----------
From port of ----------

TO COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS

Port of ----------
This baggage must be delivered by carrier to collector of customs at port named. Failure to do so renders the carrier liable to fine.

(b) A paster of the same dimensions and with the same legend may be placed upon the baggage if the carrier desires. The card must be placed on the cords back of the seal and upon arrival of the baggage at the port of destination the customs officer shall detach the card.

(c) A customs manifest for baggage shipped in bond, customs Form 7520, must be prepared in sextuple for each shipment. One copy must be delivered to the carrier to accompany the baggage and be delivered to the collector of customs at the port of destination as a notice of arrival. Two copies must be forwarded by mail to the collector of customs at the port of destination, one copy to the comptroller of customs in the district in which the port of origin is located and one copy to the comptroller of customs in the district in which the port of destination is located. One copy will be retained at the port of origin as the office record.

(d) Upon the arrival of the baggage at the port of destination one of the mail copies must be properly indorsed to show the arrival, destination, and condition of the baggage when received and shall be returned as a certificate of delivery through the comptroller of customs in whose district the port of origin is located, to the collector at the port from which received, and the other used as an office record. If the baggage reported on the mail copy is not received at the port of destination within 30 days, the collector will call upon the carrier to show what disposition was made of the baggage covered by the manifest. The collector at destination shall advise the comptroller of customs of his district of the final disposition of the baggage.

(e) Baggage arriving in bond or otherwise at a port on the Atlantic or Pacific coast, destined to a port on the opposite coast, may be laden under customs supervision, without examination or being placed in bond, on a vessel proceeding to the opposite coast, provided the vessel will proceed to the opposite coast without stopping at any other port on the coast where the port of lading is situated.

(f) Checked baggage may be shipped in bond from places in contiguous foreign territory at which United States customs officers are stationed. The procedure will be the same as though the shipment originated at a port of entry in the United States and no customs formalities will be required at the place of actual arrival in the United States.

(g) Except as otherwise provided in this article the applicable provisions of chapter XVI of these regulations shall be applied to shipments of baggage in bond.

ART. 430. Shipment of baggage in transit to foreign countries.—The baggage of any person in transit through the United States from one foreign country to another may be shipped over a bonded route for exportation. Such baggage must be corded and sealed and shipped under the regulations prescribed in article 429, except that the fifth copy of the manifest, customs Form 7520, for the comptroller of customs of the district in which the port of exit is located shall not be required, and the card or paster must be printed on yellow paper and read "Baggage in bond for export."

ART. 431. Domestic baggage through foreign territory.—(a) Checked baggage of domestic origin, transported from port to port in the United States via a foreign port or through foreign territory may, on the request of the carrier, be corded and sealed by United States customs officers at ports of exit from the United States with United States customs in-transit seals, with a special manifest, in the following form, on white cardboard 2½ by 4½ inches in size attached to each piece on the cord back of the seal:

UNITED STATES CUSTOMS IN TRANSIT BAGGAGE MANIFEST

Check No. --------
This baggage is in transit from ----------, ----------, through (Port of exit)
foreign territory to ----------, ----------, in the United States.
(Port of reentry)
This baggage was corded and sealed by me and laden for transportation as above stated.
Date --------
----------,
U. S. Customs Officer.

(b) At the final port of reentry into the United States the customs officer shall cut the cord and retain the manifest for an office record.

(c) In lieu of cording and sealing, the baggage may be forwarded in a car or compartment sealed with United States customs blue seals and manifested as in the case of other merchandise in transit through foreign territory.

(d) If the customs officer at the port of reentry into the United States finds that the cords and seals are not intact or for any other reason believes that the baggage has been tampered with while outside the United States, he shall detain the same for examination. Otherwise, it may be passed without examination.

(e) The customs officer who cords and seals baggage at the port of exit shall keep a record of his action.

(f) The provisions of this article shall not apply to domestic hand baggage crossing foreign territory which, upon reentry into the United States, shall be examined in the same manner as baggage of foreign origin, unless exempted therefrom by special authority from the Bureau of Customs.

DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR OFFICERS

ART. 432. Baggage.—(a) Upon application to the Department of State and appropriate instructions from the Treasury Department in each instance, the privilege of admission free of duty without entry shall be extended to the baggage and effects of the following representatives of foreign governments, and their families, suites, and servants, provided the Governments which they represent grant reciprocal privileges to American officials of like grade accredited thereto or en route to or from other countries to which accredited.

(1) Ambassadors, ministers, and chargés d'affaires; and secretaries, and naval, military, and other attachés of embassies and legations, high commissioners, consular officers and trade representatives, accredited to this Government or en route to or from other countries to which accredited; and

(2) Other high officials of foreign governments and such distinguished foreign visitors as may be designated by the Department of State.

(b) In the absence of special authorization therefor from the Department prior to the arrival of representatives of foreign governments enumerated in paragraph (a) (1), the privilege may be extended to their baggage and effects upon presentation of their credentials or other proof of their identity.

(c) Foreign ambassadors, ministers, and chargés d'affaires; and secretaries, and naval, military, and other attachés of foreign embassies and legations shall not be detained or inconvenienced, and their baggage and effects shall remain inviolate. Every proper means shall be afforded them to facilitate their passage through ports of the United States.

(d) The privilege of admission free of duty without entry of their baggage and effects may also be extended to representatives of this Government of the classes enumerated in paragraph (a) (1), including Treasury attachés and Treasury repersentatives, together with their families, suites, and servants, returning from their missions abroad, upon the production of their credentials; and to other high officials of this Government, upon application therefor direct to the Treasury Department by the heads of the respective branches of the Government with which they are connected, and the issuance of appropriate instructions. The free entry authorized hereunder shall not extend to alcoholic beverages, with respect to which the persons enumerated in this paragraph shall receive no other exemption from duty and internal-revenue tax than is allowed returning residents of the United States in accordance with article 420 of these regulations.

(e) If by accident or unavoidable delay in shipment, the baggage or other effects of a person of any of the classes mentioned in this article shall arrive after him, the same may be passed free of duty, under the conditions specified above, upon satisfactory proof of ownership.

(f) Collectors shall keep a record of the privileges granted, whether the subject of instructions from the department or not, containing the name of the person to whom granted, his rank or designation, the name of the vessel or transportation line, and the date of arrival.

ART. 433. Imported articles.—(a) Costumes, regalia, and other articles, including office supplies and equipment, for the official use of members and attachés of foreign embassies and legations, consular officers, and other representatives of foreign governments, may be admitted free of duty provided the countries which such persons represent accord like privileges to corresponding officials of the United States. Lists of countries whose governments accord such reciprocal privileges are published in the Treasury Decisions. Articles for the official use of representatives of foreign governments not listed in T. D. 41046, or any amendment thereof, shall be admitted free of duty only upon the receipt of instructions from the department, which will be issued only when application therefor is made through the Department of State.

(b) Packages bearing the official seal of a foreign government with which the United States has diplomatic relations, accompanied by certificates under such seal to the effect that they contain only official communications or documents, may be admitted free of duty without customs examination.

(c) The privilege of importing free of duty articles for their personal or family use may be granted to (1) members and attachés of foreign embassies and legations, and (2) consular officers and other representatives of foreign governments to whom the privilege is accorded under special agreements between the United States and the countries which they represent; but in either case the privilege may be granted only upon the department's instructions in each instance which will be issued only upon the request of the Department of State. The special agreements referred to are published in the Treasury Decisions.

(d) No entry is required at the port of delivery for shipments admitted free of duty under this article, but a proper notation as to the disposition thereof shall be made on or attached to the manifest.

ARTICLES FREE UNDER SIX MONTHS' BOND

ART. 434. Free entry authorized.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 201, paragraphs 1607, 1747, 1808, 1809; and section 308:

SEC. 201. That on and after the day following the passage of this Act, except as otherwise specially provided for in this Act, the articles mentioned in the following paragraphs, when imported into the United States or into any of its possessions (except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, and the island of Guam), shall be exempt from duty:

PAR. 1607. Animals and poultry, brought into the United States temporarily for a period not exceeding 6 months, for the purpose of breeding, exhibition, or competition for prizes offered by any agricultural, polo, or racing association; but a bond shall be given in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury * * *.

PAR. 1747. * * * But this exemption shall not be construed to include * * * theatrical scenery, properties, and apparel; but such articles brought by proprietors or managers of theatrical exhibitions arriving from abroad, for temporary use by them in such exhibitions, and not for any other person, and not for sale, and which have been used by them abroad, shall be admitted free of duty under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; but bonds shall be given for the payment to the United States of such duties as may be imposed by law upon any and all such articles as shall not be exported within 6 months after such importation: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, extend such period for a further term of 6 months in case application shall be made therefor.

PAR. 1808. Works of art, drawings, engravings, photographic pictures, and philosophical and scientific apparatus brought by professional artists, lecturers, or scientists arriving from abroad for use by them temporarily for exhibition and in illustration, promotion, and encouragement of art, science, or industry in the United States, and not for sale, shall be admitted free of duty, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe; but bonds shall be given for the payment to the United States of such duties as may be imposed by law upon any and all such articles as shall not be exported within 6 months after such importation: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury may in his discretion, extend such period for a further term of 6 months in cases where application therefor shall be made.

PAR. 1809. * * * Provided, That the privileges of this and the preceding paragraph shall not be allowed to associations or corporations engaged in or connected with business of a private or commercial character.

Tariff Act of 1930, section 308: The following articles, when not imported for sale or for sale on approval, may be admitted into the United States under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, without the payment of duty, under bond for their exportation within 6 months from the date of importation, which period may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury (whether such articles are imported before or after this section becomes effective), be extended, upon application, for a further period not to exceed 6 months:

(1) Machinery or other articles to be altered or repaired;

(2) Models of women's wearing apparel imported by manufacturers for use solely as models in their own establishment, and not for sale;

(3) Samples solely for use in taking orders for merchandise, or for examination with a view to reproduction;

(4) Articles intended solely for experimental purposes, and upon satisfactory proof to the Secretary that any such article has been destroyed because of its use for experimental purposes such bond may be canceled without the payment of duty;

(5) Automobiles, motor cycles, bicycles, airplanes, airships, balloons, motor boats, racing shells, and similar vehicles and craft, teams and saddle horses, all of which are brought temporarily into the United States by nonresidents for touring purposes, or for the purposes of taking part in races or other specific contests;

(6) Locomotives, cars and coaches, and repair equipment belonging to railroads brought temporarily into the United States for the purpose of clearing obstructions, fighting fires, or making emergency repairs on lines the property of railroads within the United States;

(7) Containers for compressed gases which comply with the laws and regulations for the transportation of such containers in the United States;

(8) Articles imported by illustrators and photographers for use solely as models in their own establishments, in the illustrating of catalogues, pamphlets, or advertising matter.

ART. 435. Entry—Bond.—(a) Entry of articles under the above provisions of law shall be made on customs Form 7501 (at New York on customs Form 7517–B), except that when the merchandise does not exceed $100 in value the forms provided for the informal entry of importations received through the mails, in passengers' baggage and from other sources, may be used in proper cases. The entry shall designate the provision of law under which entry is made, shall describe the use to which the articles are to be put in sufficient detail to enable the collector to determine whether they are entitled to entry under the provision of law designated, and shall contain a declaration that the articles are not to be put to any other use and that they are not imported for sale or sale on approval.

(b) The entry or invoice must describe each article completely and in detail and set forth any marks or numbers thereon or other distinguishing features thereof, together with the value of each item, and, when practicable and necessary, the articles shall be marked by the examining officer, so as to enable the customs officer at the port of exportation to indentify the articles at the time of exportation. Unless the articles are otherwise exempt from such requirement, a consular invoice shall be required whenever the value of the shipment exceeds $100, except in the case of automobiles and other vehicles which the collector is satisfied are being brought in for personal use for bona fide touring purposes and are not intended for sale.

(c) Claim for free entry under any of the above-mentioned provisions of law may be made for articles of the character described previously entered under any other provision of law and the entry amended accordingly upon compliance with the requirements of this article, provided the articles have not been removed from customs custody, but the 6-months' period will be computed from the date of importation.

(d) A bond shall be given in an amount equal to one and one-quarter times the estimated duties which would have been required to be deposited had the articles been entered for consumption. When the articles are entered under paragraph 1607 or section 308, the bond shall be on customs Form 7563; when under paragraph 1747 or paragraph 1808, on customs Form 7565. A cash deposit in the same amount may be accepted in lieu of bond. Collectors will place such cash deposits in their special deposit accounts.

(e) After the completion of the entry and the filing of the bond or deposit of cash in lieu thereof, the articles may be released to the importer. Upon compliance with the conditions of the bond the entry shall be liquidated free of duty. When any of the articles covered by the entry have not been disposed of in accordance with the conditions of the bond prior to the expiration of the bonded period (including any lawful extension), the following procedure shall govern; If the articles were entered under paragraph 1747 or paragraph 1808, the entry shall be liquidated dutiable as to the articles which have not been disposed of in accordance with the conditions of the bond and the duties which would have accrued on such articles had they been entered for consumption shall be collected. If the articles were entered under paragraph 1607 or section 308, the entry shall be liquidated free of duty; but as to the articles not disposed of in accordance with the conditions of the bond, the duty which would have accrued had they been entered for consumption shall be ascertained and noted on the entry.

ART. 436. Animals or poultry for breeding—Exposition—Competition.—(a) It must be shown to the satisfaction of the collector at the port of entry that the animals or poultry are imported for the purposes mentioned in the statute.

(b) Animals imported for training for a subsequent racing exhibition in the United States are entitled to entry under paragraph 1607.

(c) Free entry under bond or cash deposit may be accorded sulkies, carts, and other vehicles, equipment, and harness brought with animals entered under paragraph 1607.

ART. 437. Theatrical effects.—(a) In connection with the entry of the theatrical scenery, property, and apparel an affidavit of the manager or proprietor will be required on customs Form 3325 in addition to the requirements of article 435.

(b) Animals imported for use or exhibition in theaters or menageries will be classified as theatrical effects.

(c) The term "theatrical scenery, properties, and effects" does not include moving-picture films.

ART. 438. Articles brought by professional artists, lecturers, or scientists.—In connection with the entry of works of art and other articles provided for in paragraph 1808, brought in by professional artists, lecturers, or scientists, a declaration on customs Form 3333 must be made in addition to the requirements of article 435.

ART. 439. Models of women's wearing apparel.—(a) Models of women's wearing apparel admitted under section 308 (2) shall not be removed from the importer's establishment for reproducing, copying, painting, sketching, or for any other use by others, nor be used in the importer's establishment for such purposes except by the importer or his employees. The use of such articles contrary to these regulations will subject the same to the payment of duty. The offering or displaying of such articles for sale within a short time after their importation will be taken as presumptive evidence that the same were intended for sale at the time of importation, and duties thereon will be collected, even though the same may not be sold and are subsequently exported.

(b) The importer shall file in connection with the entry an affidavit stating, in addition to his name and business address, that he is a manufacturer; that the articles are imported solely as models for use in his own establishment and will be so used; that they are not imported for sale or for sale on approval; and that the same will not be removed from such establishment for reproducing, copying, painting, or sketching by others, nor used in his establishment for such purposes except by him or his employees.

(c) Invoices covering models of women's wearing apparel entered under section 308 (2) or section 308 (3) shall state the kind and color of the principal material from which made, and shall contain a description of the lining and the trimming, stating whether composed of fur, lace, embrodiery, or otherwise. Invoices shall also contain a statement as to how the trimming is applied—i. e., whether on the cuffs, collar, sleeves, or elsewhere, and the total value of each completed garment or article.

(d) Models of women's wearing apparel entered under section 308 (2) or 308 (3) shall be marked for identification by means of a cord and lead or tin seal, the cord to be run through the article and all trimming thereon, where necessary, in such manner as to prevent the removal of the cord and seal without cutting the cord or destroying the article. A tag should be attached to the cord, upon which shall be stated the name of the port at which the article was imported, the entry number, name of importer, and the number of the bond. The seals and tags shall be affixed at the expense of the importer.

ART. 440. Commercial travelers' samples.—Samples valued at less than $500 accompanying a commercial traveler may be entered on his baggage declaration in lieu of formal entry, and examined and passed at the place of arrival in the same manner as passengers' baggage, upon the filing of the bond required by article 435, or the deposit of cash equal to one and one-quarter times the estimated duty in lieu thereof, provided the articles are accompanied by an adequate descriptive list and, in the case of articles valued at more than $100, the descriptive list is certified by an American consul, or a consular invoice is furnished. Otherwise regular entry and appraisement will be required.

ART. 441. Extension of bonds.—Bonds given for exportation under paragraph 1607 can not be extended. All other special 6-months bonds may be extended for a further period of 6 months upon written application. The application shall be filed with the collector of customs for submission to the Bureau of Customs with his recommendations. The report of the collector shall in all cases show the date of importation of the merchandise, the date of entry, the entry number, and the provision of law under which entered. The application shall set forth the reason for requesting the extension, shall state whether the articles have been offered for sale or sale on approval, and shall set out what use has been made of the articles since their importation and what use is to be made of them during the period of extension.

ART. 442. Exportation.—(a) Articles entered under 6-months bond may be exported at the port of entry or at another port and shall be delivered by the importer for examination at the appraiser's store or at such other place as the collector may designate. An application on customs Form 3495 shall be filed with the collector a sufficient length of time in advance of exportation to permit of their examination, and the articles must be identified as the same articles which were imported. The applicant will be notified on customs Form 3497 where the articles are to be sent for identification.

(b) Said application will be transmitted to the appraiser with the invoice filed on entry. The appraiser will compare the articles submitted to him with the invoice and report to the collector any discrepancies that may be found. He will also supervise the packing of the articles for exportation and deliver the packages to an inspector for transfer and lading.

(c) The collector will instruct the surveyor, on customs Form 3495, to supervise the transfer and lading of such packages, and make due return thereof.

(d) At ports at which there is no surveyor, the direction to supervise the transfer and lading for exportation will be made to an inspector. All expenses in connection with the delivery of the articles for examination, the cording and sealing of such articles, and their transfer for exportation will be paid by the parties in interest.

(e) If exportation should be made at any port other than that at which the merchandise was entered, a certified copy of the import entry or the invoice used upon entry should be filed with such application, and the collector of customs at such port of exportation will forward to the collector at the port of entry a copy of the application with the appraiser's and inspector's return indorsed thereon.

(f) If the goods are examined at one port and exported at another port they shall be forwarded to the port of exportation under transportation and exportation entry.

ART. 443. Cancelation of bonds.—(a). Bonds taken pursuant to these provisions of law may be canceled in the manner prescribed in article 1266. In the case of articles entered under section 308 (4) which are destroyed because of their use for experimental purposes, the bonds may not be canceled unless there is submitted to the collector an affidavit of the importer that the articles were destroyed during the course of a specifically described experiment, and the collector is satisfied that the articles were so destroyed as articles of commerce within the bonded period (including any lawful extension). Bonds covering articles entered under other provisions of law may not be canceled upon proof of destruction, except as provided in article 443 (c), unless the articles are destroyed under customs supervision in accordance with section 557 and article 808.

(b) Where exportation has been made at a port other than the port of entry, the bond may be canceled upon the certificate of lading received from the port of exportation, showing that such exportation was made within the bonded period. In addition, the collector may require the production of a landing certificate acknowledged by the foreign consignee before an American consular officer, or a certificate from a customs officer at the foreign port to which the merchandise was exported, showing the entry of the merchandise at such port in any case in which he may have reason to believe that the shipment is not a bona fide exportation.

(c) In the case of animals or poultry imported for exhibition dying in the United States through accident or other casualty while under bond, and of articles totally destroyed by fire, accident, or other casualty while in this country and under bond, application for the cancelation of the bonds may be made to the Bureau. The application should be accompanied by affidavit of the importer or other person having knowledge of the facts, setting forth the circumstances of the death of the animals or destruction of the articles.

(d) When articles admitted under 6-months bond are returned to customs custody for identification and supervision of lading as freight on aircraft which take off under their own power for foreign destinations, and when the value of such articles exceeds $100 as shown by the import entry, a foreign customs landing certificate shall be required as evidence of exportation in order to cancel the 6-months bond. Such landing certificates are required, in addition to the returns of the appraiser and lading inspector showing identification and lading under customs supervision. Landing certificates need not, however, be required for articles which do not exceed $100 in value, unless the collector shall have reason to believe, in any particular case, that the apparent outward shipment of the articles was not a bona fide exportation.

(e) If any of the articles have not been exported or destroyed in accordance with these regulations within the bonded period (including any lawful extension), the collector shall (a) collect the duties found due on such articles, if they were entered under paragraph 1747 or paragraph 1808; or (b), if the articles were entered under paragraph 1607 or section 308, make a demand in writing under the bond for the payment of liquidated damages equal to the entire penal sum of the bond. If a written application for relief from the payment of the full liquidated damages is filed with the collector within thirty days after the demand, he shall transmit the application, together with a full report of the facts in the case, to the Bureau of Customs for a decision as to the amount to be collected.

ART. 444. Refund of special deposits.—(a) When a cash deposit is made in lieu of a bond, the collector will place such cash deposit in special deposit account and refund of the same will be made upon compliance with article 442.

(b) When any of the articles entered under paragraph 1747 or paragraph 1808 are not exported or destroyed within the bonded period (including any lawful extension), and the liquidated duty on such articles is found to be less than the special deposit, the amount in excess of the liquidated duty shall be returned to the importer. If the liquidated duty exceeds the cash deposit, a demand shall be made upon the importer for the increased duties due. If any of the articles entered under paragraph 1607 or section 308 are not so exported or destroyed, the collector shall notify the importer in writing that the entire cash deposit will be transferred to the regular account as liquidated damages unless a written application for relief from the payment of the full liquidated damages is filed with the collector within 30 days after the notice. If such an application is timely filed the collector shall transmit it to the Bureau of Customs, together with a full report of the facts in the case, for a decision as to the amount to be collected, and the transfer of the cash deposit to the regular account as liquidated damages shall be deferred pending the decision of the Commissioner of Customs on the application.

ARTICLES FOR INSTITUTIONS

ART. 445. Books, maps, music, photographs, etchings, etc.—Regalia and gems.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1631 (free list):

> Any society or institution incorporated or established solely for religious, philosophical, educational, scientific, or literary purposes, or for the encouragement of the fine arts, or any college, academy, school, or seminary of learning in the United States, or any State or public library, may import free of duty any book, map, music, engraving, photograph, etching, lithographic print, or chart, for its own use or for the encouragement of the fine arts, and not for sale, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(b) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1773 (free list):

> • • • Regalia and gems, where specially imported in good faith for the use and by order of any society incorporated or established solely for religious, philosophical, educational, scientific, or literary purposes, or for the encouragement of the fine arts, or for the use and by order of any college, academy, school, seminary of learning, orphan asylum, or public hospital in the United States, or any State or public library, and not for sale, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe; but the term "regalia" as herein used shall be held to embrace only such insignia of rank or office or emblems as may be worn upon the person or borne in the hand during public exercises of the society or institution, and shall not include articles of furniture or fixtures, or of regular wearing apparel, nor personal property of individuals.

ART. 446. Requirements on entry.—The importer must file as evidence that such articles are entitled to free entry an affidavit, on customs Form 3321, by an executive officer or other authorized representative of the institution for which the articles are imported.

ART. 447. Character of institution—Special importations for.—The collector may require a copy of the charter or other evidence of the character of the institution for which the articles are imported, and may also require the production of the original of any order given by such society or institution to an importing agent or dealer for such articles.

ART. 448. Affidavit of dealer or agent—Certificate of delivery—Stipulation.—(a) When such articles are imported through a dealer his affidavit, as well as that of the importer, shall also be filed, on customs Form 3321.

(b) Such affidavits must be filed at the time of entry, and bonds will not be accepted for their subsequent production. However, when it is impracticable to produce at the time of entry the affidavit of the institution for which the importation is made, the importer may stipulate to produce such affidavit and may deposit the estimated duties, provided he shall file an affidavit at the time of entry showing why the affidavit of the institution can not be produced. Upon the production of the affidavit of the institution and the certificate of delivery within 6 months from the date of entry the estimated duties will be refunded upon liquidation of the entry.

(c) A certificate of delivery signed by an authorized executive officer or other representative of the institution, customs Form 3337, must be filed within 6 months from the date of entry, before liquidation thereof free of duty. Upon failure to file said certificate within 6 months the entry shall be liquidated as dutiable. Such certificate of delivery is not required when the importation is consigned to the institution or the receipt of the articles is acknowledged by the institution on customs Form 3321.

ART. 449. Serial publications—List of publications.—One affidavit may be made for books, etc., published serially and imported in installments. A list shall be filed with the affidavit on entry of the first numbers of the publication, which list shall be signed by the importer immediately below the last-mentioned article in such list. Subsequent numbers may be admitted free upon affidavit of the importer that they are included in the list already filed.

ART. 450. Articles for the United States.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1628 (free list):

> Books, engravings, photographs, etchings, bound or unbound, maps and charts imported by authority or for the use of the United States or for the use of the Library of Congress.

(b) Such articles may be admitted free of duty upon compliance with articles 446–449 of these regulations, or upon the written request of the head of any bureau or executive department. Such articles imported by mail and addressed to the Library of Congress or any department of the Government or bureau or division thereof shall be forwarded for delivery without the assessment of duty thereon, if the collector is satisfied they are entitled to free entry under paragraph 1628.

WORKS OF ART

ART. 451. Statuary and casts of sculpture.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1773 (free list):

> Statuary and casts of sculpture for use as models or for art educational purposes only; • • •

(b) Such article will be admitted free of duty if returned by the appraising officer as statuary or casts of sculpture, provided the collector of customs shall be satisfied that they are actually imported for the purposes above mentioned.

(c) The importer must file in connection with the entry an affidavit of the ultimate consignee on customs Form 3307.

ART. 452. Original paintings, engravings, drawings, sculpture, etc.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1807 (free list):

> Original paintings in oil, mineral, water, or other colors, pastels, original drawings and sketches in pen, ink, pencil, or water colors, artists' proof etchings unbound, and engravings and wood cuts unbound, original sculptures or statuary, including not more than two replicas or reproductions of the same; but the terms "sculpture" and "statuary" as used in this paragraph shall be understood to include professional productions of sculptors only whether in round or in relief, in bronze, marble, stone, terra cotta, ivory, wood, or metal, or whether cut, carved, or otherwise wrought by hand from the solid block or mass of marble, stone, or alabaster, or from metal, or cast in bronze or other metal or substance, or from wax or plaster, made as the professional productions of sculptors only; and the words "painting", "drawing", "sketch", "sculpture", and "statuary" as used in this paragraph shall not be understood to include any articles of utility or for industrial use, nor such as are made wholly or in part by stenciling or any other mechanical process; and the words "etchings", "engravings", and "wood cuts" as used in this paragraph shall be understood to include only such as are printed by hand from plates or blocks etched or engraved with hand tools and not such as are printed from plates or blocks etched or engraved by photochemical or other mechanical processes.

(b) Invoices covering works of art claimed to be free of duty must show whether they are originals, replicas, reproductions, or copies, and also the name of the artist who produced them, unless upon examination the appraiser is satisfied that they are originals, replicas, etc.

(c) The following evidence shall be produced:

(1) Certificate of the artist who executed the article, showing whether it is original, or, in the case of sculpture a first or second replica; and in the case of etchings, engravings, or wood cuts, that they were printed by hand from hand-etched or hand-engraved plates or blocks.

(2) A declaration of the seller or shipper, if shown that it is impossible to produce the certificate of the artist.

(3) A declaration of the importer on customs Form 3309.

(d) The certificate of the artist or the declaration of the seller or shipper in lieu thereof may be waived upon satisfactory explanation of the failure to produce the same, but the declaration of the importer is required in all cases.

(e) The collector should satisfy himself that paintings, drawings, sketches, sculptures, or statuary, are not articles of utility nor intended for industrial use before permitting free entry under paragraph 1807.

ART. 453. Articles for exhibition—Requirements on entry.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1809 (free list):

> Works of art, collections in illustration of the progress of the arts, sciences, agriculture, or manufactures, photographs, works in terra cotta, parian, pottery, or porcelain, antiquities and artistic copies thereof in metal or other material, imported in good faith for exhibition at a fixed place by any State or by any society or association, or for a municipal corporation, for the arts, science, agriculture, or education, or for a municipal corporation, and all like articles imported in good faith by any society or association, or for a municipal corporation, for the purpose of erecting a public monument, and not intended for sale nor for any other purpose than herein expressed; but bond shall be given, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, for the payment of lawful duties which may accrue should any of the articles aforesaid be sold, transferred, or used contrary to this provision, and such articles shall be subject at any time to examination and inspection by the proper officers of the customs: Provided, That the privileges of this and the preceding paragraph shall not be allowed to associations or corporations engaged in or connected with business of a private or commercial character.

(b) There shall be filed in connection with the entry of such articles an affidavit by a qualified officer of the institution on customs Form 3335, and a bond on customs Form 7565. A separate series of numbers to run indefinitely shall be assigned to these entries.

(c) Articles entered under paragraph 1809 of the tariff act may be transferred from one institution to another upon an application in writing in the case of each transfer describing the same and stating the name of the institution to which transfer is to be made, provided the sureties to the bond assent in writing under seal or a new bond is filed. No entry or withdrawal will be required for such a transfer.

(d) The entry should be liquidated free of duty, but the amount of duty which would have accrued shall be ascertained and noted on the entry which, together with the invoice and other documents filed in connection with the entry, shall be attached to the bond and kept in a permanent file. If any of the articles shall be sold, or offered or exposed for sale, transferred, or used in any manner contrary to the provisions of these regulations, the amount of the duties shall be immediately collected by the collector of customs at the port of entry and deposited as duties.

ART. 454. Works of American artists.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1810 (free list):

> Works of art, productions of American artists residing temporarily abroad • • • but such exemption shall be subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(b) The importer shall produce in connection with the entry of such articles an affidavit on consular Form 155 made before the United States consul at the place of exportation, or before a customs officer at port of entry on customs Form 3319.

ART. 455. Articles for institutions.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraphs 1774 and 1810 (free list):

> PAR. 1774. Altars, pulpits, communion tables, baptismal fonts, shrines, or parts of any of the foregoing, and statuary (except casts of plaster of paris, or of compositions of paper or papier-mâché), imported in good faith for presentation (without charge) to, and for the use of, any corporation or association organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes.
> PAR. 1810. • • • other works of art, including pictorial paintings on glass, imported expressly for presentation to a national institution or to any State or municipal corporation or incorporated religious society, college, or other public institution, • • • and excluding any article, in whole or in part, molded, cast, or mechanically wrought from metal within 20 years prior to importation; but such exemption shall be subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(b) The importer shall file in connection with the entry of such articles an affidavit on customs Form 3331, showing that the articles were expressly imported for presentation to the institution named in the entry, together with letters of presentation and acceptance from donors and donees, respectively.

ART. 456. Stained or painted glass windows for houses of worship.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1810 (free list):

> • • • stained or painted window glass or stained or painted glass windows which are works of art when imported to be used in houses of worship, valued at $15 or more per square foot, • • • but such exemption shall be subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(b) The importer shall file in connection with the entry of such articles an affidavit (customs Form 3321) showing that the importation is made for use in houses of worship. The entry will not be liquidated free of duty, however, until a certificate of delivery (customs Form 3337) has been produced.

ART. 457. Artistic antiquities.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1811 (free list) and section 489:

> PAR. 1811. Works of art, (except rugs and carpets made after the year 1700), collections in illustration of the progress of the arts, works in bronze, marble, terra cotta, parian, pottery, or porcelain, artistic antiquities, and objects of art of ornamental character or educational value which shall have been produced prior to the year 1830, but the free importation of such objects shall be subject to such regulations as to proof of antiquity as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Violins, violas, violoncellos, and double basses, of all sizes, made in the year 1800 or prior year.
> SEC. 489. • • • Furniture described in paragraph 1811 shall enter the United States at ports which shall be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury for this purpose. If any article described in paragraph 1811 and imported for sale is rejected as unauthentic in respect to the antiquity claimed as a basis for free entry, there shall be imposed, collected, and paid on such article, unless exported under customs supervision, a duty of 25 per centum of the value of such article in addition to any other duty imposed by law upon such article.

(b) Such articles will be admitted free of duty, upon compliance with the following regulations.

(c) Regardless of the value of the articles, the invoice filed in connection with the entry shall contain a declaration by the seller or shipper, showing the name and address of the person from whom the articles were acquired, the date when acquired, and, if possible, the place and approximate date of production; but this declaration may be waived by the collector in any case where he is satisfied that failure to produce it is not due to any lack of diligence or good faith on the part of the importer and that the information is not required for any purpose in connection with the classification and appraisal of the articles, provided the affidavit of the owner required by paragraph (d) of this article is supplemented by a sworn statement of the owner, giving all the facts within his knowledge tending to show how long the articles have been in existence and where they were produced.

(d) An affidavit by the owner on customs Form 3343 shall also be filed in connection with the entry.

(e) The affidavit of the owner signed by an agent or attorney can not be accepted, but a declaration of the foreign seller or shipper, executed on the invoice by an agent competent to declare to the value and facts of the invoice, may be accepted as a sufficient compliance with the regulations.

(f) Affidavits bearing on the age and character of such importations shall be transmitted by the collector to the appraising officer. The findings of such officer shall be clearly stated in his return upon the invoice.

(g) Except as provided in paragraph (j), articles brought in as passengers' baggage and claimed to be entitled to free entry as artistic antiquities, may be admitted free of duty upon an affidavit of the owner before a customs officer, if the collector, after examination by the appraising officer, is satisfied that the articles are artistic and of the requisite age.

(h) Artistic antiquities, if of the age prescribed by paragraph 1811, are free of duty though repaired or renovated. If, however, they have been repaired with a substantial amount of additional material, without changing the original form or shape or enhancing their artistic qualities, the original and added portions should be appraised and returned as separate entities and the basis for such returns should be plainly indicated on the invoice by the appraiser. In such cases duty should be assessed on the portion added. If the repairs consist of an addition to an article of an artistic feature which changes it substantially from the article originally produced, or if the antique portion has otherwise been so changed as to lose its identity as the article which was in existence prior to the time prescribed in paragraph 1811, the entire article is excluded from free entry under paragraph 1811.

(i) Furniture claimed to be free of duty under paragraph 1811 may be entered only at the ports of New York, N. Y., Boston, Mass., Philadelphia, Pa., Baltimore, Md., New Orleans, La., San Francisco, Calif., Seattle, Wash., Los Angeles, Calif., Chicago, Ill., and Honolulu, T. H.

(j) Entry for consumption or warehouse of any furniture claimed to be free of duty under paragraph 1811, shall not be accepted nor shall examination and appraisement thereof be made, elsewhere than at a port of entry for antique furniture; but such furniture may be entered at any port for immediate transportation in bond to a port of entry for antique furniture.

(k) "Furniture" within the meaning of section 489, is defined as "movable articles of convenience or decoration, designed for use in furnishing a house, apartment, place of business or of accommodation." This definition embraces most articles claimed to be free of duty as artistic antiquities and should any such article be offered for entry elsewhere than at one of the ports for the entry of antique furniture, on the ground that it is not furniture, the facts, including a complete description of the article, should be reported to the Bureau for instructions.

(l) A claim for the free entry of an article under paragraph 1811 on the basis of antiquity may be made on the entry or by amendment thereto at any time prior to liquidation of the entry provided that the article has not been released from customs custody.

(m) In the case of furniture as above defined, previously entered at a port not designated for the entry of antique furniture, a claim for free entry under paragraph 1811 shall not be considered after the appraiser has made his return in the case of articles not imported for sale, or after the examination of the articles for the purpose of appraisement or classification has begun in the case of articles imported for sale. Should such a claim be made before that time at such port, the entry should be canceled and, if the importer does not enter the articles for exportation or for shipment in bond to a port designated for the entry of antique furniture, the articles shall be treated as unclaimed.

(n) The attention of customs officers and others concerned is specially invited to that part of section 489 which imposes an additional duty of 25 percent on any article described in paragraph 1811, imported for sale, which is rejected as unauthentic in respect to the antiquity claimed as a basis for free entry. This provision is not limited to furniture, but applies to any article which is claimed to be free of duty under that paragraph on account of its antiquity. Articles imported for sale and claimed, either at the time of entry or at a later date, to be free of duty under paragraph 1811, are subject to the additional duty of 25 percent, if later found to be unauthentic, unless the claim under paragraph 1811 is withdrawn in writing before the examination of the articles for the purpose of appraisement or classification has begun.

(o) The 25 percent additional duty provided by section 489 shall not be assessed if the importer establishes by evidence satisfactory to the collector that the article was not imported for sale. In the case of any article imported in a passenger's baggage, the collector may accept the statement of the passenger that the article was not imported for sale if he is satisfied of the truth of such statement.

ART. 458. Gobelin tapestries.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1812 (free list):

Gobelin tapestries used as wall hangings.

(b) Gobelin tapestries, the product of the Manufacture Nationale des Gobelins, now maintaining factories at Paris and Beauvais, under the direction and control of the French Government, are entitled to free entry if of a character used as wall hangings.

(c) The invoice should be accompanied by an affidavit executed before the American consul by the manager or other responsible employee of the Gobelin factory, establishing the authenticity of the article. In the absence of such an affidavit, if such absence is satisfactorily explained, other evidence establishing the necessary facts may be accepted.

WHISKEY

ART. 459. Whiskey aged in wood four years or more.—(a) Canadian Trade Agreement (T. D. 48033), Schedule II, item 802:

Whisky of all types and classes, $2.50 per proof gallon: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to any whisky consisting in whole or in any part of distilled spirits which have not been aged in wooden containers at least 4 years prior to the date the whisky is entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption.

(b) Evidence that whisky claimed to be entitled to entry at the reduced rate contains no distilled spirits which have not been aged in wooden containers at least 4 years prior to the date the whisky is entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption shall be filed in connection with the entry. Such evidence shall be in the form of a certificate issued by a competent officer of the Government of the country in which the whisky was aged in wooden containers, unless the collector of customs concerned is satisfied that such certificates are not authorized to be issued in such country, in which case the evidence may be in the form of affidavits of persons having personal knowledge of the facts.

(c) In the case of whisky in wooden containers entered for warehouse, which contains any distilled spirits not aged in wood for at least 4 years prior to the time of entry for warehouse for consumption or exportation, or until the be suspended until the whisky has been withdrawn from warehouse, the liquidation of the warehouse entry shall aging requirement has been satisfied, whichever is earlier, unless the collector of customs is satisfied that no proper claim for entry at the reduced rate will be made.

(d) Whisky will not be entitled to entry at the reduced rate if produced in a country in respect of whose products the President has suspended, pursuant to the provisions of section 350 of the tariff act (T. D. 47117), the tariff changes proclaimed by him in connection with the Canadian Trade Agreement.

(e) Certificates or other documents required in connection with warehouse or rewarehouse entries for the purpose of securing the reduced rate of duty referred to in this article should be filed with the collector of customs at the port at which the original warehouse entry was made. If the whiskey covered by such document is forwarded to another port under a withdrawal for transportation, the collector of customs at the port of original entry should make a notation on the mail copy of the transportation entry substantially as follows:

Certificate of officer of ------ Government (or affidavit of ------ acting in capacity of ------) states whiskey herein described has been stored in wooden containers ------ years prior to delivery for exportation to United States on ------.

(f) If the certificate or affidavit shows that the whiskey has been stored in wooden containers for a period less than four years, the following notation should be added if applicable:

The whiskey described has been stored in wooden containers in bond at this port since ------.

(g) In the absence of such notation, the collector should forward the necessary information to the collector of customs at the port of destination or withdrawal at his request or at the request of a party in interest. This information may be used in estimating the duties due at the time of withdrawal if a statement of liquidation has not been received, or as the basis for reliquidation, if necessary, in accordance with article 828 (k). However, if satisfactory evidence of storage in wood for not less than 4 years of a shipment covered by a rewarehouse entry is presented at the port at which the rewarehouse entry should be reliquidated, such evidence should be accepted and filed with the rewarehouse entry in support of such reliquidation.

(h) A copy of any document required by this article in connection with an entry at another port may be accepted in lieu of the original, provided it is received from the collector of customs at whose port the original is filed and properly identifies the particular merchandise for which it is to be used.

(i) If application is made for the entry or withdrawal for consumption of whiskey at the reduced rate without the necessary supporting document and the collector of customs has no reason to doubt that such document is obtainable, release of the whiskey may be permitted upon payment of the estimated duties at such reduced rate, provided there has been filed the regular bond applicable to the particular form of entry conditioned for the production of the appropriate document as provided in article 305 (b). This, however, does not exempt any person from presenting the necessary certificates of either age or origin which may be required at the time of entry or withdrawal under the regulations of the Federal Alcohol Administration.

VEGETABLE OILS

ART. 460. Denaturing.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1732 (free list):

• • • olive, palm-kernel, rapeseed, sunflower, and sesame oil, rendered unfit for use as food or for any but mechanical or manufacturing purposes, by such means as shall be satisfactory to the Secretary of the Treasury and under regulations to be prescribed by him; • • •.

(b) Such articles may be admitted free of duty if denatured abroad or under customs supervision after importation, at the request and expense of the importer, so as to render them unfit for use as food or for any but mechanical or manufacturing purposes, by a formula prescribed by the Bureau.

(c) Each cask or package of oil claimed to have been denatured before importation must be sampled and tested by the appraiser.

(d) The following formulas have been prescribed:

To 100 gallons of the oil to be denatured add any of the following substances:

(1) Three gallons rosin oil, preferably second or third runs.

(2) Three gallons refined, destructively distilled wood turpentine, boiling not lower than 160° C.

(3) From 105 to 114 pounds of caustic soda, or sufficient caustic soda to cause complete saponification, or 354 pounds of caustic potash solution containing 45 percent of actual caustic potash.

(4) One-fourth gallon pyridin.

(5) One-half gallon creosote.

(6) Four gallons aniline oil.

(7) Six gallons dark-colored oleic acid.

(8) Six ounces oleoresin capsicum.

(9) Not less than 2 percent of pine tar.

(10) 100 ounces of linalool.

(11) 100 ounces of H O oil.

(12) One-third ounce of brucine alkaloid dissolved in a solution composed of two parts by volume of alcohol and four parts by volume of rosemary oil, steam-distilled pine oil, or other suitable essential or distilled oil.

(13) One part by volume of sulphuric (66° B.) acid to 99 parts oil, and the mixture allowed to stand at least 24 hours before being released.

(14) Twenty-four ounces of oil of eucalyptus, full strength.

(15) One hundred ounces of a mixture of two parts by weight of terpineol and one part by weight of phenyl acetic aldehyde.

(16) One and one-half gallons of heavy coal-tar naphtha conforming to the following specifications:

Specific gravity at 15.5° C.: 0.915 to 0.950.
Distillation: 10 percent not lower than 160° C., 70 percent at 199° to 201° C.: 95 percent not higher than 260° C.
Flash point: Not less than 38° C.
Free from separated moisture and dirt.

(17) One and one-half gallons of special heavy coal-tar naphtha of the following specifications:

Specific gravity at 15.5° C.: 0.880 to 0.970.
Distillation: Not over 10 percent at 160° C.; 90 percent not higher than 200° C.
Flash point: Not less than 38° C.
Free from separated moisture and dirt.

(18) Two gallons of special mineral denaturing oil of the following specifications:

Initial boiling point: Not lower than 205° C.
Flash point (open cup): Not lower than 75° C.
Specific gravity at 15.5° C.: Not lower than 0.819.

This special mineral denaturing oil must be easily recognizable by its pronounced and unmistakably disagreeable taste and odor when present in the vegetable oil to be denatured in the proportion of two parts of the mineral oil to 100 parts of the vegetable oil.

(19) One gallon of a petroleum oil oxidation product meeting the following specifications:

The denaturant upon distillation shall yield not less than 20 percent and not more than 60 percent, by volume, below 200°.
Then cubic centimeters of the denaturant with 15 cubic centimeters of Schiff-Elvove reagent (Journal of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, June 1921, p. 543) must show decided violet color within 30 seconds after addition and agitation.
The iodine numbers (Hanus) shall be not less than 35.

(20) One hundred fluid ounces of steam-distilled pine oil.

(e) The Bureau will from time to time prescribe additional formulas, and will consider any formula for special denaturation that may be submitted by any manufacturer.

(f) The collector may, if he deems it advisable, require an importer requesting permission to use any of the denaturants above specified, or subsequently prescribed, to submit to the appraiser an adequate sample of such denaturant, in order that the appraiser may report to the collector whether or not such denaturant is suitable for rendering the oil unfit for use as food or for any but mechanical or manufacturing purposes.

ART. 461. Release.—No such oil will be released free of duty until the appraiser shall have made a special report that it has been denatured and the owner or consignee shall have filed with the collector an affidavit on customs Form 3339.

POTATOES

ART. 462. Certified seed potatoes.—(a) Canadian Trade Agreement (T. D. 48033), schedule II, item 771:

White or Irish seed potatoes, certified by a responsible officer or agency of a foreign Government in accordance with the official rules and regulations of that Government to have been grown and approved especially for use as seed, in containers marked with the foreign Government's official certified seed potato tags, when entered for consumption during the period—

From Dec. 1 to the last day of the following February, inclusive, in any year---------- 60¢ per 100 lbs.
From Mar. 1 to Nov. 30, inclusive, in any year------ 45¢ per 100 lbs.

Provided, That such potatoes entered for consumption in excess of an aggregate quantity of 750,000 bushels of 60 pounds each in the 12-month period beginning on December 1 in any year shall not be subject to this provision.

(b) Claim for the reduced duty must be made at the time of entry. The potatoes shall be packed at the time of importation in containers and each container shall then have firmly attached to it an official tag supplied by the Government of the country in which the potatoes were produced, or an agency of such Government. The tag shall bear a certificate to the effect that the potatoes in the container have been grown and approved especially for use as seed. The tag shall also bear a number or other symbol identifying the potatoes in the container with the inspection record of the foreign Government on the basis of which the tags were issued. A tag issued by the Department of Agriculture of the Dominon of Canada which conforms to the requirements of this paragraph is illustrated in T. D. 48057.

(c) There shall be filed in connection with the entry an affidavit of the ultimate consignee; certifying that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the potatoes were grown and approved especially for use as seed, in accordance with the official rules and regulations of the Government of the country in which the potatoes were produced, and that the tags on the containers were issued by the foreign Government or its agency to evidence these facts.

(d) Regulations for administration of the tariff rate quota are to be found in article 847 of these regulations.

BOLTING CLOTHS

ART. 463. Free entry authorized—Marking.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1626 (free list):

Bolting cloths composed of silk, imported expressly for milling purposes, and so permanently marked as not to be available for any other use.

(b) As a prerequisite to the free entry of bolting cloth under this provision of law, it must be indelibly marked with a mark extending from selvage to selvage at intervals of not more than 4 inches and bearing the words "bolting cloth expressly for milling purposes", in block letters 3 inches in height. Such cloth will be allowed free entry only under the following conditions:

(1) Bolting cloths composed of silk imported expressly for milling purposes will be considered only such cloths as are suitable for and are used in the act or process of grading, screening, bolting, separating, classifying, or sifting dry materials, or of dry materials mixed with water, if the water is merely a carrying medium.

(2) If an importer is a manufacturer of mills or machines for any process described above, or conducts a business wherein any act or process described above constitutes an activity, free entry will be allowed, provided he files with the collector of customs, in connection with the entry, an affidavit certifying that he is such a manufacturer or conducts such a business, and that such bolting cloths are imported expressly for milling purposes.

(3) In the event bolting cloths are imported by an agent in fulfillment of an accepted order, free entry will be allowed, provided the importer files with the collector of customs, in connection with the entry, an affidavit showing the name of the actual purchaser of such bolting cloth and that such purchaser is a manufacturer or conducts a business as described, or conducts a business for the purpose of supplying such manufacturers and businesses.

(4) In the event bolting cloths are imported for stock, free entry will be allowed, provided the importer files with the collector of customs, in connection with the entry, a duly certified statement to the effect that he imports such bolting cloths expressly for the purpose of supplying manufacturers and businesses as described, or of supplying other firms who in turn supply manufacturers and businesses as described.

(5) When an importer claims free entry under the foregoing provisions, and the collector has reason to believe such claim is false or fraudulent, he is directed to refer all papers and affidavits pertaining to the particular entry to the supervising customs agent for investigation and report.

(c) Bolting cloths not marked in the manner above indicated at the time of importation may be so marked by the importers in public stores under the supervision of customs officers.

VESSELS—WITHDRAWAL OF SUPPLIES FOR

ART. 464. Exemption from customs duties and internal-revenue tax.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 309 (a):

SEC. 309. Supplies for certain vessels.—(a) Articles of foreign or domestic manufacture or production may, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, be withdrawn from bonded warehouses or bonded manufacturing warehouses free of duty or internal-revenue tax for supplies (not including equipment) of vessels of war, in ports of the United States, of any nation which may reciprocate such privilege toward the vessels of war of the United States in its ports, or for supplies (not including equipment) of vessels of the United States employed in the fisheries or in the whaling business, or actually engaged in foreign trade or trade between the Atlantic and Pacific ports of the United States or between the United States and any of its possessions, but no such article shall be landed at any port or place in the United States or in any of its possessions.

(b) Section 309 (a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, insofar as applicable, shall apply to civil aircraft actually engaged in trade with noncontiguous foreign countries and to civil aircraft actually engaged in trade between the United States and any of its possessions.

(c) A vessel is not considered to be actually engaged in the foreign trade, or in trade between the Atlantic and Pacific ports of the United States, or between the United States and its possessions, as the case may be, unless it is—

(1) Operating on a regular schedule in a class of trade which entitles it to the privilege;

(2) Actually transporting passengers or merchandise to or from a foreign port, a port on the opposite coast of the United States, or between a port in a possession of the United States and a port in the United States or in another of its possessions;

(3) Documented for foreign trade, is proceeding in ballast to another domestic port to lade passengers or cargo for a foreign port, and its last carriage of passengers or cargo prior to departure from the port of withdrawal was not exclusively between ports in the same great district; or

(4) Departing in ballast from the port at which the withdrawal is made directly for a foreign port, a port on the opposite coast of the United States, a port in one of the possessions of the United States, or, where the port of withdrawal is in a possession of the United States, departing directly for a port in the United States or in another of its possessions.

ART. 465. United States Government vessels—Foreign war vessels.—(a) As United States war vessels, transports, and vessels belonging to the United States engaged exclusively in the transportation of Government property, are not engaged in trade, they are excluded from the privilege of withdrawing supplies free of duty under section 309 (a).

(b) The privilege may be accorded to vessels of war of the following countries: Argentina, Austria, Brazil, Chile, Denmark, England, France, Germany, Greece, Holland, Italy, Japan, Korea, Norway, Rumania, Salvador, Siam, Sweden, and Venezuela.

ART. 466. Form of withdrawal—Bond.—(a) Withdrawals shall be made on customs Form 7506.

(b) If the withdrawal is made by other than the principal on the warehouse or rewarehouse entry, as the case may be, the assent of such principal shall be indorsed on the withdrawal, unless the principal has, in writing, otherwise authorized such withdrawal.

(c) A bond on customs Form 7561 shall be taken when the withdrawal is made by a person other than the principal on the warehouse or rewarehouse entry, as the case may be, except where the vessel departs from the port of withdrawal directly for a foreign port.

(d) When the merchandise is not to be laden at the port of withdrawal it must be withdrawn for transportation in bond to the port of lading. Three copies of manifest, customs Form 7512, in addition to six copies of the withdrawal on customs Form 7506 will be required. The procedure will be the same as that prescribed in article 900 (b) (the six copies of customs Form 7506 taking the place of the entry copies of customs Form 7512), except that no shipper's export declaration, customs Form 7525, will be required.

(e) No bond shall be required in the case of war vessels.

ART. 467. Delivery permit—Lading.—(a) Upon the filing of the withdrawal and the execution of the bond, when required, the collector shall issue a permit on customs Form 7506A.

(b) A copy of the withdrawal will be transmitted to the surveyor or inspector acting as such, who shall designate a customs officer to supervise the lading of the merchandise and make a return thereof.

(c) Except where the vessel departs from the port at which the withdrawal is made direct for a foreign port, the merchandise shall be entered on the store list of the vessel on which laden, which fact shall be certified by the marine clerk or officer acting as such on the withdrawal.

ART. 468. Intermediate ports.—A copy of the store list, when required, showing the articles withdrawn and taken on board shall be made on or attached to the manifest accompanying the vessel at the time of departure from the port of withdrawal. When the vessel touches at an intermediate port in the United States, the collector at such port shall notify the collector at the port of withdrawal if any portion of the supplies is landed at the intermediate port, in order that duty may be collected under the bond.

ART. 469. Vessels diverted after clearance.—When a vessel which has taken on board supplies free of duty is withdrawn from trade, or is diverted to a class of trade not entitled to the privilege, the parties in interest shall immediately notify the collector at the port of withdrawal, who shall credit the bond with only such portion of the supplies used while the vessel was in a proper class of trade, and collect duty on the balance. Whenever any such diversion comes to the attention of a collector of customs at any port in the United States, he shall likewise notify the collector at the port of withdrawal.

ART. 470. Cancelation of bonds.—An affidavit of the master or other officer of the vessel having knowledge of the facts, showing that such supplies have been used on board the vessel and no portion thereof landed within the limits of the United States or any of its possessions, must be produced within six months from the date of the withdrawal to cancel the bond provided for in article 466 (c). The six-months' period may be extended as provided in article 1269. Such an affidavit must likewise be produced when the withdrawal is made by the principal on the warehouse or rewarehouse entry bond to secure credit on such bond for the free withdrawal, except where the vessel departs from the port of withdrawal directly for a foreign port.

ART. 471. Tobacco products.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 317:

The shipment or delivery of manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars, or cigarettes, for consumption beyond the jurisdiction of the internal-revenue laws of the United States, as defined by section 3448 of the Revised Statutes, shall be deemed exportation within the meaning of the customs and internal-revenue laws applicable to the exportation of such articles without payment of duty or internal-revenue tax.

(b) As provided in section 3448 R. S. (U. S. Code, title 26, sec. 897), the jurisdiction of the internal-revenue laws extends to all territory within the exterior boundaries of the United States; that is, within the 3-mile limit.

(c) Imported manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars, and cigarettes in bonded warehouse or otherwise in customs custody, and such articles manufactured with the use of imported materials in a bonded manufacturing warehouse of class 6, may be withdrawn under section 317 of consumption beyond the 3-mile limit of international boundary, as the case may be, on vessels, whether foreign or domestic, actually engaged in the foreign trade, or operating on a regular schedule in trade between one great district of the United States and another great district thereof, or between the United States and the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa or the island of Guam, or actually clearing for such places or on vessels of war or other governmental activity, including vessels belonging to the United States, in, or en route to, places outside the jurisdiction of the internal-revenue laws.

(d) The privilege may not be granted to vessels stationed in American waters for an indefinite period without sailing schedules, nor to vessels engaged in trade between ports in the same great district.

(e) With the following additions and exceptions, the same procedure shall be followed as in the case of withdrawals under section 309 (a):

(1) No bond shall be required in the case of vessels operated by the United States Government.

(2) When the merchandise is not withdrawn from warehouse, customs Form 7512 shall be used in lieu of customs Form 7506.

(3) When a shipping case containing tobacco products is made up of a number of units, each in a separate package, such units may be withdrawn separately, provided each unit is marked and numbered for identification and contains not less than 250 cigars or 1,000 cigarettes, or 5 pounds of tobacco or snuff. In the case of imported tobacco products so packed, only one unit from each shipping case shall be opened for examination, unless the appraiser shall deem it necessary for the protection of the revenue to examine a greater quantity.

(4) When all of the units in such a shipping case are not to be withdrawn at the same time or for use on the same vessel, a blanket withdrawal may be filed for the entire case in lieu of a separate withdrawal for each unit. In such cases the withdrawal shall be retained by the storekeeper until delivery receipts are obtained for the entire quantity covered by the withdrawal, provided that the total period of time during which the merchandise remains in bonded warehouse does not exceed three years and the bond on customs Form 7561, when required, need not be taken until the articles are ready for removal from the warehouse for delivery to the vessel on which they are to be used.

(5) Merchandise for which blanket withdrawals are filed shall be stored in a separate room or inclosure in a bonded warehouse under separate locks, and shall be inventoried at least once each month; and if, on any such inventory, any merchandise is found to be unaccounted for, duties shall be paid thereon before any further withdrawals are permitted.

(6) The affidavit of use when required shall contain a statement that the articles covered by the withdrawal were consumed beyond the 3-mile limit.

(7) Imported tobacco products on which the duty or internal-revenue tax has been paid may not be withdrawn under section 317 with benefit of drawback of such duty or internal-revenue tax.

NOTE.—For procedure relative to the withdrawal of tobacco products of domestic manufacture without payment of internal-revenue tax, for use as supplies on vessels, see Internal Revenue Regulations No. 76.

ARTICLES EXPORTED FOR EXHIBITION, ETC.

ART. 472. Articles entitled to privilege.—(a) United States Code, title 19, section 194:

Whenever any article or articles or livestock shall be sent out of the United States for temporary use or exhibition at any public exposition, fair, or conference, held in a foreign country, such articles shall be entitled to be returned to the United States, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, without the payment of customs duty, whether they shall be of domestic or foreign production: Provided, That the articles of foreign production have once paid duty in the United States and no drawback has been allowed thereon, and if any domestic articles are subject to internal-revenue tax, such tax shall be proved to have been paid before exportation and not refunded. (May 18, 1896, c. 195, 29 Stat. 122.)

(b) United States Code, title 19, section 195:

The privileges of free entry conferred by section 194 of this title shall apply to wild and other animals of foreign origin taken abroad temporarily for exhibition in connection with any circus or menagerie, subject, however, to the conditions and limitations prescribed in said section. The provision of this section shall apply only in such cases as those of foreign-born animals taken abroad, and inventories of which are filed prior to their leaving the country with the collector of customs at the port of their departure. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 454, 30 Stat. 1372.)

ART. 473. Procedure on entry.—(a) There shall be required in connection with the entry of such articles—

(1) A certificate of exportation, customs Form 4467.

(2) A declaration made by the foreign shipper before the United States consul, on consular Form 204, irrespective of the value of the shipment, stating that such articles were sent from the United States for temporary exhibition.

(3) A declaration of the importer on customs Form 3329 for merchandise of either domestic or foreign origin.

(4) In the case of animals of foreign origin taken abroad for exhibition in connection with a circus or menagerie, the inventory required by section 195 above quoted.

(b) If it is shown to be impracticable to produce the certificate of exportation required under no. 1 above, the collector may accept other satisfactory evidence of exportation, or may take a bond to produce the same, or for the production of the foreign shipper's declaration required by paragraph (2) above.

(c) If any internal-revenue tax was remitted or refunded, or any drawback of duties was paid on exportation of such articles, a duty equal thereto must be collected. Articles manufactured in a bonded manufacturing warehouse will be subject to duty as foreign merchandise on reimportation.

ART. 474. Articles exported for scientific or educational purposes.—Tariff Act of 1930, as amended by the act of March 4, 1933, paragraph 1815:

Articles, when returned after having been loaned and exported for use temporarily abroad solely for exhibition, examination, or experimentation, for scientific or educational purposes, if imported by or for the account of the person who exported them from the United States, and not for sale, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

ART. 475. Procedure on entry.—(a) There shall be required in connection with each entry covering such articles, irrespective of the value of the shipment:

(1) A certificate of exportation, customs Form 4467.

(2) A declaration made by the foreign shipper before the United States consul, on a modified consular Form 204, stating that such articles were sent from the United States solely for temporary scientific or educational use, and the use made of the articles.

(3) A declaration of the ultimate consignee in substantially the following form:

DISTRICT NO. ------, PORT OF ----------,
COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, ----------, 19--.

I, ----------, declare under oath that the several articles described in the annexed entry are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the identical articles exported from the United States on the -- day of ----------, 19--, by ---------- address ---------- (actual-shipper)
----------, for the acount of ----------, address ----------; that they are returned to ----------, address ----------, for the account of ----------, address ----------; that the said articles were exported solely for temporary scientific or educational purposes and for no other use abroad than for exhibition, examination, or experimentation; that they are being returned without having been changed in condition in any manner, except by reason of their bona fide use as follows:

---

(Describe change in condition)

---

; that such articles as are of foreign origin have previously been duly imported into the United States; and that no duties or internal-revenue taxes were remitted, refunded, or allowed by drawback on the exportation of any of the articles described in the entry.

---

Declared to under oath before me this ---- day of ---------, 19--.

---
(Title or designation)

(b) If it is shown to be impracticable to produce the certificate of exportation required by no. 1 above, the collector may accept other satisfactory evidence of exportation. The collector may take a bond for the subsequent production of any of the evidence or documents required by the preceding paragraph which are not available at the time of entry.

(c) No article shall be entitled to entry under paragraph 1815 if any internal-revenue tax or duty was remitted or refunded, or any drawback of duties was paid, on the exportation of such article from the United States. The paragraph does not apply to articles exported for any use abroad not scientific or educational in purpose.

AUTOMOBILES AND OTHER VEHICLES

ART. 476. Automobiles and other vehicles, boats, teams, and saddle horses taken abroad.—(a) Automobiles, aircraft, and other vehicles, boats, teams, and saddle horses, of domestic origin, or of foreign origin if duty-paid, together with their accessories, taken abroad by the owner or his agent for noncommercial use and returned for the account of such owner, may be admitted without the payment of duty, except as provided in paragraph (b), upon being satisfactorily identified, and without the requirement of a consular invoice.

(b) Repairs made abroad to such articles, if incidental to use abroad, are not subject to duty, but repairs not incidental to use abroad, and alterations and additions made abroad, are dutiable upon their value at the rate at which the article itself would be dutiable if imported. Accessories acquired abroad are dutiable separately. Consular invoices will not be required for such repairs, alterations, and additions made abroad, or for such accessories acquired abroad.

(c) The collector of customs shall, upon the request of the owner or his agent, cause any of such articles to be examined before it is taken abroad and issue a certificate of registration therefor on customs Form 4455. On the return of the article, such certificate may be accepted as satisfactory identification for the purpose of admitting the article free of duty, and without the requirement of a consular invoice, whether the article is covered by a baggage declaration or by a regular entry, provided the article agrees with the description contained in the certificate. In the case of an automobile, the State registration card, or, in the case of an aircraft, the certificate of registration issued by the Department of Commerce, or, in the case of a pleasure boat, the yacht license or motor boat identification certificate, may be accepted under the same conditions as, and in lieu of, customs Form 4455, and be given the same force and effect.

(d) Unless previously entered, the article, together with a list of repairs, alterations, additions, and accessories, if any, and the cost of each, should be included in the baggage declaration of the owner or his agent on his return, whether or not the article accompanies him. If not so declared, a regular entry shall be required. Regular entry shall also be required if the owner or his agent is unable to produce a proper registration card or certificate covering the article, whether or not the article is covered by a baggage declaration.

(e) Trucks, busses, and taxicabs, whether of foreign or domestic origin, owned by residents of the United States, taking out merchandise or passengers for hire, or leaving empty for the purpose of bringing back merchandise or passengers for hire, may be admitted free of duty without entry on their return to the United States, upon their identity being established by State registration cards. However, such vehicles taken abroad for commercial use between points in a foreign country are considered exported and must be regularly entered on return.

ART. 477. Vehicles and boats brought in for a temporary stay.—(a) Automobiles, teams, and other vehicles, including aircraft, pleasure boats, and similar vehicles and craft, whether of foreign or domestic origin, owned by nonresidents and brought into the United States by the owners thereof for their personal use for touring purposes only, may be admitted free of duty, whether driven into the United States or arriving by vessel or rail, or other carrier, subject to the following conditions.

(b) If the collector is satisfied of the owner's identity and good faith, he may pass the article for a stay of not to exceed 90 days, without entry or bond, but in lieu thereof shall issue to the owner a certificate on customs Form 4447, which certificate shall be delivered to the customs officer at the port of exit at the time of departure, who shall forward it to the port where issued; provided that touring permits shall be issued to aircraft only when registered in a country with which the United States has a reciprocal agreement in regard to aircraft and piloting privileges or when the person in charge produces proper evidence of permission from the Department of Commerce to operate in the United States. At present the United States has such reciprocal agreements with the Dominion of Canada, Italy, and the Republic of Columbia. Additions to the list of such countries will be published from time to time in the Treasury Decisions.

(c) An effort should be made at the time of arrival to determine the length of time the article will remain in the United States and, if such time is likely to exceed 90 days, entry and bond shall be taken as provided in article 435.

(d) When any such article is admitted without entry or bond for a stay of not to exceed 90 days and the owner thereof desires to prolong the stay beyond 90 days, entry and bond for exportation within 6 months, as provided in article 435, may be accepted at the port nearest to the place at which the article may then be, the 6-months period to run from the date of original arrival in the United States and the article to be appraised according to its value at the time of such arrival.

(e) In the case of a foreign-owned automobile, the registration card therefor, if any, may, if the owner so desires, be taken up in lieu of the issuance of customs Form 4447, provided the collector is satisfied that the automobile will leave the United States via the same route within 90 days.

(f) Collectors of customs may issue to reputable persons residing in foreign territory adjacent to the port of entry annual identification cards on customs Form 4447, for automobiles owned by such persons and used by them in making frequent trips across the border. An automobile covered by such identification card, when brought in by the owner, may be passed upon exhibition of the card without further formality.

(g) Foreign-owned trucks, busses, and taxicabs arriving with merchandise or passengers destined to points in the United States, or arriving empty or loaded for the purpose of taking out merchandise or passengers, are not subject to duty. Such vehicles may be admitted in the same manner and under the same conditions as automobiles arriving for touring purposes, except that in the case of trucks or busses operating on regular schedules which require them to leave the United States via the same route within 24 hours after arrival, the registration card need not be surrendered.

(h) The treatment of foreign-owned aircraft arriving in the United States carrying merchandise or passengers for hire shall be governed by the provisions of articles 245 to 257 of these regulations.

(i) Any foreign-owned vehicle, including aircraft, entering the United States for the purpose of carrying merchandise or passengers for hire between points in the United States, or other commercial use, is dutiable, and a regular entry therefor must be made. If any vehicle or boat which shall have entered the United States for a temporary stay under the foregoing regulations shall engage in carrying passengers for hire, or merchandise, between points in the United States, the same shall be treated as having been unlawfully imported.

THEATRICAL EFFECTS, MOVING-PICTURE FILMS, AND COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS' SAMPLES

ART. 478. Procedure.—(a) Theatrical scenery, properties, and effects, moving-picture films, and commercial travelers' samples, of domestic or foreign origin, taken abroad may be returned without formal entry, provided that prior to exportation of such articles application, on customs Form 4455, together with the affidavit and descriptive list thereof, was filed with the collector at the port of exportation and the merchandise identified as set forth in article 408, governing the exportation of articles sent abroad for repairs.

(b) Such application, affidavit, and descriptive list may be presented to the customs officer stationed on a train running between a port in the United States and foreign contiguous territory.

(c) The duplicate copy of the application, affidavit, and descriptive list may be presented to the customs officer stationed in a foreign country when the articles are ready for shipment to the United States.

(d) Customs officers will make careful examination and comparison of the articles with the descriptive list upon return of such articles to this country.

(e) When such examination and comparison is made by customs officers stationed in foreign contiguous territory, the packages shall be corded and sealed and forwarded in cars sealed by customs officers, and manifested in the same manner as personal baggage.

(f) In the case of commercial travelers' samples taken abroad for temporary use, collectors may, in their discretion, waive examination at the time of departure or exportation.

(g) When commercial travelers' samples consisting of raw cotton are taken to and returned from Canada, the application on customs Form 4455, together with the affidavit and descriptive list, may be executed in triplicate, two copies thereof to be returned to the traveler for surrender to the customs officer on the return of the samples from Canada. One of such copies shall be forwarded by the customs officer to whom surrendered to the representative of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine of the Department of Agriculture at the port through which the samples are returned, or to the Department of Agriculture in Washington if there is no representative of the administration at the port of return. When this procedure is followed no permit or notice of arrival will be required for cotton samples taken to and returned from Canada. The provisions of this paragraph do not cover commercial travelers' samples of raw cotton taken to and returned from foreign countries other than Canada.

ART. 479. Samples to Great Britain and Ireland under reciprocal agreement.—Descriptive lists of samples taken to Great Britain and Ireland by commercial travelers of the United States under the reciprocal agreement of November 19, 1907, will be required in triplicate, verified by the affidavit of the commercial traveler before a customs officer, showing that the samples are for use as models or patterns for the purpose of obtaining orders, and not for sale, and that the lists contain a full description of the articles. One copy will be retained, and the others delivered to the commercial traveler—one for the identification of the samples on their return to the United States and one for the use of the foreign customs authorities, which latter must have been attested by a consular officer of the country concerned in the United States.

ANIMALS AND BIRDS

ART. 480. Purebred animals — Citizenship of importer—Use.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1606 (a) and (b) (free list):

(a) Any animal imported by a citizen of the United States specially for breeding purposes, shall be admitted free, whether intended to be used by the importer himself or for sale for such purposes, except black or silver foxes: Provided, That no such animal shall be admitted free unless pure bred of a recognized breed and duly registered in a book of record recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for that breed: Provided further, That the certificate of such record and pedigree of such animal shall be produced and submitted to the Department of Agriculture, duly authenticated by the proper custodian of such book of record, together with an affidavit of the owner, agent, or importer that the animal imported is the identical animal described in said certificate of record and pedigree. The Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe such regulations as may be required for determining the purity of breeding and the identity of such animal: And provided further, That the collectors of customs shall require a certificate from the Department of Agriculture stating that such animal is pure bred of a recognized breed and duly registered in a book of record recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for that breed.

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe such additional regulations as may be required for the strict enforcement of this provision.

(b) The fact that such animals may be used incidentally for driving or working purposes will not exclude them from free entry if they are imported primarily for breeding purposes.

ART. 481. Same—Affidavit—Certificate.—(a) There must be filed in connection with the entry an affidavit on customs Form 3327 showing that the importer is a citizen of the United States and that the animals are imported specially for breeding purposes.

(b) Importers should make application for a certificate of pure breeding direct to the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department of Agriculture on Form A. H. 105, accompanied by an affidavit on Form A. H. 283.

(c) Certificates of pedigree and evidence of transfer of ownership must be furnished inspectors of the Bureau of Animal Industry at the port of first arrival in time to permit their use in connection with the examination of the animals by such inspectors at that port, and certificates of pure breeding will not be issued by the Department of Agriculture until the description of the animals based on the examination thereof and comparison with the pedigree certificates by the inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry is received at the Department of Agriculture. Certificates of pure breeding will be forwarded by the Bureau of Animal Industry direct to the collector of customs at the port of entry. When the certificate of pedigree and evidence of transfer of ownership are not furnished prior to the release of the animal by the representative of the Bureau of Animal Industry, the claim for free entry should be rejected.

ART. 482. Same—Bond for production of evidence—Stipulation.—(a) A bond on customs Form 7551 or 7553 may be given by the importer for the production within six months of the required affidavit, if it can not be filed at the time of entry, and a certificate of pure breeding, provided the certificates of pedigree and evidence of transfer of ownership were furnished in accordance with paragraph (c) of the preceding article.

(b) Such bond will be canceled only upon the production of the required evidence or on payment of duties.

(c) Should the importer so elect, estimated duties may be deposited and a written stipulation filed with the collector within 10 days after the date of entry to produce the affidavit and certificate of pure breeding within 6 months from the date of entry, whereupon the liquidation of the entry will be suspended.

ART. 483. Horses and mules for immediate slaughter.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1695 (free list):

Horses or mules imported for immediate slaughter.

(b) Horses or mules claimed to be entitled to free entry under this paragraph may be admitted free of duty upon the submission of an affidavit stating that the animals are being imported solely for slaughter; provided the collector is satisfied from an examination of the animals and such other investigation as he deems necessary that no other use is intended.

ART. 484. Cows for dairy purposes.—(a) Canadian Trade Agreement (T. D. 48033), Schedule II, item 701:

* * * * *

Cows, weighing 700 pounds or more each and imported specially for dairy purposes: 1½¢ per lb.

Provided, That none of the foregoing entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption in excess of the quantities respectively specified below in any calendar year after 1935 shall be subject to the above provisions:

* * * * *

Cows, weighing 700 pounds or more each and imported specially for dairy purposes: 20,000 head.

(b) Claim for the reduced rate must be made at the time of entry. There shall be filed in connection with the entry an affidavit of the ultimate consignee, certifying that the animals were imported in good faith for dairy purposes, and that they have actually been delivered to a dairy, farm, or other place suitable for dairy operations, the address of which shall be stated. If the ultimate consignee is not the importer of record, the latter also shall file an affidavit executed by himself, certifying that the animals are being imported in good faith for dairy purposes.

(c) In the case of each animal claimed to be entitled to entry at the reduced rate of duty, the customs officer charged with its examination shall satisfy himself that the animal is suitable for dairy purposes.

(d) Regulations for administration of the tariff rate quota are to be found in article 847 of these regulations.

ART. 485. Animals straying or driven across boundary for pasturage—Offspring.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, par. 1606 (c) (free list):

Horses, mules, asses, cattle, sheep, and other domestic animals straying across the boundary line into any foreign country, or driven across such boundary line by the owner for temporary pasturage purposes only, together with their offspring, shall be dutiable unless brought back to the United States within eight months, in which case they shall be free of duty, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury: * * *

(b) Upon driving such animals across the boundary for pasturage purposes, the owner must file with the collector of customs a descriptive list stating the number of animals, their sex, age, and marks or brands, together with a written statement that the animals therein described are being taken abroad for temporary pasturage purposes only.

(c) Upon the return of such animals within eight months entry will be required and there shall be filed in connection therewith a declaration in the following form:

I, ------, do solemnly declare that I am a resident of ------; that the animals now being returned to the United States are ------ of the identical animals described in the list filed with the collector of customs at the port of ------ on the ------ day of ------, 19--; and that ------ of their offspring accompany said animals.

(d) Upon the establishment of the intention of the owner to take the animals abroad for temporary pasturage purposes and their identification with the list filed with the collector at the time they were driven from the United States, they may be passed free of duty.

(e) Whenever domestic animals are driven across the boundary line into a foreign country, the collector should endeavor to ascertain whether or not the owner intends to return them to the United States after temporary pasturage abroad, and, if such intention is disclaimed, or, if, after the matter has been brought to the attention of the owner or his agent, the above-mentioned declaration shall not be filed, this fact should be noted on the export declaration.

(f) Animals which have strayed across the boundary line may be returned, together with their offspring, without entry if brought back within 30 days; otherwise entry will be required. Collectors of customs shall satisfy themselves that such animals are owned in the United States and that they did in fact stray across the boundary line.

ART. 486. Wild animals and birds—Zoological collections.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1607 (free list):

* * * wild animals and birds intended for exhibition in zoological collections for scientific or educational purposes, and not for sale or profit.

(b) Such animals or birds will be admitted free of duty upon a declaration by the importer being filed in connection with the entry that the animals or birds are specially imported for scientific or educational purposes as the permanent property of the importer, and not for sale or profit. When such animals or birds are imported for menageries or similar institutions they are subject to duty.

ART. 487. Game animals and birds.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1682 (free list):

Live game animals and birds, imported for stocking purposes, and game animals and birds killed in foreign countries by residents of the United States and imported by them for noncommercial purposes; under such regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

(b) The following classes of live game animals and birds may be admitted free of duty for stocking purposes if the requirements of the Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Biological Survey have been complied with, without reference to the Bureau of Customs.

Animals

1. Cervidæ, commonly known as deer and elk.
2. Leporidæ, commonly known as rabbits.
3. Sciuridæ, commonly known as squirrels.

Birds

1. Anatidæ, commonly known as ducks and geese.
2. Gallinæ, commonly known as turkeys, grouse, pheasants, partridges, and quail.
3. Otididæ, commonly known as bustards.
4. Tinamidæ, commonly known as tinamous.

(c) Application for the free entry of other live animals or birds under paragraph 1682 should be referred to the Bureau of Customs for consideration. Animals imported for fur-farming purposes should not be admitted free of duty under that paragraph.

(d) There shall be filed in connection with the entry a declaration by the importer or his agent on customs Form 3313. If the declaration is signed by an officer of the Federal or a State Government, or a person who shall present to the collector an order for the shipment given him by the Federal or a State Government, a statement as to the place of delivery shall not be required.

(e) Game animals and birds killed in foreign countries by residents of the United States, if not imported for sale or other commercial purposes, may be admitted free of duty upon the filing of a declaration on customs Form 3315. No bond or cash deposit to insure the destruction or exportation of the plumage of such birds shall be required.

ART. 488. Furs and fur skins.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1681 (free list):

Furs and fur skins, not specially provided for, undressed.

(b) Importers of shearling sheepskins or other skins bearing wool or hair of the kinds described in paragraphs 1101 or 1102 and claimed to be free of duty under paragraph 1681, should be required to file an affidavit that the skins are to be used for no other purpose than as fur skins, and free entry should be made dependent on the return of the appraiser that they are of a character which would make it unprofitable to remove the wool or hair for the ordinary purposes for which wool or hair is used and are specially selected and suitable for use without removing the wool or hair from the skin in the manufacture or trimming of clothing, driving gloves, etc.

PRODUCTS OF AMERICAN FISHERIES

ART. 489. Free entry authorized—Definition.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1730 (a) (free list):

All products of American fisheries (including fish, shellfish, and other marine animals, and spermaceti, whale, fish, and other marine animal oils), which have not been landed in a foreign country or which, if so landed, have been landed solely for transshipment without change in condition: Provided, That fish the product of American fisheries (except cod, haddock, hake, pollock, cusk, mackerel, and swordfish) landed in a foreign country and there not further advanced than beheaded, eviscerated, packed in ice, frozen, and with fins removed, shall be exempt from duty: Provided further, That products of American fisheries, prepared or preserved by an American fishery on the treaty coasts of Newfoundland, Magdalen Islands, and Labrador, as such coasts are defined in the Convention of 1818 between the United States and Great Britain, shall be exempt from duty.

(b) Fish or other marine products taken in American waters or on the high seas by American vessels or by residents of the United States, whether Americans or aliens, in undocumented vessels and brought into port by the vessel taking the same are not imported from a foreign port, and no entry therefor is required.

(c) American fishery within the meaning of said paragraph is defined as a fishery operated under the American flag by American vessels in foreign waters, in which such vessels have the right, by treaty or otherwise, to take fish and other marine products.

(d) The employment of foreign fishermen either as members of the crew or under the supervision of the master or crew of an American vessel is allowed. The purchase by the owner, agent, master, or crew of an American vessel of fish or other marine products taken by the citizens of another country in foreign waters will subject such fish or other marine products to treatment as foreign merchandise.

(e) The products of American fisheries may include bone, sponges, turtles, pearls, and all other marine products.

(f) Marine products taken by American vessels will be entitled to free entry, although prepared, preserved, or otherwise changed in condition on board an American vessel, provided the work is done by the master and crew of such vessel, or by persons employed by them for the purpose.

ART. 490. Affidavit—Manifest.—(a) When such products are imported by the taking vessel, or are shipped to the United States by the master, owner, or agent of the taking vessel or vessels, otherwise than in the taking vessel, an affidavit (customs Form 3295) by the master of the taking vessel, verified by at least two members of the crew, will be required in connection with the entry. Additional proof may be required if doubt exists. In the case of transshipment there should be required an additional statement as to what, if any, change has been made in the condition of the fish since their taking and where such change occurred.

(b) If fish or other products are shipped to the United States by a firm in a foreign country which has purchased them from the master, owner, or agent of the taking vessel, the declaration on customs Form 3295 should be executed by the master and two members of the crew of the American fishing vessel for the entire quantity discharged at the foreign port, and kept on file by the American consul having jurisdiction of that port, or by the principal United States customs officer stationed there, if any, if there is no American consul at the port. In such cases there shall be filed in connection with the entry a declaration of the purchasing firm or its agent which shall be certified by the consul, or a United States customs officer authorized to administer oaths, at the port where the declaration (Form 3295), above required, is on file. Such declaration of the purchasing firm or agent shall be in the following form:

I, ------ ------, agent of the ------ at the port of ------, do hereby declare under oath that ------ did receive from the following-named American fishing vessels ------ pounds of ------ and ------ pounds of ------ and that ------ pounds thereof in ------ cases went forward in ------ ------ consigned to ------
(Carrier)
------ at ------ ------, and that the above products have not been changed in condition after baking, except as shown below:

| Vessel and registry | Article | Pounds received | Date received | Pounds shipped | No. of cases | Nature of change in condition, if any, and place where so changed. (See Note.) |

(Title)

NOTE.—Name of country or, if on board vessel, name and registry of vessel.

(c) Where entry is to be made at a port in the United States without inspection at the port of first arrival in accordance with section 463 of the tariff act, the shipment should, in addition to the above requirements, be accompanied by an inward foreign manifest.

SALT FOR CURING FISH

ART. 491. Remission of duty authorized.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 313 (e):

Imported salt in bond may be used in curing fish taken by vessels licensed to engage in the fisheries, and in curing fish on the shores of the navigable waters of the United States, whether such fish are taken by licensed or unlicensed vessels, and upon proof that the salt has been used for either of such purposes, the duties on the same shall be remitted.

(b) The collector will satisfy himself that the amount of salt to be withdrawn is not excessive for the purpose intended, and in no case shall the quantity so withdrawn exceed the reasonable requirements of the case.

ART. 492. Withdrawal—Bond.—Withdrawal shall be made on customs Form 7506. A bond shall be taken in connection with this withdrawal on customs Form 7561 when the withdrawal is made by a person other than the importer of record.

ART. 493. Use in any district.—(a) Such salt withdrawn in bond for use in curing fish on the shores of navigable waters may be used for such purpose in any district, and the evidence presented in such cases for the cancelation of the bond given on the withdrawal will be sworn to in the usual manner before the collector of the district where the salt may be used, who will forward such evidence to the collector of the port where the bond was executed and will notify him of any facts that may exist tending to show that the evidence should not be accepted as a basis for the cancelation of the bond.

(b) If desired, salt to be used in curing fish on shore in another district than that in which it is warehoused in bond, may be withdrawn under a transportation entry and shipped in bond to a port in the district in which it is to be used, at which port it may be entered on customs Form 7519 with customs Form 7506 attached showing withdrawal of the salt for use in curing fish, without being sent to a bonded warehouse of public store, upon the filing of the bond on customs Form 7561. In such cases the proof of use should be filed at the latter port.

ART. 494. Permit—Delivery—Inspector's return.—(a) Upon the execution of the bond a permit (customs Form 7506) shall be issued directing the storekeeper to deliver the salt to the surveyor.

(b) The withdrawal shall, at the same time, be transmitted to the surveyor, with directions to cause the salt described therein to be delivered to the proper party, which directions shall be on customs Form 7506.

(c) The return of the inspector under whose supervision the salt was delivered shall be in the form following, and indorsed upon or annexed to the withdrawal:

INSPECTOR'S RETURN ON DELIVERY OF SALT

PORT OF ----------

I, ------ ------, have examined the salt described in the within entry, and, finding the number of pounds to agree therewith, have delivered the same to ------ ------.

---
Inspector.

ART. 495. Proof of use.—Proof that the salt withdrawn for use in curing fish has been so used shall be as follows:

(a) The affidavit (customs Form 3751) of the principal in the withdrawal bond that the salt has been actually used in curing fish taken by vessels of the United States licensed to engage in fisheries, or in curing fish on the shores of the navigable waters of the United States, giving the names of the vessels, tonnage, and names of masters, stating also approximately the quantity of fish cured thereby and the locality in the district where cured, if cured on shore.

(b) Also the affidavit of the master (customs Form 3745) and of at least one other person employed on board of any vessel during the voyage on which it is claimed that any part of said salt so withdrawn for curing fish was used that the salt delivered to said vessel by the principal in the withdrawal bond was actually used in curing fish taken by said vessel.

(c) Also the affidavit (customs Form 3753) of at least two persons actually employed (if more than two were so employed) in curing fish on shore, on which any part of said salt was used, stating the quantity of salt used in curing fish on shore and where cured, that it was used in curing fish taken by American fishermen, and approximately the quantity of fish cured thereby.

(d) If the principal in said withdrawal bond be actually employed in curing the fish on shore, the affidavit of one other person so employed will be sufficient (customs Form 3751).

ART. 496. Bond—Cancelation—Extension.—(a) The proofs above required shall be presented to the collector holding the bond on or before the 1st day of January next after the date thereof; and if it shall appear to his satisfaction that the entire quantity of salt covered by said bond has been duly accounted for, either by having been used in curing fish in accordance with the withdrawal or by warehouse or consumption entry, such collector may cancel the bond; but if he deems the same necessary, he may first require additional evidence in corroboration of the proof produced.

(b) On application of the principal of the withdrawal bond, the bond may be extended 1 year so as to allow the salt so withdrawn to be used during the time of extension in curing fish, with the same privileges as if used during the first season. Salt withdrawn as aforesaid and unused may be entered for warehouse or rewarehouse and again withdrawn for curing fish under the usual regulations. In such cases care must be taken to preserve upon the entry the date of original importation, so that the warehousing privileges shall not be extended beyond the legal limit of 3 years from that date.

LEATHER, HIDES, AND SKINS

ART. 497. Leather for use in the manufacture of footwear.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1530 (c):

Leather (except leather provided for in subparagraph (d) of this paragraph) made from hides or skins of animals (including fish, reptiles, and birds, but not including cattle of the bovine species), in the rough, in the white, crust, or russet, partly finished, or finished, 25 per centum ad valorem; vegetable-tanned rough leather made from goat or sheep skins (including those commercially known as Indian-tanned goat or sheep skins), 10 per centum ad valorem; any of the foregoing if imported to be used in the manufacture of boots, shoes, or footwear, or cut or wholly or partly manufactured into uppers, vamps, or any forms or shades suitable for conversion into boots, shoes, or footwear, 10 per centum ad valorem.

(b) Leather of the kinds provided for at a rate higher than 10 percent ad valorem in paragraph 1530 (c) or any proclamation of the President supplementary thereto, may be admitted on payment of the estimated duty at the rate of 10 percent ad valorem upon compliance with the following conditions.

(c) There shall be filed in connection with the entry an affidavit of the importer that the leather is imported to be used in the manufacture of boots, shoes, or other footwear.

(d) If the leather is entered for consumption there shall also be filed in connection with the entry a bond on customs Form 7551 or 7553 with an added condition for the payment of the increased duty in the event the leather is not used in the manufacture of footwear. Liquidation of the entry shall be suspended pending proof of use.

(e) When the leather is entered for warehouse, the regular warehouse entry bond shall be given, and withdrawals shall be made on customs Form 7506. Estimated duty at the rate of 10 percent ad valorem shall be deposited at the time of withdrawal and the liquidation of the warehouse entry shall be suspended pending proof of use.

(f) Within 3 years from the date of entry (in the case of warehouse entries as well as consumption entries) the importer shall submit an affidavit of the superintendent or manager of the manufacturing plant that the leather has actually been used in the manufacture of boots, shoes, or other footwear. A blanket affidavit covering all purchases of leather from a particular importer during a given period, or all such purchases with specified exceptions, may be accepted for this purpose, provided the importer shall furnish an affidavit showing in detail, in such manner as to be readily identified with the entry, the leather which he sold to such manufacturer during such period. The latter affidavit should be based on adequate and carefully kept records of the importer, which shall be open at all times to customs agents or other employees of the customs service. Affidavits of the superintendent or manager of the manufacturing plant should be filed in duplicate, one copy to be forwarded to the comptroller of customs.

(g) Upon satisfactory proof of use of the leather in the manufacture of boots, shoes, or other footwear, the entries may be liquidated with duty at the rate of 10 percent ad valorem. When such proof of use is not filed within three years from the date of the entry, the entry shall be liquidated at the higher rate applicable under paragraph 1530 (c).

ART. 498. Leather to be used in the manufacture of harness and saddlery.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1530 (b) (3):

(b) Leather (except leather provided for in subparagraph (d) of this paragraph), made from hides or skins of cattle of the bovine species:

(3) Leather to be used in the manufacture of harness or saddlery, 12½ per centum ad valorem.

(b) Such merchandise may be released on deposit of estimated duty at the rate of 12½ percent ad valorem in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as leather to be used in the manufacture of footwear, except that the proof of use shall show that the leather was used in the manufacture of harness and saddlery and the other documents required shall be modified accordingly.

ART. 499. Hides and skins of the India water buffalo to be used in the manufacture of rawhide articles.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1691 (free list):

Hides and skins of the India water buffalo imported to be used in the manufacture of rawhide articles.

(b) Such merchandise may be released without the deposit of duty in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as leather to be used in the manufacture of footwear, except that the proof of use shall show that the merchandise was used in the manufacture of rawhide articles and the other documents required shall be modified accordingly.

ART. 500. Leather to be used in the manufacture of footballs, basket balls, soccer balls, or medicine balls.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1530 (b) (6):

(b) Leather (except leather provided for in subparagraph (d) of this paragraph), made from hides or skins of cattle of the bovine species:

(6) Leather to be used in the manufacture of footballs, basket balls, soccer balls, or medicine balls, 20 per centum ad valorem.

(b) Leather of the character ordinarily used in the manufacture of footballs, basket balls, soccer balls, or medicine balls, may be released upon the deposit of duty at the rate applicable to such leather not intended for that purpose, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as leather to be used in the manufacture of footwear, except that the affidavit filed on entry shall state that the leather is not to be used in the manufacture of the articles mentioned, and the proof of use shall show that it was used in the manufacture of articles other than footballs, basket balls, soccer balls, or medicine balls, or was exported or destroyed, and the other documents required shall be modified accordingly. If it affirmatively appears at the time of importation that the leather is being imported to be used in the manufacture of the articles mentioned, duty shall be assessed at the rate of 20 percent ad valorem.

PATNA RICE

ART. 501. Patna rice to be used in the manufacture of canned soups.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1752 (free list):

Patna rice cleaned for use in the manufacture of canned soups.

(b) Such rice may be released without the deposit of duty in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as leather to be used in the manufacture of footwear except that the proof of use shall show that the rice was used in the manufacture of canned soups and the other documents required shall be modified accordingly.

MOVING-PICTURE FILMS EXPOSED ABROAD BY AMERICAN PRODUCERS

ART. 502. Reduced rate authorized—Procedure.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1551:

• • • Provided, That upon the importation of photographic and motion-picture films or film negatives taken from the United States and exposed in a foreign country by an American producer of motion pictures operating temporarily in said foreign country in the course of production of a picture 60 per centum or more of which is made in the United States the duty shall be 1 cent per linear foot, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the entry of such films or film negatives under this proviso.

(b) Estimated duties at the appropriate rate under paragraph 1551 should be taken on motion-picture films claimed to be dutiable at the rate of 1 cent per linear foot under the above-quoted proviso, and there shall be required in connection with the entry an affidavit in substantially the following form:

I, ——— ———, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear (or affirm) that I am an American producer of motion-picture films, operating temporarily in a foreign country, and that the ——— feet of films imported by me ex S. S. ——— on ——— were taken from the United States in the S. S. ——— on ——— and exposed by me in (country) ———, for use in the picture entitled ———.

(c) Within 6 months from the date of entry there shall be filed with the collector an affidavit of the American producer in substantially the following form:

I, ——— ———, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear (or affirm) that the ——— feet of motion-picture films imported by me ex S. S. ——— on ——— were used in connection with the production of the picture entitled ——— ———.

I further swear (or affirm) that the number of feet of film in the completed picture is ———, of which ——— feet were made in the United States and ——— feet represent the ——— feet of films exposed in (country) ——— and imported as above stated.

(d) The collector may, in his discretion, extend the 6-months' period during which such affidavit may be furnished and he may refer the claim to a customs agent for investigation if he deems it desirable. Liquidation should be suspended pending the production of the affidavit and the receipt of the report of the customs agent, and if after comparing the number of feet of film exposed abroad and found in the completed picture with the total number of feet in the completed picture, it appears that 60 percent or more of the completed picture was made in the United States, and the other conditions of the proviso are met, the entry should be liquidated with duty at the rate of 1 cent per linear foot on the total number of feet exposed abroad.

MASTER RECORDS AND METAL MATRICES

ART. 503. Free entry authorized—Procedure.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 201, paragraph 1797:

SEC. 201. That on and after the day following the passage of this Act, except as otherwise specially provided for in this Act, the articles mentioned in the following paragraphs, when imported into the United States or into any of its possessions (except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, and the Island of Guam), shall be exempt from duty:

PAR. 1797. Disks of soft wax, commonly known as master records, or metal matrices obtained therefrom, for use in the manufacture of sound records for export purposes.

(b) An importer desiring to avail himself of the privilege of importing under paragraph 1797 shall file an application with the Bureau. If the application has not been approved when merchandise involved is imported, liquidation of the entry covering the importation shall be suspended until advice is received from the Bureau of the action taken in the matter. Notice of the action taken on applications under these regulations will be furnished collectors of customs concerned.

(c) Upon the receipt in the Bureau of the application to import under paragraph 1797, it will be forwarded to the supervising customs agent in charge of the customs agency district in which the factory is located, who will designate an agent to make an investigation at the factory. The agent shall determine whether or not the methods pursued and accounts kept by the importer (and by the manufacturer, if the two are not identical) are adequate to preserve the identity of the imported master records and metal matrices, and to insure notice to the collector of customs of the use, otherwise than in the manufacture of sound records for export purposes, of any master record or metal matrix imported free of duty under paragraph 1797. If the methods pursued or accounts kept are inadequate for the purpose, the customs agent shall direct the changes necessary to be made to accomplish the desired result. He will assist the importer (and the manufacturer, if the two are not identical) in preparing a sworn statement and agreement describing (1) the use to be made of the records or matrices, (2) the means adopted to identify them and the products manufactured with their use, and (3) the accounts kept, and providing (4) that the plant and accounts shall be open to the inspection of customs officers at all reasonable times, and (5) that the importer will notify the collector at the port where the records or matrices were imported and pay the proper duties promptly in the event he uses or intends to use them in the United States otherwise than in the manufacture of sound records for export purposes.

(d) Consumption entries covering importations under paragraph 1797 shall be filed at a port of the customs district in which the factory where the articles will be used is located.

(e) There shall be filed in connection with each such entry an affidavit of the importer setting forth his name and business address; that he is an exporter of sound records; that the master records or metal matrices are imported for use in the manufacture by or for him of sound records for export purposes; and that sound records produced therefrom will not be used or sold for use in the United States.

(f) The invoice filed with the entry shall contain or be supported by a detailed statement of the cost of production, in the country where made, of each master record or metal matrix covered thereby. If the invoice covers merchandise of a total cost in excess of $100, it shall be certified in accordance with articles 275–278.

(g) A bond containing the same conditions as customs Form 7565 shall be given in connection with each entry. Duties on the imported master records or metal matrices will be payable immediately under the terms of the bond, if for any reason whatsoever records manufactured with their use are used, sold, or intended to be sold for use in the United States.

(h) If and when the application is approved, entries already filed and future entries shall be liquidated in due course without the assessment of duty, but the liability on the bonds given with the entries shall be discontinued with respect to any article covered thereby only upon payment of lawful duties thereon or upon satisfactory proof that the article has been exported under customs supervision or destroyed, and that all sound records made with the use of the article have been exported.

(i) An investigation shall be made as often as is deemed necessary to determine that proper records are being kept and that duties, if any are due, have been paid on goods entered under paragraph 1797 and used for purposes other than that contemplated by the paragraph. This investigation shall be made by an agent detailed for the purpose by the supervising customs agent in charge of the customs agency district in which the factory is located at the request of the collector of customs for the collection district.

WOOLS AND HAIR OF THE CAMEL FOR USE IN THE MANUFACTURE OF FLOOR COVERINGS AND OTHER ARTICLES

ART. 504. Importation under bond.—Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 1101 (a):

Wools: Donskoi, Smyrna, Cordova, Valparaiso, Ecuadorean, Syrian, Aleppo, Georgian, Turkestan, Arabian, Bagdad, Persian, Sistan, East Indian, Thibetan, Chinese, Manchurian, Mongolian, Egyptian, Sudan, Cyprus, Sardinian, Pyrenean, Oporto, Iceland, Scotch Blackface, Black Spanish, Kerry, Haslock, and Welsh Mountain; similar wools without merino or English blood; all other wools of whatever blood or origin not finer than 40s; and hair of the camel; all the foregoing, in the grease or washed, 24 cents per pound of clean content; scoured, 27 cents per pound of clean content; on the skin, 22 cents per pound of clean content; sorted, or matchings, if not scoured, 25 cents per pound of clean content: Provided, That a tolerance of not more than 10 per centum of wools not finer than 44s may be allowed in each bale or package of wools imported as not finer than 40s: Provided further, That all the foregoing may be imported under bond in an amount to be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury and under such regulations as he shall prescribe; and if within three years from the date of importation or withdrawal from bonded warehouse satisfactory proof is furnished that the wools or hair have been used in the manufacture of yarns which have been used in the manufacture of press cloth, camel's hair belting, rugs, carpets, or any other floor covering, or in the manufacture of knit or felt boots or heavy fulled lumbermen's socks, the duties shall be remitted or refunded: And provided further, That if any such wools or hair imported under bond as above prescribed are used in the manufacture of articles other than press cloth, camel's hair belting, rugs, carpets, or any other floor coverings, or knit or felt boots or heavy fulled lumbermen's socks, there shall be levied, collected, and paid on any such wools or hair so used in violation of the bond, in addition to the regular duties provided by this paragraph, 50 cents per pound, which shall not be remitted or refunded on exportation of the articles or for any other reason.

ART. 505. Entry.—(a) Such wool or hair may be entered on customs Form 7501 (consumption entry) and be immediately released under bond, or may be entered for warehouse on customs Form 7502 and remain in bonded warehouse under the ordinary warehouse bond until appropriately withdrawn or otherwise disposed of in accordance with law.

(b) When entry is made on customs Form 7501, it shall have indorsed thereon the following notation: "Above merchandise entered under bond for use in the manufacture of ——— (press cloth, belting, floor coverings, knit or felt boots, or lumbermen's socks) under the provisions of title I, schedule 11, paragraph 1101 (a), Tariff Act of 1930", which indorsement shall be signed by the obligor on the bond. When the merchandise is entered for warehouse, withdrawals for use in the manufacture of the articles enumerated shall be made on customs Form 7506 in the name of the obligor on the bond.

(c) When wool or hair of the above class has been withdrawn under bond from warehouse and delivered for use in the manufacture of the enumerated articles, it shall not be returned to the bonded warehouse and be again entitled to this privilege.

ART. 506. Bond—Form—Penalty.—(a) At the time of making entry for consumption or withdrawal from warehouse of the wool or hair there shall be filed a bond on customs Form 7547 or 7549.

(b) A single entry or term bond shall be given by each and every dealer, manipulator, or manufacturer through whose hands the bonded wool or hair passes until it is manufactured into the enumerated articles.

ART. 507. Refund of duty.—(a) Imported wool or hair of the class covered by paragraph 1101 (a), upon which the duty has been paid while in bonded warehouse, may be withdrawn in accordance with the provisions of these regulations, and upon the production of the proof hereinafter required the duty paid may be refunded.

(b) Imported wool or hair upon which the duty has been paid under a consumption entry and which is unconditionally released from customs custody shall not be entitled to the privilege of being entered under bond under the provisions of paragraph 1101 (a) and such duty shall not be refunded.

ART. 508. Sworn statements.—(a) Each manipulator or manufacturer shall file with the collector of customs in whose district the abstracts will be liquidated, a sworn statement setting forth (1) the name and business organization of the manipulator or manufacturer; (2) the location of the factory; (3) the names of the articles produced; (4) the names of the materials used; (5) a description of the process of manipulation or manufacture; (6) the method of storing the various lots of materials used and the articles produced therefrom; and (7) an outline of the records kept for the purpose of preparing the abstract required by article 510.

(b) The collector will transmit the sworn statement for verification to the proper supervising customs agent. That officer, after verification, will transmit three copies of the document to the Bureau with his report in triplicate. Upon approval by the Bureau, the collector will liquidate the abstracts and properly credit the bond.

ART. 509. Records of manufacture.—(a) Each lot of wool or hair released under bond shall be marked or stored in such manner as to identify it with the import entry so long as it remains in the original bales, or in the bales or packages in which it is withdrawn from a manipulating warehouse under the provisions of section 562 of the tariff act.

(b) In the preliminary processes of pulling, washing, sorting, scouring, and carbonizing, the wool or hair may be processed in separate lots, in which case the records shall show the quantity and identity of the imported wool or hair used, and the quantity of clean wool or hair obtained, and if sorted, the quantity of each sort. Two or more import lots or parts thereof may be combined into one or more manufacturing or sorting lots to be thereafter identified by lot numbers or symbols, and the records shall show the quantity of wool or hair from each import lot used in making up the manufacturing or sorting lot. The entire product of a period of manufacture may be designated as a manufacturing lot.

(c) The yarn spinner may trace the wool or hair while in his possession by means of individual manufacturing lots or by periods of manufacture. In either case his records shall show the quantity of wool or hair received by him, identifying it by import lots, if received in the condition as imported, or by manufacturing lots, if received from a prior manipulator or manufacturer. His records shall also show the quantity of wool or hair from each lot used in making up the manufacturing lot of yarn, or during the period of manufacture, as the case may be, the quantity of each kind or number of yarn obtained, the quantity of noils obtained and the disposition thereof, together with the quantity and value of each kind of waste.

(d) If the manufacturer of the enumerated articles spins his own yarns he will proceed as provided in the preceding paragraphs of this article. Yarns, whether spun by such manufacturer or otherwise obtained, shall be identified by manufacturing lots. The records of each such manufacturer shall show the quantities of each lot of yarn withdrawn from stock, and the period of manufacture during which it is used. Each such manufacturer shall keep permanent records of the quantity of each kind and size of articles manufactured, the period of manufacture thereof, the quantities sold, the quantities and values of each kind of waste, and the names and addresses of the purchasers of the articles.

(e) In addition to the above the records of each manipulator or manufacturer shall show from whom the material manipulated or manufactured by him was received and to whom the finished product was transferred.

ART. 510. Abstracts of records of manufacturer.—(a) Upon the completion of each lot or each period of manufacture, as the case may be, the manipulator or manufacturer shall file with the collector of customs where his bond is deposited, an abstract from his records of manufacture showing the receipt and disposition of the wool or hair or products thereof in the manner indicated above. The manufacturer of the enumerated articles may omit from his abstract the names and addresses of his customers.

(b) Each such abstract shall bear the following affidavit, signed by a responsible officer or member of the firm:

I, ------ ------, do hereby solemnly swear (affirm) that this document is a true and correct copy of our records of manufacture of the articles covered thereby; that the articles were manufactured from the materials and in the manner referred to therein; that they have been disposed of as indicated therein; and that the originals of these records together with our factory will at all reasonable times be open for inspection by proper officers of the Government.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this ------ day of ------, 193--.

---

Notary Public or Deputy Collector of Customs.

(c) If deemed necessary, collectors of customs will refer such abstracts to the supervising customs agents for verification.

(d) If the wool or hair or their products are not manipulated or manufactured while in the possession of any bonded dealer or manipulator or manufacturer, an abstract will not be required.

ART. 511. Transfer certificates.—Wool or hair and partly manufactured wool or hair, including noils, may be transferred by one bonded dealer, manipulator, or manufacturer to another bonded dealer, manipulator, or manufacturer. Such transfer shall be made on transfer certificate, customs Form 7531–A. In cases where the bonds of both the transferor and transferee are on file in the office of a collector of customs, the transfer certificate shall be filed with that officer in duplicate. Where the bond of the transferee is on file in another customs district, the transfer certificate shall be filed in triplicate, one copy of which shall be retained by the collector at the place of filing and two copies forwarded to the collector where the bond of the transferee is on file. The collector at the second port shall acknowledge receipt of said certificate. The transferor shall not be relieved from liability under his bond until the transferred articles have become a charge against the bond of the transferee.

ART. 512. Charges against bonds and cancelation thereof.—(a) Upon the withdrawal of raw wool or hair it shall be charged against the bond of the person withdrawing it, and upon the production of the roof provided for above that the wool or hair has been finally accounted for, or upon the production of a transfer certificate, proper credit on the bond shall be given.

(b) Only one term bond shall be required from each dealer, manipulator, or manufacturer, but if wool or hair is withdrawn by him at ports other than that at which his bond is on file, a copy of the bond, certified by the collector at the port where filed, shall be on file at such other ports, and the collector at the port of withdrawal shall forward to the collector at the port where the bond is on file a certificate, customs Form 7531, showing the particulars of importation of the wool or hair withdrawn, so that it may be charged against the bond of the party withdrawing the same.

(c) When a transfer certificate is filed the wool or hair covered thereby shall be charged against the bond of the person to whom it is transferred.

(d) In crediting bonds with the quantity of imported wool or hair used, all wastes, except noils, whether valuable or not, shall be considered as having been used in the manufacture of the enumerated articles and due allowance shall be made therefor. Credit for the noils shall not be made unless shown to have been used in the manufacture of the enumerated articles. If not so used, duty shall be assessed thereon on the following basis: The regular duty assessable on the wool or hair in its condition as imported shall be distributed to the tops and noils according to their average relative values during the period of manufacture in which produced. The amount of duty distributed to the noils divided by the number of pounds of noils produced will give the rate of duty per pound to be applied to the noils not used in the manufacture of the enumerated articles.

(c) Any noils on which duty has been paid on the basis above outlined may be used for purposes other than the manufacture of the enumerated articles without the assessment of the additional duty of 50 cents per pound provided by paragraph 1101 (a). Noils so obtained may also be exported under customs supervision and when so exported proper credit shall be given therefor on the manufacturer's bond.

ART. 513. Wool or hair not used—Duty on.—(a) If proof is not furnished within three years from the date of entry or withdrawal from warehouse that all of the wool or hair entered or withdrawn under bond was used during such period in the manufacture of the enumerated articles in accordance with these regulations, the regular duty shall be assessed on the portion not used.

(b) If wool or hair entered or withdrawn under the provisions of paragraph 1101 (a) and these regulations is used in the manufacture of articles other than the enumerated articles there shall be assessed and collected, in addition to duties on such wool or hair, 50 cents per pound; provided that no such additional duty shall be assessed on noils.

STEAMER RUGS, AUTOMOBILE ROBES AND CARRIAGE ROBES WHOLLY OR IN CHIEF VALUE OF WOOL

PROTESTS FILED UNDER SECTION 516 (B), TARIFF ACT OF 1930 AGAINST LIQUIDATION OF AN ENTRY COVERING STEAMER RUGS OF THE KIND DESCRIBED IN T. D. 48846—COLLECTORS OF CUSTOMS INSTRUCTED TO SUSPEND LIQUIDATION OF ENTRIES

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Reference is made to T. D. 48846, approved March 4, 1937, published in the weekly Treasury Decisions, volume 71, no. 10 of March 11, 1937, in regard to the question of the classification of and rate of duty imposed on steamer rugs, automobile robes and carriage robes wholly or in chief value of wool, and having fringe consisting of a portion of the warp threads and made by dropping certain weft threads.

Following the publication of T. D. 48846 the Bush Woolen Mills Company, Dresden, Ohio, a domestic manufacturer of such merchandise, filed a notice that it desired to protest the classification approved in the decision referred to above and in accordance with the provisions of section 516 (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1516 (b)) the complainant was furnished by the Bureau with information as to entries and consignees of the merchandise of the character described in said treasury decision entered at the port of Philadelphia. The collector of customs advised the complainant in this case, the Bush Woolen Mills Company, of the liquidation on July 17, 1937, of consumption entry no. 11090 of May 11, 1937.

The Bureau was informed by letter dated August 5, 1937, from the collector of customs, Philadelphia, Pa., that he received on that date a protest filed by the complainant against the liquidation of the above-mentioned entry.

In view of the above, and in accordance with the provisions of section 516 (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, collectors of customs are hereby ordered to suspend, pending the decision of the United States Customs Court upon the protest filed against the liquidation of the entry in question, the liquidation at all ports of all unliquidated entries covering steamer rugs, automobile robes and carriage robes, the subject of T. D. 48846, imported or withdrawn from warehouse after the expiration of thirty days after the publication of T. D. 48846, and to comply in all respects, in connection with the liquidation or reliquidation of entries of such merchandise, with the provisions of section 516 of the Tariff Act of 1930.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 35 as Corrected]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A PUBLIC HEARING FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE TO ENABLE THE COMMISSION TO DETERMINE WHETHER OR NOT THE COALS AND THE PRODUCERS THEREOF IN THE STATES OF NORTH DAKOTA AND SOUTH DAKOTA ARE SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937, AND TO DETERMINE WHETHER A CHANGE IN THE TERRITORIAL BOUNDARIES OR LIMITS OF DISTRICT NO. 21 AND MINIMUM PRICE AREA NO. 8, AS DEFINED IN SAID ACT, OR A CONSOLIDATION OF SUCH DISTRICT AND PRICE AREA WITH OTHER DISTRICTS AND PRICE AREAS IS NECESSARY

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs:

1. A public hearing shall be held at the Prince Hotel in the City of Bismarck, North Dakota, on the 13th day of September, 1937, commencing at the hour of 1:00 o'clock P. M., and at the Governor's Reception Room in the City of Pierre, South Dakota, on the 16th day of September, 1937, commencing at the hour of 1:00 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Commission to determine if such coals and the producers thereof in said states are subject to the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and further, to enable the Commission to issue certificates of exemption to such producers of coal, other than bituminous coal, in said states as are entitled thereto under and by virtue of the provisions of Section 17 (b) of said Act excluding lignite coal, which is defined as a lignitic coal having calorific value in British thermal units of less than seven thousand six hundred per pound and having a natural moisture content in place of the mine of 30 per centum or more; and for the further purpose of enabling the Commission to determine whether a change in the territorial boundaries or limits of District No. 21 and Minimum Price Area No. 8, as defined in said Act, or a consolidation of said District and Price Area with other Districts and Price Areas as defined in said Act, will render the establishment of minimum prices more practicable in accordance with the standards set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of Part II of Section 4 of said Act.

2. Any producer of coal whether bituminous, semibituminous, subbituminous or lignite coal, the Consumers' Counsel, Code Members, representatives of District Boards and all other interested parties may appear at said hearing and be heard.

3. Notice of said hearing shall be given under direction of the Secretary of the Commission by mailing a copy of this order to the Consumers' Counsel to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to the District Boards for Districts 12, 15, 16, 19, 20 and 22, and by publication of notice upon three (3) consecutive days in a newspaper of general circulation in the state of North Dakota and in a newspaper of general circulation in the state of South Dakota. The notice published in said newspaper shall contain the date and place of the hearing and a concise statement of the purpose thereof.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 23rd day of August, 1937.

PACKING AND STAMPING

ART. 514. Cigars, cheroots, and cigarettes.—(a) All cigars, cheroots, and cigarettes, except when arriving by mail, shall, on importation, be placed in the public stores or in a designated bonded warehouse, to remain until inspected, weighed, and stamped, or repacked, if necessary, under customs and internal-revenue laws.

(b) After the cigars or cheroots have been examined, weighed, and appraised by the appraising officer, and before release, the inspecting officer shall affix a customs stamp to each box of cigars or cheroots, which stamp shall be canceled by the said officer by placing thereon his name, that of the port of entry, the name of the importing vessel, and the serial number which must be applied to each importation made by individual importers or firms and not to each box. The inspecting officer must see that the required internal-revenue stamps are placed upon all boxes of cigars or cheroots, and canceled by the importer. The inspecting officer must also see that the classification label prescribed by Internal Revenue Regulations No. 8 is affixed to each box of cigars weighing more than 3 pounds per thousand.

(c) Customs and internal-revenue stamps must be affixed to all packages of imported cigarettes, and be canceled by the importer in accordance with Internal Revenue Regulations No. 8.

(d) No cigars or cheroots weighing more than 3 pounds per 1,000 shall be imported unless packed in boxes of 3, 5, 7, 10, 12, 13, 20, 25, 50, 100, 200, 250, or 500; nor cigarettes or small cigars weighing not more than 3 pounds per 1,000, unless in packages containing 5, 8, 10, 12, 15, 16, 20, 24, 40, 50, 80, or 100. Cigars, cheroots, and cigarettes not contained in such packages at the time of importation may be repacked therein under customs supervision at the expense of the importer.

(e) The inspector will affix customs stamps to all domestic cigars, cheroots, and cigarettes returned, and write across the face of the stamp in red ink, "American goods returned" and his initials. They must be packed in the same manner as other imported cigars, cheroots, or cigarettes.

(f) Any customs officer who permits imported cigars or cigarettes to leave customs custody, or any person who sells or offers for sale any such merchandise, without the required stamps having been affixed, is subject to a fine and imprisonment.

(g) Instructions for weighing imported cigars, cheroots, and cigarettes will be found in article 1363.

(h) See article 420 for instructions relative to stamping tobacco products brought in passengers' baggage; article 376 relative to stamping tobacco products imported by mail, and article 264 for stamping tobacco products from the Philippine Islands.

ART. 515. Tobacco and snuff.—(a) All smoking tobacco, snuff, fine-cut chewing tobacco, all cut and granulated tobacco, all shorts, the refuse of fine-cut chewing tobacco, which has passed through a riddle of 36 meshes per square inch, and all refuse scraps, clippings, cuttings, and sweepings of tobacco, and all other kinds of tobacco not otherwise provided for must be packed in packages containing ⅛, ¼, ½, ⅝, ¾, ⅞, 1, 1⅛, 1¼, 1⅜, 1½, 1⅝, 1¾, 1⅞, 2, 2¼, 2½, 2¾ 3, 3¼, 3½, 3¾, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, or 16 ounces, except snuff in bladders or jars, which may contain not exceeding 20 pounds, and cavendish plug and twist tobacco, which may be put up in packages not exceeding 200 pounds net weight.

(b) The foregoing requirement applies to imported tobacco and snuff, and therefore no importations thereof may be delivered from customs custody unless properly packed and internal-revenue stamps showing payment of taxes have been affixed and canceled by the importer. Such merchandise is subject to the internal-revenue tax in addition to customs duties. Customs inspection stamps are not required on imported manufactured tobacco or snuff, but in the case of returned American manufactured tobacco or snuff the packages shall be marked or stamped, preferably over the internal-revenue stamp, with the inscription "American goods returned."

(c) Any customs officer who permits imported manufactured tobacco to leave customs custody without the required stamps having been affixed is subject to a fine and imprisonment.

(d) Manufactured tobacco or snuff imported in packages of sizes other than those required by law may be repacked in customs custody at the expense of the owner or importer. If necessary the collector may cause such tobacco or snuff to be transferred to a bonded warehouse, to be designated by him, for the purpose of repacking and stamping.

ART. 516. Cigarette papers and tubes.—(a) The procedure for the collection of internal-revenue tax on such articles is prescribed in article 188 of Internal Revenue Regulations No. 8, revised April 1928.

(b) Importers of cigarette tubes must affix to each package of tubes the internal-revenue stamps prescribed in paragraph (d) of the said article and cancel the same before release from customs custody.

ART. 517. Playing cards.—(a) Imported playing cards shall not be permitted to pass out of customs custody until the required internal-revenue stamps have been affixed thereto and canceled by the importer in accordance with Internal Revenue Regulations No. 66.

(b) Customs inspection stamps denoting the payment of duty equal to the internal-revenue tax must be affixed to reimported playing cards which were exported without the payment of tax, but no internal-revenue stamps are required.

ART. 518. Oleomargarine — Detention — Reports.—(a) All imported oleomargarine, and imported articles suspected of being oleomargarine, will be detained by the collector, and the facts reported to the Bureau and to the collector of internal revenue of the district, to whom such samples shall be furnished as may be requested.

(b) Imported oleomargarine must be put up in wooden packages of not less than 10 pounds each.

(c) No imported oleomargarine shall be delivered by the collector for consumption until the proper internal-revenue stamps have been affixed and canceled by the importer as required by Internal Revenue Regulations No. 9. Any collector of customs who permits oleomargarine to pass out of his custody before it is properly packed and stamped is liable to a penalty of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000 and to imprisonment for not less than 6 months nor more than 3 years.

(d) Every person who sells or offers for sale any imported oleomargarine, or oleomargarine purporting or claimed to have been imported, not put up in packages and stamped as provided by law, is subject to a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $5,000 and imprisonment for not less than 6 months nor more than 2 years.

ART. 519. Purchase of internal-revenue stamps.—Internal-revenue stamps for imported tobacco products, cigarette tubes, playing cards, and oleomargarine will be sold to the owner or consignee of the merchandise by the collector of internal revenue of the district in which is located the office of the collector of customs where the customs entry is filed, but only upon requisition therefor on internal-revenue Form 923, duly executed by an authorized customs officer.

DISTILLED SPIRITS, WINE, ETC.

ART. 520. Marking and stamping of spirits, wines, malt liquors, and alcoholic fruit juices in casks and similar containers.—(a) United States Code, title 19, section 467, and Tariff Act of 1930, paragraph 804:

SEC 467. All distilled spirits, wines, and malt liquors, imported in pipes, hogsheads, tierces, barrels, casks, or other similar packages, shall be first placed in public store or bonded warehouse, and shall not be removed therefrom until the same shall have been inspected, marked, and branded by a United States customs-gauger, and a stamp affixed to each package, indicating the date and particulars of such inspection; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe the form of, and provide, the requisite stamps, and to make all regulations which he may deem necessary and proper for carrying the foregoing requirements into effect. Any pipe, hogshead, tierce, barrel, cask, or other package withdrawn from public store or bonded warehouse purporting to contain imported liquor, found without having thereon the stamp hereby required, shall be, with its contents, forfeited to the United States; * * * (Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, sec. 11, 20 Stat. 342.)

PAR. 804. Still wines, including ginger wine or ginger cordial, vermouth, and rice wine or sake, and similar beverages * * * Provided, That any of the foregoing articles specified in this paragraph when imported containing more than 24 per centum of alcohol shall be classed as spirits * * *.

(b) The provision in section 467 above that distilled spirits, wines, and malt liquors shall be first placed in public store or bonded warehouse is construed as directory only and such merchandise, unless otherwise required to be sent to the public store, may in the discretion of the collector, be inspected, gauged, marked, and stamped at the place of unlading, or at another suitable place if, in the opinion of the collector, such inspection, etc., can be done there with equal facility and effectiveness.

(c) On requisition therefor a moderate supply of customs stamps for liquors in casks or similar containers will be furnished by the Department to such ports as have actual use for them. The stamps are of three kinds and colors, viz: those printed in black for imported distilled spirits, those printed in green for reimported domestic distilled spirits, and those printed in brown for wines and malt liquors. The brown stamps will also be used for fruit juices containing alcohol or distilled spirits when imported in casks or similar containers.

(d) When the stamps are affixed to the containers they shall be filled in to show the date when issued, the name of the importer, the place from which shipped, the name of the vessel or the car number and initials, the date of arrival, the commercial name of the liquor in the container, the port of entry, the entry number, the name of the gauger, the number of wine gallons, and, in the case of distilled spirits, the number of proof gallons.

(e) Immediately after any distilled spirits, wines, malt liquors, or alcoholic fruit juices imported in casks or similar containers have been entered for consumption or warehouse or before such goods are sent under general order each container, when gauged by the rod method, shall be carefully gauged without reference to any marks or brands already on the container and shall be marked with the serial number of the customs stamp which shall be scored or branded on the head of the container. (See art. 1371 (f) for procedure to be followed when gauging is done by the weight method.)

(f) The appropriate stamp properly filled in shall, immediately after gauging, be securely affixed to the head of each container over the spigot hole, if any. In the case of wooden containers the stamp shall be tacked with at least six tacks. After having been affixed the stamps shall be immediately canceled with a stencil plate having five parallel waved lines long enough to extend 1 inch beyond each end of the stamp. A coating of transparent varnish or other suitable substance should then be applied over the stamp to protect and preserve it. If alcoholic liquors stamped as herein provided are withdrawn from customs custody for exportation the customs stamp on the container so withdrawn shall be effectively obliterated before release from such custody.

(g) The collector, or at New York, the surveyor, shall keep a record of customs stamps issued showing the officer to whom issued, stamp number, and date of issue, and as stamps are used he shall note on the same record the numbers used and the entry number. When all the stamps in a book have been used, the book of stubs shall be checked against the record and an appropriate certificate signed by the checking officer shall be attached to the book of stubs which shall be filed in the collector's office.

(NOTE.—For additional marking requirements re containers see art. 662.)

ART. 521. Strip stamps—Distilled spirits imported in bottles.—(a) United States Code, title 26, section 1152a:

No person shall (except as provided in sec. 1152b) transport, possess, buy, sell, or transfer any distilled spirits, unless the immediate container thereof has affixed thereto a stamp denoting the quantity of distilled spirits contained therein and evidencing payment of all internal-revenue taxes imposed on such spirits. The provisions of this section and sections 1152b to 1152g shall not apply to—

(a) Distilled spirits placed in a container for immediate consumption on the premises or for preparation for such consumption;

(b) Distilled spirits in bond or in customs custody;

(c) Distilled spirits in immediate containers required to be stamped under existing law;

(d) Distilled spirits in actual process of rectification, blending, or bottling, or in actual use in processes of manufacture;

(e) Distilled spirits on which no internal-revenue tax is required to be paid;

(f) Distilled spirits not intended for sale or for use in the manufacture or production of any article intended for sale; or

(g) Any regularly established common carrier receiving, transporting, delivering, or holding for transportation or delivery distilled spirits in the ordinary course of its business as a common carrier. (Jan. 11, 1934, c. 1, title II, sec. 201, 48 Stat. 316.)

(b) All applications for the purchase of red strip stamps, internal-revenue Form 428, "Order for Stamps—Distilled Spirits Bottle Strips", will be filed in triplicate. The collector of customs who approves the internal-revenue Form 428 will, after approval, retain one copy and return the original and one copy to the applicant for submission to the appropriate collector of internal revenue. The following conditions must be observed:

1. Collectors of customs will be permitted to approve internal-revenue Form 428, "Order for Stamps", only when presented by holders of Federal Alcohol Administration permits authorizing the importation of distilled spirits.

2. An importer must present and file (if he has not already done so) with collectors of customs a certified or photostatic copy of his Federal Alcohol Administration permit at the time he presents his next internal-revenue Form 428 for approval.

3. Where an importer has given a broker or another agent power of attorney to sign internal-revenue Form 428 the importer's name must be given, followed by the signature of the person authorized and the words "Attorney in Fact." A copy of the power of attorney must be filed with the collectors of customs.

4. Collectors of customs will see that the local address of the importer or his agent is given on internal-revenue Form 428 before they approve it.

(c) Strip stamps will be attached to bottles of distilled spirits for importation only as follows: (1) under supervision of a customs officer in the bonded warehouse, as prescribed by paragraph (h) of this article; (2) under the supervision of an officer abroad, assigned by the collector of customs, as prescribed by paragraph (i) of this article; or (3) by the producer or exporter in the foreign country, as prescribed by paragraph (j) of this article.

(d) Stamps prescribed by these regulations will be in the following denominations:

|---|---|
| 1 gallon. | 1 pint. |
| ½ gallon. | ⅘ pint. |
| 1 quart. | ¾ pint. |
| ⅘ quart. | ½ pint. |
| ¾ quart. | Less than ½ pint. |

The price is 1 cent for each stamp, except that in the case of stamps for bottles of less than one-half pint, the price is one-quarter of 1 cent for each stamp.

(e) The importer shall have indelibly overprinted in plain and legible letters the figures on each of the strip stamps, at his expense, the name and address of the importer and the brand and kind of distilled spirits contained in the bottles, which shall, for example, be as follows: "John Doe & Co., Baltimore, Md., Gold Medal Irish Whiskey." Thereafter the importer shall submit the strip stamps to the collector of customs who will verify the overprinting, make an endorsement showing the verification on the copy of internal-revenue Form 428 attached to the entry, and return the strip stamps to the importer. The distilled spirits shall not be released from customs custody until such verification and endorsement have been made.

(f) The stamps must be affixed to the bottles with the use of strong adhesive glue or paste. The stamps must pass over the mouth of the bottle, extending an equal distance on two sides of the bottle. No part of the stamp shall be obscured or covered by any label or otherwise.

(g) Distilled spirits arriving in the United States, Hawaii, or Alaska from any territory or possession of the United States in which the internal-revenue laws of the United States are not in effect shall be subject to the provisions of sections 1152a to 1152g, title 26, United States Code, and regulations issued pursuant thereto, and shall, for the purposes of obtaining and affixing stamps, be treated as an importation.

(h) Strip stamps affixed in customs bonded warehouse.—(1) No distilled spirits imported in bottles shall be released from customs custody until there has been affixed to each bottle, under the supervision of a customs officer in a bonded warehouse, the strip stamp required by sections 1152a to 1152g, title 26, United States Code. At ports where there is no bonded warehouse, no distilled spirits imported in bottles shall be released until the strip stamps have been affixed to the bottles under the supervision of a customs officer.

(NOTE.—Shipments of distilled spirits in bonded warehouse on July 1, 1936, or covered by invoices certified prior to Aug. 1, 1936, may be withdrawn and strip stamps sent by the importer or subsequent vendor to the vendee as prescribed by I. R. T. D. 4473.)

(2) Expenses of cartage, storage, repacking, handling, or other labor connected with the opening of cases and affixing of stamps to the bottles shall be borne by the importer.

(3) There shall be indelibly stamped upon each case by the customs officer supervising the affixing of strip stamps to bottles the following legend:

PORT OF _____
_____, 193__.
(Month) (Day)

This is to certify that on this date the strip stamps required by the Liquor Taxing Act of 1934 were affixed, under my supervision, to the bottles of distilled spirits contained herein, consisting of—

(Number of bottles)
(Size of bottles)
(Name)
(Official designation)

(4) Rubber stamps bearing the above legend will be furnished by the Bureau of Customs upon requisition therefor.

(i) Conditions under which importers of distilled spirits will be permitted to purchase stamps to be attached to the containers by the distiller in the foreign country who exports the spirits to this country.—(1) The importer will make requisition on internal-revenue Form 428 for stamps to be sent to the foreign exporter, and will attach to the internal-revenue Form 428 a statement setting forth the name and address of the foreign exporter and the port through which the spirits are to be imported. The internal-revenue Form 428, together with the statement, will be submitted to the collector of customs of the port through which the spirits are to be imported. The collector of customs will retain the statement in his files and will approve the internal-revenue Form 428 if he is satisfied that the stamps are required for the stamping of bottles to be imported. The importer will submit the approved internal-revenue Form 428 to the collector of internal revenue, who will sell the requisite stamps to the importer.

(2) The importer shall have indelibly overprinted in plain and legible letters and figures on each of the strip stamps, at his expense, the name and address of the importer and the brand and kind of distilled spirits contained in the bottles, which shall, for example, be as follows: "John Doe & Co., Baltimore, Md., Gold Medal Irish Whiskey." The importer shall submit the strip stamps to the collector of customs, who will verify the overprinting, and make an endorsement showing the verification on the statement submitted to him by the importer with the internal-revenue Form 428, and which was retained by the collector.

(3) The collector of customs to whom the stamps are delivered by the importer will assign an officer to the distillery in the foreign country to supervise the affixing of the stamps to the containers. The collector of customs will deliver the stamps to the officer assigned to the foreign distillery. The officer will retain the stamps in his custody, keeping them locked in a safe or other secure place provided by the distiller, the key to which shall at all times be in the possession of the officer.

(4) The officer will deliver to the distiller such stamps as may be required during bottling operations, and will personally assure himself that all stamps delivered to the distiller are affixed to the bottles filled with spirits for export to the United States.

(5) The officer supervising the affixing of the stamps to bottles at the foreign distillery will stamp the following legend upon each case:

_____, 193__.
(Place) (Month) (Day)

This is to certify that on this date the strip stamps required by the Liquor Taxing Act of 1934 were affixed, under my supervision, to the bottles of distilled spirits contained herein, consisting of—

(Number of bottles)
(Size of bottles)
(Name)
(Official designation)

This legend, when stamped on the case and filled in by the officer, may upon importation be accepted by customs officers as evidence that the bottles contained therein bear strip stamps.

(6) The actual and necessary expenses of transportation and subsistence of the customs officer assigned under authority of this paragraph shall be collected from the importer by the collector of customs.

(7) Upon entry of distilled spirits bearing strip stamps affixed under supervision of a customs officer abroad, the procedure outlined in paragraph (j) (5), (6), (7), and (8), of this article will be followed.

(j) Strip stamps to be affixed to bottles of distilled spirits by the producer or exporter in the foreign country. At the option of the importer, the following procedure may be followed in lieu of that prescribed in paragraph (h) or (i) of this article (I. R. T. Ds. 4464, 4473, and 4496).

(1) The importer, or his duly authorized agent, will make requisition on internal-revenue Form 428, in triplicate, for strip stamps to be sent to the foreign producer or exporter, and will attach thereto a statement under oath in the following form:

Port of _____

I solemnly swear (or affirm) that the stamps requested on the internal-revenue Form 428 to which this statement is attached, are required, and will be used, for the quantities of the brands and kinds of distilled spirits listed below, which will be imported by _____, holder of I Permit No. _____
(Name and address of importer)
_____, issued by the Federal Alcohol Administration, from _____
(Name and address of the foreign producer or exporter) through the ports of _____ (Ports at which warehouse or consumption entries will be filed) to supply existing orders and/or anticipated requirements within thirty days from this date.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 193__.

The internal-revenue Form 428, in triplicate, together with the sworn statement, will be submitted to the collector of customs of the district in which the place of business of the importer, or his duly authorized agent, is located. The collector of customs will approve the internal-revenue Form 428 if he is satisfied that the importer is the holder of an I permit issued by the Federal Alcohol Administration, and that the stamps are required for distilled spirits to be imported to supply existing orders and/or anticipated requirements within 30 days from the date of requisition. The importer, or his duly authorized agent, will submit the original with one copy of the approved internal-revenue Form 428 to the collector of internal revenue, who will sell him the strip stamps applied for, and the collector of customs will attach the retained copy of internal-revenue Form 428 to the sworn statement to be retained in his files.

(2) The importer, or his duly authorized agent, shall have indelibly overprinted in plain and legible letters and figures on each of the strip stamps, at his expense, the name and address of the importer and the brand and kind of distilled spirits contained in the bottles, which shall, for example, be as follows: "John Doe & Co., Baltimore, Md., Gold Medal Irish Whiskey." The importer, or his duly authorized agent, shall submit the strip stamps to the collector of customs, who will verify the overprinting and make an endorsement showing the verification on the sworn statement submitted with internal-revenue Form 428. After verification and endorsement on the sworn statement, the collector of customs will deliver the strip stamps to the importer, or his duly authorized agent, for transmission to the producer or exporter abroad. The collector will transmit a copy of the sworn statement to the collector of customs at each of the ports at which warehouse or consumption entries will be filed.

(3) The foreign producer or exporter will plainly and legibly mark the following legend on each case containing bottles of spirits to which strip stamps are attached:

The stamps required by the United States Liquor Taxing Act of 1934 are affixed to the bottles contained in this case, consisting of _____ bottles, each containing _____ (Number) (Net contents of bottles)
(Name of producer or exporter)

(4) Upon arrival of the distilled spirits in this country, warehouse entries and consumption entries shall have endorsed thereon by the importer, or his duly authorized agent, the following legend:

Strip stamps required by the Liquor Taxing Act of 1934 were affixed abroad. The stamps were purchased by _____ upon a requisition approved by the collector of (Name of purchaser)
customs at _____ (Port where internal-revenue Form 428 was approved) on _____
(Date of approval of internal-revenue Form 428)

(5) The collector of customs of the port at which warehouse or consumption entries are filed shall promptly notify the collector of customs who approved the requisition on internal-revenue Form 428, of the number and denomination of strip stamps shown by the usual customs examination to have been attached to the containers. The collector of customs who approved the requisition will credit such strip stamps against the number purchased under the internal-revenue Form 428 described in the endorsement on the entry referred to in paragraph 4.

(6) In the event of diversion of all or part of the spirits to a port other than that specified in the sworn statement filed with internal-revenue Form 428, the importer shall request the collector of customs who approved the internal-revenue Form 428 to transmit a copy of the statement to the collector of customs at the port to which the spirits are diverted. The collector of customs at the port to which the spirits were diverted shall promptly notify the collector of customs who approved the internal-revenue Form 428 of the number and denomination of strip stamps shown by the usual customs examination to have been attached to the containers.

(7) In case any irregularities or discrepancies are found, the collector of customs at the port of entry shall make demand for redelivery of unexamined packages, and shall not release examination or redelivered packages until satisfactory explanations and/or proper corrections have been made.

(8) Any breach of these regulations, or failure to use the strip stamps within a reasonable time for the purpose for which they were procured, not satisfactorily explained to the collector of customs, will be grounds for denial of approval of further requisitions for purchase of strip stamps for affixing abroad under these regulations.

(9) Collectors of customs will furnish the Bureau of Customs on April 1, July 1, October 1, and January 1 of each year a consolidated report showing the name of the importer, number of stamps, and denomination of stamps purchased on requisitions on internal-revenue Form 428, approved by them, not used within ninety days from the date of approval.

(k) Imported distilled spirits having strip stamps affixed, which spirits are diverted by the importer for exportation purposes, should retain the red strip stamps while passing in transit through the United States, though under bond, but the strip stamps must be effectively destroyed at the port of exportation by the exporter under customs supervision.

ART 522. Marking of containers.—(a) United States Code, title 26, section 1222:

Whenever in his judgment such action is necessary to protect the revenue, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, by the regulations prescribed by him, and permits issued thereunder if required by him (1) to regulate the size, branding, marking, sale, resale, possession, use, and reuse of containers (of a capacity of less than 5 wine-gallons) designed or intended for use for the sale at retail of distilled spirits (within the meaning of such term as it is used in sections 1152a to 1152g) for other than industrial use * * *. (June 18, 1934, c. 610, 48 Stat. 1020.)

(b) Liquor bottles—Definition of.—Internal-Revenue Regulations 13 as amended by I. R. T. D. 4641:

"Liquor bottle" shall mean any glass container for packaging distilled spirits for sale at retail, of a capacity of one-half pint or greater, conforming to these regulations and to the regulations prescribed by the Federal Alcohol Administration, the regulations in that regard promulgated by the Federal Alcohol Administration being hereby adopted as a part of these regulations.

(c) (1) Empty bottles.—The importation into the United States of containers of one-half pint capacity or greater for use in packaging distilled spirits for sale at retail, except in connection with the importation of the liquor contained therein, is prohibited: Provided, That upon application by any importer the supervisor of the district in which the port of entry is situated may in his discretion, by the issuance of an appropriate permit, authorize the importation of empty liquor bottles, or other containers, for packaging distilled spirits imported by him. There shall be blown legibly either in the bottom or in the body of all empty bottles imported under the provisions of this paragraph the name, and the name of the city of address, of the importer thereof, and there shall be blown legibly in the shoulder of each bottle the words "Federal Law Forbids Sale or Reuse of This Bottle."

(2) Containers other than liquor bottles.—No distilled spirits for sale at retail may be imported into the United States in containers of one-half pint capacity or greater, other than liquor bottles as defined in paragraph (b) above, unless in accordance with the terms of a permit issued, upon proper application, by the supervisor of the district in which the port of entry is situated, expressly authorizing importation in containers other than liquor bottles. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to the importation of distilled spirits in bulk containers of a capacity of 5 wine-gallons or greater.

(3) Filled bottles.—There shall be blown legibly either in the bottom or in the body of all liquor bottles containing distilled spirits imported from foreign countries the name, and the name of the city or country of address, of the manufacturer of the spirits, or of the exporter abroad, or the name, and the name of the city of address, of the importer in the United States, and there shall be blown legibly on the shoulder of each such bottle the words "Federal Law Forbids Sale or Reuse of This Bottle": Provided, That upon proper application the supervisor of the district in which the port of entry is situated may, in his discretion, issue a permit authorizing (a) the importation, in bottles not so marked, of vintage spirits, if accompanied by authenticated certificates of origin establishing such spirits to be as defined in Internal-Revenue Regulations 13, and (b) the importation of liqueurs, cordials, bitters, cocktails, gin fizzes, and such other specialties, as may be specified from time to time by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in bottles of distinctive shape or design, not marked as herein required.

(d) Containers, whether filled or empty, imported in violation of the provisions of this article shall be denied entry into the United States.

(e) Containers of distilled spirits exported in bond shall not be subject to these regulations and the manufacture, and the shipment or delivery, of containers for packaging such spirits, as well as the manufacture for exportation, and the exportation to foreign countries, of empty containers for packaging distilled spirits for sale at retail may, upon application, in the discretion of the supervisor of the district in which such manufacture is carried on, be authorized under permit.

(f) Wherever in these regulations the name of any city or country is required to be blown in any bottle, the name may be either in the language of such country or in English.

(g) Acid-etched or sand-blown indicia in liquor bottles do not meet the above requirements.

(h) The above marking requirements do not apply to distilled spirits withdrawn from warehouse for supplies of vessels.

ART. 523. Standards of fill for bottled distilled spirits.—(a) Bottling requirements.—No person engaged in business as an importer, shall, directly or indirectly, remove from customs custody any distilled spirits in bottles unless such distilled spirits are bottled in conformity with this article. Imported distilled spirits entered in customs bond in bottles prior to March 1, 1935, shall be regarded as being in conformity with this article (1) if the bottle, or the label on the bottle, contains a conspicuous statement of the net contents thereof, and (2) if the actual capacity of the bottle is not substantially less than the capacity it appears to have upon visual examination under ordinary conditions of purchase or use.

(b) Misbranding.—Distilled spirits shall be deemed to be misbranded (1) if the bottle is not a standard liquor bottle as prescribed by paragraph (c) of this article for such distilled spirits; (2) if the amount of the distilled spirits contained in the bottle does not conform to one of the standards of fill in effect therefor under paragraph (d) of this article; (3) if the bottle is in an individual carton or other container, and the carton or other container is so made or formed as to mislead purchasers as to the size of the bottle.

(c) Standard liquor bottles.—(1) General.—A standard liquor bottle shall be one so made, formed, and filled as not to mislead the purchaser.

(2) Size.—A liquor bottle shall be held to be so filled as to mislead the purchaser if the bottle holds distilled spirits in an amount other than one of the standards of fill in effect therefor under paragraph (d) of this article.

(3) Headspace.—A liquor bottle of a capacity of one-half pint or more shall be held to be so filled as to mislead the purchaser if it has a headspace in excess of eight per centum of the total capacity of the bottle after closure.

(4) Design.—A liquor bottle shall be held (irrespective of the correctness of the net contents specified on the label) to be so made and formed as to mislead the purchaser, if its actual capacity is substantially less than the capacity it appears to have upon visual examination under ordinary conditions of purchase or use.

(d) Standards of fill.—(1) The standards of fill for distilled spirits in liquor bottles shall be the following, subject to the tolerance hereinafter allowed:

(A) For all distilled spirits, whether domestically manufactured, domestically bottled, or imported.

1 gallon  1 quart  1 pint  1/5 pint
1/2 gallon  1/5 quart  1/2 pint  1/10 pint

(B) In addition, for brandy, whether domestically manufactured, domestically bottled, or imported.

1/10 pint

(C) In addition, for Scotch and Irish Whiskey and Scotch and Irish type whiskey; and for brandy and rum:

1/5 pint

(2) The following tolerances shall be allowed:

(A) Discrepancies due exclusively to errors in measuring which occur in filling conducted in compliance with good commercial practice.

(B) Discrepancies due exclusively to differences in the capacity of bottles, resulting solely from unavoidable difficulties in manufacturing such bottles so as to be of uniform capacity: Provided, That no greater tolerance shall be allowed in case of bottles which, because of their design, can not be made of approximately uniform capacity than is allowed in case of bottles which can be manufactured so as to be of approximately uniform capacity.

(C) Discrepancies in measure due exclusively to differences in atmospheric conditions in various places and which unavoidably result from the ordinary and customery exposure of alcoholic beverages in bottles to evaporation. The reasonableness of discrepancies under this paragraph shall be determined on the facts in each case.

(3) Unreasonable shortages in certain of the bottles in any shipment shall not be compensated by overages in other bottles in the same shipment.

(4) As used with reference to standard bottles, the term "gallon" means United States gallon of 231 cubic inches of alcoholic beverages at 68° F. (20° C.), and all other units of liquid measure are subdivisions of the gallon as so defined.

(e) Vintage spirits.—This article shall not apply to: (1) Distilled spirits imported as vintage spirits (see I. R. Regs. 13, as amended) under permit issued by a district supervisor of the Alcohol Tax Unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue pursuant to Internal-Revenue Regulations 13 (Liquor Bottle Regulations) issued by the Secretary of the Treasury; (2) cordials and liqueurs, and cocktails, high-balls, gin fizzes, bitters, and such other specialties as are specified from time to time by the Administrator.

ART. 524. Wines—Labeling.—(a) (1) Commencing December 15, 1936, imported wine, including sample bottles of wine, shall not be withdrawn from customs custody except upon depositing with the appropriate customs officer an "Affidavit for Release of Imported Wine" (Form L. 12) properly filled out and executed under oath by the importer, covering the wine proposed to be withdrawn. This must be accompanied by an original or photostatic copy of a "Certificate of Label Approval and Release for Imported Wine" (Form L. 11), unless the original or a copy of such Certificate of Label Approval and Release has previously been filed with the collector of customs at the port from which the withdrawal from customs custody is to be made.

(2) A Certificate of Label Approval (Form L. 11) bearing no rubber stamp impression authorizes the withdrawal from customs custody of any wine bearing labels identical with those shown on the release, irrespective of the customs entry number by which covered or the date entered into customs custody.

(3) A Certificate of Label Approval (Form L. 11) bearing a rubber stamp impression "This release applies only to goods entered into customs prior to ———", authorizes the withdrawal from customs custody of any wine bearing labels identical with those shown on the release, irrespective of the customs entry number by which covered, provided such wine was entered into customs custody prior to the date specified in the impression.

(4) If an original or a photostatic copy of a Certificate of Label Approval (Form L. 11) is already on file with the customs office, then in lieu of presenting upon each new importation an importer's affidavit (Form L. 12) accompanied by an original or a photostatic copy of the release, the importer's affidavit will state that the labels upon the wine to be withdrawn are identical with those upon the original or a photostatic copy of the release on file in the customs office.

(5) If the only difference between the labels upon the wine covered by an importer's affidavit (Form L. 12) and those covered by the Certificate of Label Approval is that the labels of the wine covered by the importer's affidavit bear an importer's name and address different from the importer's name and address on the labels covered by the Certificate of Label Approval, then the wine covered by the importer's affidavit may be withdrawn from customs custody notwithstanding the fact that the labels thereon are not identical as to the importer's name and address, provided the labels are identical in every other respect.

(6) A "Disapproval of Application for Certificate of Label Approval" (Form L. 8) does not authorize the release of any wine from customs custody for any purpose. The disapproval merely sets forth the reasons why the labels in question do not conform to the regulations of the Federal Alcohol Administration in the particulars set forth in the "Disapproval of Application for Certificate of Label Approval" (Form L. 8). Form L. 8 indicates that wine, bearing the labels attached thereto, must be relabeled in customs custody before release. Release of the relabeled wine may be made only upon presentation of a "Certificate of Label Approval" (Form L. 11) covering the labels affixed to the relabeled wine, and such Certificate of Approval shall operate as authority to relabel in customs custody the wine for which disapproval has been issued with labels identical with those attached to the Certificate of Approval.

(7) The Importer's Affidavit (Form L. 12) and the original or photostatic copy of the release affixed thereto are to be retained for the files of the collector of customs. Upon their being deposited with the appropriate customs officer, an appropriate notation shall be made on the entry to the effect that, in so far as labeling is concerned, wine covered by the customs entry number shown on the affidavit, and bearing labels identical with those appearing upon the Certificate of Label Approval, is authorized to be withdrawn from customs custody. In the event of a partial withdrawal only of wine covered by the particular customs entry number, the remaining wine covered by that customs entry number and bearing labels identical with those affixed to the Certificate of Label Approval may be subsequently withdrawn without the filing of an additional importer's affidavit.

(b) Entries and Withdrawals.—(1) Consumption.—An entry for immediate consumption can only be made when the importer has in his possession a Certificate of Label Approval bearing no rubber stamp impression and having affixed thereto labels identical with those affixed to the wine to be entered. If the importer has no release, a warehouse entry may be made. It is not required that shipments for which no releases have been issued be consigned to general order warehouse. There should be made on the entry papers, however, a notation to the effect that no withdrawal of such wine from bond is to be permitted until an appropriate release has been issued by the Federal Alcohol Administration.

(2) Immediate transportation without appraisement.—The appropriate form of release should, in the case of shipments of wine entered for immediate transportation, without appraisement, to another port of entry, be presented to the collector of customs at the port of destination. There may, but need not, be made on the forwarding papers a notation by the appropriate customs officer at the port of arrival to the effect that Federal Alcohol Administration releases were not presented at such port.

(3) Warehouse withdrawals for transportation.—In the case of wine already lodged in bonded warehouses and proposed to be withdrawn from warehouse for transportation in bond from the port of entry to another port, the appropriate Federal Alcohol Administration releases should be presented to the collector at the port of original entry before movement to the port of destination.

(c) Release under bond not permissible.—Wine for which no certificates are presented either at the time of entry or at the time of request for withdrawal should not be released under redelivery bond pending production of the required certificates. Neither should any other bond for the production of these missing documents be accepted.

(d) Food and Drug Administration requirements.—The requirements of this article are not in substitution for any similar or other requirement of the Food and Drug Administration.

(e) Transferees.—In the event the importer who entered the wine cannot be procured to make application to the Administration for its withdrawal from customs bonded warehouse, application for such release may be made by the transferee thereof. Any Federal Alcohol Administration forms required in connection with the withdrawal of wine from customs custody, or any affidavit or undertaking thereon, will be acceptable to the Federal Alcohol Administration when deposited with the appropriate customs officer by a transferee of wine in bond, provided the forms have been altered only to the extent applicable to such transferee.

(f) Powers of attorney and affidavits.—The importer's affidavit for release of wine (Form L. 12), as well as other Federal Alcohol Administration forms required in connection with the withdrawal of wine from customs custody, may be executed by anyone holding a power of attorney for the transaction of customs business of the principal. Powers of attorney for individuals and for corporations in any form acceptable to the customs service will be acceptable to the Federal Alcohol Administration. Affidavits sworn to before any officer authorized by the Tariff Act of 1930 to administer oaths will also be acceptable to the Federal Alcohol Administration.

(g) Physical inspection of labeled goods.—When feasible, examining officers will, by physical inspection, ascertain whether there is any discrepancy between the labels affixed to the wine to be entered or withdrawn and the corresponding labels on the approved release or photostatic copy thereof. If a discrepancy is found, the facts should be immediately reported to the Federal Alcohol Administration and a copy sent to the Commissioner of Customs.

(h) Ship's stores and wine for personal consumption.—Wine intended for ship's supplies may be withdrawn from bond without the presentation of any form of Federal Alcohol Administration release, provided the collector of customs is satisfied that all the conditions imposed by the Tariff Act of 1930 and the regulations respecting duty and tax-free withdrawals for this purpose are observed and that the vessel to be supplied is within the category of vessels entitled to such privilege. Wine imported or brought into the United States for personal use and not for sale or other commercial purposes will not require any form of Federal Alcohol Administration release, provided the collector is satisfied that such merchandise is imported for personal use.

(i) Wine for industrial use.—Wine which is for an industrial use, as such use is defined in Regulations No. 2 of the Federal Alcohol Administration, is not included within the term "Wine" as used in the Federal Alcohol Administration Act. Such wine is not dealt with or included in these instructions.

(j) Withdrawal of samples.—Although paragraph (a) of this article provides that imported wine, including sample bottles of wine for non-industrial use, must be covered by certificates of label approval before withdrawal from customs custody, it will be noted that this applies only to wine for "non-industrial use." Section 2 (a) (3) of F. A. A. Regulations No. 2, relating to non-industrial use of distilled spirits and wine, lists as "industrial use" the use for experimental purposes. It would therefore be proper for collectors of customs to permit the withdrawal from customs custody of samples of wine in reasonable quantities if it has been proved to their satisfaction that such samples are to be used only for experimental purposes, in the making of analyses, tests, etc., even though the labels on such samples are not covered by certificates of label approval. However, bottles of samples intended for display purposes or as a basis for the solicitation of orders or for any similar commercial use in connection with the importer's business, must conform to all the requirements applicable to other wine imported for "non-industrial use."

(k) (1) Exceptions in respect to size, statement of vintage year, and statement of net contents.—The attention of all collectors is called to the Certificate of Label Approval and Release for Imported Wine (Form L. 11) which permits the withdrawal from customs custody of wine where the only variation in the labels on the containers is in respect to the size of the label, statement of vintage year and statement of net contents, appearing in conformity with section 37 of F. A. A. Regulations No. 4.

(2) Specific attention is also called to the prohibition against the withdrawal of any wine in containers having a capacity of more than one wine gallon when the labels on such containers bear a statement of vintage year. Permission to state vintage year on labels on containers of wine is limited to containers having a capacity of not more than one wine gallon. (See sec. 39 (b) (3) of Regulations No. 4, relating to labeling and advertising of wine.)

ART. 525. Distilled spirits—Labeling—Certificates of origin and age.—(a) (1) The following instructions govern whiskey, rum, brandy, gin, cordials, liqueurs, and other distilled spirits imported in containers having a capacity of one gallon or less irrespective of the material from which made.

(2) Commencing August 15, 1936, bottled distilled spirits, including sample bottles of distilled spirits, for nonindustrial use, shall not be withdrawn from customs custody except upon depositing with the appropriate customs officer an "Affidavit for Release of Distilled Spirits" (Form L. 3) properly filled out and executed under oath by the importer, covering the distilled spirits proposed to be withdrawn. This must be accompanied by an original or photostatic copy of a "Certificate of Label Approval and Release for Imported Distilled Spirits" (Form L. 2), unless the original or a copy of such Certificate of Label Approval and Release has previously been filed with the collector of customs at the port from which the withdrawal from customs custody is to be made.

(3) A Certificate of Label Approval (Form L. 2) bearing no rubber stamp impression authorizes the withdrawal from customs custody of any distilled spirits bearing labels identical with those shown on the release, irrespective of the customs entry number by which covered or the date entered into customs custody.

(4) A Certificate of Label Approval (Form L. 2) bearing a rubber stamp impression "This release applies only to goods entered into customs prior to _____", authorizes the withdrawal from customs custody of any distilled spirits bearing labels identical with those shown on the release, irrespective of the customs entry number by which covered, provided such distilled spirits were entered into customs custody prior to the date specified in the impression.

(5) If an original or a photostatic copy of a Certificate of Label Approval (Form L. 2) is already on file with the customs office, then in lieu of presenting upon each new importation an importer's affidavit (Form L. 3) accompanied by an original or a photostatic copy of the release, the importer's affidavit will state that the labels upon the distilled spirits to be withdrawn are identical with those upon the original or a photostatic copy of the release on file in the customs office.

(6) If the only difference between the labels upon the distilled spirits covered by an importer's affidavit (Form L. 3) and those covered by the Certificate of Label Approval is that the labels of the distilled spirits covered by the importer's affidavit bear an importer's name and address different from the importer's name and address on the labels covered by the Certificate of Label Approval, then the distilled spirits covered by the importer's affidavit may be withdrawn from customs custody notwithstanding the fact that the labels thereon are not identical as to the importer's name and address, provided the labels are identical in every other respect.

(7) A "Disapproval of Application for Certificate of Label Approval" (Form L. 8) does not authorize the release of any distilled spirits from customs custody for any purpose. The disapproval merely sets forth the reasons why the labels in question do not conform to the regulations of the Federal Alcohol Administration in the particulars set forth in the "Disapproval of Application for Certificate of Label Approval" (Form L. 8). Form L. 8 indicates that distilled spirits, bearing the labels attached thereto, must be relabeled in customs custody before release. Release of the relabeled distilled spirits may be made only upon presentation of a "Certificate of Label Approval" (Form L. 2) covering the labels affixed to the relabeled distilled spirits, and such Certificate of Approval shall operate as authority to relabel in customs custody the distilled spirits for which disapproval has been issued with labels identical with those attached to the Certificate of Approval.

(8) The Importer's Affidavit (Form L. 3) and the original or photostatic copy of the release affixed thereto are to be retained for the files of the collector of customs. Upon their being deposited with the appropriate customs officer, an appropriate notation shall be made on the entry to the effect that, in so far as labeling is concerned, distilled spirits covered by the customs entry number shown on the affidavit, and bearing labels identical with those appearing upon the Certificate of Label Approval, are authorized to be withdrawn from customs custody. In the event of a partial withdrawal only of distilled spirits covered by the particular customs entry number, the remaining distilled spirits covered by that customs entry number and bearing labels identical with those affixed to the Certificate of Label Approval may be subsequently withdrawn without the filing of an additional importer's affidavit.

(b) Entries and withdrawals.—(1) Consumption.—An entry for immediate consumption can only be made when the importer has in his possession a Certificate of Label Approval bearing no rubber stamp impression and having affixed thereto labels identical with those affixed to the bottled distilled spirits to be entered. If the importer has no release a warehouse entry may be made. Likewise, in the case of shipments of Irish, Scotch, Canadian, and American type of whiskeys, and cognac, rum, and brandy, whether blended or unblended, unaccompanied by the required certificates of age or origin, at the time of arrival of the shipment, entry may be made for warehouse but not for consumption. It is not required that shipments for which no releases have been issued, or for which the required certificates of age and origin can not be presented, be consigned to general order warehouse. There should be made on the entry papers, however, a notation to the effect that no withdrawal of such distilled spirits from bond is to be permitted until an appropriate release has been issued by the Federal Alcohol Administration and the required certificates of age and/or origin have been presented.

(2) Immediate transportation without appraisement.—The appropriate form of release should, in the case of shipments of distilled spirits entered for immediate transportation, without appraisement, to another port of entry, be presented to the collector of customs at the port of destination. There may, but need not, be made on the forwarding papers a notation by the appropriate customs officer at the port of arrival to the effect that Federal Alcohol Administration releases were not presented at such port.

(3) Warehouse withdrawals for transportation.—In the case of distilled spirits already lodged in bonded warehouses and proposed to be withdrawn from warehouse for transportation in bond from the port of entry to another port, the appropriate Federal Alcohol Administration releases should be presented to the collectcor at the port of original entry before movement to the port of destination. Each withdrawal for transportation entry shall bear a notation showing whether the strip stamps have been affixed to the immediate containers and whether the labels and bottles have been approved.

(c) Certificates of origin and age.—(1) Scotch, Irish, and Canadian whiskeys, in bottles, whether blended or unblended, imported on or after August 15, 1936, shall not be released from customs custody for consumption unless the invoice is accompanied by a certificate of origin issued by a duly authorized official of the British, Irish, or Canadian Governments, certifying (a) that the particular distilled spirits are Scotch, Irish, or Canadian whiskey, as the case may be; (b) that the distilled spirits have been manufactured in compliance with the laws of the respective foreign governments regulating the manufacture of the whiskey for home consumption; and (c) that the product conforms to the requirements of the Immature Spirits Act of such foreign government for spirits intended for home consumption.

(2) If the label of any Scotch, Irish, or Canadian whiskey, whether blended or unblended, imported in bottles on or after August 15, 1936, contains any statement of age for Scotch or Irish whiskey in excess of 3 years, or Canadian whiskey in excess of 2 years, the whiskey shall not be released from customs custody unless accompanied by a certificate issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government certifying that none of the distilled spirits in the bottle is of an age less than that stated on the label. The age certified shall be the period during which, after distillation and before bottling, the distilled spirits have been kept in oak containers.

(3) Cognac, brandy, and rum.—Bottled cognac, whether blended or unblended, imported in bottles on or after August 15, 1936, for which no certificate of origin (Acquit Regional Jaune d'Or) can be presented should not be permitted withdrawal. Brandy produced elsewhere than in the Cognac Region of France is not properly entitled under Federal Alcohol Administration Labeling Regulations to be designated as "Cognac." No certificates of origin (Acquit Regional Jaune d'Or) are required for brandy produced elsewhere than in the Cognac Region of France and not labeled as "Cognac." Certificates of age are not required for rum, brandy, or cognac unless the label contains a statement of age. If the label for any rum, brandy, or cognac, imported on or after August 15, 1936, contains any statement of age, the importer should not be permitted to withdraw such distilled spirits from customs custody until a certificate of age issued by a duly authorized officer of the appropriate foreign government, and certifying that none of the distilled spirits are of an age less than that stated on the label, is presented. Shipments of bottled cognac unaccompanied by the required certificate of origin and shipments of rum, brandy, and cognac unaccompanied by certificates of age, when required, should be handled according to the procedure and requirements outlined in subparagraph 1, above. The age certified shall be the period during which, after distillation and before bottling, the distilled spirits have been kept in oak containers.

(4) American type whiskeys imported on or after August 15, 1936, shall not be released from customs custody in bottles unless there is presented at the time of entry or at the time of request for release, a certificate issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government certifying:

(A) In case of straight whiskey, (1) the class and type (such as straight whiskey, straight rye whiskey, straight bourbon whiskey, etc.) thereof; (2) the American proof at which distilled; (3) that no neutral spirits or other whiskey has been added as a part thereof or included therein, whether or not for the purpose of replacing outage; and (4) the age of the whiskey;

(B) In case of distinctive types of whiskey, (1) the class and type (such as rye whiskey, bourbon whiskey, etc.); (2) the American proof at which distilled; (3) that no neutral spirits has been added as a part thereof or included therein, whether or not for the purpose of replacing outage; and (4) the age of the whiskey;

(C) In case of blended whiskey, (1) the class and type (such as blended whiskey, blended rye whiskey, blended bourbon whiskey, etc.), (2) the percentage of straight whiskey, or any distinctive type thereof, used in the blend, (3) the American proof at which the straight whiskey was distilled, (4) the percentage of other whiskey, if any, in the blend, (5) the percentage of neutral spirits, if any, in the blend, and the name of the commodity from which distilled, and (6) the age of the straight whiskey and the age of the other whiskey, if any, in the blend.

(D) The age certified shall be the period during which, after distillation and before bottling, the whiskey has been kept in charred oak containers.

(5) Neutral spirits, gin, cordials, and other miscellaneous distilled spirits.—Certificates of age and origin are not required by the Federal Alcohol Administration for neutral spirits, gin, cordials, and other distilled spirits than those specified above.

(6) Release under bond not permissible.—Scotch, Irish, and Canadian whiskey, and cognac, brandy, and rum, whether blended or unblended, and American type whiskeys for which no certificates are presented either at the time of entry or at the time of request for withdrawal should not be released under redelivery bond pending production of the required certificate. Neither should any other bond for the production of those missing documents be accepted.

(7) Food and Drug Administration requirements.—The requirements of this article are not in substitution for any similar or other requirement of the Food and Drug Administration.

(d) Examining officers will, by physical inspection, ascertain whether there is any discrepancy between the labels affixed to bottles of distilled spirits and the corresponding photostatic copies of approved labels attached to Form L. 2. If a discrepancy is found, the facts should be immediately reported to the Federal Alcohol Administration and a copy sent to the Commissioner of Customs.

ART. 526. Exemption from stamping, marking, bottling, and labeling requirements.—The provisions of articles 521, 522, 523, and 525, are not applicable to distilled spirits: (1) Not for sale or for any other commercial purpose whatever; (2) for use as ship stores; (3) for personal use; (4) for industrial use as defined in F. A. A. T. D. 3, approved December 20, 1935; but distilled spirits, except anhydrous alcohol or alcohol in containers of one gallon or less, shall be deemed to be for nonindustrial use.

ART. 527. Importation of distilled spirits in bulk.—Whiskey, rum, brandy, gin, cordials, and liqueurs and other distilled spirits imported in bulk (i. e., in containers having a capacity in excess of 1 gallon) may be entered into a class 8 customs bonded warehouse for bottling, or may be withdrawn from customs custody, only if entered for exportation or if withdrawn by a person to whom it is lawful to sell or otherwise dispose of alcoholic beverages in bulk pursuant to section 6 (a) (1) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (U. S. C., supp. I, title 27, sec. 206 (a) (1)), for use in bottling, blending, or rectification by such person, prior to delivery to a person not so authorized. In case the customs officer has doubt as to whether the distilled spirits will be used by the person so authorized and will be delivered by him only in bottles, he should direct the importer to forward the documents to the Label Section, Federal Alcohol Administration, Washington, D. C., with a request for instructions to be sent the customs officer.

MARKING

ART. 528. Marking of articles and packages to indicate country of origin.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 304 (a):

Every article imported into the United States, and its immediate container, and the package in which such article is imported, shall be marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, in legible English words, in a conspicuous place, in such manner as to indicate the country of origin of such article, in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Such marking, stamping, branding, or labeling shall be as nearly indelible and permanent as the nature of the article will permit. The Secretary of the Treasury may, by regulations prescribed hereunder, except any article from the requirement of marking, stamping, branding, or labeling if he is satisfied that such article is incapable of being marked, stamped, branded, or labeled or can not be marked, stamped, branded, or labeled without injury, or except at an expense economically prohibitive of the importation, or that the marking, stamping, branding, or labeling of the immediate container of such article will reasonably indicate the country or origin of such article.

(b) The marking required by section 304 shall include the name of the country of origin. The name of a subdivision such as a kingdom, principality, State, or province, or of a city, within the country of origin is not alone sufficient. The term "country" as used in section 304 is held to mean the political entity known as a nation: Provided, That the Department will designate the marking considered sufficient to indicate the country of origin in those cases where the name of the country is of such length that to require such name would result in indistinct marking or no marking. However, colonies, possessions, or protectorates outside the boundaries of a mother country shall be considered separate countries. The adjectival form of the name of a country is acceptable as a proper indication of the origin of imported merchandise, provided the word does not appear with other words so as to refer to a kind or species of product, such terms as "English walnuts", "Brazil nuts", etc., being unacceptable, and provided also that the marking at the time of importation meets the requirements of legibility, conspicuousness, and permanency.

(c) Tariff Act of 1930, section 304 (b):

If at the time of importation any article or its container is not marked, stamped, branded, or labeled in accordance with the requirements of this section, there shall be levied, collected, and paid on such article, unless exported under customs supervision, a duty of 10 per centum of the value of such article, in addition to any other duty imposed by law, or, if such article is free of duty, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a duty of 10 per centum of the value thereof.

(d) The duty of 10 per centum provided for in paragraph (c) of this article shall be assessed upon the value as defined in section 503 of the Tariff Act of 1930.

(e) Tariff Act of 1930, section 304 (c):

No imported article or package held in customs custody shall be delivered until such article (and its container) or package and every other article (and its container) or package of the importation, whether or not released from customs custody, shall have been marked, stamped, branded, or labelled in accordance with the requirements of this section. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to relieve from the requirements of any provision of this Act relating to the marking of particular articles or their containers.

(f) No article which has been repacked under article 936 of these regulations or section 562 of the Tariff Act of 1930, or which has been manipulated under that section shall be withdrawn from warehouse for consumption unless such article (if subject to individual marking when imported and its immediate container and the package in which it is contained at the time of withdrawal are marked to indicate the country of origin or such article in accordance with the provisions of section 304 of the Tariff Act of 1930. The word "articles" within the meaning of this paragraph includes packages and immediate containers withdrawn for consumption which have been removed from articles repacked or manipulated and not replaced thereon. These regulations shall not be construed to relieve an importer from payment of marking duty if it accrued by reason of the absence at the time of importation of the marking required by section 304, nor to require the further marking of articles, containers, or packages which were marked in accordance with section 304 at the time of importation, when such marking has not been affected by the repacking or manipulation.

ART. 529. Name or mark inducing false belief of origin of imported articles.—(a) United States Code, title 15, section 106:

No article of imported merchandise which shall • • • bear a name or mark calculated to induce the public to believe that the article is manufactured in the United States, or that it is manufactured in any foreign country or locality other than the country or locality in which it is in fact manufactured, shall be admitted to entry at any customhouse of the United States; • • •.

(b) Collectors and other officers of the customs are instructed to use diligence to prevent violations of this provision.

ART. 530. Special marking on certain articles.—(a) Articles specified in paragraphs 354, 355, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, and 1553 of the Tariff Act of 1930, shall, when imported, be marked in the manner provided in the respective paragraphs.

(b) Any article specified in paragraphs 367 and 368 of the tariff act, shall be marked in exact conformity with the requirements thereof and shall not be released until so marked. If any of the said articles specified in paragraphs 367 and 368 are found not to be marked to indicate the country of origin (manufacture), the 10 percent marking duty provided by section 304 shall be assessed for the late marking.

(c) The name of the maker (or manufacturer) or purchaser which must appear on the articles specified in the special marking paragraphs may consist either of the actual name of the maker (or manufacturer) or purchaser or a duly registered trade name under which such maker (or manufacturer) or purchaser carries on his business, except as hereinafter provided. A trade mark will be accepted only when it includes the actual name of the maker (or manufacturer) or purchaser or the trade name of such maker (or manufacturer) or purchaser as above specified, provided, however, that a trade mark or trade name will not satisfy the requirements of paragraph 367 (g) unless such trade mark or trade name includes the name in full of either the manufacturer or purchaser, as therein specified. The term "purchaser" as used in this sense means the purchaser in this country by whom or for whose account the articles are imported.

ART. 531. Miscellaneous special marking.—With respect to the special marking required on the following articles, see the articles of the regulations indicated opposite the respective items:

|---|---|
| Bolting cloth | Art. 463 |
| Inedible grease, tallow, and fat | Art. 572 |
| Drums for the shipment of acids and chemicals | Art. 405 |
| Coal-tar products | Art. 786 |
| Food containers | Art. 549 |
| Viruses, serums, and toxins | Arts. 606 and 610 |
| Caustic or corrosive substances | Art. 550 |
| Milk and cream | Art. 568 |

ART. 532. Exceptions to marking requirements.—(a) The following articles and their containers and the packages in which imported are hereby excepted from the marking requirements of section 304 and paragraphs 354, 355, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 367, 368, and 1553 of the tariff act:

(1) Articles entered for immediate exportation or in transit through the United States to a foreign country.

(2) Articles the manufacture or production of the Philippine or Virgin Islands; but articles of foreign manufacture or production imported into those islands and reshipped to the United States are subject to all marking requirements applicable to merchandise imported from a foreign country.

(3) Articles of trifling value or for the personal use of the importer or for use in his home, factory, or place of business and not intended for sale.

(4) (a) Articles of antiquity specified in paragraph 1811 of the tariff act; (b) Books, maps, music, engravings, photographs, etchings, lithographic prints and charts which have been printed more than 20 years at the time of importation and are free of duty under paragraph 1629 of the tariff act.

(b) The following articles are hereby excepted from the marking requirements of section 304 of the tariff act (the immediate containers and packages to be marked):

(1) Crude substances or materials.

(2) Merchandise which is to be substantially changed in the importer's plant or for his account by further processing or manufacture which would obliterate or destroy such marking.

(c) Other exceptions to the marking requirements will be published from time to time in the Treasury Decisions.

ART. 533. Disposition of articles not properly marked.—(a) The appraiser will report to the collector all articles, containers, and packages found by him not legally marked. The collector will notify the importer, on customs Form 4647, to redeliver the unexamined packages or to arrange for the marking thereof or of their contents under customs supervision, when permissible, at the expense of the importer.

(b) (1) Articles subject to special marking under paragraphs 354, 355, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, and 1553, of the tariff act, if not marked at the time of importation, may not be marked afterward, but may be exported under customs supervision upon payment of storage and other lawful charges. In such cases the entire amount of estimated duties will be refunded upon liquidation of the entry.

(2) If an importer fails to export such articles within 90 days after the date of notice of lack of proper marking, the items should be treated as prohibited and seized and forfeited in accordance with the customs laws and regulations. The articles may be sold on condition that they are exported by the purchaser under customs supervision. If no bid is received or if the collector believes that the expense of selling such articles will probably be disproportionate to the proceeds realized from the sale thereof, the merchandise should be destroyed.

(c) In the case of other articles subject to marking, the importer may be permitted to mark examination packages and their contents in the appraiser's stores, or, if that be impracticable, such merchandise may be turned over to the importer for proper marking under customs supervision at the expense of the importer. If such merchandise shall not be properly marked by the importer within a period of 30 days from the date of notification by the collector of the marking requirements it shall be sent to general order stores unless covered by a warehouse entry, and if not exported within 1 year from the date of entry shall be sold as abandoned merchandise upon the condition that it be marked by the purchaser under customs supervision, or exported under such supervision.

(d) Before permitting marking of either examined or unexamined packages or articles subject to marking, elsewhere than at the appraiser's stores, the collector shall require satisfactory security to insure compliance with the marking requirements and the payment of any additional expense incurred on account of customs supervision.

(e) If in any case articles subject to marking which have been released from customs custody are not returned or properly marked within 30 days from the date of the requisition therefor, the collector should demand payment of the liquidated damages incurred under the redelivery bond, and in the event payment is not promptly made the matter should be referred to the United States attorney for collection.

ART. 534. Penalty for fraudulent violation.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 304 (d):

If any person shall, with intent to conceal the information given thereby or contained therein, deface, destroy, remove, alter, cover, obscure, or obliterate any mark, stamp, brand, or label required under the provisions of this Act, he shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than 1 year, or both.

ART. 535. Articles of gold or silver falsely marked or stamped.—(a) It is unlawful for any manufacturer or dealer in gold or silver jewelry or gold or silver wares to import or export such wares for sale if marked or labeled in any manner to indicate a greater degree of fineness than the actual fineness thereof. Plated or filled articles must not be marked to indicate the fineness of the gold or silver unless also marked to indicate that the article is plated or filled, and no plated or filled article shall be marked with the word "sterling" or "coin" either alone or in conjunction with other words.

(b) Customs officers shall examine all gold and silver articles imported by manufacturers or dealers, and if any such articles are found to be falsely marked they shall be detained and a report of the facts made to the Bureau and the United States attorney.

(c) Any firm, manufacturer, dealer, or other person as agent of such firm, manufacturer, or dealer, willfully importing or exporting articles of gold or silver falsely marked or labeled is liable to a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment or both.

TRADE-MARKS AND TRADE NAMES

ART. 536. Unlawful importation.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 526:

(a) It shall be unlawful to import into the United States any merchandise of foreign manufacture if such merchandise, or the label, sign, print, package, wrapper, or receptacle, bears a trade-mark owned by a citizen of, or by a corporation or association created or organized within, the United States, and registered in the Patent Office by a person domiciled in the United States, under the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act to authorize the registration of trade-marks used in commerce with foreign nations or among the several States or with Indian tribes, and to protect the same", approved February 20, 1905, as amended, and if a copy of the certificate of registration of such trade-mark is filed with the Secretary of the Treasury, in the manner provided in section 27 of such Act, unless written consent of the owner of such trade-mark is produced at the time of making entry.

(b) Any such merchandise imported into the United States in violation of the provisions of this section shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture for violation of the customs laws.

(c) Any person dealing in any such merchandise may be enjoined from dealing therein within the United States or may be required to export or destroy such merchandise or to remove or obliterate such trade-mark and shall be liable for the same damages and profits provided for wrongful use of a trade-mark, under the provisions of such Act of February 20, 1905, as amended.

(b) United States Code, title 15, section 106:

No article of imported merchandise which shall copy or simulate the name of any domestic manufacture, or manufacturer or trader, or of any manufacturer or trader located in any foreign country which, by treaty, convention, or law affords similar privileges to citizens of the United States, or which shall copy or simulate a trade-mark registered in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision of this chapter, or shall bear a name or mark calculated to induce the public to believe that the article is manufactured in the United States, or that it is manufactured in any foreign country or locality other than the country or locality in which it is in fact manufactured, shall be admitted to entry at any customhouse of the United States; and, in order to aid the officers of the customs in enforcing this prohibition, any domestic manufacturer or trader, and any foreign manufacturer or trader, who is entitled under the provisions of a treaty, convention, declaration, or agreement between the United States and any foreign country to the advantages afforded by law to citizens of the United States in respect to trade marks and commercial names, may require his name and residence, and the name of the locality in which his goods are manufactured, and a copy of the certificate of registration of his trade mark, issued in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision of this chapter, to be recorded in books which shall be kept for this purpose in the Department of the Treasury, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and may furnish to the department facsimiles of his name, the name of the locality in which his goods are manufactured, or of his registered trade mark; and thereupon the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause one or more copies of the same to be transmitted to each collector or other proper officer of customs. (Feb. 20, 1905, c. 592, sec. 27, 33 Stat. 730.)

(The foregoing section is applicable to marks placed on the international register provided for by section 1 of the act of Mar. 19, 1920.) (U. S. Code, title 15, sec. 121.)

(c) United States Code, title 15, section 132:

Any owner of a trade mark who shall have a manufacturing establishment within the territory of the United States shall be accorded, so far as the registration and protection of trade marks used on the products of such establishments are concerned, the same rights and privileges that are accorded to owners of trade marks domiciled within the territory of the United States by sections 81 to 109, inclusive, of this chapter. (May 4, 1906, c. 2081, sec. 3, 34 Stat. 169.)

(d) United States Code, title 48, section 1405q:

• • • The laws of the United States relating to patents, trade marks, and copyrights, and to the enforcement of rights arising thereunder, shall have the same force and effect in the Virgin Islands as in the continental United States, and the District Court of the Virgin Islands shall have the same jurisdiction in causes arising under such laws as is exercised by United States district courts. (June 22, 1936, c. 699, sec. 18, 49 Stat.)

ART. 537. Prohibition of importation.—(a) Merchandise of foreign or domestic manufacture is prohibited importation

when it bears a name or mark which copies or simulates a trade mark or trade name entitled to the protection of the Trade Mark Act of 1905 or the Trade Mark Act of 1920, unless such merchandise is imported by or for the account of, or with the written consent of, the owner of the protected trade mark or trade name.

(b) A name or mark (including a name or mark which is a genuine trade mark or trade name in a foreign country) on an article of foreign manufacture identical with a trade mark or trade name protected by the trade-mark laws of the United States, as well as a name or mark on an article of foreign or domestic manufacture counterfeiting such protected trade mark or trade name, or so resembling such protected trade mark or trade name as to be likely to cause confusion or mistake in the minds of the public or to deceive purchasers, shall be deemed for the purposes of these regulations to copy or simulate such protected trade mark or trade name. However, merchandise manufactured or sold in a foreign country under a trade mark or trade name, which trade mark is registered and recorded, or which trade name is recorded under the trade-mark laws of the United States, shall not be deemed for the purpose of these regulations to copy or simulate such United States trade mark or trade name if such foreign trade mark or trade name and such United States trade mark or trade name are owned by the same person, partnership, association, or corporation.

ART. 538. Trade marks—Recording.—(a) Domestic or foreign manufacturers or traders, to avail themselves of the privileges of the law concerning trade-marks, are required to register their trade-marks with the Commissioner of Patents before the Treasury Department can act.

(b) To record a trade-mark with the Treasury Department an application must be addressed to the Treasury Department, Bureau of Customs, Washington, D. C. (which may be in the form of a letter), stating therein the name, residence, and citizenship of the owner or owners (if a partnership, the citizenship of each partner; if a corporation or association, the country or state within which it was organized or created); the name of the locality in which the goods are manufactured, and the names of the ports of entry to which the applicant desires to have facsimiles of the trade-mark transmitted. The application must be accompanied by one certified copy of the original certificate of registration issued by the Commissioner of Patents in accordance with the Trade-Mark Act of February 20, 1905, or the Trade-Mark Act of March 19, 1920; such of the documents mentioned in paragraph (c) as are required to show the ownership of the applicant; three uncertified printed Patent Office facsimiles of the trade-mark for deposit in the Treasury Department, and a sufficient number of such facsimiles to enable the Bureau to forward copies to the port or ports of entry named in the application. The number of facsimiles necessary for each of the ports of entry is as follows:

Four facsimiles for each of the ports of New York and Chicago.

Three facsimiles for each of the ports of Baltimore and Boston.

Two facsimiles for each of the ports of Nogales, Buffalo, Tampa, Key West, Los Angeles, Portland, Me., Detroit, New Orleans, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Portland, Oreg., Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Antonio, San Francisco, St. Louis, St. Albans, Vt., Seattle, Milwaukee, and Saint Thomas, Virgin Islands.

One facsimile for each of the other ports of entry.

No fee is charged for recording trade-marks in the Treasury Department.

(c) If ownership of a registered trade-mark is claimed by an applicant by virtue of an assignment of such trade-mark, there must be transmitted with the application for recording, in addition to the documents and information specified in paragraph (b) of this article, a certified abstract of title from the records of the United States Patent Office showing the ownership of the applicant. Similar documentary evidence must accompany an application for recording if the commercial name of the applicant has been changed subsequent to registration of the trade-mark. If the application for recording is presented after the expiration of the period for which the certificate of registration, or a renewal thereof, was issued, the application must be accompanied by a certified copy of a certificate of renewal from the United States Patent Office showing that the registration is in force. In order to continue to receive the protection of the trade-mark statutes with respect to imported merchandise, such a certified copy of a certificate of renewal must be filed with the Treasury Department if the period of protection expires after the trade-mark has been recorded.

ART. 539. Trade names—Recording.—(a) To record the trade name (not a trade-mark) of a manufacturer or trader, an application must be addressed to the Treasury Department, Bureau of Customs, Washington, D. C. (which may be in the form of a letter), stating therein the trade name; the name, residence, and citizenship of the owner or owners (if a partnership, the citizenship of each partner; if a corporation or association, the country or state within which it was organized or created); a description of the class or kind of merchandise to which the trade name is applied, and the name of the locality in which the merchandise is manufactured. The application must be accompanied by supporting evidence, in the form of affidavits by the owner or owners and by at least two other persons having first-hand knowledge of the facts, showing that the applicant has used the trade name, in connection with the class or kind of merchandise described in the application, for a designated period of time and has the sole and exclusive right to the use of such trade name in connection with merchandise of such class or kind.

(b) Such affidavits accompanying an application to record the trade name of a manufacturer or trader located in a foreign country should be acknowledged before an American consular officer.

No fee is charged for recording trade names in the Treasury Department.

ART. 540. Notice to collectors—Action by collectors.—Upon receiving notice from the Bureau of the recording of a trade-mark or a trade name the collector will issue appropriate instructions to prevent the unauthorized importation or entry at the customhouse of articles bearing marks or names which violate the statutory rights of the owner of the recorded trade-mark or trade-name.

ART. 541. Detention—Seizure—Exportation—Release.—(a) Merchandise of foreign manufacture which bears a trade mark entitled to the protection of section 526 of the Tariff Act of 1930, and merchandise which bears a name or mark copying or simulating a trade mark or trade name entitled to the protection of section 27 of the Trade Mark Act of 1905, or section 6 of the Trade Mark Act of 1920, if not imported by or for the account of, or with the appropriate written consent of, the owner of the United States trade mark or trade name, shall be detained, but not seized, until 30 days have elapsed from the date of notice to the importer that the merchandise is prohibited importation.

(b) Whenever merchandise is detained in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this article and the written consent of the owner of the trade mark or trade name to the importation of the merchandise is not presented to the collector prior to the expiration of the 30-day period, the merchandise shall be seized and forfeited in the usual manner, except that in any such case if the foreign value does not exceed $100 and the collector is satisfied that the importation involved neither wilful negligence nor any intention to defraud the revenue or to violate the law, he may release the merchandise, without formal seizure and without referring the matter to the Bureau, upon the condition that, within 30 days from the date of the collector's decision, the name, mark, or trade mark be removed or obliterated prior to the release, or the merchandise be exported under customs supervision and without expense to the Government. If the value exceeds $100, the importer may petition the Commissioner of Customs, through the collector, for the release of or permission to export the merchandise under the same conditions. (See art. 1145.) In any such case, however, if the name, mark, or trade mark is indelibly impressed upon the merchandise or upon the immediate container thereof and it is impracticable to remove or obliterate the same, such merchandise may be destroyed or exported under customs supervision and at the expense of the importer, or if the immediate container alone bears the name, mark, or trade mark the merchandise may be released after the container has been so destroyed or exported.

(c) Merchandise forfeited for violation of any trade-mark law may be disposed of in accordance with the procedure applicable to other customs forfeitures, but only after removal or obliteration of the name, mark, or trade mark by reason of which the goods were seized.

(d) If the violation is not discovered until after entry and deposit of estimated duty, the entry shall be endorsed with an appropriate notation, the duty refunded as an erroneous collection, and the merchandise disposed of in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this article.

COPYRIGHTS

ART. 542. Articles prohibited importation.—(a) United States Code, title 17, section 15:

Of the printed book or periodical specified in section 5, subsections (a) and (b) of this title, except the original text of a book of foreign origin in a language or languages other than English, the text of all copies accorded protection under this title, except as below provided, shall be printed from type set within the limits of the United States, either by hand or by the aid of any kind of typesetting machine, or from plates made within the limits of the United States from type set therein, or, if the text be produced by lithographic process, or photo-engraving process, then by a process wholly performed within the limits of the United States, and the printing of the text and binding of the said book shall be performed within the limits of the United States; which requirements shall extend also to the illustrations within a book consisting of printed text and illustrations produced by lithographic process, or photo-engraving process, and also to separate lithographs or photo-engravings, except where in either case the subjects represented are located in a foreign country and illustrate a scientific work or reproduce a work of art: Provided, however, That said requirements shall not apply to works in raised characters for the use of the blind, or to books of foreign origin in a language or languages other than English, or to books published abroad in the English language seeking ad interim protection under this title, or to works printed or produced in the United States by any other process than those above specified in this section. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 320, sec. 15, 35 Stat. 1078; July 3, 1926, c. 743, 44 Stat. 818.)

(b) United States Code, title 17, section 30:

The importation into the United States of any article bearing a false notice of copyright when there is no existing copyright thereon in the United States, or of any piratical copies of any work copyrighted in the United States, is prohibited. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 320, sec. 30, 35 Stat. 1082.)

NOTE.—See article 536 (d) for act of Congress approved June 22, 1936, extending the laws of the United States relating to copyrights to the Virgin Islands.

(c) United States Code, title 17, section 31:

During the existence of the American copyright in any book the importation into the United States of any piratical copies thereof or of any copies thereof (although authorized by the author or proprietor) which have not been produced in accordance with the manufacturing provisions specified in section 15 of this title, or any plates of the same not made from type set within the limits of the United States, or any copies thereof produced by lithographic or photo-engraving process not performed within the limits of the United States, in accordance with the provisions of section 15 is prohibited: Provided, however, That except as regards piratical copies, such prohibition shall not apply;

(a) To works in raised characters for the use of the blind;

(b) To a foreign newspaper or magazine, although containing matter copyrighted in the United States printed or reprinted by authority of the copyright proprietor, unless such newspaper or magazine contains also copyright matter printed or reprinted without such authorization;

(c) To the authorized edition of a book in a foreign language or languages of which only a translation into English has been copyrighted in this country;

(d) To any book published abroad with the authorization of the author or copyright proprietor when imported under the circumstances stated in one of the four subdivisions following, that is to say:

First. When imported, not more than one copy at one time, for individual use and not for sale; but such privilege of importation shall not extend to a foreign reprint of a book by an American author copyrighted in the United States;

Second. When imported by the authority or for the use of the United States;

Third. When imported, for use and not for sale, not more than one copy of any such book in any one invoice, in good faith, by or for any society or institution incorporated for educational, literary, philosophical, scientific, or religious purposes, or for the encouragement of the fine arts, or for any college, academy, school, or seminary of learning or for any State, school, college, university, or free public library in the United States;

Fourth. When such books form parts of libraries or collections purchased en bloc for the use of societies, institutions, or libraries designated in the foregoing paragraph, or form parts of the libraries or personal baggage belonging to persons or families arriving from foreign countries and are not intended for sale: Provided, That copies imported as above may not lawfully be used in any way to violate the rights of the proprietor of the American copyright or annul or limit the copyright protection secured by this title, and such unlawful use shall be deemed an infringement of copyright. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 320, sec. 31, 35 Stat. 1082.)

(d) United States Code, title 17, section 32:

Any and all articles prohibited importation by this title which are brought into the United States from any foreign country (except in the mails) shall be seized and forfeited by like proceedings as those provided by law for the seizure and condemnation of property imported into the United States in violation of the customs revenue laws. Such articles when forfeited shall be destroyed in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury or the court, as the case may be, shall direct: Provided, however, That all copies of authorized editions of copyright books imported in the mails or otherwise in violation of the provisions of this title may be exported and returned to the country of export whenever it is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury, in a written application, that such importation does not involve willful negligence or fraud. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 320, sec. 32, 35 Stat. 1083.)

ART. 543. Piratical copies.—(a) "Piratical copies" are defined to mean either actual copies or substantial reproductions of legally copyrighted works, produced and imported in contravention of the rights of the copyright proprietor.

(b) Collectors will admit to entry imported articles, including moving-picture films, concerning which either (1) adverse copyrights are claimed by parties in interest, or (2) an infringement only is claimed. In such cases the copyright claimants will be remitted to their remedies at law or equity.

(c) Collectors will not permit delivery of imported articles if either (1) representations are made that they are piratical copies and such representations are not denied by the importers, or (2) if the collector is satisfied that they do, in fact, constitute piratical copies as above defined and not mere infringements.

(d) Collectors will detain articles covered by the preceding paragraph, and report the facts to the Bureau for instructions.

(e) If the collector is not satisfied that an imported article is a piratical copy, and the importer files an affidavit denying that it is in fact such a piratical copy, and alleging that the detention of the article will result in a material depreciation of its value, or loss or damage to him, the article will be admitted to entry unless a written demand for its exclusion is filed by the copyright proprietor or other party in interest, setting forth that the imported article is a piratical copy of an article legally copyrighted in the United States, and unless there is also filed with the collector a good and sufficient bond conditioned to hold the importer or owner of such article harmless from any loss or damage resulting from its detention in the event that the same is held by the Bureau not to be prohibited from importation under section 30 of the act of March 4, 1909.

(f) Upon the filing of such demand and bond the collector will cause the article to be detained, and will fix a time at which the parties in interest may submit evidence to substantiate their respective claims, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, at the expense of the parties in interest, and transmitted by the collector to the Bureau with such report and recommendations as he may deem proper.

(g) No article will be presumed to be prohibited from entry as a piratical copy under said act, and the burden of proof that any article is in fact a piratical copy will be upon the party making such claim.

(h) If the article is held by the Bureau to be a piratical copy, its seizure and forfeiture will be directed in accordance with section 32 of the Copyright Act, and the bond will be returned to the copyright proprietor; but if not so held the collector will be directed to release the article and transmit the bond to the importer.

ART. 544. False notice of copyright.—(a) Books, periodicals, newspapers, music, moving-picture films, and other articles which bear a false notice of copyright—that is, words indicating that they have been copyrighted in the United States when they have not in fact been so copyrighted—are prohibited from importation.

(b) If the collector is satisfied that such importations are made without any willful intent to violate the law he may permit them to be exported under customs supervision, or may permit delivery upon the false notice of copyright being removed or obliterated.

ART. 545. First editions.—First editions of publications printed abroad, usually printed in limited numbers with an identification number and the signature of the author, constitute no exception to the prohibition against the unauthorized importation of copyrighted books.

ART. 546. Subsistence of copyright necessary to secure protection.—Before action may be taken by the Customs Service to prevent the importation of works under section 31 of the Copyright Act, it is necessary that there be a subsisting American copyright, either ad interim or full term. A mere notice of intent to secure a copyright on a particular work is insufficient to invoke the protection accorded by section 31.

FOODS, DRUGS, INSECTICIDES, FUNGICIDES, AND CAUSTIC OR CORROSIVE SUBSTANCES

ART. 547. Invoices—Declaration.—(a) Invoices of foods and drugs, when required by the Secretary of Agriculture, and all invoices of insecticides, fungicides, lead arsenates, Paris greens, and caustic or corrosive substances, shipped to the United States must have attached thereto a declaration of the shipper, made before a United States consular officer on consular Form 198, if foods or drugs, or on consular Form 218, if insecticides, fungicides, lead arsenates, Paris greens, or caustic or corrosive substances. As a general rule declarations are required for foods and drugs which have been manufactured, dried, or treated in any manner, except sugar, meat, and meat food products and animal casings. Representatives of the Food and Drug Administration of the Department of Agriculture should be consulted as to the articles for which no declaration is required.

(b) Even though otherwise declared on the invoice or entry, all substances ordinarily used as foods or drugs or insecticides or fungicides or caustic or corrosive substances will be treated as such. Shipments of substances ordinarily used as foods or drugs, intended for technical purposes, must be accompanied by a declaration stating that fact. If the Secretary of Agriculture shall so recommend, any such substances may be required to be denatured under supervision of that department.

ART. 548. Definitions.—(a) The word "food" includes all articles used for food, drink, confectionery, or condiments by man or other animals, whether simple, mixed, or compound.

(b) The word "drug" includes all medicines and preparations, recognized in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary for internal or external use, and any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for the cure, mitigation, or prevention of disease of man or other animals.

(c) The term "insecticide" includes any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for preventing, destroying, repelling, or mitigating any insects which may infest vegetation, man or other animals, or households, or be present in any environment whatsoever.

(d) The term "fungicide" includes any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for preventing, destroying, repelling, or mitigating any and all fungi that may infest vegetation or be present in any environment whatsoever.

(e) The term "caustic or corrosive substances" applies to the following-named substances and preparations containing them in the concentration of the percentages specified, when they are in parcels, packages, or containers suitable for household use:

| | Per Cent |
|---|---|
| 1. Hydrochloric acid ($HCl$) | 10 or more. |
| 2. Sulphuric acid ($H_2SO_4$) | 10 or more. |
| 3. Nitric acid ($HNO_3$) | 5 or more. |
| 4. Carbolic acid ($C_6H_5OH$) | 5 or more. |
| 5. Oxalic acid ($H_2C_2O_4$) | 10 or more. |
| 6. Any salt of oxalic acid | 10 or more. |
| 7. Acetic acid ($HC_2H_3O_2$) | 20 or more. |
| 8. Hypochlorous acid or its salts (except chlorinated lime) to yield available chlorine | 10 or more. |
| 9. Potassium hydroxide ($KOH$) | 10 or more. |
| 10. Sodium hydroxide ($NaOH$) | 10 or more. |
| 11. Silver nitrate ($AgNO_3$) | 5 or more. |
| 12. Ammonia water ($NH_3$) | 5 or more. |

The words "suitable for household use" mean and imply adaptability for ready or convenient handling in places where people dwell.

ART. 549. Marking of quantity on food packages.—The quantity of the contents of food in package form must be plainly and conspicuously marked in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count on the outside of the covering or container usually delivered to customers, and the quantity of the contents so marked should be the amount of food in the package. The marking must not be a part of or obscured by any legend or design, and must be so placed and in such characters as to be readily seen and clearly legible. (See Reg. 26 Ag. Dept. S. R. A. F. D. No. 1.)

ART. 550. Markings required for caustic or corrosive substances.—The container must bear a conspicuous, easily legible label or sticker containing the common name of the substance, the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, seller, or distributor, the word "Poison" in letters of the size and style required by the law, and directions for treatment in case of accidental personal injury.

ART. 551. Laboratory districts and branch laboratories.—The Secretary of Agriculture has established branch laboratories of the Food and Drug Administration at several ports of entry for the examination of products subject to the food and drugs act of June 30, 1906; for the collection of specimens of products subject to the insecticide act of April 26, 1910, and for the collection of specimens of products subject to the caustic poison act of March 4, 1927, the tea act of March 2, 1897, as amended, and the import milk act of February 15, 1927. A list of ports at which branch laboratories are located, and also of the ports located in the districts under each laboratory, will be published from time to time in the Treasury Decisions. Ports at which branch laboratories are located will be known as laboratory ports; other ports will be known as nonlaboratory ports.

ART. 552. Examination of invoices.—As soon as the importer makes entry, invoices covering foods, drugs, insecticides, fungicides, paris greens, lead arsenates, and caustic or corrosive substances, and public store packages thereof shall be made available with the least possible delay, for inspection by the Agricultural Department representative. When samples of free bulk goods are taken or examined on the docks by the station examiners, special care shall be taken that the invoices covering such goods shall be made available immediately.

ART. 553. Delivery under bond.—Merchandise subject to examination by representatives of the Department of Agriculture in accordance with the provisions of the food and drugs act, the insecticide act, and the caustic poison act shall not be delivered to the consignee prior to report of examination unless a bond has been given (customs Form 7551 or 7553) in an amount equal to the invoice value of the goods, together with the duty thereon.

ART. 554. Examination of cases not ordered to public store.—If at the time of inspection of any invoice by the representative of the Department of Agriculture it shall be found necessary to inspect packages not ordered to the public stores, such packages may be ordered in the usual manner, or verified samples procured for the use of that Department.

PROCEDURE AT LABORATORY PORTS

ART. 555. Samples.—When samples are desired the representative of the Department of Agriculture shall make suitable request on food and drug administration Form F. D. 791, attaching it to the invoice, and when no samples are desired shall stamp the invoice accordingly. The appraiser, before returning the invoice, shall see that it bears one of these evidences of examination. As soon as samples are requested, and on the same day, a notice shall be sent by the collector or appraiser to the importer on customs Form 6521 to the effect that samples have been taken and that the goods must be held intact pending a notice of the result of inspection and analysis, and in case of the failure of the goods to comply with the requirements of the food and drugs act, the insecticide act, or the caustic poison act, that they must be returned to the collector for disposition. This notice in the collector's name must be prepared simultaneously with the request for samples and by the employee filling out the request. It will contain a statement to the effect that samples will be paid for by the Food and Drug Administration upon presentation to it of proper vouchers, provided such samples are not found to be illegal.

ART. 556. Bulletin notices.—(a) From the above-described notices there shall be immediately prepared by the officer making out these notices a list, on combined Form F. D. 788, of all entries of food and drug products or insecticides or fungicides, or caustic or corrosive substances, from which samples have been requested and this notice shall be posted daily in the customhouse over the collectors' signature as a public notice to importers that goods must be held subject to examination until definite release is given in so far as the provisions of the food and drugs act, the insecticide act, or the caustic poison act are concerned.

(b) A list shall also be prepared on food and drug administration Form F. D. 786 by the chief of the food and drug inspection station of those invoices which have been stamped "No samples desired, Food and Drug Administration, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, per * * *." It shall be posted promptly each day on the official bulletin board most readily available to importers—preferably that of the collector or appraiser. If a public list is not posted on Form F. D. 786 individual notices shall be issued to the importer or his agent on Form F. D. 799 showing whether or not samples have been taken by the Food and Drug Administration for action under the food and drugs act, the insecticide act, or the caustic poison act.

(c) The chief of station shall send the collector a notice in duplicate when samples will be requested from every shipment of particular articles of food or drug, or insecticide or fungicide or caustic or corrosive substance. The collector, during the period over which such request is effective, shall keep continuously posted in the customhouse on his bulletin board one of the copies signed by him as an official notice for the benefit of importers, advising them that samples will be taken from all shipments of these articles and to the effect that if such goods are allowed to go into consumption, except as definite release is received from the chief of station and until after the provisions of the food and drugs act, the insecticide act, or the caustic poison act have been definitely complied with, they will be strictly held to the full penalty incurred under their penal bond given at time of entry. Combined Form F. D. 787 shall be used. In such instances the usual notices regarding sampling individual shipments may be omitted as unnecessary.

ART. 557. Suspension of liquidation.—(a) Liquidation of all entries of goods directed to be held pending examination will be suspended until it shall be ascertained whether or not delivery is refused under the law.

(b) Entries covering goods which are exported or destroyed under these regulations will be liquidated free of duty as a "nonimportation", and the estimated duties will be refunded as an excess of deposits.

ART. 558. Release—Notification of.—As soon as examination of the samples is completed, if no violation of the act is detected, the chief of the station shall send a notice of release to the importer on food and drug administration Form "F. D. 779–Release", a copy of this notice to be sent to the collector of customs for his information.

ART. 559. Violation—Notice of.—(a) If a violation of the food and drugs act, the insecticide act, or the caustic poison act is disclosed, the chief of the station shall send to the importer due notice on food and drug administration Form "F. D. 777–Importer, Date of Hearing", and at the same time to the collector similar notice, on Form "F. D. 777–Collector, Detention", requesting him to refuse delivery of the goods or to require their return to customs custody if by any chance the merchandise was released without the bond, referred to in article 553, being given.

(b) If the importer does not reply to the notice of hearing in person or by letter within the time allowed on the notice, a second notice, Form F. D. 777, marked "Second and Last Notice", shall be sent at once by the chief of the station, advising him that failure to reply will cause definite recommendation to the collector that goods be refused entry.

ART. 560. Rejection—Notice of.—(a) In all cases where the goods are to be refused entry, the chief of the station within 1 day after hearing, or if the importer does not appear or reply within 3 days after second notice, shall notify the collector accordingly on food and drug administration Form "F. D. 776a–Collector, Statement of Violation" in duplicate. Collectors will file by laboratory serial number or entry number as most convenient.

(b) Not later than 1 day after receipt of this notice the collector shall sign and transmit one of the copies to the importer, which shall serve as notification to the importer that the goods must be exported or destroyed within 3 months from such date, as provided by law; the other notice to be retained as office record and later returned as report to the chief of station. The importer shall in all cases return his notice to the collector, properly certified as to the information required, as the form provides, and it shall then be transmitted to the surveyor, or to the inspector where there is no surveyor.

ART. 561. Goods to be conditioned before release.—(a) If goods may be released after relabeling or after certain conditions are complied with, a notice shall be sent on food and drug administration Form F. D. 776a by the chief of station direct to the importer, a carbon copy being sent to the collector. This notice must state specifically the conditions to be performed so as to bring the performance thereof under the provisions of the customs bonds on consumption and warehouse entries, these bonds including provisions requiring compliance with all of the requirements of the food and drugs act, the insecticide act, and the caustic poison act, and all regulations and instructions issued thereunder. The notice will also state the officer to be notified by the importer when the goods are ready for inspection.

(b) The importer must return the notice to the collector or chief of station, as designated, with the certificate thereon filled out stating that he has complied with the prescribed conditions and that the goods are ready for inspection at the place named.

(c) This notice will be delivered to the inspection officer, who, after inspection, will indorse the results thereof on the back of the notice and return the same to the collector or the chief of the station, as the case may be.

(d) When the conditions to be complied with are under the supervision of the chief of the station, and these conditions have been fully met, he shall release the goods to the importer, using food and drug administration Form "F. D. 779 Release," sending a copy to the collector for his information.

(e) When, however, release is still conditioned upon destruction or rejection of some portion of the shipment or the importer has been unsuccessful in meeting the conditions imposed, and the goods must be exported or destroyed, the chief of station shall immediately notify the collector of the results of inspection, on food and drug administration Form F. D. 776a in duplicate. The collector shall sign and immediately transmit one copy to the importer and proceed in the usual manner.

(f) If the goods are detained subject to conditioning to be performed under the collector's supervision, the collector, as soon as conditions are performed, will notify the importer by letter that the goods are released. If goods are not properly conditioned within the period allowed, the goods must be exported or destroyed in accordance with the terms of the notice in F. D. 776a.

(g) When intent to violate the act is evident, the privilege of relabeling, cleaning, and similar renovation will not be allowed. Similarly, at the discretion of the station chief, this privilege will not be allowed in those cases where through carelessness or otherwise shipments in violation of the act are offered for entry when the exporter or importer has been informed in connection with violations in previous shipments. In general when shipments with identical labeling have been detained for relabeling three times, the privilege of relabeling will not be extended.

(h) When the privilege of sorting or renovating shipments is allowed, the importer must furnish satisfactory evidence as to the identity of the goods before release is given. This privilege shall not be granted except as stated conditions agreed to by the importer include segregation of goods at a stated place and apart from other goods of similar nature.

(i) The chief of station or other officer by him appointed when it is deemed advisable, may require of the importer an affidavit as evidence that the goods have been properly disposed of, such affidavit to be executed before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths generally.

ART. 562. Inspection service—Expenses.—(a) Collectors of customs will perform the inspection service whenever goods are to be exported or destroyed, and in other cases when there is no officer of the station available.

(b) Collectors of customs and representatives of the station will confer and arrange the apportionment of the inspection service according to local conditions. Officers of the station will, whenever feasible, perform the inspection service when cleaning, bringing up to standard, and like reconditioning operations are involved.

(c) Expenses incurred by the Government for storage, cartage, and labor arising from the detention for inspection and analysis of goods admitted to entry will be borne by the Government, and bills therefor will be rendered to the Secretary of Agriculture; but all charges for storage, cartage, and labor on goods which are refused admission or delivery shall be paid by the owner or consignee. Salaries of Government officers detailed to supervise the exportation of such goods are not within the meaning of the word "labor."

ART. 563. Notice of final action.—When final action has been taken on goods which have been refused entry or on goods release of which is subject to conditions to be performed under the collector's supervision, the collector shall send to the chief of station a notice of such final action, giving the date of release, destruction, or date of export and country to which exported, indorsed on food and drug administration Form F. D. 776a.

ART. 564. Shipment to other ports.—When imported merchandise subject to the provisions of the food and drugs act or the insecticide act or the caustic poison act is shipped to another port for reconditioning or exportation, the goods must be shipped under customs carriers' manifest, customs Form 7512, in the same manner as shipments in bond.

ART. 565. Penalties for noncompliance with instructions of chief of station.—(a) In case of failure to comply with the instructions or recommendations of the chief of the station as to the conditions under which the merchandise may be disposed of, the collector shall notify the chief of the station in all cases coming to this attention within three days after inspection or after the expiration of the three months allowed by law if no action is taken.

(b) The chief of the station upon receipt of the above-described notice, and in all cases of failure to meet the conditions imposed in order to comply with the provisions of the food and drugs act or the insecticide act or the caustic poison act coming directly under his supervision, shall transmit to the collector of customs such evidence as he may have at hand tending to indicate the importer's liability and make a recommendation in triplicate accordingly.

(c) The collector, within three days of the receipt of this recommendation, whether favorable or otherwise, shall notify the importer that the legal period of three months for exportation or destruction having expired, action will be taken within 30 days to enforce the terms of the bond, unless in the meantime application for remission or mitigation of penalties incurred with definite offer of settlement is filed with the collector. The application should be in triplicate with a full statement of reasons under oath.

(d) The collector shall transmit the application in duplicate, together with his own and the station chief's recommendation, both in duplicate, to the Secretary of the Treasury (Bureau of Customs), for action.

(e) The station chief shall be deemed a customs officer in enforcing these regulations.

PROCEDURE AT NONLABORATORY PORTS

ART. 566. Notification from collector, etc.—(a) At ports of entry where there is no station of the Food and Drug Administration, the collector or deputy, on the day when the first notice of expected shipment is received either by invoice or entry, shall notify the chief of station in whose territory the port is located, on Food and Drug Administration blue card Form "F. D. 755—Notice from Collector Nonlaboratory Ports."

(b) On day of receipt of card F. D. 755, the station chief shall mail to the collector the yellow card "F. D. 757—Notice to Collector Nonlaboratory Ports" if no sample is desired. This notice serves as an equivalent to stamping the invoices at laboratory ports with the legend "No samples desired. Food and Drug Administration, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture."

(c) If samples are desired, the station chief shall mail request on Form "F. D. 783—Nonlaboratory Ports, Request for Samples."

(d) The collector at once shall forward sample accompanied by Food and Drug Administration Form "F. D. 794—Label for Samples" (supplied in tablets of 100), or if found mutually more satisfactory, on the larger Form "F. D. 784—Imports, Description of Samples", which is used at laboratory ports for noting such data.

(e) When samples will be requested from each shipment of certain foods or drugs, insecticides, fungicides, or caustic or corrosive substances, the chief of station shall furnish to collectors and deputies at ports within the station's territory a list of such products, indicating size of sample necessary. Samples should then be sent promptly on arrival of goods, with Form F. D. 784 or F. D. 794, dispensing in such cases with use of request Forms F. D. 755 and F. D. 783.

(f) Blank forms mentioned above, "F. D. 755", "F. D. 784", and "F. D. 794—Label for Samples" tablets, will be supplied by the chief of station to the collectors or deputies located at ports within the station's territory.

(g) In all other particulars the procedure shall be the same at nonlaboratory ports as at laboratory ports except that the time consumed in delivery of notices by mail shall be allowed for.

MILK AND CREAM

ART. 567. Importation prohibited except under permit.—(a) Under the Import Milk Act of February 15, 1927, the importation into the United States of milk and cream is prohibited unless the person by whom such milk or cream is shipped or transported into the United States holds a valid permit therefor from the Secretary of Agriculture.

(b) The act provides that at the time of entry such milk and cream shall not exceed a certain temperature and bacteriological count.

(c) The provisions of the act apply to all milk and cream offered for importation into the continental United States. (Department of Agriculture Regulation 2.)

ART. 568. Permits.—(a) This act is enforceable by the Secretary of Agriculture, and customs officers are instructed not to permit any milk or cream to be imported unless the shipper holds a valid permit from the Secretary of Agriculture. Persons desiring to ship milk or cream to the United States should apply to the Food and Drug Administration, Department of Agriculture, for permits, and each can or container of milk or cream will be required to be tagged with the permit number.

(b) Collectors of customs will be furnished with a list of the permittees in their territory and with the permit numbers assigned to each permittee with the date when the permit becomes effective.

(c) Permits become invalid after the end of 1 year unless applications for renewal are filed prior to the dates of expiration of such permits.

ART. 569. Samples and examination.—Samples are taken from time to time by representatives of the Food and Drug Administration of importations of milk and cream with a view to examination to determining whether or not the requirements regarding temperature and bacterial counts have been met and with a view to the exclusion of shipments which are found not to meet these requirements.

INSPECTION AND DISPOSITION OF MEAT AND MEAT FOOD PRODUCTS

ART. 570. Meat and meat food products prohibited or restricted.—Tariff Act of 1930, section 306:

(a) If the Secretary of Agriculture determines that rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease exists in any foreign country, he shall officially notify the Secretary of the Treasury and give public notice thereof, and thereafter, and until the Secretary of Agriculture gives notice in a similar manner that such disease no longer exists in such foreign country the importation into the United States * * * of fresh, chilled, or frozen beef, veal, mutton, lamb, or pork, from such foreign country, is prohibited.

(b) No meat of any kind shall be imported into the United States unless such meat is healthful, wholesome, and fit for human food and contains no dye, chemical, preservative, or ingredient which renders such meat unhealthful, unwholesome, or unfit for human food, and unless such meat also complies with the rules and regulations made by the Secretary of Agriculture. All imported meats shall, after entry into the United States in compliance with such rules and regulations, be deemed and treated as domestic meats within the meaning of and subject to the provisions of the Act of June 30, 1906 (Thirty-fourth Statutes at Large, p. 674), commonly called the "Meat Inspection Amendment", and the Act of June 30, 1906 (Thirty-fourth Statutes at Large, p. 768), commonly called the "Food and Drugs Act", and acts amendatory of, supplementary to, or in substitution for such acts.

(c) The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this section, and in such rules and regulations the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe the terms and conditions for the destruction of all cattle, sheep, and other domestic ruminants, and swine, and of all meats, offered for entry and refused admission into the United States, unless such cattle, sheep, domestic ruminants, swine, or meats be exported by the consignee within the time fixed therefor in such rules and regulations.

ART. 571. Meat and meat food products defined.—(a) The term "meat and meat food products" for the purpose of these regulations shall include any imported article of food or any imported article which enters into the composition of food for human consumption, which is derived or prepared, in whole or in part, from any portion of the carcass of any cattle, sheep, swine, or goat, if such portion is all or a considerable and definite portion of the article, except such articles as organo-therapeutic substances, meat juice, meat extract, and the like, which are only for medicinal purposes and are advertised only to the medical profession.

ART. 572. Inedible grease, tallow, and fat.—No inedible grease, tallow, or other rendered inedible fat possessing the physical characteristics of an edible product shall be admitted into the United States for industrial use unless it has been first denatured or otherwise destroyed for food purposes and both ends of each container, such as barrels, tierces, or tank cars, etc., are painted white with durable paint and the name of the product and the word "inedible" conspicuously marked thereon in letters not less than 2 inches high, or, in the case of tank cars, not less than 4 inches high.

ART. 573. Foreign certificates of inspection.—(a) Meat and meat food products imported into the United States must be accompanied by certificates of foreign official inspection, which must be delivered by the consignee or agent to the inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry.

(b) Samples or any small quantities of meat or meat food products imported for the personal use of the consignee may be permitted entry without the production of foreign meat inspection certificates or compliance with the marking requirements. An affidavit of the consignee stating the appropriate facts should be filed with the invoice in lieu of the foreign meat inspection certificate for the information of the inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry.

ART. 574. Inspection.—(a) All meat and meat food products must be inspected and passed by inspectors of the Bureau of Animal Industry.

(b) Inspection will be made while the merchandise is in actual customs custody when such inspection takes place at the port at which the merchandise is cleared from customs, unless upon application of the consignee or agent authority is given by the inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry for inspection at the importer's premises or other place not under customs supervision. In such cases a bond shall be given by the consignee or agent for the redelivery of the merchandise if demanded by the collector, on customs Form 7551 or 7553, and the cars, wagons, vehicles, or packages shall be sealed or corded and sealed by a customs officer or an inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry with import-meat seals furnished by the Department of Agriculture, unless bearing United States customs seals. When cording is necessary for proper sealing, the cords shall be furnished and affixed by the importer or his agent. Import-meat seals or cords and seals may be broken only by a customs officer or inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry. In all cases where the merchandise is not cleared from customs at the port of first arrival, the regular "in bond" procedure shall be followed.

(c) Shipments of foreign meat and meat food products arriving in the United States by water at a port where an inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry is stationed shall either be inspected on the wharf at the time of unloading or be shipped under import-meat or United States customs seals to destination. If the shipments are destined to a point where no inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry is stationed, inspection shall be made on the wharf at the time of unloading. Shipments arriving by water at a port where no inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry is stationed, destined to a point where an inspector is stationed, shall be shipped under import-meat or customs seals to destination for inspection.

(d) Large quantities of imported meat and meat food products arriving by water at a port where no inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry is stationed destined to a point where no inspector is stationed shall be inspected on the wharf at the time of unloading. In such cases the collector at the port of first arrival shall immediately telegraph the nearest Bureau of Animal Industry inspector in charge, stating the quantity, kind of products, import-meat seals numbers, place of origin, and names of consignor and consignee. Upon receipt of such telegraphic information, the inspector in charge will immediately detail an inspector to make the required inspection. Small quantities (less than carload lots) arriving by water at a port where no inspector is stationed, destined to a point where no inspector is stationed, shall be shipped under import-meat or customs seals to the nearest point where an inspector is stationed for inspection at that point.

(e) Carload lots of foreign meat and meat food products routed through border ports, destined to a point where an inspector is stationed, shall proceed to destination under import-meat or customs seals for inspection at destination. Carload lots routed through border ports destined to a point where no inspector is stationed shall proceed to destination under import-meat or customs seals for inspection at destination. In such cases the inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry or the collector at the border port shall immediately telegraph the information specified in paragraph (d) to the Bureau of Animal Industry inspector in charge at the nearest point to which the meats are destined. Upon receipt of such telegraphic information, the inspector in charge will immediately detail an inspector to the point where the shipment is destined, to make the required inspection.

(f) Less than carload lots of imported meat and meat food products routed through border ports destined to a point where an inspector is stationed shall proceed to destination under cord and import-meat or customs seals for inspection at destination. Less than carload lots routed through border ports where an inspector is stationed destined to a point where no inspector is stationed shall be inspected at the border port. If there is no inspector stationed at the border port, less than carload lots destined to a point where there is no inspector stationed shall proceed under cord and import-meat or customs seals to the nearest point where an inspector is stationed for inspection at that point.

(g) In the absence of an inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry at the port of first arrival, collectors of customs will prepare notices on M. I. Forms 109–FF and 109–FF (special), reporting to the inspector in charge at the point where inspection is to be made, information regarding the sealing of railroad cars, trucks, and packages of foreign meat and meat food products. The Bureau of Animal Industry, Washington, D. C., will supply collectors with the M. I. Forms 109–FF and 109–FF (special) upon request.

ART. 575. Release.—Meat or meat food products will not be released for final delivery to the consignee until the collector of customs is advised by the Department of Agriculture, or its representative, that the same is admissible.

ART. 576. Rejection—Disposition.—Meat or meat food products refused admission by the Department of Agriculture must either be destroyed for food purposes under the supervision of its representative or exported under customs supervision within 30 days after notice of rejection, unless a different time shall be fixed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

ART. 577. Animal casings.—No animal casings shall be finally released for delivery to the consignee until the collector of customs is advised by the Department of Agriculture or its representative that the same is admissible.

QUARANTINE OF PLANTS AND PLANT PRODUCTS

ART. 578. Definitions.—(a) The term "nursery stock", plants and seeds, includes all field-grown florists' stock, trees, shrubs, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, fruit pits, and other seeds of fruit and ornamental trees or shrubs; also field, vegetable, and flower seeds, bedding plants, and other herbaceous plants, bulbs, and roots, and other plants and plant products for, or capable of, propagation.

(b) The term "plant products" includes:

(1) Fruits and vegetables, the edible, more or less succulent portions of food plants in the raw or unprocessed state, such as bananas, oranges, grapefruit, pineapples, tomatoes, peppers, lettuce, etc.

(2) Cotton, which for the purposes of these regulations shall mean raw or unmanufactured ginned cotton, either baled or unbaled, including all cotton which has not been woven or spun or otherwise manufactured, such as all forms of cotton waste, including thread waste, card strips, willowed fly, willowed picker, picker or blowings, and chum, and cotton waste, in any other form or under any other trade designation, and also including second-hand burlap or other fabric, which has been used, or is of the kind ordinarily used, for wrapping cotton.

(3) Seed cotton: Cotton fiber which has not been ginned and from which the seed has not been removed.

(4) Cottonseed products, such as cottonseed cake, meal, and all other cottonseed products except oil. (See T. D. 44693.)

ART. 579. Restrictions on entry—Marking—Inspection.—(a) The entry of plants and seeds (with the exception of field, vegetable, and flower seeds) and fruits and vegetables (no restrictions on fruits and vegetables grown in Canada) as defined in the first paragraph of article 578 or included in the list of special quarantines and orders (T. D. 44693) is prohibited unless and until a permit for the importation thereof has been issued by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Department of Agriculture, and unless the cases or other packages are plainly marked to indicate the nature and quantity of the contents, the district or locality and country where grown, the name and address of the exporter and the name and address of the importer and consignee.

(b) Every bale or other container of cotton offered for entry shall be plainly marked with such bale number and other marks as will distinguish the bales or containers from one another.

(c) Permits for shipments entered for immediate transportation to an interior port are required only at the port of arrival.

(d) Plants and plant products (as defined in art. 578) are prohibited entry under "Merchandise arriving from a contiguous country in sealed cars" destined for a port of entry in the United States as provided in articles 913 to 917, unless previously inspected and released by a representative of the Department of Agriculture.

(e) Permits are required for plants and plant products entered for transportation in bond to a foreign country.

ART. 580. Documents required on entry.—(a) The following described papers are required to be filed with the entry of plants or plant products:

(1) The importer's permit to import. The original permit will be furnished the collector by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

(2) The importer or his representative will submit to the collector at the port of first arrival for any type of entry, except rewarehouse and informal mail entries, a notice of arrival. For I. T. shipments a second notice will be submitted to the collector at the port of destination, and for diverted T. & E. shipments a second notice will be submitted to the collector at the port at which a change in entry is made. The collector at the port of arrival, as well as at destination, will compare the notice which he receives from the importer or his representative with the shipping documents, certify to its agreement therewith or note any discrepancies, and tranmit it to the Secretary of Agriculture. The merchandise is not to be released until the said notice has been submitted.

(3) The original foreign certificate of inspection.

(b) Further certificates relative to cottonseed products are now required under T. D. 37258.

(c) Blank forms will be furnished by the Department of Agriculture.

(d) In the case of importations intended to be shipped I. T., a quadruplicate of the consular invoice is required at the port of first arrival.

ART. 581. Release under bond.—(a) If the permit to import is not at hand at the time of arrival of nursery stock, plants, and seeds, other than those covered by special quarantine and other restrictive orders, from a country which maintains inspection, and such shipment meets the requirements of the Secretary of Agriculture it may be delivered to the consignee under a bond in double the invoiced value, but in no case less than $100, conditioned upon the redelivery thereof to the collector within 20 days after arrival and that the goods shall not be removed from the port of entry until the presentation of a permit from the Department of Agriculture.

(b) Plants and plant products arriving from countries without inspection service should not be delivered under bond pending the production of a permit to import.

(c) Cotton or cotton wrappings may be delivered to the permittee for disinfection within the limits of the port of entry upon the filing of a bond in the amount of $5,000 or in an amount equal to the invoice value of the cotton or wrappings, if such value be less than $5,000, with approved sureties, conditioned upon such disinfection and upon the redelivery of the cotton to the collector of customs within 40 days from arrival thereof at the port of entry.

(d) Seed of Indian corn or maize in the raw or unmanufactured state from southeastern Asia (including India, Siam, Indochina, and China), Malay Archipelago, Australia, New Zealand, Oceania, Philippine Islands, Formosa, Japan and adjacent islands, will be delivered to the permittee for sterilization upon the filing with the collector of customs of a bond with approved sureties, in the amount of $5,000, or in an amount equal to the invoice value of the corn if such value be less than $5,000, conditioned on sterilization of the corn under the supervision and to the satisfaction of, the inspector of the Department of Agriculture, and upon the redelivery of the corn to the collector of customs within 40 days from the arrival of the same at the port of entry.

(e) When entry under sterilization or other treatment is required for broomcorn or brooms and clean shelled corn or clean seed or related plants, the importation will be released to the permittee upon the filing with the collector of customs of a bond with approved sureties in the amount of $5,000, or in an amount equal to the invoice value if such value be less than $5,000, the conditions of which shall be that the importation shall be sterilized or otherwise treated under the supervision of an inspector of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, that no bale or other container thereof shall be broken open or removed from the port of arrival unless and until a written notice is given to such collector by the inspector that the importation has been properly sterilized or treated; and that the importation shall be redelivered to the collector of customs within 30 days after its arrival.

(f) Rice straw and rice hulls, which shall not be compressed to a density of more than 30 pounds per cubic foot, will be delivered to the permittee for treatment, and unless, within 20 days after the date of arrival of a shipment at the port at which the formal entry was filed, the importation has received the required treatment, due notice of which shall be given to the collector of customs by the inspector of the Department of Agriculture, demand will be made by the collector for redelivery of the shipment into customs custody under the terms of the entry bond, and, if such redelivery is not made, the shipment shall be removed from the country or destroyed.

ART. 582. Unclaimed shipments.—(a) If plants or plant products enterable into the United States under the rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture are unclaimed they may be sold with the consent of the Secretary of Agriculture to any person who can comply with the requirements of the regulations governing the material involved.

(b) Unclaimed plants and plant products not complying with the requirements mentioned herein should be destroyed by burning under customs supervision.

ART. 583. Detention—Search and seizure—Mail entries.—(a) Collectors of customs will refuse delivery of all plants or plant products, notice of the prohibition of which has been promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture under the various quarantines. Should importers refuse to immediately export prohibited shipments the collector will report the facts to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, and to the United States attorney, and withhold delivery pending advice from the bureau.

(b) In case of doubt as to whether any plants or plant products are prohibited, the collector will withhold the same from delivery pending advice from the Department of Agriculture.

(c) United States Code, title 7, section 164 (a):

> • • • Any employee of the Department of Agriculture, authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture to enforce the provisions of sections 151 to 164 of this title, and furnished with and wearing a suitable badge for identification, who has probable cause to believe that any person coming into the United States, or any vehicle, receptacle, boat, ship, or vessel, coming from any country or countries or moving interstate, possesses, carries, or contains any nursery stock, plants, plant products, or other articles the entry or movement of which in interstate or foreign commerce is prohibited or restricted by the provisions of sections 151 to 164 of this title, or by any quarantine or order of the Secretary of Agriculture issued or promulgated pursuant thereto, shall have power to stop and, without warrant, to inspect, search, and examine such person, vehicle, receptacle, boat, ship, or vessel, and to seize, destroy, or otherwise dispose of, such nursery stock, plants, plant products, or other articles found to be moving or to have been moved in interstate commerce or to have been brought into the United States in violation of sections 151 to 164 of this title or of such quarantine or order. (Act May 1, 1928; 45 Stat. 468.)

(d) The importation of nursery stock and fruits and vegetables through the mails is prohibited except under specific permit and accompanied by a special yellow and green mailing tag issued by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. Cotton and cotton waste may be imported by mail if the wrapper bears the name and address of the ultimate consignee in the lower left-hand corner and is addressed to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine at Washington, D. C., San Francisco, Calif., or Seattle, Wash., or if direct from Mexico, if it is addressed to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine at Laredo, Brownsville, or El Paso, Tex., or Nogales, Ariz.

(e) All parcel-post packages or mail articles other than parcel post which, either from examination or from external evidence, are found to contain plants or plant products are to be submitted to the representative of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

ART. 584. Disposition—Refund of duty.—Plants or plant products which have been found in violation of the plant quarantine act may be exported or destroyed under customs supervision and the estimated duties refunded as an excess of deposits.

GRAIN AND GRASS SEEDS

ART. 585. Prohibited importation.—The importation of seeds of alfalfa, barley, Canadian bluegrass, Kentucky bluegrass, awnless brome grass, buckwheat, clover, field corn, Kafir corn, meadow fescue, flax, millet, oats, orchard grass (cocksfoot), rape, rye, rye grass, sorghum, timothy, vetch, and wheat, or mixtures of seeds containing any of such seeds as one of the principal component parts, which are adulterated or unfit for seeding purposes, is prohibited. This prohibition does not apply to barley, buckwheat, field corn, Kafir corn, sorghum, flax, oats, broom millet, early fortune millet, rye, or wheat not intended for seeding purposes or when imported for the purpose of manufacture.

ART. 586. Samples required.—(a) The collector of customs shall cause to be drawn and forwarded for examination, without specific request from the Bureau of Plant Industry, United States Department of Agriculture, samples of all seeds of alfalfa, Canadian bluegrass, Kentucky bluegrass, awnless bromegrass, millet, orchard grass (cocksfoot), rape, rye grass, timothy, clover, meadow fescue, and vetch when entered for consumption, whether or not a consular invoice is presented on the entry thereof.

(b) Samples of shipments of barley, buckwheat, field corn, kafir corn, sorghum, flax, broomcorn millet, early fortune millet, oats, rye, and wheat shall be drawn and forwarded only when the Bureau of Plant Industry shall make specific request for such samples.

ART. 587. Method of sampling.—(a) When a shipment consists of a single lot of five sacks or less, each sack shall be sampled.

(b) When a shipment consists of a single lot of more than five sacks, every fifth sack, but not less than five sacks, shall be sampled.

(c) When a shipment consists of several lots, each lot shall be sampled as provided in a and b of this article.

(d) On request additional samples shall be drawn.

(e) The seed from the sacks sampled shall be made into a composite sample of not less than 1 pint.

(f) Each 200 sacks shall be represented by a composite sample.

(NOTE.—Delays in sampling shipments considerably in excess of 200 bags will be greatly reduced if importers will arrange with their foreign shippers to subdivide these lots and mark them so that each 200 sacks shall bear a distinctive shipping mark.)

(g) Recleaned seeds shall be sampled as provided in paragraphs a, b, c, d, e, and f, of this article and the weight of the recleaned seed stated on the sample.

(h) Samples shall be taken from each sack of screenings or refuse resulting from cleaning in bond of seeds imported subject to the act.

(i) The sample from each sack of cleanings or refuse shall be placed in a separate container which shall be marked with the weight of the screenings contained in the sack from which it was taken in addition to other identifying marks.

(j) Accompanying the composite samples shall be a statement containing the following information:

Port of entry ____ Entry No. ____
Date of entry ____ Invoice No. ____
Invoiced at ____
Kind of seed ____
Consignor ____
Address of consignor ____
Entered by ____
Ultimate consignee ____
Address of consignee ____
Quantity of each lot by weight ____
Price ____ Value ____
Distinguishing mark ____
Steamer or car ____
Evidence as to the country in which seed of alfalfa and/or red clover was grown ____

ART. 588. Samples—Where to be sent.—All samples drawn under article 587 shall be forwarded to the respective seed laboratories under which the ports are grouped in the following list of seed-laboratory districts, unless otherwise specifically requested by the Bureau of Plant Industry:

1. Division of Seed Investigations, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.—All ports in the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana, and the ports of Chicago, Ill., and Port Huron and Detroit, Mich.

2. Seed Laboratory, Purdue University, La Fayette, Ind.—All ports in the States of Indiana, Illinois (except the port of Chicago), Kentucky, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Michigan (except Port Huron and Detroit).

3. Seed Laboratory, Agricultural Experiment Station, Columbia, Mo.—All ports in the States of Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Texas, and New Mexico.

4. Seed Laboratory, Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oreg.—All ports in the States of Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Washington, and Oregon.

5. Seed Laboratory, California State Department of Agriculture, Sacramento, Calif.—All ports in the States of California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, and Territory of Hawaii.

ART. 589. Forwarding of samples of all forage-plant seeds.—Irrespective of the foregoing articles, collectors of customs will forward to the Division of Seed Investigations, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., 2-ounce samples of each lot of all grass, clover, and other forage-plant seeds imported into the United States not specified in article 586 (a).

ART. 590. Notice to consignee.—(a) No notification that samples have been drawn will be given when samples are drawn under article 586 (a), and the remainder of the shipment shall be held intact pending a decision of the Bureau of Plant Industry in the matter.

(b) The collector of customs shall immediately notify the consignee that samples of seeds under article 586 (b) have been drawn and that the remainder of the shipment must be held intact pending a decision of the Bureau of Plant Industry in the matter.

ART. 591. Examination of seeds—Delivery in bond.—After samples of seed offered for importation into the United States from any foreign country have been drawn, such seed shall be admitted only after the seed has been found to be neither adulterated nor unfit for seeding purposes within the meaning of the act and to have been colored as required by article 592: Provided, however, That collectors of customs may deliver to consignees shipments which have been sampled, on the execution of a bond on customs Form 7551 or 7553 conditioned upon the return of the shipments, or any part thereof, to the collector when demanded by him for any reason. The penalty of the bond or the charge against the term bond will be collected as liquidated damages for failure to return to the collector on demand any part of the seed or any part of the cleanings or refuse from the seed.

ART. 592. Kinds and proportions of seeds to be colored.—(a) Except as provided in paragraph (c) or (d) of this article, the importation into the United States of seeds of alfalfa or red clover, or any mixture of seeds containing 10 percent or more of the seeds of alfalfa and/or red clover, is prohibited, unless at least 1 percent of the seeds in each container is stained with the color required by paragraph (b) of this article.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) or (d) of this article, the seeds of alfalfa or red clover and any mixture of seeds containing 10 percent or more of the seeds of alfalfa and/or red clover grown in Canada shall be colored iridescent violet, and such seeds grown in any other country or region shall be colored green.

(c) Whenever the Secretary of Agriculture, after a public hearing, determines that seed of alfalfa or red clover from any foreign country or region is not adapted for general agricultural use in the United States, he shall publish such determination, and on and after the expiration of 90 days after the date of such publication and until such determination is revoked the importation into the United States of any such seeds or of any mixture of seeds containing 10 percent or more of such seeds of alfalfa and/or red clover is prohibited, unless at least 10 percent of the seeds in each container is stained a red color.

(d) Under the authority conferred by the Federal seed act, as amended April 26, 1926, notices have been issued by the Secretary of Agriculture directing that seed of alfalfa and red clover grown in the following countries be colored as follows:

Red clover seed grown in Italy, 10 percent red.
Alfalfa seed grown in Turkestan, 10 percent purple red.
Alfalfa seed grown in Africa, 10 percent red.
Alfalfa seed grown in South America, 10 percent orange-red.

Similar notices issued by the Secretary of Agriculture will be published in the Treasury Decisions.

(e) The importation into the United States of seeds of alfalfa or red clover or any mixture of seeds containing 10 percent or more of the seeds of alfalfa and/or red clover, which is not accompanied by the evidence specified in article 595, is prohibited, unless at least 10 percent of the seeds in each container is stained a red color.

ART. 593. Method of coloring seeds.—(a) Color used shall be in the form of an aqueous solution of such concentration as to color the seeds distinctly with the colors prescribed.

(b) The designated proportion of the seed will be completely colored and blended with the uncolored seed.

ART. 594. Coloring seeds under supervision.—(a) Seed required to be colored under article 592 may be colored at the expense of the importer under the supervision of a representative of the Bureau of Plant Industry, or of a customs officer, when the collector of customs is notified that such supervision by the Bureau of Plant Industry is impracticable.

(b) Seed claimed by the importer to have been colored, and upon sampling found not to be colored as required by article 592, at the option of the importer may be colored as provided in paragraph (a), or the shipment may be bulked and thoroughly mixed by the importer and resampled.

(c) No seed shall be colored by the importer until notice of the color to be applied has been given by the Bureau of Plant Industry.

ART. 595. Evidence as to country or region where seed was grown.—(a) A certificate, attached to the invoice, of the properly authorized official of the foreign country in which the seed was grown, to the effect that the seed of alfalfa or the seed of red clover or any mixture of seeds containing 10 percent or more of the seed of alfalfa and/or red clover was grown in that country, will be regarded as prima facie evidence of such fact. This certificate shall be in the following form:

Foreign Official Seed Certificate

(c) If the information contained in the certificate and declaration provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this article is not sufficient to show the country or region of origin of the seed, or if the invoice is not accompanied by such certificate or declaration of shipper, other evidence may be submitted to show such facts, or the seed may be allowed entry in compliance with paragraph (e) of article 592.

(d) In the event that the invoice is not accompanied by an official certificate of origin the color will not be designated until after the samples of the shipment drawn by the Customs Service have been examined by the Bureau of Plant Industry.

ART. 596. Conditions for release, recleaning, coloring.—If the Bureau of Plant Industry shall inform the collector that the seeds have been found to comply with the provisions of the act, the collector shall no longer detain the shipment under the act, and the bond given pursuant to article 591 shall be canceled; but if the seeds have been found not to comply with the provisions of the act, the collector may permit the importer to color and/or reclean the seeds under the bond required by article 591 at the expense of the importer, in accordance with articles 587, 597, and 598.

ART. 597. Exportation.—If the Bureau of Plant Industry shall inform the collector that the sample of the recleaned seeds is not satisfactory, or if the importer shall decline to reclean and/or color any shipment of seeds which the Bureau of Plant Industry has found not to comply with the provisions of the act or the requirements of the regulations under it, the collector shall refuse delivery of the shipment and require it to be exported under customs supervision and notify the Bureau of Plant Industry of such disposition.

ART. 598. Disposition of refuse from recleaning.—(a) If the Bureau of Plant Industry shall inform the collector of customs that the requirements of article 587 and/or 596 have been complied with, the seeds may be released to the owner or consignee only on condition that—

(1) The screenings and all other refuse shall have been destroyed under customs supervision; or

(2) The screenings and all other refuse shall have been ground or otherwise treated under customs supervision so as to render all seeds contained therein incapable of germination and the whole impossible of sale for seeding purposes; or

(3) The screenings and all other refuse shall have been sacked, weighed, sealed, and tagged for identification under customs supervision and retained for later destruction or further recleaning, subject to the conditions of the bond given pursuant to article 591 to secure return of the shipment.

(b) The screenings and all other refuse retained in accordance with method (a) (3) of this article may be recleaned at any time within 12 months from the date of the entry of the shipment. Unless recleaned within the said period of 12 months said screenings or other refuse shall be destroyed under customs supervision.

(c) The exportation of screenings, refuse, and other material removed from seeds prohibited entry under the Federal seed act is prohibited, unless the entire shipment including recleaned seed, screenings, refuse, and other material is exported under customs supervision.

ART. 599. Mixing seed prohibited.—Mixing any seed with a lot or shipment of seed offered for entry which has been found to be in violation of the Federal seed act or of the regulations under it is prohibited, except that in cases where it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bureau of Plant Industry that two or more such lots or shipments of seed offered for entry are of substantially the same quality and origin, they may be mixed for the purpose of recleaning upon a written permit of the Bureau of Plant Industry, provided that the different lots or shipments are covered by the same bond.

ART. 600. Notice of removal from port of entry.—The collector of customs will notify the Bureau of Plant Industry whenever seed which has been sampled under the Federal seed act is moved from one port to another port before being finally released.

ART. 601. Disposition of detained shipment.—The collector of customs shall inform the Bureau of Plant Industry of the disposition made of every shipment detained under the Federal seed act.

ART. 602. Failure to export.—Should the importer fail to export within 12 months from the date of refusal of delivery any seeds the delivery of which has been refused under the Federal seed act, the collector shall report the facts to the Bureau of Customs and to the United States attorney.

ART. 603. Report of violation.—The collector of customs shall report to the Bureau of Customs and to the United States attorney any violation of the Federal seed act which may come to his knowledge.

ART. 604. Request for review.—Requests for review of the findings of the Bureau of Plant Industry should be addressed to the Secretary of Agriculture, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

VIRUSES, SERUMS, AND TOXINS FOR TREATMENT OF DOMESTIC ANIMALS

ART. 605. Importation restricted.—The importation of viruses, serums, toxins, and analogous products for the treatment of domestic animals is prohibited unless the importer holds a permit from the Department of Agriculture covering the specific product. The collector of customs will notify the Bureau of Animal Industry, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., of the arrival of all such products, and refuse delivery thereof until he shall receive notice from the Department that a permit to import the shipment has been issued.

ART. 606. Labels.—Each separate container of virus, serum, toxin, or analogous product imported shall bear the true name of the product and the permit number assigned by the Department of Agriculture in the following manner: "U. S. Veterinary Permit No. —", or an abbreviation thereof authorized by the Bureau of Animal Industry. Each separate container shall also bear a serial number affixed by the manufacturer for identification of the product with the records of preparation thereof, together with a "return date."

ART. 607. Detention—Samples.—(a) The collector of customs will detain all shipments of such products for which no permit to import has been issued pending instructions from the Department of Agriculture.

(b) Samples will be furnished to the Department of Agriculture upon its request, and the collector will immediately notify the consignee thereof.

ART. 608. Disposition.—Viruses, serums, or toxins rejected by the Department of Agriculture will be delivered by the collector to that Department for destruction, or exported under customs supervision at the expense of the importer, if so requested by the Department of Agriculture.

VIRUSES, SERUMS, TOXINS, ANTITOXINS, AND ANALOGOUS PRODUCTS FOR THE TREATMENT OF MAN

ART. 609. Licensed establishment.—(a) Viruses, serums, toxins, antitoxins, and analogous products for the treatment of the diseases of man are prohibited entry for sale, barter, or exchange unless propagated in an establishment holding an unsuspended and unrevoked license.

(b) A list of the establishments holding licenses, the number of the license, and the names of the several products produced are published periodically in the Treasury Decisions.

ART. 610. Labels—Samples.—Each package of such products imported for sale, barter, or exchange must be labeled or plainly marked with the name of the article, the name, address, and license number of the manufacturer, and the time beyond which the contents can not be expected to yield their specific results. Samples of the same lot or laboratory number must accompany each importation for sale, barter, or exchange, and such samples will be forwarded by the collectors to the National Institute of Health of the United States Public Health Service at Washington, D. C.

ART. 611. Detention, examination, disposition.—(a) Collectors of customs will detain all importations of viruses, serums, toxins, antitoxins, and analogous products for the treatment of the disease of man pending examination by the National Institute of Health unless satisfied from evidence furnished at the time of entry, in the form of an affidavit or otherwise, that the products are not intended for sale, barter, or exchange.

(b) If the shipment is imported for sale, barter, or exchange and is found by the National Institute of Health to be admissible, the collector will release the same upon receipt of a report from the Public Health Service that the article is admissible.

(c) If the Public Health Service reports that the articles were found upon examination not to conform to the law and the regulations, the collector will refuse delivery and permit the exportation or destruction thereof under customs supervision at the option of the importer.

INSPECTION AND QUARANTINE OF CERTAIN DOMESTIC ANIMALS, ANIMAL BY-PRODUCTS, ANIMAL FEEDING MATERIALS, ETC.

ART. 612. Animals—Importation prohibited.—(a) Tariff Act of 1930, section 306 (a) and (c):

(a) If the Secretary of Agriculture determines that rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease exists in any foreign country, he shall officially notify the Secretary of the Treasury and give public notice thereof, and thereafter, and until the Secretary of Agriculture gives notice in a similar manner that such disease no longer exists in such foreign country, the importation into the United States of cattle, sheep, or other domestic ruminants, or swine, * * * from such foreign country, is prohibited.

(c) The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this section, and in such rules and regulations the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe the terms and conditions for the destruction of all cattle, sheep, and other domestic ruminants, and swine, and of all meats, offered for entry and refused admission into the United States, unless such cattle, sheep, domestic ruminants, swine, or meats be exported by the consignee within the time fixed therefor in such rules and regulations.
